"Supplementary letters patent;"

(f) "Supplementary letters patent" shall mean any letters patent, under the Great Seal of Ontario, granted to a company subsequent to the letters patent incorporating or re-incorporating the company;

"The Gazette."

(g) "The Gazette" shall mean The Ontario Gazette. 60 V. c. 28, s. 2.

Application of Act.

Incorporation of companies by letters patent.

3. No company shall hereafter be incorporated under The Ontario Joint Stock Companies' Letters Patent Act, and the amendments thereto, being chapter 157 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, and chapter 190 of these Revised Statutes. 60 V. c. 28, s. 3, part.

Act to apply to companies hereafter incorporated by letters patent.

4. The incorporation of every company hereafter by letters patent shall be governed by this Act, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to every such company, subject to the provisions of any general Act applying to the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 3, part.

Sections which apply to companies incorporated by letters patent before 13th April, 1897.

5. The provisions of sections 17 to 105 inclusive, shall apply to every company incorporated before the 13th day of April, 1897, by letters patent issued under the authority of an Act of the Legislature of Ontario, subject to the provisions of any special Act or general Act applying to the company, other than said chapter 157 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, and the amendments thereto. 60 V. c. 28, s. 4.

Sections which apply to companies incorporated on or before 13th April, 1897, by special Act.

6. The provisions of sections 17 to 97, inclusive, and sections 103 to 106, inclusive, shall apply to every company incorporated on or before the 13th day of April, 1897, by special Act of the Legislature of Ontario for purposes or objects within the scope of this Act, except such provisions as are inconsistent with the provisions of the special Act or amending Acts, or other special Acts relating to the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 5.

Sections which apply to companies incorporated after 13th April, 1897, by special Act.

7. The provisions of sections 17 to 97, inclusive, and sections 103 to 106, inclusive, shall, subject to any variations and exceptions by the special Act, apply to every company incorporated after the 13th day of April, 1897, by special Act of the Legislature of Ontario for purposes or objects within the scope of this Act, and the said provisions, subject as aforesaid, shall form part of the special Act and shall be construed together therewith as one Act. 60 V. c. 28, s. 6.

Rev. Stat., 1887, c. 156, not to apply to companies incorporated after 13th April, 1897, by special Act.

8. The provisions of The Ontario Joint Stock Companies General Clauses Act, being chapter 156 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, and chapter 189 of these Revised Statutes, shall not apply to any company incorporated after the 13th day of April, 1897, by special Act of the Legislature of Ontario for any of the purposes or objects within the scope of this Act. 60 V. c. 28, s. 7.

Incorporation by Letters Patent.

Companies formed for certain purposes may be incorporated by letters patent.

9. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by letters patent, grant a charter to any number of persons, not less than five, who petition therefor, creating and constituting such persons and any others who have become subscribers to the memorandum of agreement, a body corporate and politic for any of the purposes or objects to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario extends, except the construction and working of railways, the business of insurance and the business of a loan corporation within the meaning of The Loan Corporations Act. 60 V. c. 28, s. 8.

Petition.

10.—(1) The applicants for incorporation, who must be of the full age of twenty-one years, may petition the Lieutenant-Governor, through the Provincial Secretary, for the issue of letters patent. The petition of the applicants shall show:

Name to be free from objection.

(a) The proposed corporate name of the company with the word "Limited" as the last word thereof; and such name shall not on any public ground be objectionable and shall not be that of any known company, incorporated or unincorporated, or of any partnership, or individual, or any name under which any known business is being carried on, or so nearly resembling the same as to deceive; provided, however, that a subsisting company, or partnership, or individual, or the person carrying on such business may consent that such name, in whole or in part, be granted to the new company;

Object.

(b) The objects, simply stated, for which the company is to be incorporated;

Head-office and place of service.

(c) The place within the Province of Ontario where the head-office of the company is to be situated, and where its principal books of account and its corporation records are to be kept and to which all communications and notices may be addressed;

Capital.

(d) The amount of the capital stock of the company;

Shares.

(e) The number of shares and the amount of each share ;

Names of applicants.

(f) The name in full, the place of residence and the calling of each of the applicants ;

Directors.

(g) The number, not less than three, of the board of directors, and the names of the applicants, not less than three, who are to be the provisional directors of the company.

Petition.

(2) The petition may be similar to, but in its essential features shall comply with, Schedule B to this Act, and shall be accompanied by a memorandum of agreement, executed in duplicate, which may be similar to, but which shall in its essential features comply with, Schedule A to this Act

Memo. of agreement.

Payments on shares.

(3) In case any amount has been paid in on shares taken, by transfer of property to a trustee, the Provincial Secretary may require such evidence as shall be satisfactory to him of such transfer and of the kind, nature and value of the property and the manner in which, and the person or persons or corporate body by whom the property transferred, or any other payment, is held in trust for the company with a view to its incorporation.

Petitioners to be bona fide subscribers for shares.

(4) Each petitioner shall be the bona fide holder in his own right of the share or shares for which he has subscribed in the memorandum of agreement.

(5) The petition may ask for the embodying in the letters patent of any provision which, otherwise under this Act, might be embodied in any by-law of the company when incorporated. 60 V. c. 28, s. 9.

Power to make general regulations as to notice, etc.

11. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, make regulations with respect to the following matters, namely :

(a) The cases in which notice of application for letters patent or supplementary letters patent under this Act must be given ;

(b) The granting to one company power to carry on more than one kind of undertaking ;

(c) The forms of letters patent, supplementary letters patent, licenses, notices and other instruments and documents relating to applications and other proceedings under this Act ;

(d) The form and manner of the giving of any notice required by this Act ; and such regulations shall be published in The Gazette. 60 V c. 28, s. 10.

Preliminary conditions to be established.

12. Before the letters patent are issued, the applicants shall establish to the satisfaction of the Provincial Secretary, or such other officer as may be charged by him to report thereon, the sufficiency of their memorandum of agreement and petition, and show that the proposed name is not open to objection under section 10 of this Act. 60 V. c. 28, s. 11.

Proof of matters under this Act.

13.—(1) The Provincial Secretary, the Assistant Provincial Secretary, or such other officer may for the purposes aforesaid, or for any other purpose under this Act, take any requisite evidence in writing under oath, or affirmation.

(a) Proof of any matter which may be necessary to be made under this Act, may be made by statutory declaration, or by affidavit, or by deposition before the Provincial Secretary, or Assistant Provincial Secretary, or other officer as aforesaid, or before any Justice of the Peace, or Commissioner for taking Affidavits, or Notary Public, who, for this purpose, are hereby authorized and empowered to administer oaths or to take affirmations. 60 V. c. 28, s. 12.

Name and incidental powers of company may be varied.

14. The Lieutenant-Governor may give to the company a corporate name wholly or partially different from the name proposed by the applicants in their petition, and may in the letters patent vary the powers of the company from the powers stated in the petition. 60 V. c. 28, s. 13.

Notice of issuing letters patent.

15. Notice of the granting of the letters patent shall be given forthwith by the Provincial Secretary in The Gazette, and from the date of the letters patent the petitioners and the persons who signed the memorandum of agreement and their successors, respectively, shall be a corporation by the name mentioned in the letters patent and shall be invested with all the powers, privileges and immunities which are incident to such corporation, or are expressed, or included in the letters patent and The Interpretation Act, and which are necessary to carry into effect the intention and objects of the letters patent and such of the provisions of this Act as are applicable to the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 14.

Rev. Stat. c. 1.

First Meeting.

Meeting of company for organization.

16.—(1) The provisional directors of the company shall, by a registered letter addressed to each shareholder, call a general meeting of the company to be held within two months of the date of the letters patent, for the purpose of organizing the company for the commencement of business. Such first general meeting shall be held at such convenient place as the directors may determine.

(2) If the said meeting is not called by the provisional directors within the time required by this section, any three or more shareholders in the company shall have power to call the meeting and to proceed to the organization of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 21.

Capital, Shares, Etc.

Increase of capital.

17.—(1) The company at any time after nine-tenths of the capital stock of the company has been subscribed and ten per centum thereon paid in, but not sooner, may, by by-law, provide for the increase of the capital stock of the company to any amount which it considers requisite for the due carrying out of the undertaking of the company.

(2) The by-law shall declare the number and value of the shares of the new stock, and may prescribe the manner in which the same are to be allotted; otherwise, the control of such allotment shall vest absolutely in the directors. 60 V. c. 28, s. 15.

Reduction of capital.

18.—(1) The company if it sees fit at any time, may, by by-law, provide for the decrease of the capital stock of the company to any amount which it may consider sufficient for the due carrying out of the undertaking of the company and advisable.

By-law for that purpose.

(2) The by-law shall declare the number and value of the shares of the stock as so decreased; and the allotment thereof or the rule or rules by which the same is to be made.

Liability of shareholders on decrease.

(3) The liability of shareholders to persons who are, at the time the stock is decreased, creditors of the company, shall remain as though the stock had not been decreased. 60 V. c. 28, s. 16.

Re-division of shares.

19. The company may at any time, by by-law, provide for the re-division of the existing shares into shares of smaller or larger amount. 60 V. c. 28, s. 17.

By-law to be confirmed by supplementary letters.

20. No by-law for increasing or decreasing the capital stock of the company, or re-dividing the shares, shall have any force or effect whatever unless and until it has been sanctioned by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of the shareholders at a general meeting of the company duly called for considering the by-law, and has afterwards been confirmed by supplementary letters patent. 60 V. c. 28, s. 18.

Petition for supplementary letters patent.

21.—(1) At any time not more than six months after the sanction of such by-law, the company may petition the Lieutenant-Governor, through the Provincial Secretary, for the issue of supplementary letters patent to confirm the same.

By-law, etc., to be produced with petition.

(2) With the petition the company shall produce the by-law and establish to the satisfaction of the Provincial Secretary, or of such other officer as may be charged by him to report thereon, the due passage and sanction of the by-law, and if the petition is in respect of the increase or decrease of capital, the bona fide character of the increase or decrease of capital thereby provided for.

Granting of supplementary letters patent.

(3) Upon due proof so made, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by supplementary letters patent confirm the by-law, and, with respect to an increase or decrease in capital, may, with the consent of the company, by the supplementary letters patent, fix the amount of such increase or decrease at such sum as to him may seem proper; and notice thereof shall be given forthwith by the Provincial Secretary in The Gazette; and thereupon, from the date of the supplementary letters patent, the shares shall be re-divided, or the capital stock of the company shall be and remain increased or decreased, as the case may be, to the amount, in the manner, and subject to the conditions set forth by such by-law and supplementary letters patent; and the whole of the stock as so increased or decreased shall become subject to the provisions of this Act in like manner (so far as may be) as though every part thereof had originally formed part of the stock of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 19.

Notice thereof.

Effect of such letters patent.

Preferential stock.

22.—(1) The directors may make a by-law for creating and issuing any part of the capital stock as preference stock, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends and otherwise over ordinary stock as may be declared by the by-law.

Special rights of preference shareholders.

(2) The by-law may provide that the holders of shares of such preference stock shall have the right to select a certain stated proportion of the board of directors, or may give them such other control over the affairs of the company as may be considered expedient.

Unanimous sanction required.

(3) No such by-law shall have any force or effect whatever until after it has been unanimously sanctioned by a vote of the shareholders, present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company duly called for considering the same, or unanimously sanctioned in writing by the shareholders of the company; provided, however, that if the by-law be sanctioned by three-fourths in value of the shareholders of the company, the company may, through the Provincial Secretary, petition the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for an order approving the said by-law, and the Lieutenant-Governor may, if he sees fit, approve thereof, and from the date of such approval the by-law shall be valid and may be acted upon.

Rights and liabilities of holders of preference stock.

(4) Holders of shares of such preference stock shall be shareholders within the meaning of this Act, and shall in all respects possess the rights and be subject to the liabilities of shareholders within the meaning of this Act, provided, however, that in respect of dividends and otherwise, they shall as against the ordinary shareholders, be entitled to the preferences and rights given by such by-law.

Rights of creditors not impaired.

(5) Nothing in this section contained or done in pursuance thereof, shall affect or impair the rights of creditors of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 20

USE OF THE WORD "LIMITED."

Unabbreviated word "limited" to be inserted in all notices, etc.

23.—(1) The company shall keep painted, or affixed its name with the unabbreviated word "Limited" as the last word thereof, on the outside of every office, or place in which the business of the company is carried on, in a conspicuous position, in letters easily legible; and shall have its name with the said unabbreviated word in legible characters on its seal and shall have its name with the said unabbreviated word mentioned in legible characters in all notices, advertisements and other official publications of the company, and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, indorsements, cheques and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of such company, and in all bills of parcels, invoices and receipts of the company.

Directors liable on written contracts, which do not show limited liability.

(2) The directors of the company shall be jointly and severally liable upon every written contract or undertaking of the company on the face whereof the unabbreviated word "Limited" is not distinctly written or printed as the last word in the name of the company where it first occurs in such contract or undertaking.

Penalty for violation of preceding section.

(3) Every company which does not keep painted or affixed its name, with the unabbreviated word "Limited" as the last word thereof, in the manner directed by this section, shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars for every day during which such name is not so kept painted or affixed.

Penalty for permitting violation.

(4) Every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits such default, shall be liable to the like penalty.

Penalty for using or authorizing use of seal without word "limited" on it.

(5) Every director, manager or officer of the company, and every person on its behalf, who uses or authorizes the use of any seal purporting to be a seal of the company whereon its name, with the said unabbreviated word "Limited" as the last word thereof, does not appear, or who issues or authorizes the issue of any notice, advertisement or other official publication of such company, or who signs or authorizes to be signed on behalf of such company any bill of exchange, promissory note, indorsement, cheque, order for money or goods, or who issues or authorizes to be issued any bill of parcels, invoice or receipt of the company, wherein its name, with the said word as the last word thereof, is not mentioned in manner aforesaid, shall incur a penalty of two hundred dollars and shall also be personally liable to the holder of any such bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque or order for money or goods for the amount thereof, unless the same is duly paid by the company.

(6) This section shall not apply to any company not incorporated for commercial, mercantile, manufacturing, trading or business purposes or objects, where such company by its charter of incorporation is declared to be exempt from the provisions thereof, or to any company not incorporated for any of the said purposes, which, on proof thereof being shown to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, is, on, from and after a date to be set forth in the order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council in that behalf, declared to be exempt. 60 V. c. 28, s. 22. Proviso.

Change of Name.

24. In case it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that any company is incorporated under a name the same as, or so similar to that of an existing company, partnership, individual, or to any name under which any existing business is being carried on, as to deceive, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor by an Order in Council to change the name of the company to some other name to be set forth in the order; and no such alteration of name shall affect the rights or obligations of the company; and all proceedings may be continued and commenced by or against the company by its new name, that might have been continued or commenced by or against the company by its former name. 60 V. c. 28, s. 23. Change of name if objectionable.

Incidental Powers of Companies.

25. The company shall, in addition to its other powers, possess power: Powers incident to incorporation.

(a) To alter, or change its common seal at pleasure; Seal.

(b) To take over, acquire, hold, use, sell and convey such personal property and movables, machinery, trademarks, patents, licenses, and franchises or rights thereunder as may be deemed necessary, or expedient for the purposes for which the company is incorporated; Personal property.

(c) To erect on its property such works, shops, mills, buildings, houses and structures, and to make such improvements of what kind soever as may be convenient or necessary for the due carrying out of its undertaking; Buildings.

(d) To construct and maintain, or aid in the construction and maintenance of such works and improvements as may be deemed necessary, or advantageous to the due carrying out of its undertaking; Construction and maintenance of useful works.

General powers.

(e) To exercise and enjoy all the privileges and immunities and to do all acts requisite, or incidental to the due carrying on of its undertaking;

Branches of business.

(f) To carry on any branch or branches of business incidental to the due carrying out of the objects for which the company was incorporated, and subsidiary thereto, and necessary to enable the company profitably to carry on its undertaking.

Real estate.

(g) To acquire by purchase, lease, or other title, and to hold, use, sell, alienate and convey any real estate necessary for the carrying on of its undertaking, and the company shall upon its incorporation become and be invested with all the property and rights, real and personal, theretofore held by or for it under any trust created with a view to its incorporation.

Restrictions as to holding real estate.

Provided, however, that, unless other special statutory enactments apply, no parcel of land, or interest therein at any time acquired by the company and not required for its actual use and occupation, or not held by way of security, or not situate within the limits, or within one mile of the limits of any city or town in this Province, shall be held by the company, or by any trustee on its behalf, for a longer period than seven years after the acquisition thereof, but shall be absolutely sold and disposed of, so that the company shall no longer retain any interest therein unless by way of security; and further provided, that any such parcel of land, or any interest therein not within the exceptions hereinbefore mentioned, held by the company for a longer period than seven years, without being disposed of, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty for the use of this Province; provided also that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may extend the said period from time to time not exceeding in the whole twelve years; and further provided, that no such forfeiture shall take effect, or be enforced until the expiration of at least six calendar months after notice in writing to the company of the intention of Her Majesty to claim such forfeiture; and it shall be the duty of the company to give the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, when required, a full and correct statement of all lands at the date of such statement held by the company, or in trust for the company, and subject to these provisoes. 60 V. c. 28, s. 24.

Stock, Calls, Etc.

Allotment of stock.

26. If the letters patent or special Act make no other definite provision, the shares of stock of the company, so far as they are not allotted thereby, shall be allotted when and as the directors by by-law or otherwise ordain. 60 V. c. 28, s. 25.

27. The shares of stock of the company shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable on the books of the company, in such manner only, and subject to all such conditions and restrictions as by this Act, or by the special Act, or by the letters patent or by-laws of the company may be prescribed. 60 V. c. 28, s. 26. Stock, personal estate.

28. The directors may refuse to allow the entry, in any such book, of any transfer of shares of stock whereof the whole amount has not been paid in; and whenever entry is made in such book of any transfer of stock, not fully paid in, to a person not being of apparently sufficient means, the directors present when such entry is authorized shall be jointly and severally, liable to the creditors of the company in the same manner and to the same extent as the transferring shareholder, but for such entry, would have been; but if any director present when such entry is allowed, forthwith, enters a written protest against the same, and within eight days thereafter causes such protest to be notified, by registered letter, to the Provincial Secretary, such director may thereby, and not otherwise, exonerate himself from such liability. 60 V. c. 28, s. 27. Directors may refuse transfer of stock in certain cases. Their liability if they allow transfers to persons without means. How director may exonerate himself.

29. No transfer of shares of stock, unless made by sale under execution, or under the order or judgment of some competent Court in that behalf, shall be valid for any purpose whatever, save only as exhibiting the rights of the parties thereto towards each other, and as rendering the transferee liable, ad interim, jointly and severally with the transferor, to the company and its creditors, until entry thereof has been duly made in the books of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 28. Transfer valid only after entry.

30. No share shall be transferable until all previous calls thereon have been fully paid in, or until declared forfeited for non-payment of calls thereon. 60 V. c. 28, s. 29. Restriction as to transfers.

31. The company shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, in respect of any share; and the receipt of the shareholder in whose name the same stands on the books of the company shall be a valid and binding discharge to the company for any dividend or money payable in respect of such share, whether or not notice of the trust has been given to the company; and the company shall not be bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipt. 60 V. c. 28, s. 30. Company not to be liable in respect of trusts, etc.

32. The directors of the company may call in and demand from the shareholders thereof, respectively, the amount unpaid on shares of stock by them subscribed or held, at such times and places and in such payments or instalments as the letters patent, or this Act, or the by-laws of the company require or allow; and interest shall accrue at the legal Calling in instalments.

rate for the time being, upon the amount of any unpaid call, from the day appointed for payment of such call. 60 V. c. 28, s. 31.

Calls.
Ten per cent. within first year.

33. Not less than ten per centum upon the allotted shares of stock of the company shall, by means of one or more calls formally made, be called in and made payable within one year from the incorporation of the company; the residue when and as the by-laws of the company direct. 60 V. c. 28, s. 32.

Enforcement of payment of calls by action.

34. The company may enforce payment of all calls and interest thereon by action in any court of competent jurisdiction; and in such action it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient to state that the defendant is a holder of one share or more, stating the number of shares, and is indebted in the sum of money to which the calls in arrear amount, in respect of one call or more upon one share or more, stating the number of calls and the amount of each, whereby an action has accrued to the company under this Act; and a certificate under the seal and purporting to be signed by any officer of the company, to the effect that the defendant is a shareholder, that such call or calls has or have been made and that so much is due by him and unpaid thereon, shall be received in all Courts as prima facie evidence to that effect. 60 V. c. 28, s. 33.

Forfeiture of shares.

35. If after such demand or notice as by the special Act, or by the letters patent or by-laws of the company is prescribed, any call made upon any share or shares is not paid within such time as by such Act, or by such letters patent or by-laws may be limited in that behalf, the directors in their discretion, by resolution to that effect, reciting the facts and duly recorded in their minutes, may summarily forfeit any shares whereon such payment is not made; and the same shall thereupon become the property of the company and may be disposed of as, by by-law or otherwise, the company may ordain. 60 V. c. 28, s. 34.

Trustees, etc., may vote.

Mortgagor of stock may vote.

36.—(1) Every executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, shall represent the stock in his hands, at all meetings of the company, and may vote accordingly as a shareholder; and every person who pledges his stock may nevertheless represent the same at all such meetings, and may vote accordingly as a shareholder.

Joint holders of stock.

(2) If stock be held jointly by two or more persons, any one of them present at a meeting may in the absence of the other, or others, vote thereon, but if more than one joint stockholder be present or be represented by proxy, they shall vote together on the stock jointly held. 60 V. c. 28, s. 35.

Liability, Etc., of Shareholders.

Liability of shareholders.

37.—(1) Each shareholder, until the whole amount of his shares of stock has been paid up, shall be individually liable to the creditors of the company to an amount equal to that not paid up thereon, but shall not be liable to an action therefor by any creditor before an execution against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; and the amount due on such execution, but not beyond the amount so unpaid of his said shares of stock, shall be the amount recoverable with costs, against such shareholder. 60 V. c. 28, s. 36, first clause.

Set-off.

(2) Any shareholder may plead by way of defence, in whole or in part, any set-off which he could set up against the company except a claim for unpaid dividends, or a salary or allowance as a president or a director of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 36 (a).

Shareholders not liable be-

(3) The shareholders of the company shall not as such be held responsible for any act, default or liability whatsoever, of the company, or for any engagement, claim, payment, loss, injury, transaction, matter or thing whatsoever, relating to or connected with the company, beyond the unpaid amount of their respective shares in the capital stock thereof. 60 V. c. 28, s. 36 (b).

Trustees, etc., not personally liable.

38. No person holding shares of stock in the company as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, shall be personally subject to liability as a shareholder; but the estates and funds in the hands of such person shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent, as the testator or intestate or the minor, ward, or person interested in the trust fund, would be, if living and competent to act and holding such stock in his own name. 60 V. c. 28, s. 37.

Mortgagees.

39. No person holding shares of stock as collateral security, shall be personally subject to liability as a shareholder; but the person transferring such shares as such collateral security shall be considered as holding the same, and shall be liable as a shareholder in respect thereof. 60 V. c. 28, s. 38.

Directors and their Powers, Etc.

Board of directors.

40. The affairs of the company shall be managed by a board of not less than three directors who shall be elected by the shareholders in general meeting of the company assembled at some place within this Province. 60 V. c. 28, s. 39.

Provisional directors.

41. The persons named as provisional directors in the special Act or in the letters patent shall be the directors of the company, until replaced by others duly elected in their stead. 60 V. c. 28, s. 40.

Qualification of directors.

42. No person shall hold office as a director unless he is a shareholder owning stock absolutely in his own right, and not in arrear in respect of any call thereon, and where any person who is a director ceases to be a bona fide holder of stock in the company, he shall thereupon cease to be a director. 60 V. c. 28, s. 41, first clause.

Yearly elections.

43.—(1) The election of directors shall take place at the annual meeting, all the members of the board retiring, and (if otherwise qualified) being eligible for re-election.

Ballot.

(2) Elections of directors shall be by ballot;

Vacancies.

(3) Vacancies occurring in the board of directors may, unless the by-laws otherwise direct, be filled for the unexpired remainder of the term, by the board, from among the qualified shareholders of the company;

President and officers.

(4) The directors shall, from time to time, elect from among themselves a president of the company; and shall also name, and may remove at pleasure, all other officers thereof. 60 V. c. 28, s. 41 (1-4).

Failure to elect directors, how remedied.

44. If at any time an election of directors is not made, or does not take effect at the proper time, the company shall not be held to be thereby dissolved; but such election may take place at any general meeting of the company duly called for that purpose; and directors shall continue in office until their successors are duly elected. 60 V. c. 28, s. 42.

Change by by-law of number of directors or of head office in Ontario.

45.—(1) A company may by by-law increase or decrease the number of its directors, or may change the company's head-office in Ontario.

Validation of by-law.

(2) No by-law, for either of the said purposes shall be valid or acted upon unless it has been sanctioned by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of the shareholders at a meeting of the company duly called for considering the subject of the by-law, nor until a copy of the by-law, certified under the seal of the company, has been transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, and also has been published by the company once in The Gazette.

Notice.

(3) In case the head-office of the company is being changed as aforesaid, then the company shall forthwith give notice of the fact in such newspapers and for such time as the regulations made under section 11 of this Act may prescribe. 60 V. c. 28, s. 43.

Powers and duties of directors.

46. The directors of the company shall have full power in all things to administer the affairs of the company; and may make, or cause to be made for the company, any description of contract which the company may by law enter into. 60 V. c. 28, s. 44.

47. The directors may, from time to time, make by-laws not contrary to law, or to the letters patent of the company, or to this Act, to regulate— By-laws.

(a) The allotment of stock; the making of calls thereon; the payment thereof; the issue and registration of certificates of stock; the forfeiture of stock for non-payment; the disposal of forfeited stock and of the proceeds thereof; the transfer of stock; Stock.

(b) The declaration and payment of dividends; Dividends.

(c) The term of service not exceeding two years, and the amount of the stock qualification of the directors. Directors, service, etc.

(d) The appointment, functions, duties and removal of all officers, agents and servants of the company; the security to be given by them to the company; and their remuneration; Officers.

(e) The time at which, and place where the general meetings of the company shall be held; the calling of meetings, regular and special, of the board of directors, and of the company; the quorum; the requirements as to proxies; and the procedure in all things at such meetings; Meetings.

(f) The imposition and recovery of all penalties and forfeitures admitting of regulation by by-law; and Fines.

(g) The conduct in all other particulars of the affairs of the company; Conduct of affairs generally.

and may from time to time repeal, amend, or re-enact the same; but every such by-law, and every repeal, amendment, or re-enactment thereof, unless in the meantime confirmed at a general meeting of the company duly called for that purpose, shall only have force until the next annual meeting of the company; and in default of confirmation thereat, shall, at and from that time only, cease to have force; and in that case no new by-law to the same or the like effect shall have any force until confirmed at a general meeting of the company; provided, however, that the company shall have power either at the general meeting, called as aforesaid, or at the annual meeting of the company, to repeal, amend, vary or otherwise deal with any by-laws which have been passed by the directors, but no act done or right acquired under any by-law shall be prejudicially affected by any such repeal, amendment, variation or other dealing. 60 V. c. 28, s. 45. Confirmation of by-laws. By-laws may be varied.

48. No by-law for the payment of the president or any director, shall be valid or acted upon until the same has been confirmed at a general meeting. 60 V. c. 28, s. 46. Payment to president or directors.

49. If authorized by by-law, passed by the directors and sanctioned by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of Borrowing powers.

the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company duly called for considering the subject of such by-law, the directors of the company may:

(a) Borrow money upon the credit of the company;

(b) Limit or increase the amount to be borrowed;

Power to issue bonds or debentures, and

to grant mortgages,

(d) Hypothecate, mortgage or pledge all or any of the real or personal property, rights and powers of the company to secure any such bonds, debentures or other securities and any indebtedness or sum or sums so borrowed for the purposes of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 47.

ANNUAL, GENERAL AND SPECIAL MEETINGS.

Mode of election.

Notice.

50. In default only of other express provisions in such behalf, by the special Act, or by the letters patent or by-laws of the company, notice of the time and place for holding general, including the annual, meetings of the company shall be given at least ten days previously thereto, in some newspaper published at or as near as may be to the head-office, and to the chief place of business of the company, if these differ; and also, in the case of companies having a capital exceeding $3,000, either by publishing the same in The Gazette, or by mailing the same as a registered letter duly addressed to each shareholder at his last known post-office address at least ten days previous to such meeting. 60 V. c. 28, s. 48.

Annual meeting.

51. A general meeting, to be known as the annual meeting of the company, shall be held at such time and place in each year as the letters patent or by-laws of the company may provide, and in default of such provisions in that behalf the annual meeting shall be held on the fourth Wednesday in January in every year, at such place as may be determined by the directors. 60 V. c. 28, s. 49.

Special meetings.

52. The directors may, whenever they think fit and they shall upon a requisition made in writing by the holders of not less than one-tenth of the subscribed capital stock of the company convene a special general meeting of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 50.

Object.

53. Any requisition made by the shareholders shall express the object of the special general meeting proposed to be called, and shall be left at the head-office of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 51.

Duty of directors.

54. Upon the receipt of such requisition the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene a special general meeting. If they do not proceed to cause the same to be held within twenty-one days from the date upon which the requisition was left at the head-office of the company, the requisitionists, or any other shareholders amounting to the required one-tenth of the subscribed capital stock of the company may themselves convene such special general meeting. 60 V. c. 28, s. 52.

Notice for special meetings.

55. Ten days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and the general nature of the business to be considered, shall be given to the shareholders by the directors, or by the requisitionists, as the case may be, in manner mentioned in section 50 of this Act, or in such other manner, if any, as the by-laws of the company may prescribe. 60 V. c. 28, s. 53.

Quorum.

56. No business shall be transacted at any such special general meeting called upon, or pursuant to requisition as aforesaid, unless a quorum of shareholders is present in person, or by proxy, at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; and such quorum shall be ascertained as follows, that is to say, if the shareholders at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number, the quorum shall be three, if they exceed ten there shall be added to the above quorum one for every four additional shareholders up to fifty, and one for every ten additional shareholders after fifty, with this limitation, that no quorum in any case shall exceed twenty. 60 V. c. 28, s. 54.

Dissolution of meeting.

57. If within one hour from the time appointed for such special general meeting, called upon or pursuant to requisition aforesaid, a quorum is not present, the meeting, shall be dissolved. 60 V. c. 28, s. 55.

Presiding officer.

58. The president of the company shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 56.

Chairman to be elected when necessary.

59. If there is no president, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the shareholders present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman. 60 V. c. 28, s. 57.

Adjournment by consent.

60. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, and subject to such conditions and restrictions as the meeting may decide, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place. 60 V. c. 28, s. 58.

Procedure as to resolutions.

61. At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the proceedings of the company, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. 60 V. c. 28, s. 59.

When poll is demanded.

62. If a poll is demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the by-laws prescribe, and in default thereof, then as the chairman may direct. In the case of an equality of votes, at any general meeting, the chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. 60 V. c. 28, s. 60.

Votes.

63. At all general meetings of the company, every shareholder shall be entitled to as many votes as he holds shares in the company, and may vote by proxy. 60 V. c. 28, s. 61, first part.

Shareholders in arrear not to vote.

64. No shareholder being in arrear in respect of any call shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 61 (a).

Notices, Actions, Etc.

Mode of incorporation, etc., how to be set forth in legal proceedings.

65. In an action or other proceeding, it shall not be requisite to set forth the mode of incorporation of the company, otherwise than by mention of it under its corporate name, as incorporated by virtue of a special Act, or of letters patent, or of letters patent and supplementary letters patent, as the case may be; and the letters patent, or supplementary letters patent themselves, or any exemplification, or copy thereof under the Great Seal, shall be conclusive proof of every matter and thing therein set forth. 60 V. c. 28, s. 62.

Evidence of by-laws.

66. A copy of any by-law of the company, under its seal, and purporting to be signed by any officer of the company, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the by-law in all Courts in Ontario. 60 V. c. 28, s. 63.

Authentication of summons and notices.

67. Any writ, notice, order or proceeding requiring authentication by the company may be signed by any director, manager or other authorized officer of the company, and need not be under the seal of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 64.

Service of notices.

68. A notice to be served by the company upon a shareholder may be served either personally or by sending it through the post, in a registered letter, addressed to the shareholder at his place of abode as it last appeared on the books of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 65.

69. A notice or other document served by post by the company on a shareholder shall be held to be served at the time when the registered letter containing it would be delivered in the ordinary course of post: and to prove the fact and time of service it shall be sufficient to prove that such letter was properly addressed and registered, and was put into the post-office, and the time when it was put in, and the time requisite for its delivery in the ordinary course of post. 60 V. c. 28, s. 66.

Time of service.

Proof of service.

70. Any description of action may be prosecuted and maintained between the company and any shareholder thereof, and no shareholder shall, by reason of being a shareholder, be incompetent as a witness therein. 60 V. c. 28, s. 67.

Actions between company and shareholders

(ii.) The total quantity of crude petroleum in respect of which the company as warehousemen or carriers are liable to make delivery to other persons.

[As to returns by companies carrying on the business of warehousing crude petroleum see also Cap. 219, sec. 4.]

Mode of writing the same.

(5) The summary, and every duplicate thereof required by this Act, shall be written, or printed on only one side of the sheet or sheets of paper containing the same.

Verification thereof.

(6) The summary shall be verified by the affidavit of the president and secretary, and if there are no such officers, or they, or either of them, are or is, at the proper time out of this Province, or otherwise unable to make the same, by the affidavit of the president or secretary and one of the directors, or two of the directors, as the case may require; and if the president or secretary does not make or join in the affidavit, the reason thereof shall be stated in the substituted affidavit.

Posting thereof.

(7) One of the duplicate summaries with the affidavit of verification, shall be posted up in a conspicuous position in the head-office of the company in Ontario, on or before the 2nd day of February; and the company shall keep the same so posted, until another summary is posted under the provisions of this Act; and the other duplicate summary, verified as aforesaid, shall on or before the 8th day of February next after the time hereinbefore fixed for making the summary be transmitted, by registered letter, to the Provincial Secretary and be addressed to him at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Deposit with Provincial Secretary.

Penalty for default

(8) If a company makes default in complying with the provisions of this section, the company shall incur a penalty of $20 for every day during which the default continues, and every director, manager or secretary of the company, who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits such default, shall incur the like penalty.

When section not to apply.

(9) This section shall not apply to any company until the 1st day of February next after the first 31st day of December, after the company has been organized, or has gone into actual operation, whichever shall first happen, and shall not be held to apply to any company which has ceased to carry on business; and upon its being proved that any company to which this Act applies did not transact any business (other than the payment of taxes or the making of a return, or the furnishing of any list, statement, or other information to the Government of Ontario, or to any officer or department thereof) during the year for which it is alleged a return in accordance with the requirements of law has not been made, such company shall be deemed to have ceased to carry on business within the meaning of this sub-section.

Further proviso.

(10) This section shall not apply to any company not incorporated for commercial, mercantile, manufacturing, trading, or business purposes, or objects, where such company by its charter of incorporation is declared to be exempt from the provisions thereof, or to any company not incorporated for any of the said purposes which, on proof thereof being shown to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, is, on, from and after a date to be set forth in the order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council in that behalf, declared to be exempt. 60 V. c. 28, s. 76.

Inspection.

The Court may appoint an inspector.

80.—(1) Upon an application by not less than one-fifth in value of the shareholders of the company, a Judge may, if he deems it necessary, appoint an inspector to investigate the affairs and management of the company, who shall report thereon to the Judge, and the expense of such investigation shall, in the discretion of the Judge, be defrayed by the company, or by the applicants, or partly by the company and partly by the applicants as he may order, and, if he thinks fit, he may require the applicants to give security to cover the probable cost of the investigation, and he may make necessary rules and prescribe the manner in which and the extent to which the investigation shall be conducted; or the Judge may, if he deems it necessary, examine the officers or directors of the company under oath as to matters that come in question.

Examination by company.

(2) The company may by resolution passed at the annual meeting, or at a special general meeting called for the purpose, appoint an inspector to examine into the affairs of the company. The inspector so appointed shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as an inspector appointed by a Judge, with this exception, that instead of making his report to the Judge he shall make the same in such manner and to such persons as the company by said resolution directs.

Powers and duties of inspector.

Production of books and documents.

(3) It shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the company to produce for the examination of any such inspector all books and documents in their custody or power. Any such inspector may examine upon oath the officers and agents of the company in relation to its business, and may administer such oath accordingly. If any officer or agent refuses to produce any book or document hereby directed to be produced, or to answer any question relating to the affairs of the company, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20, in respect of each offence. 60 V. c. 28, s. 77.

Examination on oath.

Penalty for non-production.

Contracts, Dividends, Etc.

Contracts, etc., when to be binding on company.

81. Every contract, agreement, engagement or bargain made and every bill of exchange drawn, accepted or indorsed, and every promissory note and cheque made, drawn or indorsed on behalf of the company by any agent, officer or servant of the company, in general accordance with his powers as such under the by-laws or resolutions of the company, shall be binding upon the company; and in no case shall it be necessary to have the seal of the company affixed to any such contract, agreement, engagement, bargain, bill of exchange, promissory note or cheque, or to prove that the same was made, drawn, accepted or indorsed, as the case may be, in pursuance of any by-law, resolution or special vote or order; nor shall the person so acting as agent, officer or servant of the company, be thereby subjected individually to any liability therefor. 60 V. c. 28, s. 78.

82. The company shall not under any circumstances use any of its funds in the purchase of stock in any other corporation, unless and until the directors have been expressly authorized by a by-law passed by them for the purpose and sanctioned by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company duly called for considering the subject of the by-law. 60 V. c. 28, s. 79. Not to purchase stock in other corporations.

84. No loan shall be made by the company to any shareholder, and if such loan is made, all directors and other officers of the company making the same, and in anywise assenting thereto shall be jointly and severally liable to the company for the amount thereof and also to third parties to the extent of such loan with legal interest, for all debts of the company contracted from the time of the making of the loan to that of the repayment thereof. 60 V. c. 28, s. 81. No loan by company to shareholder.

85. The directors of the company shall be jointly and severally liable to the labourers, servants and apprentices thereof for all debts not exceeding one year's wages due for services performed for the company while they are such directors respectively; but no director shall be liable to an action therefor, unless the company has been sued therefor within one year after the debt became due, nor yet unless such director is sued therefor within one year from the time when he ceased to be such director, nor yet before an execution against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; and the amount due on such execution shall be the amount recoverable with costs against the directors. 60 V. c. 28, s. 82. Liability of directors for wages.

86. The company shall be subject to the provisions of any Act of the Legislature for the winding up of joint stock companies. 60 V. c. 28, s. 83. Winding up Acts to apply.

Auditors and their Duties.

87. If the special Act, letters patent or the by-laws of the company so direct, the accounts of the company shall Accounts may be audited.

be examined once at least in every year, and the correctness of the balance-sheet shall be ascertained, by an auditor. 60 V. c. 28, s. 84.

Appointment of first auditor.

88. Such auditor may be appointed by resolution at a general meeting of the company; if so appointed, he shall hold office until the next annual general meeting thereafter unless previously removed by a resolution of the shareholders in general meeting; subsequent auditors may be appointed by a resolution of the company in general meeting. 60 V. c. 28, s. 85.

Auditors may be shareholders.

89. The said auditor may be a shareholder of the company, but no person shall be eligible as an auditor who is interested, otherwise than as a shareholder, in any transaction of the company; and no director or other officer of the company shall be eligible during his continuance in office. 60 V. c. 28, s. 86.

Remuneration of auditors.

90. The remuneration of the auditor shall be fixed by the company in general meeting. 60 V. c. 28, s. 87.

Auditors re-eligible.

91. Any auditor shall be eligible for re-appointment. 60 V. c. 28, s. 88.

Auditors to examine accounts, etc.

92. Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the balance-sheet, and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto. 60 V. c. 28, s. 89.

Access of auditors to books, etc.

93. Every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the company, and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books and accounts of the company. 60 V. c. 28, s. 90.

Auditors to make reports to shareholders.

94. The auditor shall make a report to the shareholders upon the balance-sheet and accounts, and in every such report he shall state whether, in his opinion, the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet, and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the company's affairs, and, in case he has called for explanations, or information from the directors, or officers of the company, whether such explanation, or information has been given by the directors, and whether it has been satisfactory. 60 V. c. 28, s. 91.

FEES, ETC.

Fees on letters patent, etc., to be fixed by Order-in-Council.

95.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, establish, alter and regulate the tariff of the fees to be paid on applications under this Act; may designate the department or departments through which the issue of letters patent, or supplementary letters, or of licenses should be made; and may prescribe the forms of proceeding and record in respect thereof, and all other matters requisite for carrying out the objects of this Act.

(2) Such fees may be made to vary in amount, under any rule or rules—as to nature of company, amount of capital and otherwise—that may be deemed expedient. May be varied.

(3) No step shall be taken in any Department towards the issue of any letters patent or supplementary letters patent, or license under this Act, until after all fees therefor have been duly paid. 60 V. c. 28, s. 92. Restriction.

96. The provisions of this and any other Act relating to matters preliminary to the issue of the letters patent shall be deemed to be directory only; and no letters patent, or supplementary letters patent, or license, notice, order or other proceeding by or on behalf of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, Provincial Secretary, or other Government or departmental officer under this or any other Act shall be held to be void or voidable on account of any irregularity, or otherwise, in respect of any matter preliminary to the issue of the letters patent, or supplementary letters patent, license, notice, order or other proceeding or of any alterations in any petition or papers submitted in order to make them comply with this or any other Act, or with the departmental practice thereunder. 60 V. c. 28, s. 93. Certain informalities not to invalidate letters patent, etc.

Liability for False Statements.

97.—(1) If any person in any return, report, certificate, balance sheet, or other document required by or for the purposes of this Act, wilfully makes a statement false in any material particular, he shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, and on summary conviction to imprisonment not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour, and in either case to a fine of $100 in lieu of or in addition to such imprisonment as aforesaid. False returns, etc.

(2) A person charged with an offence under this section, may, if he thinks fit, tender himself to be examined on his own behalf, and thereupon may give evidence in the same manner and with the like effect and consequences as any other witness. 60 V. c. 28, s. 94.

[As to the liability of directors and others for untrue statements in a prospectus advertisement or notice, see Cap. 216.]

Forfeiture or Surrender or Revocation of a Charter, Etc.

98. If a company incorporated by letters patent does not go into actual operation within two years after incorporation, or, for two consecutive years, does not use its corporate powers Forfeiture of charter for non-user.

such powers, except so far as is necessary for winding up the company, shall be forfeited, and its name, in whole or in part, may be granted to another company, notwithstanding anything contained in section 10 of this Act; and, in any action of proceeding where such non-user is alleged, proof of user shall lie upon the company, provided, however that no such forfeiture shall affect prejudicially the rights of creditors as they exist at the date of such forfeiture. 60 V. c. 28, s. 97 first part.

Revocation of charter.

99. The charter of a company incorporated by letters patent, may, at any time, be declared to be forfeited, and may be revoked and made void by an order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on sufficient cause being shown to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council in that behalf, and such forfeiture, revocation and making void may be upon such conditions and subject to such provisions as to the Lieutenant-Governor may seem proper. 60 V. c. 29, s. 97(a).

Individual liability for whole of the company's debts if business is carried on with less than five members.

100. If a company carries on business when the number or its shareholders is less than five for a period of six months after the number has been so reduced, every person who is a shareholder in the company during the time that it so carries on business after such period of six months and is cognizant of the fact that it is so carrying on business with less than five shareholders shall be severally liable for the payment of the whole of the debts of the company contracted during such time, and may be sued for the same without the joinder in the action or suit of the company or of any other shareholder; but any shareholder who has become aware that the company is carrying on business when the number of its shareholders is less than five, may serve a protest in writing on the company, and may, by registered letter, notify the Provincial Secretary of such protest having been served, and of the facts upon which it is based, and such shareholder may thereby, and not otherwise, from the date of his said protest and notification, exonerate himself from liability; and if after notice from the Provincial Secretary the company refuses or neglects to bring the number of its shareholders up to five, such refusal or neglect may, upon the report of the Provincial Secretary, be regarded by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as sufficient cause for the revocation of the company's charter. 60 V. c. 28, s. 98.

A charter may be surrendered.

101. The charter of a company incorporated by letters patent may be surrendered if the company proves to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

(a) That it has no debts existing, or other rights in question, or

(b) That it has parted with its property, divided its assets rateably amongst its shareholders, and has no debts, or liabilities, or

(c) That the debts and obligations of the company have been duly provided for or protected, or that the creditors of the company or other persons holding them consent, and that the company has given notice of the application for acceptance of surrender as may be required by regulations made under section 11 of this Act; and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon a due compliance with the provisions of this section, may accept and direct the cancellation of the charter and may, by his order, fix a date upon and from which the company shall be deemed to be dissolved, and the company shall thereby and thereupon become dissolved accordingly. 60 V. c. 28, s. 99.

Extension of Powers.

Additional powers which may be granted by supplementary letters patent.

102. In case a resolution, authorizing an application by petition to the Lieutenant-Governor therefor, is passed by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company, duly called for considering the subject of such resolution, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, direct the issue of supplementary letters patent to the company embracing any or all of the following matters:

(a) Extending the powers of the company to any objects within the scope of this Act, which the company may desire;

(b) Providing for the formation of a reserve fund;

(c) Varying any provision contained in the letters patent, so long as the alteration desired is not contrary to the provisions of this Act;

(d Making provision for any other matter or thing in respect of which provision might be made by original letters patent under this Act. 60 V. c. 28, s. 101; c. 3, s. 3.

Amalgamation of Companies.

Amalgamation of companies.

103.—(1) Any two or more companies incorporated under the laws of this Province and having objects within the scope of this Act may, in the manner herein provided, unite, amalgamate and consolidate their stock, property, businesses and franchises, and may enter into all contracts and agreements therewith necessary to such union and amalgamation.

Joint agreement between directors proposing to amalgamate, etc.

(2) The directors of the companies proposing to so amalgamate or consolidate as aforesaid, may enter into a joint agreement, to be executed under the corporate seal of each of the said companies, for the amalgamation and consolidation of the said companies, prescribing the terms and conditions thereof, the mode of carrying the same into effect, the name of the new company, of which the last word shall be the word "Limited," the number of the directors thereof, and who shall be the first directors thereof and their places of residence, the number of shares of the capital stock, the amount of par value of each share, and the manner of converting the capital stock of each of the said corporations into that of the new corporation, and how, and when directors of the new corporation shall be elected, with such other details as they deem necessary to perfect the new organization and the consolidation and amalgamation of the said companies, and the after management and working thereof.

To be submitted to shareholders of each company for consideration.

(3) The agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of each of the said companies at a meeting thereof called in accordance with the by-laws and held separately for the purpose of taking the same into consideration.

Vote by ballot to be taken.

(4) At such meetings of shareholders, the agreement shall be considered, and a vote by ballot taken for the adoption or rejection of the same, and each share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote, and the ballots shall be cast in person or by proxy; and if two-thirds of the votes of all the shareholders of each of such companies are for the adoption of the agreement, then that fact shall be certified upon the agreement by the secretary of each of such companies under the corporate seal thereof; and if the agreement is so adopted at the respective meetings of the shareholders of each of the said companies, the companies by their joint petition may, through the Provincial Secretary, apply to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for letters patent confirming the said agreement.

Upon completion of consolidation, the new corporation to possess rights, powers, etc., and be subject to duties, etc., of each of united societies.

(5) With their joint petition, the companies shall deposit with the Provincial Secretary, an original of the agreement, and shall furnish such further and other documents and evidence in this behalf as the Provincial Secretary may require, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by letters patent confirm such agreement, and on and from the date of the letters patent, confirming the said agreement, and from such date only, the said companies shall be deemed and taken to be amalgamated and consolidated and to form one company by the name in the said agreement and letters patent provided, and the consolidated company shall possess all the properties, real, personal and mixed, rights, privileges, and franchises and be subject to all the liabilities, contracts, disabilities and duties of each of the companies so consolidated.

Proviso as to rights of creditors, etc., of either of corporations.

(6) All rights of creditors to obtain payment of their claims out of the property, rights and assets of the company liable for such claims and all liens upon the property, rights, and assets of either of such companies shall be unimpaired by such consolidation, and all debts, contracts, liabilities and duties of either of the said companies shall thenceforth attach to the consolidated company, and be enforced against it to the same extent as if the said debts, contracts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

(7) No action or proceeding, by or against the said corporations so consolidated, or either of them, shall abate or be affected by such consolidation, but for all the purposes of such action or proceeding, such corporation may be deemed still to exist, or the new corporation may be substituted in such action or proceeding in the place thereof. Proviso as to actions against.

(8) The Provincial Secretary shall give such a notice respecting the amalgamation of the said companies as the regulations made under section 11 of this Act may prescribe. 60 V. c. 28. s. 102. Notice of amalgamation.

RE-INCORPORATION BY INCORPORATED COMPANIES.

104.—(1) Any company incorporated, for purposes or objects within the scope of this Act, or within the scope of this Act as it may be hereafter amended, whether under a special or a general Act, and being at the time of its application a subsisting and valid corporation, may apply for letters patent under this Act; and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon proof that notice of the application has been inserted for four weeks in the Ontario Gazette, may direct the issue of letters patent incorporating the shareholders of the said company as a company under this Act, and thereupon all the rights or obligations of the former company shall be transferred to the new company, and all proceedings may be continued and commenced by or against the new company, that might have been continued or commenced by or against the old company, and it shall not be necessary in any such letters patent to set out the names of the shareholders; and after the issue of the letters patent, the company shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of this Act, except that the liability of the shareholders to creditors of the old company shall remain as at the time of the issue of the letters patent. Subsisting companies may apply under this Act.

(2) Where a company is re-incorporated under the preceding sub-section the Lieutenant-Governor may, by the letters patent, increase the capital stock of the company to any amount which the shareholders of the company applying for re-incorporation may, by a resolution passed by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of those present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company duly called for considering the same, have declared to be requisite for the due carrying out of the objects of the company.

(3) The resolution may prescribe the manner in which the new stock is to be allotted; and in default of its so doing, the control of the allotment shall vest absolutely in the directors of the new company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 157, s. 72.

Existing companies may apply for letters patent with extended powers.

105. Where an existing company applies for the issue of letters patent under the provisions of the preceding section, the Lieutenant-Governor may by the letters patent extend the powers of the company to such other objects within the scope of this Act as the applicants desire, and as the Lieutenant-Governor thinks fit to include in the letters patent, and may by the said letters patent name the first directors of the new company, and the letters patent may be to the new company by the name of the old company or by any other name. R. S. O 1887, c. 157, s. 73.

LETTERS PATENT TO COMPANIES INCORPORATED BY SPECIAL ACT.

Letters patent for certain purposes may be granted to companies incorporated under special Acts.

106. Where any company has been incorporated by a special Act for purposes or objects within the scope of this Act, then, in case a resolution authorizing an application by petition to the Lieutenant-Governor therefor is passed by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of the shareholders present in person, or by proxy, at a general meeting of the company, duly called for considering the subject of such resolution, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, from time to time, direct the issue of letters patent to the company, embracing any or all of the following matters:

(a) Extending the powers of the company to any objects within the scope of this Act, which the company may desire;

(b) Limiting or increasing the amount which the company may borrow upon debentures, or otherwise;

(c) Providing for the formation of a reserve fund;

(d) Varying any provision contained in the special Act, so long as the alteration is not contrary to the provisions of this Act;

(e) Making provision for any other matter or thing in respect of which provision might have been made had the company been incorporated under this Act. 60 V. c. 28, s. 103.

Certain powers may be granted by license to extra-provincial companies.

107.—(1) Any company, incorporated otherwise than by or under the authority of an Act of the Legislature of Ontario, desiring to carry on any of its business which is within the scope of this Act, within the Province of Ontario, may, through the Provincial Secretary, petition the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for a license so to do, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may thereupon authorize such company to use, exercise, and enjoy any powers, privileges and rights set forth in the said license.

Copy of Act or other instrument of incorporation

(2) No such license shall be issued until such company has deposited in the office of the Provincial Secretary a true copy of the Act, charter or other instrument incorporating the company, verified in the manner which may be satisfactory to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, together with a duly executed power of attorney, under its common seal, empowering some person therein named and residing in the Province of Ontario to act as its attorney and to sue and be sued, plead or be impleaded in any Court, and, generally, on behalf of such company and within the said Province, to accept service of process and to receive all lawful notices, and for the purposes aforesaid to do all acts and to execute all deeds and other instruments relating to the matters within the scope of the power of attorney, and such company may from time to time by a new or other power of attorney, executed and deposited as aforesaid, appoint another attorney within the Province for the purposes aforesaid to replace the attorney formerly appointed.

with power of attorney to be deposited with Provincial Secretary.

Power of Attorney.

(3) Such notice of the granting of the said license shall be given forthwith by the Provincial Secretary in The Gazette as the regulations made under section 11 of this Act hereof may prescribe.

Notice.

(4) The license, or any exemplification thereof under the Great Seal of Ontario, shall be sufficient evidence in any proceeding in any Court in this Province, of the due licensing of the company as aforesaid.

Evidence of having been licensed.

(5) A company licensed as aforesaid, shall on or before the 8th day of February in every year during the continuance of such license, make to the Provincial Secretary a statement, according to a form approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the purpose, containing information similar to that required under section 79 of this Act, or so much hereof as may be prescribed in such form.

Return.

(6) If a company makes default in complying with the provisions of this section, the company shall incur a penalty of $20 for every day during which the default continues, and every director, manager, or secretary of the company, who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits such default, shall incur the like penalty.

(7) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by an Order in Council, to be published by the Provincial Secretary in The Gazette, and otherwise as may be prescribed by the said regulations, suspend, or revoke and make null and void any license granted, under this section, to any company which refuses or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, and, notwithstanding such suspension or revocation, the rights of creditors of the company shall remain as at the time of such suspension or revocation. 60 V. c. 28, s. 105.

Penalty for default.

CHAPTER 192.

An Act respecting Telegraph Companies

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Powers for the construction of the line.

C. S. C. c. 67

1. Every telegraph association or company, subject to the legislative authority of this Province, and incorporated under chapter 67 of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, or under any general Act passed subsequently thereto or hereafter passed authorizing the incorporation of such companies, may construct the lines of telegraph designated in its instrument of incorporation upon any lands purchased by the company, or the right to carry its line over which has been conceded to it by the parties having a right to make such concession, and along and upon any of the public roads and highways, or across any of the waters within this Province, by the erection of the necessary fixtures, including posts, piers or abutments for sustaining the cords or wires of such lines, provided the same are not so constructed as to incommode the public use of such roads or highways, or to impede the free access to any house or other building erected in the vicinity of the same, or injuriously to interrupt the navigation of such waters. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 1.

Co. not to build bridge over navigable water.

2. Nothing herein contained shall confer on any such association or company the right of building a bridge over any navigable water. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 2.

Duties of company in transmitting despatches.

3. The owner of, or the company owning any telegraph line shall, except in cases provided for in the next section, transmit all despatches in the order in which they are received, under a penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $100, to be recovered, with costs of action, by the person or persons whose despatch has been postponed out of its order. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 3.

What messages entitled to preference.

4. Any message in relation to the administration of justice, arrest of criminals, the discovery or prevention of crime, and Government messages or despatches, shall always be transmitted in preference to any other message or despatch, if required by persons connected with the administration of justice, or any person thereunto authorized by the Provincial Secretary. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 4.

Government may assume the same temporarily.

5. Her Majesty may, at any time, assume, and for any length of time retain, possession of any such telegraph line and of all things necessary to the efficient working thereof, and may for the same time require the exclusive service of the operators and other persons employed in working such line, and the company shall give up possession thereof, and the operators and other persons so employed shall, during the time of such possession, diligently and faithfully obey such orders, and receive and transmit such despatches as they may be required to receive and transmit by any duly authorized officer of the Provincial Government, under a penalty not exceeding $100 for any refusal or neglect to comply with the requirements of this section, to be recovered by the Crown for the public uses of the Province, with costs. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 5.

Her Majesty may assume the property of the line.

6. At any time after the commencement of a telegraph line under this Act, and after two months' notice to the company, Her Majesty may assume the possession and property thereof, and thereupon the line and all the property, real or personal, essential to the working thereof, and all the rights and privileges of the company as regards the same shall be vested in the Crown. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 6.

Mode of settling the compensation in case of disagreement.

7. If a difference arises between the company and those who act for the Crown, as to the compensation which ought to be paid to the company for any telegraph line and appurtenances taken under section 6 of this Act, or for the temporary exclusive use thereof under section 5 such difference shall be referred to three arbitrators, one to be appointed on the part of the Crown, another by the company, and the third by the two arbitrators so appointed, and the award of any two of the said arbitrators shall be final; and in case of refusal or neglect by the company to appoint an arbitrator, or if the two arbitrators cannot agree upon a third arbitrator, then such arbitrator shall be appointed by any two Judges of the High Court, on application on the part of the Crown. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 7.

Municipal corporations and Joint Stock Companies may take stock in telegraph companies. C. S. C. c. 67.

8. Any municipal corporation in this Province or any joint stock company incorporated under any Act of the late Province of Canada or of this Province, may subscribe for and hold stock in any telegraph company incorporated under chapter 67 of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, or any general Act passed subsequently thereto or hereafter passed authorizing the incorporation of such companies, and may pay the amount of such subscription out of any municipal or other funds not specially appropriated to any other purpose, and such municipal corporation may levy money by rate, for paying any such subscription; and shall have such rights as a member of the company, and shall vote upon the stock held by it in such manner and by the intervention of such person or officer, as may be determined by the instrument of incorporation of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 158, s. 8.

1. This Act may be cited as "The General Road Companies Act." R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 1.

Existing companies continued—how this Act shall apply to them.

2. All companies incorporated for such purposes as are in this Act mentioned, under any former general Acts relating to joint stock road companies, before this Act takes effect, shall subsist and continue, notwithstanding the repeal of such Acts, and such companies shall be subject to, and may avail themselves of the provisions of this Act, and in all cases of doubt or ambiguity this Act shall be deemed and taken to be declaratory of the meaning of the said Acts. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 2.

INCORPORATION OF ROAD COMPANIES.

Mode and objects of incorporation.

3.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by letters patent under the Great Seal, grant a charter incorporating a company under The Ontario Companies Act

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

(a) For the purpose of constructing on, along, or over any public road or highway, or allowance for road, or on, along, or over any other land a planked, macadamized, gravelled or other road not less than two miles in length, and also any bridges, piers, or wharfs connected therewith, or

(b) For the purpose of purchasing any such road, and any bridges, piers, or wharfs connected therewith.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

(2) Every company so incorporated shall be subject to this Act and to the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, so far as the same are applicable and consistent with this Act. 60 V. c. 31, s. 1, part.

4.—(1) No company shall be so incorporated

No company to be incorporated until sufficient stock subscribed.

(a) Until stock has been subscribed for to an amount deemed sufficient to construct or purchase, as the case may be, the entire road and works for the construction or purchase of which the incorporation of the company is sought,

(b) Nor until the subscribers for stock or some of them have paid on account of the shares subscribed for ten per cent. of the entire amount of the proposed capital stock. 60 V. c. 31, s. 1, part.

Companies to be subject to Ontario Companies' Act.

5. Every company heretofore incorporated under any former general Act respecting joint stock road companies shall be subject to this Act and to The Ontario Companies Act, so far as the provisions of said Act are applicable and consistent with this Act: Provided always that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may relieve any company incorporated before the 13th day of April, 1897, from compliance with any of the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, as may be deemed expedient. 60 V. c. 31, s. 1, part.

Rev. Stat., c. 191.

As to taking property.

6. No company shall construct such road or other works through, over, along or upon any private property or property of the Crown, without having first obtained the permission of the owner or occupier thereof, or of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, so to do, except as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 7.

When municipal by-law necessary.

7. No road shall be constructed or pass within the limits of any city, or of any incorporated town or village, except by permission, under a by-law of the city, town or village, passed for that purpose. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 8.

Bridges when part of the road.

8. All bridges in the line of road between the termini of any road, which are not within the limits of any city, incorporated town or village, shall be deemed part of such road, unless specially excepted in the instrument of association of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 9.

Highest grade.

9. No road shall be made of a higher grade than one foot elevation to twenty feet along the road, without the sanction of the county engineer of the county where the road or other work is situated or constructed, and if there be no such officer, then of some competent engineer appointed by the county council for that purpose. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 10.

As to line for which other companies have been chartered.

10. In case under any statute heretofore passed a company has been formed to construct any roads or bridges, piers or wharfs, connected therewith as aforesaid, and the stock of the company has been subscribed, and the work in course of completion within the time limited by the statute under which the charter was obtained, no company shall be formed under this Act to construct any line of road for which such prior charter was so obtained, so long as the charter remains in force. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 11.

Thirty days notice to be served on the Head of the Municipality, prior to any company commencing any work.

11. No company formed under this Act shall commence any work until thirty days after the directors have served a written notice upon the head of the municipality in the jurisdiction of which the road or other work connected therewith is intended to pass or to be constructed; and if the municipal council of such locality passes a by-law prohibiting, varying or altering such intended line of road, or the plan of such other work, such by-law shall have the same force and effect, and be as obligatory upon all persons, and upon such company, if the company proceeds in the construction of the road or other works, as if the provisions thereof had been inserted in the body of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 12.

If no by-law passed within thirty days, company may proceed.

12. If no by-law is passed within thirty days after service of the notice upon the head of the municipality, then the company may proceed with the intended road or other work without being liable to any interruption or opposition from any source whatever. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 13.

When old road may be closed up by by-law.

13. Where a new road has been opened, or the line of an old road has been changed, the municipality having jurisdiction as aforesaid may pass a by-law permitting or directing the old road, or part of a road, to be closed up and embraced within the enclosure of the person from whom ground was taken to form the new road, provided it does not exclude any person residing on or near the line of the old road from a convenient access to the new road. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 14.

Powers of company to explore the country and to take land and material.

14. A company formed under this Act, or any other company heretofore chartered under any Act of the Legislature of the late Province of Canada or of this Province for a like purpose, may explore the country lying between the termini of any road, or supposed to be adapted for the site of any other work connected with such road as aforesaid, and may designate, take and hold the requisite lands upon the line and within the limits of such road, or for such other work, according to the provisions hereinafter contained, and may take and carry away stone, gravel, sand, earth and other like materials, from any adjoining or neighbouring lands, and may also cut, make and keep in repair, upon such adjoining or neighbouring lands, such ditches, drains and water courses as are necessary for effectually draining or carrying off the water from such road or other work. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 15.

Drainage.

Cutting down timber.

15. Where such road passes through or by any wood or standing timber, such company may cut down the trees and underwood for one hundred feet on each side of the road, making compensation therefor as hereinafter provided; and for the purpose aforesaid, the company and their agents, servants and workmen, may enter into and upon the lands of any person, doing no unnecessary damage. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 16.

Entry on lands.

In case owner of property refuses to take compensation from the company, arbitrators to be appointed.

16. If the owner or occupier of any land over, through or upon which the company desire to construct any such road or other work connected therewith, or from which they desire to take materials, or upon which they intend to exercise any of the powers given to them by this Act, neglects or refuses, upon demand made by the directors in that behalf, to agree with them upon the price or amount of damages to be paid for or for passing through or over such land, and appropriating the same to the use of the company, or for materials taken, or for the exercise of any such power as aforesaid, the company may name one arbitrator, and the owner or occupier of such land may name another, and the said two arbitrators may name a third, and the said three arbitrators shall determine the amount which the company shall pay to such owner or occupier before taking possession of such land, or taking materials therefrom, or exercising such power as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 17.

If the party neglects to name an arbitrator, or arbitrators cannot agree on a third.

17. If such owner or occupier neglects to name an arbitrator for the space of twenty days after having been required so to do by the company, or if the said two arbitrators do not, within the space of twenty days after their appointment, name such third arbitrator, or if any arbitrator appointed as herein provided refuses or neglects, within the space of ten days after his appointment, to take upon him the duties hereby imposed, then, upon the application of the company, or of the owner or occupier, the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the land lies may nominate a disinterested competent person, from any township adjoining the township in which the land lies, to act as an arbitrator for the person so neglecting to name an arbitrator, or to act in the place of the arbitrator so refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, or as the third arbitrator, and any award made by a majority of the said arbitrators shall be as binding as if the three arbitrators concurred in and made the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 18.

Regard to be had to benefits to accrue to owner.

18. In ascertaining the amount of compensation, the arbitrators shall have due regard to the benefits to accrue to the owner or occupier by the construction of the road or other work. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 19.

When determined, the company may tender the amount.

19. Upon the amount of the compensation to be paid being determined by the award of the arbitrators, the company may tender the amount to the owner or occupier, and he shall thereupon execute a conveyance of the land to the company, or such other document as may be requisite. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 20.

After which the company may enter and possess.

20. The company may after such tender, and whether a conveyance or other document be executed or not, enter upon and take possession of the land for the use of the company, and hold the same, or exercise such power as aforesaid in like manner as if the conveyance thereof or other document had been executed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 21.

As to gardens, orchards, etc.

21. No road or other such work shall encroach upon any building or pass through or upon any pleasure ground, garden, yard or orchard, nor shall any materials be taken therefrom, nor shall any timber be taken from any enclosed land, without the consent of the owner. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 22.

Owner not to enclose, etc., in order to evade this Act.

22. After a survey of a road has been made, the owner or occupier of land through or along which the road is intended to pass shall not, by erecting any building or enclosing any part of such surveyed land as a yard, or by planting fruit trees or forming an orchard thereon, prevent the company taking possession of the land. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 23.

How arbitrators shall be appointed when the owners of the lands are absent or unable to sell, or the lands are mortgaged, etc.

thereof, or for the exercise of such power by the company, or to appoint arbitrators, as aforesaid, or in case the owners of the lands are under age, the company may name one disinterested competent person, and the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the lands lie, on the application of the company, may name another person, from any township adjoining the township in which the lands lie, which persons, together with one other such person to be chosen by them, before proceeding to arbitrate, or (in the event of their disagreeing as to the choice of such other person) to be chosen by the Judge, shall be arbitrators to determine what amount the company shall pay for the lands, or for damages, and by whom the costs of the arbitration shall be paid, and the award of a majority of such arbitrators shall be binding. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 24.

A record of the award to be registered.

24. A record shall be made and signed by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, specifying the amount awarded and the costs; and the record shall be deposited in the registry office of the registry division in or along which the lands are situated, and the company may thereupon enter upon and take possession of the lands for the use of the company, and proceed with the construction of their road or other work in, along or over the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 25.

Costs where award does not exceed tender.

25. In case of arbitration under this Act, if the company, before the appointment of their arbitrator, tendered a sum equal to or greater than that awarded by the arbitrators, the costs of arbitration shall be paid by the opposite party, and may be deducted by the company from the amount of the award, before payment thereof, and in case such tender is proved to the satisfaction of the arbitrators, they shall state the fact and the amount thereof in their award. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 26.

Award to be paid on demand.

26. The company shall on demand pay to the several parties entitled to the same the amount so awarded, and in the case of persons under age the amount shall be paid to their guardian, or in case none has been appointed the same shall remain a charge against the company, to be paid over when such infancy ceases. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 27.

Meetings and proceedings of the arbitrators.

27. In every case of arbitration under this Act, the arbitrators appointed shall fix a convenient day for hearing the respective parties, and shall give them eight days' notice at least of the day and place; and having heard the parties or otherwise examined into the merits of the matter brought before them, the arbitrators or a majority of them shall, within thirty days of their appointment, make their award or arbitrament thereupon in writing, which award or arbitrament shall be final as to the amount in dispute. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 28.

Lands taken to be free of incumbrances.

28. All lands taken by such company, for the purpose of a road or other work as aforesaid, and purchased and paid for by the company in the manner hereinbefore provided, shall become the property of the company, free from all mortgages, incumbrances and other charges. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 29.

By-laws for widening or altering roads.

29. Wherever the directors are of opinion that it is desirable to widen, extend or alter the line of road as projected or constructed or to construct a side road to intersect the original main road, or to improve or repair a road or part thereof by substituting stone, gravel, plank or other suitable material, they may, from time to time, but subject to the acquired rights of any other company then incorporated under this or any other Act, by by-law provide for the widening, extending, or altering of such line of road, or for the construction of such side roads and the making of such improvements and repairs. 60 V. c. 31, s. 2.

UNION OF COMPANIES.

Union of companies.

30. In case the shareholders representing or holding at least two-thirds of the capital stock of any two or more companies for the construction or purchase of roads intersecting or contiguous to each other, consent by a resolution to that effect adopted at a general meeting of the shareholders of each company, specially called for that purpose, to the union of such companies, the directors of such companies may petition the Lieutenant-Governor through the Provincial Secretary, for the issue of supplementary letters patent for the incorporation of the said companies as a united company by such name and on such terms as may seem meet. 60 V. c. 31, s. 5, part.

Rights and liabilities of company formed by such union.

31. All the roads, estate, property and effects, with the rights and privileges of such two or more companies, shall, after the issue of such supplementary letters patent, be vested in and be used and enforced by the united company, designated in the supplementary letters patent, and such company shall be subject to and responsible for all debts, contracts and liabilities of the former companies. 60 V. c. 31, s. 5, part.

SALE OF ROADS.

Companies may sell their roads, works and privileges.

32. It shall be lawful for a company heretofore or hereafter incorporated for constructing a road, to sell the road and works constructed by them to any company heretofore or hereafter incorporated for purchasing a road, and the latter company shall, after the purchase, or after any purchase of the road or works under any power granted by the former company or under any legal process against the former company, stand in the place and stead of the former company, and possess all such powers and authority as the former company theretofore possessed and exercised in respect to the road and works, and be subject to all and every the provisions of this Act; and section 35 of this Act shall apply to all such sales. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 60; 60 V. c. 31, s. 4.

Companies may sell their works and rights to municipalities.

33. A company formed under this or any former Act may sell to any municipal council representing the interests of the locality through or along the boundary of which such road passes, or in which the work is situate, and the municipal council may purchase the stock of the company, or any part of the road belonging to the company, at the value that may be agreed on between the company and the municipal council; and the municipality may hold the same for the use and benefit of such locality, and shall, after the purchase stand in the place and stead of the company, and possess all such powers and authority as the company theretofore possessed and exercised in respect to the road or part of road, or other work purchased. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 64.

Application of proceeds.

Sale of works to pass the rights of the Company with respect to such works, to the purchaser.

35. In case a road, bridge or pier, or wharf constructed by a joint stock company, incorporated under the laws of Ontario, has been heretofore or is hereafter sold either by the joint stock company or under some power granted by them, or under legal process against the company, the sale or sales shall in all cases, be deemed to have passed and to pass the roads, bridges and piers, or wharfs to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, with all the rights, privileges and appurtenances, and subject to all the duties and obligations which the law gave or imposed with reference to the road, bridge, pier or wharf, whilst the same continued the property of the joint stock company which had constructed the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 66.

POWERS OF MUNICIPAL COUNCILS.

Companies may search for and take materials for making or repairing roads.

36. A municipal council or company which has already acquired or made, or which hereafter acquires or makes, such macadamized, plank or other road, may search for and take materials for making and keeping the road in repair, in the same manner as companies for the construction of roads under this Act, and the price or damage to be paid to any person for such materials, or for anything done in pursuance of the powers hereby given, shall, if not agreed upon by the parties concerned, be settled by arbitration in the manner herein provided in the case of lands or materials taken or required for the original construction of such road or other work. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 67.

Municipalities may acquire stock in such company.

37. A municipal council, having jurisdiction within the locality through or along the boundary of which such road passes, or in which such work is constructed, may subscribe for, hold, sell and transfer stock in any company formed under this or any former Act passed for the like purpose, and may from time to time direct the mayor, reeve, warden or other chief officer of the municipality on behalf thereof, to subscribe for such stock in the name of the municipality, and to act for and on behalf of the municipality in all matters relative to such stock, and the exercise of the rights of the municipality as a shareholder, and the mayor, reeve, warden or other chief officer shall, whether otherwise qualified or not, be deemed a shareholder in the company, and may vote and act as such, subject to any rules and orders in relation to his authority, made in that behalf by the by-laws of the municipal council or otherwise, and may vote according to his discretion in cases not provided for by the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 68.

Municipalities may raise money to pay for such stock.

38. The municipal council may pay all instalments upon the stock they subscribe for and acquire, out of any moneys belonging to the municipality, and which are not specially appropriated to any other purpose, and may apply the moneys arising from the dividends or profits on the said stock, or from the sale thereof, to any purpose to which unappropriated moneys belonging to the municipality may lawfully be applied. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 69.

Election of directors by municipalities controlling stock.

39. Where a municipal council holds stock in the company, and is by law entitled to vote for the election of directors, and holds a controlling amount of the stock in the company, such council shall by resolution appoint such number of directors only as will suffice to form a majority of the board of directors, and all members of such municipal councils, whether shareholders in their own right or not, and any ratepayer in the municipality not being a shareholder in his own right shall be eligible to be appointed directors on behalf of the municipality, and the shareholders other than such corporation shall elect the other directors. 55 V. c. 36, s. 1.

Municipalities may loan money to companies.

40. The municipal council of any locality through or along the boundary of which such road passes, or within which any such work connected therewith is constructed, may, out of the moneys belonging to the municipality and not appropriated to any other purpose, lend money to the company authorized to make the road or construct the work, or to any company heretofore chartered by Act of the Legislature for a like purpose, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the company and the municipality making the loan, and the municipality may recover the money so loaned and appropriate the same to the purposes of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 71.

And issue debentures.

41. The municipal council may issue debentures for the payment of any loan negotiated by them with such company, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as required by law with regard to the issuing of other debentures. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 72.

Application of the provisions of sects. 37-41 to municipal councils of cities and towns.

42. The provisions of the last preceding five sections shall, in so far as respects the municipal councils of cities and towns, apply to all cases of companies formed under this Act, or heretofore chartered by any Act of the Legislature, for the formation of roads or the construction of bridges within or without such cities and towns respectively. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 73.

MATERIALS.

Company may acquire gravel beds, etc.

Proviso for arbitration.

43. The directors of the company or the municipal council having the management of any road, may acquire, take and hold any gravel bed, and may take and carry away stone or gravel from any lands lying within the township through or along which their road or any portion thereof passes, for repairing the same, subject to arbitration in the manner herein provided, in case the owner of the gravel bed or materials cannot agree with the directors or council as to the compensation to be paid therefor. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 74.

Of what materials roads may be made.

44. A company formed for the construction of a turnpike road under this Act, or under any of the Acts in section 2 of this Act referred to, may in their discretion form the same in part or the whole, either of metal, gravel, timber, charcoal or any other suitable material for constructing a firm, substantial and smooth surface, whether the material be mentioned in the registered instrument of incorporation or not. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 75.

Roads or other works and materials for the same vested in company and their successors.

45. Every road or other work connected therewith, and all materials from time to time provided for constructing, maintaining, widening, extending or repairing the same, and all toll-houses, gates, and other buildings, constructed and acquired by or at the expense of any company acting under this Act, and used for their benefit and convenience, shall be vested in such company and their successors. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 76.

Road companies to lay down in grass all cleared lands belonging to them and adjoining their roads.

46. Every company incorporated under this Act or any of the Acts in section 2 of this Act referred to shall, whenever it may be necessary, sow with grass seed all cleared land or ground belonging to the company and adjoining their road or roads, and cause the same, so far as may be, to be covered with grass or turf, and cause all thistles and other weeds growing on the land or ground to be cut down and kept constantly cut down, or to be rooted out of the same; and if the company fails so to do, the company shall thereby incur a penalty of $2 for each day on which they fail to comply with any of the requirements of this section, within eight days after having been required to comply with the same by a notice to be served on the company on the part of the reeve of the municipality of the township within which the land or ground lies. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 77.

Penalty for default.

On default municipality may do work.

47. If the company does not, within eight days, comply with the notice, the reeve may cause all such things to be done as the company were by the notice lawfully required to do, and the municipality may recover, to and for the use and purposes of the municipality, the expense of so doing, together with the penalty, and all costs and charges, from the company, in any Court having jurisdiction in civil cases to the amount sought to be recovered. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 78.

TIME FOR COMPLETION OF ROADS.

Roads, etc., to be completed within a certain period after incorporation of Companies.

48. Every company shall, within two years from the day of their becoming incorporated, complete every road or extension thereof, not more than five miles in length, and any other work undertaken by them, and for the completion whereof they have become incorporated, and in default thereof they shall forfeit all the corporate and other powers and authority which they have acquired, and all their corporate powers shall thenceforth cease and determine, unless further time is granted by a by-law of the county in which the road or the greatest portion thereof is situated. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 79.

Periods for completion in different cases.

49. If the road or extension thereof exceeds five miles in length, then the company shall complete in each and every year after the expiration of the first two years as aforesaid, not less than five miles of the road until the same is entirely finished, under pain (unless further time be granted as aforesaid) of forfeiture of their charter and of the corporate powers and authority thereby acquired, as far as concerns the portion of the road which remains unfinished. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 80.

ABANDONMENT OF ROADS.

Abandonment of road and assumption thereof by the council.

50.—(1) A company formed under this Act, or any of the Acts in section 2 of this Act referred to, may by by-law abandon the whole or any portion of their road.

Abandonment of part.

(2) After the abandonment of a portion of such road the municipal council of any municipality, within which the road or any part thereof lies, may assume such abandoned portion of the road as lies within the municipality, and have and exercise the same jurisdiction over the same and be liable to the same duties as such council has or is subject to, in respect to the public roads within its jurisdiction.

Abandonment of a whole road.

(3) The abandonment of the whole road shall be signified by the head or president of the company, by a notice in writing, delivered to the municipal council of the county wherein the road or any part thereof lies; and until the delivery of such notice as aforesaid, the company shall be liable in any action for damages arising from the unsafe condition of the road, and after the abandonment the municipal council of any county within which the road or any part thereof lies, may assume such abandoned portion of the road as lies within the county, and have and enjoy all the rights, and be subject to all the responsibilities and liabilities, as provided in section 102 of this Act.

(4) Failing such action on the part of the county council the road shall then be subject to the same jurisdiction for the control and repair thereof as further provided in section 103 of this Act; but no such company shall be entitled to abandon any intermediate portion of their road without the consent of the municipal council of the county within which the portion of the road lies, such consent to be expressed by by-law of the municipal council; nor shall any road company or municipal council be entitled to collect tolls upon any remaining portion of the road, less than five miles in extent, if the road originally exceeded five miles in length. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 81.

Certain sections not to apply to private roads.

51. The several sections of this Act which provide for the resumption of roads by municipalities, the removal of material and buildings from the same and of intermediate portions thereof, shall not be held to apply to roads constructed by a company or corporation on private property, or acquired by a company from private owners. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 82.

TOLLS ON ROADS, ETC.

Tolls how to be fixed, paid and levied.

52. The president and directors of a company may from time to time fix, regulate and receive the tolls and charges to be paid by persons passing and repassing with horses, carts, carriages and other vehicles, and for cattle, swine, sheep or other animals driven upon, over and along the road of the company, or by persons passing over any bridge with such carriages or animals, or using any work constructed, made or owned by the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 83.

When tolls may be collected.

53.—(1) Whenever two or more miles of such road or extension thereof have been completed, tolls may be taken therefor, but tolls shall not be taken on any other work of the company until the same has been completed.

Bridges under municipal control.

(2) In case a bridge, whether under the jurisdiction of a municipal council or otherwise howsoever, intervenes or forms part of the line of the road, the same shall not be held to affect the rights of the company under this section, reserving always the rights and obligations of the municipality or other owner thereof over the bridge.

What shall be a sufficient completion of the road within the time limited.

(3) In case of companies constructing plank roads, the completion of the laying of the planks shall be deemed a compliance with the requirements of this Act for the purpose of erecting toll-gates, and it shall not be lawful for any inspecting engineer appointed as hereinafter provided to condemn such road, except as regards the plank roadway, until the expiry of eighteen months after the erection of toll-gates; and such companies shall be allowed eighteen months exemption from the operation of section 80 of this Act, as far as the completion of their ditches and side grading is concerned, to enable them to complete the same according to the plans and specifications of their works. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 84.

Limitation of tolls.

Rev. Stat. c. 238.

54.—(1) Subject to the provisions of The Act exempting certain Vehicles, Horses and Cattle from Tolls on Turnpike Roads, and of section 74 of this Act, tolls may be taken by any company at each time of passing each gate upon the road constructed or owned by the company, for any portion of such road on either side or on both sides of the said gate (not being more than five miles) to the next gate or gates on the same road, if any, and not exceeding five miles in the whole, or for the whole of the road if the length thereof does not exceed five miles and there is only one gate thereon, at the following rates per mile, that is to say: R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 85, part.

(a) For every vehicle, whether loaded or otherwise, and for one horse or other beast drawing the same, one and one-half cents; and for every vehicle whether loaded or otherwise, drawn by two horses or other beasts and the horses or other beasts drawing the same, two cents; and for every additional horse or other beast drawing such vehicle, one cent; 58 V. c. 31, s. 1 (1), part.

(b) For every horse with or without a rider, one cent;

(c) For each head of neat cattle, one cent;

(d) For every score, or number less than a score, of sheep or swine, one cent; and (e) In addition to the above rates, one cent at each time of passing each gate for any portion of the road on either side or both sides thereof for every five hundred pounds over and above six thousand, which a loaded vehicle weighs when the tires are less than four inches wide. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 85 (b-d); 58 V. c. 31, s. 1 (2).

Special rates for short roads.

(2) On any toll road now established and which is not less than two miles or more than three miles long where one toll only is charged for using the whole length of the road, a charge of three cents for one horse or other animal and any vehicle drawn thereby may be made at each time of passing a gate, or five cents for passing and return on the same day if required, and a charge of five cents may be made for a pair of horses or other animals and any vehicle drawn thereby at each time of passing a gate. 58 V. c. 31, s. 1 (3).

(3) Whenever in computing the toll to be paid, the computation results in a fraction of a cent, such fraction shall be counted as a cent. 58 V. c. 31, s. 1 (1), part.

Wide tires on certain vehicles.

55. The wheels of every vehicle loaded with masts, spars hewn or round timber, or otherwise, when the load exceeds in weight three tons, shall, when used upon or passing over the road constructed or owned by any company to which this Act applies, be provided with tires not less than four inches wide, under penalty of paying one cent at each time of passing each gate for any portion of the road on either side or both sides thereof for every five hundred pounds of such load in excess of three tons. 58 V. c. 31, s. 2.

Tolls on intersecting roads not owned by same company.

56. (1)—Where a toll road is intersected by or connected with another toll road, not owned or in the possession of the same company or municipal corporation, the tolls to be charged upon either of the said roads from the point of intersection or connection, shall be based upon the mileage of the road from the point of intersection or connection to its termination in the direction in which the person liable for toll is proceeding; and shall be calculated at the rate per mile charged by the company for travelling along the entire length of its road.

(2) It shall be incumbent on such person to produce a ticket from the last toll-gate on the intersecting or connecting road as evidence of his having travelled only from the intersection or connection. 60 V. c. 31, s. 6.

Tolls at bridges may, with consent of county council, exceed the said rates.

57. A company formed under this or any former Act may, with the sanction of the council of the county having jurisdiction in the locality, charge a higher rate of toll than is hereby authorized, at any toll-gate erected at a bridge upon or connected with a road constructed by the company; and the council, in sanctioning such additional toll, may take into account the cost of the bridge, and may calculate the toll as if for so many additional miles of road as might have been constructed by the like expenditure. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 88.

Collection of extra tolls.

58. Such last mentioned tolls shall be collected in the same manner, and persons evading the same shall be liable to the same penalties as herein provided with respect to other tolls. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 89.

Companies authorized to erect toll and check-gates, etc.

59. Every such company may erect such number of toll-gates, check-gates, and side-bars in, along or across the said roads, and upon any other such work respectively, and fix, regulate and collect such tolls not exceeding the rates hereinbefore provided, to be collected at each gate, check-gate, or side-bar, as they deem expedient, and may from time to time alter the tolls, toll-gates, check-gates and side-bars, and may erect and maintain such toll-houses, toll-gates, check-gates, side-bars and other buildings and erections as are necessary and convenient for the due management of the business of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 90.

Crossing toll road.

60. (1)—No tolls shall be taken for merely crossing a road or for travelling thereon not more than half a mile in crossing from one transverse road to the transverse road which is nearest to the one from which such crossing was made.

No toll payable by farmer or gardener going to work on his own farm.

(2) No toll shall be payable by any farmer or gardener residing on the line of such road when going to or returning from his work on his farm or garden, nor for any of his cattle or other stock when being driven or taken from one farm or garden owned or occupied by him to another part of the same farm or garden when such farm or garden also adjoins such road.

Proviso.

Provided that when such farm or garden is not continuous along such road, such farmer or gardener shall not be entitled to travel on said road without toll as aforesaid or drive or take his stock more than one-half mile on any part of such road not adjoining or in front of his farm or garden. 58 V. c. 31, s. 3.

Tickets to be given at check-gates to pass principal gate, and vice versa.

61. In case a company deems it necessary or convenient to erect a check-gate on any part of their road, they shall not demand toll at both the check-gate and the gate to which it acts as a check; but tickets shall be issued at the check-gate, on payment of the toll demanded, clearing the principal gate, and vice versa; and the distance regulating the rates of toll shall not be calculated between any of the check-gates and the principal gates on such road, but only between the principal gates themselves. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 92.

Directors may commute for tolls.

62. The directors of a road company may, from time to time, commute with any person whose place of abode adjoins or is within half a mile of the gate nearest to his place of abode on such road. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 93.

Commuting tolls payable by persons residing on a toll road.

63. Any person desiring to commute for a fixed annual sum the tolls payable by him upon using any toll road, may give notice in writing to the company or municipal corporation owning or controlling the road, requiring the company or municipal council to commute the tolls payable at any toll gate or toll gates on the road, in respect of vehicles and animals owned by or in the possession of the person desiring to commute at a gross amount per annum from the date at which the amount of the commutation shall be settled; and if such person and the said company or municipal council owning or controlling the road, are unable to agree upon the amount to be paid, the same shall, on the application of such person, be determined by the Judge sitting in the Division Court of any division into which any part of the said road extends, whose decision shall be final. 57 V. c. 46, s. 1; 58 V. c. 31, s 5 (1-3).

Notice of application to Judge.

64. Any person making application under the preceding section, shall give at least ten days' prior written notice thereof, to the company or municipal corporation owning or controlling the road, by leaving the said notice with the person in charge of the toll gate or one of the toll gates on the said road, in respect to which commutation is sought, and the notice shall state the name of the applicant in full, his place of residence, occupation, and post-office address, and the time and place of the sitting of the Division Court at which the said application will be made. 57 V. c. 46, s. 2; 58 V. c. 31, s. 5 (4).

Judge to hear and determine question summarily.

65. The Judge of said Division Court on proof of the due service of the said notice, shall, at the sittings mentioned therein, hear the parties to the application and take evidence on oath, if required, and shall dispose of the matter in a summary way, and shall give his decision thereon in writing to such of the parties as shall apply for the same, and the disposition of the costs of the proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Judge, who shall make such order in the premises as appears to him to be reasonable and just. 57 V. c. 46, s. 3.

Matters to be considered by Judge.

66. The Judge may upon the hearing have regard to:—(a) an approximate estimate of the amount of toll paid by the applicant during the twelve months next preceding the application, and the probable travel for the twelve months succeeding the date of such decision; (b) the number of horses or other animals, and the number and nature of the vehicles owned or used by the applicant, in respect of which toll may be demanded; (c) the distance from the gate or gates at which the property owned or occupied by the applicant is situated; (d) the cost of that portion of the road travelled over by the applicant and the benefits and advantages derived by him from the construction of such road, and (e) such other considerations as may be necessary to do justice in the premises. 57 V. c. 46, s. 4.

How commutation to be fixed.

67. The commutation shall be based upon the mileage rates of toll authorized by this Act, and where the distance proposed to be travelled over by the applicant is less than the whole length of the road, the amount of commutation shall be based upon the actual distance which the applicant proposes to use, and he shall be entitled for such commutation rate to use any portion of the road that may be covered thereby. 58 V. c. 31, s. 6 (1).

Order of Judge to continue in force from year to year.

68. The order of the Judge shall continue in force from year to year, at the same rate and until rescinded upon the application of either party, after the expiration of one year from the date thereof. 58 V. c. 31, s. 6 (2).

Re-consideration of order of commutation.

69. If at any time during the currency of such order it is made to appear to the Judge who granted the same that by reason of altered or unforeseen circumstances, the actual user of the road by the person so commuting is so increased or so decreased as to render the sum fixed by such order manifestly unjust, either party may, by leave of the said Judge, obtain a reconsideration of the order in the same manner as is herein provided for the original application, and upon such reconsideration the said Judge may make such amended or other order as he deems just between the parties. 57 V. c. 46, s. 6.

Pass to be given on payment of amount fixed by Judge.

70. Upon the production of the order of the Judge fixing the amount to be paid by the applicant by way of commutation as aforesaid, and on payment of the amount named in the said order or upon payment of the amount agreed upon as the case may be, the company or corporation owning or controlling the road shall give to the person so commuting an annual ticket or pass for the toll-gate or toll-gates in respect of which commutation has been made, and upon the production of such ticket or pass by the person named therein, or by his servants, or the members of his family, all vehicles, horses and other animals, in respect of which toll would otherwise be payable, if owned by or in the possession of the person commuting as aforesaid, shall be permitted to pass through the said gate or gates without payment of toll during the period for which commutation has been made. 57 V. c. 46, s. 7; 58 V. c. 31, s. 6 (3).

Penalty for transferring pass, etc.

71. Any person who fraudulently transfers a pass given under the provisions of this Act, or who uses or attempts to use the same so as to enable vehicles, horses, or other animals, other than those mentioned in the preceding section, to pass through any toll-gate or over any toll-road, without payment of toll, shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine of not less than $5 and not more than $20, or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding thirty days. 57 V. c. 46, s. 8.

Extra tolls.

72. No such order for commutation shall be construed to affect the right of the company or corporation owning or controlling the road, to demand and enforce payment of the extra tolls authorized by section 55 of this Act. 57 V. c. 46, s. 5.

73. No gate-keeper shall be bound to give change for a larger amount than $1. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 94. As to money change.

74. The following persons shall be exempt from the payment of any duties or tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any pier, wharf, quay or landing-place, or passing any turnpike roads or bridges, or passing any toll-gate or road made or improved under this or any former Act: Exemption from toll.

1. Her Majesty's officers and soldiers being in proper staff, or regimental or military uniform, dress or undress, and their horses (but not when passing in any hired or private vehicle unless when on duty or proceeding to or from the same);

2. Recruits marching by route;

3. Prisoners under military escort;

4. Enrolled pensioners in uniform, when called out for training or in aid of the civil power;

5. Carriages and horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in her service when conveying such persons or their baggage, or returning therefrom;

6. Persons, horses or carriages going to or returning from a funeral;

7. Any person with horse or carriage going to or returning from his usual place of religious worship on the Lord's day; See also Cap. 238, sec. 2.

8. Any farmer residing on the line of such road passing any toll-gate opposite to and immediately adjoining his farm, when going to or returning from his work on such farm; See also Cap. 238, sec. 3.

9. Every person with a vehicle laden solely with manure brought from any city, town or incorporated village, and employed to carry such manure into the country parts for the purpose of agriculture, and the horse or horses or other beasts of draught drawing such vehicle, passing any turnpike gate or toll-gate, on such road within twenty miles of such city, town or incorporated village, as well in going from such city, town or incorporated village, as in returning thereto if the vehicle be then empty. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 95. See also Cap. 238, sec. 4. Vehicles laden with manure to pass free of toll through turnpike gates.

75. Tolls may be charged on vehicles carrying the mails upon a road or bridge constructed under this or any former Act, or under any special or private Act of incorporation; but as regards all roads and bridges constructed by the Government or Board of Works of the late Provinces of Canada or Upper Canada, and transferred to any company on condition that the mail should pass free over the same, an exemption from toll shall continue in favour of the mails. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 96. Tolls may be charged on mail carriages, etc.

Exception as to certain roads.

Exception limited on the roads last mentioned.

76. In the case of such last mentioned road or bridge there shall be no such exemption in favour of any mail stage or other vehicle drawn by two horses and carrying the mail, and containing or having more than four passengers travelling thereby, or in favour of any mail stage or other vehicle drawn by four horses and carrying the mail, and containing or having more than eight passengers travelling thereby; but every mail stage or vehicle drawn by two horses and containing more than four passengers, and every mail stage or vehicle drawn by four horses and containing or having more than eight passengers travelling thereby, shall for every extra passenger beyond four or eight respectively be liable at each gate to a toll of two cents. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 97.

Rate of toll if mail carriage has more than 4 or 8 passengers respectively.

As to roads under lease before the 14th June, 1853.

77. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rate of toll which any party is entitled to collect under any lease or contract executed before the 14th day of June, 1853. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 98.

Issue of commission under Rev. Stat., c. 19, to inquire as to toll roads.

78. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time appoint a commission of one or more persons for examining into the tolls chargeable and charged on roads or bridges within the Province, whether owned by a company or by individuals, to which this Act applies, or which have been constructed or held thereunder, or which collect tolls by virtue thereof or otherwise, and generally as to the costs of such roads or bridges and of their maintenance, and all such other matters respecting such roads or companies as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall direct; and The Act respecting Inquiries concerning Public Matters shall be deemed to apply to such commission and the proceedings thereof. 58 V. c. 31, s. 8; 59 V. c. 43, s. 1.

Rev. Stat. c. 19.

REPAIR OF ROAD.

Company to keep roads in repair.

79. After a road or portion of a road, bridge, or other such work, constructed or acquired by a company or municipality under this or any former Act, has been completed and tolls established thereon, the company or municipality shall keep the same in repair. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 99.

Proceedings to compel repair on requisition to County Judge.

Power of County Court Judge to order examination of roads out of repair.

80. If such company or municipality suffers a portion of their road on which tolls have been taken to get out of repair, the Judge of the County Court in the county in which such road is situated, may, upon the requisition of six freeholders residing within one mile from the road, or upon the requisition of any municipal council within such county, stating that the road is so much out of repair as to impede or endanger Her Majesty's subjects and others travelling thereon, direct a competent engineer, (not being a shareholder in the road company or an officer in the municipal council owning the road), to examine the road; but the requisition shall not be presented to the County Judge until at least six days' written notice thereof, (signed by one or more of the said freeholders, or by the head of such council if notice is given by a municipal council,) has been given in the manner provided by section 82 of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 100.

Engineer to be sworn, etc.

81. Where an engineer has been so directed by the Judge of the proper County Court to examine any road, the engineer, shall, before proceeding to make his examination, be sworn before the County Judge, or some Justice of the Peace for the county, carefully and impartially to examine into the state of the road, without favour or affection for either party; and the County Judge or Justice of the Peace shall grant a certificate that the engineer has been so sworn before him, which certificate shall be evidence that the engineer has been so sworn. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 101.

Engineer to notify Company if road out of repair.

82.—(1) The engineer so appointed shall, upon receiving such directions immediately inspect and examine the road, and if upon such examination the road is found so much out of repair as to impede or endanger Her Majesty's subjects and others travelling thereon, as stated in the requisition, he shall notify the president of the company or head of the municipality to which the road belongs, by leaving a written notice at the office or place of business of the president or head of the municipality, if there is such office or place of business within the county wherein the road is situated, and the office or place of business is known to the engineer, and if not so known, then by leaving the notice with any of the keepers of the toll-gates belonging to the company or municipal council.

(2) The notice shall state that in pursuance of directions from the Judge of the County Court he has inspected their road and found it to be out of repair, and shall specify the particular portions or portion of the road which he finds out of repair, and require them to take notice thereof, and to cause the same to be repaired within a certain time, to be named in the notice; and the time shall be such as in the opinion of the engineer will be sufficient for making the required repairs.

(3) The engineer may make a special report to the Judge of the County Court, that the road inspected by him is as to the whole or as to a certain portion thereof, so much out of repair as in his opinion to justify an order for the cesser of the right to tolls, in respect to the whole or to the portion of the road described, and upon service of a copy of the special report on the president of the company or head of the municipality to which the road or roads belong, in the manner hereinbefore provided, neither the directors of the company nor the municipal council nor any person authorized by them shall demand or take any toll from any person travelling with or without any beast or vehicle for passing through the nearest toll-gates, whereat tolls were being collected at the time of the special report on the road, or on either side of the portion or portions of the road so out of repair, under the penalty mentioned in section 88 of this Act, until the engineer or an engineer approved by the Judge of the County Court has again examined the road and certified it to be in good and efficient repair, or unless the Judge of the County Court otherwise orders, under proceedings to be taken and had, similar to the case of directors disputing that their road is out of repair under the provisions of section 84 of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 102.

Proceedings on expiration of time limited in notice.

83.—(1) At the expiration of the time limited in the notice for the repairing of the road, the engineer shall again examine the road, and if he finds the same repaired in a good and efficient manner, he shall certify the same if required by the directors or municipal council.

(2) If he does not find it so repaired, he may, in his discretion, by a permission in writing, allow further time for repairing the same without discontinuing the taking of tolls.

(3) If he does not think proper to grant such permission, or if having granted it he does not find the road properly repaired at the expiration of time limited in such permission, then until such repairs are completed neither the directors nor municipal council (as the case may be) shall demand or take any toll from any person travelling with or without any beast or vehicle, for passing through the nearest toll gates whereat tolls were being collected at the time of the notice on either side of the portion or portions of road so notified as out of repair, under the penalty mentioned in section 88 until the engineer has again examined the road, and certified it to be in good and efficient repair. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 103.

Proceedings if it be disputed that road is out of repair.

84.—(1) If the directors of the company or the municipal council dispute their road being so out of repair, as reported by the engineer in the notice so given, the directors or municipal council may, within five days next after the service of the notice by the engineer, make application either verbally or in writing to the Provincial Instructor in Road-making.

(2) The Provincial Instructor in Road-making shall forthwith, after such application, by a summons under his hand, require the attendance of the engineer and the directors or municipal council at such time being within ten days next after such application, and at such place as may be fixed in the summons.

(3) The Provincial Instructor in Road-making shall hear and examine under oath or affirmation such witnesses as may be offered on behalf of either party, and after hearing the evidence shall decide and certify whether the road or portion so reported out of repair is or is not so out of repair.

(4) If the Provincial Instructor in Road-making decides that the road is so out of repair as certified by the engineer, then, after such decision, the directors or municipal council shall cease to take any toll at the toll-gate as hereinafter mentioned until the repairs are fully completed.

(5) The costs of the hearing and examination shall be in the discretion of the Provincial Instructor in Road-making.

(6) After such application by the directors or municipal council, and until the decision of the Provincial Instructor in Road-making, the Judge may in his discretion allow the directors or municipal council to collect tolls or may prohibit the collection of tolls at the gate or gates on either side of the portion of road so reported by the engineer to be out of repair. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 104; 60 V. c. 45, s. 77.

Neglect to repair, and cesser of right to tolls.

85.—(1) After the expiration of the time limited in the notice or permission referred to in sections 82 and 83 (or in case of a reference to the Provincial Instructor in Road-making, as provided in section 84 of this Act, then after the decision of the said Provincial Instructor, if the decision is against the directors or municipal council), and until such repairs are completed, neither the directors of the company nor the municipal council, nor any person authorized by them, shall demand or take any toll from any person travelling with or without any beast or vehicle for passing through the nearest toll-gates whereat tolls were being collected at the time of the notice, on either side of the portion or portions of road so out of repair, under the penalty mentioned in section 88 of this Act, until an engineer, approved by the Judge of the County Court, has again examined the road and certified it to be in good and efficient repair.

Materials not to be removed from road.

(2) After the notice or decision of the County Judge, or the Provincial Instructor, as the case may be, in the manner aforesaid, and until the repairs have been completed as directed by the engineer, no company nor any person shall be entitled or permitted to destroy, take, remove, or carry away from such road any earth, stone, gravel, plank, or other material forming any part of the road, or having been used in the construction of the same, nor any toll-house, toll-gate, toll-bar, or any appendages thereto belonging.

Penalties.

(3) Any company or any person destroying, taking away, or removing such earth, stone, gravel, plank or other material, toll-house, toll-gate, toll-bar, or any appendages thereto belonging, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to prosecution by the municipal council of the municipality wherein the road lies and whereon such earth, stone, gravel, plank or material, toll-house, toll-gate, toll-bar, or appendages belonging thereto are situate, and shall, on conviction in the manner provided in section 132 of this Act, incur the penalties in the said section mentioned; which penalties when recovered shall be paid over to the municipal council bringing the action, and shall form part of the public funds of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 105.

Partial want of repair.

86.—(1) In case of the sudden damage or destruction of any portion of a road, or of a bridge or culvert, caused by freshet or fire, or in case the directors or municipal council desire to take down any bridge or culvert for the purpose of rebuilding the same, the engineer, if required to examine the road in accordance with this Act, shall, in case the remaining portions of the road are in a suitable state of repair, allow a reasonable time for the repair of such portion of the road, or the erection or construction of such bridge or culvert, and shall give notice in writing to the directors or municipal council of the time so allowed to repair, erect or construct the same; and the directors or municipal council may collect tolls during the time specified in the notice for the repair of the road or the erection or construction of the bridge or culvert.

Neglect to repair, and cesser of right to tolls.

87.—(1) In case the directors or municipal council neglect or refuse to erect or construct such bridge or culvert, or repair such portion of road as aforesaid, within the time specified in the notice so given by the engineer, or refuse or neglect to provide such temporary passage for the use of the travelling public as in the next preceding section required, the portion of road so damaged or whereon the bridge or culvert so damaged or destroyed as aforesaid existed, shall be deemed to be out of repair, and the engineer shall thereupon give to the directors or municipal council a notice in the manner provided in section 82 of this Act.

(2) The notice shall set forth that the time fixed for the repair of the portion of road, bridge or culvert has expired, and that the repairs have not been completed, or that the temporary passage has not been constructed within the time fixed for constructing the same, and that henceforth until the repairs have been fully completed, the directors or municipal council shall not demand or take toll at the gate or gates at or on either side of the portion or portions of road, bridge or culvert so out of repair, under the penalties imposed by the next succeeding section of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 107.

Penalty for taking toll when the road is out of repair.

88. If after the expiration of the time limited in the notice or permission referred to in sections 82 and 83 (or the notice referred to in the last preceding section, or the decision of the County Judge or Provincial Instructor in Road-making, as the case may be), and before the required repairs have been completed, any person acting as a keeper of such toll-gate demands or takes toll, or refuses to allow a person travelling as aforesaid to pass through the toll-gates without payment thereof, he shall, upon conviction before a Justice of the Peace for the county in which the toll-gate is situated, upon the oath of one credible witness forfeit, and pay a sum of not less than $1 nor more than $4 for every such offence, to be collected or enforced in the manner prescribed for the collection or enforcement of other penalties under this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 108.

Costs of examination of the road.

89. If the engineer, on his first examination of the road, finds it to be in good repair, the costs attending the requisition to the County Judge and the examination of the road, shall be paid by the freeholders who made the requisition; but if he finds it to be out of repair as aforesaid, the costs of the requisition to the County Judge and of the visits and examination of the engineer, and all subsequent costs and expenses, shall be borne by the company or municipality bound to repair the road, and shall be recoverable from the company or municipality, either by the engineer or by the freeholders making the requisition to the County Judge, if they have paid the same to the engineer; and the costs shall include a fair remuneration to the engineer for his services, and all his necessary disbursements. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 109.

Another engineer may be appointed in certain cases.

90. If the engineer first appointed by the County Judge becomes, from any cause, unable to make or complete the examination, or to do or complete any proceeding required of him by this Act, in relation to such requisition as aforesaid, then the Judge of the proper County Court, being satisfied thereof, may, upon the application of any of the parties interested, appoint some other engineer to make or complete such examination, or do or complete such proceeding, act or thing, as effectually to all intents and purposes as the engineer first appointed might have done, and the costs and disbursements of the engineer so appointed may be recovered in like manner. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 110.

In case of question as to sufficient repair, directors to appoint an arbitrator.

91.—(1) Where the directors of the company or municipal council, after the service of a notice to repair given by the engineer in the manner hereinbefore provided, have put the road into such repair as that in their judgment Her Majesty's subjects are not impeded or endangered in travelling thereon, and the engineer refuses or neglects to accept the repairs as sufficient, the directors, or municipal council may appoint an arbitrator, and give notice thereof in writing to the persons signing the requisition upon which the order for examination of the road in question was issued, or to any two of them, calling upon them to appoint an arbitrator in the matter on their behalf, within six days after the service of the notice, and to notify the directors or municipal council of such appointment; and in default thereof, the sheriff of any county within which such road lies, shall, within four days after a request in writing made upon him by the directors or municipal council, appoint such second arbitrator, and the two arbitrators so appointed shall forthwith appoint a third arbitrator in the matter.

(2) In no case shall the engineer, or a member of the company or council concerned, be appointed or act as arbitrator.

(3) A list of the persons signing the requisition shall be furnished by the Judge upon a written request made to him by the directors or municipal council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 111.

In certain cases Judge to appoint third arbitrator.

92. If, after the two arbitrators have been appointed as aforesaid, they fail or neglect for the space of six days to appoint a third arbitrator, the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the road lies, shall, within four days after a request in writing made upon him by either of the two arbitrators appointed as above, appoint a third arbitrator. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 112.

Oath to be taken by arbitrators.

93. The arbitrators, before proceeding to try the matter of the arbitration, shall take and subscribe the following oath (or in case of those who by law affirm, make and subscribe the following affirmation), before any Justice of the Peace:

"I, A. B., do swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly try the matters referred to me by the parties, and a true and impartial award make in the premises according to the evidence: So help me God."

which oath or affirmation shall be filed with the award. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 113.

Proceedings on arbitration.

94.—(1) The arbitrators shall, within six days after the appointment of the third arbitrator, examine the road, and at a sitting to be held by them as convenient as may be to the portion of the road so examined, shall examine under oath or affirmation such witnesses as may be presented for examination on behalf of either party to the arbitration.

(3) In case the arbitrators are of opinion that the then state of the road, if in a condition not to impede or endanger Her Majesty's subjects and others travelling thereon, is so in consequence of the action of the frost or snow, or condition of the weather, and not from suitable and proper repairs having been made at the expense of the said company or municipal council, they shall adjudge the costs of the arbitration against the directors of the company or municipal council, and shall make an award in writing setting forth the condition of the road, and whether the same is in such condition so as not to impede or endanger Her Majesty's subjects and others travelling thereon, and whether such condition arises from the action of frost or snow, or condition of the weather, or from suitable and proper repairs having been made at the expense of the directors of the company or municipal council. Case of repair by weather.

(4) In case the road is not in a proper state of repair they shall set forth what repairs are necessary to be made, and shall allow a reasonable time for so repairing the road, taking into consideration the facilities for obtaining the material to repair the road as required, and the arbitrators may permit the directors of the company or municipal council to levy, or may prohibit them from levying tolls, while the repairs are being completed, as to them may seem fit and proper. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 114. Repairs necessary to be set out by arbitrators.

95. The award shall be in duplicate, one copy whereof shall forthwith be filed in the office of the First Division Court of the county in which the road, or the greater part of it is situated, and the other copy shall be served upon the president of the road company or upon the head of the municipal council, as the case may be; and the award of the arbitrators, or of any two of them, shall be final and binding on all parties. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 115. Award to be in duplicate.

96. At the expiration of the period so fixed by the arbitrators, or sooner if required by the directors of the company or municipal council, the arbitrators shall examine the road, and if the repairs are completed as by their award required, they shall deliver a certificate to that effect to the directors of the company or municipal council, or if they find the repairs not completed they may, if they consider it just, extend the time for the completion of the repairs so required to be done by the award from time to time to such period as they deem proper, and notice of such extension shall be given to the directors of the company or the head of the municipality: and the arbitrators may permit the directors or the municipal council to levy, or may prohibit them from levying, tolls while the repairs are being completed, as to them seems just and proper. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 116. Examination and delivery of certificate of repair of the road to the directors, etc.

97. In case the arbitrators refuse or neglect to examine the road within two days next after being required by the Provision in case of failure of arbitrators to examine.

directors or municipal council so to do, by written notices signed by the head of the company or municipal council, and served personally upon the arbitrators or left at each of their last and most usual places of abode, the directors or municipal council shall be entitled to levy and collect tolls in the same manner as if the arbitrators had examined and certified the road to be in a fit and proper state of repair. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 117.

Costs of arbitration.

98. The arbitrators shall, subject however to the provisions of sub-section 3 of section 94 of this Act relating to the costs of the arbitration, assess and award the payment of the costs of the arbitration by the directors of the road company, or the municipal council, or the petitioners, or in such proportion as against one or all of them, as to the arbitrators seems just, and shall file a copy of the award for such costs in the First Division Court of the county in which the road, or the greater part of it, lies, and the award shall thereupon become a judgment of the said Court, and the payment of the costs may be enforced by execution in the same manner as a judgment of the said Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 118.

Decision of majority binding.

99. In case of difference between the three arbitrators, the decision of any two of them shall be conclusive. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 119.

Fees to arbitrators.

100. A fee not exceeding $4 per diem, for the time necessarily expended by them in the matter of the arbitration, shall be paid to each of the arbitrators making the award, and shall be included in their award as part of the costs of the arbitration. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 120.

If road not repaired within three months after notice, tolls at certain gates not to be levied.

101. In case the company or municipal council owning the road, as aforesaid, does not cause the portion or portions of the road so out of repair, as aforesaid, to be put in a proper state of repair within three months next after the expiration of the time fixed in the written notice to repair, so given by the engineer in the manner above provided, the company or municipal council, as the case may be, shall not demand or take any toll from any person travelling with or without beast or vehicle, for passing through the nearest two toll-gates on or on either side of the portion or portions of the road so out of repair, under the penalty mentioned in section 88 of this Act, until the engineer has again examined the road, and certified it to be in good and efficient repair; and for every additional three months' time respectively thereafter during which the said portion or portions of the road is or are not put in a proper state of repair, to be certified by the engineer or arbitrators in the manner provided herein, the company or municipal council shall forfeit the right to demand or take toll for two additional toll-gates, being those on either side of the toll-gates in respect to which they had last before forfeited the right to take toll. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 121.

Neglect to repair and forfeiture of road to municipal councils.

102. If the company permit or allow their road to remain out of repair for the period of nine months next after the time fixed by the engineer or arbitrators (as the case may be), as in this Act provided, to repair the same, the company shall forfeit all right to their road, and the municipal council of the county through which the road or any part thereof passes may enter upon and take possession of the same, and exercise the same jurisdiction over the same as the road company owning the road was entitled to under this Act, and the municipal council may repair the same in accordance with the award of the engineer or arbitrators in reference to the same; and after the repairs have been made by the municipal council, may levy and collect tolls thereon, and possess and enjoy all the rights and powers, and be subject to all the duties and requirements of this Act, in reference to such toll roads. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 122.

Repairs by municipal councils.

103. In case the municipal council of the county does not think fit and proper, within the period of one month next after the expiration of the aforesaid nine months, to assume, by by-law, the road for the purposes of repairing the same, and levying tolls thereon, the municipal council of any municipality which would, under the provisions of the Municipal Acts at the time in force be required to maintain and keep the road in repair as a common and public highway, shall be liable to the same duties as the municipal council has, or is subject to, in respect to the public roads within its jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 123.

Proceedings to compel repair on requisition to the County Council.

Appointment of engineer by county council

104.—(1) Every county council may name and appoint by by-law an engineer to carry out the provisions of sections 105 to 115 of this Act, and such engineer shall be and continue an officer of such corporation until his appointment is repealed by by-law and another appointed in his stead, who shall have authority as well to take as to continue any proceeding already commenced under this Act. 53 V. c. 42, s. 1 (1).

"Engineer," meaning of.

(2) The word "engineer" in sections 104 to 115 of this Act shall mean civil engineer, land surveyor, or such person as any county council may deem competent to perform the duties required under this Act. 53 V. c. 42, s. 1 (2).

Examination of roads when out of repair, upon requisition.

105. Wherever a road, or portion of a road or bridge, constructed or acquired by a company subject to this Act, on which tolls have been taken is suffered by such company to get out of repair, the engineer may upon the requisition of five or more freeholders residing within one mile from the road, or upon the requisition of any municipal council within such county, stating that the road is so much out of repair as to impede or endanger Her Majesty's subjects and others travelling thereon, examine the road or bridge. 53 V. c. 42, s. 2.

Notice of requisition to be given to company.

106. Such examination shall not be made until at least three clear days' written notice of such requisition (signed by the said freeholders or two of them, or by the head of such council) has been given to the company by leaving the same with any of the keepers of the toll-gates belonging to the company. 53 V. c. 42, s. 3.

Engineer to examine road and notify company of want of repair.

107. The engineer, after two clear days after the notice so to be given has been left with the keeper of the toll-gate, shall inspect and examine the road or bridge; and, if upon such examination the road or bridge is found so much out of repair as to impede or endanger Her Majesty's subjects and others travelling thereon, as stated in the requisition, he shall notify the president of the company to which the road belongs, by leaving a written notice at the office or place of business of the president, if there is such office or place of business within the county wherein the road is situated and the office or place of business is known to the engineer, and if not so known then by leaving the notice with any of the keepers of the toll-gates. 53 V. c. 42, s. 4.

Contents of notice to company.

108. The notice by the engineer shall state that in pursuance of a requisition from [naming the freeholders or the municipal council upon whose requisition he has acted] he has inspected the road or bridge and found it to be out of repair and shall specify the particular portions or portion of the road or bridge which he finds out of repair, and require them to take notice thereof, and to cause the same to be repaired within a certain time to be named in the notice; and the time shall be such as in the opinion of the engineer will be sufficient for making the required repairs; and such notice shall include a statement of the cost and charges of such engineer, the same not being such as to be inconsistent with the fees established by law to be taken by land surveyors on proceedings in courts, and the same shall be subject to taxation by the Judge of the County Court at the instance of the company or owner. 53 V. c. 42, s. 5.

Engineer to re-examine road on expiration of time limited.

109. At the expiration of the time limited in the notice for the repairing of the road, the engineer shall again examine the road, and if he finds the same repaired in a good and efficient manner, he shall certify the same if required by the directors. 53 V. c. 42, s. 6.

Tolls to cease until road repaired.

110. If he does not find the road properly repaired at the expiration of the time limited, then until such repairs are completed the directors shall not demand or take any toll from any person travelling with or without any beast or vehicle, or passing through the nearest toll-gates whereat tolls were being collected at the time of the notice on either side of the portion or portions of road so notified as out of repair, under the penalty mentioned in section 88 of this Act, until the engineer has again examined the road, and certified it to be in good and efficient repair. 53 V. c. 42, s. 7.

Effect of special report by engineer.

111. The engineer may make a special report such as is mentioned in subsection 3 of section 82 of this Act, which, upon service thereof on the directors of the company to which the road or roads belong, shall have the effect in such subsection mentioned, until such engineer has again examined the road and certified it to be in good and efficient repair, or unless the Judge otherwise orders as in said subsection mentioned. 53 V. c. 42, s. 8. See 60 V. c. 45, s. 77.

Powers of engineer and appeal to County Judge.

112. The engineer shall have the authority given by sections 85, 86, 87, 88 and 89 of this Act to an engineer appointed by the County Judge. His action shall be subject to appeal to the Provincial Instructor in Road-making; the proceedings for which appeal shall be the same (as nearly as may be) as the proceedings on an application to the said Provincial Instructor as set forth in section 84 of this Act. 53 V. c. 42, s. 9; 60 V. c. 45, s. 77.

Application of ss. 91-101.

113. Sections 91 to 101 of this Act inclusive shall apply in the same manner and to the same extent as if the engineer had been appointed by the County Judge under section 80. 53 V. c. 42, s. 10.

Sections 104 to 115 to apply to roads owned by individuals.

114. Sections 104 to 115 of this Act shall apply where the road is owned by a private individual or private individuals in the same manner as when it is owned by a company, and the word "company" in said sections shall be construed to include an owner or owners whether forming a company or not. 53 V. c. 42, s. 11.

Where company has special charter or Act of incorporation.

115. Sections 104 to 114 of this Act shall apply where a road or portion of a road or bridge on which tolls have been taken, constructed or acquired by a company having a special charter or Act of incorporation is suffered by such company to get out of repair, except that in such case the engineer to examine the road or bridge shall be an engineer appointed by the County Court Judge (or by the senior County Court Judge if there are in the county more County Court Judges than one) instead of by the County Council, and such engineer shall be appointed as provided by sections 80 and 81 of this Act, and the subsequent proceedings may be as provided by either sections 82 to 103 or sections 104 to 114 of this Act. 55 V. c. 36, ss. 2, 3.

ENFORCING REMOVAL OF SNOW.

Enforcing the levelling or removal of snow on toll roads.

116.—(1) Upon the written requisition of six freeholders residing within one mile of any toll road during the months of December, January, February and March, the engineer of the county shall examine and inspect such road, and if he finds that by reason of the accumulation of snow or ice thereon, the road has become obstructed so that persons cannot travel safely and conveniently thereon with horses and vehicles, and has been so obstructed for a period of one week, he shall give notice to the company or municipality owning such road that until the snow is removed or levelled as required by such notice, no toll shall be taken upon such road or at the gates thereon specified in the notice, and thereafter no tolls shall be taken upon such road or at such gates, but the road shall be free until the engineer has given his certificate in writing that the snow has been so removed or levelled in compliance with his order.

(2) The engineer, after giving such notice shall, when required in writing by the company or municipality owning the road, make an examination and inspect the same, and if he finds that his order has been complied with, shall give the certificate mentioned the preceding subsection.

(3) The notice of the engineer may be served in the manner mentioned in subsection 1 of section 82 of this Act. 60 V. c. 32. s. 1.

SALE OF ROADS UNDER EXECUTION.

The interests of companies may be sold under execution.

117. The right and interest of a joint stock road company in or to a road or any part or parts thereof may be sold under execution against the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 124.

If purchaser repays council, making repairs, the road and right to collect toll to become vested in him.

118.—(1) The purchaser at such sale may, at any time within two years from the time of the sale, reimburse and pay to the municipal council which has made any outlay for the repair and maintenance of the road or the part or parts thereof so purchased, the amount expended by the council; and thereupon the head of the municipal council shall grant to the said purchaser a certificate to that effect, under his hand and the seal of the council, and upon, from and after the registration of the certificate in the registry office for the registry division in which the road or any part thereof is situate, the road, or the part or parts thereof so purchased shall become vested in and be the property of the purchaser, and the provisions of sections 102 and 103 shall thenceforth cease to apply to or in respect of the road, or the part or parts thereof so purchased, as aforesaid, and the purchaser shall have the same right to collect tolls and all such other rights and privileges, and be subject to the same duties and obligations in respect to the road, or the part or parts thereof so purchased, as if the sale had taken place before the right to collect tolls had been suspended.

If purchaser does not repair the road, it is to revert to municipality.

(2) Unless the purchaser within twelve months from and after the time when he has reimbursed and paid to the municipal council the amount of the outlay as above provided, causes the road, or such portion or portions thereof as are out of repair within the meaning of this Act, to be put in a proper state of repair, and procures the certificate of the engineer that the same has been done, and thereafter keeps the road, and every portion thereof, in a proper state of repair within the meaning of this Act, the purchaser shall forfeit his property in the road, or in the part or parts thereof so purchased by him as aforesaid, and the same shall again become vested in the municipality or municipalities in the same way as if this section and the next preceding one had not been enacted. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 125 (1, 2).

Arbitration enactments to apply.

119. All the enactments in this Act hereinbefore contained in reference to arbitration shall apply to the preceding section. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 125 (3).

Application of ss. 117-119.

120. The preceding three sections shall apply to all roads or parts or portions of roads, the outlay upon which was, before the 29th day of March, 1873, reimbursed and paid to the municipal council, as provided in section 118 of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 126.

Certain purchasers to keep roads in repair.

121. Any purchaser of a road or any part or portion of a road who has heretofore reimbursed and paid to any municipal council the amount of outlay as provided by the Acts heretofore in force, and has complied with the provisions of the said Acts, shall hereafter keep the road, and every portion thereof, in a proper state of repair within the meaning of this Act; and in the case of failure to keep the road in a proper state of repair within the meaning of this Act, the purchaser shall forfeit his property in the road, or in the part or parts thereof so purchased by him as aforesaid, and the same shall again become vested in the municipality or municipalities, as if this section had not been enacted. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 127.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

Owner or lessee of toll road to display red light on gates when closed.

122. Every person or municipal or other corporation, being the owner, lessee, or having control of any road or bridge upon which tolls are collected, shall cause a bright red light to be displayed upon every gate or toll bar on such road whenever the gate or bar is closed, during any period between sunset and sunrise, and in default shall be liable in an action for damages sustained by any person by reason of such default, and shall also incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not more than $20 for every such offence, which penalty may be recovered with costs in any court having jurisdiction to that amount by any person who may sue therefor. 60 V. c. 30, s. 1.

Penalty for taking more than the proper toll.

123.—(1) If any person, being either the renter or collector of tolls at any gate on any road, takes a greater toll than is authorized by law, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of $20 to be recovered in the same manner as other penalties imposed by this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s 129.

Application of penalty.

(2) The penalty for any offence against this section shall be payable to the complainant if the complainant is the person from whom excessive toll has been taken, and where the complainant is not the person from whom excessive toll has been taken, one-half of the penalty shall be payable to the complainant and one-half to such person. 59 V. c. 43, s. 2.

Penalty for passing or attempting to pass gates, etc. without payment of toll.

124. If any person not exempted by law from paying toll, wilfully passes or attempts to pass any toll-gate, check-gate or side-bar lawfully established, without first paying the legal toll, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding $20 and costs, to be recovered in the same manner as other fines and forfeitures may be levied under this Act; and in case no sufficient distress can be found to satisfy a warrant issued against the goods and chattels of the offender, such offender shall then be committed to the common gaol of the county for any period not exceeding one month. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 130.

Imprisonment in first instance in certain cases.

125. In case the offender after conviction neglects or refuses to pay the amount of the fine and costs, and it is by affidavit made to appear, to the satisfaction of the acting Justice, that the offender has no goods or chattels within the jurisdiction of such Justice, a warrant of commitment may issue, and the person convicted may be imprisoned thereon in the first instance upon any conviction under the last preceding section of this Act, without issuing any warrant of distress against goods and chattels. R. S. O. 1887, c. 152, s. 131.

126. If any person, subject or liable to the payment of any toll by virtue of this or any former Act, neglects or refuses, after demand thereof, to pay the same, the person authorized to collect such toll may by himself, or taking such assistants as he thinks necessary, seize or distrain any horse, cattle, carriage or other thing in respect of which such toll is imposed, together with their respective bridles, saddles, gear, harness or accoutrements (except the bridle or reins of any horse or other beast separate from such horse or beast), or any carriage in respect of the horses or cattle drawing the carriage on which such toll is imposed, or any of the goods and chattels of the person so required to pay. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 132.

Mode of enforcing payment of tolls in case of refusal to pay.

127. If the toll so neglected or refused to be paid, and the reasonable charges of such seizure and distress, are not paid within the space of four days next after such seizure and distress made, the person so seizing and distraining, after having given four days' public notice thereof, may sell the horse, beast, cattle, carriage and things so seized and distrained, or a sufficient part thereof, returning to the owner thereof upon demand the overplus of the money arising from the sale (if any), and what remains unsold after such tolls and the reasonable charges occasioned by the seizure, distress and sale, have been deducted. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 133.

If toll not paid within four days after seizure, sale to take place.

128. If any person, after proceeding on such road with any waggon, carriage or other vehicle or animal liable to pay toll, turns out of the road into any other road or field or piece of land for the purpose of avoiding the payment of toll, and enters upon the said road beyond any of the said gates or check-gates by crossing the road or otherwise without paying toll, whereby the payment of toll is evaded, such person, or the owner of such vehicle or animal, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of $2 and costs; and any one Justice of the Peace for the county in which such part of the road is situated shall, on conviction of the offender, fine him in the said penalty and costs, and shall cause the same to be levied as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 134.

Penalty on persons using a road and turning off the same in order to avoid payment of toll.

129. If any person with intent to aid in the evasion of toll, knowingly permits or suffers any other person proceeding on a toll road to pass through any lands adjoining such road and occupied by such first mentioned person, or through any gate thereon with any carriage, sleigh, horse, mare, gelding, or any other animal liable to the payment of toll for the purpose of enabling the person so proceeding on such toll road to pass through said lands and to enter upon such toll road beyond any of the said gates or check gates and proceed thereon without paying toll and thereby evade payment of the toll, the person so offending and also the person riding or driving or the owner of the animal or carriage the payment whereon is so evaded, shall, on conviction before any one Justice as aforesaid, incur a penalty not exceeding $4 and not less than $1 to be levied as aforesaid, with costs. 58 V. c. 31, s. 4.

Penalty on persons leaving horses, etc., on the road so as to avoid payment of toll.

130. If any person leaves upon a toll road any horse, cattle, or carriage by reason whereof the payment of any toll or duty is evaded or lessened, or takes off any horse or cattle from any vehicle, either before or after having passed through any toll-gate, or, after having passed through any toll-gate, adds or puts any horse or other beast to any such carriage and draws therewith upon any part of any such road, so as to increase the number of horses or other beasts drawing the vehicle after the same has passed through such toll-gate, whereby the payment of all or any of the tolls has been evaded, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $4, to be levied as aforesaid, with costs. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 136.

Penalty on persons falsely claiming exemption.

131. In case any person falsely represents himself to any toll-gatherer, or gate-keeper, as being entitled to any exemption mentioned in this or any other Act, or evades the payment of toll by any false representation or other fraudulent act, he shall forfeit to the company or municipality owning the road the sum of $4 and costs, to be recovered summarily before a Justice of the Peace in the manner provided by this Act for the recovery of other penalties. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 137.

132. In case any person—

Penalty on persons removing materials used in constructing road.

(a) Removes any earth, stone, plank, timber or other materials used or intended to be used in or upon any road for the construction, maintenance and repair thereof; or

Or driving off the metal and on the soft part of the road.

(b) Drives any loaded wheel carriage or other loaded vehicle upon that part of any road constructed under this or any former Act, between the stones, plank or hard road and the ditch, further than may be necessary in passing another vehicle, or in turning off or upon such road; or Damaging bridges, etc.

(c) Causes any injury or damage to be done to the bridges, culverts, posts, rails or fences; or Hauling timber, etc., so as to injure road.

(d) Hauls or draws upon any part of any such road, any timber, stone or other thing carried principally or in part upon wheeled carriages or upon sleighs, so as to drag or trail upon such road to the prejudice thereof; or Leaving any carriages on the road.

(e) Leaves any waggon, cart or other carriage upon such road without some proper person in the custody or care thereof, longer than may be necessary to load and unload the same, except in case of accident, and in cases of accident for any longer time than may be necessary to remove the same; or

Laying timber, stones, rubbish.

(f) Lays any timber, stones, rubbish or other thing whatsoever upon the road, to the prejudice, interruption and danger of any person travelling thereon; or

(g) Having blocked or stopped any cart, waggon or other carriage in going up a hill or rising ground, causes or suffers to remain on such road any stone or other thing with which such cart or carriage had been blocked or stopped; or Leaving stones in the road used to block carriage.

(h) Pulls down, damages, injures or destroys any lamp or lamp-post put up, erected or placed in or near the side of such road, or any toll-house erected on such road, or wilfully extinguishes the light of any such lamp; or Injuring lamp-posts, etc.

(i) Wilfully pulls down, breaks, injures or damages any table of tolls put or fixed at any gate, check-gate or bar, on any part of such road, or any sign-board erected by any company upon any road or bridge constructed by them; or

Damaging table of tolls, etc.

(k) Wilfully or designedly defaces or obliterates any of the letters, figures or marks thereon, or on any finger post or mile post or stone; or Defacing mile posts, etc.

(l) Throws any earth, rubbish or any other matter or thing into any drain, ditch, culvert or other watercourse made for draining any such road; or Throwing rubbish into drains.

(m) Without permission carries away any stones, gravel, sand or other materials, dirt or soil from any part of such road, or digs any holes or ditches on the allowance for the same; or Carrying away any stones, gravel, etc.

(n) Allows any swine to run at large to the injury of the road;

Allowing swine to run at large.

every such person shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary way before any Justice of the Peace in or near the place where the injury has been done, be sentenced to pay all damages sustained by such company, which damages shall be ascertained by the Justice on hearing the complaint, and shall also be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $10 nor less than $1 together with all costs; which damages, fines and costs shall be paid within a time to be limited by the Justice, and in default thereof the same shall be levied as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 138.

133. The company may impound all swine found running at large on plank roads owned by it, and the pound keepers of municipalities on the line of such roads shall receive such animals, and shall be entitled to be paid the usual fees, and in default of payment may sell the animals in the usual way, notwithstanding that such animals may be free commoners under the by-laws of their municipalities. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 139.

Further protection against swine running at large.

134. No company or municipality, or contractor, sub-contractor, or person employed by such company or municipality, contractor or sub-contractor, shall leave or place upon the graded part of any road constructed or acquired by such company, or municipality, under this Act or any former Act, whether such part of the road is or is not macadamized, gravelled or planked, any stone, gravel, plank, timber or other materials whatsoever so as to prevent the public from using or to impede the free use of the whole of such graded portion of road; and for any offence against this section, such company, municipality, contractor or sub-contractor, or other person shall be responsible for all damages arising from the offence; and such contractor, sub-contractor or other person shall also incur a penalty of not less than $1 nor more than $20, to be recovered summarily before a Justice of the Peace in the manner provided by this Act for the recovery of other penalties. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 140.

Company and their servants not to impede the free use of the whole graded portion of the road.

Penalties.

Application of penalties.

135. The penalty for any offence against the last preceding section in the case of roads owned by companies, shall be paid to the municipality within which the road is situate; and in the case of roads owned by municipalities, one-half of the penalty shall be paid to the complainant, and the residue to the Provincial Treasurer for the public uses of this Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 141

Recovery of fines and forfeitures under this Act.

136. Every fine and forfeiture authorized to be summarily imposed by this Act, may be recovered upon information and complaint before any Justice of the Peace of the county within which the same has been incurred, and may be levied and collected by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under the authority of a warrant of distress for that purpose, to be issued by the Justice before whom the conviction is had, and in case there are no goods or chattels to satisfy the warrant, the offender may be committed to the common gaol of the county for any period not exceeding one month; but nothing in this section contained shall interfere with the provisions made in section 125 of this Act, for issuing a warrant of commitment in the first instance upon conviction for any offence therein mentioned. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 142.

Person not appearing on summons may be arrested, or the case may be heard ex parte.

137. In any proceeding or prosecution before a Justice of the Peace under this Act, the Justice may summon the person complained against to appear at a time and place to be named in the summons, and if he does not appear, then upon proof of the due service of the summons upon such person, either personally or by leaving a copy thereof at his usual place of abode, the Justice may proceed either to hear and determine the case ex parte, or to issue his warrant for apprehending and bringing the person before himself or some other Justice of the Peace, or the Justice may, if he thinks fit, without previous summons, issue the warrant, and the Justice before whom the person appears or is brought shall hear and determine the case. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 143.

Application of fines, etc., when not otherwise provided.

138. Each fine and forfeiture collected under this Act shall, unless otherwise provided, be paid to the treasurer of the company or municipality owning the road or other work in respect of which such fine and forfeiture have been imposed for the use of such company or municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 144.

Actions to be brought within six months.

139. No action shall be brought for any matter or thing done in pursuance of this Act, unless such action is brought within six months next after the fact committed, and the defendant in any such action may plead not guilty by statute, and on the trial give this Act and the special matter in evidence. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 145.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Incorporation of Companies formed and having proceeded with construction bona fide under former Acts confirmed.

140. Notwithstanding any irregularity in the formation, registration or management of any company for the construction or purchase of any road or other work connected therewith under the provisions of any Act passed before the 14th day of June, 1853, and notwithstanding all the requirements of any such Act had not been strictly complied with, all such companies which had theretofore bona fide proceeded in the construction or purchase of any road or other work, shall be held to be duly organized, formed, registered, constituted and managed under such Act: but nothing in this section contained shall be construed to confirm the establishment or management of such company when any irregularity has occurred in the formation, registration or management of the same, unless such company had bona fide proceeded with the construction of or had purchased such road or work before the said 14th day of June, 1853. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 146.

Directors to report annually.

141.—(1) The directors of every company incorporated under this or any former Act shall, in the month of January in each year, report to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and also to the municipal council of the county having jurisdiction within the locality through or along the boundary of which the road passes, or wherein the other work has been constructed—

(a) The cost of the work;

(b) The amount of all money expended;

(c) The amount of the capital stock, and how much paid in;

(d) The whole amount of tolls expended on such work;

(e) The amount received during the year from tolls and all other sources, stating each separately;

(f) The amount of dividends paid;

(g) The amount expended for repairs; and

(h) The amount of debts due by the company, specifying the object for which such debts respectively were incurred.

(2) The return required by this section shall be verified by a statutory declaration of one of the directors of the company.

(3) Any violation of this section shall subject the company violating the same to a penalty of $50 for each violation, and of the additional sum of $25 for each month during which any such company neglects to make such return; such penalty to be recovered under the provisions of this Act and paid over to the Treasurer of this Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 147.

Company to keep regular books.

142. Every company formed under this or any former Act shall keep regular books of account, in which shall be entered a correct statement of the assets, receipts and disbursements of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 148.

Books to be open to inspection.

143. Such books shall be at all times open to the inspection of any person who may for that purpose be appointed by the Commissioner of Public Works of this Province, or by the municipality having jurisdiction as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 149.

And afford the officers of the municipality all information required.

144. Every such inspector may take copies or extracts from the books, and may require and receive from the keeper of such books, and also from the president and each of the directors of the company, and from all the other officers and servants thereof, all such information as to such books, and the affairs of the company generally, as the inspector deems necessary for the full and satisfactory investigation into and report upon the state of the affairs of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 150.

After 21 years from the completion of the work the proper municipality may purchase the stock of the company at its current value.

145. After twenty-one years from the time of completing any such road or any other work authorized to be constructed by a company under this or any former Act, any municipal authority representing the interests of the locality through or along the boundary of which the road passes, or in which the work is situated, may purchase the stock of the company at the current value thereof at the time of purchase, and hold the same for the use and benefit of the said locality: Provided always that such municipal authority may purchase on the terms aforesaid and for the purpose aforesaid the stock of such road company before the expiration of twenty-one years from the time of the completion of such road, but in such case allowance shall be made for any prospective profits which would be likely to accrue to the owners of the stock between the time of purchase and the expiration of twenty-one years from such completion. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 151.

Proviso.

146. If the company and the municipality cannot agree upon the value, the same shall be ascertained by arbitrators to be appointed and to act in the manner hereinbefore provided in other cases; and the municipal authority shall thenceforth stand in the place and stead of the company, and shall possess all such powers and authority as the company had theretofore possessed and exercised. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 152.

Value of stock to be determined by arbitrators.

147. The council of a municipality through which a toll road runs, that has been constructed under this Act, or the owner of any land lying adjacent to the road, may set out shade and ornamental trees alongside the road, in the same manner and with the same rights as if the road were an ordinary highway. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 153.

Shade trees may be set out on toll roads.

148. The council of a municipality through which the road runs, or any person by the permission and direction of the council, may plant shade and ornamental trees, and may grade, level, cut down, or fill up the land, alongside of the road, and may build sidewalks of plank, gravel, or other material thereon, as if the road were an ordinary road or street. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 154.

Land by side of toll road may be used for certain purposes as if such road were an ordinary road.

149. The council of a municipality through which any such road runs, shall have authority to make stone, wood or other crossings across such road, and may dig up the road for the purpose of making sewers, and may construct water courses across or alongside the road, and may construct culverts and approaches over water courses or ditches crossing or alongside of the road from streets, lanes or buildings in the municipality, and may raise or lower the road, or change the grade thereof when necessary in order to connect with other roads or streets, and shall have all other rights and privileges with regard to side-walks, culverts and approaches to the road as if the same were an ordinary highway or street, but the council shall in every such case without unnecessary delay replace the road in as good condition as it was before such work was undertaken, and shall keep in proper repair all such crossings. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 155.

Council of Municipality may make crossings, etc., on road.

150. The last preceding three sections of this Act shall apply to and be held binding on any lessee or any owners of such road whether a joint-stock company or otherwise. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 156.

Sections 147-149 to apply to lessees and owners of roads.

151.—(1) The provisions contained in sections 11 to 29, 30 to 34, 36 to 42, 44, 45, 48 and 52 to 146 of this Act, all inclusive, shall extend and apply to all road companies, and to all toll roads whereon tolls are levied and collected, whether such roads may have been constructed under this Act or any Act in section 2 of this Act referred to, or may have been constructed by or belong to the municipality of any county, and to all toll roads which may have been purchased from the Government of the late Province of Canada and are owned or held by private companies or municipal councils, and also to all toll roads owned, leased, held or in the possession of any person or persons. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, ss. 128, 157 (1); 52 V. c. 27, s. 1.

Certain secs. to apply to all toll roads.

Certain secs. to apply to all Road Cos. having a special charter.

(2) The provisions contained in sections 14 to 29, 30 to 34, 36 to 45, 52, 53, 59 to 73, 75 to 139, 145 and 146, all inclusive, and this provision, shall extend to road companies having any special charters, but no other sections of this Act shall apply to such companies. R. S. O. 1887, c. 159, s. 157 (2).

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Timber Slide Companies Act." R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 1.

Certain powers may be granted to timber slide companies. Rev. Stat. c. 191.

2. In case the Lieutenant-Governor in Council thinks fit, he may confer upon any company heretofore or hereafter incorporated, under The Ontario Companies Act or any Act for which the same was substituted, for the purpose of acquiring or constructing and maintaining any dam, slide, pier, boom or other work necessary to facilitate the transmission of timber down any river or stream in this Province, or for the purpose of blasting rocks, or dredging or removing shoals or other impediments, or of otherwise improving the navigation of such river or stream for the said purpose, the powers authorized by this Act, and every such company shall thereupon become subject to all the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 2.

When letters patent may be issued.

3. The letters patent conferring the powers authorized by this Act shall not be issued to any company until proof has been furnished that one-half of the proposed capital has been subscribed in good faith, and that at least ten per centum thereof (or five per centum of the whole capital) has been paid in to the credit of trustees for the company, and remains at their credit in some one or more of the chartered banks of this Province, nor until notice of the application for a charter has been served upon all timber limit owners and other parties known to be interested in the works proposed to be constructed, who shall also have the option at any time before the issue of a charter of becoming shareholders in the company in proportion to their interests involved. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 3; 53 V. c. 43, s. 6.

Report to be transmitted to Provincial Secretary by applicants.

4. The applicants for a charter shall, with their application, transmit to the Provincial Secretary a report to be laid before the Commissioner of Crown Lands, in case the Provincial Secretary or other officer charged by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council with the duty of reporting thereon deems that the other requirements preliminary to the issue of the charter have been duly complied with, and shall also cause a copy of the report to be laid before the municipal council of the county in which the works are proposed to be situated; or if the works are situate in more than one county, then before the municipal councils of the counties in or on the boundaries of which the works are proposed to be situated; or if the proposed works are in unsurveyed lands not contained within the bounds of any incorporated county, then before the Commissioner of Public Works alone. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 4; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

Rate of dividend may be stated in Letters Patent.

5. The Lieutenant-Governor may, in the letters patent, state a rate of dividend, not exceeding fifteen per centum, which the directors shall be at liberty to pay to the shareholders, if the revenues of the company otherwise justify such payment, and in such case the Commissioner of Crown Lands, shall, in considering the tolls to be allowed, have regard to such rate, but no such rate shall be so fixed for a longer period than ten years. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 5; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

Limitation of company's existence.

6. The existence of any company incorporated under this Act may be limited to a term of years to be fixed by the letters patent. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 6.

Particulars of notice in Gazette.

7. The notice of application in the Gazette need not state the objects of the company with the same detail as is required in the report, but shall give such a description thereof as will reasonably inform the public of the works to be undertaken. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 7.

Contents of report.

8. The report shall contain—

1. A detailed description of the works to be undertaken and an estimate of their cost;

2. An estimate from the best available sources of the quantity of different kinds of timber expected to come down the river or stream yearly after the works have been completed; and

3. A schedule of the tolls proposed to be collected. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 8.

Publication of schedule of tolls.

9. The schedule of tolls so proposed to be collected shall be published for one month from the date of the report containing such schedule in some paper published in the county or counties, district or districts in which, or nearest to which, the works are situate. 53 V. c. 43, s. 2.

Commissioner to consider and approve report before issue of charter.

10. Thirty days after the first day of publishing such schedule of tolls, and not less than thirty days after the said report has been laid before the municipal council or councils, as the case may be, the Commissioner of Crown Lands shall consider the said report, and in case he approves of the proposed works he shall report such approval to the Lieutenant-Governor, who may thereupon direct the issue of a charter. 53 V. c. 43, s. 3.

By-laws to regulate transmission of timber.

11. Every company may make by-laws, and from time to time alter and amend the same, for the purpose of regulating the safe and orderly transmission of timber over or through the works of the company, and the navigation therewith connected. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 10.

Copies of proposed by-laws to be annexed to reports of company.

12. Copies of the proposed by-laws shall be annexed to the reports required to be made by the company by section 4 of this Act, and the proposed by-laws with such variations as are made therein by the Commissioner of Crown Lands at any time before the issue of the letters patent, shall, upon the issue of the letters patent, become the by-laws of the company without further action or adoption by the company, and copies of all new by-laws, and of all amended by-laws, with reference to the said subjects, shall be annexed to the annual reports required by section 21 of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 11; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

When by-law to come in force.

13. No new by-law, or amended by-law, shall have any force until one month after it has been included in the report; but if at the end of one month the by-law has not been disallowed as it may be by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, it shall have full force and be binding upon the company, and upon all persons using the works, unless the Commissioner in the meantime shall have under his hand enlarged the time for considering the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 12; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

Restrictions as to by-laws.

14. No such by-law shall impose any penalties, or shall contain anything contrary to the true meaning and intention of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 13.

Company not to interfere with property without leave.

15. No such company shall construct such works over or upon or otherwise interfere with or injure any private property, or the property of the Crown, without first having obtained the consent of the owner, or occupier thereof, or of the Crown, except as is in this Act provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 14.

Consent to formation of company, when required.

16. No such company shall be formed under the provisions of this Act to improve any river or stream, for the improvement of which any other company has been formed either under this Act, or any other Act of the Legislature, or upon which there is constructed any Provincial work, without the consent of such other company or of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council respectively, which consent shall be formally expressed in writing, and shall be filed in the office of the Provincial Secretary. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 15.

Recovery of payments made for shareholders.

17. In all cases where a shareholder has not paid ten per centum on the share or shares held by him, but some other person pays the same on his behalf, the person so paying may recover the amount as a debt, in any competent Court, although not previously authorized to pay the money on behalf of such shareholder. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 16.

On expiration of company's existence, property to vest in the Crown.

18. Upon the expiration of the period limited for the existence of the company, if such period is limited by the letters patent, all the dams, slides, piers, booms and other works constructed by the company, for the transmission of timber down any river or stream, or for the improvement of the navigation of such river or stream, shall become the property of Her Majesty for the public uses of the Province, and the company, or the shareholders thereof, shall have no right to receive any compensation therefor. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 17.

Company's existence to continue for the purpose of winding up.

19. Notwithstanding the expiration of the said period, the company shall continue to exist for the purpose of taking such proceedings as may be requisite for winding up and settling its affairs, and for getting in its assets, and distributing the same amongst its shareholders and the company may, for the purposes aforesaid, sue and be sued as if the period of its corporate existence had not expired; but after such period the words "in liquidation" shall be added to the name of the company, and shall be a part of such name. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 18.

Distribution of capital and profits.

Rev. Stat. c. 191, s. 83.

Directors to report yearly to the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

21. The directors of every company incorporated under this Act shall, annually, in the month of January, make a report to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, which report shall be under the oath of the treasurer of the company, and shall specify—

What the report is to contain.

1. The cost of the work;

2. The amount of all money expended;

3. The amount of the capital stock, and how much paid in;

4. The whole amount of tolls expended on the work;

5. The amount received during the year from tolls and all other sources, stating each separately, and distinguishing the tolls on different kinds of timber;

6. The amount of dividends paid;

7. The amount expended for repairs; and

8. The amount of debts due by the company, specifying the objects for which the debts respectively were incurred. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 20; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

9. A detailed description of any extension or improvement of the works or of any new works proposed to be undertaken in the following year, together with an estimate of the cost thereof. 53 V. c. 43, s. 8.

10. A detailed description of any repairs or renewals that may require to be made after the 31st day of December in the year to which said report relates and before the time of settling the tolls, together with an estimate of the cost thereof, and in case such repairs or renewals are actually made before the settling of the tolls, the cost thereof may be taken into consideration in fixing such tolls, and such estimated cost of such repairs or renewals shall be advertised along with the schedule of tolls as provided in section 9 of this Act. 59 V. c. 44, s. 1.

Every company to keep regular books of account.

22. Every company shall keep regular books of account in which shall be entered a correct statement of the assets receipts and disbursements of the company, and such books shall be at all times open to the inspection and examination of any shareholder. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 21,

Inspection of books.

23. The Commissioner of Crown Lands may appoint a person to inspect and examine such books and every person so appointed may take copies or extracts from the same, and may require and receive from the keeper of such books, and also from the president and each of the directors of the company, and all the other officers and servants thereof, all such information as to such books and the affairs of the company generally, as the person so appointed deems necessary for the full and satisfactory investigation into and report upon the state of the affairs of the company, so as to enable him to ascertain whether the tolls levied upon the work are greater than this Act allows to be levied. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 22; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

When matters respecting compensation to be submitted to arbitration.

24. If upon demand made by the directors of the company the owner or occupier of any land, over, through or upon which the company desires to construct such work, or which would be flooded or otherwise interfered with, or upon which any power given by this Act to the company is intended to be exercised, neglects or refuses to agree upon the price or amount of damages to be paid for, or for passing through or using such land, or for flooding or otherwise interfering with the same, and for appropriating the same to and for the use of the company, or for the exercise of such power as aforesaid, the company may name one arbitrator, and the owner or occupier of the land may name another arbitrator, and the two arbitrators may name a third, to arbitrate and determine upon the amount which the company shall pay before taking possession of such land or exercising such power, and the decision of any two of the said arbitrators shall be final. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 23.

Arbitrators to consider advantages as well as disadvantages.

25. In ascertaining the amount aforesaid, due regard shall be had by the arbitrators to the benefits which will accrue to the party demanding compensation by the construction of the intended works. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 24.

Upon tender of the sum awarded, the company entitled to a conveyance.

26. The company may tender the sum awarded to the party claiming compensation, who shall thereupon be bound to execute a conveyance of the land to the company, or such other document as may be requisite; and the company, after such tender, whether a conveyance or other document has been executed or not, may enter upon and take possession of the land to and for the uses of the company, and may hold the same, or exercise such power as aforesaid, in the same manner as if a conveyance thereof or other document had been executed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 25.

When the Judge, etc., to name an arbitrator.

27. If such owner or occupier neglects to name an arbitrator for the space of twenty days, after having been notified so to do by the company, or if the two arbitrators do not within the space of twenty days after the appointment of the second arbitrator agree on a third arbitrator, or if any one of the arbitrators refuses or neglects, within the space of ten days after his appointment, to take upon himself the duties thereby imposed, then, upon the application of the company, or of the other party, the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the land lies, shall nominate a disinterested competent person, from any township adjoining the township in which the land is situate, as arbitrator for the owner or occupier so neglecting to name an arbitrator after having been duly notified by the company as aforesaid, or as third arbitrator, or as arbitrator; and every arbitrator so appointed by the Judge of the County Court, shall hear and determine the matter to be submitted to him, with all convenient speed, after he has been so nominated as aforesaid; and any award made by a majority of the arbitrators shall be as binding as if the three arbitrators had concurred in and made the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 26.

How company to proceed in the case of lands of absentees.

28. In case any lands required by the company for the purpose of such work, or with regard to which such power is to be exercised as aforesaid, are held or owned by any person, body politic, corporate or collegiate, whose residence is not within this Province or is unknown to the company, or in case the title to such lands is in dispute, or in case such lands are mortgaged, or in case the owner or owners of such lands are unknown, or unable to treat with the company for the sale thereof, or the exercise of any such power as aforesaid by the company, or to appoint arbitrators as aforesaid, the company may nominate and appoint one indifferent person and the Judge of the County Court where the lands are situate, on the application of the company, may nominate and appoint one other disinterested competent person from any township adjoining the township in which the lands are situate, who, together with one other person to be chosen by the persons so named before proceedingto business, or, in the event of their disagreeing as to the choice, with one other person to be appointed by the Judge as aforesaid before the others proceed to business, shall be arbitrators to award, determine, adjudge and order the respective sums of money which the company shall pay to the party entitled to receive the same, for the lands or damages as aforesaid, and the decision of a majority of the arbitrators shall be binding. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 27.

Amount of award to be paid on demand.

29. When demanded, the company shall pay or cause to be paid to the several parties entitled to the same, the amount so awarded. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 28.

A record of the award to be drawn up and registered.

30. A record of the award shall be made up and signed by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, specifying the amount awarded and the costs of arbitration, which may be settled by the arbitrators, or a majority of them; and the record shall be deposited in the registry office of the registry division in or along which the lands are situate, and the company may thereupon enter upon and take possession of the land to and for the uses of the company, and may proceed with the construction of the works affecting the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 29.

Costs of reference to be paid by the company, etc.

31. The expenses of any arbitration under this Act shall be paid by the company, and by them be deducted from the amount of the award on payment thereof to the parties entitled to receive the same, if the company, before the appointment of their arbitrator, had tendered a sum equal to or greater than that awarded by the arbitrators, otherwise the expense shall be borne by the company, and the arbitrators shall specify in their award by which of the parties the said costs shall be paid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 30.

When lands taken to become the property of the company.

32. All lands which have been taken by the company, for the purpose of such work, and have been purchased and paid for by the company, in the manner hereinbefore provided, shall become the property of the company, free from all mortgages, incumbrances and other charges. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 31.

How arbitrators to proceed.

33. The arbitrators so appointed shall fix a convenient day for hearing the respective parties, and shall give eight days' notice at least of the day and place; and having heard the parties or otherwise examined into the merits of the matter so brought before them, the said arbitrators or a majority of them shall, within thirty days after their appointment, make their award thereupon in writing, which award shall be final as to the amount in dispute. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 32.

If timber slides, etc., erected by others be assumed by the company, how compensation to be made.

34. In case there is already established by any person other than a company formed under this Act or some other Act of this Province, or some Act of the late Province of Canada, any slide, pier, boom, or other work intended to facilitate the passage of timber down any water, for the improvement of which a company is formed under this Act, such company may take possession of the works; and the owners thereof, or (if the works have been constructed on the property of the Crown) the persons at whose cost they have been constructed, may claim compensation for the value of the works either in money or in stock of the company, at the option of the owner or the person at whose cost the same was constructed, and may become shareholders in the company for an amount equal to the value of the works (such value to be ascertained by arbitrators appointed in the manner hereinbefore provided); and all the provisions of sections 28 to 32 of this Act shall apply to such work in the same manner and to the same extent as to lands acquired by such company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 33.

Formalities to be observed by company acquiring existing works.

35. In case such company purchases or takes possession of the works as aforesaid, and does not make or construct any other works than those so acquired, the company shall furnish the Commissioner of Crown Lands with the report in section 8 mentioned, but need not cause a copy to be laid before the county council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 34; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

Mill sites, etc., not to be taken without the consent of the owner.

36. Nothing herein contained shall authorize a company formed under this Act to take possession of, or in anywise injure any mill site upon which there are existing mills or machinery, or hydraulic works other than those intended to facilitate the passage of timber; and no company formed under this Act shall commence any work which interferes with or endangers such occupied mill site, without the assent in writing of the proprietor thereof previously obtained, or an award of arbitrators appointed as herein provided, to the effect that the proposed works will not injure such mill site, which assent or award shall be registered in the same manner as the instrument of incorporation of such company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 35.

Sections 15 & 16 of Rev. Stat. c. 140, to apply.

37. The provisions of sections 15 and 16 of The Act respecting Mills and Mill Dams shall extend to similar land overflowed by any of the works constructed by any company formed under this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 36.

Navigable waters not to be obstructed. Tolls to be on timber only.

38. Nothing herein contained shall authorize a company formed under this Act to obstruct any waters already navigable, or to collect tolls other than those upon timber. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 37.

Rights of parties as to water powers created by the company.

39. If by reason of a dam erected by a company formed under this Act, any fall or water power is created, the company shall in nowise have any title or claim to the use of such water power; nevertheless, if the owner or occupier of the land adjoining has made a claim for compensation for damages arising from such dam, the arbitrators may take into account the increased value of his property by reason of the water power so created. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 38.

Principle on which tolls to be calculated.

40. The tolls for the first year shall be calculated upon the estimates hereinbefore required to be made of the cost of the works, and the quantity of different kinds of timber expected to pass down the stream, and the tolls in all future years shall be calculated upon the cost of the works and the quantity of different kinds of timber expected to pass down the stream, and the receipts and expenditure, according to the accounts of the then next preceding year, as rendered in accordance with the provisions of section 21 and the following sections of this Act; and the tolls shall be so calculated that, after defraying the necessary cost of maintaining and superintending the works and running, driving, booming, towing, sorting, and rafting logs and other timber, and providing an equal annual sinking fund, which, invested at six per centum, shall be sufficient to pay back to the shareholders the amount of their paid-up stock at the end of the time limited for the existence of the company, and collecting the tolls, the balance of the receipts may as nearly as possible be equal and in no case exceed $10 for every $100 expended and invested in the said works, and if in any year the receipts from tolls are such, that, after defraying all the current expenses, there remains a clear profit of more than $10 upon every $100 of the capital expended, there shall nevertheless be divided amongst the shareholders no greater dividend than after the rate of $10 for every $100, and the remainder shall be carried over to the receipts of the following year unless a higher rate is authorized by the letters patent or by Order in Council; and unless the Commissioner of Crown Lands is of opinion that injustice will be done to any of the persons interested, such surplus may, in case of a deficiency, be applied in whole or in part upon any deficiency which may be found to have existed in the year preceding the year in which the surplus accrued. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 39; 59 V. c. 44, s. 2.

Commissioner may refer accounts, etc., to an expert.

41. The Commissioner of Crown Lands shall have power by instrument under his hand to refer the taking of the accounts or the consideration of any matter or thing that he may deem necessary in order to the proper adjustment of the tolls to an accountant or expert or any other person of skill, and in such case said accountant, expert or person of skill shall have all the powers conferred or intended to be conferred upon a person appointed to examine the books under authority of section 23 of this Act. 59 V. c. 44, s. 3.

Tolls.

42. The tolls to be collected upon different kinds of timber shall bear to each other the following proportions:

	$ cts.

Cedar, round or flatted, 35 feet and upwards	1/3

55 V. c. 37, s. 2.

Annual account to be rendered by company to contain a schedule of tolls.

43 The annual account required to be rendered by every company shall contain a schedule of the tolls calculated as aforesaid, which it is proposed to collect in the following year, which schedule shall be published in manner provided by section 9 hereof prior to the first day of March in each year, and if it has not been notified to the president of the company, on or before the fifteenth day of April in each year, that the schedule of tolls has been disallowed by an order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, such tolls so published shall be the lawful tolls for that year; but if it appears to the Commissioner of Crown Lands that the proposed schedule of tolls has not been calculated according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, then the Commissioner may, by an instrument under his hand, alter or vary the schedule of tolls so as to make them correspond with the true meaning of this Act; and the amended schedule of tolls shall be notified to the president of the company, and shall by him be published immediately thereafter for two weeks in such newspaper, and shall be the lawful tolls for that year. Should no change be made by the commissioner a notice of that fact shall be published for two weeks in such newspaper. 53 V. c. 43, s. 4.

Company may demand of owner statement of quantity of timber liable to toll.

Penalty for refusal or false statement.

44. Every company may demand from the owner of any timber intended to be passed through any portion of the works of the company, or from the person in charge of the same, a written statement of the quantity of every kind of timber and of the destination of the same, and of the sections of the works through which it is intended to pass, and if no written statement is given when required, or a false statement is given, the whole of the timber, or such part of it as has been omitted by a false statement, shall be liable to double toll. And in case any owner or person in charge, knowingly or wilfully, falsely returns a larger quantity than it is his intention or the intention of such proprietor or person in charge to pass over any of said sections, the company shall be entitled in addition to any other remedies it may have, to collect tolls on the difference between the quantity so falsely estimated and the quantity actually passing over the works. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 42; 59 V. c. 44, s. 4.

On what timber toll may be taken.

Right of company to examine.

45. Every company may demand and receive the lawful toll upon all timber which has come through or over any of the works of the company; and the company by its servants, shall have free access to all such timber for the purpose of measuring or counting the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 43.

May sue for tolls.

46. If the just tolls are not paid on demand, the company may sue for the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and recover from the owner of the timber the amount of the tolls and the costs of suit. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 44.

If full toll tendered, company liable to costs.

47. If the owner of the timber objects to the amount of tolls demanded, and tenders a sum which he claims to be the true and just amount of the tolls, the company shall pay the costs of the action, unless the judgment obtained is for a greater amount than the sum so tendered. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 45.

Toll to be apportioned to the extent of the works used.

48. If timber has not come through or over the whole of the works of the company, but only through or over a part thereof, the owner of the timber shall only be liable to pay tolls for such sections of the whole works as he has made use of, if in the schedule of tolls the work is divided into sections, and if not, then to pay such a portion of the whole toll as the distance the timber has come through the works, bears to the whole distance over which the works extend. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 46.

When and how timber may be seized for tolls.

49.—(1) If the true owner of any timber which has passed through any of the works of the company cannot be ascertained, or if there are reasonable grounds to apprehend that the tolls thereon have not been paid by the owner or reputed owner or person in charge, any mayor, reeve or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction within the locality through or adjoining which such navigation extends, or where the timber may be found, if within twenty miles of any such works, shall, upon the oath of any director or servant of the company that the just tolls have not been paid, issue a warrant for the seizure of such timber, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the tolls, which warrant shall be directed to any constable or any person sworn in as a special constable for that purpose, at the discretion of the magistrate, and shall authorize the person to whom it is directed, if the tolls are not paid within fourteen days from the date thereof, to sell the said timber, and out of the proceeds to pay to the company the just tolls, together with the costs of the warrant and sale, rendering the surplus on demand to the owner. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 47.

Seizure of timber for tolls in streams.

(2) Where the works through which any timber is passed are in whole or in part constructed upon or along any river or stream tributary to any river or stream which flows into the Georgian Bay, Lake Huron, or Lake Superior, or upon or along any of such last named rivers or streams, the right of seizure for tolls in the preceding subsection provided for shall continue while the timber remains in the said last named river or stream, whether the timber be within the said twenty miles or otherwise. And where such works are constructed upon or along any river or stream in the Province of Ontario, tributary to the Ottawa River, the right of seizure for tolls, shall continue while the timber remains in such tributary river or stream, whether within the said twenty miles or not. But this subsection shall not extend the time for such seizure beyond thirty days. 53 V. c. 43, s. 7.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

Impeding the operations of the company.

50. If any person resists or impedes any of the servants of the company in the transmission of any timber through any such works, or in carrying out any regulations of the company for the greater safety and regularity of such transmission, or resists any such servants who may require access to any raft or other timber to ascertain the just tolls thereon, or in any way molests the company or its servants in the exercise of any rights secured to them by this Act, such person shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary way before a Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the locality in or adjoining which the offence has been committed, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $10 nor less than $1, together with all costs, to be paid within a time to be limited by the Justice, and in default to be levied as next hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 48.

How Justices to proceed in prosecutions under this Act.

51. In any proceeding or prosecution before any Justice of the Peace under this Act, the Justice may summon the party complained against to appear at a time and place to be named in the summons, and if he does not appear accordingly, then, upon proof of the due service of the summons upon such party, either personally or by leaving a copy thereof at his usual place of abode, or with any adult person belonging to the raft to which such party is attached, the Justice may either proceed to hear and determine the case ex parte, or issue his warrant for apprehending and bringing the party before himself or some other Justice of the Peace, or the Justice may, without previous summons, issue such warrant, and the Justice before whom the parties appear or are brought shall proceed to hear and determine the case. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 49.

How fines, etc., recoverable.

52. The fines and forfeitures authorized to be summarily imposed by this Act may be recovered upon information and complaint before any Justice of the Peace of the county within which the same have been incurred, and shall be levied and collected by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under the authority of a warrant of distress for that purpose, to be issued by the Justice before whom the conviction has been had. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 50.

If no goods, offender to be imprisoned.

53. In case there are no goods or chattels to satisfy such warrant, the offender shall be committed to the common gaol of the district or county for any period not exceeding one month. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 51.

Fines, etc., to be paid to the treasurer of the company.

54. All fines and forfeitures collected under the authority of this Act shall be paid to the treasurer of the company owning the work in respect of which such fines and forfeitures have been imposed, for the use of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 52.

Limitation of actions.

55. Any action against any person for any matter or thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be brought within six months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards; and the defendant therein may plead not guilty by statute, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence on the trial. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 53.

Commissioner may take evidence on oath.

56. The Commissioner of Crown Lands may administer oaths and take evidence upon oath as to all such matters and things as come before him under this Act, and may by writing authorize any person to whom any matter or thing under this Act shall be referred to administer oaths and take evidence upon oath for the purposes of this Act. 59 V. c. 44, s. 5.

Time for completion of works,

57. Every such company shall, within two years from the day of their becoming incorporated, complete each and every work undertaken by them, and mentioned in the report required prior to the incorporation of the company, and for the completion whereof the company is incorporated; in default whereof they shall be liable to forfeit the right to all the corporate and other powers and authority which they have in the meantime acquired; and the Attorney-General may cause proceedings to be taken in the name of the Crown to set aside the said charter by serving notice upon the company, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, after an opportunity to be heard has been given to the company, declare that their corporate powers shall cease and determine at a date to be named in and by such Order in Council, and from and after such date all the corporate powers of such company shall cease and determine unless prior to the taking of proceedings by the Attorney-General as aforesaid, further time is granted by a by-law of the county or counties, in or adjoining which the work is situate, or by order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or unless on any work or part or parts of such work appearing to be unnecessary, the same is dispensed with by such by-law or by the Commissioner of Crown Lands; and if any company formed under this Act abandons for the space of one year any works completed by them, so that the same are not in sufficient repair and cannot be used for the purpose proposed in the instrument of incorporation of the company, then the corporate powers of the company shall cease and determine, unless the maintenance of the work or any part or parts so abandoned becomes unnecessary owing to the clearance or removal of the timber from the immediate neighborhood thereof, or unless the abandonment of the same is permitted by such by-law or by the Commissioner of Crown Lands. 59 V. c. 44, s. 6.

Abandonment

58. After any works constructed by a company under this Act have been completed and tolls established, the company shall keep the same in good and sufficient repair; and if such works have not been constructed according to the description given thereof in the report required by section 8 of this Act, or have become insufficient or out of repair, any person interested in the navigation may serve upon any servant of the company a notice of such insufficiency, and if within a reasonable time after the service of such notice the necessary repairs have not been completed, the company shall be liable for the damage which any person may sustain from the continuance of such insufficiency; but no company formed under this Act shall be held liable for any damage incurred after the time limited for the existence of the company has expired, or so long as their works are in accordance with the description or specification thereof in the original instrument required to be registered, or in any description or specification subsequently approved of and registered, nor for any damage arising from the accidental destruction or injury of their works, but only for the damage which may arise from the wilful neglect of the company after notice served upon one of its servants, as hereinbefore provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 55.

Works to be kept in good repair.

59.—(1) The Judge of the County or District Court, or where there is no resident Judge in the district in which the portions of the works to be repaired are situate, the Stipendiary Magistrate of the district, on the complaint of any person interested in the driving or transmission of timber or logs down any river or stream, over the works of any timber slide company upon which tolls are collected, that the works are clearly inadequate by reason of being out of repair, shall appoint an inspector to examine the works of the company, and to report on the state of repair thereof, and the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate shall, after report of the inspector, order and direct what repairs are necessary and shall be made by the company, and the time by which the same shall be made and completed. If the company neglects or refuses to make such repairs in obedience to the decision of the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate by such time, the person so interested as aforesaid may make them, and the cost and expense thereof, or such portion thereof as the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate determines, shall be a lien and charge in favour of such person on the works and tolls of the company.

(2) No order shall be made in any one year for repairs upon any one work or improvement which will cost more than $100.

(3) The Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate may require the applicant to deposit with the Clerk of the County or District Court or with such Stipendiary Magistrate, such sum as will in the opinion of such Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate be sufficient to pay the fees and expenses of the inspector, to be allowed by such Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate, at a rate not exceeding $5 per day and actual travelling expenses, and the said sum in the discretion of the said Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate, when the said works are found to be clearly inadequate by reason of being out of repair, may be made a lien or charge in favour of the person paying the same, on the works and tolls of the company.

(4) The applicant shall, before the application comes on to be heard, file with the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate a bond signed by himself in the penal sum of $100, and by two sufficient sureties (who shall duly qualify) each in the sum of $50, conditioned to pay to the company such costs connected with such application and subsequent proceedings as the company may become entitled to.

(5) Where the portions of the works complained of as clearly inadequate by reason of so being out of repair extend into two districts, the application for the appointment of an inspector may be made to the resident Judge or the Stipendiary Magistrate of either district.

(6) Four days' notice of any application to be made hereunder or by virtue hereof shall be sufficient and the notice may be served for the company upon the president, secretary or superintendent, manager or acting manager, of the company and shall be sufficient where there are telegraphic facilities if sent by telegraph.

(7) The costs attendant upon the application or applications (upon the County Court or Division Court scale as the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate may direct), shall be in the discretion of the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate, and he may direct by and to whom the same or any part thereof shall be payable, and the order of the Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate as to payment of costs may be enforced by execution to be issued thereon in case of default.

(8) The word "inspector" where used in this section shall mean any person appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to act as inspector of the works of timber slide companies, and he shall be paid for his services in the manner hereinbefore provided. 55 V. c. 37, s. 1.

When companies may be united.

60. Any two companies formed for the construction of works on any streams contiguous to each other, may unite and form one consolidated company, on such terms as to them seem meet; and the name of the united companies to be then assumed shall thenceforth be the corporate name thereof, and the united companies may then exercise and enjoy all the rights, and shall be subject to all the liabilities of other companies formed under the provisions of this Act, and which the separate companies had and enjoyed or were subject or liable to before the union thereof. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 56.

When the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may declare a company dissolved.

Arbitration in such case.

61. Whenever it is found expedient for the public service, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may declare any company formed under this Act to be dissolved, and may declare all the works of such company to be Provincial Works, upon payment to such company of the then actual value of the works, to be decided by arbitrators, one of whom shall be appointed by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, and one by the company, and if they do not agree to an award, the Judge of the County Court for the county in or adjoining which the works are situate, shall be the third arbitrator, and in settling the amount to be paid to the company for the works, the amount of the sinking fund accumulated at the time of the valuation towards the payment of the capital stock shall be deducted therefrom. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 57; 53 V. c. 43, s. 1.

Letters Patent may limit term of existence of certain companies.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

62. Where a company heretofore incorporated under chapter 153 of the Revised Statutes of 1877, or under chapter 68 of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, applies for the issue of letters patent under section 104 or section 105 of The Ontario Companies Act, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by the letters patent, confer upon the said company any of the powers authorized by this Act, and may by such letters patent limit the term of existence of the said company, and every such company obtaining letters patent as aforesaid, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 58.

Existence of Company may be extended by supplementary letters patent.

63.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor may, by supplementary letters patent extend the term of existence of any company incorporated for a limited period under this Act, for such a number of years, as by Order in Council made previous to the expiry of such period he may direct, and the provisions of this Act having regard to the expiration of the term of existence of a company shall thereupon apply to such term as so extended. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 59.

Special provisions as to companies incorporated before March 5, 1881.

Rev. Stat. 1887, c. 157, s. 72.

Rev. Stat. c. 191, s. 104.

Rev. Stat. 1877, c. 153.

64. Sections 40, 58 and 61 of this Act, shall not apply to any company incorporated before the 5th day of March, 1881, unless and until such company has become or becomes re-incorporated under section 72 of The Ontario Joint Stock Companies' Letters Patent Act, or section 104 of The Ontario Companies Act; but in lieu of the said sections 40, 58 and 61 the provisions of sections 57, 73 and 75 of chapter 153 of the Revised Statutes of 1877, shall apply to any company incorporated as aforesaid and not re-incorporated, and sections 3, 8 to 10, 12 to 26, and 29 to 40 of the said chapter 153 shall also continue to apply to every such company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 160, s. 60.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Incorporation of companies.

1.—(1) Every company incorporated after the 1st day of July, 1897, for the purpose of constructing a pier or wharf, or for dredging or deepening or making a harbour, or for the erection of a dry dock and marine railway connected therewith, shall be incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Application of Act.

(2) Every company for the purpose aforesaid, incorporated before the 1st day of July, 1897, under The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, chapter 161, or any Act consolidated therein, or incorporated after the said date under The Ontario Companies Act, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and of The Ontario Companies Act so far as the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act are applicable and consistent with this Act. Provided always, that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may relieve any company incorporated before the 1st day of July, 1897, from compliance with any of the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act as may be deemed expedient. 60 V. c. 33, s. 1 part, 4.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Stock to be subscribed for.

2. No such company shall be incorporated until such stock has been subscribed to an amount deemed sufficient to complete the work contemplated. 60 V. c. 33, s. 1, part.

Consent of municipality to be obtained.

3. Before a company proceeds with its work, it shall obtain the consent of the municipality within which the work is proposed to be made, and the municipality may fix the limit and boundary of a proposed harbour. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 4.

Company not to take private or Crown property, without consent; nor interfere with companies chartered before 5th Dec., 1859.

4. No company so formed shall take private property without the consent of the owner, or take or interfere with property belonging to the Province without the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or obstruct any harbour in use, or interfere with a company chartered or a board of Commissioners incorporated for the construction of a harbour on the 5th day of December, A. D. 1859. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 5.

Company may borrow money on security of work.

5. The company may borrow money on the security of such work, not exceeding one-half the value thereof. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 22.

Company may demand tolls, when, and amount, etc.

R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 23.

Revision of tolls.

(2) The said tolls or charges may from time to time be changed or revised by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and due notice of such change or revision shall be given by publication thereof in The Ontario Gazette. 60 V. c. 33, s. 3.

7. The president and directors of the company shall, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor, fix and regulate, from time to time, the tolls, rates, dues or wharfage to be received from all vessels entering their harbour or lying at their pier or wharf, and for loading and unloading all goods, wares or merchandise in such harbour, as to them seems meet; but such tolls, rates, dues or wharfage shall not in any case exceed the amount herein specified. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 24. President and directors to fix tolls, etc.

9. Any municipal council having jurisdiction in the locality in which any such work is to be constructed, may subscribe for, obtain, hold, and transfer stock in the company, and may from time to time direct the mayor, reeve, warden, or other chief officer of the municipality, to subscribe for such stock in the name of the municipality, and to act for the municipality in all matters relative to such stock and the exercise of the rights of the municipality as a shareholder, and such chief officer shall, whether otherwise qualified or not, be deemed a shareholder in the company, and may vote and act as such, subject to the rules and orders in relation to his authority, which may be made in that behalf, by the municipal council, but voting according to his discretion in cases not provided for by the council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 26. Municipal councils may hold stock in company.

10. A municipality taking stock may pay for the same out of any moneys belonging to the municipality, and not specially appropriated to any other purpose, and may apply the moneys arising from the dividends or profits on the stock or from the sale thereof, to any purpose to which unappropriated moneys belonging to the municipality may lawfully be applied. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 27. Municipality may pay for stock out of unappropriated moneys of municipality.

11. A company may sell to any municipality representing the interest of the locality in which the work is situate, and any such municipality may purchase the stock of the company at the value agreed on between them, and the municipality shall hold the same for the use and benefit of the locality; and shall, in all respects thereafter, stand in the place of the Municipalities may purchase stock.

company, and shall possess all such powers and authority as the company had theretofore possessed and exercised. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 28.

Directors to make annual report to municipality.

12. The directors of every company shall annually, in the month of January, report to the municipality within which the work is situate, under the oath of the treasurer of the company—

1. The state and nature of their work ;

2. The amount of all money expended ;

3. The amount of their capital stock, and how much is paid in ;

4. The amount of dividends paid and the amount expended for repairs ; and

5. The amount of debts due by the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 19.

Sale of works to pass the rights of the company to the purchaser.

13. In case a pier or wharf constructed by a joint stock company incorporated under the laws of Ontario, has heretofore been or is hereafter sold either by the joint stock company or under some power granted by them, or under legal process against the company, the sale or sales shall, in all cases, be deemed to have passed and to pass the piers or wharfs to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, with all the rights, privileges and appurtenances, and subject to all the duties and obligations which the law gave or imposed with reference to the pier or wharf, whilst the same continued the property of the joint stock company which had constructed the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 29.

Municipality, after 21 years, may purchase the stock of company.

14. A municipal council representing the interests of the locality in which the work is situate, may, after twenty-one years from the time of the work being so far completed as that tolls were and have been collected thereon, purchase the stock of the company at the current value thereof at the time of purchase, and shall hold the same for the use and benefit of the locality ; and the municipality shall thenceforth stand in the place of the company, and the council thereof shall possess all such powers and authority as the company had theretofore possessed and exercised. R. S. O. 1887, c. 161, s. 30.

INCORPORATION, ss. 1-3.
MUNICIPALITIES MAY TAKE STOCK, s. 4.
BORROWING POWERS, s. 5.
MUNICIPALITIES MAY LEND MONEY TO THE COMPANY, s. 6.
LIMITATION OF ACTIONS, s. 7.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Incorporation of companies.

1.—(1) Every company incorporated after the 13th day of April, 1897, for the purpose of purchasing and holding lands and erecting suitable buildings thereon for the holding of periodical fairs or exhibitions for agricultural purposes, shall be incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act.

Application of Act.

(2) Every company for the purpose aforesaid, incorporated before the 13th day of April, 1897, under The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, chapter 162, or under any Act consolidated therein, or incorporated after the said date under The Ontario Companies Act, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and also to The Ontario Companies Act so far as the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act are applicable and consistent with this Act. Provided always that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may relieve any company incorporated before the said date from compliance with any of the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act as may be deemed expedient. 60 V. c. 34, s. 1, part.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Conditions to be complied with prior to incorporation.

2. No such company shall be incorporated until

(a) Stock in the company has been subscribed to the amount deemed sufficient for the purchase of the ground necessary for a building to be used for the purposes aforesaid, and the erection of such building thereon, and for the purchase of the additional ground required for the holding of agricultural fairs or exhibitions; and until (b) Twenty-five per cent. of the proposed capital has been paid. 60 V. c. 34, s. 1, part.

Power to hold land.

3. Any company so incorporated shall be capable of taking, purchasing, having and holding any parcel of land, not containing more than 100 acres in all, required for the purpose of such building, and for holding such fairs or exhibitions. 60 V. c. 34, s. 1, part.

Municipalities may take stock, etc.

4.—(1) Any municipal corporation in Ontario may subscribe for, acquire, accept, hold, and transfer stock in any company to be formed under the authority of this Act, and from time to time may direct the mayor, warden, or other chief officer thereof, on behalf of the municipality, to subscribe for such stock in the name of such municipality, and to act for and on behalf of the municipality, in all matters relative to such stock, and the exercise of the rights of the municipality as a shareholder; and the mayor, warden, or other chief officer shall, whether otherwise qualified or not, be deemed a shareholder in the company, and may vote and act as such, subject always to such rules and orders in relation to his authority as may be made in that behalf by the municipal council, by by-law or otherwise, but acting according to his discretion in cases not provided for by the council.

Mayor, etc., to represent such stock.

Municipality may pay calls, etc.

(2) The municipality may pay for all instalments of the stock which they subscribe for and acquire, out of any moneys belonging to the municipality and not specially appropriated to any other purpose, and may apply the money arising from the dividends or profits on the stock, or from the sale thereof, to any purpose to which unappropriated moneys belonging to such municipality may be lawfully applied. R. S. O. 1887, c. 162, s. 13.

Power to borrow.

5. Every company incorporated as aforesaid may from time to time borrow such moneys as the directors may find requisite for the purposes of the company, from such person or bodies corporate as may be willing to lend the same, and at such lawful rate of interest as may be agreed upon, and may, by instrument under the seal of the company, secure payment thereof; and the directors may, under the authority of a resolution passed by a majority of two-thirds in value of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a general meeting, hypothecate, mortgage, or pledge the real or personal property of the company to secure any sum or sums so borrowed; and the recital in the instrument of the resolution, expressed to be passed as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so recited. R. S. O. 1887, c. 162, s. 18.

Municipal corporations may lend money to the company.

6. Any municipal corporation in Ontario may lend money to any company that may be formed under this Act out of moneys belonging to the municipality, and not appropriated to any other purpose, and may effect such loan upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the company and the municipality making the loan, and may recover the money so lent, and may appropriate the moneys so recovered to the purposes of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 162, s. 19.

Limitation of actions.

7. If an action is brought against any person for any matter or thing done in pursuance of this Act, such action shall be brought within six months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards; and the defendant in the action may plead not guilty by statute, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence on the trial. R. S. O. 1887, c. 162, s. 20.

COMPANIES FOR CONSTRUCTING WORKS ON MINING LANDS, s. 13.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Ontario Mining Companies Incorporation Act." 60 V. c. 29, s. 1.

Application of Act.

2. All mining companies whether heretofore or hereafter incorporated under any general Act in force in Ontario shall be subject to the provisions of this Act. 60 V. c. 29, s. 13.

Incorporation by Letters Patent. Rev. Stat. c. 191.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by letters patent under the Great Seal, grant a charter under The Ontario Companies Act, to any number of persons, not less than five, who petition therefor, constituting such persons, and others who may become shareholders in the company thereby created, a body corporate and politic, for the purpose of carrying on within the Province of Ontario, or any of the counties and districts therein, the business and operations of a mining, milling, reduction and development company, or such business and operations as may be set forth in the letters patent. 60 V. c. 29, s. 2.

Powers of company.

4. Every such company shall if the letters patent permit, have power for its mining, milling, reduction and development operations only:

(a) To prospect for, open, explore, develop, work, improve, maintain, and manage gold, silver, copper, coal, iron and other mines, mineral and other deposits and properties and to dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyze, reduce and amalgamate and otherwise treat ores, metals and minerals, whether belonging to the company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to sell and otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein;

(b) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, license, exchange or other legal title, mines, mining lands, easements, mineral properties, or any interest therein, minerals and ores and mining claims, options, powers, privileges, water and other rights, patent-rights, letters patent of invention, processes and mechanical or other contrivances, and either absolutely or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, and as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and to lease, mortgage, place under license, hypothecate, sell, dispose of and otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein;

(c) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate on the property of the company, or on property controlled by the company, tramways, telegraph or telephone lines, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-powers, aqueducts, wells, roads, piers, wharfs, buildings, shops, stamping-mills and other works and machinery, plant, and electrical and other appliances of every description, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects required by the company or its workmen or servants;

(d) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate and use steam and other vessels;

(e) To take, acquire and hold as the consideration for ores, metals or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied, or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of or in any other company having objects similar to those of a company incorporated under this Act, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(f) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company, carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which may be of benefit to a company incorporated under this Act;

(g) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company incorporated under this Act is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof;

(h) To subscribe for and take and hold shares or stock in any company incorporated as provided by section 13 of this Act for the purpose of acquiring, holding, constructing, maintaining, and keeping in repair, roads, bridges, improvements in waterways, or other means of communication, and drainage works, and other improvements, upon, through, over or adjacent to, or leading to or from the lands of a company incorporated as mentioned in this section; Provided, that the consent of the shareholders shall be first obtained by resolution passed at a special general meeting called for that purpose.; and (i) To do all such acts, matters and things as are incidental or necessary to the due attainment of the above objects, or any of them. 60 V. c. 29, s. 3.

STOCK AND SHARES.

No personal liability. Rev. Stat., c. 191.

5.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in The Ontario Companies Act contained, the letters patent incorporating a mining company under this Act may, if the petition of the applicants so requires, contain a provision that no liability in excess of the amount actually paid, or agreed to be paid, to the company for shares therein shall attach to any holder of such shares, provided, however, that no such shares shall be issued at a discount, or any rate other than had previously been sanctioned by the company, unless expressly authorized by a by-law of the company fixing and declaring the rate of discount and any other, if any, terms and conditions of issue; and further provided that a copy of such by-law shall, within twenty-four hours after the by-law was sanctioned, be by registered letter transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, and that such copy shall be verified as a true copy by the joint affidavit of the president and secretary, and if there are no such officers, or they, or either of them, are or is, at the proper time out of this Province, or otherwise unable to make the same, by the affidavit of the president or secretary and one of the directors, or two of the directors, as the case may require; and if the president or secretary does not make or join in the affidavit, the reason thereof shall be stated in the substituted affidavit; and any company which refuses or fails to comply with the provision of this section, relative to the transmission of a copy of the by-law to the Provincial Secretary, shall incur a penalty of $20 for every day during which the default continues.

By-law must be verified.

Certificate of stock, what to contain.

(2) Where letters patent incorporating any such company have been granted with the provisions mentioned in this section, every stock certificate issued by the company shall bear upon the face thereof, distinctly written or printed in red ink, after the name of the company, the words "Incorporated under The Ontario Mining Companies Incorporation Act," and where such stock certificates are issued in respect of shares subject to call, the words "SUBJECT TO CALL"; or if in respect of shares not subject to call, the words "NOT SUBJECT TO CALL," according to the fact.

"No personal liability" to appear on documents issued by company.

(3) Every mining company, the charter of which contains the said provision, shall have written or printed on its charter, prospectus, stock-certificates, bonds, contracts, agreements, notices, advertisements and other official publications, and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, indorsements, cheques, and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the company, and in all bills of parcels, invoices, and receipts of the company, immediately after or under the name of such company, and shall have engraved upon its seal the words "NO PERSONAL LIABILITY"; and every such company which refuses, or knowingly neglects to comply with this provision shall incur a penalty of $20 for every day during which such name is not so kept written or printed; and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits such default shall be liable to the like penalty.

Sale of stock on non-payment of calls.

(4) In the event of any call or calls on shares in a company so incorporated remaining unpaid by the holder thereof for a period of sixty days after notice and demand of payment, such shares may be declared to be in default, and the secretary of the company may advertise such shares for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash by giving notice of such sale in some newspaper published at the place where the principal office of the company is situated, or in case no newspaper is published thereat, then in a newspaper published in the nearest place to said office, for a period of one month; and said notice shall contain the numbers of the stock-certificate or stock-certificates in respect of such shares and the number of shares, the amount of the assessment due and unpaid and the time and place of sale; and in addition to the publication of the notice aforesaid, notice shall be personally served upon such shareholder by registered letter mailed to his last known address; and if the holder of such shares fails to pay the amount due upon such shares with interest upon the same and cost of advertising before the time fixed for such sale, the secretary shall proceed to sell the same, or such portion thereof as shall suffice to pay such assessment, together with interest and cost of advertising; provided that if the price of the shares so sold exceeds the amount due with interest and costs thereon, the excess thereof shall be paid to the defaulting shareholder.

Extent of liability of shareholders.

(5) No shareholder in any company so incorporated shall be personally liable for non-payment of any calls made upon his shares, nor shall such shareholder be personally liable for any debt contracted by the company or for any sum payable by the company. 60 V. c. 29, s. 4.

Sale of shares at a premium, or at a discount. Rev. Stat., c. 191.

6. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in The Companies Act contained, any mining company whose charter does not contain a provision that no liability beyond the amount actually paid, or agreed to be paid, upon shares in such company by the holder thereof shall attach to such holder), may, for the lawful purposes of the company and no other, from time to time, by by-law, to be expressly sanctioned by the company and to be made for the purpose, dispose of shares in the company at such premium, or at such discount and on such terms and conditions as to the company seems to be advantageous and proper; provided, however, that a copy of such by-law shall, within twenty-four hours after the by-law was sanctioned, be by registered letter transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, and that such copy shall be verified as a true copy by the joint affidavit of the president and secretary, and if there are no such officers, or they, or either of them, are or is, at the proper time out of this Province, or otherwise unable to make the same, by the affidavit of the president or secretary and one of the directors, or two of the directors, as the case may require; and if the president or secretary does not make or join in the affidavit, the reason thereof shall be stated in the substituted affidavit; and any company which refuses or fails to comply with the provision of this section relative to the transmission of a copy of the by-law to the Provincial Secretary, shall incur a penalty of $20 for every day during which default continues.

Verification of by-law.

Marking on face of stock-certificate.

(2) Every stock-certificate issued in respect of any share sold or disposed of by the company under the provisions of this section shall bear upon the face thereof, distinctly written or printed in red ink, after the name of the Company, the words "Operating under The Ontario Mining Companies Incorporation Act," and where such stock-certificates are in respect of shares sold, or disposed of at a discount, the words "Issued by the Company at a discount of per centum," the rate of discount to be mentioned as a part of such words. 60 V. c. 29, s. 5.

Selling shares below par.

7 No share in a mining company shall be issued, sold, or be in any other manner disposed of at a rate less than par, unless under the authority of a by-law passed by virtue of this Act; and any director, officer or agent of a company who acts in contravention of this section shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine of $200 and to the costs of conviction, and in default of payment of such fine and costs may be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months. 60 V. c. 29, s. 8.

DIRECTORS' LIABILITY.

Liability of directors for wages.

8. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the directors of the company shall be jointly and severally liable to the labourers, servants and apprentices thereof, for all debts not exceeding one year's wages due for services performed for the company while they are such directors respectively; but no director shall be liable to an action therefor, unless the company has been sued therefor within one year after the debt became due, nor yet unless such director is sued therefor within one year from the time when he ceased to be such director, nor yet before an execution against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; and the amount due on such execution shall be the amount recoverable with costs against the directors. 60 V. c. 29, s. 6.

RETURNS.

Returns by mining companies.

9. In addition to the facts to be stated in the returns required of companies incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act, every mining company incorporated under the said Act, or under the provisions of The Ontario Joint Stock Companies Letters Patent Act or of any other Act, shall state the number of shares therein sold, or disposed of by the company under the provisions of this Act, or of any other Act, and the rate at which such shares were sold or disposed of, and shall forthwith furnish such further and other information as shall at any time be required by the Provincial Secretary, or by the Director of Mines, and any company which refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall, in addition to any other penalty, incur a penalty of $20 for every day during which default continues. 60 V. c. 29, s. 7.

Rev. Stat. cc. 191, 190.

EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANIES.

License to extra-provincial companies.

10. No extra-provincial mining, milling, reduction or development company having its head-office elsewhere than within this Province, shall, either directly or indirectly, sell or otherwise dispose of within this Province any of its shares, stock, stock-certificates or other securities by whatsoever name known, unless and until it has received from the Lieutenant-Governor in Council a license authorizing it to sell and dispose of its shares and other securities, and any person who in contravention of this section acts for an unlicensed company shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine of $20 per day for every day while he so acted, and, in case the fine be not paid, shall in the discretion of the Court be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months. 60 V. c. 29, s. 9.

Proof of due incorporation, etc., upon application for license to extra-provincial companies.

11. No license shall be issued to an extra-provincial mining, milling, reduction and development company having its head-office elsewhere than within this Province until the company has satisfied the Director of the Bureau of Mines that it has been duly incorporated and that it possesses the real estate, property and assets, and that it is carrying on its operations on a scale and in a manner, to command the confidence of the public, and for this purpose the Director shall have power to require of the company such sworn documentary and other evidence as he deems to be requisite in the premises, and upon a report that he is satisfied that the company is one which may be licensed under this section, and upon the recommendation of the Provincial Secretary, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct the issue of a license upon such terms and conditions as to him seem proper, and he may summarily revoke and annul such license for any cause that to him appears to be sufficient. 60 V. c. 29, s. 10.

LIABILITY FOR FALSE STATEMENTS.

False returns, etc.

12.—(1) If any person in any return, report, certificate, balance-sheet, or other document required by or for the purposes of this Act, wilfully makes a statement false in any material particular, he shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, and on summary conviction to imprisonment not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour, and in either case to a fine of $100 in lieu of or in addition to such imprisonment as aforesaid.

(2) A person charged with an offence under this section may, if he thinks fit, tender himself to be examined on his own behalf, and thereupon may give evidence in the same manner and with the like effect and consequences as any other witness. 60 V. c. 29, s. 11. See also Cap. 191, sec. 97.

[As to the liability of directors and others for untrue statements in a prospectus, advertisement or notice, see Cap. 216.]

COMPANIES FOR CONSTRUCTING WORKS ON MINING LANDS.

Incorporation of companies for construction of works on mining lands.

Rev. Stat., c. 191.

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by letters patent under the Great Seal, grant a charter to any number of persons not less than five, who petition therefor, constituting the said persons and others who may become shareholders in the company thereby created a body corporate and politic for the purpose of acquiring, holding, constructing, maintaining and repairing roads, bridges, improvements in waterways, and other means of communication and drainage works, and other improvements upon, through, or over or adjacent to, or leading to or from, mining lands.

Powers of companies.

(2) Every company incorporated under this section shall have power, for carrying out the objects of incorporation only:

(a) To construct, maintain and keep in repair, roads, bridges, waterways, drainage works and other improvements and means of communication, through, over, or adjacent to, or leading to or from, mining lands;

(b) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, license, exchange or other legal title, and hold lands and other properties necessary for the construction of such works, and from time to time to sell and dispose of all such lands as may be found to be unnecessary or unsuitable for the purposes of the company ;

(c) To demand and receive from persons and corporations for the use of such works, such fees and tolls as may be fixed by the company, subject to approval by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council ;

(d) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate and use, steam and other vessels ;

(e) To enter into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interest, or co-operation with any other person or company, carrying on, or about to carry on, any business or transaction which may be of benefit to any company incorporated under this section ;

(f) To do all such acts, matters and things as are incidental or necessary to the due attainment of the above objects or any of them. 60 V. c. 29, s. 14.

CHAPTER 198.

An Act respecting the Construction of Roads by Mining Companies.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Owner of mine may make tramways, etc.

1. The proprietors of any mine in Ontario may construct a gravel or macadamized road or a tramway from their mines to the nearest navigable waters or railway or highway, and may take any land required for right of way and stations at a fair valuation, under the provisions of sections 13 to 20, inclusive of The Railway Act of Ontario in that behalf, headed "Lands and their valuation," which shall apply to such proprietors; but the said gravel or macadamized road or tramway shall not exceed twenty miles in length. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 1.

Rev. Stat. c. 207, ss. 13-20, to apply.

When may construct harbours.

2. The proprietors of any mine holding lands in fee simple having a frontage of one mile or upwards on any navigable lake, river or stream, may :

1. Construct harbours, wharfs, piers and other erections thereon, at the bank of such lake, stream or river, for the accommodation of all kinds of steamers, vessels and craft ;

Make rules.

2. Make rules and regulations for the government and management of such wharfs and harbours ;

Collect dues.

3. Impose and levy, according to a tariff to be by them adopted for that purpose, and which may from time to time be altered and amended, reasonable wharfage and harbour dues, and fines for the infraction of such rules and regulations. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 2.

Being first approved by the Lieutenant-Governor.

3. No such rules, regulations or tariff shall be of any force or effect until sanctioned or approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor, and no fine thereby imposed shall exceed $20 for any one offence, and such fines shall be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices of the Peace, as if imposed by Act of the Legislature. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 3.

May improve water courses.

4. Any mining company, or the proprietors of any mine, may improve and render navigable for the transport of freight to and from the mine, any water course or water courses, or may construct a channel of communication between navigable water courses, that may be necessary for the full and proper development thereof, for the more advantageous working of the mine, and the conveyance of freight to and from the same. But every mining company or the proprietors shall be liable to indemnify all persons who may thereby suffer injury to their property or rights. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 4.

To indemnify owners.

5. For the purposes aforesaid, the mining company, or proprietors of any mine, may enter into and upon the lands of Her Majesty, or of any person or persons, body corporate or otherwise, for the purposes and subject to the conditions aforesaid, and may survey and take levels of the same or any part thereof found necessary and proper for the construction of tramways, or for making channels of water communication or improving the navigation of any water course or water courses. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 5.

May enter upon Crown or private lands.

6. No beach, lot, or land covered with water, or other public property, shall be taken under this Act without the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and then only upon such terms and conditions as he thinks proper. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 6.

Public land not to be taken without consent of Lieut.-Governor.

7. No harbour or river improvement shall be made under this Act, or any property taken therefor, so as to interfere with the navigation of the harbour or river or until the proposed plan and extent thereof, and of the works therewith connected, have been submitted to and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; but the plan may afterwards be altered and extended with such consent and approval. R. S. O. 1887, c. 163, s. 7.

Plans to be approved by Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

INTERPRETATION.

Interpretation.

1. The word "company," wherever it occurs in this Act, shall be construed to mean a joint stock company incorporated under the provisions of this Act or of some former Act respecting Gas and Water Incorporated Joint Stock Companies. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 1.

INCORPORATION.

Incorporation of companies. Rev Stat. c. 191.

2.—(1) Every company incorporated after the 1st day of July, 1897, for the purpose of supplying any city, town, incorporated village, township or other municipality with gas or water, or with both gas and water, shall be incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 191. Application of Act.

(2) Every company for the purpose aforesaid, incorporated before the 1st day July, 1897, under The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, chapter 164, or any Act consolidated therein, or incorporated after the said date under The Ontario Companies Act, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and also to those of The Ontario Companies Act, so far as the provisions of such latter Act are applicable and consistent with those of this Act: Provided always that the Lieutenant-

Governor in Council may relieve any company incorporated before the said date from compliance with any of the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act as may be deemed expedient. 60 V. c. 35, s 1 part, and s. 4.

Limit of capital stock.

3. The amount of the capital stock of any such company for supplying a city shall not exceed $300,000 if gas or water only is to be supplied, and $600,000 if both gas and water are to be supplied, and, in the case of a company for supplying a town or village, shall not exceed $200,000 if gas or water only is to be supplied, and $400,000 if both gas and water are to be supplied; and the money so raised shall be appropriated to the purpose of constructing, completing, acquiring and maintaining the gas works or water works, or gas and water works of the company, and to no other object or purpose whatever. 60 V. c. 35, s. 1, part.

Term of existence.

4. The term of the existence of any such company shall not exceed fifty years. 60 V. c. 35, s. 1, part.

Consent of municipality.

5. When application is made for letters patent incorporating any such company, the applicants shall show to the Provincial Secretary, or to such other member of the Executive Council or other officer as may be charged by Order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to report upon the application, that the municipal council of the municipality in which the operations of the company are to be carried on has passed a by-law granting authority to the applicants, when incorporated as a company, to lay down pipes for the conveyance of water or gas, or both, under the streets, squares, and other public places of the municipality. 60 V. c. 35, s. 1, part.

May hold lands, etc.

6. The company may, in their corporate name, purchase and hold, sell and convey lands, tenements and hereditaments for them and their assigns and successors for the use of the said gas works or water works, or gas and water works, and the real estate holden by such company shall be held for the purposes for which the company is incorporated and for no other purpose R. S. O. 1887. c. 164, s. 8; 55 V. c. 38, s. 1.

ANNUAL REPORT.

Yearly report.

7.—(1) The company shall, annually, within twenty days from the first day of January, make a report which shall be inserted in some newspaper published in the municipality where the business of the company is carried on, stating the amount of capital stock of the company, and the proportion thereof then actually paid in, together with the amount of the existing debts of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 22 (1); 55 V. c. 38, s. 1.

(2) If there be no newspaper so published, the report shall, within the time aforesaid, be inserted in a newspaper published in the county town. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 22 (2).

By whom to be signed.

8. Such report shall be signed by the chairman or president, and a majority of the directors, and shall be verified by the oath of the chairman or president, or of the secretary of the company, and shall be entered and registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the business of the company is carried on. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 23.

INDIVIDUAL LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS AND OTHERS.

Liability of directors in default.

9. The directors of a company failing to comply with the requirements of the last preceding two sections, shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company then existing, and for all contracted until such report is made. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 24.

Consequences of false certificates or reports.

10. If any certificate or report made, or public notice given by the officers of a company, in pursuance of this Act, is false in any material representation, all the officers who signed the same shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company contracted while they are officers or shareholders thereof respectively. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 27.

When directors liable to creditors.

11. If the indebtedness of the company at any time exceeds the amount of its capital stock, the directors assenting thereto shall be personally and individually liable to the creditors of the company for such excess. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 28.

MUNICIPALITIES TAKING STOCK.

Municipalities may take stock.

12. Any of the municipalities in which the works of any such company are erected or placed may subscribe for or take stock in the company, or may loan any sum of money, on mortgage or otherwise, to the company, or contribute in any manner towards advancing the object for which the company has been incorporated. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 51.

When the head to be a director.

13. The head for the time being of a municipality holding stock in such company to the extent of one-tenth part or more of the whole of the capital stock thereof, shall be ex officio a director of the company so long as the municipality continues to hold stock to the extent aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 52.

GAS COMPANIES.

Powers of gas companies extended.

14. All gas companies now existing or hereafter formed, and whether incorporated by special Acts or under any general Act, are hereby authorized to manufacture and supply gas for heating, cooking, and all other purposes for which gas is capable of being used, and to manufacture and supply electric, galvanic, or other artificial light, either in connection with gas or otherwise, and to manufacture and supply electricity for the purpose of generating heat or power and for all other purposes for which electricity is capable of being used; and to acquire any patent or other rights for the manufacture or production of any artificial light; and to manufacture or buy, and also to sell or lease, all fittings, machines, apparatus, or other things required for the use of the said company or its consumers. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 54; 56 V. c. 29, s. 1.

Power to use present works, etc.

15. For the purpose of exercising the said powers or any of them, the existing gas companies may use their present works so far as practicable, and may alter their existing works, or erect new works; and all powers which they now possess may be exercised and enforced in respect to all works or apparatus which the said companies construct or use in the exercise of the powers by this Act created or any of them. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 55.

Company not to take private property till compensation made.

16. No company shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to take possession or make use of private property, or to do any work thereon, under the compulsory powers of the company in that behalf, until the amount to be paid for or in respect of such property is ascertained by arbitration or otherwise, as the case may be, and is paid or tendered to the parties entitled thereto, or is paid into Court for their benefit. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 56.

Consent of municipality required.

17. No company shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act until it has obtained the consent of the municipal corporation of the city or local municipality within which the powers hereby given are to be exercised by such company; such consent to be by by-law, and to be on such terms and conditions as the by-law may provide. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 57.

WATER COMPANIES.

Municipality may grant to water companies compulsory powers conferred by Rev. Stat. c. 235 ss. 11, 12.

18.—(1) In case any water company heretofore or hereafter incorporated desires to exercise any of the compulsory powers conferred upon municipal corporations by sections 4, 11, 12 and 14 of The Municipal Water Works Act, and if the council of the municipality declare by by-law that it is necessary in the public interest of such municipality that the powers proposed to be exercised should be exercised by such company, the company may, subject to the provisions of the said Act as to compensation, exercise any of such powers; and in applying the provisions of the said Act the company shall be substituted for the municipal corporation.

Particulars to be stated in by-laws.

(2) The powers to be exercised, and the properties in respect to which they are to be exercised, shall be specifically mentioned in any by-law passed under this section. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 58; 60 V. c. 35, s. 3.

Application of next preceding section.

19. The next preceding section shall apply to every company incorporated under the Act passed in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, An Act to provide for the formation of incorporated Joint Stock Companies for supplying Cities, Towns and Villages with Gas and Water, or under the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, chapter 65, or under chapter 157 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1877, whether such company is incorporated for the purpose of supplying gas or water, or both, or for the purpose of furnishing any other means of heating or lighting. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 59.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMPANIES.

Companies may sell gas and water fittings,

Or lease the same.

20. The company may sell and dispose of gas meters, and gas and water fittings of every description for the use of private and public houses, or for any establishment, company or corporation whatsoever, as well as coke, coal tar, and all and every the products of the works, refuse or residuum arising or to be obtained from the materials used in or necessary for the manufacture of gas; and the company may let out to hire gas meters, and gas and water fittings of every kind and description, at such rate and rents as may be agreed upon between the consumers or tenants and the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 60.

Removal of fittings by company from customers' premises.

21. Where a customer discontinues the use of the gas or other means of lighting or heating, or water, furnished by the company or the company lawfully refuses to continue any longer to supply the same, the officers and servants of the company may, at all reasonable times enter the premises in or upon which such customer was supplied with gas, or other means of lighting or heating, or water, for the purpose of removing therefrom any fittings, machines, apparatus, meters, pipes or other things being the property of the company, in or upon such premises, and may remove the same therefrom, doing no unnecessary damage. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 61; 55 V. c. 38, s. 1.

Companies may excavate streets, etc.

22. The company may break up, dig and trench, so much and so many of the streets, squares, highways, lanes and public places of the municipalities for supplying which with gas or water, or both, the company has been incorporated, as are necessary for laying the mains and pipes to conduct the gas or water, or both, from the works of the company to the consumers thereof, doing no unnecessary damage in the premises, and taking care as far as may be to preserve a free and uninterrupted passage through the said streets, squares, highways, lanes and public places, while the works are in progress. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 62.

Other pipes not to encroach on main pipes laid down.

23. Where the company has laid down main pipes for the supply of gas or water in or through any of the streets, squares or public places of any municipality, no other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, shall, without the consent of the company first had and obtained, nor otherwise than upon payment to the company of such compensation as may be agreed upon, lay down any main pipe for the supply of gas or water within six feet of the company's main pipes, or if it be impracticable to cut drains for such other main pipes at a greater distance, then as nearly six feet as the circumstances of the case will admit. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 63.

Companies may pass through buildings to introduce pipes.

24 Where there are buildings within the municipality the different parts whereof belong to different proprietors, or are in possession of different tenants or lessees, the company may carry pipes to any part of any building so situate, passing over the property of one or more proprietors or in the possession of one or more tenants to convey the gas or water, or both, to the property of another or in the possession of another, and such pipes shall be carried up and attached to the outside of the building. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 64.

May also break up, etc., all passages.

25. The company may also break up and uplift all passages common to neighbouring proprietors or tenants, and dig or cut trenches therein for the purpose of laying down pipes or taking up and repairing the same, doing as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers granted by this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 65.

Company to make satisfaction to owners for damage done.

26. The company shall make satisfaction to the owners or proprietors of buildings or other property, or to the public, for all damages by them sustained in or by the execution of any of the said powers, subject to which provision this Act shall be sufficient to indemnify every such company and their servants, and those by them employed, for what they or any of them do in pursuance of the powers hereby granted. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 66.

Public safety not to be endangered.

27. The company shall construct and locate their gas works and water works, and all apparatus and appurtenances thereunto belonging or appertaining, or therewith connected, and wheresoever situated, so as not to endanger the public health or safety. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 67.

Company constructing works to supply gas or water to buildings on line of supply on request.

where there is a sufficient supply thereof, it shall be the duty of the company to supply with gas or water all buildings within the municipality situate upon land lying along the line of any supply pipe of the company, upon the same being requested by the owner, occupant or other person in charge of any such building. R. S.O . 1887, c. 164, s. 68.

Company may require security from consumer.

29. A company, before supplying gas or water to any building or as a condition to its continuing to supply the same, may require any consumer to give reasonable security for the payment of the proper charges of the company therefor, or for carrying the gas or water into such building. R. S. O. 1887 c. 164, s. 69.

Liability for failure of supply not affected.

30. Nothing in the preceding two sections contained shall be construed in any way to affect the liability of any company in respect of damages on account of any failure of supply through mischance, accident or mismanagement, but the position of the company in respect thereto shall remain as if the said two sections had not been passed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 70.

[See also Cap. 223, secs. 543 and 566.]

COMPANIES BORROWING MONEY.

Companies may borrow moneys.

31. A company may, either in this Province or out of it, borrow money at any rate of interest (in conformity with the laws of Canada) that the president and directors of the company deem necessary. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 71.

Limit thereto.

32. The sum so borrowed shall not exceed the sum of $40,000, to be expended in gas and electric works, and the like sum for water works, for an incorporated village; and for a town or city to be expended in either gas and electric or water works the sums following: for a town, the sum of $80,000, and for a city, the sum of $150,000. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 72; 55 V. c. 38, ss. 3, 4.

May mortgage works.

33. For securing the repayment of money so borrowed, with interest thereon, the company or the president thereof, by and with the consent of a majority of the directors, may mortgage, secure and assign the real estate, works, rates, revenues, rents and future calls on shareholders of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 73.

Company giving mortgage may make same a preferential charge on property and works,

34.—(1) Where a company borrows money upon a conveyance by way of mortgage given under the preceding section and it is by the mortgage declared that the same is intended to be a preferential charge upon the property and rights covered thereby, the mortgage, upon being registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the lands affected lie, shall, subject to the provisions of the registry laws, take priority of any mortgage, bond, debenture, or other security subsequently executed or granted by the company.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall be used to aid in determining whether or not mortgages executed before the 25th day of March, 1884, by any company are within section 36 of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 74; 55 V. c. 38, s. 1.

Bonds, etc., may be payable to bearer.

35. All bonds, debentures or other securities granted for the purpose aforesaid may be made payable to bearer or transferable by indorsement or otherwise, as the directors see fit; but no bond or debenture shall be made or granted for a less sum than $200. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 75.

No preference allowed.

36. The bonds, debentures, future calls or other securities so granted and pledged as securities for money borrowed, shall be equitably and proportionately liquidated or paid out of the funds or receipts of the company, without preference to any of such securities over each other. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 76.

Protection of bondholders, etc.

37. No such bonds or debentures or other securities so pledged shall prevent the directors of the company from receiving and applying such future calls to the purposes of the company, so long as the money due on all such bonds and debentures does not exceed the amount of all the calls still remaining unpaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 77.

Power of directors in executing bonds, etc.

38. The directors of the company, by a resolution entered upon the books of the company, and without the formality of passing a by-law, may, from time to time as they see fit, authorize the president or manager of the company to sign such particular bonds, mortgages, contracts or instruments as it may, in the opinion of the directors, be necessary or expedient so to sign, and to affix the common seal of the company thereto. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 78.

And notes or bills.

39. The president or the manager of the company, from time to time authorized as aforesaid, may draw, sign or accept such promissory notes or bills of exchange for the purposes of the company, without seal, as in the opinion of the directors may be necessary or expedient. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 79.

Securities duly executed to be valid.

40. All such bonds, contracts, mortgages and instruments so signed and sealed by the person authorized as aforesaid, and also such notes and bills so signed, drawn or accepted by the person authorized as aforesaid, shall be valid and binding on the company, and be held to be the act and deed of the company; but such bonds, bills or debentures and securities as aforesaid shall not exceed the amount which the company is by this Act empowered to borrow. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 80.

Borrowing powers not to affect right of municipality to take possession.

41. The preceding provisions authorizing companies to borrow money and to mortgage their real estate and works, shall not nor shall anything done in pursuance of such provisions in any way interfere with or prejudice the right of any municipal corporation, desiring so to do, to take possession of the works of the company and all property used in connection therewith for the purposes of supplying gas and water, in pursuance of and subject to the terms of sections 59 to 67, both inclusive, of this Act and in such event, all mortgages, liens, bonds, debentures or other securities shall cease to be a charge on the works of the company and all property used in connection therewith, but they shall nevertheless be a charge on any moneys to be paid by the municipality therefor. 55 V. c. 38, s. 6.

RESTRICTIONS.

Restrictions on the powers of companies.

42. Nothing contained in this Act shall authorize such company or any person acting under the authority of the same, to take, use or injure for the purposes of the company, any house or other building, or any land used or set apart as a garden, orchard, yard, park, paddock, plantation, planted walk or avenue to a house, or nursery ground for trees, or to convey from the premises of any person any water already appropriated and necessary for his domestic uses, without the consent, in writing, of the owner or owners thereof first had and obtained. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 81.

Rights of other companies protected.

43. Nothing in this Act shall authorize any company to interfere with or infringe upon any exclusive privilege granted to any other company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 82.

PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES.

Penalty for illegal interference by others.

44. If any person lays or causes to be laid any pipe or main, to communicate with any pipe or main belonging to such company, or in any way obtains or uses its gas or water without the consent of the company, he shall forfeit and pay to the company the sum of $120, and also a further sum of $4 for each day during which such communication remains, which sums, together with costs in that behalf incurred, may be recovered by action in any Court in this Province having jurisdiction to the amount claimed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 83.

45. If any person—

Penalties for injurious acts.

1. Wilfully or maliciously breaks up, pulls down, or damages, injures, puts out of order or destroys, any main pipe, engine, water-house pipe, plug or other works, or apparatus, appurtenances or dependencies thereof, or any matter or thing made and provided for the purpose aforesaid, or any of the materials used and provided for the same, or ordered to be erected, laid down or belonging to any such company; or such person shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace or any other person authorized to act in that capacity in the locality wherein the offence has been committed, be compelled to pay for the use of the company a penalty not exceeding $20 together with costs of prosecution, or be confined to the common gaol of such county for a space of time not exceeding three months, as to such Justice seems meet. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 84.

2. In anywise wilfully does any other injury or damage, for the purpose of obstructing, hindering or embarrassing the construction, completion, maintaining or repairing of the said works, or causes or procures the same to be done; or

3. Bathes, or washes, or cleans any cloth, wool, leather, skin, animals, or any nauseous or offensive thing, or casts, throws or puts any filth, dirt or any nauseous thing, or causes, permits or suffers the water of any sink, sewer or drain to run or be conveyed into, or causes any other annoyance to be done to the water within, any reservoir, cistern, pond, source or fountain from which the water belonging to the company is to be supplied or conveyed; or

4. Increases the supply of gas or water, agreed for with the company, by increasing the number or size of the holes in the gas burners, or using the gas without burners, or otherwise wrongfully, negligently or wastefully burning the same, or by wrongfully or improperly burning the same, or by wrongfully or improperly wasting the water or gas;

Private rights as to gas and water.

46. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any person from constructing any works for the supply of gas or water to his own premises. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 85.

Fittings not liable to seizure.

47. Neither the service nor connecting pipes of the company, nor any meters, lustres, lamps, pipes, gas fittings or any other property of any kind whatsoever of the company, shall be subject to or liable for rent, nor liable to be seized or attached in any way by the possessor or owner of the premises wherein the same may be, nor be in any way whatsoever liable to any person for the debt of any person to and for whose use or the use of whose house or building the same may be supplied by the company, notwithstanding the actual or apparent possession thereof by such person. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 86.

Penalty for wilful damage of meters, lamps, etc.

48. If any person wilfully or maliciously damages or causes or knowingly suffers to be damaged any meter, lamp, lustre, service pipe, or fittings belonging to any such company, or wilfully impairs or knowingly suffers the same to be altered or impaired, so that the meter indicates less gas than actually passes through the same, such person shall incur a penalty to the use of the company, for every such offence, of a sum not less than $4 nor exceeding $20, and shall also pay all charges necessary for the repairing or replacing the said meter, pipes or fittings, and double the value of the surplus gas so consumed; such damages, penalties and charges to be recovered with costs as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 87.

Penalty for injuring public gaslight works.

49. If any person wilfully extinguishes any of the public lamps or lights, or wilfully removes, destroys, damages, fraudulently alters or in any way injures any pipe, pedestal, post, plug, lamp or other apparatus or thing belonging to the company, he shall forfeit and pay to the use of the company a penalty not less than $4 nor more than $20, and shall also be liable to make good all damages and charges, to be recovered with costs as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 88.

Remedy for price of gas or water furnished.

50. If any person supplied by the company with gas or water, or both, neglects to pay the rent, rate or charge due to the company at any of the times fixed for the payment thereof, the company, or any person acting under their authority, on giving forty-eight hours' previous notice, may stop the supply of gas or water, or both, from entering the premises of the person in arrear as aforesaid, by cutting off the service pipe or pipes, or by such other means as the company or its officers see fit, and may recover the rent or charge due up to such time, together with the expenses of cutting off the gas or water or both, as the case may be, in any competent Court, notwithstanding any contract to furnish for a longer time. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 89.

Removal of gas or water fittings.

51. In all cases where the company may lawfully cut off and take away the supply of gas or water, or both, from any house, building or premises, the company, their agents and workmen, upon giving forty-eight hours' previous notice to the person in charge or the occupier, may enter into the house, building or premises between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, making as little disturbance and inconvenience as possible, and may remove and take away any pipe, meter, cock, branch, lamp, fittings or apparatus, the property of and belonging to the company; and any servant of the company duly authorized may, between the hours aforesaid, enter any house into which gas or water or both have been taken, for the purpose of repairing and making good any such house, building or premises, or for the purpose of examining any meter, pipe, or apparatus belonging to the company or used for their gas or water or both; and if any person refuses to permit or does not permit the servants and officers of the company to enter and perform the acts aforesaid, the person so refusing or obstructing shall incur a penalty to the company for every such offence of $40, and a further penalty of $4 for every day during which such refusal or obstruction continues, to be recovered with costs as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 90.

ENFORCEMENT OF PENALTIES.

How fines may be enforced.

52. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act may be sued for and recovered with costs by any such company or by any person whose property is injured, to and for the use of such company or person, either in the manner hereinbefore directed, or before a Justice of the Peace or any other person authorized to act in that capacity, in the place where the offence has been committed, on the oath of any one credible witness. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164 ,s. 91.

In what Courts actions may be brought.

53. All actions for damages or penalties or both, given by this Act, shall be brought in Courts having jurisdiction to the amount involved in such actions, unless otherwise specially authorized by this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 92.

Proceedings when damages and penalties separate.

54. Where damages as well as a penalty may be given, such damages and penalty may be sued for separately, and such fines, penalties and damages may be levied by distress from the goods of the defendant, and in case the defendant has no goods to satisfy the same, he shall be committed to the common gaol for such period not exceeding two months as the Justice or Court may direct. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 93.

ARBITRATIONS.

When arbitrations may be had.

55. If it is found necessary or deemed proper to conduct any of the pipes or to carry any of the works of the company through the lands of any person, lying within ten miles of the municipality for supplying which the company is incorporated, and the consent of such person cannot be obtained for that purpose, the company may nominate and appoint one indifferent person, and the owner or owners of the land taken or damaged may nominate and appoint another indifferent person, which two persons so appointed shall nominate and appoint a third person, and the said three persons shall act as arbitrators in such matter of dispute between the company and the owner or owners of the property. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 94.

Powers and duties of arbitrators.

56. The arbitrators shall examine all witnesses and administer all necessary oaths or declarations to them, and the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall award, determine and adjudge what sum or sums of money respectively shall be paid to the owner or owners of the property so taken or damaged by the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 95.

When sums awarded to be paid.

57. The sum or sums of money so awarded shall be paid within three months after the date of the award, and in default of such payment the proprietor may resume the possession of his property, with all the rights appertaining thereto. R. S. O 1887, c. 164, s. 96.

How arbitrators appointed in case of neglect.

58. In the event of either the company or the owner of the property failing to appoint an arbitrator, after eight days' notice from one of the said parties to the other, or of the said two arbitrators failing to appoint a third, the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the property lies may appoint a third arbitrator, and the decision of the three arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be binding on all parties concerned. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 97.

MUNICIPALITIES ACQUIRING WORKS FROM COMPANIES.

Municipalities may acquire works of company on payment therefor.

59. In case a by-law is passed with the assent of the ratepayers declaring that it is expedient in the interest of any city, town or village to acquire the works of a company, incorporated on or after the 10th day of March, 1882, for the purpose of supplying such city, town or village with gas or water, the corporation may thereupon, by its officers, take possession of the works of the company and all property used in connection therewith for the purposes of supplying gas or water, whether the works and property, or any of them, are within or without the municipality, and shall pay therefor at a valuation to be determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of The Municipal Act, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 98.

Rev. Stat. c. 223.

Mode of computing value.

60. The arbitrators in determining the amount to be paid for such works and property shall first determine the actual value thereof, having regard to what the same would cost if the works should be then constructed, or the property then bought, making due allowance for deterioration, wear and tear, and making all other proper allowances, and shall increase the amount so ascertained by ten per centum thereof, which increased sum the arbitrators shall award as the amount to be paid by the corporation to the company, with interest from the date of their award. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 99.

Time within which amount to be paid.

61. The amount shall be paid within six months from the date of the award, and the council of the municipality shall thereupon take all requisite steps for providing the amount; and it shall not be necessary to submit to the vote of the electors, any by-law passed for the issue of debentures in order to raise the amount. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 100.

Council may take proceedings to determine value without first obtaining assent of electors.

62. The council of the corporation may, if it thinks fit, without submitting the question to the vote of the electors, take the proceedings authorized by section 59 of this Act for determining the amount to be paid for such works and property, upon notice to the company that the corporation intends to acquire the works and property by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act; but in such case, the by-law for raising money to pay therefor shall be submitted to the vote of the electors, and until the by-law is finally passed, the corporation shall not, unless by consent of the company, take possession of the works or property; and in the event of the by-law not being passed the corporation shall indemnify the company for all costs the company has been put to in and about the arbitration. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 101.

Amount may be settled by agreement.

63. The council and the company may, if they think fit agree as to the amount to be paid for the works and property, or any of them. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 102.

If amount not paid, rights of company to revive.

64. In case the amount awarded, or agreed to be paid, to the company, is not paid within six months after the time at which it is payable, the company may resume possession of their works and property, and all their rights in respect thereof shall thereupon revive. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 103.

Existing companies may consent to be bound by above provisions.

65. Any company incorporated before the 10th day of March, 1882, may, by by-law, declare that such company consents to be bound by the provisions of the six preceding sections of this Act; and upon the passing of such by-law the said sections shall apply to the said company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 104.

Limitation as to by-laws under sec. 59.

66. No by-law under section 59 of this Act shall be passed by any municipal council, or, if passed, shall have any force or effect, unless the company is subject to the provisions of the said section 59, or an agreement has been made between the company and the corporation, under which the municipal corporation has the right at any time, or at any time after a date thereby fixed, not being later than ten years from the date of the agreement, to acquire the works and property of the company used, in connection therewith, for the said purposes, at a valuation to be determined by arbitration. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 105.

Certain rights not affected.

67. Nothing in sections 18 and 59 to 66 of this Act contained shall affect the right of any municipal corporation to acquire the works and property of any gas or water company, by agreement with the said company, or shall be construed to affect any right of acquisition which has been or may be secured by any such corporation independently of the provisions of the said sections. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 106.

"TRUSTEES" UNDER FORMER ACTS.

"Trustees" in 16 V. c. 173 to mean directors.

68. In all proceedings which may have been had or taken under the Act passed in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, to provide for the formation of incorporated joint stock companies for supplying cities, towns and villages with gas and water, or in or about any company incorporated thereunder, the word "trustees," wherever the same occurs, shall be taken to be and be construed to mean the directors. R. S. O. 1887, c. 164, s. 107.

CHAPTER 200.

An Act respecting Companies for supplying Steam, Heat, Electricity or Natural Gas, for Heat, Light, or Power.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Mode of incorporation.

1.—(1) Any five or more persons who desire to form a company for supplying steam, hot air or hot water for power and for heating purposes, or for supplying electricity or natural gas for the purposes of light, heat, or power, in any city, town, incorporated village, township or other municipality, may become incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

(2) Every company so incorporated shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and to those of The Ontario Companies Act so far as the same are applicable and consistent with this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 165, s. 1; 54 V. c. 36, s. 1; 60 V. c. 28, s. 3.

Application of Act to existing companies.

2. Every such company heretofore incorporated under The Ontario Joint Stock Letters Patent Act shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and to sections 17 to 105 of The Ontario Companies Act so far as the same are applicable and consistent with this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 165, s. 1; 54 V. c. 36, s. 1; 60 V. c. 28, s. 4.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Powers.

3. Every such company may construct, maintain, complete and operate works for the production of steam, hot air or hot water, for purposes of power and heating, or for the production, sale and distribution, of electricity or natural gas for purposes of light, heat and power, and may conduct the same by any means, through, under and along the streets, highways and public places of the city, town, or other municipality; but as to such streets, highways and public places, only upon and subject to such agreement in respect thereof, as shall be made between the company and the municipality and under and subject to any by-law of the council of the municipality passed in pursuance thereof. R. S. O. 1887, c. 165, s 2; 54 V. c. 36, s. 2.

Certain sections of Rev. Stat. c. 199, made applicable.

4. Sections 12, 13, 20, 22 to 27, 31, 33, and 35 to 58 of The Act respecting Joint Stock Companies for supplying Cities, Towns and Villages with Gas and Water, shall be read as forming part of this Act, except that the said sections shall, for the purposes of this Act, be read as providing for the passage and supply of steam, hot air or hot water, for the purpose of heating and power, or of electricity or natural gas for the purposes of light, heat and power, instead of the passage and supply of water or gas, the words "steam," "hot air," or "hot water," or the words "electricity" or "natural gas" (as the case may be), being, for the purposes aforesaid, substituted for the words "gas or water," or "gas and water," or "gas," and the words "wires or conductors," being read after the words "mains and pipes," or "mains or pipes," wherever the said words occur in the said sections. R. S. O. 1887, c. 165, s. 3; 54 V. c. 36, s. 3.

Company not to take private property till compensation made.

5. No company shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to take possession or make use of private property, or to do any work thereon, under the compulsory powers of the company in that behalf, until the amount to be paid for or in respect of such property is ascertained by arbitration or otherwise, as the case may be, and is paid or tendered to the parties entitled thereto, or is paid into Court for their benefit; provided further that the property of gas companies shall be exempt from expropriation by companies formed for supplying electricity or natural gas for the purposes of light, heat or power. R. S. O. 1887, c. 165, s. 4; 54 V. c. 36, s 4.

PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION.

Right to lease power, etc.

6. Any electric light company whether incorporated under this Act or otherwise may lease to, or enter into any contract with, any person or persons or body corporate or politic for the use of any power, engines, wheels or machines run by water, steam, gas or in any other manner erected by such company for the purpose of running or operating electric light plant, to the end and intent that such machinery and power may be utilized and employed during the hours when the same is not required for the purpose of furnishing electric light. 52 V. c. 29, s. 1.

Right to contract for use of land.

7. Such company may lease to, or enter into any contract with, any person or persons or body corporate or politic for the use of any land or buildings of such company used for or in connection with such power or machinery aforesaid, so long as the value of such buildings does not exceed $10,000. 52 V. c. 29. s. 2.

Powers of expropriation not extended.

8. Nothing in sections 6 and 7 of this Act shall be construed to give to any such company any power of expropriation beyond or in addition to the power which the company would have had, if said sections had not been enacted. 52 V. c. 29, s. 3.

CHAPTER 201.

An Act respecting Cheese and Butter Manufacturing Associations and Companies.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Mode of incorporation.

1.—(1) Any five or more persons who desire to associate themselves together for the purpose of manufacturing cheese or butter, may make, sign and acknowledge before a Notary Public, Commissioner authorized to take affidavits, or Justice of the Peace, in duplicate, and file in the office of the Registrar of the registry division in which the business is to be carried on, a certificate in writing, in the form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or to the same effect, together with the rules and regulations, signed by such persons respectively.

(2) The signatures to the rules shall be verified by the affidavit of a subscribing witness thereto, made before a Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, or Commissioner authorized to take affidavits, or before the Registrar or Deputy Registrar.

(3) Upon the filing of the certificate and rules as aforesaid, the members of the association shall become a body corporate, by the name therein described, with the power to hold such lands as are required for the convenient management of their business. 51 V. c. 24, s. 1 (1-3).

Registrar to indorse certificates of filing, certificate and rules if required.

2. The Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall, if desired by the person filing the certificate, indorse on the other duplicate certificate and upon the duplicate of the rules, certificates of the other duplicates having been filed in his office, with the date of filing; and every such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein and of the incorporation of the association. 54 V. c. 24, s. 1 (4).

Certificate to be registered in every division in which business carried on.

3. Any certificate so to be filed may designate any one or more places where the business is to be carried on; but if in different registry divisions, a duplicate must be filed in the registry office of each division. 51 V. c. 24, s. 3

Restriction as to name of company.

4. No association shall be registered under a name identical with that by which any other existing association has been registered, or so nearly resembling such name as to be likely to deceive the public. 51 V. c. 24, s. 2.

5. The fees to be charged by the Registrar for filing any certificate shall be fifty cents, and for any search relating thereto ten cents. 51 V. c. 24, s. 12. Fees of Registrar.

6 Before an association commences operations under this Act, they shall agree upon and frame a set of rules for the regulation, government and management of the association, which shall contain—(1) a mode of convening general and special meetings; (2) provisions for audit of accounts; (3) power and mode of withdrawal of members; (4) appointment of managers and other officers and their respective duties, and a provision for filling vacancies caused by death, resignation and other causes. 51 V. c. 24, s. 5. Rules of association.

7. The rules of every association registered under this Act shall bind the association and members thereof to the same extent as if each member had subscribed his name and affixed his seal thereto; and all moneys payable by any member to the association, in pursuance of said rules, shall be deemed to be a debt due from such member to the association. 51 V. c. 24, s. 6. Rules to be binding on members.

8. All rules made by the association may be repealed, altered or amended by other rules passed at any meeting of the association specially called for that purpose, but no new rule shall have any force or effect until a copy, proved by the affidavit of the president or other head officer of the association to be a true copy of the rule passed by the association at a meeting specially called for the purpose of considering the same, has been filed in the registry office in which the certificate of incorporation was filed. 51 V. c. 24, s. 1 (5). Amendment of rules.

9. The capital of the association shall be in shares of such denomination as is mentioned in the rules. 51 V. c. 24, s. 7. Capital stock.

10. A member of the association may have shares therein to an amount mentioned in the by-laws of the association, not to exceed $1,000. 51 V. c. 24, s. 4. Shares.

11. The shares of the association shall be transferable subject to the consent and approval of the association. 51 V. c. 24, s. 8. Transfer of shares.

12. The association shall cause a book to be kept by the secretary, or by some other officer specially charged with that duty, wherein shall be kept a duplicate of the certificate and of the rules filed as aforesaid in the office of the Registrar, so that persons becoming members of the association may sign the said certificate and rules. 51 V. c. 24, s. 1 (6) a. Books.

13. Any person desiring to become a member of, or a stockholder in the said association, after incorporation as Members.

aforesaid, may sign the said certificate and rules in the said book, and shall thereupon become such member, and he shall be entitled to the rights and privileges thereof, and shall become liable as such member as fully as though he had signed the certificate prior to the incorporation of the association. 51 V. c. 24, s. 1 (6) b.

Mode of voting.

14. All elections shall be by ballot, and each member shall have one vote for each share held by him, in respect of which he is not in default for any calls made thereon. 51 V. c. 24, s. 9.

Liability of shareholders limited.

15. The liability of the shareholders shall be limited, that is to say, no shareholder in such association shall be in any manner liable for or charged with the payment of any debt or demand due by the association beyond the amount of his share or shares subscribed for, and any shareholder having fully paid up the amount of his said share or shares shall not be subject to any further liability. 51 V. c. 24, s. 11.

Disputes to be referred to arbitration.

16. Every dispute between members or between members and the association, or any person claiming through or under a member or under the rules of the association, and the directors, treasurer or other officers thereof, shall be decided by arbitration in manner directed by the rules of the association, and the decision so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties and not subject to appeal. 51 V. c. 24, s. 10.

Power to mortgage lands.

17.—(1) The association shall have power to raise money by mortgage upon the real and personal property of the association. 58 V. c. 41, s. 1.

Mortgages, how to be executed.

(2) Every such mortgage shall be valid and binding upon the association to the extent of the interest conveyed thereby, and of the covenants on the part of the association therein contained, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, when signed by the president and treasurer of the association, with the corporate seal of the association affixed thereto. 58 V. c. 41, s. 2.

Mortgage to be approved by shareholders.

(3) No such mortgage shall be given or shall be binding upon the association until the same has been authorized by a by-law passed by the vote given either personally or by proxy of a majority in value of the shareholders in the association at a special meeting of the association duly called for that purpose. 60 V. c. 39, s. 1.

Extension of business of association.

18. An association formed for the manufacture of cheese, may on and subject to the making of a rule for that purpose in accordance with the provisions of this Act extend its business so as to include the manufacture and sale of butter. 55 V. c. 35, s. 2.

COMPANIES INCORPORATED BY LETTERS PATENT.

Companies for manufacturing cheese authorized to manufacture and sell butter.

19. A company incorporated by letters patent, under the provisions of The Ontario Joint Stock Companies Letters Patent Act, or The Ontario Companies Act, or under the provisions of any Act of the Legislature of the former Province of Canada, for the manufacture of cheese, may without obtaining supplementary letters patent, carry on the business of manufacturing and selling butter where the shareholders by by-law determine to extend the business of the company so as to include the manufacture and sale of butter. 55 V. c. 35, s. 1; 60 V. c. 28, s. 100; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Seven or more persons may associate together for co-operative labour, trade, etc.

Rev. Stat. c. 205.

Signatures to rules to be verified.

(2) The signatures to the rules shall be verified by the affidavit of a subscribing witness thereto, made before any Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, or Commissioner authorized to take affidavits in the High Court, or before the Registrar or Deputy Registrar.

Incorporation

(3) Upon the filing of the certificate and rules as aforesaid, [illegible] shall become a body corporate by the name therein described, with power to hold such lands as are required for the convenient management of their business. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 1 (1-3); 60 V. c. 38, s. 121, part.

Registrar to indorse certificate of filing if required.

2. The Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall, if desired by the person filing the certificate, indorse upon the other duplicate certificate, and upon a duplicate of the rules, certificates of the other duplicates having been filed in his office, with the date of filing, and every such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein and of the incorporation of the association. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 1 (4).

Places where business may be carried on.

3. Any certificate so to be filed may designate any one or more places where the business is to be carried on, but if in different registry divisions, a duplicate must be filed in the Registrar's office of each division. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 3.

Identical names not allowed to different associations.

4. No association shall be registered under a name identical with that by which any other existing association has been registered, or so nearly resembling such name as to be likely to deceive the members or the public, and the word "Limited" shall be the last word in the name of any association registered under this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 2.

Rules to be framed.

5. Before an association commences operations under this Act, they shall agree upon and frame a set of rules for the regulation, government and management of the association; and the rules of every association to be formed under this Act shall contain provisions in respect of the several matters following:

(a) Mode of convening general and special meetings, and of altering rules;

(b) Provisions for the audit of accounts;

(c) Power and mode of withdrawal of members, and provisions for the claims of executors or administrators of members;

(d) Mode of application of profits;

(e) Appointment of managers and other officers, and their respective powers and remuneration, and provisions for filling vacancies occasioned by death, resignation, and other causes. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 5.

Rules to be binding on association and the members thereof.

6. The rules of every association registered under this Act shall bind the association and the members thereof to the same extent as if each member had subscribed his name and affixed his seal thereto, and there were in such rules contained a covenant, on the part of himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, with the association to conform to such rules, subject to the provisions of this Act; and all moneys payable by any member to the association, in pursuance of such rules, shall be deemed to be a debt due from such member to the association. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 6.

Alteration of rules.

7. Subject to the requirements of section 5 and the provisions of this Act, all rules made by the association may be repealed, altered or amended by other rules passed at any meeting of the association specially called for that purpose; but no new rule shall have any force or effect until a copy thereof, proved by the affidavit of the president or other head officer of the association to be a true copy of the rule passed by the association at a meeting specially called for the purpose of considering the same, has been filed in the registry office in which the certificate of incorporation was filed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 1 (5).

Capital.

8. The capital of the association shall be in shares of such denomination as may be mentioned in the rules. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 7.

Limit of each member's shares.

9. A member of an association incorporated under this Act may have shares therein to an amount mentioned in any by-law of the association, provided the same does not exceed $1,000. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 4.

Payment and transfer of shares.

10. The shares may be payable by instalments not exceeding twenty per cent. at such times and in such manner as may be mentioned in the rules; but no member shall be entitled to draw more than his proportion of interest on the paid up portion of his shares; and shares shall not be transferable unless the rules provide for their transfer. Members may, from time to time, withdraw upon such terms as may be specified in the rules. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 8.

Liability of shareholders limited.

11. The liability of the shareholders shall be limited, that is to say: no shareholder in such association shall be in any manner liable for or charged with the payment of any debt or demand due by the association, beyond the amount of his share or shares subscribed for; and any shareholder having fully paid up the amount of his said share or shares shall not be subject to any further liability. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 19.

Elections.

12. All elections shall be by ballot, and each member shall be entitled to one vote only. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 9.

Provision in case of failure of any election.

13. In case it happens at any time that an election of trustees is not made on the day designated in the rules of the association, when it ought to have been made, the association shall not for that reason be dissolved, but an election may be held on any other day in such manner as may be provided for in the rules, or at a general meeting of the members, to be specially called for that purpose, due notice being given of such election as in the rules provided, and all acts of trustees, until their successors are appointed, shall be valid and binding. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 10.

Officers to give security.

14. Every person appointed to an office touching the receipt, management or expenditure of money, or with the receipt of goods, wares or merchandise for the purposes of the association, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give such security as is deemed sufficient by the trustees, which security shall be varied in amount or renewed from time to time, as by the amount of business done, or by other circumstances may, from time to time, in the discretion of the trustees be rendered necessary. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 11.

Every association to give publicity to its name.

15. Every association registered under this Act shall have painted or affixed, and shall keep painted or affixed, its name on the outside of every office or place in which the business of the association is carried on, in a conspicuous position, in letters easily legible, and shall have its name engraved in legible characters on its seal, and shall have its name mentioned in legible characters in all notices, advertisements and other official publications of the association, and in all cheques and orders for money or goods, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the association, and in all bills of parcels, invoices, receipts and letters of credit of the association. R.S.O. 1887, c. 166, s. 12.

Business to be for cash only.

16. The business of the association shall be a cash business exclusively; no credit shall be either given or taken, and no officer, member or servant of the association, or any number of them together, shall have power to contract any debt whatever in its name, except in respect of rent of the premises required for the business, the salary of clerks and servants, and such like contracts, necessary in the management of the affairs of the association; everything shall be bought and sold for cash only. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 13.

Power to purchase land on credit.

17. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding section, the association may purchase on credit real estate for the purpose of occupation by the association in carrying on the business thereof, and may give a valid mortgage on any estate so purchased for an unpaid balance of the purchase money, subject to any by-law in that behalf. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 14.

Officers or persons obtaining improper possession of money, etc., or misapplying the same.

18. If an officer, member or other person, being or representing himself to be a member of the association, or the heirs, executors, or administrators of a member thereof, or any person whatsoever, by false representation or imposition, obtains possession of any moneys, securities, books, papers or other effects of the association, or having the same in his possession, withholds or misapplies the same, or wilfully applies any part of the same to purposes other than those expressed or directed in the rules of the association, or any part thereof, any Justice of the Peace, acting in the county or city in which the place of business of the association is situated, upon complaint made by any person on behalf of the association, may summon the person against whom such complaint is made to appear at a time and place to be named in the summons, and any two Justices present at the time and place mentioned in the summons shall proceed to hear and determine the said complaint, and if the Justices determine the complaint to be proved against such person, they shall adjudge and order him to deliver up all such money, securities, books, papers, or other effects to the association, or to repay the amount of money applied improperly, and to pay, if they think fit, a further sum of money not exceeding $80, together with costs not exceeding $4; and in default of such delivery of effects, or payment of such amount of money, or payment of such penalty and costs aforesaid, the Justices may order the person so convicted to be imprisoned in the common gaol with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 15.

Penalty.

Disputes to be settled by arbitration.

19. Every dispute between any member or members of an association established under this Act, or any person claiming through or under a member, or under the rules of the association, and the trustees, treasurer or other officer thereof, shall be decided by arbitration in manner directed by the rules of the association, and the decision so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties without appeal. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 16.

Annual return to Provincial Secretary.

20. The trustees shall, once in every year, transmit to the Provincial Secretary a general statement of the funds and effects of the association, the number of shareholders therein, and such other information as may be requisite to shew clearly the position of the association, and the business done during the year, which return shall be verified by the affidavit or declaration of the president and manager. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 17.

Winding up of affairs in case of dissolution.

21. In case of the dissolution of such association, the association shall nevertheless be considered as subsisting, and be in all respects subject to the provisions of this Act, so long and so far as any matters relating to the same remain unsettled, to the intent that the association may do all things necessary to the winding up of the concerns thereof; and may sue and be sued under the provisions of this Act, in respect of all such unsettled matters. R. S. O. 1887, c. 166, s. 18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as "The Ontario Insurance Act." Short title.
60 V. c. 36, s. 1.

2. Where the following words and expressions respectively occur in this Act, or in the Schedules hereto, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:— Interpretation.

1. "Account" shall include travelling expenses or bills of costs. "Account."

2. "Actuarial liabilities" shall mean the liabilities chargeable against an insurance corporation in respect of its insurance contracts prior to their maturity. "Actuarial liabilities."

3. "Actuarial solvency" shall mean the solvency of an insurance corporation when its actuarial liabilities are charged or treated as present liabilities. "Actuarial solvency."

4. "Appeal" shall include every judicial revision or review of a judgment, decision, order, direction, determination, finding or conviction, and shall also include every case stated or reserved, and every removal of proceedings by way of certiorari or otherwise. "Appeal."

5. "Creditor" shall include every person entitled to claim under a matured policy or under a policy having a fixed surrender value; and, in the case of a corporation required by law or departmental regulation to maintain an ascertained or ascertainable reserve to meet its actuarial liabilities under unmatured policies, "creditor" shall also include any person holding or entitled to claim under such an unmatured policy. "Creditor."

6. "Contributory" shall include any person who (either in his own right or as liable for or representing another) is bound to contribute to the assets of a corporation for the payment of its debts. "Contributory."

7. "Due application" shall include such information, evidence and material as the Registrar requires to be furnished; and also the prepayment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fees hereinafter prescribed in respect of any application, certificate or document required or issued by virtue of this Act. "Due application."

8. "Estate" shall include estate and effects. "Estate."

9. "Foreign Jurisdiction" shall include any jurisdiction other than that of Ontario. "Foreign Jurisdiction."

10. "Inspector" shall mean the Inspector of Insurance for the Province. "Inspector."

11. "Minister" shall mean the member of the Executive Council under whose direction this Act is administered. "Minister."

12. "Municipality" shall have the same meaning as in The Municipal Act. "Municipality." Rev. Stat. c. 223.

"Province." "Legislature"

13. "Province" and "Legislature" shall mean respectively the Province and Legislature of Ontario.

"Receiver."

14. "Receiver" shall include interim receiver.

"Registered" corporation. "Unregistered."

15. "Registered" corporation or person shall mean a corporation or person duly registered or deemed to be so registered under this Act; and "Unregistered" corporation or person shall include any corporation or person not so registered or not deemed to be so registered for the kind or character of insurance transacted or undertaken, or offered to be undertaken or transacted, whether such corporation or person was never duly registered for that purpose, or, having been so registered, lost such registry through non-renewal, suspension, revocation or cancellation.

"Registry."

16. "Registry" as applied to insurance corporations or organizations shall mean registration in the Insurance Company Register, or in the Friendly Society Register, according as the matter pertains to an insurance company or a friendly society respectively; and "Registry" shall include extension or renewal of registry.

"Registry Officer."

17. "Registry Officer" or "Registrar" or "Insurance Registrar" shall mean the Inspector of Insurance or the Registrar of Friendly Societies, according as the matter pertains to an insurance company or to a friendly society respectively.

"Solvent society."

18. "Solvent," as applied to a friendly society not undertaking endowment insurance or annuities, shall mean a society respecting which it has been made to appear to the Insurance Registrar that the society has no present liabilities apart from actuarial liabilities, or has immediately realizable assets adequate to discharge its present actual liabilities.

"Branch."

19 "Branch" shall mean any number of the members of a corporation under the control of a central body, having (within the intent of the clause numbered 43 of this section) a separate insurance fund administered by themselves, or by a committee of officers appointed by themselves:

(a) Provided that, in the corporations mentioned in clauses 2 and 4 of section 60, "branch" shall include the committee or persons having, under the authority of the respective Acts of Canada, the management of the benefit and insurance funds, or gratuity funds respectively.

"Chief Agency."

20 "Chief Agency" shall mean the principal office or place of business in Ontario of an extra-provincial corporation undertaking insurance in Ontario.

"Collector"

21. "Collector" shall include every officer, agent or person receiving pay, however remunerated, who by himself or by any deputy or substitute collects premiums, fees, assessments or other moneys for an insurance corporation.

22. "Company" shall mean and include any corporation, or any society or association, incorporated or unincorporated, or any partnership, or any underwriter that undertakes or effects for valuable consideration, or agrees or offers so to undertake or effect, in the Province, any contract of insurance within the intent of this Act. "Company."

23. "Canadian" company or "Canadian" corporation shall mean a company or body incorporated by the Dominion of Canada and operated under the Act or instrument by virtue of which the company or body became so incorporated. "Canadian" Company or Corporation.

24. "Provincial" company or "Provincial" corporation shall mean a company or body incorporated by the Province and operated under the Act or instrument by virtue of which the company or body became so incorporated. "Provincial" Company or Corporation.

25 "Directors" shall include the board or committee (by whatever name known) having the management of the insurance corporation. "Directors."

26. "Head office" shall mean the place where the chief executive officers of an insurance corporation transact its business. "Head office."

27. "Friendly Society" or "Society," shall include any corporation, society, association, or fraternity, benevolent, mutual, provident, industrial, or co-operative, or the like, which, (not being a corporation within the intent of sections 57 to 59 of this Act or required by law to be licensed for the transaction of insurance,) undertakes or effects for valuable consideration, or agrees or offers so to undertake, or effect, with any person in the Province, any contract of insurance. "Society" or "Friendly Society."

(a) Provided that where the corporation is not organized exclusively for purposes of such contracts, then "society" shall mean only that branch, or department, or division of the corporation which has such contracts in charge; and for purposes of such contracts there shall be kept distinct and separate funds, books, accounts and vouchers. Proviso (a).

(b) Provided also, that where two or more lodges or branches (by whatever name known) of a society though separately incorporated, are under the financial or administrative control of a central governing body within the Province, or a duly authorized Provincial representative of the society, then such governing body, if incorporated, or such Provincial representative of the society may, in the discretion of the Registrar, be dealt with as the society for any or all purposes of this Act. Proviso (b).

(c) Provided also, that, in the case of a friendly society incorporated elsewhere than in Ontario, the central governing or controlling body within the Province, if incorporated by virtue of the law of the Province Proviso (c).

may, in the discretion of the Registrar, be dealt with as the society for any or all purposes of this Act.

"Lodge." 28. The word "Lodge" shall include a primary subordinate division (by whatever name known) of a friendly society.

"Officer." 29. "Officer" shall extend to any trustee, director, manager, treasurer, secretary or member of the board or committee of management of a corporation or to any person appointed by the corporation to sue and be sued in its behalf.

"Rules." 30. "Rules" shall mean and include provisions of the constitution and rules or regulations, or resolutions or by-laws in force for the time being.

"Trade or [illegible]." 31. The expression "trade or labour union or trade or labour [illegible] shall mean and include any combination of wage earners of a particular trade or industrial calling as is primarily constituted and is actually operated bona fide for the regulation of the wages and hours of labour as between employers and employed; but shall not include co-operative associations or societies within the meaning of chapter 202 of these Revised Statutes.

"Assessment insurance," or "[illegible] insurance on the assessment system." 32. "Assessment insurance" or "insurance on the assessment system" shall include any contract in which the premium, [illegible] a promissory note within the meaning of the clause numbered 56 of this section, consists of sums uncertain or variable in time, number or amount; and also any contract whereby the benefit is in any manner or degree made dependent upon the collection of sums levied upon persons holding similar contracts, or upon members of the contracting corporation;

Proviso. (a) Provided, that any assessment insurance undertaken or transacted under the authority of The Insurance Act of Canada, shall be deemed assessment insurance for purposes of this Act.

R. S. C. c. 124.

"[illegible] for value." 33. "[illegible]" shall mean a beneficiary for a valuable consideration other than marriage.

"Benefit." 34. "Benefit" shall include all benefit, bonus and insurance moneys payable by the insurer under the contract; and "[illegible]." "beneficiary" shall include every person entitled to such moneys, and the executors, administrators and assigns of any person so entitled.

"Preferred beneficiaries." "Ordinary beneficiaries." 35. In insurance of the person, the husband, wife, children, [illegible] and mother of the assured shall constitute a class which may be known as "preferred beneficiaries," and all other beneficiaries may be known as "ordinary beneficiaries."

"Legal heirs" or "lawful heirs." 36. In insurance of the person the phrase "legal heirs" or "lawful heirs" shall mean and include all the lawful surviving children of the assured, and also the wife or husband if surviving the assured: or, where the assured died without lawful surviving children and unmarried, it shall mean those persons entitled to take according to the Statute of Distributions.

37. "Contract" shall mean and include any contract or agreement, sealed written or oral, the subject matter of which is within the intent of the clause numbered 41 of this section. "Contract."

38. "Endowment insurance" shall include any contract of insurance which contains an undertaking to pay an ascertained or ascertainable sum at a fixed future date, provided the assured is then alive. An undertaking to pay such sum on the assured reaching his expectancy or expectation of life shall be deemed to be endowment insurance. "Endowment insurance."

39. "Guarantee insurance" shall include contracts where a corporation, firm or person, not being the grantor, undertakes to insure the validity of title, or not being the debtor undertakes to insure the payment of money due or to become due. "Guarantee insurance."

40. "Inland marine insurance" shall mean marine insurance in respect of subjects of insurance at risk above the harbour of Montreal. "Inland marine insurance."

41. "Insurance" shall include the following, whether the contract be one of primary insurance, or of reinsurance, and whether the premium payable be a sum certain, or consist of sums uncertain or variable in time, number or amount— "Insurance."

(a) Insurance against death, sickness, infirmity, casualty, accident, disability, or any change of physical or mental condition;

(b) Insurance against financial loss; or against loss of work, employment, practice, custom, wages, rents, profits, income or revenue;

(c) Insurance of property against any loss or injury from any cause whatsoever, whether the obligation of the insurer is to indemnify by a money payment, or by restoring or reinstating the property insured;

(d) Contracts of endowment, assessment-endowment, tontine, semi-tontine, lifetime benefits, annuities on lives, or contracts of investment involving tontine or survivorship principles for the benefit of persisting members; or any contract of investment involving life contingencies;

(e) Any contract made on consideration of a premium and based on the expectancy of life; or any contract made on such consideration and having for its subject the life, safety, health, fidelity or insurable interest of any person, whether the benefit under the contract is primarily payable to the assured or to a donee, grantee or assignee, or to trustees, guardians, or representatives, or to (or in trust for) any beneficiary, or to the assured by way of indemnity or insurance against any liability incurred by him by or through the death or injury of any person;

(f) Any investment contract under which lapses or payments made by discontinuing members or investors, accrue to the benefit of persisting members or investors, except where a corporation (other than an insurance corporation) is expressly authorized to undertake such contract by a statute in force in Ontario;

(g) Generally any contract in the nature of any of the foregoing whereby the benefit under the contract accrues payable on or after the occurrence of some contingent event.

"Insurance corporation."

42. "Insurance corporation," or "corporation" simply, shall include any corporation which undertakes, or offers to undertake a contract of insurance within the meaning of the clause numbered 41 of this section, and also includes any continuously existent body which undertakes or offers to undertake such contract, and which, though not actually incorporated, is nevertheless legally entitled to sue and be sued in the name of any officer thereof, or of a public officer.

"Insurance fund" or "insurance funds."

43. "Insurance fund" or "insurance funds" as applied to any friendly society within the meaning of the clause numbered 27 of this section, or as applied to any corporation not incorporated exclusively for the transaction of insurance, shall include all moneys, securities for money, and assets appropriated by the constitution, by-laws or rules of the society to the payment of insurance liabilities or appropriated for the management of the insurance branch or department or division of the society, or otherwise legally available for insurance liabilities.

(a) The expression "insurance fund" or "insurance funds" shall not include any fund or funds of a trade or labour union or organization appropriated to or applicable for the voluntary assistance of wage-earners, unemployed or upon strike.

"The insurer."

44. "The insurer" shall mean the corporation undertaking the contract of insurance or of reinsurance, as the case may be.

"The assured."

45. "The assured" shall mean the person whose property, life, safety, health, fidelity or insurable interest is insured.

"Insurance of the person."

46. "Insurance of the person" shall include insurance against death, sickness, infirmity, casualty, accident, disability, or against any change of physical or mental condition; or any contract of insurance having for its subject the life, health, safety or physical or mental condition of a person.

47. "Maturity" of an insurance contract shall mean the happening of an event, or the expiration of the term at which the benefit under the contract accrues due. "Maturity" of contracts.

48. "Maximum" shall mean the largest sum which, under the contract, the benefit may reach, but may not in any event exceed. "Maximum."

49. "Insurance on the cash plan" shall mean insurance given for a money consideration without premium note. "Insurance on the cash plan."

50. "Cash-mutual company" shall mean a company organized to transact mutual insurance, but empowered to undertake contracts of insurance on both the cash plan and the premium note or mutual plan. "Cash mutual company."

51. "Member" as applied to any mutual or cash-mutual company transacting fire or live-stock insurance shall mean a policy-holder on the premium note plan, but as to those mutual or cash-mutual companies which, in terms of this Act have joint stock capital, "member" shall include, where the context so requires, any holder of one or more shares of such capital. "Member."

52. "Mutual insurance" shall mean, in the case of fire or live stock insurance, insurance given in consideration of a premium note or undertaking with or without an immediate cash payment thereon; and "mutual company" shall mean a company empowered solely to transact such insurance. "Mutual insurance." "Mutual company."

53. "Nominee" when used with reference to annuities on lives shall mean a designated person on whose life another's annuity depends. "Nominee."

54. "Policy" shall include any contract of insurance within the meaning of this Act. "Policy."

55. "Premium" shall include any valuable consideration given or promised for insurance. "Premium."

56. "Premium note" shall mean an instrument given as consideration for fire or live-stock insurance, whereby the maker undertakes to pay such sum or sums as may be legally demanded by the insurer, the aggregate of such sums not to exceed an amount specified in the instrument. "Premium note."

57. "Upon proof" as applied to any matter connected with the registry of a corporation or person, or with the registration of any matter or thing required by this Act to be registered, shall mean upon proof to the satisfaction of the Registrar. "Upon proof."

58. As applied to any instrument, "written" shall mean and include an instrument written or printed, or partly written and partly printed; and "sealed" shall mean an instrument under corporate or other seal. 60 V. c. 36, s. 2. "Written." "Sealed."

INCORPORATION OF JOINT STOCK COMPANIES.

Formation of joint stock company.

3.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, on the written recommendation of the Inspector, approved by the Minister, grant by letters patent under the Great Seal, a charter to any number of persons, not less than five, constituting such persons and others (being shareholders in the joint stock company thereby created) a body corporate and politic for the purpose of undertaking and transacting any kind of insurance for which a joint stock company may be licensed under this Act.

Notice of intended application.

(2) Applicants for incorporation under this section shall immediately prior to the actual application, publish in at least four consecutive issues of the Ontario Gazette notice of their intention to apply, and shall if so required publish also elsewhere notice of such intention.

Contents of notice.

(3) The notice required by the next preceding sub-section shall set out the full names and additions of the applicants, and their residences and occupations; shall state the proposed corporate name of the company, the kind of insurance proposed to be transacted, the place where the head office of the company is to be, the amount of capital stock, the number of shares into which the capital is to be divided, and the amount of each share.

Delivery of application and material.

(4) The applicants shall deliver to the Inspector the application for incorporation, together with proof that public notice thereof has been duly given; shall also deliver copies of the proposed by-laws of the corporation and such other material as under this Act is required of a company applying for license, including the Provincial Treasurer's receipts for all necessary fees, and thereupon the Inspector shall make his report to the Minister. 60 V. c. 36, s. 3.

Report of Inspector.

Form of letters patent under section 3.

4. All letters patent issued to applicants for incorporation under section 3 shall be expressed to take effect on and from the day of the date of the initial license issued to the applicant company under this Act; also the incorporation shall be expressed in the letters patent to be for the transaction of such kind or kinds of insurance as may be authorized by the Provincial license from time to time issued to the said company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 4.

Directors.

5.—(1) The affairs of every company incorporated under section 3 shall be managed by a board of not less than five nor more than fifteen directors.

(2) The first five of the persons named in the charter of incorporation shall be directors of the company until replaced by others duly elected or appointed or named in their stead.

(3) The after directors of the company shall be elected by the shareholders in general meeting of the company assembled, at such times, in such wise, and for such term, not exceeding two years, as the by-laws of the company may prescribe. 60 V. c. 36, s. 5.

Capital stock.

6. The capital stock of the company incorporated under section 4 shall be as follows :—

1. If the company undertakes fire, or fire and inland marine, or accident, or life, or life and accident, or guarantee, or suretyship insurance, the capital stock shall be not less than $500,000, with liberty to increase the same to $1,000,000 with the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; and before applying for license the company shall furnish to the Inspector satisfactory evidence that of the said capital stock at least $300,000 has been subscribed for and taken up bona fide, and that $30,000 of the said subscribed stock has been paid into some chartered bank of Canada ;

2. If the company undertakes live-stock insurance, with or without insurance on vehicles, the capital stock shall be at least $300,000, with liberty to increase the same as in the first sub-section to $500,000 of which, as in said sub-section $150,000 shall be shown to have been subscribed, and $15,000 to have been paid into some chartered bank of Canada ;

3. If the company (being other than as in the preceding or following sub-sections) undertakes insurance against any loss of or damage to property by accidental causes, including explosions or by reason of larceny, housebreaking or burglary, the capital stock shall be at least $100,000, with liberty to increase the same as in the first sub-section to $250,000, of which, as in said sub-section, $60,000 shall be shown to have been subscribed, and $11,000 to have been paid into some chartered bank of Canada ;

4. If the company undertakes bicycle or vehicle insurance, or plate glass insurance, the capital stock shall be at the least $25,000, with liberty to increase the same as in the first subsection to $100,000, of which first mentioned sum $12,000 at the least shall be shown to have been subscribed, and $6,000 at the least to have been paid into some chartered bank of Canada. 60 V. c. 36, s. 6.

Corporate power forfeited by non-user, or discontinuance of business ; or suspension or cancellation of license.

7. The corporate powers of any company, whether incorporated under this Act or under any special Act, shall be forfeited by non-user during three years after the date of incorporation ; or if, after a company has undertaken contracts within the intent of this Act, such company discontinues business for one year ; or if its license remains suspended for one year ; or if its license is terminated otherwise than by mere effluxion of time and is not renewed within the period of sixty days ; and thereupon the company's corporate powers which may be limited by judgment or order.

Receiver.

shall ipso facto cease and determine, except for the sole purpose of winding up its affairs; and in any action or proceeding where such non-user is alleged, proof of user shall be upon the corporation; and the High Court, upon the petition of the Attorney-General, or of any person interested, may by judgment or order limit the time within which the company shall settle and close its accounts, and may for this specific purpose, or for the purpose of liquidation generally, appoint a receiver. 60 V. c. 36, s. 7.

FORMATION AND INCORPORATION OF MUTUAL AND CASH-MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Meetings to establish companies, how called.

8. Ten freeholders in any municipality or association of municipalities may call a meeting of the freeholders thereof to consult whether it is expedient to establish therein a fire insurance company upon the mutual or cash-mutual principle. 60 V. c. 36, s. 8.

Advertisement calling such meeting.

9. The meeting shall be called by advertisement, mentioning the time and place and object of the meeting; and the advertisement shall be published once in the Ontario Gazette, and for three weeks in one or more of the newspapers published in the county. 60 V. c. 36, s. 9.

Subscription book.

10. If thirty freeholders of the municipality are present at the meeting, and a majority of them determine that it is expedient to establish a mutual or cash-mutual fire insurance company, they may elect three persons from among them to open and keep a subscription book, in which owners of property, movable or immovable, within the Province of Ontario may sign their names, and enter the sum for which they shall respectively bind themselves to effect insurance with the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 10.

When meeting may be called.

11. Where seventy-five or more persons, being owners of movable or immovable property in the Province of Ontario, have signed their names in the subscription book and bound themselves to effect insurance in the company, which in the aggregate shall amount to $150,000 at least, a meeting shall be called as hereinafter provided. 60 V. c. 36, s. 11.

How meeting to be called.

12.—(1) As soon as convenient after the subscription book has been completed in manner aforesaid, any ten of the subscribers thereto may call the first meeting of the company at such time and place within the municipality as they may determine; such meeting shall be called by sending a printed notice by mail, addressed to every subscriber at his post office address, at least ten days before the day of the meeting, and by advertisement in one or more papers published in the county in which the municipality is situated.

(2) The said notice and advertisement shall contain the object of the meeting, and the time and place at which it is to be held. 60 V. c. 36, s. 12.

Election of directors.

13.—(1) At such meeting (including any necessary or reasonable adjournment of the same) the name and style of the company, including the appellations "fire" and "mutual," shall be adopted, and a secretary ad interim appointed, and a board of directors elected as hereinafter provided and the place named at which the head office of the company shall be located.

(2) To constitute a valid meeting for the purposes of sub-section 1, at least twenty-five of the aforesaid subscribers must be present.

(3) In case of a county or township the head office may be in any city, town or village within the boundaries of the county or township or adjacent thereto. 60 V. c. 36, s. 13.

Names of directors to be filed in registry office.

14. Copies of the minutes of the said several meetings, of the resolutions adopting the name or style, and the place of the head office of the company, and of the subscription book and the names of the directors elected shall thereupon be made; and all such documents certified as correct under the hands of the chairman and secretary, shall be filed in the office of the Registrar of Deeds for the registry division wherein the head office of the company is situate. 60 V. c. 36, s. 14.

Thereupon the corporation to be formed.

15.—(1) Upon the filing of said documents, with the certificate, the subscribers above mentioned, and all other persons thereafter effecting insurance in the company, (such subscribers or persons being insured on the premium-note plan), shall become members of the company and shall be a body corporate by and under the name so adopted.

Forfeiture of the corporate powers of the company.

(2) But the corporate powers of the company shall as provided by section 7 be forfeited by non-user or discontinuance of business, or by suspension or cancellation of license, which section shall in all respects apply as well to mutual and cash-mutual companies as to joint stock companies. 60 V. c. 36, s. 15.

Meeting of directors to elect president and officers.

16. As soon as convenient after the meeting mentioned in section 13, the secretary ad interim shall call a meeting of the board of directors, for the election of a president and vice-president from amongst themselves, for the appointment of a secretary, treasurer or manager, and the transaction of such other business as may be brought before them. 60 V. c. 36, s. 16.

Copies of resolutions, subscription,

17. After the company has filed in the office of the Registrar of Deeds the documents mentioned in section 14, and before the company shall transact or be entitled to transact any insurance business, the chairman and secretary shall transmit or deliver like copies (duly certified by them to be true copies and indorsed by the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of Deeds as having been duly filed) to the Inspector of Insurance at his office in Toronto, accompanied by a statement signed by the chairman and secretary, stating the kind and character of the risks intended to be taken by the company, that is to say, whether the business to be transacted is the insurance of farm and isolated buildings and property, or of mercantile, manufacturing and other hazardous and extra hazardous properties, or of both; also whether the company has been organized and incorporated as a mutual or as a cash mutual company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 17.

Books and statements of proposed business to be transmitted to Inspector of Insurance.

Inquiries to be made by Inspector after receiving statement.

Verification of documents, etc.

18. Upon the receipt of such certified copies and of the aforesaid statement by the Inspector, he shall proceed to ascertain whether the proceedings for the incorporation of the company have been taken in accordance with the law in that behalf, and whether the subscriptions are bona fide, and by persons possessing property to insure, and whether the proposed name is the same as that of any existing company, or may be easily confounded therewith, and he may require the declaration of any person or persons upon oath to be filed with him, touching any matters concerning which he is called upon to make inquiry. 60 V. c. 36, s. 18.

On report of Inspector Minister may issue license.

19. If, upon examination, the Inspector finds that the said subscriptions have been made in good faith by persons entitled to make the same, and that the proposed name is satisfactory, and that the company has complied with this Act in respect of deposit, and in all other respects, the Minister may thereupon issue a license under his hand and seal setting forth that the company is thereby licensed to transact the kind of business specified in the license, for the term therein also specified, but not exceeding twelve months from the date of issue; but such license may from time to time be renewed as hereinafter provided. 60 V. c. 36, s. 19.

SHARE OR STOCK CAPITAL IN MUTUAL OR CASH-MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES; CONVERSION OF MUTUAL OR CASH-MUTUAL INTO JOINT STOCK COMPANIES.

Power to raise share capital.

20. Any mutual or cash-mutual fire insurance company, incorporated under this or any former Act, may with the prior assent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, raise a share or stock capital of not less than $100,000, and may with the like assent increase the same from time to time to a sum not exceeding $500,000: Provided that the same public notice as that prescribed by section 3 has been given by the company of its intention to raise, or to increase such capital. 60 V. c. 36, s. 20.

21. Every subscriber shall, on allotment of one or more shares to him, become a member of the company; with all incidental rights, privileges and liabilities. 60 V. c. 36, s. 21. Subscribers to become members of company.

22. The shares shall be personal estate, and shall be transferable, but no transfer shall be valid unless made on the books of the company; and, until fully paid up, no share shall be transferable without the consent of the board of directors, nor shall any transfer be valid while any call previously made remains unpaid; and the company shall have a lien on the shares of any shareholder for unpaid calls or other debts due by him to the company, and for any obligation held by the company against him; and after any call, debt or obligation becomes due, the company may, upon one month's notice to the shareholder, his executors or administrators, sell his shares or a sufficient portion thereof to pay the call, debt or obligation, and transfer the shares so sold to the purchaser. 60 V. c. 36, s. 22. Transfer of shares.

23. The company may, also after default made in the payment of any call upon any share for one month, and after notice having been first given as in the next preceding section mentioned, declare the share and all sums previously paid thereon, forfeited to the company, and the company may sell or re-issue forfeited shares on such terms as they think fit for the benefit of the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 23. Forfeiture of shares.

24. After $100,000 of the stock or share capital has been bona fide subscribed, and ten per centum paid thereon into the funds of the company, the company may make insurance for premiums payable wholly in cash; but no insurance on the wholly cash principle shall make the insured a member of the company, or make him liable to contribute or pay any sum to the company, or to its funds, or to any other member thereof, beyond the cash premium agreed upon, or give him any right to participate in the profits or surplus funds of the company; but the company shall not transact any business wholly on the cash principle without first procuring a license from the Minister pursuant to this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 24. When company may make insurances for premiums payable wholly in cash.

25. The net annual profits and gains of the company not including therein any premium notes or undertakings shall be applied, in the first place, to pay a dividend on the share capital, not exceeding the rate of ten per centum per annum, and the surplus, if any, shall be applied in the manner provided by the by-laws of the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 25. Dividends.

26. After the share capital has been subscribed as aforesaid, at least two-thirds of the persons to be elected directors of the company in addition to the qualifications required by section 117 of this Act, shall be holders of shares of the capital stock to the amount of $1,000 upon which all calls have been Qualification of directors.

duly paid; the other one-third of the directors to be elected shall possess at least the qualifications required by section 117. 60 V. c. 36, s. 26.

By-laws.

27. The board of directors of any company which raises a share or stock capital under this Act, may make such by-laws, subject to the provisions of this Act, and not inconsistent with or contrary to law, as may be necessary to carry out the objects and intentions of this Act, and to give effect to the provisions thereof; and may rescind, alter, vary, or add to the same from time to time. 60 V. c. 36, s. 27.

How a mutual company may become a stock company.

28. Any mutual or cash-mutual fire insurance company heretofore incorporated or organized, or which may be hereafter incorporated or organized, under any of the laws of this Province, having surplus assets, aside from premium notes or undertakings, sufficient to re-insure all its outstanding risks, after having given notice once a week for four weeks of their intention, and of the meeting hereinafter provided for, in the Ontario Gazette and in a newspaper published in the county where the company is located, with the consent of two-thirds of the members present at any regular annual meeting, and of two-thirds of the subscribers of share or stock capital, or at any special general meeting called for the purpose or with the consent in writing of two-thirds of the members of the company, and the consent also of three-fourths of the directors, and of two-thirds of the subscribers to the share or stock capital, may, as provided in section 3 of this Act, be formed into a joint stock company after application having been made in terms of the said section; and every member of such company, on the day of the said annual or special meeting, or the date of the written consent, shall be entitled to priority in subscribing to the capital stock of the company, for one month after the opening of the books of subscription to the capital stock, in proportion to the amount of insurance held by such members on unexpired risks in force on the day of the annual or special meeting, or the date of the written consent. 60 V. c. 36, s. 28.

New company to be answerable for liabilities of former company.

29. Any company which may be formed under the provision of the last preceding section shall be answerable for all the liabilities of the company from which it has been formed, and may be sued therefor by or under its new corporate name, and the assets, real and personal, of the old company shall pass to and become vested in the new company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 29.

INCORPORATION OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES.

No corporation created after 10th March, 1890, under R.S.O.,

30.—(1) No company, society, association or organization incorporated after the tenth day of March, 1890, under The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, chapter 172, or hereafter incorporated under The Act respecting Benevolent, Provident and other Societies, shall have authority to undertake or effect for valuable consideration, or to agree or offer so to undertake or effect any contract of insurance within the meaning of section 2 of this Act; and any person who in contravention of this section acts or purports to act for any such corporation in any such contract or offer shall be guilty of an offence punishable as enacted in section 85 of this Act.

1887, c. 172, or under Rev. Stat. c. 211, to undertake insurance.

Penalty.

(2) No company, society, association or organization incorporated under the said chapter, 172, of The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, on or before the tenth day of March, 1890, and not authorized by its original certificate or declaration of incorporation to undertake such contracts as mentioned in the next preceding sub-section shall by virtue of section 19 of the said Revised Statute, or otherwise, have authority to change or extend the purposes of the corporation so as to include the undertaking of such contracts. 60 V. c. 36, s. 30.

Societies created on or before 10th March, 1890, not to change purposes so as to include insurance.

31. If any body duly incorporated to undertake such contracts by virtue of any prior enactment of the Province or to be incorporated by virtue of sections 33 to 38 inclusive of this Act does not go into actual operation within two years after incorporation, or, for two consecutive years does not use its corporate powers for the purposes or for the chief purpose set forth in the declaration or in the application for incorporation, such non-user shall ipso facto work a forfeiture of the corporate powers except so far as necessary for winding up the corporation; and in any action or proceeding where such non-user is alleged, proof of user shall lie upon the corporation. 60 V. c. 36, s. 31.

Corporate franchise forfeited by non-user.

32.—(1) If after a reasonable time has been given to the corporation to be heard, it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that any body incorporated under the sections or enactments referred to in sections 30 and 31 is using its corporate powers for any fraudulent or any unlawful purpose, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to suspend for a limited period, or to revoke the said corporate powers, and on any revocation the corporate powers shall ipso facto absolutely cease and determine, except for the sole purpose of winding up the affairs of the corporation; and the High Court upon the petition of the Attorney-General, or of any person interested, may, by judgment or order limit the time within which the corporation shall settle and close its accounts, and may for this specified purpose, or for the purpose of liquidation generally, appoint a receiver.

Unlawful use of corporate powers.

Suspension or revocation of powers.

(2) Notice of any suspension or revocation of corporate powers as aforesaid shall be given in the Ontario Gazette, and also elsewhere if the Lieutenant-Governor in Council so determines.

Public notice.

Penalty for undertaking insurance during suspension, or after revocation of powers.

Foreign friendly societies; incorporation of Provincial body.

33.—(1) Where a friendly society, registered under this Act has its head office elsewhere than in the Province of Ontario, the Grand or other Provincial body, or the lodges or a majority of the lodges situated in the Province may file with the Insurance Registrar an application or applications for Provincial incorporation, setting forth the facts of the case and the proposed corporate name, and head office, and the purposes and rules of the society; also naming those persons who are to be its first trustees or managing officers, and stating the mode in which their successors are to be elected; also furnishing such other information as the Registrar requires.

Hearing of application and notice.

(2) Upon due application made the Registrar may name a day for the hearing of the application, and such public notice of the hearing shall be given in the Ontario Gazette and otherwise as the Registrar directs.

Certificate of incorporation.

(3) If, upon the hearing, it appears to the Registrar that such incorporation ought to be granted, he shall have authority to certify in duplicate, or in as many parts as may be required, under his hand and the seal of his office, that he finds entitled to incorporation under the name and for the purposes specified in the certificate, the persons mentioned therein.

Filing of certificate.

(4) One of the original parts of the certificate shall be filed in the office of the Provincial Registrar, together with such other documents as the Insurance Registrar by his certificate requires to be filed; and from the day of such filing the persons mentioned in the Insurance Registrar's certificate and their associates and successors shall thenceforward be a body corporate and politic, and shall have the powers, rights and immunities vested by law in such bodies.

Registration.

(5) Upon due application the Insurance Registrar shall have authority to admit to registry as a friendly society the body so incorporated. 60 V. c. 36, s. 33.

Incorporation of auxiliary bodies.

34 Where it is in the opinion of the Insurance Registrar necessary or expedient that an auxiliary, or local or subordinate body or branch of a registered society should be separately incorporated, or separately registered, or both, or that two or more societies should be incorporated or registered as one society, the Insurance Registrar may direct the like proceedings to be taken as in the next preceding section enacted, and the filing of his certificate in the office of the Provincial Registrar shall have the same effect as therein enacted; also upon due application the body so incorporated may be registered 60 V. c. 36, s. 34.

Registration.

35. Any unincorporated lodge or body controlled by a registered society, and operated under the uniform rules prescribed by the said society, and not contrary to law, may through the society, make application to the Insurance Registrar for incorporation; if upon due application it appears to him that incorporation ought to be granted, he may certify the same under his hand and the seal of his office; and the filing of his certificate in the office of the Provincial Registrar shall have the same effect as enacted in section 33. 60 V. c. 36, s. 35.

Incorporation of subordinate lodges.

Superannuation or benefit funds under Rev. Stat. c. 223, or 36.—The officers of any superannuation or benefit fund authorized by sub-sections 9 and 10 of section 591 of The Municipal Act, or by sub-section 2 of section 592 thereof, or established by virtue of any prior or amending municipal Act, or by virtue of any Act authorizing the establishment of a benefit fund for policemen or firemen, and the officers of any benefit fund established by virtue of section 48 of The Act respecting the Law Society of Upper Canada, or any prior Act consolidated therein, may upon like proceedings taken as enacted in section 33 hereof, become incorporated with the same limitations of corporate powers; and the body so incorporated may, upon due application, be admitted to registry. 60 V. c. 36, s. 36; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Rev. Stat. c. 172.

Unincorporated societies entitled at 10th March, 1890.

37. Where a friendly society has its head office in Ontario, and the society or the lodges of the society were, on the tenth day of March, 1890, and also on the thirty-first day of December, 1892, in actual and active operation, and though the society, being at the first mentioned date entitled to incorporation, did not on or before that date take out incorporation, the Registrar of Friendly Societies, upon proof of the facts, shall have authority to issue a certificate of incorporation as in section 33 hereof enacted, and the filing of such certificate in the office of the Provincial Registrar shall have the same effect as therein provided; upon due application the society so incorporated may be registered. 60 V. c. 36, s. 37.

Incorporation of trade unions and wage-earners' societies.

38.—(1) Upon like proceedings taken as enacted in section 33, incorporation may be granted in either of the two following cases:—

or to pay unemployed or superannuation benefits to the said members.

(b) Where any organization of persons resident in Ontario, consisting of not less than twenty-five members and managed and operated as a friendly society under rules conforming to this Act purposes to contract with its own members exclusively for sick benefits, not exceeding five dollars per week and a funeral benefit of not more than one hundred dollars, or either of such benefits.

Registry of bodies so incorporated.

(2) The body so incorporated may, upon due application, be admitted to registry as a friendly society; but unless and until so registered, the corporation shall not undertake, nor agree or offer to undertake, any contract insuring the said or other insurance benefits. 60 V. c. 36, s. 38.

Merger of prior incorporation.

39. Where any society, association, union, organization or lodge already incorporated under a prior Act of this Province becomes incorporated under this Act, such prior incorporation shall be deemed to have been merged in and superseded by the said later incorporation. 60 V. c. 36, s. 39.

CHANGE OF NAME OR OF HEAD OFFICE.

(All Provincial Insurance Corporations.)

Change of corporate name.

40.—(1) Where an insurance corporation within the legislative authority of this Province is desirous of adopting a name different from that by which it was incorporated, or where in the opinion of the Insurance Registrar the name by which the corporation was incorporated may be easily confounded with that of any other existing corporation, or is otherwise on public grounds objectionable, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the recommendation of the said Registrar, approved by the Minister, may change the name of the corporation to some other name to be set forth in the Order in Council; but no such change of name shall affect the rights or obligations of the corporation; and all proceedings which might have been continued or commenced by or against the corporation by its former name may be continued or commenced by or against the corporation under its new name.

(2) The head office of a corporation may be changed upon the like procedure.

Public notice.

(3) Of any such change of name or head office, or application for change of name or head office, such public notice shall be given in the Ontario Gazette and otherwise as the Registrar directs. 60 V. c. 36, s. 40.

GOVERNMENT DEPOSITS.

41.—(1) Except mutual fire insurance companies licensed only for the insurance of farm buildings and of isolated risks (such risks being other than mercantile and manufacturing risks) every company applying for a Provincial license to transact insurance shall, before the original issue or the renewal of the license, or of registry, lodge with the Minister the initial or the renewal deposits respectively below stated, and the said deposits shall be made in cash or in deposit receipts of chartered banks of Canada, or in the stock or bonds of the Dominion of Canada or of this Province, or in deposit receipts or terminable debentures of any corporation in the obligations of which trustees may under the law of this Province invest trust moneys; Provided that this section in so far as it alters the amount of the deposit required by statutes before the 13th day of April, 1897, in force shall not apply to such companies as have before said date reported to the Department of Insurance, but shall, on and from the said date, apply to all other companies thereafter licensed.

Certain corporations to make deposits in cash or in certain securities.

Application of section.

Initial deposits.

(2) The initial deposit to be made by any corporation liable to make deposit before the original or initial registry shall be the sum appointed for such corporation in sub-section 4 of this section.

Renewal deposits.

(3) Before the annual renewal of registry the amount of deposit required of any such corporation shall on or before the first day of July in each year be re-adjusted in terms of the next following two subsections.

Deposit for contingent liability of $2,000,000 and under.

(4) If on the preceding 31st day of December in any year the corporation's total contingent liability or amount at risk does not exceed $2,000,000:

(a) Every joint stock fire or fire and inland marine insurance company, and every life or life and accident company, and every guarantee and surety company shall keep on deposit with the Minister, if a Provincial or Canadian company, $25,000, and if a foreign company, $50,000.

(b) Every accident company, if Provincial or Canadian, shall keep on deposit with the Minister $20,000, and if a joint stock foreign company, $40,000.

(c) Every Provincial mutual fire, or fire and inland marine company, insuring mercantile and manufacturing risks, shall keep on deposit with the Minister $10,000, and every Provincial cash mutual fire, or cash mutual fire and inland marine company, $10,000.

(d) Every live-stock insurance company shall keep on deposit as aforesaid, if Provincial or Canadian, $10,000, and if foreign joint stock, $25,000.

(e) Every insurance company within the intent of clause 3 of section 6 shall keep on deposit, as aforesaid, if Provincial or Canadian, $10,000, and if foreign joint stock $20,000.

(f) Every insurance company within the intent of clause 4 of section 6 shall keep on deposit as aforesaid, if Provincial or Canadian, $5,000, and if foreign joint stock, $10,000.

(g) Every foreign company doing only the business of reinsuring fire risks undertaken by companies standing registered under this Act shall keep on deposit, as aforesaid, $10,000.

(h) Every non-provincial friendly society within the intent of clause 6 of section 60, shall keep on deposit $5,000.

Additional deposit for each additional million or fraction.

(5) If on the preceding 31st day of December in any year, the corporation's total contingent liability, or the amount of insurance in force (insured or reinsured) exceeds $2,000,000, then for each additional $1,000,000 or fraction thereof, the corporations enumerated in the next preceding subsection shall respectively keep on deposit, with the Minister, by way of additional security, a sum equal to one-fifth of the initial deposit, and the additional deposit shall be either in cash or securities as aforesaid. 60 V. c. 36, s. 41.

Value at which certain securities received.

42.—(1) Securities of the Dominion of Canada, or securities issued by any of the Provinces of Canada, shall be accepted at their market value at the time when they are deposited.

Value at which other securities received.

(2) The other securities above specified shall be accepted at such valuation and on such conditions as the Minister may direct, and the Inspector shall under the name of each company keep a record of the securities deposited on its account, naming in detail the several securities, their par value, and the value at which they are received as deposit.

If market value declines, company to make further deposit.

(3) If the market value of any of the securities which have been deposited by any company declines below the value at which they were deposited, the Minister may, from time to time, call upon the corporation to make a further deposit, so that the market value of all the securities deposited by any company shall be equal to the amount which they are required to deposit by this Act.

Securities, etc., vested in the Minister by virtue of his office to vest also in his successor.

(4) Where any security, obligation or covenant, or any interest in any real or personal estate, effects, or property is given, or transferred to, made with, or vested in the Minister, by virtue of his office, such security, obligation or covenant, and any right of action in respect thereto, and all the estate, right, or interest of the said Minister in respect of such real or personal estate, effects or property upon the death, resignation or removal from office of the Minister from time to time, and as often as the case happens and the appointment of a successor takes place shall (subject to the same trusts as the same were respectively subject to) vest in the succeeding Minister by virtue of this Act and shall and may be proceeded on by any action or in any other manner or may be assigned, transferred or discharged in the name of such succeeding Minister as the same might have been proceeded on, assigned, transferred or discharged by the Minister to such or in whom they were first given, transferred, made or vested if he had continued to hold office.

Assignment, etc., of securities.

(5) Every such security, obligation, covenant or interest in real or personal estate, effects and property may in like manner as in the last subsection mentioned be proceeded, assigned, transferred or discharged by and in the name of any member of the Executive Council of Canada acting under the authority of section 3 of The Interpretation of the Executive Council. Rev. Stat. c. 14.

Application of subsec. 4.

(6) Subsection 4 of this section shall apply to every security, obligation or covenant and every interest in real or personal estate, effects or property given or transferred to, made with, or vested in, any former Minister, by virtue or on account of his office and shall transfer all the interest, rights and estate of the former Minister or the persons Minister, to be vested in him by virtue of his office and subject to the provisions of this Act.

Minister may allow companies to change securities deposited with him.

(7) Where any company desires to substitute other securities within the intent of section 41 for securities deposited with the Minister, the Minister if he thinks fit may permit the substitution to be made. 60 V. c. 36, s. 42.

Voluntary deposits by insurance corporations.

43.—(1) A deposit of any amount not falling below $5,000 may voluntarily be made by any registered friendly society, an insurance company may also voluntarily make a deposit in excess of the amount required by section 41, and such further deposit by the company shall be dealt with as if the same had been part of its original deposit.

Form of deposit: withdrawal.

(2) All such voluntary deposits shall be made in the form prescribed by subsection 4 of section 41 and be part of such voluntary deposits shall be withdrawn except with the sanction of the Minister: Provided the interest upon the securities forming the deposit shall be handed over to the depositing corporation. 60 V. c. 36, s. 43.

Withdrawal of deposit where company licensed by Dominion.

44. A company having made a deposit under this Act shall be entitled to withdraw the deposit with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, whenever it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that the company is carrying on its business of insurance under license from the Dominion of Canada. 60 V. c. 36, s. 44.

Any deficiency of security to be made good, or license forfeited.

45. If from the annual statements, or other examination of the affairs and condition of any company, it appears that the re-insurance value of all its risks outstanding in Ontario, together with any other liabilities in Ontario, exceeds its assets in Ontario, (including the deposit in the hands of the Minister), then the company shall be called upon by the Minister to make good the deficiency at once, and on failure so to do its license may be suspended or may be cancelled, and in case of cancellation, if a Provincial corporation, its corporate powers shall thereupon cease and determine, except for the purpose of winding up its affairs as provided in section 7. 60 V. c. 36, s. 45.

As to interest on securities.

46. Except in cases with respect to which it may be otherwise provided by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, so long as any company's deposit is unimpaired and no notice of any final judgment or order to the contrary is served upon the Minister, the interest upon the securities forming the deposit shall be handed over to the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 46.

Licenses forfeited by failure to deposit, non-payment of claims and consequent deficiency of security.

47. Where a company fails to make the deposits under this Act at the time required, or where written notice has been served on the Minister of an undisputed claim arising from loss insured against in Ontario remaining unpaid for the space of sixty days after being due, or of a disputed claim after final judgment in a regular course of law and tender of a legal valid discharge being unpaid, so that the amount of securities representing the deposit of the company is liable to be reduced by sale or administration of any portion thereof, the license of the company may be suspended, or may be cancelled; but in case of suspension under this section or section 45, the license may be revived, and the company may again transact business, if within sixty days after notice to the Minister of the company's failure to pay any undisputed claim, or the amount of any final judgment as provided in this section, such undisputed claims or final judgments upon or against the company in Ontario are paid and satisfied, and the company's deposit is no longer liable to be reduced below the amount required by this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 47.

Renewal on certain conditions.

Government deposit security for certain contracts only.

48. The securities deposited with the Minister shall be subject to administration only in respect of any contract which falls within the intent of section 2, and which further has for its subject some property in the Province, or property in transit to or from the Province, or the life, safety, health, fidelity, or insurable interest of some resident of the Province, or where the contract itself makes the payment thereunder primarily payable to some resident of the Province. 60 V. c. 36, s. 48.

When a company shall be liable to have deposits administered.

49.—(1) Under an order of the High Court any company shall be liable to have its deposit in the hands of the Minister administered in manner hereinafter mentioned upon the failure of the company to pay any undisputed claim arising under any contract within the intent of section 48 for the space of sixty days after being due, or, if disputed, after final judgment and tender of a legal valid discharge, and (in either case) after notice thereof to the Minister, and to the Insurance Registrar. In case of such administration, the whole deposit of the company, held by the Minister, shall, after the costs of administration have been provided for, be deemed to be assets for the holders of such contracts, whose rights as among themselves shall be determined as provided for in sub-section 4 of section 191.

Provisions for application of deposits in such case.

(2) In any case where a claim accruing on the occurrence of any event is by the terms of the contract payable on proof of such occurrence, without any stipulated delay, the notice required under this section shall not be given until after the lapse of sixty days from the time when the claim becomes due. 60 V. c. 36, s. 49.

Proviso, if delay was given for the payment of any loss.

50.—(1) Before the application is made to the said Court for the administration of a company's deposit at least ten days' notice in writing of such intended application, setting out the grounds thereof, shall be served on the Minister, and also upon the Insurance Registrar; and the notice shall designate the sitting of the Court to which application is proposed to be made, and shall state the day named for the hearing of the same.

Administration of deposit.

(2) If an order for administration is granted, the company shall be deemed to have thereby become unregistered. In the case of a Provincial company, the winding up of the company shall be deemed to have commenced under section 185 as from the date of the administration order. In the case of a foreign or extra-Provincial company, upon motion of any person interested in the administration or of the Insurance Registrar, the Master in Ordinary shall appoint a competent and otherwise suitable person to be administrator, and in respect of the administration the said Master shall have the like powers and duties as in the case of a receivership under this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 50.

Administration proceedings.

51. Where a company has ceased to transact business in Ontario, and has given written notice to that effect to the Minister and to the Insurance Registrar, it shall re-insure all such outstanding contracts as are within the intent of section 48 in some company or companies registered to do business in Ontario, or obtain a discharge of such contracts, and its securities shall not be delivered to the company until such reinsurance is effected to the satisfaction of the Minister. 60 V. c. 36, s. 51.

Duty of company ceasing business.

52. Upon making application for its securities the company shall file with the Insurance Registrar a list of all contracts within section 48 which have not been so re-insured or have not been discharged; and it shall at the same time publish in the Ontario Gazette a notice that it has applied to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the release of its securities on a certain day, not less than three months after the date of the notice, and calling upon all claimants, contingent or actual, opposing the release to file their opposition with the Insurance Registrar on or before the day so named; and after that day, if the Minister is satisfied that the company has ample assets to meet its liabilities under section 48, all the securities may be released to the company by an order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or a sufficient amount of them may be retained to cover the claims filed, and the remainder may be released, and thereafter from time to time as such opposing claims lapse, or proof is adduced that they have been satisfied, further releases may be made on the authority aforesaid. 60 V. c. 36, s. 52.

Condition on which deposits may be released.

LICENSING OF INSURANCE COMPANIES.

What corporations shall before registry be licensed by the Province.

53.—(1) All insurance corporations not being the companies within the intent of section 59, and not being friendly societies within the intent of section 60, shall, before becoming entitled to registry, obtain a license from the Minister.

Proceedings to license.

(2) Applicants for license shall file with the Insurance Registrar the documents mentioned in sections 3 and 17, and also the documents hereinafter required of an applicant for registry; and shall before license comply with the provisions of section 41 relating to deposit.

When license shall issue.

(3) As soon as the company applying for license has deposited the securities hereinbefore mentioned, and has otherwise conformed to the requirements of this Act, the Minister may issue the license.

Form of license.

(4) The license shall be in such form as may be from time to time determined by the Minister, and shall specify the business to be carried on by the company; and shall expire on the thirtieth day of June in each year, but shall be renewable from year to year. A record of the licenses and supplementary licenses as they are issued or renewed shall be kept in the office of the Insurance Registrar.

Record of licenses.

Licensees to be entitled to registry.

(5) Licensees under this section shall be entitled to be registered as provided in section 58.

Supplementary licenses.

(6) Where a company desires to extend its business to some other branch of insurance within the intent of this Act, and has complied with the law in respect of additional deposit and otherwise, the Minister may on the report of the Insurance Registrar issue to the company a supplementary license authorizing it to undertake such other branch of business.

Supplementary licenses subject to same provisions as licenses.

(7) The provisions herein enacted as to the continuance, renewal, suspension and cancellation of licenses shall equally apply to supplementary licenses.

(8) Although a company has ceased to transact business in Ontario after the notice by this Act required and its license has in consequence been withdrawn, the company shall nevertheless pay the losses arising from policies not re-insured or surrendered as if the license had not been withdrawn. 60 V. c. 36, s. 53. Notwithstanding withdrawal of license company's liability for losses continues.

REGISTRATION OF INSURANCE CORPORATIONS.

54. No insurance other than as enacted by and for the purposes of The Land Titles Act, and other than contracts of guarantee undertaken by a company standing registered under The Loan Corporations Act, shall be transacted or undertaken in Ontario except by a corporation duly registered as herein provided. No unregistered corporation to undertake insurance. Rev. Stat. c. 138, c. 205.

Provided that no superannuation or insurance or annuity fund, managed or controlled by the Government of the Dominion of Canada for the benefit of the civil service thereof shall require to be registered. 60 V. c. 36, s 54. Civil service fund of Canada.

55. Two registers shall be opened and kept as follows:— Two registers to be kept.

(1) A register of the corporations enumerated in sections 58 and 59; this register, which may be known as "The Insurance Company Register," shall be kept in the office and under direction of the Inspector of Insurance; Insurance company register.

(2) A register of friendly societies authorized hereunder by certificate of registry to undertake insurance contracts, or contracts in the nature of insurance; this register, which may be known as "The Friendly Society Register," shall be kept in the office and under the direction of the Registrar of Friendly Societies who may be the Inspector of Insurance, or such other person as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint; and such assistants may, by the same authority, be appointed as from time to time the case requires. The first Registrar of Friendly Societies shall be the Inspector of Insurance. 60 V. c. 36, s. 55. Friendly society register. Proviso.

56.—(1) The duty of determining and distinguishing those corporations which under this Act are required to be registered and are legally entitled to registry, and of granting registry accordingly, shall devolve upon the Insurance Registrar subject to appeal as hereinafter provided. Powers and duties of the Registrar.

(2) For the purposes of his duties under this Act or under any other Act relating to insurance, the Registrar may require to be made, and may take and receive affidavits and depositions, and may examine witnesses upon oath; and the Registrar shall have the same power to summons officers of corporations, receivers and liquidators, and other persons to attend as witnesses, to enforce their attendance, and to compel them to produce books and documents and to give evidence as any Court has in civil cases. 60 V. c. 35, s. 56. Evidence.

INSURANCE COMPANY REGISTER: WHAT CORPORATIONS MAY BE REGISTERED.

Companies standing registered at the passing of this Act.

57. Insurance companies which, at the passing of this Act, stand duly registered as such shall be admissible to registry on the Insurance Company Register. 60 V. c. 36, s. 57.

Insurance licenses of Ontario, how registered.

58.—(1) Insurance licensees of the Province of Ontario shall be entitled on the issue or the renewal of their licenses to be registered, without additional charge, on the Insurance Company Register, and the fact of such registration shall before delivery over of the license, original or renewed, be indorsed thereon.

Suspension or cancellation or non-renewal of Provincial license.

(2) Suspension or cancellation or non-renewal of the license issued under this Act shall, ipso facto, and without notice from the Insurance Registrar, operate in the respective cases as suspension or cancellation of registry. 60 V. c. 36, s. 58.

Insurance licensees of Canada, how registered.

59.—(1) Insurance licensees of the Dominion of Canada may, upon due application and upon proof of such license subsisting, be registered on the Insurance Company Register.

Interpretation "licensees."

(2) For purposes of this Act such licensees shall include corporations authorized by any instrument or document issued prior to the 16th day of April, 1895, under or by virtue of section 38 of The Insurance Act of Canada, or issued upon the security of a substantial deposit under section 39 of said Act, or issued under other provisions thereof upon such security; and every licensee licensed under or by virtue of The Insurance Act of Canada shall be deemed to be a corporation for the purposes of registration under this section.

Policies of corporations licensed under R. S. C. c. 124, s. 39

(3) Where a corporation licensed or authorized under section 39 of The Insurance Act of Canada is registered under this Act, every policy and certificate issued and used in Ontario shall conform and be subject to the provisions of the said section; and upon any contravention of the said section the corporation shall be liable to have its registry under this Act suspended or cancelled.

Suspension or cancellation or non-renewal of authorization, etc., under R. S. C. c. 124.

(4) Suspension or cancellation of the authorization of a corporation under The Insurance Act of Canada shall, ipso facto, and without notice from the Registrar, operate in the respective cases as suspension or cancellation of registry under this Act.

Proviso: revivor of registry.

Provided, that when, after such suspension of authorization under The Insurance Act of Canada, the corporation has under the said Act been permitted to revive its authorization, the Registrar may grant a revivor of registry and issue his certificate of the same.

R. S. C. c. 124.

(5) Corporations, companies or insurers within the intent of section 3 (a), or section 32 of The Insurance Act of Canada, may, upon due application, be admitted to registry as if licensed under the said Act.

Lloyd's. (6) Upon due application of any underwriter of the establishment or society known as Lloyd's, and more particularly described in an Act passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, and chaptered 21, or upon due application of any such underwriter's broker, or broker's agent, such underwriter, broker or agent may be registered for the undertaking and transaction of marine insurance.

Term of registry. (7) For purposes of the two next preceding sub-sections, the term of annual registry shall commence and end at the respective dates hereinafter prescribed in the case of insurance licensees of the Dominion of Canada. 60 V. c. 36, s. 59.

FRIENDLY SOCIETY REGISTER: WHAT CORPORATIONS MAY BE REGISTERED.

What societies may be registered. 60. In addition to friendly societies standing duly registered as such at the passing of this Act, the following shall be admissible to registry on the Friendly Society Register:

Societies incorporated under certain sections. 1. Societies from time to time incorporated by virtue of sections 33, 34, 36, 37 and 38 of this Act;

Insurance and benefit societies or funds in connection with sundry corporations. 2. Any corporation not provided for elsewhere herein which has, by virtue of an Act of the Parliament of Canada, an insurance and provident society or association, or an insurance or guarantee fund in connection with the corporation, may upon due application for registry under this Act, be registered on the Friendly Society Register;

Trade union insurance benefit societies. 3. Any lawfully incorporated trade union in Ontario which, under the authority of the incorporating Act, has an insurance or benefit fund for the benefit of its own members exclusively, shall, upon due application for registry hereunder be entitled to be registered on the Friendly Society Register;

Proviso. (a) Provided, that where any bona fide trade union or labour organization provides by its constitution, by-laws or rules for the assistance, relief or support of its members, the Registrar may, by writing, under his hand and the seal of his office, declare the organization exempt from the operation of this Act; and such certificate shall remain valid until by like writing revoked; and the organization so exempted shall not be subject to any penalty imposed by this Act;

Insurance gratuity fund created by an Act of Canada. 4. Any corporation in Ontario which at the passing of this Act has under authority of an Act of Canada created a fund for paying a gratuity on the happening of death, sickness, infirmity, casualty, accident, disability or any change of physical or mental condition, shall, upon due application for registry hereunder, be entitled to be registered on the Friendly Society Register;

Civil service associations.

5 Any association of the civil servants or employees of the Dominion of Canada, incorporated by virtue of an Act of the Parliament of Canada may, upon due application, be admitted to registry;

Societies incorporated by other Provinces

6. When and so long as any other Province of Canada by virtue of reciprocal law admits to that Province (upon the like terms as in this section specified) friendly societies incorporated by Ontario, the friendly societies of such Province may be admitted to registry upon due application and compliance with section 41 as to deposit:

Provided that no applicant under this clause 6 shall be admissible to registry, initial or renewed,—

(a) Unless the applicant body has for the five years next preceding its application continuously been in actual and active operation as a solvent corporation in that Province of Canada under the law of which it was incorporated; provided also that at the time of its application it is not in a condition of actual or impending insolvency;

(b) If it undertakes insurance, or insurance benefit contracts with persons other than its own members; or

(c) If it insures or indemnifies against contingencies other than sickness, disability, or death; or funeral expenses; or if the sum or sums insured on the life of any one person exceed in all $3,000; or

(d) If it undertakes any endowment insurance, or any endowments whatever; or if it undertakes any annuities whatsoever upon lives; or undertakes investment bond or tontine, or semi-tontine, or marriage aid contracts; or

(e) If the corporation has in good standing upon its books less than five hundred members; or not less than those set out in Schedule A to this Act, and is collecting in addition to the said premiums such further sum as is reasonably sufficient to provide for the expenses of management.

On proof of the foregoing and on production of the certificate of registry of the proper officer of its own Province—if registry is required by the law of that Province—the society shall be entitled to registry under this Act, and from year to year the society shall show that it is then in good standing under the law of its own Province. 60 V. c. 36, s. 60.

Company guaranteeing its own employees.

61.—(1) Any incorporated company standing registered under this Act, having not less than twenty-five officers, employees or servants, instead of taking private sureties or the bonds of a guarantee company, may, by arrangement with its employees, contract to insure their fidelity by means of a guarantee fund provided as may be agreed out of the salaries or wages of such officers, employees or servants, the whole to be conducted under rules and a form or forms of contract approved in writing by the Insurance Registrar, which may from time to time be amended under his direction or with his assent in writing, and such rules and forms, original and amended, shall from time to time be filed and indexed in the office of the Provincial Registrar.

Admission to registry.

(2) The said company may upon due application be admitted to registry upon the Friendly Society Register, and may from time to time upon due application so made renew its registry, but unless and until so registered, and unless it stands registered, the said company shall not undertake, nor agree or offer to undertake any contract by this section authorized, or within the intent of this Act, and the term of registry shall be as provided under section 69 of this Act.

(3) The fees payable to the Provincial Treasurer in respect of the said registry shall be the same as provided in subdivision 1 of division III. of section 197 of this Act, except that as to the certificate of registry (original or renewed), the fee shall be $10, and as to revivor of registry the fee shall be $10. 60 V. c. 36, s. 61.

Reservations.

62. The following shall not be entitled to register as a friendly society :—

Corporations requiring insurance licenses.

1. Any corporation within the meaning of sections 58 and 59 or licensed or required by law to be licensed for the transaction of business as an insurance corporation ;

Or distributing charity or gratuities only.

2. Any corporation, except as enacted in clause 4 of section 60, having charge of, or managing, or distributing charity, or gratuities, or donations only ;

R. S. O. 1887, c. 172. Rev. Stat. c. 211.

(a) Provided, that where before the 11th day of March, 1891, a corporation was incorporated under The Act

respecting Benevolent, Provident and other Societies, for the purpose of bestowing gratuities at death or on the happening of sickness, infirmity, casualty, accident, disability, or any change of physical or mental condition, and it is in the opinion of the Registrar desirable that such payments should be made matter of contractual obligation, the corporation may for this purpose amend its constitution or rules as may be directed by the Registrar under his hand and the seal of his office; and if, within the time limited in the Registrar's direction, the corporation files in the office of the Provincial Registrar, the said direction, and a declaration, verified by the oath of its secretary, or other proper officer, setting out the amendments so directed and made in the constitution or rules with the date of the said amendment, then upon proof of such filing the Registrar may admit the corporation to registry as a friendly society;

Societies for charitable purposes only.

(b) Provided also, in any case of doubt where the bona fide intention of a society is to afford charitable aid or relief, and not to create either any contractual right in the members or any contractual obligation against the society, upon the society making such intention apparent in its rules and publications (by such amendment if necessary, as the Registrar may direct), the Registrar may by writing, under his hand and the seal of his office, declare the organization exempt from the operation of this Act, and such certificate shall remain valid until by like writing revoked, and the society so exempted shall not be subject to any penalty imposed by this Act;

Corporations undertaking other than certain contracts.

3. Any corporation undertaking or offering to undertake insurance other than contracts of insurance made exclusively with its own members against sickness, accident, disability, infirmity, or old age, or for mortuary or funeral benefits, or contracts for the fidelity of officers, servants, or employees of the corporation (including branches or subdivisions thereof), or for a sum or for collective sums not exceeding $3,000 in all, payable at the death of the assured;

Proviso (a).

(a) Provided, that upon proof of a friendly society duly incorporated, organized and operated under the law of Ontario or of Canada before the eleventh day of March, 1890, that the society was at the said date transacting exclusively with its members endowment insurance in Ontario, bona fide, and has so continued up to the date of application for registry, the Registrar shall have authority to admit the society to registry as a friendly society transacting endowment insurance according to the terms of the certificate of registry ;

(b) Provided, also, that contracts entered into before the fourteenth day of April, 1892, shall not hereby be invalidated ; Proviso (b).

Or any corporation wherein the insured number less than 25 ; or when the insurance fund is used for trade or commercial or private gain.

4. Any corporation in which the persons insured number less than twenty-five ; or in which the insurance fund is used as a trading or mercantile venture, or for purposes of commercial or private gain ; or any society organized on the lodge system, the insurance funds of which are held other than as trust funds for the members insured by the society. 60 V. c. 36, s. 62.

Control of insurance funds must be in members or their elected representatives.

Rev. Stat., 1887, c. 172 ; 55 V. c. 39.

63.—(1) No friendly society before the 13th day of April, 1897, admitted to registry as being then within the intent of The Act respecting Benevolent, Provident and other Societies, and also within the intent of The Insurance Corporations Act, 1892, shall be deemed to be managed and operated according to the true intent of the said Acts, unless the persons insured in or by the society exercise, either directly or through representatives elected for a term not exceeding three years, effective control over the insurance funds of the society ; and no corporation whatsoever, wherein the persons, who by virtue of their office have the disposition, control or possession of the insurance funds hold such office for life, shall be eligible for registry as a friendly society under this Act.

Proviso.

(a) Provided that, where a corporation otherwise entitled to registry under this Act, is, in the opinion of the Registrar, debarred by reason of some particular clause or clauses in the rules of the corporation, the corporation or the executive board thereof (by whatever name known), may, under the direction of the Registrar, amend its rules in like manner as provided in clause 2 of section 62 of this Act ; and thereupon the Registrar may admit the corporation to registry as a friendly society.

Head offices of Ontario societies.

(2) No society applying for registry or renewal of registry by virtue of its incorporation under any Act of Ontario shall be deemed to be entitled to be registered on the Friendly Society Register unless its head office is situated and maintained in Ontario, and unless the secretary and treasurer are bona fide residents of the Province. 60 V. c. 36, s. 63.

PROCEEDINGS TO REGISTER : DURATION OF REGISTRY.

Application for registry.

64.—(1) Application of any insurance corporation for initial registry under this Act, shall be made according to a form to be supplied by the Registrar on request, and the applicant shall deliver to the Registrar at his office the application, duly completed, together with such evidence as the form by its terms requires, and the applicant shall furnish such further information, material and evidence, or give such public notice of the application as the Registrar directs.

Proviso.

(a) Provided that the material required of a friendly society by this subsection shall include duplicate certified copies of the constitution, laws, rules and regulations of the society, and also of Ontario branches thereof, which documents shall be filed with the Registrar, as shall also all amendments thereto made from time to time thereafter.

Extension of time.

(2) On sufficient cause shown and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter prescribed, the Registrar may by writing under his hand and the seal of his office extend the time for the delivery of an application, or for the prosecution or completion of an application already delivered or tendered. 60 V. c. 36, s. 64.

In certain cases financial statement to accompany application.

65. The applicant corporation not being a corporation within the intent of sections 58 and 59 of this Act, shall further deliver to the Registrar a statement in such form as is required by the said officer of the financial condition and affairs of the corporation on the 31st day of December then next preceding, or up to the usual balancing day of the corporation, if such balancing day is not more than twelve months before the filing of the statement, and such statement showing the corporation to be solvent shall be signed by the president and secretary or other proper officers of the corporation, and shall be verified by their oath. 60 V. c. 36, s. 65.

Power of attorney to receive service of process must accompany applications in certain cases.

66.—(1) Where any corporation applying for initial registry has its head office elsewhere than in Ontario, its application for registry shall be accompanied by a power of attorney from the corporation to an agent resident in Ontario; the power of attorney shall be under the seal of the corporation, and shall be signed by the president and secretary or other proper officers thereof in the presence of a witness, who shall make oath or affirmation as to the due execution thereof; and the official positions in the corporation held by the officers signing such power of attorney shall be sworn to or affirmed by some person cognizant of the facts necessary in that behalf.

Contents of power of attorney.

(2) The power of attorney shall declare at what place in the Province the chief agency of the corporation is or is to be established, and shall expressly authorize such attorney to receive service of process in all actions and proceedings against the corporation in the Province for any liabilities incurred by the corporation therein, and also to receive from the Registrar all notices which the law requires to be given, or which it is thought advisable to give, and shall declare that service of process for or in respect of such liabilities, and receipt of such notices at such office or chief agency, or personally, on or by such attorney at the place where such chief agency is established, shall be legal and binding on the corporation to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

(3) The power of attorney, duly executed, shall be filed by the Registrar in his office. 60 V. c. 36, s. 66. Filing of power of attorney.

67. Whenever the corporation changes its chief agent or chief agency in the Province, the corporation shall file with the Registrar a power of attorney as hereinbefore mentioned, containing any such change or changes in such respect, and containing a similar declaration as to service of process and notices as hereinbefore mentioned; and every corporation shall at the time of making the summary or annual statement hereinafter provided for, declare that, in its charter, act of incorporation, deed of settlement, or instrument of association, and in its constitution or rules made thereunder, no amendment or change has been made affecting its insurance contracts undertaken or to be undertaken; or if such change made, specifying clearly the change, and that no change has been made in the chief agent or chief agency without in either case such amendment or change having been duly notified to the Registrar. 60 V. c. 36, s. 67. Changes in chief agent or agency or in contracts.

68.—(1) After the power of attorney is filed as aforesaid, any process in any action or proceeding against the corporation for liabilities incurred in the Province may be validly served on the corporation at its chief agency, and all proceedings may be had thereon to judgment and execution in the same manner and with the same force and effect as in the proceedings in a civil action in the Province; Provided that nothing herein contained shall render invalid service in any other mode in which the corporation may be lawfully served. Service of process thereafter.

(2) If the power of attorney becomes invalid or ineffectual from any reason, or if other service cannot be effected, the Court or a Judge may order substitutional service of any process or proceeding to be made by such publication as is deemed requisite to be made in the premises, for at least three weeks, in at least one newspaper, and such publication shall be held to be due service upon the corporation of such process or proceeding. Substitutional service of process.

(3) Where, at or after the 14th day of April, 1892, a friendly society having its head office elsewhere than in Ontario had or has in the charge, possession, custody or power of officers or agents, resident in Ontario, a reserve fund or funds for the security or assistance of members of the society, such fund or funds shall be deemed to be a fund held in trust for members in the jurisdiction of the said officers or agents, and the said officers or agents shall be deemed and shall continue to be trustees of the said fund or funds until other trustees thereof resident in Ontario are appointed by competent authority; Reserve funds held in Ontario.

and such trust fund or funds or as much thereof as from time to time remains unexpended shall be invested as enacted in section 92 of this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 68.

Recording registry; entries on register.

69.—(1) On the Insurance Company Register, or on the Friendly Society Register, as the case may be, the Registrar shall cause to be entered the name of every corporation which from time to time he finds legally entitled to registry, together with the date of the commencement of registry; also the term for which, in the absence of suspension, revocation or cancellation, the registry is to endure; which term shall begin as from the date of the said commencement and shall end not later than the 30th day of June then next ensuing, except in the case of the corporations mentioned in section 59 of this Act, and in the case of the said excepted corporations the term of registry shall not exceed twelve months; he shall also cause to be entered the place where the head office and the chief agency, if any, of the corporation are situated, and if there is a chief agency, the name and address of the chief agent; also the kind or character of insurance for which the corporation is registered; also if during the term the registry has been suspended, or revived, or revoked, or cancelled, the date and authority for such suspension, revivor, revocation or cancellation.

Issue of certificates of registry.

(2) To all corporations registered as above, the Registrar shall issue under his hand and the seal of his office a certificate of registry or of renewed registry, as the case may be, setting forth that it has been made to appear to him that the corporation is entitled to registry as an insurance company or friendly society (as the case may be) under this Act, and that the corporation is accordingly registered for the term and for the purposes stated in the certificate. 60 V. c. 36, s. 69.

Duration and renewal of registry in case of certain corporations.

R. S. C. c. 124.

70.—(1) In the case of those corporations mentioned in section 59 of this Act, which receive from time to time a license or other document of authority under The Insurance Act of Canada, the corporation shall annually after its first registration hereunder present to the Registrar the then subsisting document of authority, within thirty days after the date thereof, and upon due presentation of the same, and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter prescribed, may be admitted to registry hereunder, or to renewal of registry, as the case may be, and in default of registry or of renewal of registry within the said thirty days, the corporation shall be deemed to be unregistered.

Proviso.

(a) Provided that such presentation may be dispensed with on the Registrar receiving from the proper officer of the Dominion of Canada notice that such license or document of authority has in fact issued to the corporation named in the notice and authorizes the transaction of insurance of the kind and for the term specified in the notice.

(2) The suspension or cancellation or non-renewal of such document of authority issued under The Insurance Act of Canada, or issued by any Province of Canada to an insurance corporation standing registered in Ontario, shall in the respective cases operate ipso facto as a suspension or cancellation of registry under this Act; but registry so suspended may be revived as provided in this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 70. Suspension or cancellation of the document of authority under R.S.C. c. 124.

71. —In the case of all corporations other than those in the section 59 mentioned, any certificate of registry issued under this Act not being an interim or an extended certificate, shall, unless sooner suspended or cancelled, remain valid until the then next ensuing thirtieth day of June inclusive, when, if the corporation has filed the summary statement required by section 91, and the annual statement prescribed in section 96, as the case may be, and also properly certified copies of all amendments to its constitution, laws, rules and regulations made since the next preceding summary or annual statement, and has otherwise complied with the law, the corporation shall be entitled to a certificate of renewed registry, and so on every succeeding thirtieth day of June thereafter. 60 V. c. 36, s. 71 Duration of registry in all other corporations. Renewal of registry.

72.—Upon proof that a corporation has by accident or unavoidable cause been prevented from fully complying with the provisions of this Act within the time herein prescribed, and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter enacted, the Registrar may by writing under his hand and the seal of his office, grant for a time limited therein an interim certificate of registry, or may by such writing extend for a limited time the duration of a subsisting certificate of registry; but in default in either case of renewal of registry before the expiry of the time so limited the corporation shall be deemed to be unregistered. 60 V. c. 36, s. 72. Interim certificate. Extension of certificate.

73.—No corporation shall be registered under a name identical with that under which any other existing corporation is registered, or so nearly resembling such name as to be likely, nor shall be registered under any other name, likely in the opinion of the Registrar, to deceive the members or the public as to its identity; and no registered corporation shall be registered under a new or a different name except upon proof that such new or different name is authorized by law. 60 V. c. 36, s. 73. Similarity of name; new name.

PROOF OF REGISTRY AND OF OTHER MATTERS: NOTICES UNDER THE ACT.

74.—(1) The Registrar shall cause to be published in the Ontario Gazette, in March of each year, a list of the corporations which stand registered at the date of the list; also if, in the interval between two published lists of registered corporations, a new corporation is registered, or the registry of any Evidence of registry; semi-annual list to be published.

corporation is suspended or cancelled, or if a suspended registry is revived, he shall cause notice thereof to be published in the Ontario Gazette.

Effect of notice in Gazette.

(2) A list or notice published in the Ontario Gazette over the name of the Registrar shall, without further proof, be received in any Court and before all Justices of the Peace and others as prima facie evidence of the facts set forth in such published list or notice.

Official publications to be evidence.

(3) All copies of returns, reports or other official publications of the Registrar purporting to be printed by the Printer to the Crown, or the Printer to the Legislative Assembly, or to be printed by order of the Legislative Assembly, shall, without further proof, be admitted as evidence of such publication and printing and as true copies of the original documents delivered to be printed and published.

Registrar's seal or signature.

(4) The seal or signature of the Registrar shall be admissible in evidence without proof of its authenticity; or of the official character of the person signing.

Certificate as to facts.

(5) A certificate under the hand of the Registrar and the seal of his office, that on a stated day the corporation or person mentioned therein stood registered, or did not stand registered within the meaning of this Act, or that the registry of any corporation or person was originally granted, or was renewed, or was suspended, or was revived, or was revoked, or was cancelled on a stated day, shall be prima facie evidence in any Court or elsewhere of the facts alleged in the certificate.

Commencement and end of certificate.

(6) Every certificate of registry granted under this Act shall specify the first day, and also the last day of the term for which the corporation or person is registered; and the corporation or person so registered shall be deemed to be registered from the commencement of the first day to the end of the last day so specified.

Copies of extracts from office documents.

(7) Copies of or extracts from any book, record, instrument or document in the office of the Registrar certified by him to be true copies or extracts and sealed with the seal of his office, shall be held to be authentic, and shall be prima facie evidence of the same legal effect as the original in any Court or elsewhere.

Interpretation

(8) For the purposes of this section, Registrar shall include the Deputy or Assistant Registrar.

Certificates of Assistant Provincial Registrar.

60 V. c. 36.

(10) The books, accounts and documents of the corporation, and entries in the books of its officers or receiver or liquidator, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters to which the entries relate as against the corporation, or any of its branches, or lodges, or as between any of the branches, lodges or their respective members, or as between contributories or alleged contributories. Books, etc., of corporation to be evidence.

(11) All by-laws of the corporation shall be reduced to writing, and shall have affixed thereto the common seal of the corporation, and any copy or extract therefrom, certified under the signature of the presiding officer, secretary or manager, shall be prima facie evidence in all civil Courts of Justice in Ontario of such by-laws or extracts from them, and that the same were duly made and are in force; and in any civil action or proceeding it shall not be necessary to give any evidence to prove the seal of the corporation, and documents purporting to be sealed with the seal of the corporation, attested by the presiding officer, secretary or manager thereof, shall be held prima facie to have been duly sealed with the seal of the corporation. 60 V. c. 36, s. 74. By-laws and documents of corporation; presumptive regularity.

75. Subject to Statutory condition 23 given in section 168, delivery of any written notice to any insurance corporation for any purpose of this Act, where the mode thereof is not otherwise expressly provided, may be by letter delivered at the chief office of the corporation in Ontario, or by registered post letter addressed to the corporation, its manager, or agent at such chief office, or by such written notice given in any other manner to an authorized agent of the corporation. 60 V. c. 36, s. 75. Notices under the Act.

SUSPENSION OR CANCELLATION OF REGISTRY: APPEALS.

76.—(1) The happening of any of the following events shall ipso facto, and, without notice from the Registrar, cancel the registry of the corporation concerned; Certain events to cancel registry.

(a) The repeal or the expiry without renewal of its charter, instrument of association, or deed of settlement, or of its Act or Acts of incorporation; or

(b) The revocation of its corporate powers; or

(c) The cancellation, or the expiry without renewal of license or other document of authority by which the corporation was authorized to exercise its corporate powers for the transaction of insurance; or

(d) The passing of a resolution by the corporation for its winding up; or

(e) The making of an order by any Court for the winding up of the corporation:

and upon proof that any of the said events has happened the Registrar, after notice to the corporation in cases where any dispute is likely to arise, shall cause the proper entry to to be made upon the register.

Certain events to suspend registry.

(2) The happening of any of the following events shall ipso facto, and without notice from the Registrar, suspend the registry of the corporation concerned:—

(a) The suspension of any of the acts, instruments or documents mentioned in clauses (a) or (c) of the next preceding subsection; or

(b) The suspension of the corporate powers of the corporation;

and upon proof that any of the said events has happened, the Registrar, after notice to the corporation in cases where any dispute is likely to arise, shall cause the proper entry to be made upon the register.

Where event disputed.

(3) Where the happening of any of the events in the two next preceding sub-sections mentioned is disputed by written notice delivered to the Registrar at his office, he shall decide both as to the facts and as to the law, and render his decision in writing, subject however to appeal as in section 78 enacted.

Proviso.

Provided nevertheless that notice of the happening of such event, if published by competent authority in the official Gazette of the Province, territory, Dominion, country or State by which the corporation was incorporated, licensed or empowered to transact insurance, or in the Ontario Gazette, or an official notice otherwise given by the Province, territory, Dominion, country or State to the Registrar shall be sufficient authority to the Registrar for the entries on the register hereinbefore mentioned.

Notice to be filed on cesser of registry.

(4) When any corporation incorporated by or by virtue of a statute of Ontario ceases to be registered the Registrar shall give a notice of the fact to the Master.

Interpretation "Master."

(5) In this section and subsequent sections "Master" shall mean the Master in Ordinary in the case of a corporation having its head office at Toronto or in the county of York; and in the case of a corporation having its head office in any other county, shall mean the Local Master, or the officer acting as Local Master in such county. 60 V. c. 36, s. 76.

Decision of the Registrar to be in writing, and to be delivered to the corporation.

77.—(1) Where the Registrar decides in any disputed case that a corporation is or is not legally entitled to registry, or to renewal of registry, or where he suspends, revives or cancels the registry of a corporation, the Registrar, except as otherwise herein provided, shall render his decision in writing, and shall cause a copy of his decision certified under the seal of his office to be delivered by registered post or otherwise to the corporation at its head office or chief agency in Ontario.

(2) A certified copy of any such decision of the Registrar may be had on application at his office, and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter prescribed. Certified copies of decision.

(3) The affidavits and depositions received or taken by the Registrar in any disputed case shall be filed in his office. Affidavits and depositions to be filed.

(4) The evidence and proceedings in any matter before the Registrar may be reported by a stenographic writer who has taken an oath before the Registrar to faithfully report the same. 60 V. c. 36, s. 77. Stenographic report of evidence.

78.—(1) Upon the decision of the Registrar that the corporation is or is not entitled to registry, or upon any suspension, revivor or cancellation of registry by him, an appeal may be had to a Divisional Court of the High Court, the appellant having first given security for costs, in an amount to be determined by the Court or a Judge thereof, or by General Rules, as hereinafter provided for. Two clear days' previous notice of the application to fix the amount of such security shall be given to the Registrar at his office. Appeals from decision of Registrar.

(2) No appeal shall be allowed unless notice thereof in writing is given to the Registrar within one month after the judgment complained of; nor unless, within two months after the judgment complained of, the appellant gives proper security as aforesaid that he will effectually prosecute his appeal and pay such costs and damages as may be awarded in case the judgment appealed from is in whole or in part affirmed. At least ten days' notice of any subsequent proceeding on the appeal shall be given in writing to the Registrar at his office. Appeals from Registrar.

(3) Upon the production of final judgment, on appeal, if any, admitting the corporation to registry, or disallowing registry granted, or reversing the suspension, revivor or cancellation of registry, the Registrar shall cause the proper entry to be made on the register together with a minute of the judgment authorizing such entry, and the Registrar shall thereupon grant a certificate of registry or cancel the registry granted according to the tenor of the judgment. Entries on register.

(4) The Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature named in section 125 of The Judicature Act, may make rules or orders as to the form of appeals under this section and the trying thereof and otherwise relating thereto. 60 V. c. 36, s. 78. Rules as to appeals. Rev. Stat. c. 51.

79.—(1) Upon proof that any registry or certificate of registry has been obtained by fraud or mistake, or that a corporation exists for an illegal purpose, is insolvent or is on the verge of insolvency, or has, in terms of sections 80 and 81, made default of payment, or has wilfully, and after notice from the Registrar, contravened any of the provisions of this Act, or has ceased to exist, the registry of the corporation may Suspension or cancellation of registry for fraud, insolvency, etc.

be suspended or cancelled by the Registrar; but such suspension or cancellation shall be appealable as hereinbefore provided.

Notice of suspension or cancellation of registry to corporation.

(2) On the suspension or cancellation of the registry of any corporation, except as herein otherwise enacted, the Registrar shall, by registered post or otherwise, cause notice thereof in writing under his hand to be delivered to the head office or chief agency of the corporation in Ontario; and from the date of such delivery the corporation shall be deemed to be unregistered, but, in the case of suspension of registry only whilst such suspension lasts; and from and after such delivery the corporation shall withdraw every offer to undertake contracts, and shall absolutely cease to undertake contracts, but without prejudice to any liability actually incurred by such corporation which may be enforced against the same as if such suspension or cancellation had not taken place. 60 V. c. 36, s. 79.

Effect of notice delivered

When claims shall be legally payable.

80. Every lawful claim against an insurance corporation under any contract within the meaning of section 2 shall become legally payable on the expiration of sixty days after reasonably sufficient proof has been furnished to the corporation of the happening of the event on which such claim was by said contract to accrue, and, where property was insured, after like proof of such additional matters as the law requires; and any rules, conditions, or stipulations to the contrary shall as against the assured be void; but the insurance corporation may in its discretion pay the claim at any time before the expiration of the sixty days. 60 V. c. 36, s. 80.

Registry suspended for insolvency.

81.—(1) Any insurance corporation shall be liable to have its registry suspended by the Registrar upon the failure of the corporation to pay an undisputed claim, or an insurance contract for the space of sixty days after being legally payable, or if disputed, after final judgment and tender of a legal valid discharge, and (in either case) after notice supported by affidavit of the corporation's default delivered to the Registrar.

Where corporation resumes payment.

(2) Where the registry of a corporation has been suspended under the preceding sub-section, but the corporation within sixty days after the notice therein provided has fully paid all undisputed claims and final judgments upon or against the corporation, the Registrar, upon proof of the facts, may revive the registry of the corporation and issue his certificate of such revivor.

(3) If within the sixty days mentioned in the next preceding sub-section, the corporation has not fully paid all undisputed claims and final judgments, the Registrar, upon proof of the fact, shall cancel the registry of the corporation.

Where time of default limited by other enactment.

(4) If the enactment under or by virtue of which the corporation was incorporated, or by which the contracts of the corporation are regulated, prescribes payment of undisputed claims and final judgments within less than sixty days, this section shall not be deemed to extend the time so prescribed for payment, nor to extend the right of the corporation to revivor of registry hereunder beyond the time limited by the said enactment. 60 V. c. 36, s. 81.

Registrar to have access to corporation's books, etc.

82. The Registrar, or any person authorized under his hand and seal, shall have at any time within reasonable business hours of every day, except Sundays and holidays, access to all such books, securities, and documents of a corporation as relate to the corporation's contracts; and any officer or person in charge, possession, custody or control of such books, securities or papers refusing or neglecting to afford such access, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable as for an offence against section 85, and, if registered, the corporation shall be liable to have its registry suspended; and, on continued refusal or neglect to afford such access, shall be liable to have its registry cancelled. 60 V. c. 36, s. 82.

Special audit in case of fraud, illegal acts, or default of audit.

83.—(1) If it is established to the satisfaction of the Registrar that the accounts of any corporation (including therein any body registered under this Act) have been materially and wilfully falsified, or that for eighteen consecutive months there has been no bona fide audit of the books and accounts; or if there is filed in the office of the Registrar a requisition for audit bearing the signatures, addresses and occupations of at least twenty-five persons being members of the corporation or claimants or persons entitled to claim or having insurable interest under contracts of the corporation, and such requisition alleges in a sufficiently particular manner to the satisfaction of the Registrar, specific fraudulent or illegal acts, or repudiation of contracts or insolvency, the Registrar may nominate a competent accountant, who shall, under the directions of the Registrar, make a special audit of the books and accounts and report thereupon to the Registrar in writing, verified upon oath.

Credentials of special auditor.

(2) For purposes of this Act a special auditor shall be sufficiently accredited, if he deliver to the secretary or to any officer of such corporation, a written statement under the hand and seal of the Registrar, to the effect that the Registrar has nominated such auditor to audit the books and accounts.

Expense of special audit.

(3) The expense of such special audit shall be borne by such corporation, and the auditor's account therefor, when approved in writing by the Registrar, shall be conclusive and shall be payable by the corporation forthwith.

Proviso.

(4). Where an audit is requested as in subsection 1 mentioned, the persons so requesting it shall, together with their mentioned requisition, deposit with the Registrar proper security for the costs of the audit in a sum not exceeding $200 as he shall determine; and where the facts alleged in the requisition appear to the Registrar to have been partly or wholly disproved by the audit, he may pay the costs thereof partly or wholly out of the deposit.

What audit includes.

(5) All books, securities, vouchers and documents relating to the contracts or funds of the corporation (or of the registered branch or lodge undertaking contracts) shall be deemed to be included in the audit prescribed by this section.

When corporation resists or obstructs audit

(6) Where any corporation within the meaning of sub-section 1 through any trustee, officer, employee, agent or auditor having in his custody, possession or power, its funds, books or vouchers refuses to have the same duly audited as provided by section 90, and by this section, or obstructs an auditor in the performance of his duties, the Registrar upon proof of the fact may suspend or cancel the registry of such corporation; but such suspension or cancellation shall be appealable as hereinbefore provided.

Untrue entries, etc.

(7) Every trustee, director, officer, manager, agent, collector, auditor or employee of the corporation, or of any branch or lodge whatsoever of the corporation, who knowingly makes or publishes, or assists to make or publish, any wilfully false statement of its financial affairs, or who makes or assists to make any untrue entry in any book of record, entry or account, or who refuses or neglects to make any proper entry therein, or to exhibit the books, vouchers, securities and documents, or to allow the same to be inspected or audited either for the general purposes of the corporation or for the purposes of this Act, and extracts to be taken therefrom, shall be guilty of an offence, and upon summary conviction thereof before any Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed, shall be imprisoned in the Central Prison, or in any gaol of the Province, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding twelve months. 60 V. c. 36, s. 83.

Report of special auditor.

84.—(1) If the report made by the special auditor appears to the Registrar to disclose fraudulent or illegal acts on the part of such corporation as mentioned in sub-section 1 of section 83, or a repudiation of its contracts, or insolvency, the Registrar shall notify the corporation accordingly, and furnish it with a copy of the special auditor's report, allowing two weeks for a statement to be filed with the Registrar in reply.

Registrar's decision.

(2) Upon consideration of the special auditor's report and of the statement of such corporation, in reply, and of such further evidence, documentary or oral, as he may require, the Registrar shall render his decision in writing, and may thereby continue, or suspend, or cancel the registry of the corporation; but such decision shall be appealable, as hereinbefore provided.

Evidence may be under oath.

(3) The evidence may be given under oath, which oath the Registrar may administer. 60 V. c. 36, s. 84.

UNREGISTERED CORPORATIONS DISQUALIFIED; ASSESSMENT INSURANCE; PENALTIES.

85.—(1) After the 31st day of December, 1892, no person or persons, or body corporate or unincorporated, other than a corporation standing registered under this Act and persons duly authorized by law and by such registered corporation to act in its behalf, shall undertake or effect, or offer to undertake or effect any contract of insurance. No unregistered corporation to undertake insurance.

(2) If any promoter, organizer, office-bearer, manager, director, officer, collector, agent, employee, or person whatsoever, other than as enacted in the next preceding subsection, undertakes or effects, or agrees or offers to undertake or effect any contract of insurance, he shall be guilty of an offence, and upon summary conviction thereof before any Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200 and costs, and not less than $20 and costs, and in default of payment the offender shall be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding three months and not less than one month; and on a second or any subsequent conviction he shall be imprisoned with hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months and not less than three months. 60 V. c. 36, s. 85, (1, 2.) Penalty.

(3) Any person who sets up or causes to be set up any sign or inscription containing the name of a corporation, or who distributes or publishes or causes to be distributed or published any proposal, circular, card, advertisement, printed form or like document in the name of the corporation, or who makes, or causes to be made, any written or oral solicitation on the corporation's behalf, or who collects or takes, or causes to be collected or taken, any premium of insurance on the corporation's behalf shall be deemed offer to undertake or effect a contract of insurance within the meaning of this section. 60 V. c. 36, s. 2 (25).

(4) In any trial or cause or proceeding under this Act the burden of proving registry shall be upon the corporation or person charged. Burden of proof.

(5) Every application, contract, or other instrument of such insurance, and every circular, advertisement or publication soliciting insurance issued or used in Ontario for the purposes of assessment insurance shall bear the words "Assessment System" printed or stamped in large type at the head thereof; any contravention of this subsection shall constitute an offence and shall be punishable as for an offence against subsection 2 of this section. Printing of words "Assessment System."

(6) Any one may be prosecutor or complainant under this Act; and one-half of any fine imposed by virtue of this Act Application of fine.

shall, when received, belong to Her Majesty for the use of the Province, and the other half shall belong to the prosecutor or complainant.

Appeal.

(7) Any person convicted under this Act who gives notice of appeal against the decision of the convicting Justice shall be required before being released from custody to give to the Justice satisfactory security for the amount of the penalty, costs of conviction, and appeal, and the appeal shall be to a Divisional Court of the High Court.

Security for costs.

Limitation of prosecutions.

(8) All informations or complaints for the prosecution of offences under this Act shall be laid or made in writing within one year after the commission of the offence. 60 V. c. 36, s. 85.

Offence by corporation to be an offence by officers thereof; continued default to constitute new offence.

86. Every offence committed by a corporation, or by the insurance branch of a corporation against this Act shall be deemed to have been also committed by every officer of the same bound by virtue of his office or otherwise to fulfil any duty whereof such offence is a breach, or if there be no such officer, then by every member of the committee of management of the same, unless such member be proved to have been ignorant of his duty, or to have attempted to prevent the commission of such offence; and every default under this Act constituting an offence shall constitute, if continued, a new offence in every week during which the default continues. 60 V. c. 36, s. 86.

BOOKS: PERIODICAL AUDIT: INVESTMENTS: FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.

Corporation to keep such books as may be directed by Registrar.

87. Every registered corporation except the corporations mentioned in sub-sections 1 and 2 of section 59, shall keep such a classification of its contracts, and such register and books of account as may from time to time be directed or authorized by the Registrar; and if it appears at any time to him that such books are not kept in such business-like way as to make at any time a proper showing of the affairs and standing of the corporation, he shall thereupon nominate a competent accountant to proceed, under his directions, to audit such books and to give such instructions as will enable the officers of the corporation to keep them correctly thereafter; the expense of the accountant shall be borne by the corporation to which he is sent, and shall not exceed $5 per day and necessary travelling expenses; and the account for such audit and instructions shall, when approved under the hand of the Registrar, be payable by the corporation forthwith. 60 V. c. 36, s. 87.

Rectification of disordered books.

Transfer register.

88. Where the corporation has a share or stock capital, the books required by section 87 to be kept shall include a stock register, in which a register of the transfers of stock shall be accurately kept, and it shall at all reasonable times be open to the examination of any shareholder and the Registrar. The entries in such register shall include the following particulars: the register numbers of the shares transferred; the amount of subscribed stock transferred; the amount theretofore paid up on such stock; the names and addresses of the transferor and the transferee; the date of the transfer and the date of confirmation or disallowance by the board. 60 V. c. 36, s. 88.

Separate record for contracts secured by deposit.

89. In the case of insurance companies required to make deposit with the Province there shall be kept a policy register recording separately the contracts for which the said deposit is answerable under section 48. 60 V. c. 36, s. 89.

Annual audit.

90.—(1) It shall be the duty of the officers of every registered insurance corporation to have at least once in every year a bona fide and business-like audit of its books of record and account by at least two competent auditors.

Who may be auditors.

(2) In Provincial corporations every auditor shall be a qualified accountant, not holding, nor having, for at least two years prior to his becoming auditor, held any other office or employment under the corporation; and an auditor need not be a member of the corporation.

(3) In Provincial companies the auditors shall be annually chosen, and their remuneration determined by members in general meeting assembled.

Proviso.

(4) The directors or executive officers may for incapacity, misconduct or negligence, on a two-thirds majority, suspend any auditor, such suspension to remain in force until the next general meeting of the corporation.

(5) If any auditorship becomes vacant between the general meetings of the corporation the board of directors or the executive officers may fill the vacancy until the next general meeting. 60 V. c. 36, s. 90.

Summary statement to be furnished to members.

91.—(1) Every Provincial corporation shall furnish to each member annually a summary statement showing as the result of such audit or audits the corporation's actual assets, liabilities, receipts and expenditures, and the state of the insurance fund or funds, and a copy of such summary statement signed and certified by the auditors shall be filed in the office of the Registrar with the statement required by section 96.

Proviso.

(2) A registered friendly society, instead of furnishing such summary statement to each member individually, may deliver to each lodge or local branch, for the information and use of the members thereof, at least ten copies of the summary statement; of which also at least one copy shall be kept posted up in a place accessible and convenient to the members generally, there to remain posted until at least one month after the posting of the next succeeding statement; also one copy of the said summary statement shall be kept on record and shall be made accessible to the members generally.

Proviso

(3) If the society has an official newspaper or journal, and a copy of the same is sent to each member, publication of the said summary statement therein shall be sufficient. 60 V. c. 36, s. 91.

Permissible investments.

92.—(1) The surplus insurance funds of a Provincial corporation, or branch or lodge thereof shall in the name of the corporation, branch or lodge be invested in securities which are a first charge on land held in fee simple or shall be invested in the public securities of Canada or of any of the Provinces of Canada, or (such securities being in other respects reasonable and proper) in terminating debentures of any municipal corporation, or in the terminating debentures of any society or company incorporated under The Act Respecting Building Societies; or in terminating debentures of any society, or company in which, under the law of the Province, trustees may invest trust funds; or shall remain deposited (whether with or without interest) in the name of the corporation in a post office savings bank or in any chartered bank of Canada, or in any building society or loan company in Ontario by any Act of Ontario, or of the Dominion of Canada duly authorized to receive deposits.

Rev. Stat. 1887, c. 169.

Proviso.

Power to hold real estate.

(2) Subject to the by-laws or constitution any corporation standing registered under this Act, or any branch or lodge thereof, may hold absolutely to its own use and benefit such real estate as is necessary for the accommodation of the corporation, branch or lodge in relation to the transaction of its business, and such real estate as (being mortgaged or hypothecated to it,) is acquired by it for the protection of its investments, and may from time to time, sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of the same; but the corporation, branch or lodge shall sell any real estate acquired in satisfaction of any debt within seven years after it has been so acquired, otherwise it shall be forfeited to Her Majesty for the uses of the Province.

Loans to and from directors, etc., forbidden.

(3) No insurance corporation, or branch or lodge thereof, shall contract with any of its auditors, trustees, directors, or executive officers for any loan or credit, or borrowing of money, and every such attempted loan or borrowing is hereby absolutely prohibited.

(4) Where, in any insurance corporation or branch or lodge thereof, (if organized with branches or lodges), the trustees, directors or managing board (by whatever name known) or the executive or managing committee make such an investment of any of the corporation's money as is not authorized by law, or where the board or committee lend any of the corporation's money, or transfer the beneficial ownership in any of the corporation's property or assets to any member of the board or committee, or to any auditor, trustee, director, or executive officer of the corporation, all the members of the board or committee (as the case may be) who voted in favour of or assented to the said investment or loan or transfer shall as for a breach of trust be personally liable jointly and severally to repay or restore (as may be directed) the money, property or assets so invested or loaned or transferred, together with interest, and also with rests, if the Court so determines. Actions may at any time be brought by any member of the corporation in the name of himself and his fellow-members generally without designating his fellow-members individually; and all trustees, directors or members of the board or committee may be made defendants; and the proof shall be on any such defendant that he did not vote for or assent to the said investment, loan or transfer. If, in the opinion of the Court, the plaintiff has proved the investment or loan or transfer illegal, he shall be entitled to his costs out of the funds of the corporation; and the corporation, or the receiver or estate thereof, shall have the right to recover over against the defendants personally or from such of them as the Court may determine. 60 V. c. 36, s. 92.

Action to recover money illegally invested or loaned.

93. Every officer or other person appointed or elected to any office in anywise concerning the receipt, safe-keeping or proper application of money shall furnish security to the satisfaction of the directors for the just and faithful execution of the duties of his office according to the rules of the corporation, and any person entrusted with the performance of any other service may be required by the directors to furnish similar security, and the securities so furnished and then subsisting shall be produced to the auditors as part of the annual audit hereinbefore prescribed. In the case of Provincial insurance companies the security given by the treasurer or other officer having charge of the money of the company shall in no case be less than $2,000. 60 V. c. 36, s. 93.

Persons in service of corporation to furnish security.

94. All real and personal estate, moneys, property and effects, and all titles, securities, instruments and evidences, and all rights and claims of or belonging to the corporation, branch or lodge shall be vested in the corporation, branch or lodge. The books used by any auditor, officer, collector or agent for verifying or for recording moneys received for the corporation, branch or lodge shall be the property of the corporation, branch or lodge; nor shall the foregoing persons or any solicitor, counsel or other person whatsoever have in these or in any other of the books of account or record of the corporation any ownership or proprietary right, or any right of lien whatsoever; and any person who in contravention of this section, withdraws, withholds or detains any of the said books from the possession or control of the directors, or executive officers, or from the receiver or liquidator of the corporation, branch or lodge shall be guilty of an offence and the procedure and penalty shall be as in the case of an offence against section 85 of this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 94.

Property, investments, evidence and books of account and record to be the property of the corporation.

Penalty.

After decease or bankruptcy of officer, books, etc., to be delivered to corporation branch or lodge.

Annual statement to the Registrar.

96.—(1) It shall be the duty of the presiding officer, the secretary and the treasurer of every registered insurance corporation except those mentioned in subsections 1 and 2 of section 59 to prepare and file annually with the Registrar as prescribed by sub-sections (3) and (4) of this section, according to a printed form to be supplied on application, a sworn statement of the financial condition and affairs of the corporation for the purposes of this Act; and any corporation refusing or neglecting to file the statement by this section required, or to make prompt and explicit answer to any inquiries at any time put by the Registrar touching the corporation's contracts or finances shall be liable to suspension or cancellation of registry.

Refusal of information.

Proviso

Provided a friendly society may include in its annual statement to the Registrar a valuation, made by a competent actuary and verified by his oath, of any or all of the contingent liabilities of the society; and the Registrar may in his annual report publish an abstract of such valuation as part of the society's statement.

Who may administer oath under the Act.

(2) The statement required by the preceding sub-section may be sworn to before the Registrar or Assistant Registrar, or any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or Commissioner for taking affidavits in the High Court, and every such person is hereby authorized to administer any oath required under this Act, for purposes of any document required or permitted to be filed by this Act.

(3) In the case of Provincial licensees registered on the Insurance Company Register the statement mentioned in subsection 1 shall be prepared annually on the first day of January, or within one month thereafter, and shall be filed with the Registrar on or before the first day of February then next ensuing. Statements of Provincial licensees, when to be delivered.

(4) In the case of corporations registered on the Friendly Society Register, the statement mentioned in subsection 1 shall be prepared annually on the first day of January or within one month thereafter, and shall be filed with the Registrar on or before the first day of March then next ensuing. Statements of Friendly Societies, when to be delivered.

(5) Together with the statement mentioned in subsection 1, the corporation shall file with the Registrar a certified copy of the summary statement required by section 91. 60 V. c. 36, s. 96. Copy of summary statement to be filed.

97.—(1) From the statements filed with him as aforesaid, the Registrar shall each year cause to be prepared, printed and distributed a report for the official year ending 31st December, and such report shall include a list of registered insurance corporations brought up to its actual date of publication. Registrar's annual report.

(2) The Registrar shall not in any initial or renewal certificate of registry, or other publication or otherwise vouch for the financial basis, or for the actual or actuarial solvency or standing of any insurance corporation ; nor shall the printing of a corporation's annual statement in the Registrar's report operate or be anywise construed as a warranty of such basis or of such solvency or standing. 60 V. c. 36, s. 97. Official certificate or publication no warranty of solvency.

MUTUAL AND CASH-MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES: THEIR INTERNAL MANAGEMENT.

106. Sections 107 to 141 inclusive, shall apply only to mutual and cash-mutual fire insurance companies. 60 V. c. 36, s. 106. Application of secs. 107-141

1. Admission and withdrawal of members.

107. The company may insure on the premium note plan any property within the scope of the company's license, and the maker of the premium note shall as from the date of the acceptance of the risk by the company be a member of the company, and shall be entitled to the like rights, and be subject to the like liabilities as other members of the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 107. Power to insure. Members.

108. In a cash-mutual company the premium note shall, subject to section 111, be liable for claims arising against the company generally. 60 V. c. 36, s. 108. Liability on premium notes.

109. No member of the company shall be liable in respect of any loss or other claim or demand against the company, otherwise than upon and to the extent of the amount unpaid upon his premium note or undertaking. 60 V. c. 36, s. 109. Liability of members

110. Any member of the company may, with the consent of the directors, withdraw therefrom upon such terms as the directors may lawfully require. 60 V. c. 36, s. 110. Members withdrawing.

111. The person insured shall, if insured against fire on the premium note plan, be liable to pay his proportion of the losses, expenses and reserve of the company to the time of cancelling the policy, and on payment of his proportion of all assessments then payable and to become payable in respect of such losses and expenses, and reserve up to such period, shall be entitled to a return of his premium note or undertaking. 60 V. c. 36, s. 111. Cancellation of policies

2. General Meetings. — (Mutual and Cash-Mutual Fire Insurance Companies.)

Annual meeting for election of directors

112. A meeting of the members for the election of directors shall be held in every year, within two months after the thirty-first day of December in each year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 112.

Annual statement.

113. At annual meetings prior to the election of directors the statement mentioned in section 91 for the year ending on the previous thirty-first day of December, shall be presented and read. 60 V. c. 36, s. 113.

Notice of annual or special meetings

114. Notice of any annual or special meeting of the members of the company shall be published in one or more newspapers for at least two weeks previous to the day of the meeting, and the board of directors may convene at any time a general meeting of the company upon any urgent occasion, giving notice thereof as herein provided. 60 V. c. 36, s. 114.

Members to have votes proportionate to the amount of their insurance.

115.—(1) Each member of the company shall be entitled at all meetings of the company, to the number of votes proportioned to the amount of insurance by him held, according to the following scale, that is to say, for any sum under $1,500, one vote; from $1,500 to $3,000, two votes; from $3,000 to $6,000, three votes; and one vote for every additional $3,000; but no member shall be entitled to vote while in arrear for any assessment or instalment or fixed payment due by him to the company.

(2) Where a policy on the premium note plan is made to two or more persons, the person whose name stands first on the register of policy-holders, and no other, shall be entitled to vote. 60 V. c. 36, s. 115.

Right of applicants to vote

116. No applicant for insurance shall be competent to vote or otherwise take part in the company's proceedings until his application has been accepted by the board of directors. 60 V. c. 36, s. 116.

3. Directors, Qualification, Election, etc. — (Mutual and Cash-Mutual Fire Insurance Companies).

Qualification of directors

117. The directors shall be members of the company and insured therein, for the time they hold office, to the amount of $800 at least, and, where the company has a share capital, two-thirds of the directors shall have the further qualification mentioned in section 26 of this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 117.

118.—(1) The board of directors shall consist of six, nine, twelve or fifteen directors, as shall be determined by resolution passed at the meeting held under section 13, or at an annual meeting of the company, or at a special general meeting called for the purpose of such determination and election. Number of directors to be determined by resolution.

(2) The number of directors constituting such board may from time to time be increased or decreased, if so decided at a special general meeting of the company called for the purpose, or at an annual meeting, if notice in writing of the intention to move a resolution for that purpose at such annual meeting is given to the secretary of the company at least one month before the holding of the meeting; but the increased or decreased number of directors shall in any such case be six, nine, twelve or fifteen as aforesaid. 60 V. c. 36, s. 118.

119. A copy of the resolution specified in the last preceding section, together with a list of the directors elected thereunder, both documents being duly certified under the hands of the chairman and secretary of the annual meeting or special general meeting aforesaid, shall be filed in the office of the Insurance Registrar. 60 V. c. 36, s. 119. Copy of resolution and list of directors to be filed.

120. Of the directors elected, as hereinbefore provided, one-third shall retire annually in rotation, and at the first meeting of the directors, or as soon thereafter as possible, it shall be determined by lot which of them shall hold office for one, two or three years respectively, and the determination shall be entered of record as part of the minutes of the said first meeting. 60 V. c. 36, s. 120. Retirement of directors in rotation.

121. At every annual meeting of the company thereafter, one-third of the total number of directors shall be elected for a period of three years, to fill the places of the retiring members, who shall be eligible for re-election. 60 V. c. 36, s. 121. Annual election to fill vacancies.

122. The manager of the company may be a director of the company, and may be paid an annual salary, under a by-law passed as enacted in section 105. 60 V. c. 36, s. 122. Manager may be a director. His salary.

123. No agent, or paid officer, or the banker of the company, or person in the employment of the company, other than the manager, shall be eligible to be elected as a director, or shall be allowed to interfere in the election of directors for the company; but nothing herein contained shall prevent a director from receiving applications for insurance, or from taking to his own use the customary application, survey, or policy fee, but the said fee shall not exceed $150 for any one application or policy. 60 V. c. 36, s. 123. Certain persons not eligible to be elected directors.

Election of directors

124.—(1) The election of directors shall be held and made by such members of the company as attend for that purpose in their proper persons.

Mode of election.

(2) The election of directors shall be by ballot.

Case of a tie at an election.

(3) If at any such election two or more members have an equal number of votes, in such manner that a less number of persons than the whole number to be elected appear to have been chosen directors by a majority of votes, then the said members of the company shall proceed to elect by ballot, until it is determined which of the persons so having an equal number of votes shall be the director or directors, so as to complete the whole number of directors to be elected, and the directors shall at their first meeting after any such election, proceed to elect by ballot among themselves, a president and vice-president, and at such election the secretary shall preside.

Election of president and vice-president.

Provision in case of failure to elect directors on proper day.

Vacancies in office of directors, how filled up.

125. If a vacancy happens among the directors during the term for which they have been elected, by death, resignation, ceasing to have the necessary qualification under section 117 of this Act, insolvency, or by being absent, without previous leave of the board, from the board for three regular meetings in succession (which shall, ipso facto, create such vacancy), the vacancy, in the case of a board limited to six directors, shall be filled up, and in the case of a board limited to a number of directors exceeding six, may be filled up, until the next annual meeting, by any person duly qualified, to be nominated by a majority of the remaining directors, and as soon as may be after the vacancy occurs, and at the next annual meeting the vacancy shall be filled for the portion of the term still unexpired. 60 V. c. 36, s. 125.

Quorum of directors.

126.—(1) Three directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and in the case of an equality of votes at any meeting of the board, the question shall pass in the negative.

Directors disagreeing may record their dissent.

(2) A director disagreeing with the majority of the board at a meeting, may have his dissent recorded, with his reasons therefor. 60 V. c. 36, s. 126.

4. Premium Notes and Assessments. (Mutual and Cash-Mutual Fire Insurance Companies.)

Company may accept premium notes.

127.—(1) The company may accept the premium note or the undertaking of the assured for assurance, and may undertake contracts in consideration thereof, said notes or undertakings to be assessed for the losses, expenses and reserve of the company in the manner hereinafter provided.

Form of premium notes.

(2) Where the premium note or undertaking is made upon a sheet or page which contains other matter, the premium note or undertaking shall be so entitled in conspicuous type, and shall be separated from such other matter by a blank space of at least an inch wide carried across the sheet or page, and if such other matter requires, or is intended to receive the assent of the maker of the premium note or undertaking, such assent shall be evidenced by a signature wholly distinct from the signature to the premium note or undertaking, and any violation of this section shall render the premium note or undertaking absolutely null and void; but the notice required by section 138 of this Act to be embodied in or indorsed upon the premium note shall not be deemed to be "other matter" within the meaning of this sub-section. 60 V. c. 36, s. 127.

Minimum rates.

128. The rate to be charged or taken by way of premium note for insuring first-class isolated non-hazardous property shall not be less than one dollar per one hundred dollars per annum, and the minimum rate of insurance upon other property shall be increased relatively with the increased risk, according to the nature of such property: provided that premium notes of not less that $1 per $100 per annum may be charged or taken when and so long as the gross amount at risk exceeds $2,000,000, and the total assets of the company do not fall below two per centum of the gross amount at risk, or so long as the company keeps on deposit with the Provincial Treasurer the full amount required of new companies licensed after the commencement of this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 128.

Part payment may be demanded at the time of application for insurance.

129.—(1) The directors may demand in cash a part or first payment of the premium, or premium note or undertaking at the time that application for insurance is made, and such first payment shall be credited upon said premium note or undertaking or against future assessments, but not more than sixty per centum of any premium or premium note or undertaking shall be paid in cash at the time of such application or of effecting the insurance.

First payment on premium note may be made in annual instalments.

(2) Instead of requiring the whole of the first payment to be made in cash at the time of insuring, the directors may make the said sum payable in annual instalments, the first of which shall be payable on the day of insuring, and the remaining instalments shall be respectively payable on the first day of each subsequent year of the term of insurance. The said annual instalments may be known and described as "the first or second, or as the case may be) fixed payment."

Proviso.

Provided that non-payment of any of the fixed payments subsequent to the first shall not forfeit the insurance unless thirty days' notice of the fixed payment due, or to become due, has been mailed to the person by whom the fixed payment is payable, directed to his post office address as given in his original application, or otherwise in writing to the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 129.

Assessment on premium note.

130. All premium notes or undertakings belonging to the company shall be assessed under the direction of the board of directors, at such intervals from their respective dates, for such sums as the directors determine, and for such further sums as they think necessary and as are authorized by this Act for losses, expenses, and reserve, during the currency of the policies for which said notes or undertakings were given, and in respect of which they are liable to assessment; and every member of the company, or person who has given a premium note or undertaking shall pay the sums from time to time payable by him to the company during the continuance of his policy in accordance with the assessment, and the assessment shall become payable in thirty days after notice thereof has been mailed to the member, or person who has given the premium note or undertaking, directed to his post office address, as given in his original application, or otherwise in writing to the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 130.

Notice to be given of the assessment.

Policy to be void, if any assessment or note is not paid within thirty days;

131. If the assessment on the premium note or undertaking upon a policy is not paid within thirty days after notice mailed as in section 130 enacted, the contract of insurance, for which the assessment has been made shall be null and void as respects all claim for losses occurring during the time of non-payment; but the contract shall be revived when the assessment has been paid, unless the secretary gives notice to the contrary to the assessed party in the manner in this Act provided, but nothing herein contained shall relieve the assured from his liability to pay the assessment or any subsequent assessments, nor shall the assured be entitled to recover the amount of loss or damage which happens to property insured under the contract while the assessment remains due and unpaid, unless the board of directors in their discretion decide otherwise. 60 V. c. 36, s. 131.

but shall be revived by subsequent payment.

Requisites of notice of assessment.

132. A notice of assessment upon any premium note or undertaking mailed as aforesaid shall be deemed sufficient if it embodies the register number of the contract, the period over which the assessment extends, the amount of the assessment, the time when and the place where payable. 60 V. c. 36, s. 132.

Assessment, how proportioned.

133 Subject to the provisions of section 128, the assessment upon premium notes or undertakings shall always be in proportion to the amount of the notes or undertakings.

Provided that where any company alters its premium note rate, but still holds in respect of subsisting contracts premium notes of the prior rate, it shall be lawful for the company, as between the respective premium notes so differing in rate, to make and levy such differential assessments as will in risks of the same amount, and of the same class of hazard, equalize the cost of insurance to the makers of the respective premium notes. 60 V. c. 36, s. 133.

Company may sue for assessments on premium notes.

134. If, for thirty days after notice of assessment mailed as aforesaid, a member or other person who has given a premium note or undertaking refuses or neglects to pay the assessment, the company may sue for and recover the same with costs of suit, and such proceeding shall not be a waiver of any forfeiture incurred by such non-payment. 60 V. c 36, s. 134.

Certificate of the secretary to be prima facie evidence of amount due to the company.

135. Where an assessment is made on any premium note or undertaking given to the company for a risk taken by the company, or as a consideration for any policy of insurance issued, or to be issued by the company, and an action is brought to recover the assessment, the certificate of the secretary of the company, specifying the assessment and the amount due to the company on the note or undertaking by means thereof, shall be taken and received as prima facie evidence thereof in any Court in this Province. 60 V. c. 36, s. 135.

Reserve fund.

Annual assessment.

How applied.

136.—(1) The company may form a reserve fund, to consist of all moneys which remain on hand at the end of each year, after payment of the ordinary expenses and losses of the company, and for that purpose the board of directors may levy an annual assessment not exceeding ten per centum on the premium notes or undertakings held by the company, and the reserve fund may from time to time be applied by the directors to pay off such liabilities of the company as may not be provided for out of the ordinary receipts for the same or any succeeding year.

How invested.

(2) The reserve fund shall be invested as provided by section 92. 60 V. c. 36, s. 136.

Directors may retain amount of premium notes.

137.—(1) If there is a loss on property insured by the company, the board of directors may retain the amount of the premium note or undertaking given for insurance thereof until the time has expired for which insurance has been made, and at the expiration of said time the insured shall have the right to demand and receive such part of the retained sum as has not been assessed for.

Return of premium note after insurance ended.

(2) On the expiration of forty days after the term of insurance has ended, the premium note or undertaking given for the term shall be absolutely null and void, except as to first payment or fixed payments remaining unpaid, and except as to lawful assessments of which written notice pursuant to sections 130 and 131 has been given to the maker of the premium note or undertaking during the currency of the policy or within the said period of forty days, and on the expiration of the said period the premium note or undertaking shall, upon application therefor, be given up to the maker thereof, provided all liabilities with which the premium note or undertaking is chargeable as aforesaid have been paid. 60 V. c. 36, s. 137.

Actions in division courts where brought.

138.—(1) Any action cognizable in a Division Court upon or for any premium note or undertaking, or any sum assessed or to be assessed thereon, may be entered and tried and determined in the Court for the division wherein the head office or any agency of the company is situate, where and where only within the body of such note or undertaking, or across the face thereof, there was at the time of the making or entering into the same, printed in conspicuous type, and in ink of a colour different from any other in or on such note, the words following: "Any action which may be brought or commenced in a Division Court in respect or on account of this note or undertaking, or any sum to be assessed thereon, may be brought and commenced against the maker hereof in the Division Court for the division wherein the head office or any agency of the company is situate." 60 V. c. 36, s. 138 (1).

[For appeal in Division Court actions where the effect of a decision is to render invalid a general assessment by a mutual insurance company, see Cap. 60, Sec. 155.]

Premium notes not to create lien on land.

139. No premium note or undertaking shall create a lien upon lands on which the insured property is situate. 60 V. c. 36, s. 139.

Powers of incorporated companies to insure on the cash-premium principle.

140. Any cash-mutual fire insurance company registered under this Act may effect any insurance upon the cash-premium principle, for a period not exceeding three years, on farm and other non-hazardous property, and for one year or less on any other class of property, but the amount of cash insurances in one year shall be limited, so that the cash premiums received thereon during any one year shall not be in excess of one-half of the amount still payable in respect of premium notes or undertakings on hand on the thirty-first day of December of the previous year, according to the statement made under section 96, and all the property and assets of the company, including premium notes and undertakings, shall be liable for all losses which may arise under insurances for cash premiums. 60 V. c. 36, s. 140.

Issue of execution against company.

141.—(1) No execution shall issue against a mutual or cash-mutual company upon a judgment until after the expiration of sixty days from the recovery thereof, but this section shall not apply to any judgment recovered on any policy or undertaking of the company issued or given where more than sixty per centum of the premium, or premium note, or undertaking, was paid in cash at the time of the insurance or the application therefor.

(2) A Judge in Chambers, or the Master in Chambers, shall upon the recovery of a judgment against the company, upon the application of the person in whose favour the same has been recovered, upon notice to the company, inquire into the facts, and if he certifies that more than sixty per centum of the premium note, or undertaking, was paid in cash at the time of the insurance, or upon the application therefor, execution may be forthwith issued upon such judgment. 60 V. c. 36, s. 141.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CONTRACTS OF INSURANCE.

Application of sections 143-146.

142. Sections 143 to 146 inclusive shall apply to contracts of insurance generally. 60 V. c. 36, s. 142.

Contracts to be deemed made in Ontario.

143. Where the subject matter of any insurance contract is property, or an insurable interest within the jurisdiction of Ontario, or is a person domiciled or resident therein, any policy, certificate, interim receipt or renewal receipt, or writing evidencing the contract, shall, if signed, countersigned, issued or delivered over in Ontario, or committed to the post office or to any carrier, messenger or agent, to be delivered or handed over to the assured, his assign or agent in Ontario, be deemed to evidence a contract made therein, and the contract shall be construed according to the law thereof, and all moneys payable under the contract shall be paid at the office of the chief officer or agent in Ontario of the insuring corporation, in lawful money of Canada, and this section shall have effect notwithstanding any agreement, condition or stipulation to the contrary. 60 V. c. 36, s. 143.

Terms, etc., of contracts invalid unless set out in full.

144.—(1) Where any insurance contract made by any corporation whatsoever, within the intent of section 2 of this Act is evidenced by a sealed or written instrument, all the terms and conditions of the contract shall be set out by the corporation in full on the face or back of the instrument forming or evidencing the contract, and unless so set out, no term of, or condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso, modifying or impairing the effect of any such contract made or renewed after the commencement of this Act shall be good and valid, or admissable in evidence to the prejudice of the assured or beneficiary.

(a) Nothing herein contained shall exclude the proposal or application of the assured from being considered with the contract, and the Court shall determine how far the insurer was induced to enter into the contract by any material misrepresentation contained in the said application or proposal.

Proviso.

(b) A registered friendly society may instead of setting out the complete contract in the certificate or other instrument of contract, indicate therein by particular references those articles or provisions of the constitution, by-laws or rules which contain all the material terms of the contract not in the instrument of contract itself set out, and the society shall, at or prior to the delivery over of such instrument of contract, deliver also to the assured a copy of the constitution, by-laws and rules therein referred to.

Contract not to be invalidated by erroneous statement in application unless material.

(2) No contract of insurance made or renewed after the commencement of this Act shall contain, or have indorsed upon it, or be made subject to any term, condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso, providing that such contract shall be avoided by reason of any statement in the application therefor, or inducing the entering into of the contract by the corporation, unless such term, condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso is limited to cases in which such statement is material to the contract, and no contract within the intent of section 2 of this Act, shall be avoided by reason of the inaccuracy of any such statement, unless it be material to the contract.

Materiality, how decided.

(3) The question of materiality in any contract of insurance whatsoever shall be a question of fact for the jury, or for the Court if there be no jury; and no admission, term, condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso to the contrary, contained in the application or proposal for insurance, or in the instrument of contract, or in any agreement or document relating thereto shall have any force or validity.

Proviso.

(4) Nothing in sub-sections 1, 2 and 3 of this section contained shall be deemed to impair the effect of the provisions contained in sections 168 to 173 inclusive, or the effect of the provisions contained in section 55 of The Act respecting the Insurance of Live Stock. 60 V. c. 136, s. 144.

Rev. Stat. c. 204.

Insurer's right of entry after loss.

145.—(1) After any loss or damage to insured property the insurer has, by a duly accredited agent an immediate right of entry and access sufficient to survey and examine the property, and make an estimate of the loss or damage, but the insurer is not entitled to the disposition, control, occupation, or possession of the insured property, or of the remains or salvage thereof, unless the insurer undertakes reinstatement, or accepts abandonment of the property.

Duty of assured after loss.

(2) After loss or damage to insured property, it shall be the duty of the assured when, and as soon as practicable, to secure the insured property from damage, or from further damage, and to separate as far as reasonably may be, the damaged from the undamaged property, and to notify the insurer when such separation has been made, and thereupon the insurer shall be entitled to entry and access sufficient to make an appraisement or particular estimate of the loss or damage.

Proviso.

(3) At any time after the loss or damage the insurer and the assured may under a term of the contract of insurance or by special agreement make a joint survey, examination, estimate, or appraisement of the loss or damage, in which case the insurer shall be deemed to have waived all right to make a separate survey, examination, estimate or appraisement thereof. 60 V. c. 36, s. 145.

Consolidation of actions for insurance money.

146.—(1) In case of several actions being brought for insurance money, the Court shall consolidate or otherwise deal therewith so that there shall be but one action for and in respect of the shares of all the persons entitled under a policy.

Where infants are entitled to insurance money.

(2) If an action is brought for the share of one or more infants entitled, all the other infants entitled, or the trustees, executors, or guardians entitled to receive payments of the shares of such other infants, shall be made parties to the action, and the rights of all the infants shall be dealt with and determined in one action. The persons entitled to receive the shares of the infants may join with any adult persons claiming shares in the policy. In all actions where several persons are interested in the money, the Court or Judge shall apportion among the parties entitled any sum directed to be paid, and shall give all necessary directions and relief.

Action for annuity or recurring payment.

(3) In any action commenced in a Division or County Court for any insurance or benefit alleged to be payable to the assured or any beneficiary, assignee, representative or guardian, when the insurance or benefit claimed is in the nature of an annuity, or other periodical or recurring payment, so that the present or capitalized value of the insurance or benefit amounts or may amount to a sum beyond the jurisdiction of the Court in which the action is brought, the defendant may file with the Registrar or Local Registrar of the High Court an affidavit setting out such facts, and thereafter upon the application of the defendant the action shall be removable into the High Court of Justice. 60 V. c. 36, s. 146.

INSURANCE OF THE PERSON.

1. General provisions applicable to all Insurers.

Application of secs. 148 to 165.

147. Sections 148 to 165, inclusive, shall apply to insurance of the person within the meaning of clause 46 of section 2. 60 V. c. 36, s. 147.

Days of grace for payment of premiums.

148.—(1) In any insurance of the person, where the money payable by way of premiums, dues or assessments (not being the initial premiums, dues or assessments), under any contract whatsoever, is unpaid, any of the persons hereinafter mentioned may within thirty days from and including the first day on which the money is due, by registered letter or otherwise, pay, deliver or tender to the company at its head office or at its chief agency in Ontario, or to the company's collector or authorized agent, the sum in default. On payment, delivery or tender as aforesaid by the assured, or by any of the beneficiaries under the contract, the contract shall be deemed to have been ipso facto revived or renewed, and any stipulation or agreement to the contrary shall, as against the assured or his beneficiaries, be utterly void, the thirty days hereinbefore mentioned shall run concurrently with the period of grace or credit (if any) allowed by the insurer for the payment of a premium or of an instalment of premium, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to extend the period of grace or credit beyond the total of thirty days. This sub-section shall not be deemed to extend the time allowed for the payment of contributions or assessments by section 165 of this Act.

Limitation of actions.

(2) Notwithstanding any stipulation or agreement to the contrary, any action or proceeding against the insurer for the recovery of any claim under or by virtue of a contract of insurance of the person may be commenced at any time within the term of one year next after the happening of the event insured against or within the further term of six months, by leave of a Judge of the High Court, or the Master in Chambers upon its being shown to his satisfaction that there was a reasonable excuse for not commencing the action or proceeding within the first mentioned term. 60 V. c. 36, s. 148.

Error in age not to avoid contract, but benefit to abate.

149.—(1) Where the age of a person is material to any contract and such age is given erroneously in any statement or warranty made for the purposes of the contract, such contract shall not be avoided by reason only of the age being other than as stated or warranted, if it appears that such statement or warranty was made in good faith and without any intention to deceive, but the person entitled to recover on such contract shall not be entitled to recover more than an amount which bears the same ratio to the sum that such person would otherwise be entitled to recover as the premium proper to the stated age of such person bears to the premium proper to the actual age of such person, the said stated age and the actual age being both taken as at the date of the contract.

Proviso.

Provided that in no case shall the amount receivable exceed the amount stated or indicated in the contract.

Proviso.

Provided, also, that where the application for and contract of insurance expressly limit the insurable age, and where the actual age of the applicant for insurance at the date of his application exceeds the age so limited, the contract shall, during the lifetime of the assured and not later than five years from the date of the contract, be voidable at the discretion of the insurer within thirty days after the error in age comes to the knowledge of the insurer.

"Premiums."

(2) For the purposes of the next preceding sub-section the word "premium" shall mean the net annual premium as shown in or deduced from the H.M. Tables of the Institute of Actuaries of Great Britain, the rate of interest being taken at $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent per annum.

(3) If the error in age includes a fractional part of a year exceeding a half year, such fractional part shall be computed as a whole year, but if the fractional part does not exceed a half year it shall be wholly disregarded in the computation. Fractional part of a year.

(4) When by the terms and for the purposes of the contract, the age of the person in respect of whose age the contract is taken to be greater than the actual age of such person, the number of years added to such age shall, for the purposes of the calculation provided for by this section, be added to the true age of such person. Where age is by agreement taken as greater than known age.

(5) Where any error is discovered in respect of any contract of insurance, or of the premium or premiums paid or to be paid upon such contract, nothing herein contained shall be construed in any way to prevent at any time before the maturity of the contract an adjustment between the insurer and the assured of the amount or amounts payable in respect of any insurance effected or of the premium or premiums paid or to be paid. 60 V. c. 36, s. 149. Error may be adjusted between insurer and assured at any time before maturity of contract.

150.—(1) In any insurance of the person, except an annuity on life, it shall be necessary for the validity of the contract that the beneficiary under the contract (being other than the assured, or the parent, or bona fide donee, grantee or assignee of the assured, or a person entitled under the will of the assured, or by operation of law), have had at the date of the contract a pecuniary interest in the duration of the life or other subject insured, provided that any otherwise lawful contract of annuity upon life shall not require for its validity that the annuitant has or at any time had an insurable interest in the life of the nominee. Insurable interest necessary to support contract

(2) No corporation shall insure or pay on the death of a child under 10 years of age, any sum of money which added to any sum payable on the death of such child by any other insuring corporation exceed the following amounts respectively, that is to say :— Sums insurable at ages less than ten.

If any such child dies under the age of			2	years,	$32

(a) Provided that nothing in this section contained shall apply to such insurances on the lives of children under ten years of age as were in force on the fourteenth day of April, 1892, or apply to insurance on the lives of children of any age where the person effecting the insurance has a pecuniary interest in the life of the assured. Proviso.

Where insurance excessive.

(3) Where the age of the assured is at the date of the contract, less than ten years, and the insuring corporation has knowingly, or without sufficient inquiry, entered into any contract prohibited by the next preceding subsection, the premiums paid thereunder shall be recoverable from the corporation by the person or persons paying the same together with legal interest thereon.

Subsecs. 1 to 5 to appear on circular, etc.

(4) Every corporation undertaking or effecting insurances on the lives of children under ten years of age shall print subsections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this section in conspicuous type upon every circular soliciting, and upon every application for, and every instrument of contract of, such insurance; and any contravention of this subsection shall be punishable as for an offence against section 85, the proceedings and penalty enacted in which section shall apply to an offence committed against this sub-section.

Insurance of children's lives.

(a) Instead of printing the matter required by this subsection, the company may with the consent in writing of the Insurance Registrar print or stamp the following words in lieu thereof :—"Any insurance undertaken or offered to be undertaken in the Province of Ontario in respect of the lives of children under ten years of age is subject to the restrictions enacted by sub-sections 1 to 5 (inclusive) of section 150 of The Ontario Insurance Act."

Insurance effected by parents upon the lives of minor children generally.

(5) In respect of insurances heretofore or hereafter effected on the lives of persons under twenty-one years of age, where such insurance has been effected by a parent upon the life of his child, such insurance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the parent's want of pecuniary interest in the life of the child.

Minors of fifteen years and upwards competent to effect insurance on their own lives and give discharge.

(6) In respect of insurance heretofore or hereafter, by any person not of the full age of twenty-one years but of the age of fifteen years or upwards effected upon his own life, for either his own benefit or for the benefit of his father, mother, brother or sister, the assured shall not by reason only of his minority, be deemed incompetent to contract for such insurance or for the surrender of such insurance, or to give a valid discharge for any benefit accruing, or for money payable under the contract. 60 V. c. 36, s. 150.

Insurable interest in one's own life.

151.—(1) Every person of the full age of twenty-one years shall be deemed to have an unlimited insurable interest in his own life and may effect bona fide at his own charge insurance or insurances of his own person for the whole term of life, or any shorter term for the sole or partial benefit of himself, or his estate or any other person, persons or corporation whatsoever, whether such other beneficiary has or has not an insurable interest in the life of the assured. The insurance money may be made payable to any person either for his own use or as trustee for another person.

(2) If the policy was effected and premiums paid by the assured with intent to defraud his creditors, the creditors shall be entitled to receive out of the sum secured an amount equal to the premiums so paid. Frauds in payments of premiums.

(3) The assured may designate or ascertain the beneficiary by the contract of insurance or by instrument in writing attached to or indorsed on, or identifying the said contract by number or otherwise, and may by the said contract or by the above mentioned, or other like instrument apportion the insurance money, or by like instrument from time to time re-apportion the same, or alter or revoke the benefits, or trusts or add or substitute new beneficiaries, or trustees, or divert the insurance money wholly or in part to himself or his estate; provided that the assured shall not alter, or revoke, or divert the benefit of any person who is a beneficiary for value; nor shall the assured divert the benefit of a person who is of the class of preferred beneficiaries to a person not of the said class or to the assured himself, or to his estate. Beneficiary, how ascertained.

(4) This section shall apply not only to any future contract of insurance, and to any declaration made on or relating to any such contract, but also to any contract of insurance heretofore issued and declaration heretofore made. Application of section.

(5) Nothing contained in this Act shall be held or construed to restrict or interfere with the right of any person to effect or assign a policy for the benefit of any one or more beneficiaries, in any other mode allowed by law. Act not to affect other modes of assignment.

(6) If one or more of the beneficiaries die in the lifetime of the assured and no apportionment or other disposition is subsequently made by the assured, the insurance shall be for the benefit of the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries in equal shares if more than one; and if all the beneficiaries die in the lifetime of the assured, the benefit of the contract and the insurance money shall form part of the estate of the assured. Provision in case of death of persons entitled where no apportionment.

(7) Until the insurer has received the original or a copy of any declaration, apportionment, will or other instrument or disposition in writing affecting the insurance moneys or any portion thereof, or of any appointment or any revocation of a trustee, the insurer may deal with and obtain a valid discharge from the assured, or (as in the respective case may be) with and from his beneficiaries (such beneficiaries not being persons under incapacity), or with and from his trustees, executors, administrators or assigns in the same manner and with the like effect as if such declaration, apportionment, disposition, appointment or revocation had not been made. 60 V. c. 36, s. 151. Protection of insurer in paying insurance before notice of declaration.

152. In every contract of insurance against accident or casualty, or disability, total or partial, the event insured against shall be deemed to include any bodily injury occasioned by external force or agency, and either happening without the What accident includes.

direct intent of the person injured, or happening as the indirect result of his intentional act, such act not amounting to voluntary or negligent exposure to unnecessary danger, and no term, condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso of the contract varying the aforesaid obligation or liability of the corporation shall as against the assured have any force or validity. 60 V. c. 36, s. 152.

Maximum named in contract shall prima facie be payable.

153.—(1) Where the event has happened on the occurrence of which any benefit or insurance money is payable under the contract, but the amount payable is matter of dispute, the amount payable by the insurer to the beneficiary shall prima facie be the maximum amount stated or indicated in the contract, and it shall lie on the insurer to prove the contrary.

Where maximum not paid claimant entitled to inspect insurer's books.

(2) If, when a claim accrues under a contract, the insurer offers the claimant a less sum than the maximum named in the contract, and either offers no explanation, or alleges as a reason for not paying the maximum, that the insurer's general contract fund, or some other fund is insufficient, the claimant shall, on written notice to the insurer, be entitled as of right, to inspect personally or by agent, all books and documents relating to the contract funds generally, or the fund alleged to be insufficient.

Claimant may have order from Registrar to inspect.

(3) If the insurer refuses or neglects to afford the claimant a reasonable opportunity of inspection as in the last sub-section provided, the claimant may file with the Insurance Registrar, an affidavit to the effect that he rightfully claims under a certain contract of the insurer, giving particulars sufficient to identify the contract, or if required, producing the contract, and that the insurer has refused or neglected to afford him opportunity of inspection as aforesaid, thereupon the Insurance Registrar may, under his hand and seal, give the claimant or his agent an order to inspect on a day named; and neglect or refusal thereafter to afford him an opportunity of inspection, shall be an offence, punishable as an offence or offences committed against section 85, the proceedings and penalty enacted in which section shall apply in the case of an offence against this section. 60 V. c. 36, s. 153.

Insurance money, how payable.

154.—(1) When the insurance money becomes due and payable, it shall be paid within the time prescribed by section 80, and according to the terms of the policy or of any declaration or instrument as aforesaid, and shall, in the case of preferred beneficiaries, be free from the claims of any creditors of the assured except as in section 151 provided.

Case of infant beneficiaries.

(2) Where the insurance money or part thereof is for the benefit, in whole or in part, of infants, and the infants are mentioned as a class and not by their individual names, the money shall not be payable to the infants until reasonable proof is furnished to the insurer of the number, names and ages of the infants entitled. 60 V. c. 36, s. 154.

155.—(1) The assured may, by the policy or by his will, or by any writing under his hand, appoint a trustee or trustees of the money payable under the contract of insurance, and may from time to time revoke such appointment in like manner, and appoint a new trustee or new trustees and make provision for the appointment of a new trustee or of new trustees, and for the investment of the moneys payable under the contract. Payment made to such trustee or trustees shall discharge the corporation. Appointment of trustees.

(2) If no trustee is named in the contract of insurance, or appointed as mentioned in sub-section 1, to receive the shares to which infants are entitled, their shares may be paid to the executors of the last will and testament of the assured, or to a guardian of the infants duly appointed by one of the Surrogate Courts of this Province or by the High Court, or to a trustee appointed by the last named Court, upon the application of the wife, or of the infants or their guardian, and such payment shall be a good discharge to the insurance corporation. Where no trustee, payment of shares of infants.

(3) A guardian appointed under subsection 2 shall give security to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge for the faithful performance of his duty as guardian, and for the proper application of the money which he may receive. Security by guardian.

(a) Provided that where any insurance money not exceeding $3,000 is payable to the wife and children of the assured, and some or all of the children are infants, the Court or Judge shall have discretion to appoint the widow of the assured, being the mother of such infants, as their guardian without security. Proviso.

(4) Where probate of a will or letters of administration or letters of guardianship are sought for the sole purpose of obtaining insurance money, the fees payable thereon shall be as follows: Surrogate fees in certain cases.

Where the insurance money does not exceed $1,000, $4;

Where the insurance money exceeds $1,000, but does not exceed $2,000, $6;

Where the insurance money exceeds $2,000, but does not exceed $3,000, $8; and such fees shall be regulated in the manner prescribed by section 76 of The Surrogate Courts Act. Rev. Stat., c. 59.

ment or preferment in the world, or on the marriage, of such infant. 60 V. c. 36, s. 155.

Death of assured abroad, payment to foreign representative.

156.—(1) Where under a contract made or by law deemed to be made in Ontario or a contract issued by an insurance corporation having its head office in Ontario, the insurance money is payable to the representatives of a person who at his death was domiciled or resident in a foreign jurisdiction, and no person has become his personal representative in Ontario, the money may on the expiration of two months after such death, be paid to the personal representative appointed by the Court of the foreign jurisdiction provided it appears upon the probate or letters of administration, or other like document of such Court, or by a certificate of the Judge, under the seal of the Court, that it has been shewn to the satisfaction of the Court that the deceased at the time of his death was domiciled or resident at some place within the jurisdiction of such Court.

When contract directs payment to foreign representative.

(2) When the contract of such insurance provides that the insurance money may be paid to the personal representative appointed by the Court of the jurisdiction in which the deceased was resident or domiciled at the time of his death, the money may be paid to such representative accordingly at any time after the death aforesaid or according to the terms of the policy.

Intestacy: payment (without representation) according to foreign law.

(3) Where under a contract made or by law deemed to be made, in Ontario the insurance money is payable to the representatives of a person who, at the time of his death was domiciled or resident in a foreign jurisdiction and died intestate, the money may after the expiration of three months after such death, if no person has become his personal representative in Ontario, be paid to the person or persons entitled according to the law of the foreign jurisdiction to receive the money and give a discharge for the same as if such money were by the terms of the contract payable in such foreign jurisdiction.

Testacy: payment according to foreign law.

(4) When a testator domiciled or resident in a foreign jurisdiction disposes of the insurance money by a will, valid according to the law of that jurisdiction, then such money may be paid at any time after death, or according to the terms of the contract in that behalf, to the person or persons entitled under such will to receive and give a valid discharge for money payable in such foreign jurisdiction.

Where guardian appointed by foreign Court.

(5) Where it appears by any letters of guardianship or other like document, relating to persons under incapacity, issued or to be issued by a Court in a foreign jurisdiction, or by a certificate of the Judge under the seal of such Court, that it has been shewn to the satisfaction of such Court that the assured at the maturity of the policy was domiciled or resident within its jurisdiction, and where security to the satisfaction of the Court has been given by the guardian or other like officer appointed by the said letters or document, then the High Court upon application for the appointment of the said guardian or like officer as trustee under this section, may dispense with the giving of security, provided it has also been shown that the infants or other beneficiaries under incapacity reside within the jurisdiction of the foreign Court, and that the proposed trustee is a fit and proper person, and that the security has, in accordance with the practice of such foreign Court, been given in respect of and for the due application and account of the money payable under the policy.

(6) This section shall apply to policies heretofore issued as well as to policies to be issued hereafter, and whether the death has occurred before the passing of this Act or not. 60 V. c. 36, s. 156.

Insurer may pay money into court.

157.—(1) If there is no trustee, executor, or guardian competent to receive the share of any infant in the insurance money, and the insurer admits the claim or any part thereof, the insurer at any time after the expiration of two months from the date of the admission of the claim or part thereof, may obtain an order from the High Court for the payment of the share of the infant into Court, and in such case the costs of the application shall be paid out of the share (unless the Court otherwise directs), and the residue shall be paid into Court pursuant to the order, and such payment shall be a sufficient discharge to the insurer for the money paid; and the money shall be dealt with as the Court may direct.

Where claim admitted, but money not paid.

(2) If the insurer does not within sixty days from the time that the claim is admitted, either pay the same to some person competent to receive the money under this Act, or pay the same into the High Court, the said Court may upon application made by some one competent to receive the said money or by some other person on behalf of the infant, order the insurance money, or any part thereof, to be paid to any trustee, executor, or guardian competent to receive the same, or to be paid into Court to be dealt with as the Court may direct, and any such payment shall be a good discharge to the insurer.

Costs.

(3) The Court may order the costs of the application, and any costs incidental to establishing the authority of the person applying for the order, to be paid out of such moneys, or by the insurer, or otherwise, as may seem just, and the Court may also order the costs of, and incidental to, obtaining out of Court moneys voluntarily paid in by an insurer, to be paid out of such moneys. 60 V. c. 36, s. 157.

Power to convert into paid up policy.

158.—(1) If a person who has heretofore effected, or who hereafter effects, an insurance for the benefit of any preferred beneficiary or beneficiaries, whether such benefit appears by the terms of the policy or by indorsement thereon, or by an instrument referring to and identifying the policy, finds himself unable to continue to meet the premiums, he may surrender the policy to the insurer, and accept in lieu thereof a paid up policy for such sum as the premiums paid would represent, payable at death or at the endowment age or otherwise, as the case may be, in the same manner as the money insured by the original policy if not surrendered would have been payable; and the company may accept the surrender and grant the paid up policy, notwithstanding any declaration or direction in favour of any preferred beneficiary or beneficiaries.

Power to borrow on the policy.

(2) The assured may, from time to time, borrow from the insurer, or from any other corporation, company or person, on the security of the policy, such sums as may be necessary and shall be applied to keep the policy in force, and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on; and the sums so borrowed, together with such lawful interest thereon as may be agreed, shall, so long as the contract remains in force, be a first lien on the contract and on all moneys payable thereunder, notwithstanding any declaration or direction in favour of any preferred beneficiary or beneficiaries.

Power of assured and adults to deal with policy.

(3) Where all the beneficiaries, whether preferred or ordinary, are of full age, they and the assured may surrender the contract of insurance, or assign the same, either absolutely or by way of security.

Who deemed person entitled to benefit of policy for purposes of subsection 3.

(4) Where by any contract of insurance or by the declaration indorsed upon or attached to or identifying by its number or otherwise, any contract of insurance (whether such declaration has heretofore been or is hereafter made), it is provided that the contract shall be for the benefit of a person, and in the event of the death of such person for the benefit of another person, such first mentioned person shall, if living, be deemed for the purposes of subsection 3 of this section, the person entitled to be benefited under such contract.

(5) This section shall apply not only to any future contract of insurance, and to any declaration made or relating to any such contract, but also to any contract of insurance heretofore issued and declaration heretofore made. 60 V. c. 36, s. 158.

Preferred beneficiaries.

159.—(1) Where a person (hereinafter called the assured) effects insurance on his or her own life, and either by the contract of insurance, or by instrument in writing attached to or indorsed on, or identifying the said contract by number or otherwise, declares the insurance money or a portion of the principal or interest thereof to be for the benefit of the husband, wife, children, grandchildren or mother of the assured, then such contract shall (subject to the right of the assured to apportion or alter as hereinafter enacted) create a trust in favour of the said beneficiary or beneficiaries, according to the intent so expressed or declared, and so long as any object of the trust remains, the money payable under the contract shall not be subject to the control of the assured, or of his or her creditors, or form part of his or her estate, when the sum secured by the contract becomes payable; but this shall not be held to interfere with any pledge of the policy to any person prior to such declaration.

Who shall constitute preferred beneficiaries

(2) The husband, wife, children, grandchildren and mother of the assured shall constitute a class which may be known as "preferred beneficiaries," and all other beneficiaries may be known as "ordinary beneficiaries."

(3) In the case of a policy or written contract of life insurance effected before marriage, a declaration under this section shall be, and shall be deemed to be as valid and effectual as if such policy or contract had been effected after marriage.

Insurance for benefit of future wife.

(4) Where a contract of life insurance is effected by an unmarried man, for the benefit of his future wife, or future wife and children, but the contract does not designate by name, or otherwise clearly ascertain a specific person as such intended wife, the contract (not being within the intent of subsection 5 or 6 hereof) shall be construed as provided in subsection 7.

Where assured unmarried or widower without issue.

(5) Where a contract is effected as in subsection 4, but at the maturity of the contract, the assured is still unmarried, or is a widower without issue, the insurance money shall fall into, and become part of the estate of the assured.

Where assured does not marry the specified beneficiary.

(6) Where a contract of life insurance is effected by an unmarried man, for the benefit of his future wife, or future wife and children, and the intended wife is designated by name, or is otherwise clearly ascertained in the contract, but the intended marriage does not take place, all questions arising on such contract shall be determined as if this Act had not been passed.

Where beneficiaries ascertained, but no apportionment made.

(7) Where two or more beneficiaries are designated or ascertained but no apportionment as among them is made, all the said beneficiaries shall be held to share equally in the same, and where it is stated in the policy or declaration that the insurance is for the benefit of the wife and children generally, or of the children generally, without specifying the names of the children, the word "children" shall be held to mean all the children issue of the assured, living at the maturity of the policy, whether by his then or any former wife, and the wife to benefit by the policy shall be the wife living at the maturity thereof.

Where apportionment made, but beneficiary predeceases assured.

(8) If one or more of the preferred beneficiaries in whose favour the apportionment has been made, die in the lifetime of the assured, the assured may, by an instrument in writing, attached to or indorsed on or referring to and identifying the policy of insurance, by number or otherwise, declare that the share formerly apportioned to the person so dying shall be for the benefit of such other person or persons as he may name in that behalf, not being other than one or more of the class of preferred beneficiaries, and in default of any such declaration, the share of the person so dying shall be for the benefit of the survivor or survivors of such preferred beneficiaries in equal shares.

Application of section.

(9) This section shall apply not only to any future contract of insurance, and to any declaration made on or relating to any such contract, but also to any contract of insurance heretofore issued and declaration heretofore made. 60 V. c. 36, s. 159.

Assured may vary benefit or beneficiary.

160.—(1) The assured may, by an instrument in writing attached to or indorsed on, or identifying the policy by its number or otherwise, vary a policy or declaration or an apportionment previously made, so as to restrict or extend, transfer or limit, the benefits of the policy to the wife alone or to the children, or to one or more of them, or to the mother or any other preferred beneficiary of the assured, as a beneficiary or sole beneficiary, although the policy is expressed or declared to be for the benefit of the wife and children, or of the wife alone, or of the child or children alone, or of the mother, or such other preferred beneficiary, or for the benefit of the wife for life, and of the children after her death, or for the benefit of the wife, and in case of her death during the life of the assured, then for the child or children, or any of them, or for the benefit of any one or more of the above mentioned persons for life, and, after his or their decease, for the benefit of any one or more of the survivors; or, although a prior declaration was so restricted; and he may also apportion the insurance money among the persons so intended to be benefited; and may, from time to time, by instrument in writing attached to or indorsed on the policy, or referring to the same, alter the apportionment as he deems proper; he may also, by his will make or alter the apportionment of the insurance money; and an apportionment made or altered by his will, shall prevail over any other made before the date of the will, except so far as such other apportionment has been acted on before notice of the apportionment by will; and whatever the assured may, under this section, do by an instrument in writing attached to or indorsed on or identifying the policy, or a particular policy or policies, by number or otherwise, he may also do by a will identifying the policy or a particular policy or policies by number or otherwise.

Apportionment of insurance money by will.

"Apportion," "apportionment," meaning of.

Provided that the assured shall not by virtue of the preceding subsections be authorized to divert the said moneys, or benefits from all of the said class to a person not of the said class, or to the assured himself, or to his estate; or to divert the said insurance moneys or benefits, or any part thereof, from the original beneficiary where the policy expressly states that the beneficiary was a beneficiary for value. Proviso.

(3) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the executive of a registered friendly society that any beneficiary under an insurance certificate or contract of the society is leading a criminal or an immoral life, then, and notwithstanding anything contained in this, or any other Act of the Province, it shall be competent for the assured, with the consent of the said executive, to declare either by indorsement on the certificate or contract or by other writing, that all right, title and interest of the said beneficiary in or to the benefit under the certificate is forfeited and annulled; and thereupon the said right, title and interest shall be forfeited and annulled accordingly; and the assured by a like writing may then or thereafter from time to time make a new appropriation in accordance with the lawful rules of the society, and may reappropriate the benefit; and the right of the assured in this behalf shall be in addition to his rights under this or other Acts of the Province. Where beneficiary under friendly society contract is leading a criminal or immoral life.

(4) Where the contract is made by an insurer other than as mentioned in sub-section 3, then upon petition, and upon the like facts as in the said sub-section mentioned being proved to the satisfaction of a Judge of the High Court, the Judge may make an order annulling the benefit and granting such other relief as under the circumstances appears proper. Case of other contracts.

(5) This section shall apply not only to any future contract of insurance, and to any declaration made on or relating to any such contract, but also to any contract heretofore issued, and declaration heretofore made. 60 V. c. 36, s. 160. Application of section.

161.—(1) The assured may in writing require the insurer to pay the bonuses or profits, or portions thereof, accruing under the contract of insurance, to the assured, or to apply the same in reduction of the annual premiums payable by the assured, in such way as he may direct; or to add the said bonuses or profits to the benefit; and the insurer shall pay or apply such bonuses or profits as the assured directs; and according to the rates and rules established by the insurer; Provided always that the insurer shall not be obliged to pay or apply such bonuses or profits in any other manner than as lawfully stipulated in the contract or the application therefor. This section shall apply to contracts made before the 4th day of March, 1881, and to bonuses and profits then declared in respect of such policies, as well as to policies thereafter made and hereafter to be made. Assured may direct application of bonuses and profits. Proviso.

(2). Any contract of insurance may be surrendered or assigned,

(a) Where the policy is for the benefit of children only, and the children surviving are all of the full age of twenty-one years, if the assured and all such surviving children agree to surrender or assign; or

(b) Where the policy is for the benefit of both a wife and children, and the surviving children are all of the full age of twenty-one years, if the assured and his then wife (if any) and all such surviving children agree to surrender or assign; or

(c) Where the policy is for the benefit of a wife only, or of a wife and children, and there are no children living, if the assured and his then wife agree to surrender or assign. 60 V. c. 36, s. 161.

2. Additional provisions, applicable to Friendly Societies only.

Application of sections 163 to 165.

162.—The additional provisions contained in sections 163 to 165 inclusive shall apply only to friendly societies registered as such under this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 162.

Rules deliverable on demand.

163.—(1) A copy of all rules of a friendly society relating to its insurance contracts and to the management and application of the insurance funds shall be delivered by the society to every person on demand, on tender of twenty-five cents.

Delivery of untrue rules.

(2) If any officer or agent of a society, with intent to mislead or defraud, gives to any person a copy of rules other than the rules then in force, on the pretence that the same are the rules then in force, he shall be guilty of an offence; and shall, upon summary conviction thereof before any Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed, be liable as for an offence committed against section 85 of this Act.

Officially certified rules.

(3) Any revision of or amendment to the rules of a corporation directed in terms of this Act by the Insurance Registrar to be made and made accordingly or purporting to be so made and certified by the said Registrar as conformable to his direction, or as assented to by him when assent in writing suffices without direction, shall so certified be transferred to the office of the Provincial Registrar, there to be filed and indexed, and the rules so certified shall, notwithstanding the declaration or other instrument filed under any general or special Act, be final and conclusive evidence of the rules in force on, from and after the date of the said certificate until any subsequent revision or amendment in like manner certified and filed, and so from time to time; and until so revised or amended and the revision or amendment is so certified, the prior certified rules shall be binding and obligatory upon all members of the corporation.

(4) Where at any time doubt arises as to what are the subsisting rules of the corporation, the Insurance Registrar may hear and determine the question, and his certificate filed as in the next preceding sub-section shall have the same effect as therein enacted. 60 V. c. 36, s. 163. Official determination in case of doubt.

164.—(1) The liabilities of any member of a friendly society under his contract shall at any date be limited to the assessments, fees and dues of which at that date notice has been actually given by the society. Limitation of member's liability in friendly society.

Provided that the society with the assent in writing of the Registrar of Friendly Societies may from time to time make other provision by its rules for the absolute severance of a member and the determination of his liability ; and such other rules, together with the written assent, shall be transferred to the office of the Provincial Registrar, there to be filed and indexed ; and on, from and after the day of the said assent, the said rules shall be binding and obligatory upon all the members until superseded by other provision in like manner filed.

Provided also that in no case shall the period over which the said assessments, fees and dues extend exceed twelve months.

(2) By paying or tendering payment of said assessments, fees and dues, and giving notice thereupon of his withdrawal by a writing delivered, or by registered letter to the society, any member shall become thereby released from all further liability under his contract. 60 V. c. 36, s. 164. Release from liability.

165.—(1) No forfeiture or suspension shall be incurred by any member of a friendly society, or person insured therein, by reason of any default in paying any contributions or assessment, except such as are payable at fixed dates, until after notice to the member stating the amount due by him, and apprising him that in case of default of payment by him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days, to the proper officer, to be specified in such notice, his interest or benefit will be forfeited or suspended, and until after default has been made by him in paying his contribution or assessment in accordance with such notice. "Fixed date" in this sub-section shall include any numbered day, or any Monday, Tuesday, (or as the case may be,) numbered, alternate, or recurring, of a stated month or months. Notice before forfeiture of benefit.

(2) For any purpose of this Act or of the rules of the society notice may be effectually given if written or printed notice is delivered, or by registered post prepaid is sent to the member, or left at his last known place of abode or of business, by or in behalf of the society. Proviso.

(3) Where under the rules or by-laws of the society a defaulting member is entitled to be reinstated on payment of Proviso.

arrears, after a stated number of days' default, this section shall not in any wise operate to prejudice the rights of such member.

Conditions of forfeiture to be just and reasonable.

(4) Where the benefit of the contract is stipulated to be suspended or reduced or forfeited for any other reason than for non-payment of premium moneys, or money in the nature thereof, no such additional condition suspending, reducing or forfeiting the benefit shall be valid, unless it is held by the Court, or Judge before whom a question relating to the contract is tried, to be just and reasonable under the circumstances of the case, such decision to be subject to review or appeal.

Proviso.

(a) Provided that in any contract of which total abstinence from intoxicating liquors is made an express condition, such condition shall be deemed to be just and reasonable. 60 V. c. 36, s. 165.

CONTRACTS OF FIRE INSURANCE.

1. General provisions. (All Fire Insurance Companies.)

Property which may be insured.

166. Every company licensed and registered for the transaction of fire insurance may, within the limits prescribed by the license and registry, insure or reinsure dwelling houses, stores, shops and other buildings, household furniture, merchandise, machinery, live stock, farm produce, and other commodities, against damage or loss by fire or lightning, whether the same happens by accident or any other means, except that of design on the part of the assured, or by the invasion of an enemy, or by insurrection. 60 V. c. 36, s. 166.

Terms of contracts.

167.—(1) Contracts of fire insurance shall not exceed the term of three years; and the insurance of mercantile and manufacturing risks shall, if on the cash system, be for terms not exceeding one year.

Proviso.

(a) Provided that contracts of mutual fire insurance by any mutual or cash-mutual fire insurance company may be for any term not exceeding four years.

Renewing contracts.

(2) Any contract that may be made for one year or any shorter period on the premium note system, or for three years or any shorter period on the cash system may be renewed at the discretion of the board of directors by renewal receipt instead of policy, on the insured paying the required premium, or in the case of a contract on the premium note system by giving a new premium note or undertaking; and any cash payments or premium notes for renewal shall be made at the end of the year, or other period for which the premium note was granted, otherwise the policy shall be null and void. 60 V. c. 36, s. 167; c. 3, s. 3.

2. Statutory Conditions and Provisions Relating Thereto.

(Binding all fire insurance contracts whatsoever in Ontario.)

Statutory conditions to be part of every policy unless varied.

168. The conditions set forth in this section shall, as against the insurer, be deemed to be part of every contract, (whether sealed, written or oral,) of fire insurance hereafter entered into or renewed or otherwise in force in Ontario with respect to any property therein or in transit therefrom or thereto, and shall be printed on every such policy with the heading Statutory Conditions, and no stipulation to the contrary, or providing for any variation, addition or omission, shall be binding on the assured unless evidenced in the manner prescribed by sections 169 and 170. 60 V. c. 36, s. 168.

Rev. Stat. 1887. c. 167, s. 114 (17), to apply to contracts in force at passing of 60 V. c. 36.

Provided that statutory condition 17 given in section 114 of The Ontario Insurance Act being chapter 167 of The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, shall, notwithstanding anything herein contained, apply to contracts of insurance in force prior to the 13th day of April, 1897. 60 V. c. 36, s. 198 (3).

Statutory Conditions.

Misrepresentation or omission.

1. If any person or persons insures his or their buildings or goods, and causes the same to be described otherwise than as they really are, to the prejudice of the company, or misrepresents or omits to communicate any circumstance which is material to be made known to the company, in order to enable it to judge of the risk it undertakes, such insurance shall be of no force in respect to the property in regard to which the misrepresentation or omission is made.

Policy sent to be deemed as applied for unless variance pointed out.

2. After application for insurance it shall be deemed that any policy sent to the assured is intended to be in accordance with the terms of the application, unless the company points out, in writing, the particulars wherein the policy differs from the application.

When a change as to risk shall avoid a policy. Notice of change, etc.

3. Any change material to the risk, and within the control or knowledge of the assured, shall avoid the policy as to the part affected thereby, unless the change is promptly notified in writing to the company or its local agent; and the company when so notified may return the premium for the unexpired period and cancel the policy, or may demand in writing an additional premium, which the assured shall, if he desires the continuance of the policy, forthwith pay to the company; and if he neglects to make such payment forthwith after receiving such demand, the policy shall be no longer in force.

Change of property.

4. If the property insured is assigned without a written permission indorsed hereon by an agent of the company duly authorized for such purpose, the policy shall thereby become void; but this condition does not apply to change of title by succession or by the operation of the law, or by reason of death

Partial damage—salvage.

5. Where property insured is only partially damaged, no abandonment of the same will be allowed unless by the consent of the company or its agent; and in case of removal of property to escape conflagration, the company will contribute to the loss and expenses attending such act of salvage proportionately to the respective interests of the company or companies and the assured.

Money, securities, etc.

6. Money, books of account, securities for money, and evidences of debt or title are not insured.

Plate, paintings, clocks, etc.

7. Plate, plate glass, plated ware, jewelry, medals, paintings sculptures, curiosities, scientific and musical instruments, bullion, works of art, articles of vertu, frescoes, clocks, watches, trinkets and mirrors are not insured unless mentioned in the policy.

Prior or subsequent insurance.

8. The company is not liable for loss if there is any prior insurance in any other company, unless the company's assent thereto appears herein or is indorsed hereon, nor if any subsequent insurance is effected by any other company, unless and until the company assents thereto, or unless the company does not dissent in writing within two weeks after receiving written notice of the intention or desire to effect the subsequent insurance, or does not dissent in writing after that time and before the subsequent or further insurance is effected.

Case of assent to other insurance.

9. In the event of any other insurance on the property herein described, having been assented to as aforesaid, then this company shall, if such other insurance remains in force, on the happening of any loss or damage, only be liable for the payment of a rateable proportion of such loss or damage without reference to the dates of the different policies.

Liability in case of non-ownership.

10. The company is not liable for the losses following, that is to say:

(a) For the loss of property owned by any other party than the assured, unless the interest of the assured is stated in or upon the policy;

Riot, invasion, etc.

(b) For loss caused by invasion, insurrection, riot, civil commotion, military or usurped power;

Chimneys, ashes, stoves.

(c) Where the insurance is upon buildings or their contents—for loss caused by the want of good and substantial brick or stone chimneys; or by ashes or embers being deposited, with the knowledge and consent of the assured, in wooden vessels; or by stoves or stovepipes being, to the knowledge of the assured, in an unsafe condition or improperly secured;

Goods to which fire heat is being applied.

(d) For loss or damage to goods destroyed or damaged while undergoing any process in or by which the application of fire heat is necessary;

(e) For loss or damage occurring to buildings or to their contents while the buildings are being repaired by carpenters, joiners, plasterers or other workmen, and in consequence thereof, unless permission to execute such repairs has been previously granted in writing, signed by a duly authorized agent of the company. But in dwelling houses fifteen days are allowed in each year for incidental repairs, without such permission; Repairs by carpenters, etc.

(f) For loss or damage occurring while petroleum, or rock-earth or coal oil, camphene, gasoline, burning fluid, benzine, naphtha or any liquid products thereof, or any of their constituent parts (refined coal oil for lighting purposes only, not exceeding five gallons in quantity, or lubricating oil not being crude petroleum nor oil of less specific gravity than required by law for illuminating purposes, not exceeding five gallons in quantity, excepted), or more than twenty-five pounds weight of gunpowder is or are stored or kept in the building insured or containing the property insured, unless permission is given in writing by the company. Gunpowder, coal oil, etc.

11. The company will make good loss caused by the explosion of coal gas in a building not forming part of gas works, and loss by fire caused by any other explosion or by lightning. Explosion. Lightning.

12. Proof of loss must be made by the assured, although the loss be payable to a third party. Proof of loss when payable to other than assured.

13. Any person entitled to make a claim under this policy is to observe the following directions: Directions to be observed on making claim.

(a) He is forthwith after loss to give notice in writing to the company;

(b) He is to deliver, as soon after as practicable, as particular an account of the loss as the nature of the casepermits;

(c) He is also to furnish therewith a statutory declaration declaring,

That the said account is just and true;

When and how the fire originated, so far as the declarant knows or believes;

That the fire was not caused through his wilful act or neglect, procurement, means or contrivance;

The amount of other insurances;

All liens, and incumbrances on the subject of insurance;

The place where the property insured, if movable, was deposited at the time of the fire;

(d) He is in support of his claims, if required and if practicable, to produce books of account, warehouse receipts and stock lists, and furnish invoices and other vouchers; to furnish copies of the written portion of all policies; to separate as far as reasonably may be the damaged from the undamaged goods, and to exhibit for examination all that remains of the property which was covered by the policy;

(e) He is to produce, if required, a certificate under the hand of a magistrate, notary public, commissioner for taking affidavits, or municipal clerk, residing in the vicinity in which the fire happened, and not concerned in the loss or related to the assured or sufferers, stating that he has examined the circumstances attending the fire, loss or damage alleged, that he is acquainted with the character and circumstances of the assured or claimant, and that he verily believes that the assured has by misfortune and without fraud or evil practice sustained loss and damage on the subject assured to the amount certified.

Proof of loss may be made by agent.

14. The above proofs of loss may be made by the agent of the assured, in case of the absence or inability of the assured himself to make the same, such absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for.

False statement or fraud vitiates claim.

15. Any fraud or false statement in a statutory declaration, in relation to any of the above particulars, shall vitiate the claim.

Arbitration in case of differences,

16. If any difference arises as to the value of the property insured, of the property saved, or of amount of the loss, such value and amount and the proportion thereof (if any) to be paid by the company shall, whether the right to recover on the policy is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions be submitted to the arbitration of some person to be chosen by both parties, or if they cannot agree on one person, then to two persons, one to be chosen by the party assured and the other by the company, and a third to be appointed by the persons so chosen, or on their failing to agree, then by the County Judge of the county wherein the loss has happened; and such reference shall be subject to the provisions of The Arbitration Act; and the award shall, if the company is in other respects liable, be conclusive as to the amount of the loss and proportion to be paid by the company; where the full amount of the claim is awarded the costs shall follow the event; and in other cases all questions of costs shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

Rev. Stat. c. 62.

Loss when payable.

17. The loss shall not be payable until sixty days after the completion of the proofs of loss, unless otherwise provided for by the contract of insurance.

18. The company, instead of making payment, may repair, rebuild or replace, within a reasonable time, the property damaged or lost, giving notice of their intention within fifteen days after receipt of the proofs herein required. Company may replace, instead of paying.

19. The insurance may be terminated by the company by giving notice to that effect, and, if on the cash plan, by tendering therewith a rateable proportion of the premium for the unexpired term, calculated from the termination of the notice: in the case of personal service of the notice, five days' notice, excluding Sunday, shall be given. Notice may be given by any company having an agency in Ontario by registered letter addressed to the assured at his last post office address notified to the company, or where no address notified, then to the post office of the agency from which the application was received; and where such notice is by letter, then seven days from the arrival at any post office in Ontario shall be deemed good notice: And the policy shall cease after such tender and notice aforesaid, and the expiration of the five or seven days as the case may be. Insurance terminable on notice.

(a) The insurance, if for cash, may also be terminated by the assured by giving written notice to that effect to the company or its authorized agent, in which case the company may retain the customary short rate for the time the insurance has been in force, and shall repay to the assured the balance of the premium paid.

20. No condition of the policy, either in whole or in part, shall be deemed to have been waived by the company, unless the waiver is clearly expressed in writing, signed by an agent of the company. Waiver of condition.

21. An officer or agent of the company, who assumes on behalf of the company to enter into any written agreement relating to any matter connected with the insurance, shall be deemed prima facie to be the agent of the company for the purpose. Officers assuming to agree in writing to be deemed agents.

22. Every action or proceeding against the company for the recovery of any claim under or by virtue of this policy, shall be absolutely barred, unless commenced within the term of one year next after the loss or damage occurs. Actions to be brought within one year.

23. Any written notice to a company for any purpose of the statutory conditions, where the mode thereof is not expressly provided, may be by letter delivered at the head office of the company in Ontario, or by registered post letter addressed to the company, its manager or agent, at such head office, or by such written notice given in any other manner to an authorized agent of the company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 168. [illegible] tutes written notice.

169. If the insurer desires to vary the said conditions, or to omit any of them, or to add new conditions, there shall be Variations how indicated.

added on the instrument of contract containing the printed statutory conditions words to the following effect; printed in conspicuous type and in ink of a different colour.

Variations in Conditions.

"This policy is issued on the above Statutory Conditions with the following variations and additions:

"These variations (or as the case may be) are, by virtue of the Ontario Statute in that behalf, in force so far as, by the Court or Judge before whom a question is tried relating thereto, they shall be held to be just and reasonable to be exacted by the company." 60 V. c. 36, s. 169.

Variations not binding unless clearly indicated.

170. No such variation, addition or omission, shall, unless the same is distinctly indicated and set forth in the manner or to the effect aforesaid, be legal and binding on the assured; and no question shall be considered as to whether any such variation, addition or omission is, under the circumstances, just and reasonable, but on the contrary, the policy shall, as against the insurer, be subject to the statutory conditions only, unless the variations, additions or omissions are distinctly indicated and set forth in the manner or to the effect aforesaid.

Optional with insurers to pay claims void under certain statutory conditions.

Provided it shall be optional with the insurers to pay or allow claims which are void under the 3rd, the 4th, or the 8th Statutory Condition, in case the insurers think fit to waive the objections mentioned in the said conditions, 60 V. c. 36, s. 170.

Policy containing other than statutory conditions.

171. In case a policy is entered into or renewed containing or including any condition other than or different from the conditions set forth in section 168 of this Act, if the said condition so contained or included is held, by the Court or Judge, before whom a question relating thereto is tried, to be not just and reasonable, such condition shall be null and void. 60 V. c. 36, s. 171.

172.—(1) Where, by reason of necessity, accident or mistake, the conditions of any contract of fire insurance on property in this Province as to the proof to be given to the insurance company after the occurrence of a fire have not been strictly complied with; or where after a statement or proof of loss has been given in good faith by or on behalf of the assured, in pursuance of any proviso or condition of such contract, the company through its agent or otherwise, objects to the loss upon other grounds than for imperfect compliance with such conditions or does not within a reasonable time after receiving such statement or proof notify the assured in writing that such statement or proof is objected to, and what are the particulars in which the same is alleged to be defective, and so from time to time; or where, for any other reason, the Court or Judge before whom a question relating to such insurance is tried or inquired into, considers it inequitable that the insurance should be deemed void or forfeited by reason of imperfect compliance with such conditions—no objection to the sufficiency of such statement or proof or amended or supplemental statement or proof (as the case may be) shall, in any of such cases be allowed as a discharge of the liability of the company on such contract of insurance wherever entered into.

or, if full compliance adjudged inequitable.

In above cases liability and policy not vacated.

(2) If in any action or proceeding upon a contract of fire insurance, the assured, being plaintiff in such action or proceeding, has in the opinion of the Court or Judge, wilfully neglected or unreasonably refused to furnish necessary information respecting the property for which the insurance money is claimed, and if as a consequence of such neglect or refusal, the defendant company has been at expense in obtaining information or evidence, the Court or Judge may, in disposing of costs, take into consideration the expense so incurred by the defendant company. 60 V. c. 36, s. 172.

Allowance for costs occasioned by default of plaintiff.

173. A decision of a Court or Judge under this Act shall be subject to review or appeal to the same extent as a decision by such Court or Judge in other cases. 60 V. c. 36, s. 173.

Decisions under Act subject to ordinary right of appeal.

INVESTIGATION OF FIRES.

[See Chapter. 275.]

INSPECTION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES LICENSED BY THE PROVINCE.

174.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint an officer to be called the Inspector of Insurance, who shall act under the instructions of the Minister, and his duty shall be to examine and report to the Minister from time to time upon all matters connected with insurance, as carried on by the companies licensed by the Province under this Act.

Appointment of Inspector.

(2) The salary of the Inspector shall be such sum per annum as the Legislature shall, from time to time determine; and it shall be lawful to provide from time to time such assistance as may be found necessary. 60 V. c. 36, s. 176.

Salary.

175. The Inspector shall keep on file the various documents required by this Act to be filed in his office, and shall keep a record of all licenses issued by the Minister. 60 V. c. 36, s. 177.

Inspector to keep papers on file.

176.—(1) The Inspector of Insurance shall, personally or by deputy, visit the head office of every such company in Ontario at least once in every year, and shall carefully examine the statement of the company as to its condition and affairs and report thereon to the Minister, as to all matters requiring his attention and decision.

Inspection of books and papers.

(2) In order to facilitate the inspection of an insurance company's books and papers, the company may be required by the Inspector to produce, and thereupon the company shall produce the said books and papers at the county town of the county in which the head office of the insurance company is situated, or at such other convenient place as the Inspector may direct. The officer or officers of the company who have custody of the books shall be entitled to be paid by the company for the actual expenses of such attendance.

Annual report.

(3) The Inspector shall from such examination prepare and lay before the Minister an annual report of the condition of every company's business, as ascertained from such inspection, and such report shall be published forthwith after the completion thereof.

Powers of inspector.

(4) It shall be the duty of the officers or agent of the company to cause their books to be open for the examination of the Inspector, and otherwise to facilitate the examination so far as may be in their power; and the Inspector or deputy aforesaid, shall have power to examine under oath any officer or agent of the company relative to its business.

Report of inspector.

(5) A report of all companies so visited shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose, with notes and memoranda, showing the condition of each company; and, where a special examination has been made, a special written report shall be communicated to the Minister, stating the Inspector's opinion of the condition and financial standing of the company, and all other matters desirable to be made known to the Minister.

Entries, untrue or omitted.

Access to books and papers.

(6) Every director, officer, manager, agent, collector, auditor or employee of a company, who, knowingly makes or assists to make any untrue entry in any of the company's books, or who refuses or neglects to make any proper entry therein, or to exhibit the same or allow the same to be inspected and extracts to be taken therefrom shall be guilty of an offence, and the procedure and penalty shall be as enacted in subsection 7 of section 83 of this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 178.

Provision if company appears unsafe

177.—(1) If it appears to the Inspector that the assets of any company are insufficient to justify its continuance of business, or that the company is unsafe for the public to effect insurance with, he shall make a special report on the affairs of the company to the Minister.

Suspending license of company.

(2) After full consideration of the report and a reasonable time being given to the company to be heard, and if, after such further inquiry and investigation (if any), as he may see proper to make, the Minister reports to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that he agrees with the Inspector in the opinion expressed in his report, then, if the Lieutenant-Governor in Council also concurs in such opinion, an Order in Council may issue, suspending or cancelling the license of the company, and prohibiting the company from doing any further business, and thereafter it shall not be lawful for the company to do any further business in Ontario, until the suspension or prohibition is removed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 60 V. c. 36, s. 179.

Notice of suspension of license.

178. Notice of the suspension or cancelling of any license and prohibition from doing any further business, shall be published in the Ontario Gazette; and thereafter any person transacting any business in behalf of the company, except for winding up its affairs pursuant to section 7, shall be deemed to have contravened section 35, and shall be liable for each offence to the penalty enacted in the said section. 60 V. c. 36, s 180.

Examination of company's affairs.

179. Wherever the affairs of any insurance company doing business in Ontario appear to require the same, the Inspector of Insurance, with the approval of the Minister, may, at the expense of the company, have abstracts prepared of its books and vouchers and a valuation made of the assets and liabilities; and the certificate of the Inspector approved of by the Minister, shall be conclusive as to the expenses to be paid by the company in respect thereof. 60 V. c. 36, s. 181.

Inspector and officers not to be interested in any company.

180. The Inspector of Insurance, or any officer under him, shall not be interested as shareholders directly or indirectly with any insurance company doing business in Ontario. 60 V. c. 36, s. 182.

Contribution from companies to expenses.

181.—(1) Towards defraying the expenses of the office of the Inspector, a sum not exceeding $3,000 shall be annually contributed by the companies required to be licensed by the Province under this Act.

Mode of determining the amount of contribution to expenses.

(2) The amount to be annually contributed by the insurance companies under the provisions of the last preceding sub-section shall be assessed pro rata and based on the gross amount at risk as shown by the books of the several companies on the 31st day of December next preceding.

Time and manner of payment.

(3) All sums under this Act payable to the Provincial Treasurer shall be so paid before the issue of the license, and, in any disputed case, the Minister's certificate, or approval of an account certified by the Inspector, shall as to the amount so payable by each or any company be held to be conclusive. 60 V. c. 36, s. 183.

VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION OF PROVINCIAL INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Voluntary liquidation.

182.—(1) Where a Provincial Insurance Company other than a Dominion licensee proposes to go into voluntary liquidation, at least one month's notice in advance shall be given to the Minister and to the Insurance Registrar, and like notice shall also be published by the company in two consecutive issues of the Ontario Gazette, and in some other newspaper if the Registrar so require; and the notice shall state the date at which contracts are to cease to be taken by the company, also the name and address of the company's liquidator, or the intention of the company to apply on a stated day for the appointment of a liquidator.

Disposal of reserve at winding up of company.

(2) At the winding up of a Provincial Mutual or Cash-Mutual Fire Insurance Company, after notice has been given as required by sub section 1, it shall be lawful for the directors of such company to re-insure out of the reserve or surplus funds the unexpired contracts for which premiums or premium notes have been taken.

Re-insuring companies.

(3) Such reinsurance shall be effected in some company registered to transact business in the Province and approved by the Minister.

Unearned premiums.

(4) When any company is wound up each person contracted with on the cash plan shall be entitled to a refund from the company for the unearned proportion of the cash premium calculated from the date at which the company, according to the notice in sub-section 1, ceased to undertake contracts; but this shall not destroy or defeat any other remedy such person may have against the company in respect thereof or for any other cause.

Receiver to give bonds; their form, amount and custody.

(5) Every receiver (including therein every liquidator or assignee) of a Provincial insurance company other than a Dominion licensee, shall, forthwith, give such bonds or securities for his fidelity as would be required of a receiver under section 186; and in case of dispute or doubt, the Master in Ordinary upon motion of any creditor or person interested, or of the Insurance Registrar, shall conclusively determine the kind and amount of such bonds or securities. The bonds or securities given by any receiver shall be made and deposited as enacted in subsection 9 of the said section.

Receiver to file statements.

(6) Every liquidator or receiver under this section shall (until the affairs of the company are wound up and the accounts are finally closed) within seven days after the close of each month, file with the Court or other authority appointing him, and also with the Insurance Registrar, detailed schedules showing, in such form as may be required, receipts and expenditures, also assets and liabilities, and he shall, whenever by the authority appointing him, or by the Insurance Registrar so required to do, exhibit the company's books and vouchers, and furnish such other information respecting the company's affairs as may be required; and any receiver, assignee or liquidator refusing or neglecting to furnish such information, shall, for each offence, be subject to a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $200, to be recovered on behalf of Her Majesty for the use of this Province; and he shall in addition render himself liable to be dismissed or removed. '60 V. c. 36, s. 184.

VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES, OR OF THE INSURANCE FUNDS THEREOF: DISSOLUTION BY A SOCIETY OF ITS SUBORDINATE BRANCHES OR LODGES; AMALGAMATION OF BRANCHES OR LODGES.

Friendly society or fund may be voluntarily wound up.

183 —(1) Any registered friendly society (being a Provincial corporation), or any insurance fund thereof, may be voluntarily wound up after resolution (hereinafter called the winding-up resolution) passed in that behalf in a general meeting, ordinary or special, after at least one month's notice of such intended resolution. Such resolution may be assented to and filed as provided in subsection 3 of section 163, and, after such assent and filing, the resolution shall have the same legal effect as therein enacted. Such resolution may provide for the transfer of the liabilities and assets of the society or of the fund to some other corporation.

Liquidator to be appointed by winding up resolution.

(2) Where there are assets to be realized, distributed, disposed of or dealt with, the winding-up resolution shall appoint a competent and otherwise suitable person as liquidator, and shall fix the amount of his bonds (which shall be of sufficient amount for the purposes of liquidation), and shall state the amount and form of his compensation. Unless otherwise provided in the winding-up resolution, the then executive officers (other than such one, if any, of the number as is appointed liquidator) shall act as a committee of inspection and shall audit the liquidator's accounts at least once a month until his accounts are closed, and shall certify their audit.

Documents to be filed with Registrar.

(3) Preliminary to any winding up or transfer under this section, there shall be filed with the Insurance Registrar a statement made by one or more of the executive officers of the society or fund, declaring, upon oath, the facts and circumstances of the case, and annexing to the statement as exhibits a true copy of the winding-up resolution, and also a financial statement showing in such form as shall be required the liabilities and assets of the society or of the fund; such other information then and from time to time during the winding up shall be furnished as the Insurance Registrar may require, and the provisions of subsections 5 and 6 of section 182 shall apply to a liquidator under this section.

Liquidator's bonds and accounts.

Endowment fund may be distributed.

(4) Where, in such a society as mentioned in subsection 1, endowment or expectancy insurance is transacted and there exists an endowment fund separate and distinct from the life insurance fund, then, by a resolution passed by a majority of the persons assembled in a general meeting, ordinary or special, after at least one month's notice of such intended resolution, the society may determine that the endowment or expectancy insurance shall be discontinued, and that the endowment or expectancy fund shall be distributed pro rata among the members then in good standing (contributors to such fund) according to the total contribution of each such member to the fund. After the resolution has been assented to and filed, as provided in sub-section 1, the executive officers of the society may proceed to ascertain the persons legally entitled to rank upon the fund, and may distribute the fund among those so entitled; and such distribution shall discharge the society and all executive officers thereof from all further or other liability in respect of such fund and in respect of endowment or expectancy contracts undertaken by the society.

Or may be converted into life insurance fund.

(5) In such case as mentioned in sub-section 4, if all the members interested in the endowment or expectancy fund are also interested as holders of life insurance contracts, then the general meeting or the majority of the members present thereat instead of determining that the endowment or expectancy fund shall be distributed, may determine that such fund shall be converted into, or merged in a life insurance fund; and after the said resolution has been assented to and filed as provided in subsection 1, the endowment or expectancy fund shall be deemed to have become and to be a life insurance fund.

No endowment insurance to be thereafter transacted.

(6) After the passing of such a resolution as mentioned in subsection 4 or subsection 5, it shall be unlawful for the society thereafter to undertake or transact any endowment or expectancy insurance whatsoever.

Dissolution of subordinate branches and lodges.

(7) If the registered society at any time revokes the warrant or charter under which a subordinate branch or lodge is operated (whether such branch or lodge is incorporated or not) such revocation shall be certified in duplicate by the presiding officer and the secretary of the society under the seal thereof; one of the said duplicates shall be filed with the Registrar of of Friendly Societies, the other with the Provincial Registrar; and this certificate from the filing thereof in the office of the Provincial Registrar, shall, ipso facto, operate to dissolve the subordinate branch or lodge, and to vest its property, assets, funds and effects in the presiding officer and the secretary of the registered society and their successors in office, as trustees for the creditors and persons beneficially entitled; and the surplus (if any) after the liabilities are satisfied, shall vest in the registered society to its own use absolutely.

Amalgamation of lodges

(8) A registered society organized on the lodge plan may by a general or special by-law or by-laws provide for the amalgamation of two or more of its subordinate branches or lodges, and for the transfer of the liabilities and assets to the new or continuing branch or lodge.

Master in Ordinary to finally dispose of doubts, difficulties or disputes.

(9) In any winding up, transfer or dissolution under this section, or under section 182, if doubts, difficulties or disputes arise as to any matter whatsoever, the Insurance Registrar or the liquidator, or any of the committee of inspection, or any person interested in the estate may apply to the Master in Ordinary who shall finally dispose of the matter; and the said Master may on the motion of any of the said persons remove the liquidator and appoint another liquidator, or do any other matter or thing which the Master might do in the winding-up begun or proceeding under sections 184 to 195 of this Act; or upon the motion of the said persons or of the said committee, the said Master may by order remove into his office the winding up, transfer or dissolution which shall thereafter proceed as if begun or proceeding under the said sections.

Duration of winding up; s. 189 (4) to apply.

(10) The duration of any winding-up under this section shall not be prolonged beyond the period mentioned in sub section 4 of section 189, all the provisions of which subsection shall apply to a liquidator under this section.

How proceedings may be entitled.

Notice.

(11) For the purposes of any motion or other proceeding under this section or section 182, it shall be sufficient to entitle the proceeding as in the matter of this Act and of the Insurance corporation or fund concerned; and at least two clear days' notice of motion shall be given unless otherwise directed by the said Master. 60 V. c. 36, s. 185.

COMPULSORY LIQUIDATION OF PROVINCIAL INSURANCE CORPORATIONS.

Application of sections 185 to 195.

184.—(1) Sections 185 to 195 inclusive shall apply to Provincial insurance corporations other than those being wound up under sections 182 and 183, and other than licensees of the Dominion of Canada within the meaning of section 59.

(a) Where the corporation is not constituted exclusively or chiefly for insurance purposes, and the insurance branch and fund are completely severable from every other branch and fund of the corporation, then the word "corporation" for the purposes of sections 185 to 195 inclusive, shall mean only the insurance branch of the corporation.

Case of two or more custodians of funds, etc.

(2) To such corporations the said sections shall apply where the accounts, account books, and insurance fund are in the charge, custody, possession or power of two or more persons; and in such case the words "receiver" and "interim receiver" shall include all of such persons unless and until other appointment or other disposition of the matter is made by the Court.

Commencement of winding up.

(3) The winding up of any corporation under this Act shall be deemed to commence at the beginning of the day on which the corporation became unregistered in terms of section 76; and where the corporation is constituted for the transaction of insurance exclusively, its corporate powers shall ipso facto cease and determine except for the sole purpose of winding up its affairs.

Effect of winding up.

(4) After the date of the commencement of the winding up, any transfer of shares unless made by authority of the High Court, or any alteration in the status of members of the corporation shall be void; and no suit, action or other proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the corporation except by leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court imposes; and every attachment, sequestration, distress or execution put in force against the estate of the corporation shall be void.

Cesser of contracts of employment.

(5) All contracts of employment entered into by the corporation shall ipso facto cease and determine at the commencement of the winding up.

No marshalling of assets, nor preference of creditors except as enacted.

(6) In any winding up under this Act all the funds, assets and property of the liquidating corporation or any liquidating branch or lodge thereof shall be deemed general assets of the liquidating corporation, branch or lodge, respectively, for the payment of all debts of the corporation, branch or lodge respectively, and shall not be applied to the payment of any particular debts, preferentially or exclusively, except as otherwise herein expressly enacted. 60 V. c. 36, s. 186.

Effect of certain events or of non-registry.

185.—(1) Upon the happening of any of the events mentioned in subsection 1 of section 76, or upon notice given by the Insurance Registrar of the corporation's registry being cancelled, or where a corporation neglects to register or renew its registry, the treasurer or other officer of the corporation in Ontario having in his charge, custody, possession or power the accounts, account books and insurance funds of the corporation, or the liquidator, if any, appointed under Chapter 183 of these Revised Statutes, shall ipso facto, and during the pendency of an action or appeal, if any, become interim receiver for the corporation and an officer of the High Court subject to its control and direction, and shall so remain unless and until other appointment or other disposition of the matters is made by the Court.

Remedies by the estate against receiver.

Receiver to deposit forthwith in bank.

(2) The interim receiver shall forthwith deposit in the chartered bank prescribed by Rule 405 of the Consolidated Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Judicature, all moneys and securities for money in the charge, custody, possession or power of the corporation or of himself as officer of the corporation, and shall from time to time so deposit all further moneys and securities that come into his possession or power as receiver, unless and until otherwise ordered by the Court.

Bank to give receipts.

(3) On receiving from the interim receiver the moneys and securities for money of the corporation, together with his written notice that by virtue of this Act, the insurance corporation (naming it) has become unregistered, and that he is interim receiver for the same, the bank shall give the interim receiver a receipt for the moneys, and a separate receipt for the securities, specifying each security, each receipt being in triplicate; and the said receipts shall acknowledge the moneys and the securities respectively to have been deposited by the interim receiver (naming him) to the credit of the unregistered insurance corporation (naming it), and as subject to the order of the High Court, and such moneys and securities when so deposited shall be held to be deposited to the joint credit of the said unregistered corporation and of the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario.

Interest on moneys deposited.

(4) The payment of interest on the moneys so deposited in the bank shall be governed by the same rules as in the case of money received by the bank to the credit of a cause.

Notice that the assets are a fund in Court.

(5) Notice from the Insurance Registrar to any person or corporation that the registry of an insurance corporation has been revoked or cancelled, or that the corporation has become unregistered, shall be sufficient notice that the funds and securities of the unregistered corporation are subject solely to the order of the High Court. 60 V. c. 36, s. 187.

Application to be filed by interim receiver in Master's office.

186.—(1) After depositing the moneys and securities in the bank as required by subsection 2 of section 185, the interim receiver shall forthwith file an application in the office of the Master to the effect of Schedule B to this Act.

Bank receipt and affidavit to be filed with the application.

(2) Together with the foregoing application the interim receiver shall file in the office of the Master one of each of the triplicate receipts given by the bank as aforesaid, and also an affidavit to the effect of Schedule C to this Act, the necessary variations being made where by operation of this Act, two or more persons are made interim receiver, and join in the affidavit; and the interim receiver shall forthwith deliver another of the triplicate receipts to the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, at Osgoode Hall, Toronto.

Before whom the affidavit may be sworn.

(3) Such affidavit may be sworn to before any person duly authorized to administer oaths in any legal proceeding.

Securities previously given by receiver to remain in force.

(4) Until the interim receiver is discharged from his office, or until new securities are taken from him by order of the Court, the securities given by him to the corporation and in force at the cesser of registry, shall continue in as full force and validity as if the corporation had continued to be registered.

The Master to issue his certificate of the filing and call in the securities.

(5) On the filing of the documents specified in this section the Master shall issue to the interim receiver his certificate of the filing, and shall issue his order to the person or persons having in his or their charge, custody possession or power the securities mentioned in the next preceding subsection, to deliver the same forthwith at the Master's office to be filed, and on any refusal neglect or delay to obey the order, such person or persons shall be liable to be committed for contempt of Court as provided in sections 185 and 188.

Non-delivery punishable as a contempt.

Where no securities exist, or the securities are not satisfactory or sufficient.

(6) If there are no such securities as mentioned in sub-section 5, or if the existing securities are not in the opinion of the Master satisfactory or sufficient the Master may order the interim receiver within a time limited to give securities or to give other or additional securities; and on the interim receiver's default of compliance, the Master may remove him and appoint another interim receiver.

Guarantee company's bond as security.

(7) The Master may accept as the receiver's security the bond of any guarantee company duly registered under this Act.

Bonds, etc., of receiver to be made to Insurance Registrar.

(8) The bonds, guarantee policies or other securities of every receiver under this Act shall be made to the Insurance Registrar, and when approved by the Master, shall be transferred to the Insurance Registrar to be deposited and remain in the same custody as securities deposited by insurance companies under this Act.

Insurance Registrar to be corporation sole, for purposes of holding receivers' securities.

(9) For the purposes of holding the securities of the receiver, and all estate therein, to the use of the unregistered corporation, the Insurance Registrar shall be a corporation sole, by the name of "Insurance Registrar for Ontario," and the said Registrar as such corporation sole, shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued, may plead and be impleaded in any of Her Majesty's Courts in this Province.

Receivers' securities heretofore made.

(10) All securities heretofore made to any person or persons, other than the Insurance Registrar and in force at the passing of this subsection, shall forthwith be assigned and transferred to the Insurance Registrar, to be deposited and remain in the same custody as prescribed by subsection 8 of this section. 60 V. c. 36, s. 188.

Place and time to be appointed for hearing application.

187.—(1) The Master in and by the certificate of filing mentioned in sub-section 5 of section 186, or by ex parte order or otherwise, may appoint a place and a time, (such time being not less than twenty-one days from the date of the certificate or order), at which time he will hear the application of the interim receiver and will confirm the interim receiver in his office, or appoint another receiver, or make such other disposition of the matter as shall appear proper.

Public notice of application and of the hearing.

(2) Public notice shall be given by the interim receiver of his application and of the place and time appointed by the Master for the hearing of the same; such notice shall be published in two issues of the Ontario Gazette, and once a week for two weeks in a newspaper published in the county where the head office or chief office of the unregistered corporation is situated, and a copy of the notice shall be delivered to the Insurance Registrar at his office, at least ten days before the day appointed for the hearing of the application, and the notice shall be to the effect of Schedule D to this Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 189.

On default of interim receiver Master may appoint another.

188.—(1) If the person or persons made interim receiver by this Act or by order hereunder, fail to comply with the provisions of section 185 within eight days after becoming interim receiver, then the Insurance Registrar or any policy holder, or certificate holder, or any claimant or creditor may on motion, supported by an affidavit declaring the facts, move the Master to issue his certificate of default, and may by the same or subsequent motion, move the Master to appoint an interim receiver, and to appoint a place and time for confirming such interim receiver in his office, or for disposing of the matter otherwise, and upon such motion or motions the Master may issue his certificate of default, and may appoint an interim receiver and make such further order or orders as seem necessary or expedient for securing the property of the corporation.

Duties of new interim receiver.

(2) An interim receiver appointed by the Master shall under the direction of the Master, take immediate possession of the moneys and securities for moneys of the corporation, and shall thereafter perform all the duties required of an interim receiver by this Act, and on default of performance shall be liable to the penalties imposed by this Act.

Proceedings on default of compliance.

(3) On any non-compliance by an interim receiver or by any officer, agent or employee of the corporation with any provision of sections 185 and 186 or with any order made, or summons or direction issued by the Master under this Act, then upon motion as enacted in sub-section 1 of this section, any of the persons therein mentioned may move the Master to issue his certificate of the default, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such default for the purposes of any proceedings taken by any of such persons, under sections 185 and 186, or under subsection 5 of this section.

Motion to commit.

(4) A motion to commit such defaulter may on two clear days' notice be made before a Judge of the High Court in Chambers.

Penalty for non-compliance with sections 185 and 186 after notice.

(5) If any person or persons made interim receiver by this Act or by order hereunder, receive from the Insurance Registrar notice under his hand and the seal of his office directing such person or persons to comply with the provisions of section 185, or of section 186, and if the person or persons so notified do not within ten days after the notice delivered comply accordingly, such person or persons shall each and every of them be guilty of an offence, and upon summary conviction thereof before any Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed, be liable to a penalty not exceeding $500 and costs and not less than $100 and costs, and in default of payment the offender shall be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding three months and not less than one month; and on a second or any subsequent conviction, he shall be imprisoned with hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months and not less than three months.

Application of s. 185 (4, 5, 7).

(6) All the provisions contained in sub-sections 4, 5 and 7 of section 185 shall apply in the case of an offence committed under this section.

Evidence.

(7) The provisions contained in section 74 shall apply to evidence in any cause, matter, proceeding or trial, arising under or out of this section. 60 V. c. 36, s. 190.

Disposal of application by Master.

189.—(1) At the place and time appointed for hearing the application mentioned in section 186 the Master may confirm the interim receiver in or discharge him of his office, and may appoint another person to be receiver, or with the consent in writing of the Insurance Registrar, may then or afterwards dispense with a receiver, and generally, may make then or afterwards, such disposition of the matter as will best expedite the beneficial realization of the assets, the discharge of the liabilities, and the distribution of the surplus among the persons entitled. Provided that, where there is no receiver, the procedure shall, as nearly as may be, conform to the procedure herein prescribed for winding up with a receiver; and the assets shall be realized and distributed by or under the direction of the Master among the persons entitled thereto, in the same way, as nearly as may be, as if the distribution were being made by the receiver; a Judge of the High Court may make an order directing how the books, accounts and documents of the corporation and of the receiver are to be disposed of, and may order that they be deposited in Court, or otherwise dealt with as may be thought fit. Provided also that in any case there shall not be more than one receiver at any one time, except with the consent in writing of the Insurance Registrar.

Proviso.

Trust company as receiver.

(2) The Master may appoint as receiver any trust company approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and accepted by the High Court as a trust company.

Powers of the Master.

(3) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, the Master shall decide upon the security or securities to be given by the receiver, upon the mode and amount of his compensation; shall fix the times for the submission and passing of his accounts; shall settle advertisements deemed to be necessary; shall determine what persons are entitled to notice of any matter or proceeding, and the time, mode and form of notice to be given; shall settle and determine lists of the debtors and the contributories and the amounts which they are respectively liable to pay and contribute to the assets of the estate; and shall also settle and determine the claims of creditors, and the amounts to which they are respectively entitled, and all matters of set-off affecting or alleged to affect such debts, contributions or claims; shall direct the realization of assets, the discharge of liabilities and the distribution of the surplus; and shall make such orders and issue such directions as will best effectuate the provisions of this Act; and generally shall have all the powers which might be exercised on any reference to him under a judgment or order of the High Court. Orders and certificates made by the Master under this Act, shall be appealable to a Judge of the High Court in like manner as other orders and certificates of the Master, and so far as not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the Rules of the Supreme Court of Judicature shall apply to all proceedings under this Act. Consolidated rules to apply.

(4) In fixing the receiver's remuneration his efficiency and expedition in winding up shall be considered; in no case shall the winding up be prolonged beyond the space of one year from the commencement, except for special and urgent cause shown to the satisfaction of the Insurance Registrar, and when prolonged beyond the said period for such cause so shown the Insurance Registrar by a consent in writing shall limit a day for the final closing of the books and accounts of the estate. Where the creditors are subjected to delay or the estate to expense by any want of care, diligence or efficiency in the receiver, the Master or a Judge in Chambers on an appeal from the Master, on motion of the Insurance Registrar or of any creditor, contributory or other person interested in the estate may impose a fine on the receiver of not less than $20 nor more than $200 and costs, which thereupon shall be deemed to be a debt adjudged due from the receiver to the estate, and execution may issue forthwith or the amount may be charged against any remuneration already earned by but not yet paid to the receiver. Remuneration of receiver. Duration of winding up. Laches of receiver.

(5) Under the direction of the Master the receiver shall as far as practicable, act personally in all matters relating to the estate, shall attend on correspondence, give notices, file or copy documents, prepare schedules, make calls on persons found or adjudged subject thereto, and shall personally perform such other duties and services in the receivership as may from time to time be proper and necessary in the business of the receivership; and no costs shall be paid or allowed for the performance of duties or services which properly devolve upon the receiver personally, either within the intent of this Act or by virtue of any law or practice relating to receivers in force in Ontario. 60 V. c. 36, s. 191. Receiver to act personally as far as practicable.

190. Every receiver shall be subject to the summary jurisdiction of the Court, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as the ordinary officers of the Court are subject to its jurisdiction; and the performance of his duties may be compelled, and all remedies sought or demanded for enforcing any claim for a debt, privilege, mortgage, lien or right of property, upon, in or to any effects or property, in the hands, possession or custody of a receiver, may be obtained by an order of the Court on summary petition, and not by action, suit attachment, seizure or other proceeding of any kind whatsoever; and obedience by the receiver to such order may be enforced by the Court under the penalty of imprisonment, as for contempt of court, or disobedience thereto; and in the discretion of the Court he may be removed, and with or without removal of the receiver, the Court may order the amount of any damage, loss or costs, ascertained to have Receiver subject to summary jurisdiction of Court. Remedies against estate obtained by summary order.

been occasioned to the estate by his misconduct, misfeasance, laches or neglect, to be deducted from his remuneration earned, or to be paid by him or his sureties. 60 V. c. 36, s. 187 (2)

Form of advertisement for creditors.

191.—(1) The advertisement for or notice to creditors or claimants shall be to the effect of the form in Schedule E. hereto.

Certain claims to be collocated without other proof than company's books, etc.

(2) Upon the evidence mentioned in sub-section 10 of section 74 of this Act (unless upon error shown to the satisfaction of the Master), and without the creditor or claimant filing further or other proof or making any formal claim or giving notice, the receiver shall prepare each in duplicate the three several schedules next hereinafter mentioned with the amount for which or having relation to which each creditor or claimant appears entitled to rank on the assets. Upon the said several amounts being verified to the satisfaction of the Master, and in the absence of contestation by any person interested, or party, the creditor or claimant shall be collocated and ranked accordingly.

Three schedules of claimants to be prepared.

Schedule of preferred creditors.

(3) The first of the said three schedules may be described as the Schedule of Preferred Creditors. This schedule shall include the names, addresses and descriptions of the persons mentioned in sub-section 7 of section 195 hereof, together with the total amount to which, on the aforesaid evidence, (particular reference being made to the book and page, or as the case may be) the said persons are severally entitled, together also with the amount in respect of which they are severally entitled to rank as preferred creditors.

Schedule of ordinary creditors.

(4) The second of the said schedules may be described as the Schedule of Ordinary Creditors. The schedule shall include those preferred creditors who, in respect of an unpreferred residue, are entitled to rank as ordinary creditors and the amount in each case of such residue; also all creditors entitled to claim under policies matured before the commencement of the winding up, or under policies having at that date a fixed surrender value, or under policies unmatured at the commencement of the winding up, but secured by deposit under this Act, together with the following particulars in the case of each policy, viz.: The number and description of the policy, the date of issue (and in the case of any life insurance policies the age of the assured at date of issue) the name and address of the assured, and of his assignee, if any, the amount for which the policy was issued and the value of the policy or of the unearned premiums, as the case may be, taken as at the commencement of the winding up, and in the case of policies issued for a term of years, the date of the expiry of the term. The said second schedule shall further include particulars of the several obligations other than policies issued by the corporation and outstanding at the commencement of winding up, with the names of the obligees and payees, and the value of the said obligations taken as at that date, and shall also include the names and addresses, so far as known, of all other persons entitled to rank upon the assets not being persons and claims falling within the scope of the first and third of these schedules.

Schedule of the unmatured and unsecured policies.

(5) The said third schedule may be described as the Schedule of Unmatured and Unsecured Policies. This schedule shall include all policies in force at the commencement of the winding up, but not falling within the scope of the said second schedule, and shall furnish the like particulars as therein mentioned, except as to the value of the policy, and shall further show the aggregate of the contributions made by the assured to the reserve or surplus fund, if any, of the corporation; and in any distribution of any surplus assets the distributive share under any policy shall be proportionate to the said aggregate of contributions by the assured, with or without interest thereon, as the Master under the circumstances may deem to be just; Provided that where the registry of the corporation was cancelled for insolvency or impending insolvency, or where the Master is of opinion that the assets of the estate are insufficient or not more than sufficient to pay in full the claims entitled to be ranked in the said first and second schedules, the Master may dispense with the preparation of the said third schedule.

Proviso.

Schedules of debtors and creditors.

(6) As soon as may be after the commencement of the winding up the receiver shall prepare Schedules of Debtors and Contributories. The Schedule of Debtors shall show the names and addresses (so far as the addresses can be ascertained) of all persons actually indebted to the estate or against whom the estate holds obligations or accounts accruing due with particulars of the same, and of the securities if any held by the estate, reference being in every case made to the books, or vouchers relating thereto. The Schedule of Contributories shall show the names and addresses (so far as the addresses can be ascertained) of all members of the corporation and persons who are subject to call, or otherwise liable to contribute to the assets of the estate, and the extent of such liability, giving the like reference to books and vouchers.

Schedules to be in triplicate; how disposed of.

(7) The several schedules in this subsection mentioned shall be prepared by the receiver in triplicate; one of the triplicates verified by his oath shall be filed in the Master's office; another shall be delivered to the Insurance Registrar; and the third shall be kept in the receiver's office, and made accessible on demand to all persons interested in the estate. 60 V. c. 36, s. 192.

Procedure after expiry of the time limited for claims.

192. (1) After the expiration of the time limited by the advertisement for creditors or notice to claimants, the Master shall then proceed without delay to settle and determine the list of creditors and the claims of alleged creditors, and the amounts to which those persons by him adjudged to be creditors are respectively entitled; also to settle and determine the lists of debtors and contributories and the amounts they severally are liable to pay or contribute to the assets of the corporation; also to settle and determine all matters of set-off affecting or alleged to affect such claims against, or debts or contributions to the estate. The Master shall have authority to disallow and exclude all claims of which notice was not given within the time limited; and thereafter he shall report directing a distribution of the assets among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which the receiver had notice within the time limited; but it shall also be competent for the Master to make an interim report or reports whenever deemed advisable; and, when deemed necessary, to direct the payment of an interim dividend or interim dividends. It shall not be necessary or advisable to procure an order for the payment out of Court of any dividend declared by the Master's report, after the said report becomes absolute or confirmed by lapse of time or is affirmed on final appeal as the case may be. Such payment out shall be made by the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature upon the production of the report with a certificate by the said Master, certifying the date of the filing and that the said report has become absolute, or has been affirmed on final appeal as the case may be.

Inquiry into misfeasances and defaults of directors, etc.

(2) Where, in the course of winding up a corporation under this Act, it appears to the Master or to the Insurance Registrar that any past or present trustee, auditor, director, manager, officer, official, receiver or liquidator of the corporation has misapplied or retained in his own hands or become liable or accountable for any money, assets, or property of the corporation, or has been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust or duty in relation to the corporation, or whose conduct in the management of the affairs of the corporation has been such as in the opinion of the Insurance Registrar to require investigation, the Master, on the application of the Insurance Registrar, and after at least ten days' notice served on the person or on the several persons whose conduct or dealings are to be investigated, shall, and is hereby authorized and empowered, notwithstanding that the offence is one for which the offender is criminally responsible, to examine into the conduct and dealings of the said person or persons, and report to the Court his conclusions upon the evidence; and where the Master by his report finds as a fact that such default or misfeasance has been committed, and ascertains the loss to the estate thereby, and ascertains the person or persons who committed the act or acts of default or misfeasance, or breach of trust or duty, the Master by his report may direct the said person or persons severally or jointly, or jointly and severally to pay to the estate a certain sum or sums of money with or without interest, and with costs if any, occasioned by the default, misfeasance or breach of trust or duty, or the Master may by his report disallow any account that such defaulter or misfeasant may have for his services or salary, and the report of the Master when made shall be subject to the provisions of this Act as to filing, confirmation and enforcement. 60 V. c. 36, s. 193.

Filing of Master's report and notice of filing.

193.—(1) Where any report is made, the Master shall deliver it to the receiver, and the receiver shall forthwith file the same in the Master's office, or if the matter or proceeding is in Toronto, or the County of York, then in the proper office at Osgoode Hall; and thereupon, in the Ontario Gazette and in a newspaper issued at or nearest the place where the head office of the unregistered corporation is situate, the receiver shall give notice of the date of filing; the receiver shall also forthwith deliver a copy of the report to the Insurance Registrar and notice of the day of filing; the receiver shall also keep in his own office a copy of the report indorsed with the date of filing, and make the same accessible on demand to all persons interested in the estate.

Effect of report becoming absolute.

(2) Upon any report of the Master (or the said report as amended on appeal, if any) becoming absolute under the rules of the Court, every person ascertained by the report to be indebted in a specified sum to the estate of the corporation shall ipso facto and without further proceedings, and as after final judgment be deemed and be debtor to the estate in the sum specified, and thereafter the Master may under his hand certify that by his report dated and filed in on the day of 18 (supplying the necessary particulars) the person or persons named in the certificate has or have been found indebted to the estate of the unregistered corporation (naming it) in the sum of $ with $ interest (if any) and $ costs (if any).

Fee.

(a) A fee of 25 cents shall be payable to a Local Master in respect of each certificate under this subsection.

Transcript of judgment.

(3) The receiver or the Insurance Registrar thereupon by præcipe or requisition directed to the clerk of any Division Court or County Court, or to the proper officer of the High Court, may require the said certificate to be entered as a judgment of the Court, and thereupon it shall be entered accordingly, and thereafter the receiver or the Insurance Registrar may take any proceedings or process for the enforcing and collecting judgment that could be had or taken for the like purpose upon any judgment of the said Court.

General writ of execution within county.

(4) Where the Master finds that certain contributories or other persons liable to pay to the estate any sum of money damages or costs reside within the county or bailiwick of any sheriff, he may direct one writ of execution to issue commanding the sheriff to execute the said writ against the goods and lands of each of the persons named therein in respect of the sum of money, damages or costs specified as payable by each of the said persons respectively; and thereupon the sheriff shall proceed to execute the said writ of execution as he would if separate writs of execution for the sum of money, damages or costs had been issued against each of the said persons respectively.

Purchase of assets by officers, etc., prohibited.

(5) Any purchase of assets of the unregistered or liquidating corporation, or of any member's right to rank on the assets, or of a member's dividend by any person directing, managing, auditing, or employed by the corporation within three years next before receivership or liquidation, or any such purchase by any receiver, or liquidator or inspector of the estate is hereby absolutely prohibited, and any pretended purchase or assignment such as aforesaid shall be utterly void. This subsection shall apply to any winding up of an insurance corporation under any Act of this Province. 60 V. c. 36, s. 194; [illegible].

Books, etc., of receiver to be accessible to Insurance Registrar.

194.—(1) The books, financial statements, schedules, accounts and vouchers of every receiver under this Act shall be accessible to the Insurance Registrar, or to any person authorized under his hand and seal, as enacted by section 82; and if any receiver refuses or neglects to afford such access, or if he makes a wilfully false statement or untrue entry, he shall be guilty of an offence as against subsection 7 of section 83, all the provisions of which sub-section shall apply in the case of an offence committed against this subsection.

Receiver to deposit moneys in bank.

(2) Unless and until otherwise ordered by the court, the receiver shall forthwith deposit in the bank prescribed by subsection 2 of section 185, to the credit of the unregistered insurance corporation all moneys by him from time to time received, and, ten days before the day appointed for the passing or taxation of any account, or bill of costs, he shall deliver a certified copy of the account, or bill of costs to the Insurance Registrar at his office and obtain his receipt therefor; and within five days after the passing or taxation of any account or bill of costs, the receiver shall in like manner deliver to the Insurance Registrar a certified copy of the account or bill of costs as passed or taxed. A duplicate of the account or bill of costs to be passed or taxed shall by the person rendering the same be supplied without charge to the receiver to be by him certified and delivered to the Insurance Registrar.

Default of receiver in leaving or passing accounts, etc.

(4) Where any insurance corporation is being wound up under this Act or under any other Act of this Province, the Insurance Registrar shall be a competent party for commencing or prosecuting any action, matter or proceeding relative to the estate of the corporation, or to a receiver or liquidator thereof, or to the sureties of or securities given by either; and to every such action, matter or proceeding otherwise taken, commenced or prosecuted and to every taxation, retaxation, review or revision of costs affecting the estate, the Insurance Registrar shall be a competent and necessary party. Insurance Registrar a party.

(5) Vacations in the High Court shall not apply to proceedings under sections 182 to 195 of this Act; and any proceedings, reports or appeals under the said sections may be brought, made and carried on in such vacations. (9 V. c. 36, s. 195). High Court vacations not to apply to proceedings under sections 182 to 195.

COSTS: PRIORITIES.

195.—(1) Except by consent in writing of the Insurance Registrar no counsel or solicitor shall be employed to act for the receiver or others at the expense of the unregistered corporation or of its funds or estate. Employment of counsel or solicitor by receiver.

(2) A minute entered in the Master's book shall have the same force as a formal order or direction; and except in special cases, no costs shall be allowed for attending on or taking out a formal order or direction. A copy of any minute certified under the hand of the Master shall be competent evidence thereof, and for every such certificate a fee of 50 cents shall be payable. Minute on Master's book to have force of formal order or direction.

(3) The Local Master or other local officer after taxing any bill of costs payable wholly or in part out of the estate shall forthwith transmit the same for revision to the proper taxing officer at Toronto, as directed by the Rules of the Supreme Court in the case of the costs in actions or proceedings where the amount is to be paid out of a fund in court, all of which said rules shall, where not inconsistent with this Act, apply to the costs of all matters and proceedings in any receivership, liquidation, or winding up under this Act. Revision of taxed costs.

(4) The costs of any matter or proceeding in the Master's office under this Act shall be on the County Court scale. Costs in Master's office to be on County Court scale.

(5) The taxed costs of any action, matter or proceeding taken by the Insurance Registrar, or by the receiver with the written consent of the Insurance Registrar, shall be paid out of the funds or estate of the corporation; but, except with the said consent, no costs shall be allowed out of the estate for separate, or other representation of members or certificate holders of the corporation or for the representation of any class of members or certificate holders; the costs of all other actions, matters, or proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Court. Costs of proceedings in winding up.

Costs of winding up to be first charge on estate.

(6) All costs charged and expenses properly incurred in the receivership and winding up of the corporation, including the remuneration of the receiver, shall be payable out of the assets of the corporation in priority to all other claims.

Clerks and wage earners to be preferred creditors.

(7) Subject to the foregoing provisions, the Master in distributing the assets of the corporation under this Act, shall pay in priority to the claims of the ordinary or general creditors, the salary or wages of all clerks and wage-earners in the employment of the corporation due at the date when the corporation became unregistered or within one month before, not exceeding three months' salary or wages, and such persons shall be entitled to rank as ordinary or general creditors for the residue of their claims. 60 V. c. 36, s. 196.

Where fifty or more persons, being owners of live stock in the Province of Ontario, have signed their names in the subscription book, and bound themselves to effect insurances in the company, which in the aggregate shall amount to $50,000 at least, a meeting shall be called, as hereinafter provided. 52 V. c. 33, s. 5.

How meeting to be called.

6.—(1) As soon as convenient after the subscription book has been completed in manner aforesaid, any ten of the subscribers thereto may call the first meeting of the company, at such time and place within the municipality as they may determine; such meeting shall be called by sending a printed notice by mail, addressed to every subscriber at his post office address, at least ten days before the day of the meeting, and by advertisement in one or more papers published in the county in which the municipality is situated.

(2) The said notice and advertisement shall contain the object of the meeting and the time and place at which it is to be held. 52 V. c. 33, s. 6.

Election of directors.

7.—(1) At such meeting the name and style of the company, including the appellations "Live Stock" and "Mutual," shall be adopted, and a secretary ad interim appointed, and a board of directors elected as hereinafter provided and the place named at which the head office of the company shall be located.

(2) To constitute a valid meeting for the purposes of the next preceding subsection, at least twenty-five of the aforesaid subscribers must be present.

(3) In case of a county or township the head office may be in any city, town or village within the boundaries of the county or township, or in any city, town or village adjacent thereto. 52 V. c. 33, s. 7.

Documents to be filed in registry office.

8.—(1) Copies of the resolutions adopting the name or style and the place of the head office of the company and of the subscription book, and the names of the directors elected shall thereupon be made; and all such documents certified as correct under the hands of the chairman and secretary, shall be filed in the registry office.

Thereon the corporation formed.

(2) Upon the filing of such documents, with the certificate, the subscribers and all other persons thereafter effecting mutual insurance in the company, shall become members of the company and shall be a body corporate by and under the name so adopted. 52 V. c. 33, s. 8 (1, 2).

Forfeiture of corporate powers. Rev. Stat. c. 203.

9. The corporate powers of the company shall be forfeited by non-user, or by discontinuance of business, or by suspension or cancellation of license as provided in section 7 of The Ontario Insurance Act. 52 V. c. 33, s. 8 (3).

Meeting of directors to elect officers.

10. As soon after the aforesaid meeting as convenient, the secretary ad interim shall call a meeting of the board of directors, for the election of a president and vice-president from amongst themselves, for the appointment of a secretary, treasurer or manager, and the transaction of such other business as may be brought before them. 52 V. c. 33, s. 9.

Copies of resolutions, subscription books, and statements of proposed business to be transmitted to insurance inspector.

11. After the company has filed in the registry office, the documents mentioned in section 7, and before the company transacts or shall be entitled to transact any insurance business, the chairman and secretary shall transmit or deliver like copies, duly certified by them to be true copies and indorsed by the registrar as having been duly filed, to the Inspector at his office in Toronto, accompanied by a statement signed by the chairman and secretary, stating the kind and character of the risks intended to be taken by the company, and whether the company has been organized and incorporated as a mutual or as a cash-mutual company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 10.

Inquiries to be made by Inspector receiving statement.

12. Upon receipt of such certified copies and of the aforesaid statement by the Inspector, he shall proceed to ascertain whether the proceedings for the incorporation of the company have been taken in accordance with the law in that behalf, and whether the subscriptions are bona fide, and by persons possessing property to insure, and whether the proposed name is the same as that of any existing company, or may be easily confounded therewith, and he may require the declaration of any person or persons upon oath to be filed with him, touching any matters concerning which he is called upon to make inquiry. 52 V. c. 33, s. 11.

On report of Inspector the Minister may issue license.

13.—(1) If, upon examination, the Inspector finds that the said subscriptions have been made in good faith by persons entitled to make the same, and that the proposed name is satisfactory, and that the company has complied with this Act in respect of deposit, and in all other respects, the Minister may thereupon issue a license under his hand and seal setting forth that it has been made to appear to him that the company has complied with the requirements of the law, and that the company is accordingly licensed to transact the kind of business specified in the license, for a term therein also specified, but not exceeding twelve months from the date of issue; but such license may from time to time be renewed as hereinafter provided. 52 V. c. 33, s. 12.

(2) The company so licensed shall be entitled to be registered by the Insurance Registrar under and subject to the provisions of The Ontario Insurance Act. 60 V. c. 36, s. 58. Registry of company so licensed. Rev. Stat. c. 203.

14. Where a change of name or of head office is desired by the company, application may be made as provided in section 40 of The Ontario Insurance Act, and the said section shall be taken and read as part of this Act, as shall also the following sections of The Ontario Insurance Act, that is to say: sections 41 to 52 inclusive (relating to government deposits), and section 53 (relating to license). 52 V. c. 33, s. 13; 60 V. c. 36, s. 41 (2) (4 (d),). Change of name or of head office. Rev. Stat. c. 203.

15. The company may admit as a member thereof, the owner of any live stock, and may insure the same, and every person admitted as a member of the company by the insurance shall be entitled to the like rights, and be subject to the like liabilities as other members of the company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 14. Power to admit members and insure.

16. No member of any mutual insurance company to which this Act may apply shall be liable in respect of any loss or other claim or demand against the company, otherwise than upon and to the extent of the amount unpaid upon his premium note or undertaking. 52 V. c. 33, s. 15. Liabilities of members.

17. Any member of the company may, with the consent of the directors, withdraw therefrom upon such terms as the directors may lawfully require. 52 V. c. 33, s. 16. Members withdrawing.

18. A meeting of the members for the election of directors shall be held in every year, within two months after the thirty-first day of December in each year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 17. Annual meeting for election of directors.

19. At annual meetings, in addition to the election of directors, a report of the transactions of the company for the year ending on the previous thirty-first day of December, shall be presented and read, together with a full and unreserved statement of its affairs, exhibiting receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities, said statement having been first audited by two competent persons not directors, agents or employees of the company, and having been by the said auditors certified over their signatures as correct. 52 V. c. 33, s. 18. Annual report and statement.

20. Notice of any annual or special meeting of the members of the company shall be published in one or more newspapers for at least two weeks previous to the day of the Notice of annual or special meetings.

meeting; and a board of directors may convene at any time a general meeting of the company upon any urgent occasion, giving notice thereof as herein provided. 52 V. c. 33, s. 19.

Members to have votes proportionate to the amount of their insurance.

21. Each member of the company shall be entitled, at all meetings of the company, to the number of votes proportioned to the amount by him insured, according to the following scale, that is to say: for any sum under $1,500, one vote; from $1,500 to $3,000, two votes; from $3,000 to $6,000, three votes; and one vote for every additional $3,000; but no member shall be entitled to vote while in arrear for any assessment or premium due by him to the company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 20.

Right of applicants to vote.

22. No applicant for insurance shall be competent to vote or otherwise take part in the company's proceedings until his application and premium note have been accepted by the board of directors. 52 V. c. 33, s. 21.

Qualification of directors.

23. The directors shall be members of the company, and insured therein, for the time they hold office, to the amount of $200 at least. 52 V. c. 33, s. 22.

Number of directors to be determined by resolution.

24.—(1) The board of directors shall consist of six, nine, twelve or fifteen directors, as shall be determined by resolution passed at the meeting held under section 7 or at an annual meeting of the company, or at a special general meeting called for the purpose of such determination and election.

(2) The number of directors constituting such board may from time to time be increased or decreased, if so decided at a special general meeting of the company called for the purpose, or at an annual meeting, if notice in writing of the intention to move a resolution for that purpose at such annual meeting is given to the secretary of the company at least one month before the holding of the meeting; but the increased or decreased number of directors shall in any such case be six, nine, twelve or fifteen as aforesaid. 52 V. c. 33, s. 23.

Copy of resolution and list of directors to be filed.

25. A copy of the resolution specified in the last preceding section, together with a list of the directors elected thereunder, both documents being duly certified under the hands of the chairman and secretary of the annual meeting or special general meeting aforesaid, shall be filed in the office of the Inspector and also in the registry office. 52 V. c. 33, s. 24.

Retirement of directors in rotation.

26. Of the directors elected, as hereinbefore provided, one-third shall retire annually in rotation, and at the first meeting of the directors, or as soon thereafter as possible, it shall be determined by lot which of them shall hold office for one, two or three years respectively, and the determination shall be entered of record as part of the minutes of said first meeting. 52 V. c. 33, s. 25.

27. At every annual meeting of the company thereafter, one third of the total number of directors shall be elected for a period of three years, to fill the places of the retiring members, who shall be eligible for re-election. 52 V. c. 33, s. 26. Annual election to fill vacancies.

28. The manager of a mutual insurance company may be a director of the company, and may be paid an annual salary, but only under a by-law of the company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 27. Manager may be a director. His salary.

29. No agent or paid officer, or person in the employment of the company, other than the manager, shall be eligible to be elected a director, or shall be allowed to interfere in the election of directors for the company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 28. Certain persons not eligible to be elected directors.

30. The election of directors shall be held and made by such members of the company as attend for that purpose in their own proper persons. 52 V. c. 33, s. 29. Election of directors.

31. The election of directors shall be by ballot. 52 V. c. 33, s. 30. Mode of election.

32. If at any such election two or more members have an equal number of votes, in such manner that a less number of persons than the whole number to be elected appear to have been chosen directors by a majority of votes, then the said members of the company shall proceed to elect by ballot, until it is determined which of the persons so having an equal number of votes shall be the director or directors, so as to complete the whole number of directors to be elected; and the directors shall at their first meeting after any such election, proceed to elect by ballot among themselves, a president and vice-president, and at such election the secretary shall preside. 52 V. c. 33, s. 31. Case of a tie at an election. Election of a president and vice-president.

33. If a vacancy happens among the directors during the term for which they have been elected, by death, resignation, ceasing to have the necessary qualification under section 23 of this Act, insolvency, or by being absent, without previous leave of the board, from the board for three regular meetings in succession, which shall ipso facto, create such vacancy, the vacancy shall be filled up, until the next annual meeting, by any person duly qualified, to be nominated by a majority of the remaining directors, and as soon as may be after the vacancy occurs; and at the next annual meeting the vacancy shall be filled for the portion of the term still unexpired. 52 V. c. 33, s. 32. Vacancies in office of director, how filled up.

34. In case an election of directors is not made on the day on which it ought to have been made, the company shall not for that cause be dissolved, but the election may be held on a subsequent day, at a meeting to be called by the directors, or as otherwise provided by the by-laws of the company, and in Provision in case of failure to elect directors on proper day.

such case the directors shall continue to hold office till their successors are elected. 52 V. c. 33, s. 33.

Quorum of directors.

35. Three directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and in case of an equality of votes at any meeting of the board, the question shall pass in the negative. 52 V. c. 33, s. 34.

Directors disagreeing may record their dissent.

36. A director disagreeing with the majority of the board at a meeting, may have his dissent recorded, with his reasons therefor. 52 V. c. 33, s. 35.

Appointment of manager and other officers.

37. The board of directors may from time to time appoint a manager, secretary, treasurer, and such other officers, agents, or assistants, as to them seem necessary; prescribe their duties, fix their compensations or allowances, take such security from them as is required by this Act for the faithful performance of their respective duties, and remove them and appoint others instead; the board may also adopt a table of rates, premiums, or premium notes, as the case may be, and vary such table from time to time, and determine the amount of the contract to be undertaken; they may hold their meetings monthly, or oftener if necessary, for transacting the business of the company; and they shall keep a record of their proceedings. 52 V. c. 33, s. 36.

Board may adopt a tariff of rates.

Meetings of the board.

The board may pass by laws.

38.—(1) The board may from time to time make and prescribe such by-laws as to them appear needful and proper, respecting the funds and property of the company, the duty of the officers, agents and assistants thereof, the effectual carrying out of the objects contemplated by this Act, the holding of the annual meeting, and all such other matters as appertain to the business of the company, and are not contrary to law, and may from time to time alter and amend the said by-laws, except in cases with regard to which it is provided that any such by-laws shall not be repealed, or where the repeal would affect the rights of others than the members of the company, in any of which cases such by-law shall not be repealed.

When by laws are not repealable.

When by-law of board to have effect as by-law of company.

(2) Every by-law of the board shall be duly entered in the minutes, and when confirmed at any subsequent meeting of the members, shall be held to be, and have the same force and effect as, a by-law of the company.

By-laws to be filed with Inspector.

(3) There shall be filed with the Inspector copies of all by-laws that may from time to time be passed by the company or the board. 52 V. c. 33, s. 37.

Board to manage property, etc., of company.

39. The board shall superintend and have the management of the funds and property of the company, and of all matters relating thereto, and not otherwise provided for. 52 V. c. 33, s. 38.

Re-insurance of risks.

40. The board may make arrangements with any other company licensed to transact live stock insurance business in the Province for the re-insurance, on such conditions with respect to the payment of premiums thereon as may be agreed between them. 52 V. c. 33, s. 39.

Investment of capital and funds of the company.

Recovery of assessments.

41. The board may, in the name of the company, invest the capital and funds of the company in any stock, debentures, or other securities in which trustees may invest trust money, and may, if a mutual or cash-mutual company, in the name of the company, recover from any member of such company, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, any premium or assessment upon his premium note payable by him. 52 V. c. 33, s. 40.

Directors may issue debentures and promissory notes for loans; assets of the company to be liable for the same.

42.—(1) The board may issue debentures or promissory notes in favour of any person, firm, building society, banking or other company, for the loan of money, and may borrow money therefrom on such debentures or promissory notes for any term not exceeding twelve months, and on such conditions as they think proper, and may renew the same from time to time for any such term, the whole of the assets, including premium notes of the company, being held liable to pay the same at maturity, but no such debenture or promissory note shall be for a less sum than $100.

Amount of debentures, etc., limited.

(2) All the debentures and promissory notes at any one time outstanding shall not exceed one-fourth of the amount remaining unpaid upon the same premium notes. 52 V. c. 33, s. 41.

Land that may be held by the company.

43. Every company may hold such lands only as are requisite for the accommodation of the company, in relation to the transaction of their business, or such lands as have been bona fide mortgaged to them by way of security, or conveyed to them in satisfaction of debts contracted in the course of their dealings previous to such conveyance, or purchased at sales upon judgments obtained for such debts, and may from time to time sell and convey or lease any such lands. 52 V. c. 33, s. 42.

Loans to or from directors, forbidden.

44. No company shall contract with any director or officer thereof for any loan or credit, or borrowing of money, and every such attempted loan or borrowing is hereby prohibited; and any contract in violation of this section shall be void. 52 V. c. 33, s. 43.

Treasurer of company to give security.

45. The treasurer of the company or other officer having charge of the money of the company shall give security to the satisfaction of the board of directors in a sum of not less than $2,000 for the faithful discharge of his duties. 52 V. c. 33, s. 44.

Remuneration of directors.

46. At any annual meeting of the members of the company, or at any special general meeting thereof, if such purpose was clearly expressed in the notice of the special general meeting, it shall be lawful to enact by-laws or pass resolutions for the remuneration of the directors of the company, and copies of such by-laws or resolutions shall, within one week after their passing, be filed with the Inspector, with whom also shall be filed copies of all other by-laws that may from time to time be enacted by the company or by the board of directors. 52 V. c 33, s. 45.

Company to keep classification and books.

Rev. Stat. c. 203.

47.—(1) Every company shall keep such a classification of its contracts, and such registers and books of account as are by section 87 of The Ontario Insurance Act required to be kept by registered insurance corporations; and the provisions of the said section 87 shall apply to companies to which this Act applies. 60 V. c. 36, s. 87; c. 3, s. 3.

(2) The books and records by this section required to be kept shall include only contracts within the intent of section 48 of The Ontario Insurance Act. 52 V. c. 33, s. 46 (2).

Yearly statement, what it must show and how it must be verified.

48.—(1) It shall be the duty of the president, vice-president, or managing director, secretary, or manager, and treasurer, when the secretary is not also treasurer of the company, to prepare annually under oath, and file with the Insurance Registrar, on the first day of January, or within one month thereafter, a statement of the condition and affairs of the company on the 31st of December then next preceding, exhibiting assets, liabilities, receipts and expenditure, in such form and with such items and detail as are required of registered insurance corporations under section 96 of The Ontario Insurance Act, the provisions of which section shall apply to companies to which this Act applies. 52 V. c. 33, s. 47; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Rev. Stat. c. 203.

Penalty for contravention of above section.

49. Any violation of the next preceding section shall subject the company violating the same to a penalty of $200 for every violation, and of the additional sum of $100 for every month during which the company neglects to file such affidavits and statements as are therein required; if such penalties are not paid, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may order such company's license to be suspended or cancelled, as may be deemed expedient. 52 V. c. 33, s. 48.

Report of Insurance Registrar.

Rev. Stat. c. 203.

50. From the annual statement, filed as aforesaid, the Insurance Registrar shall annually prepare a report which shall be incorporated with the report prescribed by section 97 of The Ontario Insurance Act. 52 V. c. 33, s. 49; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Term of contracts.

51. (1) Contracts of live stock insurance shall not in any case exceed the term of two years.

(2) Any contract that may be made for one year or any shorter period, may be renewed at the discretion of the board of directors by renewal receipts instead of policy, on the insured paying the required premiums, or giving his premium note or undertaking; and all cash payments for renewal shall be made at the end of the year, or other period for which the policy was granted, otherwise the policy shall be void: Provided that no premium note taken under any contract of insurance shall exceed forty per centum or be less than ten per centum per annum of the sum insured. 52 V. c. 33, s. 50. Renewing policies. Proviso.

52. The company may, within the limits prescribed by the license, insure against loss of live stock by fire, lightning, accident, disease or any other means, except that of design on the part of the insured, or by the invasion of an enemy, or by insurrection. 52 V. c. 33, s. 51. Property which may be insured.

53. All contracts of live stock insurance issued by the board of directors, sealed with the seal of the company, signed by the president or vice-president, and countersigned by the secretary or acting secretary, shall be binding on the company. 52 V. c. 33, s. 52. Policies to be binding on the company.

54. The party insured shall if insured against loss on the mutual plan, be liable to pay his proportion of the losses and expenses of the company to the time of cancelling the policy, and, on payment of his proportion of all assessments then payable and to become payable in respect of losses and expenses sustained up to such period, shall be entitled to a return of his premium note or undertaking. 52 V. c. 33, s. 53. Cancellation of policies.

55. The conditions set forth in this section shall as against the insurers, be deemed to be a part of every contract, whether sealed, written or oral, of live stock insurance hereafter entered into or renewed or otherwise in force in Ontario with respect to any property therein or in transit therefrom or thereto, and shall be printed on every policy with the heading Statutory Conditions; and no stipulation to the contrary, or providing for any variation, addition or omission, shall be binding on the assured unless evidenced in the manner prescribed by sections 56 and 57 52 V. c. 33, s. 54. Statutory conditions to be part of every contract unless varied.

STATUTORY CONDITIONS.

1. If any person or persons insures his or their live stock and causes the same to be described otherwise than as they really are, to the prejudice of the company, or misrepresents or omits to communicate any circumstance which is material to be made known to the company, in order to enable it to judge of the risk it undertakes, such insurance shall be of Misrepresentation or omission.

no force in respect to the property in regard to which the misrepresentation or omission is made.

Policy sent to be deemed as applied for unless variance pointed out.

2. After application for insurance, it shall be deemed that any policy sent to the assured is intended to be in accordance with the terms of the application, unless the company points out, in writing, the particulars wherein the policy differs from the application.

Change of property.

3. If the property insured is, during the term of contract, pledged, mortgaged, sold or assigned without a written permission indorsed hereon by an agent of the company duly authorized for such purpose, the contract shall thereby become void: but this condition does not apply to change of title by succession, or by the operation of law, or by reason of death.

Salvage.

4. In case of the removal of the insured live stock to escape conflagration or other imminent danger, the company will contribute to the loss and expenses attending such act of salvage proportionately to the respective interests of the company or companies and the insured.

Prior or subsequent insurance.

5. The company is not liable for loss if there is any prior insurance in any other company, unless the company's assent thereto appears herein or is indorsed hereon, nor if any subsequent insurance is effected in any other company, unless and until the company assents thereto, or unless the company does not dissent in writing within two weeks after receiving written notice of the intention or desire to effect the subsequent insurance, or does not dissent in writing after that time and before the subsequent or further insurance is effected.

Liability in case of

6. The company is not liable for the losses following, that is to say:

Non-ownership.

(a) For loss of live stock owned by any other party than the assured, unless the interest of the assured is stated in or upon the policy;

Riot, invasion, etc.

(b) For loss caused by invasion, insurrection, riot, civil commotion, military or usurped power;

Proof of loss when payable to other than assured.

7. Proof of loss must be made by the assured, although the loss be payable to a third party.

Directions to be observed on making claim.

8. Any person entitled to make a claim under this policy is to observe the following directions:

(a) He is forthwith after loss to give notice in writing to the company;

(b) He is to deliver, as soon afterwards as practicable, as particular an account of the loss as the nature of the case permits;

(c) He is also to furnish therewith a statutory declaration, declaring,

That the said account is just and true;

When and how the loss was caused, so far as the declarant knows or believes;

That the loss was not caused through his wilful act or neglect, procurement, means or contrivance;

The amount of other insurances;

All liens and incumbrances on the subject of insurance;

The place were the live stock insured was at the time of the loss;

(d) He is to produce, if required, a certificate under the hand of a Magistrate, Notary Public, Commisioner for taking affidavits, or Municipal Clerk, residing in the vicinity in which the loss happened, and not concerned in the loss or related to the assured or sufferers, stating that he has examined the circumstances attending the loss alleged, that he is acquainted with the character and circumstances of the assured or claimant, and that he verily believes that the assured has by misfortune and without fraud or evil practice sustained loss on the subject assured, to the amount certified.

Proof of loss may be made by agent.

9. The above proofs of loss may be made by the agent of the assured, in case of the absence or inability of the assured himself to make the same, such absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for.

False statement or fraud vitiates claim.

10. Any fraud or false statement in a statutory declaration, in relation to any of the above particulars, shall vitiate the claim.

Arbitration in case of differences.

11. If any difference arises as to the value of the property insured, of the property saved, or amount of the loss, such value and amount and the proportion thereof (if any) to be paid by the company, shall, whether the right to recover on the policy is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions, be submitted to the arbitration of some person to be chosen by both parties, or if they cannot agree on one person, then to two persons, one to be chosen by the party assured and the other by the company, and a third to be appointed by the persons so chosen, or on their failing to agree, then by the County Judge of the county wherein the loss has happened; and such reference shall be subject to the provisions of The Arbitration Act; and the award shall, if the company is in other respects liable, be conclusive as to the amount of the loss and proportion (if any) to be paid by the company; where the full amount of the claim is awarded, the costs shall follow the event; and in other cases, all questions of costs shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

Rev. Stat. c. 62.

Loss when payable.

12. The loss shall not be payable until sixty days after completion of the proofs of loss, unless otherwise provided for by the contract of insurance.

Insurance terminable on notice.

13. The insurance may be terminated by the company by giving notice to that effect, and, if on the cash plan, by tendering therewith a rateable proportion of the premium for the unexpired term, calculated from the termination of the notice; in the case of personal service of the notice five days' notice, excluding Sunday, shall be given. Notice may be given by any company having an agency in Ontario, by registered letter addressed to the assured at his last post-office address notified to the company, or, where no address notified, then to the post-office of the agency from which application was received, and where such notice is by letter, then seven days from the arrival at any post-office in Ontario, shall be deemed good notice: And the policy shall cease after such tender and notice aforesaid, and the expiration of the five or seven days as the case may be.

(a) The insurance, if for cash, may also be terminated by the assured by giving written notice to that effect to the company or its authorized agent, in which case the company may retain the customary short rate for the time the insurance has been in force, and shall repay to the assured the balance of the premium paid.

Waiver of condition.

14. No condition of the policy, either in whole or in part, shall be deemed to have been waived by the company, unless the waiver is clearly expressed in writing, signed by an agent of the company.

Officers assuming to agree in writing to be deemed agents.

15. Any officer or agent of the company who assumes on behalf of the company to enter into any written agreement relating to any matter connected with the insurance, shall be deemed prima facie to be the agent of the company for the purpose.

Actions to be brought within one year.

16. Every action or proceeding against the company for the recovery of any claim under or by virtue of this policy, shall be absolutely barred, unless commenced within the term of one year next after the loss or damage occurs.

What constitutes written notice.

17. Any written notice to a company for any purpose of the statutory conditions, where the mode thereof is not expressly provided, may be by letter delivered at the head office of the company in Ontario, or by registered post letter addressed to the company, its manager or agent, at such head office, or by such written notice given in any other manner to an authorized agent of the company. 52 V. c. 33. s. 54.

Variations, how indicated.

56. If a company desires to vary the said conditions, or to omit any of them, or to add new conditions, there shall be added, on the instrument of contract containing the printed statutory conditions, words to the following effect, printed in conspicuous type and in ink of different colour:—

"VARIATIONS IN CONDITIONS.

"This policy is issued on the above Statutory Conditions, with the following variations and additions :—

"These variations (or as the case may be) are, by virtue of the Ontario Statute in that behalf, in force so far as, by the Court or Judge before whom a question is tried relating thereto, they shall be held to be just and reasonable to be exacted by the company." 52 V. c. 33, s. 55.

Variations not binding unless clearly indicated.

57. No such variation, addition or omission shall, unless the same is distinctly indicated and set forth in the manner or to the effect aforesaid, be legal and binding on the assured; and no question shall be considered as to whether any such variation, addition or omission is, under the circumstances, just and reasonable, but on the contrary, the policy shall, as against the insurers, be subject to the Statutory Conditions only, unless the variations, additions or omissions are distinctly indicated and set forth in the manner or to the effect aforesaid. 52 V. c. 33, s. 56.

Policy containing other than statutory conditions.

58 Where a policy is entered into or renewed containing or including any condition other than or different from the conditions set forth in section 55 of this Act, if the said condition so contained or included is held, by the Court or Judge before whom a question relating thereto is tried, to be not just and reasonable, such condition shall be null and void. 52 V. c. 33, s. 57.

59. Where, by reason of necessity, accident or mistake, the conditions of any contract of live stock insurance on property in this Province as to the proof to be given to the insurance company after the occurrence of a loss, have not been strictly complied with; or where, after a statement or proof of loss has been given in good faith by or on behalf of the assured, in pursuance of any provision or condition of such contract, the company, through its agent or otherwise, objects to the loss upon other grounds than for imperfect compliance with such conditions, or does not within a reasonable time after receiving such statement or proof notify the assured in writing that such statement or proof is objected to, and what are the particulars in which the same is alleged to be defective, and so from time to time; or where, for any other reason, the Court or Judge before whom a question relating to such insurance is tried or inquired into, considers it inequitable that the insurance should be deemed void or forfeited by reason of imperfect compliance with such conditions—no objection to the sufficiency of such statement or proof or amended or supplemental statement or proof (as the case may be) shall, in any of such cases, be allowed as a discharge of the liability of the company on or, if full compliance adjudged inequitable, in above cases, liability and policy not vacated.

such contract of insurance wherever entered into. 52 V. c. 33, s. 58.

Appeal.

60. A decision of a Court or Judge under this Act shall be subject to review or appeal to the same extent as a decision by such Court or Judge in other cases. 52 V. c. 33, s. 59.

Justices of the Peace, etc., may swear and examine witnesses regarding loss.

61.—(1) Any Justice of the Peace, or anyone having lawful authority to administer an oath or affirmation in any legal proceeding, may examine on oath or solemn affirmation any party or person who comes before him to give evidence touching any loss in which any live stock insurance company is interested, and may administer any oath or affirmation required under this Act.

May hold special investigation on request.

(2) On receiving a written request from any officer or agent of any insurance company with security for the expenses of an investigation, any Justice of the Peace may at once proceed to hold an investigation as to the origin or cause of any loss that has happened within his county or district, and as to the persons, if any, profiting thereby.

Powers.

(3) The Justice of the Peace shall have power to send for persons and papers, and to examine all persons that appear before him on oath or solemn affirmation; and he shall keep a record of all such proceedings and of the evidence given before him. 52 V. c. 33, s. 60.

Rev. Stat. c. 275, ss. 12-15, to apply.

(4) To investigations held under this section sections 12, 13, 14 and 15 of The Act respecting the Investigation of Fires shall apply. 60 V. c. 36, s. 175 (4); c. 3, s. 3.

Certain sections of Rev. Stat. cap. 203, to be read as part of this Act.

62. Of The Ontario Insurance Act, section 127 and sections 129 to 141 inclusive, and sections 174 to 182 inclusive, shall be taken and read as part of this Act, but for the purposes of this Act only, section 140 of The Ontario Insurance Act shall be deemed to have been amended so as to read as follows:—

Powers of companies to insure on the cash premium principle.

"140. Any cash-mutual live stock insurance company licensed under this Act may effect insurance upon the cash premium principle for one year or less; but the amount of cash insurances in one year shall be limited, so that the cash premiums received thereon during any one year shall not be in excess of one-half of the amount still payable in respect of premium notes or undertakings on hand on the thirty-first day of December of the previous year, according to the statement made under section 96; and all the property and assets of the company, including premium notes and undertakings, shall be liable for all losses which may arise under insurances for cash premiums."

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as "The Loan Corporations Act." 60 V. c. 38, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. Where the following words and expressions respectively occur in this Act, or in the Schedules hereto, they shall be construed for the purposes of this Act, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears :—

"Advanced shares." "Unadvanced shares."

1. "Advanced Shares" shall mean terminating shares on which a loan or advance has been made by the corporation issuing the shares; and "Unadvanced" or "Investment" shares shall mean terminating shares on which no such loan or advance has been made by the corporation; and "Investing Member" or "Investor" shall mean a holder of unadvanced shares.

"Investing member" or "investor."

"Appeal."

2. "Appeal" shall include every judicial revision or review of a decision, order, direction, determination, finding or conviction, and also every case stated or reserved, and every removal of proceedings by way of certiorari or otherwise.

"By-laws."

3. "By-laws" shall include regulations, rules and by-laws.

"Chief agency."

4. "Chief Agency" shall mean the principal office or place of business in the Province of a loan corporation which has its head office beyond the Province.

"Corporation" or "Loan corporation."

5. "Corporation," or "Loan Corporation," shall include every corporation, incorporated company, association or society (not being a chartered bank of Canada or an insurance corporation standing registered under the law of the Province), now or hereafter constituted, or authorized, or operated either under the law of the Province or otherwise, for the purpose (solely, or conjointly with other purposes) of lending money on real estate, or investing money in real estate securities, or lending on or investing in other securities hereinafter mentioned, (whether the corporation so loans or invests as principal or as agent, or as legal representative, or as trustee or guardian, or guarantees such loan or investment); or for the purpose of aiding its members or others in acquiring real property, in making improvements thereon, or in removing incumbrances therefrom; or for the purpose of issuing terminating shares, or for the purpose of accumulating a fund to be returned to the holders of the terminating shares in specified cases.

"Due application."

6. "Due application" shall include such information, evidence and material as shall be required; and also the payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fees hereinafter prescribed in respect of any application, certificate or document required or issued by virtue of this Act.

7. "Head Office" shall mean the place where the chief executive officers of the corporation transact its business. "Head office."

8. "Law of the Province" shall include any law of the former Province of Canada, or of Upper Canada, continued as the law of Ontario, or consolidated or incorporated with the law of Ontario. "Law of the Province."

9. "Minister" shall mean the member of the Executive Council under whose direction this Act is administered. "Minister."

10. "Non-Provincial Corporation" shall mean any loan corporation other than Provincial. "Non-provincial corporation."

11. "Permanent Stock," or "Permanent Shares," shall include all stock, or all shares of permanent or fixed capital not liable to be withdrawn from or repaid by the corporation. "Permanent stock." "Permanent shares."

12. "Province" shall mean the Province of Ontario; "Province."

13. "Provincial Corporation" shall mean a loan corporation incorporated by the Province, and operated under the Act or instrument by virtue of which the corporation became so incorporated. "Provincial corporation."

14. "Local Loan Corporation" shall mean such a Provincial loan corporation as is by the Act or instrument constituting it limited in its operations to a specified area of the Province. "Local loan corporation."

15. "Real Estate" shall extend and apply to immovable estate and property generally. "Real estate."

16. "Registered Corporation" shall mean a loan corporation standing duly registered under this Act. "Registered corporation."

17. "Registrar," or "Corporations Registrar," shall mean the officer appointed Registrar under this Act. "Registrar" or "Corporations Registrar."

18. "Securities" shall extend and apply to privileges, mortgages (equitable as well as legal), and incumbrances upon real and immovable estate, as well as to other rights and privileges upon personal estate and property. "Securities."

19. "Shares" shall mean shares of capital or stock, either permanent or terminating. "Shares."

20. "Shareholder" shall mean any holder of such shares. "Shareholder."

21. "Terminating Stock," or "Terminating Shares," shall include all stock or shares of capital which are liable to be withdrawn from or repaid by the corporation. "Terminating stock," or "Terminating shares."

22. "Unregistered Corporation" shall include any loan corporation not standing duly registered under this Act, whether such corporation was never duly registered, or, having been so registered, has lost such registry through non-renewal, suspension, revocation or cancellation. "Unregistered corporation."

23. "Upon proof," as applied to any matter connected with the registry of a corporation, or with the filing or registration "Upon proof."

of any matter or thing required by this Act to be filed or registered, shall mean upon proof to the satisfaction of the proper officer.

INCORPORATION.

Incorporation of loan corporations.

3.—(1) An application for the incorporation of any loan corporation shall be made by petition to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council through the Provincial Secretary upon such printed form or forms as shall from time to time be prescribed.

Notice of application for incorporation.

(2) The applicants shall for one month next before filing their application with the Registrar publish a notice of their intended application in the Ontario Gazette, and shall also before the said filing give the like notice at least once in a newspaper published in the locality in which the head office of the corporation in Ontario is to be established. The said notice shall state the proposed corporate name, the location of the head office, the purposes of the corporation; also whether the corporation is to be constituted with permanent or with terminating stock, or both; and if with permanent stock, for what amount authorization will be asked.

Proviso.

Provided that the publication of notice may be dispensed with where this can be done without prejudice to public or private interests.

Application to include certain information.

(3) The application shall be deemed to include such information as may be required either by the printed form or by any demand made by the Provincial Secretary for further information.

Application for incorporation to be accompanied by a declaration.

(4) The application shall be accompanied by the original, or one of the duplicate originals, of a declaration adopted in a general meeting of the promoters, and executed under their respective hands and seals by at least twenty-five persons present at the meeting.

Contents of declaration.

(5) The declaration shall set out the names in full and the address and calling of each of the declarants and shall declare: that the said declarants assembled at on (naming the place and time; naming also the chairman and the secretary of the meeting) did there and then agree to constitute themselves a provisional loan corporation by the name of (mentioning the proposed corporate name) under the laws of the Province in that behalf, and under the proposed by-laws there and then adopted, and annexed to the declaration; also that the following persons, six in number (naming them) were elected provisional directors.

Reference of application to Registrar.

(6) The Provincial Secretary may refer any application or any question arising thereunder to the Registrar for a report, and the Registrar shall report thereon as required. 60 V. c. 38, s. 3.

4. Three copies of the said proposed by-laws shall accompany the declaration (one copy duly certified being annexed thereto) and the said by-laws shall inter alia set forth the particular matters prescribed in Schedule A to this Act. 60 V. c. 38, s. 4. By-laws to accompany declaration and set forth certain particulars.

5. On receiving any application for incorporation or registry if the Minister finds in the by-laws of the applicant anything repugnant to this Act or to the public general law of the Province, he may direct an amendment of the by-laws; and, upon their being amended as directed and returned certified as having been so amended, the application may be proceeded with. 60 V. c. 38, s. 5. Minister may direct amendment of by-laws.

6. Where incorporation is granted, the provisional directors named in the declaration of the applicants shall ipso facto by virtue of the incorporation so granted, be the first directors of the corporation, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected pursuant to the by-laws of the corporation, and to the provisions of this Act. 60 V. c. 38, s. 6. First directors of the corporation.

7.—(1) Where incorporation is granted it shall be by letters patent issued under and by virtue of this Act; and the letters patent shall set forth the name under which, and the date at which, the corporation became incorporated; the location of the head office; the amount of permanent capital stock (if any) authorized; whether or not the corporation is authorized to issue terminating stock or shares; the business to be undertaken by the corporation, distinguishing such business as in section 104 mentioned; and if the incorporation is granted with limitation of time or area, such limitation, or limitations, shall be specified as enacted in section 8. Letters patent of incorporation contents.

(2) There shall be the like authority to re-incorporate any loan corporation. In case of such re-incorporation the prior incorporation shall, as to this Province, be deemed to have been merged in and superseded by the said later incorporation, but without prejudice to obligations or contracts undertaken during the prior incorporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 7. Re-incorporation.

8.—(1) Incorporation may be granted without limitation of time, or for any limited term of years not less than ten; and the letters patent of incorporation shall state whether the incorporation is granted without limitation of time, or is granted for a limited term of years, and, in such latter case, shall specify the first and the last day of the term, and shall also state whether the incorporation is granted with or without power to issue terminating shares: Provided, that, whether incorporation is granted with or without limitation of time, if a body incorporated under this Act does not go into actual bona fide operation within two years after incorporation, or for two Incorporation may be for a time limited or unlimited.

Forfeiture of franchise of non-user.

consecutive years does not use its corporate powers for the purposes set forth in its declaration required by section 3 of this Act, such non-user shall ipso facto work a forfeiture of the corporate powers except so far as may be necessary for winding up the corporation; and in any action or proceeding where such non-user is alleged, proof of user shall lie upon the corporation.

Renewal of terminating charter.

(2) When incorporation has been granted for a limited term application may, upon the same notice as required by section 3, be made on or before the expiry of the term, for the renewal or extension of the incorporation, and the incorporation may be renewed or extended either without limitation of time, or for a limited term, or may be refused.

Limitation of area when terminating stock is to issue.

(3) In the case of an application for incorporation where the applicant body by its by-laws takes power to issue terminating stock or shares the corporation created under this Act shall not have power to loan money or transact a loaning business or carry on its operations outside the limits of the county in which the corporation has its head office. A district or county or provisional county united with another county for judical purposes shall be considered for the purposes of this Act as a part of the county with which it is so united; but this subsection shall not apply to any loan corporation on the permanent stock of which has been paid in the sum of at least one hundred thousand dollars.

Limitations of area in certain other cases.

(4) Every company or society which after the first day of June, 1893, was incorporated under section 2 of chapter 169 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, shall be deemed to be limited to the area prescribed by subsection 3 of this section.

Proviso.

Provided, that as to any of the corporations mentioned in this or the next preceding sub-section, upon proof that the corporation has a paid up permanent, non-withdrawable and unimpaired capital of not less than $100,000, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by letters patent in that behalf declare the said restriction of area removed; and, as from the date of such letters patent, the incorporation shall be deemed to be granted without limitation of area.

Limitation of area to be specified in the letters patent.

(5) Where incorporation is hereafter granted with limitation of area, such limitation shall be specified in the letters patent of incorporation.

First by-laws of corporation.

(6) The by-laws accompanying the declaration, with such amendments thereof as may have been required by the Minister, shall be the first by-laws of the corporation, and shall take effect and be in force from the date of the incorporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 8.

EXTENSION OF BUSINESS BEYOND THE PROVINCE.

Extension of business beyond the Province.

9.—(1) Where the existence or operation of the corporation is not by the Act or instrument constituting it, limited in time or area, the corporation, if constituted by the law of the Province, may in general meeting of the members having due notice of the by-law, pass a by-law authorizing its directors to extend the business of the corporation beyond the Province, but in compliance with the law of such foreign jurisdiction; and the directors may give effect to such by-law without being liable or responsible as for any breach of trust in so doing.

Erection or purchase of buildings required for use of corporation in the foreign jurisdiction.

(2) Where, as provided in the next preceding subsection, a Provincial corporation carries on business beyond the Province, the corporation may in general meeting of the members having due notice of the by-law pass a by-law authorizing the directors to invest the money of the corporation in the erection or purchase of buildings required for the occupation of the corporation in any place where the corporation is so carrying on business and within the limit (if any) authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction. 60 V. c. 38, s. 9.

TERMINATING SHARES.

Issue of terminating shares.

10. Where a loan corporation, by virtue of this or any former Act, has authority to raise a fund or stock by means of terminating shares, the corporation may issue terminating shares of one or more denominations, either fully paid or prepaid stock, or to be paid by periodical or other subscriptions, and may repay such funds when no longer required for the purposes of the corporation. The terminating shares shall not exceed the value of $400 for each share, and the subscription in payment thereof, shall not exceed $4 per month for each share; and the corporation may thereby create a stock or fund for the purpose of making loans or advances upon the securities authorized by the by-laws of the corporation and by this Act. 60 V. c. 38, s. 10.

Liability of holder upon terminating shares, unadvanced.

11. In any loan corporation whatever when terminating shares are issued, transferred or held in the Province, the liability of any holder of such shares, if no loan or advance has been made by the corporation thereon, shall be limited to the amount (if any) then in arrear upon such shares; the holder of such shares shall be released from all further or other liability thereon if he pays or tenders payment of the said amount to the corporation at its head office or chief agency in the Province; or if he sends to the corporation thereat in a registered letter a post office order, or a cheque accepted by a chartered bank of Canada, the order or cheque being for the said amount made payable to the corporation; and if with the said payment, tender, post office order or cheque he gives notice in writing to the corporation that he surrenders or abandons such terminating shares. In respect of any terminating shares upon which a loan or advance has been made by the corporation, the liability of the holder shall be limited to the amount payable thereon under any mortgage or other security, or under the by-laws of the corporation:

Proviso; forfeiture of shares.

Provided that the directors may under the by-laws of the corporation declare forfeited to the corporation, the terminating shares of a holder who is in default, or who neglects or omits to pay the number of instalments on monthly subscriptions by the said by-laws prescribed; and in case of forfeiture so declared, a minute shall be made thereof on the Terminating Shares Register; or, instead of forfeiting the shares, the directors may recover the arrears by action; and if the amount in arrear does not exceed $100, the action may be brought in the Division Court of the division wherein the head office or chief agency of the corporation in the Province is situated. 60 V. c. 38, s. 11.

Liability of corporation on terminating shares.

12. The liability of any registered loan corporation whatever in respect of terminating shares shall, unless otherwise provided by the by-laws in force at the passing of this Act, be limited to that portion of the shareholder's payments thereon which (under the by-laws of the corporation or the contract with the shareholder) is appropriated to the loan fund, together with the proportion of interest, profits, or earnings appertaining to such portion of his payments; and that portion of the shareholder's payments, which, under the said by-laws or contract is appropriated to the expense fund shall not be a liability of the corporation.

Proviso as to interest or dividend on unmatured terminating shares.

Provided that where a member withdraws his shares according to the by-laws of the corporation, no holder of terminating shares shall, except under the by-laws, be entitled to receive from the funds of the corporation any interest or dividend by way of annual or other profit upon any such share until the amount or value of the share has been realized. 60 V. c. 38, s. 12.

Shareholder whose terminating shares are paid up may receive or invest the amount; or may convert into permanent stock.

13.—(1) When any terminating shares in any loan corporation whatever have been fully paid up according to the by-laws of the corporation, or have become due or payable to the holder thereof, then and in such case the holder of the shares may either withdraw the amount of his shares from the corporation according to the by-laws thereof, or may with the consent of the corporation convert the amount of his withdrawable terminating shares into permanent shares or stock of the corporation, and receive in respect thereof periodically such proportion of the profits made by the corporation as may be declared by way of dividend, or as may be provided for by a by-law passed or to be passed for the purpose; and the amount of the terminating shares so converted shall become fixed and permanent capital or shares in the corporation, not withdrawable therefrom, but transferable in the same manner as other permanent shares in the corporation.

Directors may convert where shareholder after notice

(2) Where any loan corporation sends by post or delivers notice in writing addressed to a shareholder at his last known address, informing him that any terminating shares standing in his name have matured and become due or payable to him, and the shareholder does not within three months from delivery of the said notice, or from the date when in the ordinary course of post the notice would arrive at the post office of his address, withdraw the amount payable to him in respect of his shares, the directors may at their option convert the said terminating shares into permanent shares of the corporation, and the amount so converted shall thereupon cease to be a liability of the corporation.

does not withdraw matured terminating shares; or where terminating shares entitled to be withdrawn are in arrear.

(3) Where, under the by-laws of the corporation or the terms of his contract, a holder of terminating shares would be entitled (if all payments had been duly made in respect of his shares) to withdraw the money paid in by him with or without deduction or interest, but has not yet withdrawn the same, and his shares have not yet been fully paid and have fallen into at least two months' arrears in respect of the payments due thereon, the directors may at their option upon one month's notice thereafter, given as in subsection 2, appropriate the amount then standing to the credit of the said shares to payment in full of so many permanent shares or of so much permanent stock as the said amount will be sufficient to pay in full, and may convert such terminating shares into permanent shares or stock of the corporation, and the amount so converted shall cease to be a liability of the corporation.

(4) Any terminating shares in any loan corporation at any time, may in accordance with the by-laws and with the consent of the board of directors be paid up in full and converted and capitalized at once, as permanent stock, and such terminating shares heretofore paid in full, or in part, shall be as valid as if the same had been paid by periodical or other subscription.

Terminating shares may, with consent of directors, be at once paid up and converted.

(5) Where in any loan corporation whatever any terminating shares are converted into permanent shares, the corporation shall forthwith deliver to the person entitled a certificate certifying the issue, and the number and amount of such permanent shares. 60 V. c. 38, s. 13.

Certificate of permanent shares.

14.—(1) The directors of any loan corporation whatever at any time, and from time to time, as they may think expedient, may, by resolution, close for any specified time, or until further order, the subscription of terminating shares to be converted into permanent stock of the corporation, and thereafter, until the expiration of such specified time, or until such further order, no new terminating shares shall be subscribed for such conversion. Any new issue of such shares shall be allotted to the then existing shareholders pro rata, as nearly as possible without fractions; but in case the remaining shares are not taken up within thirty days, then the shares, or the remaining shares, shall be sold and any premium thereupon applied to the general benefit of the corporation.

Subscription of terminating shares for conversion may be closed by directors; or by general meeting of shareholders, after notice.

(2) In any Provincial loan corporation the shareholders entitled to vote at any time may, by resolution to be passed at any ordinary or special general meeting (for which meeting notice of such intended resolution shall be duly given, according to sections 62 and 63 of this Act), determine that no new terminating shares, for purposes of conversion, shall thereafter be subscribed for; and thereafter no new terminating shares for such conversion shall at any time be subscribed for therein, and the subscription for and issue of such shares shall cease forever.

Shares to be immediately advanced excepted.

(3) Nothing done under the next preceding two subsections of this Act shall have the effect of preventing such corporation from creating, as it otherwise might, any terminating share or shares to be immediately advanced to the subscriber or subscribers thereof, or of preventing any person from subscribing, as he otherwise might, for any share or shares, in order immediately to obtain the advance thereof from the corporation by giving security therefor. 60 V. c. 38, s. 14.

Resolution for future issue of permanent stock only.

15.—(1) The qualified shareholders of a registered corporation which issues terminating shares may at any time, by resolution to be passed at any ordinary or special general meeting (for which meeting as in sections 62 and 63 notice of such intended resolution shall be duly given), determine that all shares thereafter issued and subscribed for in the corporation shall be fixed and permanent capital and not liable to be withdrawn therefrom; and any share thereafter subscribed for and issued in the corporation shall be fixed and permanent capital, and not withdrawable therefrom; such shares shall be transferable in such manner as the by-laws of the corporation may direct, but no such shares shall be transferred while any call thereon is in arrears or until the same has been forfeited for non-payment of calls.

Transfer of permanent shares.

Directors may fix the amount payable at subscription for permanent shares and premiums.

Calls.

Dividends.

(2) The directors of such corporation may fix the amount to be paid on the subscription of such permanent shares, and the premium (if any), which shall be paid thereon, and when the premium shall be payable; and it shall be in the discretion of the directors from time to time to call up the balance of any such shares at such time or times as they think best; and the corporation may from time to time, notwithstanding that such shares have not been paid in full, pay dividends by way of annual or other periodical profits upon the amount paid on such shares, and in all other respects, such shares shall be subject to the general provisions contained in this Act.

Provided that where partly-called shares were issued at a premium and the reserve has been reduced since the said issue, the rate of premium payable to the corporation at any subsequent call may be reduced in the ratio of the then reserve to the reserve at the time of issue,—the amount of the reserve in each case being taken to be the amount respectively shown by the next preceding yearly audit.

(3) No shareholder shall be liable for or chargeable in respect of permanent shares with the payment of any debt or demand due by the corporation, save only to the extent of the amount unpaid on his shares in the capital stock of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 15. Liability of holder of permanent shares.

LENDING POWERS; PURCHASE AND SALE OF SECURITIES.

16. Subject to the limitations mentioned in sections 7 and 8, any loan corporation standing registered under this Act may lend money in conformity with the laws of Canada and with this Act and with the by-laws of such corporation, to any person or body corporate, at such lawful rates of interest as may be agreed upon, without requiring any of the borrowers to become subscribers to the stock, or members of the corporation; but in the case of loans made on and after the first day of May, 1893, only such borrowers from the corporation as are subscribers to the stock, or members of the corporation, shall be subject to the by-laws thereof, unless the mortgage or other security given by the borrower expressly provides that the by-laws of the corporation shall form part of the contract or obligation entered into by the borrower. Lending powers of loan corporations. Proviso as to rules affecting borrowers.

Provided, however, that unless in all such cases either the words "subject to the by-laws of the corporation" or the words "subject to the rules of the society or company" (as the case may be) are printed in conspicuous type on the back of, and as part of the indorsement of such mortgage or other security, the borrower, not being a subscriber to the shares or a member of the corporation, shall not be bound by any such by-laws. 60 V. c. 38, s. 16. Proviso.

POWER TO LEND ON AND PURCHASE AND SELL CERTAIN SECURITIES.

17.—(1) A registered loan corporation may from time to time lend and advance money by way of loan or otherwise for such periods as it deems expedient on the security of real estate, or of the public securities of Canada, or of any of the Provinces thereof, or on the security of terminating debentures of any municipal or public school corporation, or of the terminating debentures of any society or company incorporated under the Revised Statute respecting Building Societies; or of terminating debentures or debenture stock of any society or company in which under the law of the Province trustees may invest trust funds; or may out of the funds appropriated to terminating shares (if any), lend on the security of the terminating shares of the corporation itself: May lend on certain securities. R. S. O. 1887, c. 169.

Provided that in the case of corporations heretofore so authorized it shall (except as provided in section 19) be lawful to invest in and lend upon land or upon securities other than in this section mentioned. Proviso.

May do acts necessary to such loans and may exercise remedies.

(2) The corporation may do all acts that are necessary for advancing such sums of money, and for receiving and obtaining repayment thereof, and for compelling the payment of all interest accruing from such sums so advanced, and the observance and fulfilment of any conditions annexed to such advance, and for enforcing the forfeiture of any term or property consequent on the non-fulfilment of such conditions, or of conditions entered into for delay of payment; and may take personal security as collateral for any advance made.

May hold certain estates and interests in land; and may dispose of same.

(3) The corporation may hold such real estate as being mortgaged or hypothecated to it, is acquired by it for the protection of its investments, and may from time to time sell, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of the same; and may acquire, by purchase or otherwise, any mortgage or security of any kind whatsoever upon which it is authorized to lend or advance money, and re-sell the same, as it deems advisable.

May purchase and sell certain securities.

(4) The corporation may give receipts, acquittances and discharges, either absolutely and wholly, or partially, and may grant or take such deeds, assignments or other instruments as are necessary for carrying any such holding, purchase, exchange or re-sale into effect; and the grantee or assignee in any such instrument shall stand in the place of, and be entitled to, and have all the same rights, powers and remedies, and shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities, under, upon, or in respect to such instrument as the grantor or assignor would have been entitled to or would have been subject to if the grant or assignment had not been made.

May give discharges and execute all necessary instruments.

Rights of grantee or assignee.

Power to hold real estate.

(5) The corporation may hold absolutely to its own use and benefit such real estate as is necessary for the transaction of its business, not exceeding in yearly value the sum of $20,000, in Ontario, and, subject to the laws of the other Provinces of Canada, the sum of $20,000 in each of the said Provinces; also such real estate as being mortgaged or hypothecated to it, is acquired by it for the protection of its investments, and such real estate as is conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business; and may from time to time, sell, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of the same; but the corporation, (not being a loaning land corporation standing registered under this Act,) shall, subject as above, sell any real estate acquired in satisfaction of any debt within twelve years after it has been so acquired, otherwise it shall be forfeited to Her Majesty, for the uses of the Province; but no such forfeiture shall take effect or be enforced until the expiration of at least six calendar months after notice in writing to the said corporation of the intention of Her Majesty to claim such forfeiture.

May form reserve fund and invest same in foregoing securities.

(6) It shall be lawful for any such corporation to constitute and maintain a reserve fund out of the earnings or other income of the corporation not required for the present liabilities of the corporation, and to invest the same in any of the securities authorized for the purposes of loans by this section.

General powers of corporation for purposes of this section and of this Act.

(7) And for every purpose in this section specified, and for any other purpose in this Act mentioned or referred to, the corporation may lay out, and apply the capital and property, for the time being, of the corporation or any part thereof, or any of the moneys authorized to be hereafter raised or received by the corporation in addition to its capital for the time being, and may authorize and exercise all acts and powers whatsoever, in the opinion of the directors of the corporation requisite or expedient to be done or exercised in relation thereto. 60 V. c. 38, s. 17.

Balloting for loans prohibited.

18. No loan corporation whatsoever shall ballot or cause or permit applicants for loans or advances to ballot for precedence, or shall in any way make the granting of a loan or advance depend upon any chance or lot. Any registered corporation which contravenes this section, and any corporation which makes, prints, advertises or publishes, or causes or procures to be made, printed, advertised or published any proposal, scheme or plan for loaning or advancing or in any way disposing of money or property by lot, ballot, or by any mode of chance whatsoever, shall be liable to have its registry cancelled; and any director, officer, servant, employee or shareholder of the corporation, party to such contravention, shall be liable upon summary conviction before any Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, or two Justices of the Peace, to a fine of not less than $20, nor more than $200 and costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term of not less than three nor more than twelve months in any prison or gaol of the Province. 60 V. c. 38, s. 18.

Permanent shares or stock not a debt of the corporation; loans or advances upon such shares or stock prohibited.

19.—(1) No payments received by the corporation for or on account of any permanent shares or stock whatsoever, shall be deemed to be a debt of the corporation; and no sum due to any holder of such shares or stock, in his character of holder or member, by way of dividends, profits or otherwise, shall be deemed a debt of the corporation, payable to such holder or member in a case of competition between himself and any other creditor not being a holder of such shares or a member of the corporation; but any sum so due may be taken into account for the purposes of the final adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves.

Limitation as to loans on stock of corporation.

(2) The corporation may lend upon its own paid up permanent stock to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate of all such loans 10 per centum of the corporation's paid up permanent stock; but no such loan shall exceed 66⅔ per centum of the market price then actually offered for the stock, and no loan corporation whatever shall, after the passing of this Act, except as in this section provided, make any loan or advance upon the security of any permanent share or shares, or permanent stock of the corporation, whether with or without collateral security.

Proviso.

Provided however that any loan corporation may pass a by-law prohibiting absolutely the loaning to shareholders upon the security of their stock, or (subject to the limitations contained in this subsection) a by-law limiting the aggregate amount which may be loaned on such stock, and it shall not be lawful for any corporation to repeal either of such by-laws until the liabilities of the corporation are discharged. 60 V. c. 38, s. 19.

INTEREST; PAYMENTS OF BLENDED INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL; LIMITATION OF MORTGAGOR'S LIABILITY FOR INTEREST.

Rate of interest, repayment and recovery of money loaned or advanced, and of interest thereon.

20. Subject as in the next five following sections provided any corporation standing registered under this Act, may stipulate for, take, reserve, and exact any rate of interest or discount that may lawfully be taken by individuals, and may also receive payment at any time on any loan or advance: provided always that no fine or penalty shall be stipulated for, taken, reserved or exacted in respect of arrears of principal or interest, which has the effect of increasing the charge in respect of arrears beyond the rate of interest or discount on the loan; and the corporation may do all acts that may be necessary for advancing money, and for recovering and obtaining repayment thereof, and for enforcing payment of all interest accruing therefrom, or for enforcing any conditions attached to such advance, or any forfeiture consequent on the non-payment thereof, and give all necessary and proper receipts, acquittances and discharges for the same, and do, authorize and exercise all acts and powers whatsoever requisite or expedient to be done or exercised in relation to the said purposes. 60 V. c. 38, s. 20. [See also 37 V. c. 50, s. 5 (D.); R. S. C. c. 127, s. 5.]

No interest recoverable in certain cases unless the mortgage contains a certain statement.

21. Wherever any principal money or interest secured by mortgages of real estate is, by the same, made payable on the sinking fund plan, or on any plan under which the payments of principal money and interest are blended, or on any plan which involves an allowance of interest on stipulated repayments, no interest whatever shall be chargeable, payable or recoverable, on any part of the principal money advanced, unless the mortgage contains a statement showing the amount of such principal money and the rate of interest chargeable thereon, calculated yearly or half-yearly, not in advance. 60 V. c. 38, s. 21. [See also R. S. C. c. 127, s. 3.]

No rate recoverable beyond that shown in such statement.

22. Wherever the rate of interest shown in such statement is less than the rate of interest which would be chargeable by virtue of any other provision, calculation or stipulation in the mortgage, no greater rate of interest shall be chargeable, payable or recoverable, on the principal money advanced, than the rate shown in such statement. 60 V. c. 38, s. 22. [See also R. S. C. c. 127, s. 4.]

23. No fine or penalty or rate of interest shall be stipulated for, taken, reserved or exacted on any arrear of principal or interest secured by mortgage of real estate, which has the effect of increasing the charge on any such arrear beyond the rate of interest payable on principal money not in arrear: but nothing in this section contained shall have the effect of prohibiting a contract for the payment of interest on arrears of interest or principal at any rate not greater than the rate payable on principal money not in arrear. 60 V. c. 38, s. 23. [See also R. S. C. c. 127, s. 5.]

No fine allowed on payments in arrear which has the effect of increasing the rate of interest.

Proviso: as to interest on arrears of interest.

24. If any sum is paid on account of any interest, fine or penalty not chargeable, payable or recoverable under the three sections next preceding, such sums may be recovered back, or deducted from any other interest, fine or penalty chargeable, payable or recoverable on the principal. 60 V. c. 38, s. 24. [See also R. S. C. c. 127, s. 6.]

Overcharge may be recovered back.

25. (1) Whenever any principal money or interest secured by mortgage of real estate is not, under the terms of the mortgage, payable till a time more than five years after the date of the mortgage, then, if at any time after the expiration of such five years, any person liable to pay or entitled to redeem the mortgage tenders, or pays to the corporation entitled to receive the money, the amount due for principal money and interest to the time of payment, as calculated under the four sections next preceding, together with three months' further interest in lieu of notice, no further interest shall be chargeable, payable or recoverable at any time thereafter on the principal money or interest due under the mortgage. 60 V. c. 38, s. 25. [See also R. S. C. c. 127, s. 7.]

No further interest payable after five years on certain conditions.

BORROWING POWERS.

26. Except in so far as their borrowing powers may be deemed to be enlarged by sections 30 and 31 hereof, nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to enlarge, impair or diminish the duly authorized borrowing powers of any corporation lawfully doing business in Ontario on the tenth day of February, 1897, and standing registered under this Act.

Provided that any corporation may with the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council (which assent shall be evidenced by Letters Patent in that behalf), elect to renounce its existing borrowing powers and accept those conferred by this Act, but such alteration of borrowing powers shall not operate to prejudice or affect any existing rights of creditors or any obligations entered into by such corporation prior to such assent.

Saving clause as to corporations in present authorized operation.

27. Sections 28 to 39 inclusive shall apply to all loan corporations incorporated by or having their head offices in Ontario, and also to all loan corporations whatsoever borrowing in Ontario by way of taking deposits, or undertaking guarantees, or issuing debentures, debenture stock or like obligations. 60 V. c. 38, s. 26.

Application of secs. 28-39.

Limitations of the borrowing powers of certain corporations.

Borrowing powers of other corporations.

(2) Where a corporation standing registered under this Act has a paid-up, permanent, non-withdrawable and unimpaired capital of not less than $100,000 or (being constituted with joint stock capital) has a subscribed permanent stock of at least $300,000 on which at least $100,000 has been paid and is unimpaired, the directors, pursuant to powers conferred in that behalf by any by-laws or rules of the corporation passed at any general meeting having due notice of such proposed by laws or rules, may from time to time, borrow money on behalf of the corporation at such lawful rates of interest, and upon such terms as they from time to time think proper: and the directors may for that purpose, subject as hereinafter provided, receive money on loan or on deposit (other than and in addition to money received in respect of stock and shares of the corporation); and may for that purpose issue debenture stock, and terminable debentures, bonds and other obligations, as well as execute mortgages under the seal of the corporation, for sums of not less than $100 each; or may assign, transfer or deposit by way of equitable mortgage or otherwise, for the sum so borrowed, any of the documents of title, deeds, muniments, securities or property of the corporation, and either with or without power of sale or other special provisions, as the directors deem expedient. 60 V. c. 38, s. 28.

BORROWING BY WAY OF DEPOSITS, DEBENTURES, OR GUARANTEE.

Receiving money on deposit.

29.—(1) The corporation shall not, without the express consent of the shareholders given at a general meeting having due notice of the proposal, receive money on deposit, otherwise than in respect of shares or stock of the corporation; and when money is otherwise received on deposit, the same shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be money borrowed by the corporation; and with lawful interest thereon as agreed, shall be repayable by the corporation either at a time certain, or upon notice not being less than thirty days (unless notice, or such notice, is waived), as may have been agreed upon.

(2) The amount to be received by any corporation entitled as hereinbefore provided to receive deposits shall not at any time exceed the aggregate amount of the then actually paid up and unimpaired permanent capital, and of its other cash actually in hand or deposited by it in any chartered bank or banks in Canada. 60 V. c. 38, s. 29. Limitation of amount receivable on deposit.

30.—(1) If the corporation issue debentures, the debentures shall be for such sums, not being less than $100 and in such currency as the board of directors may deem advisable, and shall be payable not less than one year, nor more than ten years, from the issue thereof at such place as may be therein mentioned. Amount and form of debentures.

(2) If the corporation borrows money solely on debentures or other securities, and by guarantee and not by way of deposit, under section 29, the aggregate amount of the sums so borrowed shall not, at any time exceed four times the amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital, or at the option of the corporation the amount of its subscribed, fixed and permanent capital, upon which not less than twenty per cent. has been paid. Where corporation borrows on securities but not on deposits.

(3) In event of any corporation incorporated before the 4th day of May, 1891, availing itself of the provisions of this Act, or any Act of the Province passed after the 3rd day of May, 1891, to enlarge its powers of borrowing money by debentures, nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting or in any wise impairing the rights of the holders of debentures issued by such corporation. Enlarged borrowing powers not to prejudice certain debenture holders.

(4) If the corporation borrows money both by way of debentures or other securities, or by guarantee and also by way of deposit, such corporation shall, in respect of deposits received, comply with section 29, and furthermore the aggregate amount of its total borrowing shall not at any time exceed the amount of the principal moneys remaining unpaid on securities then held by the corporation, nor shall it exceed thrice the amount of the then actually paid-up and unimpaired permanent capital of the corporation; but the amount of cash then actually in the hands of the corporation, or standing deposited by it in any chartered bank, or both, shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of the liabilities which the corporation has then incurred, as above mentioned in calculating the aggregate amount for the purposes of this subsection. 60 V. c. 38, s. 30. Where corporation borrows both on securities and on deposits.

31. The total liabilities of the borrowing corporation shall not at any time exceed the amount of principal remaining unpaid on the mortgages then held by the corporation, but in estimating the said liabilities, the amount of cash actually in the hands of the corporation, or deposited in any chartered bank of Canada or of Great Britain shall be deducted therefrom. 60 V. c. 38 s. 31. Liabilities of borrowing corporation not to exceed mortgages.

Deduction to be made in estimating the paid-up capital.

32. All loans or advances by a corporation to its shareholders upon the security of their permanent stock shall be deducted from the amount of paid up capital upon which the corporation is authorized to borrow. 60 V. c. 38, s. 32.

BORROWING BY DEBENTURE STOCK.

Issuing debenture stock.

33. Subject to sections 29, 30, 31 and 32, the directors of any registered loan corporation, such as is mentioned in subsection 2 of section 28, may, from time to time, with the consent of a majority of the shareholders, present in person or represented by proxy, at a general meeting called for such purpose, and having due notice of the proposal, issue debenture stock, which shall be treated and considered as a part of the regular debenture debt, authorized by section 30 of this Act, in such amounts and manner, on such terms, and bearing such rate of interest, and in such currency as the directors from time to time think proper, but subject to the limitations in sections 29, 30, 31 and 32 provided, so that the amount received as money deposits and borrowed on the security of debentures, mortgages, bonds, or other instruments or debenture stock, shall not in the whole exceed the aggregate amount fixed by sections 29, 30, 31 and 32, as the authorized limit of the borrowing powers of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 33.

Rights of holder of debenture stock.

34. Debenture stock shall not entitle the holders thereof to be present or to vote at any meeting of the corporation, or confer any qualification, but shall, in all respects not otherwise by or under this Act provided for, be considered as entitling the holders to the rights and powers of mortgagees of the undertaking to the extent provided in the by-laws of the corporation authorizing such debenture stock, but shall not confer or imply the right to require repayment of the principal money paid up in respect of the debenture stock. 60 V. c. 38, s. 34.

Debenture stock how ranked.

35. The debenture stock to be issued under the authority of this Act shall rank equally with the debentures issued, or to be issued, by the corporation, and the holders thereof shall not be liable or answerable for any debts or liabilities of the corporation; and in case of a liquidation of the corporation, or other distribution of its assets, the holder shall for arrears of interest (if any), and for the then present or capitalized value of the future interest annually payable, rank pari passu with depositors and debenture holders. 60 V. c. 38, s. 35.

Register of debenture stock

36. The corporation shall cause entries of the debenture stock from time to time created to be made in a register, to be known as the Debenture Stock Register, and (in the case of corporations incorporated by, or having their head office in, Ontario,) to be kept for that purpose at the head office of the corporation, wherein shall be entered the names and addresses of the several persons and corporations from time to time entitled to the debenture stock, with the respective amounts of the stock to which they are respectively entitled; and the register shall, during reasonable business hours of every day, except Sundays and holidays, be accessible for inspection and perusal by himself or his agent to every debenture holder, mortgagee, bondholder, debenture stockholder and shareholder of the corporation, without the payment of any fee or charge. 60 V. c. 38, s. 36.

Transfer of debenture stock.

37. Such debenture stock shall be transferable in such amounts and in such manner as the directors may determine, and all transfers of the debenture stock of the corporation shall be registered at the head office of the corporation in this Province, but the corporation may have transfer books for the purposes of such debenture stock, at such place or places in Canada, in Great Britain and Ireland, or any foreign country in which transfers of the said stock may be made; but all such transfers shall be entered in the book to be kept at the head office. 60 V. c. 38, s. 37.

Certificates of debenture stock.

38. The corporation shall deliver to every holder of debenture stock a certificate stating the amount of the debenture stock held by him, the rate of interest payable thereon and the terms and conditions upon which the said stock is subject, and all regulations and provisions for the time being applicable to certificates of shares in the capital stock of the corporation shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to certificates of debenture stock. 60 V. c. 38, s. 38.

Exchange of debentures for debenture stock. Redemption of debenture stock.

39. The holders of the debentures of the corporation may, with the consent of the directors, at any time exchange such debentures for debenture stock; and the corporation may from time to time purchase in the open market and, with the consent of the holders thereof, redeem any portion or portions of the debenture stock representing moneys which the directors, by resolution duly made, determine not to be required for the business of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 39.

AMALGAMATION OF COMPANIES, AND PURCHASE AND SALE OF ASSETS.

Power to

ized to sell the same, and for the purpose of carrying out such purchase or sale, the corporation so purchasing may assume the liabilities of the corporation so selling, and may enter into such bond or agreement of indemnity with the corporation or the individual shareholders thereof, or both, as may be necessary, and may enter into all contracts and agreements necessary to such union, merger, amalgamation, consolidation, sale, purchase or acquisition. 60 V. c. 38, s. 40.

Directors may make agreement for amalgamation or for purchase or sale of assets.

41.—(1) The directors of any corporation such as is mentioned in subsection 2 of section 28, and of any other corporation such as is mentioned in section 40 may enter provisionally into a joint agreement under the corporate seals of each of the said corporations for the union, merger, amalgamation or consolidation of the said corporations, or for the sale or purchase by the one corporation of the assets of the other corporation; and the said agreement shall prescribe the terms and conditions thereof, the mode of carrying the same into effect, and, if the two corporations are to merge into one corporation, the name of the new, or of the continuing corporation, the number of directors and other officers thereof, and who shall be the first directors and officers thereof, the manner of converting the capital stock of each of the said corporations into that of the new or continuing corporation, with such other details as the directors of the several corporations deem necessary to perfect such new organization, and the union, merger, amalgamation and consolidation of the said corporations, and the after management and working thereof, or to perfect the terms and mode of payment for the assets, on the sale, purchase, or acquisition of the assets of the one corporation by the other.

Agreement to be subject to approval of shareholders.

(2) Such agreement, or if no agreement has been entered into, but an offer has been made by another company or society under its corporate seal for the purchase of the assets of the corporation, or if the corporation has made any offer under its corporate seal for the purchase of the assets of another incorporated company or society, then such offer shall be submitted to the shareholders of each of the said corporations at a meeting thereof, to be held separately for the purpose of taking the agreement or the offer into consideration.

Notice of meeting to consider agreement

(3) Notice of the time and place of such meetings and the objects thereof shall be given by written or printed notice addressed to each shareholder of the said corporations respectively, at his last known post office address or place of residence, and also by a general notice inserted in a newspaper published at the chief place of business of each of such corporations once a week for six successive weeks. The like notice, together with a copy of the proposed agreement, shall be delivered to the Corporations Registrar at least one month before the date of either of the meetings of shareholders called to consider it. 60 V. c. 38, s. 41.

Proceedings to ratify agreement.

42. At such meetings of shareholders such agreement or offer shall be considered, and a vote by ballot taken for the ratification or acceptance, or for the rejection of the same, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote unless otherwise provided by the by-laws of the said respective corporations, and the said ballots being cast in person or by proxy, and if two-thirds of the votes of all the shareholders of such corporations, representing not less than two-thirds in value of the paid up capital or permanent stock of each, shall be for the ratification of the agreement or the acceptance of such offer, then that fact shall be certified upon the said agreement or offer by the secretary or manager of each of such corporations under the corporate seals thereof. 60 V. c. 38, s. 42.

Who may vote.

43. The shareholders who may vote at such meetings shall be those only whose names are duly entered in the books of the respective corporations at the date of the first publication of the notices calling such meetings, and they shall vote upon the shares only then standing in their respective names. 60 V. c. 38, s. 43.

Ratified agreement to be filed with Registrar for assent.

44. If the said agreement is so ratified or the said offer is so accepted at the respective meetings of the shareholders of each of the said corporations, the agreement so ratified or the offer so accepted, with the said certificates thereon shall be filed with the Corporations Registrar; and after the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council thereto, the said agreement or offer shall thenceforth be taken and deemed to be the agreement and act of union, amalgamation and consolidation of the said corporations, or the agreement and deed of purchase and acquisition of the assets of the company by such other company or society so purchasing, or by the company of the assets of the company or society so selling, as the case may be. 60 V. c. 38, s. 44.

Certificate of assent by Minister.

45.—(1) Upon proof that the foregoing requirements have been duly complied with, and after the agreement or offer so ratified or accepted has been assented to by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the Minister shall issue a certificate under his hand and seal certifying such assent and the date thereof; also declaring the purchase and the sale of the assets and the names of the corporations parties thereto; or in the case of amalgamation, declaring the amalgamation of the corporations (naming them), and the date of such assent thereto, also the name of the new or of the continuing corporation, together with such other matters (if any), as may appear to the Minister necessary or desirable in the public interest; and the said certificate shall be conclusive evidence of all matters therein certified or declared.

Public notice to be given of certificate.

(2) Of the issue of such certificates the Corporations Registrar shall give public notice in The Ontario Gazette. 60 V. c. 38, s. 45.

Registration of certificate for purposes of title of land. Rev. Stat. c. 136.

46. For the purposes of The Registry Act, it shall be sufficient to register once for all on the general register of each Registry Division in which the securities included in such transfer or amalgamation are registered, a certified copy of such certificate; and the fee payable for the registration thereof shall be one dollar. 60 V. c. 38, s. 46.

Assent of the Department may be otherwise evidenced.

47. The Corporations Registrar may, under his hand and seal, indorse upon the agreement or offer mentioned in section 44, or any counterpart or copy of the same, a certificate certifying, or he may by any writing so signed and sealed, identifying the agreement or offer, certify that the said agreement or offer has been assented to by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and such certificate with a copy of the Order in Council attached shall be prima facie evidence of such assent. 60 V. c. 38, s. 47.

Assets of selling company to vest in purchasing company.

48. In the case of a purchase and sale of assets so assented to, the assets of the company selling shall, on and from the date of such assent, without any further conveyance, become absolutely vested in the company purchasing, and the company purchasing shall thereupon become and be responsible for the liabilities of the company or society so selling, the whole as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if a special Act were passed with that object; and in dealing with the assets of the company selling it shall be sufficient for the company purchasing to recite the said agreement and the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council thereto, with the date of the said assent. Provided that such transfer of engagements shall not affect the rights of any creditor of either or any corporation transferring its engagements. 60 V. c. 38, s. 48.

Property and rights of both companies vested in new corporation

49. In the case of the amalgamation of corporations so assented to, the several corporations parties thereto shall as from the date of the said assent be deemed and taken to be consolidated and amalgamated, and to merge in and form one corporation by the name stated in the said certificate, with a common seal, and shall, subject to the law of the Province, possess all the rights, privileges and franchises of each of said corporations; and as from the said date all and singular the business, property, real and personal, and all rights and incidents appurtenant thereto, all stock, mortgages or other securities, subscriptions and other debts due on whatever account, and other things in action belonging to such corporations or either of them, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such new or such continuing corporation without further act or deed; Provided, however, that all rights of creditors and liens upon the property of either of such corporations shall be unimpaired by such amalgamation, and that all debts, liabilities and duties of either of the said corporations shall thenceforth attach to the new or continuing corporation, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it; and that no action or proceeding, legal or equitable, by or against the said corporations so amalgamated, or either of them, shall abate or be affected by such amalgamation, but for all the purposes of such action or proceeding such corporation may be deemed still to exist, or the new or continuing corporation may be substituted in such action or proceeding in the place thereof. 60 V. c. 38, s. 49.

RIGHTS OF ALIENS AND MINORS; EXECUTION OF TRUSTS.

Act to extend to aliens, etc.

50. This Act shall, for all purposes, extend to aliens; and co-partners: and corporate bodies may hold shares in any loan corporation standing registered under this Act. 60 V. c. 38, s. 50.

Certain minors may make deposits and take terminating shares.

51. In respect of deposits made or to be made, or of terminating shares taken or to be taken in any loan corporation by any person not of the full age of twenty-one years, but of the age of fifteen years or upwards, such depositor or shareholder shall not, by reason only of his minority, be deemed incompetent to contract or to give a valid discharge for any benefit accruing or for money payable under the contract. 60 V. c. 38, s. 51.

Deposits made or shares taken by minor.

52. When deposit is made or shares taken in any loan corporation by such minor as is mentioned in section 51, the same shall be held to be for the exclusive right and benefit of such depositor or shareholder, free from the lien or control of any person except creditors within the intent of section 61, and shall be repaid to such depositor or shareholder, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor shall be a sufficient release and discharge to the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 52.

Corporation not bound to see to execution of trusts or application of moneys paid on receipt, etc.

53.—(1) The corporation shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, to which any share of its stock, or to which any deposit, debenture, or debenture stock or any other moneys payable by or in the hands of such corporation may be subject; and the receipt of the person or persons in whose name any such share or moneys stand in the books of the corporation shall, from time to time, be sufficient discharge to the corporation for any payment of any kind made in respect of such share or moneys, notwithstanding any trust to which the same may then be subject, and whether or not the corporation has had notice of such trust, and the corporation shall not be bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipt.

Representatives, guardians, or trustees not to be personally liable.

sented by him, shall be personally subject to any liability as a stockholder or shareholder, but the estate and funds in his hands shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator, intestate, ward or person interested in such trust fund would be, if living and competent to hold the stock in his own name; and if the trust is for a living person, such person shall also himself be liable as a stockholder or shareholder: but if such testator, intestate, ward or person so represented is not named in the books of the corporation, the executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall be personally liable in respect of such stock or shares as if he held it or them in his own name as owner thereof. 60 V. c. 38, s. 53.

Exception.

NOMINATION BY INVESTOR OR DEPOSITOR; INTESTACY; MISTAKEN PAYMENTS; TRANSMISSION OF INTEREST; CASE WHERE RIGHTS ARE IN DOUBT; EXECUTION CREDITORS.

Member or investor in loan corporation may nominate a successor.

54. A member of or investor in, or depositor with any loan corporation having a sum of money in the funds thereof not exceeding $300, may from time to time nominate any person or persons (such person or persons being within the Statute of Distributions) as successor or successors at death of such member, investor or depositor; provided that such nomination is made in writing, and duly deposited with the secretary or manager of the corporation, and upon receiving an affidavit of the death of the nominator, the directors shall substitute the name of the nominee on its books in the place of the nominator, or may immediately pay to the nominee the amount due to the deceased member or depositor. 60 V. c. 38, s. 54.

Disposition of funds of intestate members.

55. If any member, investor in, or depositor with the corporation having in the funds thereof a sum of money not exceeding $300, dies intestate and without making such nomination, then the amount due shall, without letters of administration taken out, be paid to the person who appears to the directors to be entitled under the Statute of Distributions to receive the same, upon the directors receiving an affidavit of death and intestacy, and that the person so claiming is entitled as aforesaid. 60 V. c. 38, s. 55.

Mistaken payments by the corporation when valid.

56. Where the directors after the decease of any member or depositor, have paid such sum of money to the person who at the time appeared to be entitled to the effects of the deceased, under the belief that he died intestate without having appointed any nominee, the payment shall be valid and effectual with respect to any demand, from any other person as next of kin or as the lawful representative of the deceased member or depositor, against the funds of the corporation; but, nevertheless, the next of kin or representative shall have his lawful remedy for the amount of such payment as aforesaid against the person who has received the same. 60 V. c. 38, s. 56.

57. If the interest of any person in any share in the capital stock, or debenture stock, or in any bond, debenture or obligation of any loan corporation, (such bond, debenture or obligation not being payable to bearer,) is transmitted in consequence of the death, or bankruptcy, or insolvency of such holder, or by lawful means other than a transfer upon the books of the corporation, the directors shall not be bound to allow any transfer pursuant to such transmission to be entered upon the books of the corporation, or to recognize such transmission in any manner until a declaration in writing, showing the nature of such transmission, and signed and executed by the person or persons claiming by virtue of such transmission, and also executed by the former shareholder, if living and having power to execute the same, has been filed with the manager or secretary of the corporation and approved by the directors, and if the declaration, purporting to be signed and executed, also purports to be made or acknowledged in the presence of a notary public, or of a Judge of a Court of Record, or of a mayor of any city, town or borough, or other place, or a British Consul, or Vice-Consul, or other accredited representative of the British government in any foreign country, the directors may, in the absence of direct actual notice of a contrary claim, give full credit to the declaration, and (unless the directors are not satisfied with the responsibility of the transferee) shall allow the name of the person claiming by virtue of the transmission to be entered in the books of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 57.

On transmission of shares by death, etc., the transferee to file declaration shewing nature of transmission.

58. If the transmission takes place by virtue of any testamentary act or instrument, or in consequence of an intestacy, the probate of the will or letters of administration, or document testamentary, or other judicial or official instrument under which the title (whether beneficial or as trustee), or the administration or control of the personal estate of the deceased purports to be granted by any Court or authority in the Dominion of Canada, or in Great Britain or Ireland, or any other of Her Majesty's dominions or in any foreign country, or an authenticated copy thereof or official extract therefrom, shall, together with the declaration mentioned in section 57, be produced and deposited with the manager, secretary, treasurer or other officer named by the directors for the purpose of receiving the same; and such production and deposit shall be sufficient justification and authority to the directors for paying the amount or value of any dividend, coupon, bond, debenture or obligation or share, or for transferring, or consenting to the transfer of any bond, debenture or obligation or share, in pursuance of, and in conformity to such probate, letters of administration or other such document as aforesaid. 60 V. c. 38, s. 58.

The transferee also in certain cases to file probate of will or certified extract from same, when directors may allow transfer.

59. Wherever the directors entertain reasonable doubts as to the legality of any claim to or upon such share or

When directors have reasonable doubts as to legality of claim they may take opinion of High Court.

shares, bonds, debentures, obligations, dividends, coupons or the proceeds thereof, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the directors to file in the High Court a petition stating such doubt, and praying for an order or judgment adjudicating and awarding the said shares, bonds, debentures, obligations, dividends, coupons or proceeds to the person legally entitled to the same, and such Court shall have authority to restrain any action or proceedings against the corporation, the directors or officers thereof, for the same subject matter, pending the determination of the petition; and the corporation and the directors and officers thereof shall be fully protected and indemnified by obedience to such order or judgment against all actions, claims and demands in respect of the matters in question in such petition, and the proceedings thereupon; Provided always, that if the Court adjudges that such doubts were reasonable, the costs, charges and expenses of the corporation in and about such petition and proceedings shall form a lien upon such shares, bonds, debentures, obligations, dividends, coupons or proceeds, and shall be paid to the corporation before the directors shall be obliged to transfer, or assent to the transfer, or to pay such shares, bonds, debentures or obligations, dividends, coupons or proceeds to the person found entitled thereto. 60 V. c. 38, s. 59.

Costs.

Disposition of proceeds of sale under mortgages.

60. In case of a sale of property mortgaged to the corporation, any surplus not exceeding $300, over and above the amount due to the corporation and costs, derived from sale under power of sale of any property mortgaged to the corporation, where the mortgagor or his assigns has or have died intestate, shall be personal property, whether the sale took place before or after the death of the mortgagor or person entitled to the equity of redemption. 60 V. c. 38, s. 60.

Rights of execution creditors.

61. Where the amount standing to the credit of any depositor or shareholder exceeds $300, nothing in section 60 shall prejudice the right of any execution creditor in respect of any right or lien he may have in respect of such excess to the amount of the execution in the hands of the sheriff.

Proviso.

Provided, however, that to the extent of $300, the amount standing to the credit of any depositor or shareholder in a corporation registered under this Act, shall not while in the hands of the corporation or while in course of transmission from the corporation, be liable to demand, seizure or detention under legal process as against the said depositor or shareholder, or his nominee, assignee or representative, or as against any person to whom the corporation is by the seven sections next preceding authorized to pay said sum. 60 V. c. 38, s. 61

GENERAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS.

62.—(1) A general meeting of the shareholders of the corporation shall be held at least once in each year for the purpose of considering the financial statement of the corporation, and for the purpose of electing directors and auditors, and for the transaction of such other business as is proper to such regular general meeting under the law of the Province and the by-laws of the corporation. Annual general meeting.

(2) Notice of the time and place of the holding of the annual general meeting of the shareholders shall be delivered, or shall be sent by post prepaid, to the address of each shareholder, so far as the same is known, or, on request, to his proxy residing in North America, if the shareholder does not reside therein or is absent therefrom; and such notice of the meeting shall be so delivered or sent at least ten days previously thereto, and a copy of the annual statement of the directors shall accompany such notice. 60 V. c. 38, s. 62. Notice of annual meeting.

63.—(1) The directors shall have the right at any time by resolution of the board passed in that behalf, to call a special general meeting of the shareholders for the transaction of any business specified in such resolution and in the notice calling the meeting. Special general meetings may be had by resolution of directors;

(2) One-fourth part in value of the shareholders of the corporation shall by requisition delivered to the manager, acting manager, or secretary thereof, have at all times the right to call a special general meeting thereof, for the transaction of any business specified in such written requisition and in the notice calling the meeting. or by requisition of shareholders.

(3) Notice of the holding of every special general meeting of the shareholders shall be delivered, or shall be sent by post prepaid to the address of each shareholder, so far as the same is known, at least ten days before the day appointed for the meeting; the notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the business to be transacted thereat. Notice required for special general meeting.

(4) Before the business of any special general meeting is proceeded with there shall be produced and read a statement of the manager or secretary of the corporation declaring upon oath that the requirements of this section as to notice have been fully complied with; and a copy of the notice so delivered or sent and of the said affidavit in relation thereto, shall be entered in the minute book of the corporation as part of the proceedings of the said meeting. 60 V. c. 38, s. 63. Affidavit as to notice. Minutes.

64. Any director of any Provincial loan corporation wilfully neglecting or omitting to give effect to the requisition mentioned in section 63, or to give the notice of general meetings required by sections 62 and 63, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and the procedure and penalty shall Penalty.

be as in the case of an offence against section 117 of this Act. 60 V. c. 38, s. 64.

Voting power of shareholders.

65. At all meetings of shareholders of the corporation the shareholders shall have one vote for each share held by them respectively upon which the holder is not six months in arrear, and the shareholder may either vote in person or be represented and vote by proxy, the proxy being himself a shareholder of the corporation and not six months in arrears. 60 V. c. 38, s. 65.

Limitation of proxies.

66. Every proxy to vote for any shareholder, executed or given either before or after the passing of this Act, and whether a general or special proxy, shall cease to be valid, and shall not be acted on after the expiration of three years from the date thereof. 60 V. c. 38, s. 66.

BY-LAWS.

Shareholders may make by-laws.

67. The several shareholders of any registered Provincial loan corporation may from time to time assemble together, and make such proper by-laws for the government of the same as the majority of shareholders so assembled deem meet, such by-laws not being repugnant to the provisions of this Act or any other law in force in Ontario, and not inconsistent with the by-laws prescribed in Schedule A to this Act; and they may also from time to time amend or rescind the by-laws, and make new by-laws in lieu thereof, under such restrictions as are in this Act contained. 60 V. c. 38, s. 67.

By-laws and documents of corporation; presumptive regularity.

68. All by-laws of the corporation shall be reduced to writing, and shall have affixed thereto the common seal of the corporation, and any copy or extract therefrom, certified under the signature of the presiding officer, or the secretary or manager, shall be prima facie evidence in all civil Courts of Justice in Ontario of such by-laws or extracts from them, and that the same were duly made and are in force; and in any civil action or proceeding it shall not be necessary to give any evidence to prove the seal of the corporation, and documents purporting to be sealed with the seal of such corporation, attested by the presiding officer or the secretary or manager thereof, shall be held prima facie to have been duly sealed with the seal of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 68.

By-laws to be recorded in a book, which is to be accessible.

69. The by-laws of the corporation shall be recorded in a book to be kept by the corporation for that purpose, and to be known as the "By-Law Book" of the corporation; and such book shall, during reasonable business hours of every day, except Sundays and holidays, be open for the inspection of any shareholder, by himself or his agent. 60 V. c. 38, s. 69.

70. The by-laws so recorded shall be binding upon the several shareholders and officers of the corporation and their representatives, and they shall be deemed to have full notice thereof by such record. 60 V. c. 38, s. 71.

Entry of by-laws in book notice to shareholders.

71.—(1) A copy of any by-law of the corporation, under its seal, and purporting to be certified by any officer of the corporation, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the by-law in all Courts in Ontario.

Proof of by-laws.

(2). The entry of any by-law in the books of the corporation, or a true copy of the same, examined with the original, and proved to be a true copy, shall be received as evidence of such by-law. 60 V. c. 38, s. 70.

Examined copy of by-laws entered in book to be evidence.

72. Every loan corporation doing business in Ontario shall file with the Registrar a certified copy of its by-laws, also, within one month of the passing, a certified copy of every addition to, or amendment, or consolidation of the by-laws, made from time to time. 60 V. c. 38, s. 72

Copy of by-laws, etc. to be filed with Registrar.

73.—(1). Every Provincial corporation issuing terminating shares shall, in or by one or more of its by-laws, direct the purposes to which the money from time to time subscribed to, received by and belonging to the corporation, shall be appropriated or apportioned, and in what shares or proportions, and under what circumstances any member, shareholder or other person, may become entitled to such money or any part thereof, in respect of the terminating shares held by them.

By-laws to declare how moneys to be applied.

(2). The by-laws shall be complied with and enforced, and the moneys so subscribed to, received by or belonging to the corporation, shall not be diverted or misapplied, either by the directors or any officer, servant, employee or member of the corporation entrusted therewith, under penalty of making full restitution to the corporation, and, if the Court so adjudge, paying also a fine to the corporation of not less than $200, nor more than $2,000, and this liability shall be additional to any liability under the criminal law. 60 V. c. 38, s. 73.

Moneys not to be misapplied under penalties.

74. The by-laws shall not, by certiorari or other legal process, be removed into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record. 60 V. c. 38, s. 74.

By-laws not to be removed by certiorari.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS, ITS CONSTITUTION AND POWERS.

75. The shareholders assembled in general meeting may by by-law passed in that behalf (of which by-law, as proposed, notice shall be given to each shareholder with the notice of such meeting,) empower the board of directors to make and amend by-laws for the corporation ad interim; which by-laws shall (as provided by section 77) have a binding effect until the next general meeting of the corporation:

Shareholders may delegate to directors power to make or amend by-laws and all acts and orders of the directors under the powers delegated to them shall have the like force and effect as the acts and orders of a general meeting of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 75.

Minute book of corporation.

76. The transactions of all general meetings of the corporation, and of all meetings of the board of directors shall be entered in a book to be known as the Minute Book of the corporation; provided that the transactions of the directors shall at all times be subject to the review, allowance and disallowance of a general meeting of the corporation in such manner and form as the corporation by its by-laws directs and appoints; provided, however, also that all acts and orders of the directors under the powers delegated to them shall have the like force and effect as the acts and orders of a general meeting of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 76.

Transactions of directors subject to review.

Proviso.

Confirmation of by-laws by shareholders.

77. By-laws duly passed by the board of directors pursuant to section 75, shall have a binding effect until the next succeeding general meeting of the shareholders when the said by-laws shall cease to have a binding effect unless confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the shareholders present either in person or by proxy at such meeting, notice being given of the proposed by-laws in the notice calling the meeting; and in default of such confirmation thereat, shall at and from that time only cease to have force, and in that case no new by-law to the same or like effect shall have any force until confirmed at a general meeting of the shareholders. 60 V. c. 38, s. 77.

Alteration at general meeting.

78. At such general meeting the shareholders may, by a like vote, alter or amend such by-laws, and may confirm the same as so altered and amended. 60 V. c. 38, s. 78.

Number, powers and duties of directors; and their tenure of office.

79. In every Provincial loan corporation the by-laws shall declare the powers and duties of the directors; also the number of directors constituting the board and their tenure of office, not exceeding two years. Provided that where the tenure of office is for one year only the number of directors constituting the board shall be not less than three nor more than nine; provided also that, where the tenure of office is for two years the number of directors constituting the board shall be not less than four nor more than ten, and one-half of the directors shall retire annually at the general meeting in rotation, but these and all other retiring directors shall if otherwise qualified be eligible for re-election. 60 V. c. 38, s. 79.

Ballot; qualification of directors.

80. Election of directors shall be by ballot, but no person shall be elected or nominated as director unless he is of the full age of twenty-one years and is a shareholder holding shares or stock absolutely in his own right, and is not in arrear in respect of any call or contribution thereon. 60 V. c. 38, s. 80.

Provision in case of failure of election.

81. If at any time an election of directors is not made, or does not take effect at the proper time, the corporation shall not be held to be thereby dissolved, but the election may take place at any general meeting of the corporation duly called for that purpose, and the retiring directors shall continue in office until their successors are elected. 60 V. c. 38, s. 81.

Interim vacancies.

82. Vacancies occurring in the board of directors may be filled for the unexpired remainder of the term by the board from among the qualified shareholders of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 82.

Powers of directors to be declared by by-laws.

83. In every Provincial loan corporation the powers of the directors shall, subject to this Act, be declared by the by-laws of the corporation and they shall continue to act during the time appointed by the by-laws; and the directors shall and may lawfully exercise all the powers of the corporation except as to such matters as are directed by law or by the by-laws of the corporation to be transacted at a general meeting thereof and have not been by a general meeting delegated to the directors as provided by section 75. 60 V. c. 38, s. 83.

Directors; officers of Board.

84. The directors shall from time to time elect from among themselves a president and vice-president, and they shall in all things delegated to them act for and in the name of the corporation, and the concurrence of a majority of the directors present at any meeting shall at all times be necessary to any act of the board. 60 V. c. 38, s. 84.

Delegated powers to be recorded in minute book.

85. In case directors are appointed by the board for a particular purpose, the powers delegated to them shall be reduced to writing and entered in the minute book of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 85.

Transactions of Board to be entered, and to be subject to review

86. The transactions of the board shall be entered in the minute book of the corporation, and shall at all times be subject to the review, allowance and disallowance of the shareholders in general meeting in such manner and form as the by-laws of the corporation direct and appoint. 60 V. c. 38, s. 86.

General powers of directors.

87. Subject to this Act, and to any Act or instrument constituting the corporation and to the by-laws of the corporation, the directors may use and affix, or may cause to be used and affixed, the seal of the corporation to any document or paper which in their judgment may require the same; they may make and enforce the calls upon the shares of the respective shareholders; they may declare the forfeiture of all shares on which such calls are not paid; they may make any payments and advances of money they may deem expedient which are authorized to be made by or on behalf of the corporation, and enter into all contracts for the execution of the purposes of the corporation, and for all other matter necessary for the transaction of its affairs; they may generally deal with, treat, sell, exchange and dispose of the lands, property and effects of the corporation, for the time being, in such manner as they deem expedient and conducive to the benefit of the corporation, as if the same lands, property and effects were held and owned according to the tenure and subject to the liabilities, if any, from time to time affecting the same, not by a body corporate, but by any of Her Majesty's subjects being of full age; and they may do and authorize, assent to or adopt, all acts required for the due exercise of any further powers and authorities from time to time conferred by the Legislature. 60 V. c. 38, s. 87.

By-laws for particular purposes.

88. The directors of any Provincial loan corporation may, as provided by section 75, pursuant to a general or special by-law passed in that behalf by a general meeting from time to time, make by-laws, not contrary to law or to the special Act, or to this Act, to regulate:

Stock.

(a) The allotment of stock, the issue of shares, the making of calls thereon, the payment thereof, the issue and registration of certificates of shares or stock, the forfeiture of shares for non-payment, the disposal of forfeited shares and of the proceeds thereof, the transfer of shares or stock, the subdivision of existing shares into shares of smaller amount;

Dividends.

(b) The declaration and payment of dividends;

Directors.

(c) The number of directors, their term of service, and the amount of their stock qualification;

Officers.

(d) Subject to the provisions of section 92, the appointment, functions, duties and removal of all agents, officers and servants of the corporation, the security to be given by them to the corporation and their remuneration;

Annual meetings.

(e) The time at which and place where the annual meetings of the corporation shall be held;

Procedure.

(f) The calling of meetings, regular and special, of the board of directors, and of the corporation, the quorum, the requirements as to proxies and the procedure in all things at such meetings;

(g) The imposition and recovery of all penalties and forfeitures admitting of regulation by by-law; and,

Miscellaneous.

(h) The conduct in all other particulars of the affairs of the corporation:

By-laws to be confirmed.

and may from time to time repeal, amend or re-enact the same; but every such by-law and every repeal, amendment or re-enactment thereof, unless in the meantime confirmed at a general meeting of the corporation having notice of such proposal, shall only have force until the next annual meeting of the corporation, and in default of confirmation thereat, shall, at and from that time only, cease to have force; and in that case no new by-law to the same or like effect shall have any force until confirmed at a general meeting of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 88.

BOOKS TO BE KEPT BY CORPORATIONS.

Record books to be kept, and what to contain.

89.—(1) Every loan corporation constituted by the Province, or having its head office therein, shall cause a book or books to be kept at the head office in the Province by the secretary, or by some other officer especially charged with that duty, wherein shall be kept recorded:

(a) A copy of the letters patent or other instrument or Act constituting the corporation, and of any instrument or Act supplementary thereto;

(b) All by-laws of the corporation as provided in section 69;

(c) The names alphabetically arranged of all persons who at and after the passing of this Act are or shall be holders of permanent shares or stock; and the address and calling of every such person while such shareholder; and the amounts paid in, and remaining unpaid respectively on the permanent stock of each shareholder; and all transfers of permanent stock in their order as presented to the corporation for entry, with the date and other particulars of each transfer, and the date of the entry thereof;

(d) The like particulars respecting holdings and transfers of debenture stock;

(e) The names, address and calling of all persons who at and after the passing of this Act are or shall be directors of the corporation; with the several dates at which each person became or ceased to be such director.

Books to be open for inspection and taking extracts.

(2) Such books shall, during reasonable business hours of every day, except Sundays and holidays, be kept open at the chief office of the corporation in the Province for the inspection of shareholders and holders of debentures or debenture stock of the corporation, and their personal representatives; and every such person may, by himself or his agent, make extracts therefrom.

Books to be prima facie evidence.

(3) Such books shall be prima facie evidence of all facts purporting to be thereby stated in any action or proceeding against the corporation or against any shareholder thereof.

Forfeiture for neglect.

(4) Every such corporation which neglects to keep such book or books as aforesaid shall be liable to forfeit its registry under this Act; and if incorporated by the Province shall be liable to forfeit also its corporate franchise and rights.

Penalty for false entries.

(5) No auditor, director, officer or servant of the corporation shall knowingly make or assist to make any untrue entry in any such book, or shall refuse or neglect to make any proper entry therein, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, besides any criminal liability which he may thereby incur, be liable in damages for all loss or injury which any person interested may have sustained thereby.

Liability for refusal to allow inspection of books.

(6) Any director or officer or employee who having the possession, custody or control of such books, refuses to permit any person entitled thereto to inspect any such book or make extracts therefrom, either by himself or his agent, shall be liable to a penalty of $100, or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months. 60 V. c. 38, s. 89.

Register of securities.

90. A register of securities shall be kept, which register in the case of a loan corporation incorporated by or having its head office in the Province, shall include all securities held by the corporation; in the case of other loan corporations it shall include all the securities held upon or in respect of property in the Province; and within thirty days after the taking of any security, a proper entry, specifying the nature and amount of such security, and the names of the parties thereto, with their proper additions, shall be made in such register. 60 V. c. 38, s. 90.

Terminating Shares Book.

91. In all such corporations where, and so long as there are any holders of terminating shares or stock, a book, or books, to be known as the Terminating Shares Book, shall be kept, in which shall be entered the name, address and calling of every such person while such shareholder; the number and amount of shares from time to time taken by him, and his several payments thereon, the interest or profits earned by his shares, also the repayments or the advances, if any, made by the corporation on account of his shares. In any case of forfeiture of shares there shall be an entry thereof, with the date of the forfeiture. The provisions of subsections 3, 4 and 5 of section 89 shall apply to the books prescribed by sections 90 and 91. 60 V. c 38, s. 91.

AUDIT: STATEMENTS TO SHAREHOLDERS.

Auditors: term of office and how chosen; qualifications.

92.—(1) In every Provincial loan corporation two or more auditors shall be chosen by the shareholders in general meeting assembled, and the auditors so chosen shall audit the books, accounts and vouchers for the year then current, provided that if any auditorship becomes vacant during the said year, the board of directors may fill such vacancy until the next general meeting of shareholders. Every auditor shall be a competent accountant, not holding nor having for at least two years prior to his becoming auditor, held, any other office or other employment under the corporation. An auditor need not be a shareholder of the corporation.

Provided that if a corporation has branch establishments, it shall be sufficient that the auditors are allowed access to such securities, and to such reports, and copies of and extracts from the books and accounts of any such branch as may have been transmitted to the head office of the corporation. Proviso.

(2) The removal of the auditors of the corporation, and the remuneration of the auditors and directors shall be determined at general meetings of the shareholders. Removal of auditors; remuneration of auditors and directors.

(3) For incapacity, misconduct or negligence, the board of directors may, by a two-thirds majority, suspend any auditor until the next general meeting of the corporation, and in the event of such suspension shall appoint an auditor ad interim.

(4) If any auditorship becomes vacant between two general meetings of the corporation, the board of directors may fill the vacancy until the next general meeting. 60 V. c. 38, s. 92.

93.—(1) The treasurer or other principal officer of the corporation shall once at least in every year prepare a general statement of the liabilities and assets of the corporation, (specifying in whose custody or possession the funds and effects of the corporation are then remaining,) together with a summary account of all sums of money received or expended by or on account of the corporation since the publication of the next preceding periodical statement and bringing forward the cash balance from that statement. Periodical financial statement to shareholders.

(2) Every such periodical statement shall be attested by the signature of the treasurer or other principal officer of the corporation, and shall contain a certificate signed by the auditors stating that they have duly audited the books, accounts, securities and vouchers of the corporation and have found the following result (stating the result of the audit); and every shareholder shall be entitled to receive from the corporation, without charge, a copy of such signed and certified statement. 60 V. c. 38, s. 93. Periodical statement to bear auditors' certificate.

OFFICERS AND SERVANTS; CUSTODY OF BOOKS AND EFFECTS OF CORPORATION.

94. Subject to section 92, the directors shall from time to time, at any of their usual meetings, appoint such persons as they think proper to be officers or servants or employees of the corporation, grant such salaries and emoluments as they deem fit, and pay the necessary expenses attending the management of the corporation; and shall from time to time appoint such Directors to appoint officers.

persons as may be necessary for the purposes of the corporation, for the time and for the purpose expressed in the by-laws of the corporation, and may from time to time discharge such persons, and appoint others in the room of those who vacate, die or are discharged. 60 V. c. 30, s. 94.

"Manager" and "Managing Director."

95. The secretary or treasurer or secretary-treasurer or other officer of the corporation may be styled "Manager," and when the officer is also a director he may be styled "Managing Director." 60 V. c. 38, s. 95.

Certain persons in service of corporation to furnish security.

96. Every officer or other person appointed to any office in anywise concerning the receipt, safe-keeping or proper application of money shall furnish security to the satisfaction of the directors for the just and faithful execution of the duties of his office according to the by-laws of the corporation, and any person entrusted with the performance of any other service may be required by the directors to furnish similar security. 60 V. c. 38, s. 96.

Property, investments, evidence and books of account and record to be the property of the corporation and to vest therein.

97. All real and personal estate, property and effects, and all titles, securities, instruments and evidences, and all rights and claims of or belonging to the corporation shall be vested in the corporation. The books used by any auditor, officer, collector or agent for verifying or for recording moneys received for the corporation shall be the property of the corporation; nor shall the foregoing persons or any solicitor, counsel or other person whatsoever have in these or in any other of the books of account or record of the corporation any ownership or proprietary right, or any right of lien whatsoever; and any person who in contravention of this section, withdraws, withholds or detains any of the said books from the possession or control of the directors, or from the receiver or liquidator of the corporation, shall be guilty of an offence; and the procedure and penalty shall be as in the case of an offence against section 117 of this Act. 60 V. c. 38, s. 97.

Penalty.

After decease, bankruptcy, etc., of officer, books, etc., to be delivered to corporation.

98. If a person appointed or elected to an office and being entrusted with and having in his possession books, moneys, securities, documents, or other property or effects belonging to the corporation, or relating thereto, dies, resigns, vacates, or becomes incapacitated by mental or physical debility, or becomes bankrupt or insolvent, his legal representative or other person or persons having such property or effects in possession or custody, shall within fifteen days after the decease or the resignation, vacancy, incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency, deliver all such property and effects belonging to the corporation to such person or persons as the directors or executive officers appoint. 60 V. c. 38, s. 98.

ANNUAL STATEMENT TO DEPARTMENT: REGISTRAR'S REPORT.

Annual statement.

99.—(1) It shall be the duty of the presiding officer and the manager or secretary of every registered loan corporation to prepare annually on the 1st day of January, or within two months thereafter, according to a printed form to be supplied on application to the Corporations Registrar, a statement of the financial condition and affairs of the corporation for the purposes of this Act; and the statement, having been signed and sworn to by the president or vice-president and the manager or secretary, shall, together with a certified copy of the auditor's statement or certificate, be filed with the Registrar on or before the 1st day of March then next ensuing; and any corporation refusing or neglecting to so file its statement or to make prompt and explicit answer to any inquiries then or at any time put by the Registrar touching the corporation's contracts or finances shall be liable to suspension or cancellation, or non-renewal of registry; and to a penalty of $50 for each day of default in filing, but not exceeding in the whole $1,000.

Refusal of information.

Who may administer oaths under the Act.

(2) The financial statement required by the next preceding sub-section may be sworn to before any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or Commissioner for taking affidavits: and every such person is hereby authorized to administer an oath for the purposes of any document required or permitted by this Act.

What financial statement shall include.

(3) The financial statement required by this section shall, in the case of an extra-Provincial corporation, comprise a certified copy of the last audited financial statement published or prepared by the corporation for the information of its shareholders and members, and also a statement of the business of the said corporation within the Province for the year then last ended; and the last mentioned statement shall be signed and sworn to by the chairman of the board (or other presiding officer) and the secretary, or by the manager or chief agent and accountant or secretary of such corporation.

Proviso.

Provided that on sufficient cause shown and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter prescribed, the Registrar may by writing under his hand and seal extend (either before or after the 1st day of March) the time for the delivery of the statement required by this section. 60 V. c. 38, s. 99.

Copy of periodical statement or statements.

100. Together with the statement mentioned in section 99 the corporation shall file a certified copy of the statement or statements furnished to shareholders during the year then ended. 60 V. c. 38, s. 100.

Registrar's Annual Report.

101. From the statements so filed the Corporations Registrar shall cause to be prepared, printed and distributed a report which may be known as the Loan Corporations Statements for the year ending 31st December (naming the year); and such report shall include a list of registered loan corporations brought up to its actual date of publication. 60 V. c. 38, s. 101.

Registrar not to vouch for financial condition or solvency of any corporation.

102.—(1) The Registrar shall not in any initial or renewal certificate of registry or in any other publication, or otherwise, vouch for the solvency or financial standing of any corporation; nor shall the printing of a corporation's statement in the Registrar's report, operate, or be anywise construed as a warranty of solvency.

Misrepresentation.

(2) No corporation shall under penalty of becoming disentitled to registry, circulate, publish, print or make any statement or representation contrary to the intent of this section; and any auditor, officer, servant, employee or agent of the corporation who uses any such contrary statement or representation for the purpose of obtaining or transacting business shall be guilty of an offence, and shall upon summary conviction thereof before any Police or Stipendiary Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed be liable as for an offence against section 117 of this Act; and the procedure and penalty prescribed by the said section shall apply in the case of an offence committed against this section. 60 V. c. 38, s. 102.

Penalty.

REGISTRAR; REGISTERS; PROCEEDINGS TO REGISTRY.

Appointment of Registrar and assistants.

103.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint an officer of the public service to be the Corporations Registrar and such assistants as may be necessary.

(2) The remuneration of the Registrar and such assistants in respect of the services required by this Act shall be such sums as the Legislature shall from time to time provide for the purpose. 60 V. c. 38 s. 103.

Three registers to be kept.

104. The Registrar shall keep three several registers, to be known and distinguished as follows:—

Loan Companies' Register.

(1) The Loan Companies' Register, whereon shall be recorded the names of such loan corporations as are from time to time found entitled to registry, whose powers do not include the business of buying and selling land, or the business of a corporate trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, or assignee.

Loaning Land Companies' Register.

(2) The Loaning Land Companies' Register, whereon shall be entered the names of such loan corporations as are from time to time found entitled to registry, whose powers include the business of buying and selling land, but not the business of a corporate trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver or assignee.

(3) The Trusts Companies' Register, whereon shall be entered the names of such loan corporations as are from time to time found entitled to registry, whose powers include the business of a corporate trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver or assignee, but do not include the business of buying and selling land as beneficial owner. 60 V. c. 38, s. 104. Trusts Companies' Register.

105.—(1) The duty of determining, distinguishing and registering those corporations which under this Act are required to be registered and are legally entitled to registry, and of granting registry accordingly, shall devolve upon the Corporations Registrar, subject to appeal as hereinafter provided. Duties of Registrar.

(2) For the purposes of his duties under this Act the Registrar may require to be made, or may take and receive affidavits or depositions, and may examine witnesses upon oath. Evidence.

(3) The evidence and proceedings in any matter before the Registrar may be reported by a stenographic writer who has taken an oath before the Registrar to faithfully report the same. 60 V. c. 38, s. 105.

106.—(1) All declarations or articles of incorporation of loan companies or building societies under any former Act of the Province which are filed with the Clerk of the Peace of any county, or division or union of counties, shall be taken off the file, and transmitted by the Clerk of the Peace to the Corporations Registrar together with a schedule in duplicate of the instruments so sent; and a receipt by the Registrar for the instruments by him received shall discharge the Clerk of the Peace from all further responsibility in respect of the instruments so sent and received. Declaration now filed with Clerks of Peace to be sent to Registrar.

(2) After the issue of the charter to any corporation the Provincial Secretary shall transfer all papers in his Department connected with such company to the office of the Registrar. 60 V. c. 38, s. 106. Transfer of papers.

107.—(1) Applications of loan corporations for initial registry under this Act, shall be made according to a form to be supplied on request, and the applicant shall deliver to the Registrar the application duly completed, together with such evidence as the form by its terms requires, and the applicant shall (if required) furnish such further information, material and evidence, or give such public notice of the application as the Registrar may direct. Applications for initial registry.

(2) Where a loan corporation which was, under chapter 38 of the Acts passed in the 60th year of Her Majesty's reign, required to make but had not made application for registry on or before the 30th day of June, 1897, the Registrar, by writing under his hand and the seal of the Department, may on sufficient cause shown, and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter prescribed, extend the time for Extension of time. 60 V. c. 38.

the delivery of an application or for the prosecution or completion of an application already delivered or tendered.

Financial statement to accompany application.

(3) The applicant corporation shall with its application file a financial statement (in such form as is required by the Registrar), of the financial condition and affairs of the corporation on the 31st day of December then next preceding, or up to the usual balancing day of the corporation, if such balancing day is not more than twelve months before the filing of the statement; and such statement showing the corporation to be solvent shall be signed and verified as prescribed in section 99. 60 V. c. 38, s. 107.

Power of attorney to receive process, etc., must accompany applications in certain cases.

108.—(1) Where any corporation applying for registry has its head office elsewhere than in Ontario, its application for registry shall be accompanied by a power of attorney from the corporation to an agent resident in Ontario; the power of attorney shall be under the seal of the corporation, and be signed by the president and secretary or other proper officers thereof in the presence of a witness, who shall make oath or affirmation as to the due execution thereof; and the official positions in the corporation held by the officers signing such power of attorney shall be sworn to or affirmed by some person cognizant of the facts necessary in that behalf.

Contents of power of attorney.

(2) The power of attorney shall declare at what place in the Province the chief agency of the corporation is, or is to be established, and shall expressly authorize such attorney to receive service of process in all actions and proceedings against the corporation in the Province for any liabilities incurred by the corporation therein, and also to receive from the Registrar all notices which the law requires to be given, or which it is thought advisable to give, and shall declare that service of process for or in respect of such liabilities, and receipt of such notices at such office or chief agency, or personally, on or by such attorney at the place where such chief agency is established, shall be legal and binding on the corporation to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Filing of power of attorney.

(3) The power of attorney duly executed shall be filed with the Registrar, and the filing with the Corporations Registrar of such power of attorney or any other power of attorney from the company to an attorney or attorneys in the Province of Ontario authorizing the execution on behalf of the company of deeds, discharges or other instruments shall be equivalent to and render unnecessary the registering of a power of attorney by the said agent or attorney in any registry office where any discharge of mortgage or other instrument signed by such agent or attorney has to be registered, and shall be a full compliance with any Act or law requiring the registration of a power of attorney by such agent or attorney acting on behalf of the company.

(4) The said power of attorney may confer upon the chief agent or chief agents of the said corporation any further or other powers which the said corporation may deem it advisable to confer upon him or them. The production of a copy of such power of attorney certified by the Corporations Registrar, shall be sufficient evidence for all intents and purposes whatsoever of the power and authority of the person or persons therein named to act on behalf of the loan corporation therein named, in the manner and for the purposes set forth in such certified copy, and no further evidence thereof shall be required.

Authority conferred by power of attorney; copy to be evidence.

(5) If the corporation applying for registry under this Act is a corporation already licensed to do business in the Province of Ontario under chapter 168 of The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, or the amendments thereto, then a copy of the power of attorney to the agent of a company in this Province already filed with the Provincial Secretary at the time of the application for such license shall be accepted by the Corporations Registrar as the power of attorney required by the foregoing provisions of this section.

When power of attorney filed under R.S.O. 1887, c. 168.

(6) In the case of any loan corporation which under any statute of the late Province of Canada is authorized or directed to register and file any commission or power of attorney in any public office, filing such commission or power of attorney under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to satisfy and shall satisfy all the requirements of the said statute as to the registration, filing and publication thereof; and an office copy thereof certified by the Corporations Registrar shall be equivalent to an office copy thereof certified by the Provincial Secretary in accordance with the provisions of such statute.

Filing under this Act to satisfy the like requirements of other Acts.

(7) Wherever the corporation changes its chief agent or chief agency in the Province, the corporation shall file with the Registrar a power of attorney as hereinbefore mentioned, containing any such change or changes in such respect and containing a similar declaration as to service of process and notices as hereinbefore mentioned.

Changes in chief agent or agency.

(8) After the power of attorney is filed as aforesaid any process in any action or proceeding against the corporation for liabilities incurred in the Province, may be validly served on the corporation at its chief agency; and all proceedings may be had thereon to judgment and execution in the same manner and with the same force and effect as in the proceedings in a civil action in the Province; provided that nothing herein contained shall render invalid, service in any other mode in which the corporation may be lawfully served.

Service of process thereafter.

(9) If the power of attorney becomes invalid or ineffectual from any reason, or if other service cannot be effected, the Court or a Judge may order substitutional service of any process or proceeding to be made by such publication as is deemed requisite to be made in the premises, for at least one month in at least one newspaper; and such publication shall be held to Substitutional service of process.

be due service upon the corporation of such process or proceeding. 60 V. c. 38, s. 108

Recording registry; entries on register.

109.—(1) On the proper register the Registrar shall cause to be entered the name of every corporation, which from time to time he, or in case of appeal, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, finds to be legally entitled to registry, together with the date of the commencement of registry; also the term for which (in the absence of suspension, revocation or cancellation,) the registry is to endure; which term shall begin as from the date of the said commencement, and shall end not later than the 30th day of June then next ensuing; he shall also cause to be entered on the register the place where the head office, and the chief agency (if any) are situated, and if there is a chief agency, the name and address of the chief agent; also, if during the term, the registry has been suspended, or revived, or revoked, or cancelled, the date and authority for such suspension, revivor, revocation, or cancellation.

Issue of certificate of registry.

(2) To all corporations found entitled to registry, or renewal of registry, and registered accordingly, the Registrar shall issue under his hand and the seal of the Department a certificate of registry, initial or renewed, as the case may be, setting forth that it has been made to appear to him that the corporation is entitled to registry as a (describing the corporation) under this Act, and that the corporation is accordingly registered for the term stated in the certificate. Every certificate of registry granted under this Act shall specify the first day, and also the last day, of the term for which the corporation is registered; and the corporation so registered shall be deemed to be registered from the commencement of the first day to the end of the last day so specified.

Commencement and end of certificates.

Duration of registry.

(3) In the case of all loan corporations any certificate of registry issued under this Act not being an interim or an extended certificate, shall, unless sooner suspended or cancelled, remain valid until the then next ensuing thirtieth day of June inclusive, when, if the corporation has complied with the law and continues solvent, the corporation shall be entitled to a certificate of renewed registry, and so, on every succeeding thirtieth day of June thereafter.

Interim certificate:

(4) Upon proof that a corporation has, by accident or unavoidable cause, been prevented from fully complying with the provisions of this Act within the time prescribed, and upon payment to the Provincial Treasury of the fee hereinafter enacted, the Registrar may by writing under his hand and the seal of the Department, grant, for a time limited therein, an interim certificate of registry, or may by such sealed writing extend for a limited time, the duration of a subsisting certificate of registry; but in default in either case of renewal of registry before the expiry of the time so limited, the corporation shall be deemed to be unregistered at and from the said expiry. 60 V. c. 38, s. 109.

Extension of certificate.

CORPORATE NAME: CHANGE OF NAME OR OF HEAD OFFICE.

110.—(1) No corporation shall be registered under a name identical with that under which any other existing corporation is registered, or so nearly resembling such name as to be likely, nor shall be registered under any other name likely, in the opinion of the Registrar, to deceive the members or the public as to its identity; and no registered corporation shall be registered under a new or a different name, except upon proof that such new or different name is authorized by law. Similar corporate names: New name:

(2) Where a loan corporation within the legislative authority of this Province is desirous of adopting a name different from that by which it was incorporated, or where, in the opinion of the Registrar, the name by which the corporation was incorporated may be easily confounded with that of any other existing corporation, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may change the name of the corporation to some other name to be set forth in the order in Council; but no such change of name shall affect the rights or obligations of the corporation, and all proceedings which might have been continued or commenced by or against the corporation by its former name may be continued or commenced by or against the corporation by its new name. Change of corporate name.

(3) Upon the like procedure the location of the head office of a loan corporation may be changed. Change of head office.

(4) Of any change of name or head office, and of any application for such change, such public notice shall be given in the Ontario Gazette and otherwise, as the Registrar may direct. 60 V. c. 38, s. 110. Public notice.

CORPORATIONS ADMISSIBLE TO REGISTRY: REFUSAL, SUSPENSION, REVIVOR, CANCELLATION OF REGISTRY: APPEAL.

111. The following corporations, being solvent, shall, upon due application, be admissible to registry, and no other shall be registered:— What shall be admissible to registry as a loan corporation.

(1) Loan corporations hereafter duly constituted under the law of the Province. Corporations hereinafter constituted by the Province.

(2) Every loan corporation, which being duly constituted under the law of this Province, or of any other Province of Canada, or of the Dominion of Canada, or of the United Kingdom, was in actual, active and bona fide operation in Ontario on the tenth day of February, 1897. Active corporations in present bona fide operation in the Province.

(3) Every loan corporation, which being duly constituted as a joint stock corporation under the law of any other Province of Canada, or of the Dominion of Canada, or of the United Kingdom, issues only permanent shares, and which, not having been in such operation in Ontario on the said day, has a sub- Certain non-Provincial corporation, not in present actual operation in the Province.

scribed permanent stock of not less than $500,000, whereof $100,000 is paid up and unimpaired.

(4) Where the corporation takes power by its instrument of association or by-laws to issue terminating shares, the corporation shall be limited in its operations to a particular county (as is by section 8 provided in the case of Provincial corporations issuing terminating shares); and the certificate of registry shall expressly state such limitation. The fee for the initial certificate of registry shall be $25, and the fee for renewal certificates shall be determined by article 6 of section 120. 60 V. c. 38, s. 111.

Suspension or cancellation of registry.

112.—(1) Upon proof that any registry or certificate of registry has been obtained by fraud or mistake, or that a corporation exists for an illegal purpose, or is insolvent, or has failed to pay its obligations, or has wilfully, and after notice from the Registrar, contravened any of the provisions of this Act, or has ceased to exist, the registry of the corporation may be suspended or cancelled by the Registrar.

Notice of suspension or cancellation of registry to be given to the corporation.

(2) On the suspension or cancellation of the registry of any corporation, the Registrar shall, by registered post or otherwise, cause notice thereof, in writing under his hand, to be delivered to the corporation at its head office, whether situate in the Province or elsewhere, or at the chief agency of the corporation in Ontario; and from and after such suspension or cancellation, the corporation shall (except in the event of and after revivor) absolutely cease to transact or undertake the business of a loan corporation in Ontario, except so far as necessary for the winding up of such business, and so as not to prejudice any liability actually incurred by such corporation, which may be enforced against the same as if such suspension or cancellation had not taken place. 60 V. c. 38, s. 112.

Decision of Registrar to be in writing and to be delivered to corporation.

113.—(1) Where in any disputed case the Registrar decides that a corporation is or is not legally entitled to registry, or to renewal of registry, or where he suspends, revives, revokes or cancels the registry of a corporation, the Registrar, except as otherwise herein provided shall give his decision in writing and shall cause a copy thereof certified under the seal of the Department to be delivered by registered post or otherwise to the corporation at its head office, or chief agency in Ontario.

Certified copy of judgment, or of a certificate of registry.

(2) A certified copy of any such decision, or of any certificate of registry may be had on application to the Registrar, and upon payment to the Provincial Treasurer of the fee hereinafter prescribed.

Affidavits and depositions to be filed.

(3) The affidavits and depositions received or taken by the Registrar in any disputed case shall be filed. 60 V. c. 38, s. 113.

Appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

114.—(1) An appeal shall lie to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from any decision of the Registrar affecting the right of any company or corporation to register; or affecting the revivor of registration of any company or corporation, or suspending or cancelling the registration of any company or corporation, and from any decision of the Registrar under section 109 or section 110, or in any other case by leave of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Notice of appeal; and grounds.

(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, no appeal shall be allowed unless notice thereof is delivered to the Registrar within thirty days after the decision appealed against has been made; nor unless there is therewith delivered to the Registrar a statement setting out clearly the grounds of appeal, including the facts alleged and the points of law to be argued, and the evidence and authorities relied upon.

Decision.

(3) The decision of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall be final and conclusive. 60 V. c. 38, s. 114.

Cancellation of registry by request of corporation.

115. The Registrar may, if he thinks fit, at the request of the corporation, evidenced in such manner as he may direct, cancel the registry of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 115.

NOTICE TO CORPORATION FOR ANY PURPOSE OF THE ACT.

Service of notices.

116. Delivery of any written notice to any loan corporation for any purpose of this Act, where the mode thereof is not otherwise expressly provided, may be by letter delivered at the head or chief office of the corporation in Ontario or chief agency therein, or by registered post letter addressed to the corporation, its manager or agent at such chief office or agency, or by such written notice given in any other manner to an authorized agent of the corporation. 60 V. c. 38, s. 116.

UNREGISTERED LOAN CORPORATIONS PROHIBITED.

No unregistered corporation to undertake the business of a loan corporation.

117.—(1) After the thirty-first day of December, 1897, no incorporated body or persons acting in its behalf, other than a corporation standing registered under this Act, and persons duly authorized by such registered corporation to act in its behalf, shall undertake or transact the business of a loan corporation in the Province, as such business is described in clause 5 of section 2 of this Act. In the case of any loan corporation whatsoever any setting up or exhibiting of a sign or inscription containing the name of the corporation, or any distribution or publication of any proposal, circular, card, advertisement, printed form or like document in the name of the corporation, or any written or oral solicitation in the corporation's behalf, or any collecting or taking of money on account of shares or of loans or advances shall, both as to the corporation and as to the person acting or purporting to act in its behalf, be deemed undertaking the business of a loan corporation within the meaning of this section.

No person to act as agent for unregistered loan corporation.

(2) If any promoter, organizer, office-bearer, manager, director, officer, collector, agent, employee, or person whatsoever, undertakes or transacts the business of a loan corporation which does not stand registered under this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence and upon summary conviction thereof before any Police or Stipendiary Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200 and costs, and not less than $20 and costs; and in default of payment the offender shall be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding three months, and not less than one month; and on a second or any subsequent conviction he shall be imprisoned with hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months, and not less than three months.

Penalty.

Informant; application of fine.

(3) Any one may be prosecutor or complainant under this Act; and one half of any fine imposed by virtue of this Act shall, when received, belong to Her Majesty, for the use of the Province, and the other half shall belong to the prosecutor or complainant.

Appeal.

(4) Any person convicted under this Act who gives notice of appeal against the decision shall be required before being released from custody to give to the Magistrate or Justices satisfactory security for the amount of the penalty, and the costs of conviction and appeal; and the appeal shall be to a Divisional Court of the High Court.

Burden of proof.

(5) In any trial or cause or proceeding under this Act the burden of proving registry shall be upon the corporation or person charged.

Limitations of prosecutions.

(6) All informations or complaints for the prosecution of offences under this Act shall be laid or made in writing within one year after the commission of the offence. 60 V. c. 38, s. 117.

VERIFICATION OF ANNUAL STATEMENTS MADE TO REGISTRAR; SPECIAL AUDIT.

Registrar to have access to corporation books, etc.

118.—(1) The Registrar or any person authorized under his hand and seal shall, with the approval of the Minister, have at any time within reasonable business hours of every day except Sundays and holidays access to the books, vouchers, securities and documents of any corporation, undertaking or transacting in the Province the business of a loan corporation; and any officer or person in charge, possession, custody or control of such books, vouchers, securities or documents refusing or neglecting to afford such access, shall be guilty of an offence punishable as for an offence against section 117, the procedure and penalty prescribed by which section shall apply in the case of an offence against this section; and if registered, the corporation shall be liable to have its registry suspended; and on continued refusal or neglect to afford such access, shall be liable to have its registry cancelled.

Special audit in case of fraud, illegal acts, or default of audit or financial statement.

(2) If a loan corporation is three months in default in the delivery of the financial statement required by section 99 of this Act; or upon proof that the accounts of a loan corporation have been materially and wilfully falsified, or that for eighteen consecutive months there has been no bona fide audit of the books and accounts; or if there is filed with the Registrar a requisition for audit bearing the signatures, addresses and occupations of at least twenty-five shareholders of the corporation, holding shares, upon which not less than $10,000 has been paid up, and such requisition alleges in a sufficiently particular manner to the satisfaction of the Registrar, specific fraudulent or illegal acts, or repudiation of contracts, or insolvency, the Registrar may nominate a competent accountant, who shall under the directions of the Registrar, make a special audit of the corporation's books, accounts and securities, and report thereupon to the Registrar in writing, verified upon oath.

Credentials of auditor.

(3) For purposes of this Act a special auditor shall be sufficiently accredited, if he deliver to the secretary, or to any managing officer of the corporation a written statement under the hand and seal of the Registrar, to the effect that the Registrar has nominated such auditor to audit the books, accounts and securities of the corporation.

Expenses of special audit.

(4) The expense of such special audit shall be borne by the corporation, and the auditor's account therefor when approved in writing by the Registrar shall be conclusive and shall be payable by the corporation forthwith:

Provided that when an audit is requested as in subsection 2, the persons so requesting it shall, together with their requisition, deposit with the Registrar proper security for the costs of the audit in a sum not exceeding $300 as he may determine; and when the facts alleged in the requisition appear to the Registrar to have been partly or wholly disproved by the audit, he may pay the costs thereof partly or wholly out of the deposit.

Untrue entries, etc.

(5) Every auditor, director, officer, manager, agent, collector, servant or employee of the corporation, who knowingly makes or publishes, or assists to make or publish any wilfully false statement respecting the corporation's financial affairs, or who makes or assists to make any untrue entry in any book of record, entry or account, or who refuses or neglects to make any proper entry therein, or to exhibit the same, or to allow the same to be inspected or audited either for the general purposes of the corporation, or for the purposes of this Act, and extracts to be taken therefrom, shall be guilty of an offence, and upon summary conviction thereof before any Police or Stipendiary Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace where the offence was committed, shall be imprisoned in any gaol of the Province with or without hard labour, or in the Central Prison, for a period not exceeding twelve months.

Where corporation refuses or obstructs audit.

(6) Where a corporation by its officer, employee, servant or agent having in his custody possession or power the funds, books, vouchers, securities, or documents of the corporation refuses to have the same duly audited as provided by section 92 and by this section, or obstructs an auditor in the performance of his duties, the Registrar upon proof of the fact may suspend or cancel the registry of such corporation.

Report of special auditor.

(7) If the report made by the special auditor appears to the Registrar to disclose fraudulent or illegal acts on the part of the corporation, or a repudiation of its contracts, or insolvency, the Registrar shall notify the corporation accordingly and furnish the corporation with a copy of the special auditor's report allowing two weeks for a statement in reply to be filed by the corporation with the Registrar.

Registrar's decision.

(8) Upon consideration of the special auditor's report and of the corporation's statement in reply, and of such further evidence, documentary or oral, as the Registrar may require, the Registrar shall render his decision in writing, and may thereby continue, or suspend, or cancel the registry of the corporation. 60 V. c 38, s. 118.

Official seal.

119. The Registrar shall have a seal of office which shall bear upon its face the words "Registrar of Loan Corporations." 60 V. c. 38, s. 119.

SCHEDULE A.

(Sections 4 and 67.)

Particular matters to be set forth in the by-laws of the body applying for incorporation hereinafter called the applicant :—

Corporate name and head office.

1. The proposed corporate name, and the location of the head office of the corporation.

Purposes.

2. The purposes for which the corporation is to be constituted.

Whether constituted as a company with permanent capital or otherwise.

Particulars of stock.

3. The manner in which the corporation is to be constituted ; whether as a temporary or as a continuing corporation ; whether as a company with permanent capital, or otherwise ; and, if as a company with permanent capital what respective amounts of such capital are, before the commencement of business, to be authorized, subscribed, and paid up ; the number of shares and amount of each share of such capital ; with the proviso that the said subscribed permanent capital shall be not less than $300,000, with ten per cent. of the subscription paid up ; and that a certified copy of the stock subscription book shall be filed with the Registrar, together with the application and by-laws ; and with the further proviso that the shares of the said stock or any of the permanent stock of the applicant shall not be issued at a discount, nor upon any terms, agreement or understanding that the taker or holder shall be liable for any less amount than the par value of the shares, less the calls fully paid thereon.

No permanent stock to be issued at a discount.

By-laws respecting terminating shares

By-laws respecting permanent shares or stock.

4. If the plans of the applicant include the issue of terminating stock or shares, then the by-laws shall set forth full and explicit particulars of the terms upon which such stock or shares are to be issued, and will mature, and upon which they become withdrawable by the holder, or redeemable by the corporation. If the plans of the corporation include the issue of permanent shares or stock, either concurrently with, or in substitution for, terminating shares or stock, or include the conversion of terminating into permanent shares or stock, the by-laws shall include full and explicit provisions respecting these matters.

Loan and securities ; repayment.

5. The by-laws shall include full and explicit provisions respecting the plan or plans on which the corporation is to make loans or advances, the kind of security (principal and collateral) to be taken for the repayment, the rate or rates of interest to be charged ; the mode in which such loans or advances are to be repaid to the corporation, and, if by a sinking fund or instalments of blended principal and interest, the by-laws shall include a table resolving each such instalment, or each such payment on account of sinking fund respectively into its components of principal and interest.

Period of grace ; default, reinstatement, fines forfeitures, etc.

6. The by-laws shall further set forth clearly what period of grace, if any, is to be allowed for the payment of money due, principal or interest ; upon what terms or conditions a borrower or member, or shareholder in default is to be reinstated ; what fines or forfeitures, if any, are to be imposed for any and for what default or breach of contract ; whether in cases where fine or forfeiture is imposed, the corporation claims to exercise any other or further remedy against the defaulter ; also whether prior to the exercise of any remedy against a defaulter the corporation is to give him any and what notice. If the provisional corporation by its by-laws takes power to impose fines for defaults, then its by-laws shall further provide that fines upon fines, or compound fines shall not be payable ; and shall further provide that the fines at any time payable in respect of any default shall not exceed altogether ten per cent. of the instalment or the sum (not including fines) then in default.

7. If the applicant proposes to issue terminating shares, the by-laws shall further set forth the manner in which losses are to be ascertained and provided for. Losses, how ascertained and provided for.

9. The by-laws of every applicant for incorporation shall define and regulate the exercise of such general powers of borrowing as are by this Act conferred upon loan corporations, and shall declare within what limits such borrowing powers are to be exercised, and whether by issuing prepaid or fully paid terminating stock, or by issuing debentures or debenture stock, or otherwise. If prepaid terminating stock is to be issued, then the by-laws shall set out the terms upon which such stock is to be issued and withdrawn or redeemed and shall include tables showing separately the estimated amount to become due by the corporation for principal and for interest. Borrowing powers.

10. In furtherance of and subject to the provisions contained in this Act, the by-laws shall provide for the holding of general meetings, ordinary and special, of the shareholders; shall prescribe the time and place of the ordinary general meetings, of which one at least shall be held in each year; shall prescribe the notice to be given of ordinary general meetings, and the notice to be given of special general meetings; shall provide for the election of directors, prescribe their number, their powers, duties, and tenure of office; shall prescribe the securities, and the minimum amount thereof to be taken for the fidelity of the person or persons having custody or control of the funds of the corporation; shall provide for the proper audit at least yearly, of its books and accounts by two or more competent accountants who shall not be otherwise employed by the corporation, or be officers thereof; and shall prescribe the delivery to each shareholder at least once in each year, of a financial statement verified by the auditors, showing fully and truly the income and expenditure (including the expenses of management) of the corporation for the period audited, and the liabilities and assets of the corporation as at the date of the statement. By-laws for general meetings, etc. Directors, officers, and servants. Audits. Statements to shareholders.

11. The by-laws shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, provide for the amendment of the by-laws by the shareholders in general meeting, after at least thirty days' notice in writing of the particular amendment or amendments proposed has been given to each shareholder and to the Registrar. Amendment of by-laws.

12. The by-laws of every applicant company taking power to issue terminating shares shall provide that to every person taking such shares there shall be delivered without charge a copy of the by-laws then in force; and on the tender of twenty-five cents, a copy of the by-laws for the time being in force shall be delivered to any person on demand. Taker of terminating shares entitled to copy of by-laws. Copies to be on sale.

60 V. c. 38, Sched. A.

4. TRUST COMPANIES.

CHAPTER 206.

An Act respecting Trust Companies.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Ontario Trust Companies Act." 60 V. c. 37, s. 1.

"Trust company," meaning of.

2. In this Act the expression "trust company" shall mean a company incorporated for the purpose of exercising the powers set forth in the Schedule to this Act or any of them. 60 V. c. 37, s. 2.

Incorporation.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Rev. Stat., 1887, c. 157.

3. Proceedings for the incorporation of any trust company shall be taken under The Ontario Companies Act; and every trust company heretofore incorporated under the said Act, or under The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, chapter 157, or hereafter incorporated shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and also to those of The Ontario Companies Act, so far as the provisions of the latter Act are applicable and consistent with those of this Act; Provided always that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may relieve any company incorporated before the 13th day of April, 1897, from compliance with any of the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, as may be deemed expedient. 60 V. c. 37, s. 3.

Companies to which Act applies.

4.—(1) No company shall be incorporated, or otherwise authorized, by letters patent to execute the office of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian of a minor's estate or of committee of a lunatic's estate, and no letters patent shall be granted to any company heretofore incorporated conferring any such powers upon such company, without in either case such company having complied with the provisions of this Act, in addition to what is required in other cases by The Ontario Companies Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Three-fourths of stock to be held by residents of Ontario.

(2) At the time of the issuing of the letters patent to any trust company, and always thereafter, at least three-fourths of the stock of the company, exclusive of the stock held by companies, shall be held by persons who are residents of this Province.

(3) Within three days after the notice for the letters patent first appears in the Ontario Gazette a copy thereof shall be served on every trust company theretofore incorporated by Act of the Legislature or by letters patent. Notice of application to be served on other trust companies.

(4) The capital stock of the company shall be paid up to the extent of at least $100,000, before the letters patent issue. Capital stock.

(5) When application is made for letters patent incorporating a trust company or granting to a trust company any of the said powers the applicants shall satisfy the Provincial Secretary, (or any other member of the Executive Council who may, by order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, be charged with the duty) respecting the fitness of the applicants for the discharge of the duties appertaining to such trust, and that the same is such as to command the confidence of the public, and also that the public convenience and advantage would be promoted by granting to the proposed company the powers aforesaid; and the Minister aforesaid shall report on the said particulars for the consideration of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 60 V. c. 37, s. 4. Report on fitness of applicants for incorporation

5. No company shall receive authority by letters patent to become or be appointed guardian of the persons of infants or committee of the persons of lunatics. 60 V. c. 37, s. 5. Companies not to act as guardians or committees.

6. The letters patent shall not issue unless the Lieutenant-Governor in Council is in like manner satisfied that the general fitness of the applicants for the discharge of the duties appertaining to such trusts as aforesaid is such as to command the confidence of the public, so that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by granting to the company the powers applied for. 60 V. c. 37, s. 6. Fitness of applicants to act as trust company.

7. Any trust company to which this Act applies may, subject to the conditions and provisions of this Act, have granted to such company by letters patent the powers mentioned in the Schedule hereto, or such of them as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council sees fit. 60 V. c. 37, s. 7. Powers of trust companies.

8.—(1) Where a trust company incorporated under a special Act or under The Ontario Companies Act, or the said chapter 157 of The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, is authorized to execute the office of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian of a minor, or committee of a lunatic, then in case the Lieutenant-Governor in Council approves of such company being accepted by the High Court as a Trusts Company for the purposes of such Court, the said Court, or any Judge thereof, and every other Court or Judge having authority to appoint such an officer, may, with the consent of the company, appoint such company to exercise any of the said offices in respect of any estate, or person, under the authority of such Court or Judge, Appointment of companies to act as trustee, etc. Rev. Stat. c. 191.

or may grant to such company probate of any will in which such company is named an executor; but no company which has issued, or has authority to issue, debentures shall be approved as aforesaid.

Company so licensed may be sole trustee.

(2) A trust company so approved of may be appointed to be a sole trustee, notwithstanding that, but for this Act, it would be necessary to appoint more than one trustee, and may also be appointed trustee jointly with another person.

Under deed, will, etc.

(3) Such appointment may be made whether the trustee is required under the provisions of any deed, will or document creating a trust, or whether the appointment is under the provisions of The Act respecting Trustees and Executors and the Administration of Estates, or otherwise.

Rev. Stat. c. 129.

(4) Notwithstanding any rule of practice, or any provision of any Act requiring security, it shall not be necessary for the said company to give any security for the due performance of its duty as such executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian or committee, unless otherwise ordered.

(5) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may revoke the approval given under this section, and no Court, or Judge, after notice of such revocation, shall appoint any such company to be an administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian, or committee, unless such company gives the like security for the due performance of its duty as would be required from a private person. 60 V. c. 37, s. 8.

Liability of company acting as trustee.

9. The liability of a trust company to persons interested in an estate held by the company as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian, or committee as aforesaid, shall be the same as if the estate had been held by any private person in the like capacity, and its powers shall be the same. 60 V. c. 37, s. 9.

Investigation of affairs of company.

10.—(1) The High Court, if it deems necessary, may from time to time appoint a suitable person to investigate the affairs and management of any trust company; and such person shall report thereon to the Court, and regarding the security afforded to those by or for whom the engagements of the company are held; and the expense of such investigations shall be defrayed by the company; or the Court may, if it deems necessary, examine the officers or directors of the company under oath as to the security aforesaid.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor may also from time to time, where he deems it expedient, appoint an inspector to examine the affairs of any such company, and report to him on the security afforded to those by and for whom its engagements are held as aforesaid; and the expense of the investigation shall be borne by the company. 60 V. c. 37, s. 10.

11.—(1) Every Court into which money is paid by parties, or is brought by order or judgment, may by order direct the same to be deposited with any trust company that may agree to accept the same, and the company may pay any lawful rate of interest on such moneys as may be agreed upon, and where no special arrangement is made, interest shall be allowed by the company at the rate of not less than three per centum annually. Deposit with company of money paid into Court.

(2) Every trust company may invest any trust moneys in its hands in any securities in which private trustees may by law invest trust moneys, and may also invest such moneys in the public stock funds or Government securities of any of the Provinces of the Dominion, or in any securities guaranteed by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or by the Dominion, or by any of the said Provinces, or in the bonds or debentures of any municipal corporation in any of the said Provinces; Mode of investment.

Provided that such company shall not in any case invest the moneys of any trust in securities prohibited by the trust, and shall not invest moneys intrusted to it by any Court in a class of securities disapproved of by the Court. 60 V. c. 37, s. 11.

12. No company incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act, or chapter 157 of The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, with power to execute the office of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian of a minor, or committee of a lunatic, shall issue debentures. 60 V. c. 37, s. 12. Trust companies not to issue debentures. Rev. Stat. c. 191.

13.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act contained where an application is made for the incorporation of a trust company the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may refer the same to the High Court of Justice for the purpose of obtaining the opinion of a Divisional Court as to whether there is any necessity for the incorporation of such company, having regard to the business to be done and the companies already incorporated and doing business, and as to whether the public convenience and advantage would be promoted by granting to the company the powers applied for. Application for incorporation of trust company may be referred to High Court.

(2) Upon the receipt of the Order in Council and other papers connected with the matter so referred, it shall be the duty of the proper officer to enter the case upon the list of causes set down for hearing at the next sitting of a Divisional Court held not less than eight days after the receipt of such Order, unless a Judge allows the same to be set down for an earlier sitting.

(3) The Court shall receive such affidavits as may be filed by any parties interested, saving all just exceptions, and shall hear argument by such counsel, if any, as the Court may deem reasonable on behalf of the Attorney-General, the applicants, and of those who oppose the application, and shall thereupon consider the matter referred, and certify to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the opinion of the Court thereon.

(4) If the opinion is unfavourable to the incorporation of the proposed company the application shall not be further proceeded with. 60 V. c. 37, s. 13.

SCHEDULE

(Sections 2 and 7.)

Powers which may be given to Trust Companies.

To take, receive and hold all estates and property, real and personal, which may be granted, committed, transferred, or conveyed to them with their consent, upon any trust or trusts whatsoever (not contrary to law) at any time or times, by any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, or by any court in the Province of Ontario.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

SHORT TITLE.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Railway Act of Ontario," R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 1.

INTERPRETATION.

Interpretation of words.

2. Where the words following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

"The Special Act."

1. "The Special Act" shall be construed to mean any Act authorizing the construction of a railway, and with which this Act is incorporated;

"Prescribed."

2. "Prescribed," used in this Act in reference to any matter herein stated, shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same is prescribed or provided for in the special Act; and the sentence in which such word occurs shall be construed as if, instead of the word "prescribed," the expression "prescribed for that purpose in the special Act" had been used;

"The Lands."

3. "The Lands" shall mean the lands which by the special Act are authorized to be taken or used for the purpose thereof;

"The Undertaking."

4. "The Undertaking" shall mean the railway and works, of whatever description, by the special Act authorized to be executed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 2.

Interpretation of words in this Act and in special Acts.

3. Where the following words occur, both in this and the special Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

"Lands."

1. "Lands" shall include all real estate, messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments of any tenure;

"Lease."

2. "Lease" shall include any agreement for a lease;

"Toll."

3. "Toll" shall include any rate or charge or other payment payable under this Act or the special Act, for any passenger, animal, carriage, goods, merchandise, articles, matters or things conveyed on the railway;

"Goods."

4. "Goods" shall include things of every kind conveyed upon the railway, or upon steam or other vessels connected therewith;

"County."

5. "County" shall include any union of counties, and any District;

"County Court Judge."

6. "County Court Judge" shall include a Judge of a District Court;

"Highways."

7 "Highways" shall mean all public roads, streets, lanes, and other public ways and communications;

"Sheriff."

8. "Sheriff" shall include under Sheriff, or other legal competent deputy; and where any matter in relation to any lands is required to be done by any Sheriff or Clerk of the Peace, the expression "the Sheriff," or the expression "Clerk of the Peace," shall in such case be construed to mean the Sheriff or Clerk of the Peace of the district, county, riding, division or place where such lands are situate; and if the lands in question, being the property of one and the same person, are situate not wholly in one district, county, riding, division, or place, the same expression shall be construed to mean the Sheriff or Clerk of the Peace of any such district, county, riding, division or place where any part of such lands is situate;

"Clerk of the Peace."

9. "Justice" shall mean Justice of the Peace acting for the district, county, riding, division, city or place where the matter requiring the cognizance of a Justice arises, and who is not interested in the matter; and where the matter arises in respect of lands being the property of the same person, situate not wholly in any one district, county, riding, division, city or place, the word "Justice" shall mean a Justice acting for the district, county, riding, division, city or place where any part of such lands is situate, and who is not interested in such matter; "Justice."

10. "Owner" (where, under the provisions of this Act or the special Act, any notice is required to be given to the owner of any lands, or where any act is authorized or required to be done with the consent of any such owner) shall be understood to mean any corporation or person who, under the provisions of this Act or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, would be enabled to sell and convey lands to the company; "Owner."

11. "The Company" shall mean the company or person authorized by the special Act to construct the railway; "The Company."

12. "The Railway" shall mean the railway and works by the special Act authorized to be constructed; "The Railway."

13. "Clause" shall mean any separate section of this Act, or of any other Act therein referred to, distinguished by a separate number; "Clause."

14. "Shareholder" shall mean every subscriber to or holder of stock in the undertaking, and shall extend to and include the personal representatives of the shareholder. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 3. "Shareholder."

PART FIRST.

APPLICATION OF ACT.

4. Where not otherwise expressed, this and the following sections to section 44 inclusive, shall apply to every railway which is subject to the Legislative authority of the Legislature of this Province and has been authorized to be constructed by any special Act of the late Province of Canada or of this Province, passed since the 30th day of August, 1851, or is authorized to be constructed by any special Act passed after this Act takes effect; and this Act shall be incorporated with every such special Act; and all the clauses and provisions of this Act, unless they are expressly varied or excepted by such special Act, shall apply to the undertaking authorized Application of Act.

thereby, so far as applicable to the undertaking, and shall, as well as the clauses and provisions of every other Act incorporated with such special Act, form part of such special Act, and be construed together therewith as forming one Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 4.

What shall be sufficient in making an incorporation of this Act with special Acts.

5.—(1) Every special Railway Act shall be a public Act, and for the purpose of incorporating this Act or any of its provisions with a special Act, it shall be sufficient in such Act to enact that the clauses of this Act, with respect to the matter so proposed to be incorporated, referring to the same in the word or words at the head of and introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, shall be incorporated with the special Act, and thereupon all the clauses and provisions of this Act with respect to the matter so incorporated shall, save in so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by the special Act, form part thereof, and the special Act shall be construed as if the substance of such clauses and provisions were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which the special Act relates. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 5.

Power to construct railway, etc., to be exercised subject to provisions of this Act.

(2) The power given by the special Act to construct the railway, and to take and use lands for that purpose, shall be exercised subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 6.

Compensation to be made for lands damaged.

6.—(1) For the value of lands taken, and for all damages to land injuriously affected by the construction of the railway in the exercise of the powers by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, vested in the company, compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of, and to all other persons interested in, any lands so taken or injuriously affected.

How compensation to be determined.

(2) Unless otherwise specially provided by this Act or the special Act, the amount of such compensation shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided by this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 7.

INCORPORATION.

Companies established under special Acts declared to be bodies corporate, etc.

7. Every company established under a special Act shall be a body corporate under the name declared in the special Act, and shall be invested with all such powers, privileges and immunities as are necessary to carry into effect the intentions and objects of this Act and of the special Act therefor, and are incident to such corporation, or are expressed or included in The Interpretation Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 8.

Rev. Stat. c. 1, s. 8 (25).

POWERS.

Crown lands not to be expropriated without con-

8. Notwithstanding anything in any public or private Act to the contrary, no railway company shall have power to take or expropriate any lands of Her Majesty in the right of the Province of Ontario, without the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council in that behalf. 59 V. c. 47, s. 1. sent of Lieut.-Governor in Council.

9. The company shall have power and authority— Powers:

1. To receive, hold and take all voluntary grants and donations of land or other property made to it, to aid in the construction, maintenance and accommodation of the railway, but the same shall be held and used for the purpose of such grants or donations only; To receive grants of land, etc.;

3. The railway company shall not take possession of, use or occupy any lands belonging to the Province, without the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; but with such consent such company may take and appropriate for the use of their railway and works, but not alienate, so much of the wild lands of the Province lying on the route of the railway as have not been granted or sold, and as may be necessary for the railway, as also so much of the public beach or of the land covered with the waters of any lake, river, stream or canal, or of their respective beds, as is necessary for making and completing and using their said railway and works; Occupy public lands, beaches, etc.

5. To construct, maintain, and work the railway across, along or upon any stream of water, water course, canal, highway or railway which it intersects or touches; but the stream, water course, highway, canal or railway so intersected or touched, shall be restored by the company to its former state, or to such state as not to impair its usefulness; but this shall not authorize the obstruction of the navigation of any navigable water; And across or along streams, etc.

6. To make, complete, alter and keep in repair the railway, with one or more sets of rails or tracks to be worked by the force and power of steam, or of the atmosphere, or of animals, or by mechanical power, or by any combination of them; Complete railway with one or more tracks, etc; acquire stationary or locomotive engines and carriages, waggons, floats and other machinery and contrivances necessary for the accommodation and use of the passengers, freight and business of the railway;

Branch railways;

8. To make branch railways, if required and provided by the special Act, and to manage the same, and for that purpose to exercise all the powers, privileges and authorities necessary therefor, in as full and ample a manner as for the railway;

All other matters and things necessary for railways;

9. To construct, erect and make all other matters and things necessary and convenient for the making, extending and using of the railway, in pursuance of and according to the meaning and intent of this Act, and of the special Act;

Convey persons and goods on railway;

10. To take, transport, carry and convey persons and goods on the railway, to regulate the time and manner in which the same shall be transported, and the tolls and compensation to be paid therefor, and to receive such tolls and compensation; R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 9 (1-10);

Enter upon lands, etc.;

11. To enter into and upon the lands of any corporation or person whatsoever lying in the intended route or line of the railway; and, with the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council in that behalf, into and upon any lands of Her Majesty the property of this Province; R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 9 (12); 59 V. c. 47, s. 1;

Make surveys of lands;

12. To make surveys, examinations, or other necessary arrangements on such lands necessary for fixing the site of the railway, and to set out and ascertain such parts of the lands as are necessary and proper for the railway;

Remove trees;

13. To fell or remove any trees standing in any woods, lands or forests, where the railway passes, to the distance of six rods from either side thereof;

Unite with other railways;

14. To cross, intersect, join and unite the railway with any other railway at any point on its route, and upon the lands of such other railway, with the necessary conveniences for the purposes of such connection; and the owners of both railways may unite in forming such intersection, and grant the facilities therefor; and in case of disagreement upon the amount of compensation to be made therefor, or upon the point or manner of such crossing and connection, the same shall be determined by arbitrators to be appointed by a Judge of the High Court;

But not without application to the Commissioner of Public Works;

15. The company shall not avail itself of any of the powers contained in the last sub-section without application to the Commissioner of Public Works, of which application notice in writing shall be given to any other railway affected, by sending the same by mail, or otherwise, to the address of the president, superintendent, managing director or secretary of any such company, for approval of the mode of crossing, union or intersection proposed; and when such approval has been obtained, it shall be lawful for either railway, in case of disagreement as to the amount to be paid for compensation, to proceed for such compensation as provided in the said sub-section.

Application of last preceding two sub-sections

16. The provisions of the last preceding sub-section and the provisions for the ascertainment of compensation contained in sub-section 14 of this section shall not extend or apply to any railway incorporated under an Act of the Legislature of Ontario, in any case in which it is proposed that such railway shall cross, intersect, join, or unite with, or be crossed, intersected, joined, or united with a railway under the legislative control of Canada.

Any company may construct branch railways, on certain conditions.

17. Any company may construct a branch or branches not exceeding six miles in length, from any terminus or station of the railway of such company, whenever a by-law sanctioning the same has been passed by the municipal council of the municipality within the limits of which the proposed branch is situate, and no such branch shall, as to the quality and construction of the road, be subject to any of the restrictions contained in the special Act of incorporation of the company or in this Act, nor shall anything in either of the said Acts authorize any company to take for such branch any lands belonging to any person without the consent of such person first obtained.

Changes may be made in the line of a railway at any time for certain purposes.

18. A company which desires at any time to change the location of its line of railway in any particular part for the purpose of lessening a curve, reducing a gradient, or otherwise benefiting such line of railway, or for any other purpose of public advantage, may make such change; and all the clauses of this Act shall refer as fully to the part of any such line of railway so at any time changed or proposed to be changed as to the original line; but no railway company shall have any right to extend its line of railway beyond the termini mentioned in the Act incorporating the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 9 (13-19).

Power to issue bonds, debentures and other securities, and to raise money thereon.

19. The directors of the company, under the authority of the shareholders, to them given at any special general meeting, called for the purpose in the manner provided by the special Act, at which meeting shareholders representing at least two thirds in value of the subscribed stock of the company, and who have paid all calls due thereon, are present in person or represented by proxy, may, subject to the provisions in this Act and the special Act contained, issue bonds, debentures or other securities signed by the president or other presiding officer and countersigned by the secretary, which counter signature and the signature of the coupons attached to the same may be engraved; and such bonds, debentures or other securities may be made payable at such times and in such manner, and at such place or places in Canada or elsewhere, and may bear such rate of interest not exceeding eight per cent. per annum, as the directors think proper:

(a) The directors may issue and sell or pledge all or any of the said bonds, debentures, or other securities, at the best price and upon the best terms and conditions which at the time they may be able to obtain, for the purpose of raising money for prosecuting the said undertaking.

(b) No such bond, debenture or other security shall be for a less sum than one hundred dollars.

(c) The power of issuing bonds conferred upon the company hereby or under the special Act shall not be construed as being exhausted by such issue; but such power may be exercised from time to time upon the bonds constituting such issue being withdrawn or paid off and duly cancelled; but no bonds or debentures shall be issued until twenty per centum of the cost has been actually expended on the work; and the limit to the amount of bonds, debentures or other securities fixed in the special Act shall not be exceeded.

Mortgages securing bonds, etc.

20. The company may secure such bonds, debentures, or other securities by a mortgage deed creating such mortgages, charges and incumbrances upon the whole of such property, assets, rents and revenues of the company, present or future or both, as are described in the said deed; but such rents and revenues shall be subject in the first instance to the payment of any penalty imposed for non-compliance with the requirements of this Act respecting returns to be made under this Act and next to the payment of the working expenditure of the railway:

(a) By the said deed the company may grant to the holders of such bonds, debentures or other securities, or the trustees named in such deed, all and every the powers, rights and remedies granted by this Act in respect of the said bonds, debentures, or other securities, and all other powers, rights and remedies not inconsistent with this Act, or may restrict the said holders in the exercise of any power, privilege or remedy granted by this Act, as the case may be; and all the powers, rights and remedies so provided for in such mortgage deed shall be valid and binding and available to the said holders in manner and form as therein provided.

(b) Every such mortgage deed shall be deposited in the office of the Provincial Secretary of which deposit notice shall be given by the company in the Ontario Gazette.

Bonds, etc., how ranked.

21. The bonds, debentures or other securities, hereby authorized to be issued, shall be taken and considered to be the first preferential claim and charge upon the company, and the franchise, undertaking, tolls and income, rents and revenues, and real and personal property thereof, at any time acquired, save and except as provided for in the next preceding subsection:—

Rights of holders of bonds, etc., upon default in payment.

22. If the company makes default in paying the principal of or interest on any of the bonds, debentures or other securities hereby authorized, at the time when the same, by the terms of the bond, debenture or other security, becomes due and payable, then at the next annual general meeting of the company, and at all subsequent meetings, all holders of bonds, debentures or other securities so being and remaining in default shall, in respect thereof, have and possess the same rights and privileges and qualifications for being elected directors and for voting at general meetings, as would attach to them as shareholders if they held fully paid up shares of the company to a corresponding amount.

(a) The rights given by this subsection shall not be exercised by any such holder unless it is so provided by the mortgage deed, nor unless the bond, debenture or other security, in respect of which he claims to exercise such rights has been registered in his name, in the same manner as the shares of the company are registered at least ten days before he attempts to exercise the right of voting thereon; and the company shall be bound on demand to register such bonds, debentures or other securities, and thereafter any transfers thereof, in the same manner as shares or transfers of shares.

(b) The exercise of the rights given by this subsection shall not take away, limit or restrain any other of the rights or remedies to which the holders of the said bonds, debentures or other securities are entitled under the provisions of such mortgage deed.

Bonds, etc., made of transfer of.

23. All bonds, debentures or other securities hereby authorized may be made payable to bearer, and shall in that case be transferable by delivery, until registration thereof as herein-before provided, and while so registered they shall be transferable by written transfers, registered in the same manner as in the case of the transfer of shares. 53 V. c. 45, s. 2.

PLANS AND SURVEYS.

10. Plans and surveys shall be made and corrected as follows:

Book of reference.

1. Surveys and levels shall be taken and made of the lands through which the railway is to pass, together with a map or plan thereof, and of its course and direction, and of the lands intended to be passed over and taken therefor, so far as then ascertained, and also a book of reference for the railway, in which shall be set forth—

(a) A general description of the said lands;

(b) The names of the owners and occupiers thereof, so far as they can be ascertained; and

(c) Everything necessary for the right understanding of such map or plan.

By whom certified.

2. The map or plan and book of reference shall be examined and certified by the Commissioner of Crown Lands or his deputies, who shall deposit copies thereof in the offices of the Clerks of the Peace in the districts or counties through which the railway passes, and also in the office of the Provincial Secretary, and shall also deliver one copy thereof to the company.

Copies.

3. Any person may resort to such copies, and make extracts or copies thereof, as occasion requires, paying to the Provincial Secretary, or to the Clerks of the Peace, at the rate of ten cents for every hundred words so extracted or copied. Any person feeling aggrieved by the proposed location of the line of railway may, within ten days after the deposit of the map or plan and book of reference aforesaid in the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the district or county where the lands are situated, the location through which is complained of, apply to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, setting forth his objections to the location of the proposed line, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall, if he considers sufficient cause therefor exists, appoint a disinterested engineer, who shall examine the said proposed line, and after hearing the parties he shall confirm or alter the same as may be consistent with the just rights of all parties and of the public. The determination of the engineer approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall, within ten days after his appointment, be made and certified, and such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the district or county where the lands are situated.

Appeal against proposed location of line.

(a) The said engineer shall be entitled to reasonable fees for each day employed in connection with the said examination and work, together with his actual expenses incurred therein, and the amount shall in the first instance be paid by the person applying for his appointment, but if the proposed route is altered or changed by the engineer, the railway company shall refund to the applicant the amount so paid.

Evidence.

4. The triplicates of the map or plan and book of reference so certified, or a true copy thereof certified by the Provincial Secretary, or by the Clerks of the Peace, shall be good evidence in any Court of Justice or elsewhere;

Omissions how remedied.

5. Any omission, misstatement or erroneous description of such lands or of the owners or occupiers thereof, in a map or plan or book of reference, may, after giving ten days' notice to the owners of the lands, be corrected by two Justices on application made to them for that purpose, and if it appears to them that the omission, misstatement or erroneous description arose from mistake the Justices shall certify the same accordingly;

Contents of certificate.

6. The certificate shall state the particulars of such omission, and the manner thereof, and shall be deposited with the Clerks of the Peace of the districts or counties respectively in which such lands are situate, and be kept by them along with the other documents to which they relate; and thereupon the map or plan or book of reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate; and the company may make the railway in accordance with the certificate;

Alterations from original survey.

7. If any alterations from the original plan or survey are intended to be made in the line or course of the railway, a plan and section in triplicate of such alterations as have been approved of by the Legislature, on the same scale and containing the same particulars as the original plan and survey, shall be deposited in the same manner as the original plan, and copies or extracts of the plan and section, so far as they relate to the several districts or counties in or through which the alterations have been authorized to be made, shall be deposited with the Clerks of the Peace of such districts or counties;

Railway not to be proceeded with until map, etc. deposited.

8. Until the original map or plan and book of reference, or the plans and sections of the alterations, have been so deposited, the execution of the railway, or of the part thereof affected by the alterations, as the case may be, shall not be proceeded with;

Clerks of the Peace to receive copies of original plan, etc.

9. The Clerks of the Peace shall receive and retain the copies of the original plans and surveys, and copies of the plans and sections of alterations, and copies and extracts thereof respectively, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect any of the documents aforesaid, and to make copies and extracts of and from the same, under penalty for default of $4;

Copies certified by Clerk to be good evidence in Courts.

10. The copies of the maps, plans and books of reference, or of any alteration or correction thereof, or extracts therefrom, certified by the Clerk of the Peace, shall be received in all Courts of Justice or elsewhere as good evidence of the contents thereof, and the Clerk of the Peace shall give such certificate to all parties interested when required;

Line not to deviate more than a mile.

11. No deviation of more than one mile from the line of the railway or from the places assigned thereto in the said map or plan and book of reference or plans or sections, shall be made into, through, across, under or over any part of the lands not shewn in such map or plan and book of reference, or plans or sections, or within one mile of the said line and place, save in such instances as are provided for in the special Act;

Error in the name of a person entered in a book of reference.

12. The railway may be carried across or upon the lands of any person on the line, or within the distance from such line as aforesaid, although the name of such person has not been entered in the book of reference through error or any other cause, or although some other person is erroneously mentioned as the owner of or entitled to convey, or is interested in such lands;

Map, etc., of railway to be filed in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works.

13. A map and profile of the completed railway and of the land taken or obtained for the use thereof, shall, within a reasonable time after completion of the undertaking, be made and filed in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works, and like maps of the parts thereof located in different counties shall be filed in the registry offices for the registry divisions in which such parts are respectively situate;

On what scale and paper to be drawn.

14. Every such map shall be drawn on such a scale and such paper as may from time to time be designated for that purpose by the Commissioner of Public Works, and shall be certified and signed by the president or engineer of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 10.

LANDS AND THEIR VALUATION.

Extent of lands to be taken without consent of proprietor.

11. The lands which may be taken without the consent of the proprietor thereof shall not exceed thirty yards in breadth, except in places where the railway is raised more than five feet higher, or cut more than five feet deeper, than the surface of the line, or where offsets are established, or where stations, depots or fixtures are intended to be erected, or goods to be delivered, and then not more than two hundred yards in length by one hundred and fifty yards in breadth, without the consent of the person authorized to convey such lands; and the places at which such extra breadth is to be taken shall be shewn on the map or plan, or plans or sections, so far as the same are then ascertained, but their not being so shewn shall not prevent such extra breadth from being taken, provided it be taken upon the line shewn or within the distance aforesaid from such line. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 11.

Extent of public beach to be taken.

12. The extent of the public beach, or of the land covered with the waters of any river or lake in the Province, taken for the railway, shall not exceed the quantity limited in the last preceding clause. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 12.

Corporation, etc., may convey lands.

13.—(1) All corporations and persons whatever, tenants in tail or for life, guardians, executors, administrators, and all other trustees whatsoever, not only for and on behalf of themselves, their heirs and successors, but also for and on behalf of those whom they represent, whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, femes covert, or other persons, seised, possessed of or interested in any lands, may contract for, sell and convey unto the company all or any part thereof.

Limitation of powers in certain cases.

(2) But the powers by the preceding sub-section conferred upon rectors in possession of glebe lands, ecclesiastical and other corporations, trustees of land for church and school purposes or either, executors appointed by wills in which they are not invested with any power over the real estate of the testator, administrators of persons dying intestate, but at their death seised of real estate, shall only extend and be exercised with respect to any of such lands actually required for the use and occupation of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 13.

Effect of sale under preceding section.

14. Any contract, agreement, sale, conveyance and assurance made under the preceding section shall be valid and effectual in law to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and shall vest in the company receiving the same, the fee simple in the lands in such deed described, freed and discharged from all trusts, restrictions and limitations whatsoever, and the corporation or person so conveying, is hereby indemnified for what it or he respectively does by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 14.

Disposition of purchase money.

15. The company shall not be responsible for the disposition of any purchase money for lands taken by it for its purposes, if paid to the owner of the land or into Court for his benefit, as hereinafter provided. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 15.

Effect of contracts made before deposit of map.

16. Any contract or agreement made by any party authorized by this Act to convey lands, and made before the deposit of the map or plan and book of reference, and before the setting out and ascertaining of the lands required for the railway, shall be binding at the price agreed upon for the same lands, if they are afterwards so set out and ascertained within one year from the date of the contract or agreement, and although such land may, in the meantime have become the property of a third party; and possession of the land may be taken and the agreement and price may be dealt with, as if such price had been fixed by an award of arbitrators as hereinafter provided, and the agreement shall be in the place of an award. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 16.

Corporations or persons, who cannot sell, may agree upon a fixed rent.

17. All corporations or persons who cannot in common course of law sell or alienate any lands so set out and ascertained, shall agree upon a fixed annual rent as an equivalent, and not upon a principal sum, to be paid for the lands; and if the amount of the rent is not fixed by voluntary agreement or compromise, it shall be fixed and all proceedings shall be regulated in the manner herein prescribed; and for the payment of the said annual rent, and every other annual rent agreed upon or ascertained, and to be paid for the purchase of any lands, or for any part of the purchase money of any lands, which the vendor agrees to leave unpaid, the railway and the tolls thereon shall be liable and chargeable in preference to all other claims and demands thereon whatsoever, the deed creating such charge and liability being duly registered n the registry office of the proper registry division. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 17.

As to tenants in common, etc.

18. Where more persons than one are proprietors of any land as joint tenants or tenants in common, any contract or agreement made in good faith with any person being proprietor or with any persons being together proprietors of one-third or more of such land, as to the amount of compensation for the same or for any damages thereto, shall be binding as between the remaining proprietor or proprietors as joint tenants or tenants in common; and the proprietor or proprietors who have so agreed, may deliver possession of such land, or empower the entry upon the same, as the case may be. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 18.

After one month's notice of deposit of map, etc., application to the owner of lands.

19.—(1) After one month from the deposit of the map or plan and book of reference, and from notice thereof in at least one newspaper, if there is any, published in each of the districts and counties through which the railway is intended to pass, application may be made to the owners of lands or to persons empowered to convey lands, or interested in lands which may suffer damage from the taking of materials or the exercise of any of the powers granted for the railway, and thereupon, agreements and contracts may be made with such persons touching the said lands, or the compensation to be paid for the same, or for the damages, or as to the mode in which such compensation shall be ascertained, as may seem expedient to both parties, and in case of disagreement between them shall be settled as in the next section mentioned.

Deposit, etc., to be general notice.

(2) The deposit of a map or plan and book of reference, and the notice of the deposit, shall be deemed a general notice to all such persons as aforesaid of the lands which will be required for the railway and works. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 19.

Notice to opposite party.

20.—(1) A notice shall be served upon the party which shall contain:—

(a) A description of the lands to be taken, or of the powers intended to be exercised with regard to any lands (describing them);

(b) A declaration of readiness to pay some certain sum or rent, as the case may be, as compensation for such lands or for such damages; and

(c) The name of a person to be appointed as the arbitrator of the company, if their offer be not accepted.

(2) The notice shall be accompanied by the certificate of a sworn surveyor for Ontario, disinterested in the matter, and not being the arbitrator named in the notice to the following effect:—

(a) That the land (if the notice relates to the taking of land,) shewn on the map or plan, is required for the railway, or is within the limits of deviation hereby allowed;

(b) That he knows the land, or the amount of damage likely to arise from the exercise of the powers; and

(c) That the sum so offered is, in his opinion, a fair compensation for the land, and for the damages as aforesaid.

If the party is absent or unknown.

(3) If the opposite party is absent from the district or county in which the lands lie, or is unknown, then, upon application to a Judge of the County Court, accompanied by such certificate as aforesaid, and by an affidavit of some officer of the company that the opposite party is so absent, or that, after diligent inquiry, the party on whom the notice ought to be served cannot be ascertained, the Judge shall order a notice as aforesaid, but without a certificate, to be inserted three times in the course of one month in some newspaper published in the said district or county.

Provision when the County Judge is interested in lands required for any railway.

(4) Where a Judge of a County or District Court is interested in lands taken or required within the county in which he is Judge, by any company, for railway purposes, a Judge of the High Court shall, on application of the company, exercise in such case all the powers given to a Judge of a County Court by the provisions of this section in cases in which he, such Judge of a County Court, is not interested.

Party not accepting the company's offer, and not appointing an arbitrator.

(5) If within ten days after the service of the notice, or within one month after the first publication thereof as aforesaid, the opposite party does not notify to the company his acceptance of the sum offered by them, or notify them the name of a person whom he appoints as arbitrator, then the Judge shall, on the application of the company, appoint a sworn surveyor for Ontario, to be sole arbitrator for determining the compensation to be paid as aforesaid.

Appointment of arbitrator by opposite party.
Third arbitrator.

Duties of arbitrators.

(7) The arbitrators, or any two of them, or the sole arbitrator, being sworn before some Justice of the Peace for the district or county in which the lands lie, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties of their office, shall proceed to ascertain the compensation in such a way as they or he, or a majority of them, deem best; but no award shall be made or any official act be done by the majority, except at a meeting held at a time and place of which the other arbitrator has had at least one clear day's notice, or to which some meeting at which the third arbitrator was present, had been adjourned; and no notice to either of the parties shall be necessary, but each party shall be held sufficiently notified through the arbitrator appointed by him, or whose appointment he required.

Costs, how paid.

(8) If in any case where three arbitrators have been appointed, the sum awarded is not greater than that offered, the costs of the arbitration shall be borne by the opposite party, and be deducted from the compensation, but if otherwise, they shall be borne by the company, and in either case they may, if not agreed upon, be taxed by the Judge aforesaid.

Arbitrators to consider increased value of remaining lands.

(9) The arbitrators, in deciding on such value or compensation, are authorized and required to take into consideration the increased value that would be given to any lands or grounds through or over which the railway will pass by reason of the passage of the railway through or over the same, or by reason of the construction of the railway, and to set off the increased value that will attach to the said lands or grounds, against the inconvenience, loss or damage that might be suffered or sustained by reason of the company taking possession of, or using the said lands or grounds as aforesaid.

Arbitrators may examine on oath.

(10) The arbitrators, or a majority of them, or the sole arbitrator, may examine on oath or solemn affirmation the parties, or such witnesses as appear before him or them, and may administer such oath or affirmation.

Parties to arbitrations may obtain subpœnas.
Disobedience thereto to be contempt of Court.

(11) Any party to an arbitration under this Act, or any Railway Act of the Dominion, or of this Province may, without leave or order, obtain and issue out of the High Court, upon præcipe, setting forth the names of the witnesses to be subpœnaed, the names of the arbitrators, and the place and time of meeting, a subpœna commanding the attendance for examination of any witness, and also the production of any document to or before the arbitrator or arbitrators, and at the time and place mentioned in such subpœna; and the disobedience of such subpœna shall be deemed a contempt of Court, and shall be punishable in the same manner and to the like extent as in the case of subpœnas issued in a civil case.

Fees and conduct money.

(12) The like fees shall be payable for such subpœnas as in the case of subpœnas issued in civil cases, and the witnesses shall be entitled to the like conduct money.

Depositions to be in writing and filed in central office of high court.

(13) The arbitrators shall take down the depositions of witnesses in writing, and after making their award, shall forthwith deliver, or transmit by registered letter, at the request of either party, in writing, the depositions, together with the exhibits referred to therein, and all other papers connected with the reference except the award, to the Central Office of the High Court, with appropriate stamps, to be filed with the records of the Court.

Time within which award must be made.

(14) The Judge by whom a third arbitrator or sole arbitrator is appointed, shall, at the same time, fix a day on or before which the award shall be made, and if the same is not made on or before such day, or some other day to which the time for making it has been prolonged, either by the consent of the parties or by the order of the Judge (as it may be for reasonable cause shown, on the application of such sole arbitrator, or of one of the arbitrators, after one clear day's notice to the others), then the sum offered by the company as aforesaid shall be the compensation to be paid by them.

Arbitrator dying, etc.

(15) If the arbitrator appointed by the Judge, or if any arbitrator appointed by the parties, dies before the award has been made, or is disqualified, or refuses or fails to act within a reasonable time, then, in the case of the arbitrator appointed by the Judge, upon the application of either party, such Judge being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise of such death, disqualification, refusal or failure, may appoint another arbitrator in his place, and the company and party respectively may each appoint an arbitrator in the place of his arbitrator deceased or not acting as aforesaid, but no recommencement or repetition of prior proceedings shall be required in any case.

Company may desist upon paying costs; but not more than once.

(16) Any notice for lands, as aforesaid, may be desisted from, and new notice given, with regard to the same or other lands, to the same or any other party, but in such case, the liability to the party first notified for all damages or costs by him incurred in consequence of such first notice and desistment, shall subsist; provided, however, that the right of desisting shall not be exercised more than once.

Arbitrators not disqualified unless personally interested.

tion shall be urged against an arbitrator appointed by the Judge after his appointment, but the objection must be made before the appointment, and its validity or invalidity shall be summarily determined by the Judge.

No objection admissible after a third arbitrator has been appointed.

(18) No cause of disqualification shall be urged against an arbitrator appointed by the company, or by the opposite party after the appointment of a third arbitrator; and the validity or invalidity of any cause of disqualification urged against such arbitrator, before the appointment of a third arbitrator,

How validity of objections to arbitrator determined.

shall be summarily determined by the Judge, on the application of either party, after one clear days' notice to the other, and if such cause is determined to be valid, the appointment shall be null, and the party offering the person so adjudged to be disqualified, shall be held not to have appointed an arbitrator.

Awards not avoided for want of form.

(19) No award made as aforesaid shall be invalidated by reason of any want of form or other technical objection, if the requirements of this Act have been complied with, and if the award states clearly the sum awarded, and the lands or other property, right or thing for which such sum is to be the compensation; nor shall it be necessary that the person or persons to whom the sum is to be paid, be named in the award.

Parties to arbitration may appeal to a Judge of the High Court.

(20) Any party to the arbitration may, within one month, after receiving a written notice from one of the arbitrators of the making of the award, appeal therefrom upon any question of law or fact to a Judge of the High Court and upon the hearing of the appeal the Judge shall, if the same is a question of fact, decide the same upon the evidence, as in a case of original jurisdiction.

Practice and proceedings upon appeal.

(21) Upon such appeal the practice and proceedings shall be, as nearly as may be, the same as upon an appeal from an

Rev. Stat. c. 62.

Official Referee under The Arbitration Act, subject to any General Rules or Orders (to be from time to time made by the

Rev. Stat. c. 51.

Judges of the High Court, under section 124 of The Judicature Act).

Existing practice as to setting aside awards continued.

(22) The right of appeal hereby given shall not affect the existing law or practice as to setting aside awards.

Possession may be taken on payment or tender, etc., of sum awarded.

(23) Upon payment or legal tender of the compensation or annual rent so awarded or agreed upon as aforesaid to the party entitled to receive the same, or upon the deposit of the amount of such compensation in the manner hereinafter mentioned, the award or agreement shall vest in the company the power forthwith to take possession of the lands, or to exercise the right, or to do the thing for which such compensation or annual rent has been awarded or agreed upon; and if any resistance or forcible opposition is made by any person to their so doing, the Judge may, on proof to his satisfaction of such award or agreement, issue his warrant to the sheriff of the district or county, or to a bailiff, as he may deem most suitable, to put the company in possession, and to put down such resistance or opposition, which the sheriff or bailiff, taking with him sufficient assistance, shall accordingly do.

When warrant of possession may issue before award.

(24) The warrant may also be granted by such Judge without the award or agreement, on affidavit to his satisfaction that the immediate possession of the lands or of the power to do the thing mentioned in the notice, is necessary to carry on some part of the railway with which the company are ready forthwith to proceed; and upon the company giving security to his satisfaction, and in a sum which shall not be less than double the amount mentioned in the notice, to pay or deposit the compensation to be awarded within one month after the making of the award, with interest from the time at which possession is given, and with such costs as may be lawfully payable by the company.

Security being first given to pay compensation.

When compensation to stand in the place of the land.

(25) The compensation for any lands which might be taken without the consent of the proprietor, shall stand in the stead of such lands; and any claim to or incumbrance upon the said lands, or any portion thereof, shall, as against the company, be converted into a claim to the compensation, or to a like proportion thereof, and they shall be responsible accordingly whenever they have paid the compensation, or any part thereof, to a party not entitled to receive the same, saving always their recourse against such party.

As to incumbrances, etc., upon lands, etc., purchased or taken.

(26) If the company has reason to fear any claims or incumbrances, or if any party to whom the compensation or annual rent, or any part thereof is payable, refuses to execute the proper conveyance and guarantee, or if the party entitled to claim the same cannot be found, or is unknown to the company, or if for any other reason the company deems it advisable, the company may pay the compensation into the office of the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature, with the interest thereon for six months, and may deliver to the said Accountant an authentic copy of the conveyance, or of the award or agreement if there be no conveyance, and such award or agreement shall thereafter be deemed to be the title of the company to the land therein mentioned.

What notice to be published.

(27) A notice, in such form and for such time as the High Court appoints, shall be inserted in some newspaper if there is any published in the county in which the lands are situate, and in the city of Toronto, which shall state that the title of the company, that is, the conveyance, agreement or award, is under this Act, and shall call upon all persons entitled to the land, or to any part thereof, or representing or being the husbands of any persons so entitled, to file their claims to the compensation or any part thereof, and all such claims shall be received and adjudged upon by the Court, and the said proceedings shall for ever bar all claims to the lands, or any part thereof including dower, as well as all mortgages and incumbrances upon the same; and the Court shall make such order for the distribution, payment or investment of the compensation, and for the securing of the rights of all parties interested, as to right and justice, and according to the provisions of this Act, and the special Act, and to law, appertain.

By whom costs be paid.

(28) The costs of the proceedings, or any part thereof, shall be paid by the company, or by any other party as the Court deems it equitable to order.

When interest to be returned to, or paid by the company.

(29) If such order of distribution as aforesaid is obtained in less than six months from the payment of the compensation into Court, the Court shall direct a proportionate part of the interest to be returned to the company; and if from any error, fault or neglect of the company, it is not obtained until after the six months have expired, the Court shall order the company to pay to the proper claimants the interest for such further period as may be right. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 20.

Expropriation with consent of municipality in certain cases.

(30) In case the council of a municipality by by-law declares that it is desirable and expedient that an elevator or manufacturing company, incorporated with power to construct a siding or switch from any railway to the premises of such company, should have powers of expropriation for the purpose of assisting such company, to secure, within the limits of the municipality, the necessary right of way for that purpose as set forth in the by-law, and if the Judge of the County Court of the county, certifies that in his opinion the building of the proposed siding or switch across the lands as set forth in the by-law will be of considerable public advantage or convenience, the company, upon the registration by the council of the by-law and certificate in the proper registry office, shall in respect of the said lands, possess the powers conferred upon railway companies under sections 11 to 20 inclusive of this Act. Provided however that no such by-law shall be passed by the council of any municipality until all owners of lands across which the proposed siding or switch is to run have had at least one week's previous notice in writing of the time when such by-law is to be considered by the said council. 58 V. c. 35, s. 1.

Proviso.

MINES.

Company not entitled to mines without express agreement.

21. The company shall not be entitled to any mines of iron, slate, or other minerals under any land purchased by them except only such parts thereof as are necessary to be dug or carried away, or used in the construction of the works, unless the same have been expressly purchased; and all such mines, excepting as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be excepted out of the conveyance of such lands, unless they have been expressly named therein and conveyed thereby. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 21.

Mines not to be worked in certain cases if company so

22. If the owner, lessee, or occupier of any mines or minerals lying under the railway or any of the works connected therewith or within the prescribed distance, or, where no distance is prescribed, forty yards therefrom, be desirous of working the same, such owner, lessee or occupier shall give to the company notice in writing of his intention so to do thirty days before the commencement of working, and upon the receipt of the notice it shall be lawful for the company to cause the mines to be inspected by any person appointed by them for the purpose, and if the company shew to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works that the working of the mines or minerals is likely to damage the works of the railway, and if the company be willing to make compensation for the mines or any part thereof to the owner, lessee or occupier thereof, then he shall not work or get the same; and if the company and the owner, lessee or occupier do not agree as to the amount of the compensation the same shall be settled as in other cases of disputed compensation under this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 22.

desires and makes compensation therefor.

23. If before the expiration of such thirty days the company do not state their willingness to treat with the owner, lessee or occupier for the payment of the compensation, it shall be lawful for him to work the said mines or any part thereof for which the company have not agreed to pay compensation, so that the same be done in a manner proper and necessary for the beneficial working thereof, and according to the usual manner of working such mines in the district where the same are situate, and if any damage or obstruction be occasioned to the railway or works by improper working of the mines, the same shall be forthwith repaired or removed, as the case may require, and the damage made good by the owner, lessee or occupier of the mines or minerals and at his own expense; and if the repair or removal be not forthwith done, or if the company think fit without waiting for the same to be done by the owner, lessee or occupier, it shall be lawful for the company to execute the same and recover from the owner, lessee or occupier the expense occasioned thereby by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 23.

Mines may be worked if company does not give notice as to compensation.

24. If the working of such mines under the railway, or works, or within the above mentioned distance therefrom, be prevented as aforesaid by reason of apprehended injury to the railway, it shall be lawful for the respective owners, lessees and occupiers of such mines, whose mines extend so as to lie on both sides of the railway, to cut and make such and so many airways, headways, gateways, or water levels through the mines, measures, or strata, the working whereof is so prevented, as may be requisite to enable them to ventilate, drain, and work their said mines; but no such airway, headway, gateway, or water level shall be cut or made without first procuring the consent in writing of the Commissioner of Public Works of the Province; nor shall the same be cut or made upon any part of the railway or works, or so as to injure the same, or to impede the passage thereon. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 24.

Right to make airways, etc., where working of mines under railway prevented.

Compensation by company for loss by severance of mine.

25. The company shall, from time to time, pay to the owner, lessee, or occupier of any such mines extending so as to lie on both sides of the railway all such additional expenses and losses incurred by the owner, lessee, or occupier by reason of the severance of the lands lying over such mines by the railway, or of the continuous working of such mines being interrupted as aforesaid, or by reason of the same being worked in such manner and under such restrictions as not to prejudice or injure the railway, and for any minerals not purchased by the company which cannot be obtained by reason of making and maintaining the railway; and if any dispute or question arises between the company and such owner, lessee, or occupier as aforesaid, touching the amount of such losses or expenses, the same shall be settled by arbitration under this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 25.

Power to company to enter mines for purpose of ascertaining whether working endangers railway.

26. For better ascertaining whether any such mines are being worked, or have been worked, so as to damage the railway or works, it shall be lawful for the company, after giving twenty-four hours notice in writing, to enter upon any lands through or near which the railway passes wherein any such mines are being worked, or are so supposed to be, and to enter into and return from any such mines or the works connected therewith; and for that purpose it shall be lawful for them to make use of any apparatus or machinery belonging to the owner, lessee, or occupier of such mines, and to use all necessary means for discovering the distance from the railway to the parts of such mines which are being worked, or about so to be. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 26.

Penalty for refusing company access to mines.

27. If the owner, lessee, or occupier of any such mine refuses to allow any person appointed by the company for that purpose to enter into and inspect any such mines or works in manner aforesaid, every person so offending shall, for every such refusal, forfeit to the company a sum not exceeding $100. R. S. O. 1887 c. 170, s. 27.

Works required for safety of railway to be constructed.

28. If it appear that any such mines have been worked contrary to the provisions of the preceding seven sections, the company may, if they think fit, give notice to the owner, lessee, or occupier thereof to construct such works and to adopt such means as may be necessary or proper for making safe the railway and preventing injury thereto; and if after such notice such owner, lessee, or occupier does not forthwith proceed to construct the works necessary for making safe the railway, the company may themselves construct such works and recover the expenses thereof from the owner, lessee, or occupier by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 28.

HIGHWAYS AND BRIDGES.

29. The highways and bridges shall be regulated as follows :

Railway not to be carried along any highway without leave from municipal authorities.

1. The railway shall not be carried along an existing highway, but merely cross the same in the line of the railway, unless leave has been obtained from the proper municipal authority therefor; and no obstruction of such highway with the works shall be made without turning the highway so as to leave an open and good passage for carriages, and, on completion of the works, replacing the highway, under a penalty of not less than $40 for any contravention; but, in either case, the rail itself, provided it does not rise above or sink below the surface of the road more than one inch, shall not be deemed an obstruction.

Railway not to rise more than one inch above level of highways when crossing the same.

2. No part of the railway which crosses a highway without being carried over by a bridge, or under by a tunnel, shall rise above or sink below the level of the highway more than one inch ; and the railway may be carried across or above a highway within the limits aforesaid.

Ascent of bridges.

3. The ascent of all bridges erected to carry a highway over a railway, shall not be more than one foot in twenty feet increase over the natural ascent of the highway; and a good and sufficient fence shall be made on each side of every bridge, which fence shall not be less than four feet above the surface of the bridge.

Precautions when railway crosses a highway.

4. Signboards stretching across the highway crossed at a level by a railway, shall be erected and kept up at each crossing at such height as to leave sixteen feet from the highway to the lower edge of the signboard, and having the words "Railway Crossing" painted on each side of the signboard, and in letters not less than six inches in length; and for every neglect to comply with the requirements of this clause, a penalty not exceeding $40 shall be incurred.

Overhead bridges. Rev. Stat. c. 266, ss. 4, 5.

5. Overhead bridges and other erections or structures over a railway shall be constructed and maintained in conformity with sections 4 and 5 of The Railway Accidents Act.

R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 29.

FENCES.

Fence to be erected on each side of railway.

30.—(1) Fences shall be erected and maintained on each side of the railway, of the height and strength of an ordinary division fence, with openings or gates or bars therein at farm crossings of the road for the use of the proprietors of the lands adjoining the railway; and also cattle-guards at all road crossings suitable and sufficient to prevent cattle and animals from getting on the railway.

Meaning of certain words.

(2) The said words "openings, gates or bars" shall be held to mean and shall in all cases imply sliding gates, commonly called hurdle gates, with proper fastenings; but this shall not be interpreted to the profit of those proprietors and tenants of land crossed by railways who had received compensation from the railway companies for having omitted the erection of such gates before the 10th of June, 1847, nor shall it in any way affect or apply to any railway constructed or in part constructed, on the 10th of June, 1847, but the same shall apply only to railways constructed or commenced after that day.

Liability of company until cattle guards erected.

(3) Until such fences and cattle guards are duly made, the company shall be liable for all damages which may be done by their trains or engines to cattle, horses or other animals on the railway.

When to be exempted.

(4) After the fences or guards have been duly made, and while they are duly maintained, no such liability shall accrue for such damages, unless negligently or wilfully done.

Persons prohibited from going on the track, etc., with cattle, etc.,

(5) If a person rides, leads or drives any horse or other animal upon the railway, and within the fences and guards, other than the farm crossings, without the consent of the company, he shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding $40, and shall also pay to the party aggrieved all damages sustained thereby.

Or walking thereon.

(6) No person other than those connected with, or employed by the railway, shall walk along the track thereof, except where the same is laid across or along a highway.

Dividing and separating of lands for railway from neighbouring lands.

(7) Within six months after any lands have been taken for the use of the railway, and if thereunto required by the proprietors of the adjoining lands respectively, but not otherwise, the company shall, at their own costs and charges, set and make on the lands so taken, and from time to time maintain, support and keep in repair, a sufficient post or rail, hedge, ditch, bank or other fence sufficient to keep off swine, sheep and cattle, and thereby divide and separate and keep constantly divided and separated such lands from the lands or grounds adjoining thereto. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 30.

TOLLS.

Tolls to be fixed by by-laws or otherwise.

31.– (1) Tolls shall be from time to time fixed and regulated by the by-laws of the company, or by the directors, if thereunto authorized by the by-laws, or by the shareholders at any general meeting, and may be demanded and received for all passengers and goods transported upon the railway or in the steam vessels to the undertaking belonging, and shall be paid to such persons and at such places near to the railway, in such manner and under such regulations as the by-laws direct.

How payment of tolls enforced.

(2) In case of denial or neglect of payment on demand of such tolls, or any part thereof, to such persons, the same may be sued for and recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction, or the agents or servants of the company may seize the goods for or in respect whereof such tolls ought to be paid, and detain the same until payment thereof; and in the meantime the said goods shall be at the risk of the owners thereof.

When, if tolls not paid, goods distrained may be sold.

(3) If the tolls are not paid within six weeks the company may sell the whole or any part of such goods, and out of the money arising from the sale retain the tolls payable, and all charges and expenses of the detention and sale; rendering the surplus, if any, or such of the goods as remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto.

When goods distrained or detained may be sold.

(4) If any goods remain in the possession of the company unclaimed for the space of twelve months, the company may thereafter, and on giving public notice thereof by advertisement for six weeks in the Ontario Gazette, and in such other papers as they deem necessary, sell such goods by public auction at a time and place to be mentioned in the advertisement, and out of the proceeds thereof pay such tolls and all reasonable charges for storing, advertising and selling such goods; and the balance of the proceeds, if any, shall be kept by the company for a further period of three months, to be paid over to any person entitled thereto.

How balance to be disposed of.

(5) In default of such balance being claimed before the expiration of the period last aforesaid, the same shall be paid over to the Provincial Treasurer to be applied to the general purposes of the Province, until claimed by the person entitled thereto.

Tolls—how raised, or reduced.

(6) All or any of the tolls may, by by-law, be reduced and again raised as often as deemed necessary for the interests of the undertaking; but the same tolls shall be payable at the same time and under the same circumstances upon all goods and by all persons, so that no undue advantage, privilege or monopoly may be afforded to any person or class of persons by any by-laws relating to the tolls.

Fraction of a mile—how considered in charging tolls.

(7) In all cases, a fraction of a mile in the distance over which goods or passengers are transported on the railway shall be considered as a whole mile; and for a fraction of a ton in the weight of any goods, a proportion of the tolls shall be demanded and taken, according to the number of quarters of a ton contained therein, and a fraction of a quarter of a ton shall be deemed and considered as a whole quarter of a ton.

Fraction of a ton.

Table of tolls to be stuck up in offices and cars.

(8) The directors shall, from time to time, print and stick up, or cause to be printed and stuck up, in the office, and in all and every of the places where the tolls are to be collected, and in every passenger car, in some conspicuous place there, a printed board or paper exhibiting all the tolls payable, and particularizing the price or sum of money to be charged or taken for the carriage of any matter or thing.

Tolls to be approved of by the Lieut.-Governor.

(9) No tolls shall be levied or taken until approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, nor until after two weekly publications in the Ontario Gazette of the by-law establishing such tolls, and of the Order in Council approving thereof.

The Lieut.-Governor may revise by-laws fixing tolls.

(10) Every by-law fixing and regulating tolls shall be subject to revision by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time, after approval thereof as aforesaid; and after an Order in Council reducing the tolls fixed and regulated by by-law, has been twice published in the Ontario Gazette, the tolls mentioned in such Order in Council shall be substituted for those mentioned in the by-law so long as the Order in Council remains unrevoked.

When the Legislature may reduce tolls on railways.

(11) The Legislature may from time to time reduce the tolls upon the railway, but not without the consent of the company, or so as to produce less than fifteen per cent. per annum profit on the capital actually expended in its construction; nor unless, on an examination made by the Commissioner of Public Works of the amount received and expended by the company, the net income from all sources, for the year then last past, is found to have exceeded fifteen per cent. upon the capital so actually expended.

By-laws imposing tolls to be approved by the Lieut.-Governor in Council.

(12) The by-laws of every railway company, heretofore or hereafter incorporated, regulating the tolls to be taken on such road, in the special Act respecting which a provision has been inserted that such railway should be subject to the provisions of any general Act relating to railways, shall be subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and no by-law of any railway company in this Province by which tolls are to be imposed or altered, or by which any person other than the members, officers and servants of the company are intended to be bound, shall have any force or effect until the same has been approved and sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 31.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

Shareholders may hold general meeting.

32. The shareholders may assemble together at general meetings for purposes connected with or belonging to the undertaking, and at any annual general meeting, and may elect directors in the manner provided by section 34. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 32.

Calling of meetings, etc.

33. The method of calling general meetings, and the time and place of the first meeting of shareholders for the appointment of directors, shall be determined and settled in the special Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 33.

PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS.

Board of directors.

34.—(1) A board of directors of the undertaking, to manage its affairs, the number whereof shall be stated in the special Act, shall be chosen annually by a majority of the shareholders voting at such election at a general meeting, the time and place for which shall be appointed by the special Act; and if the election is not held on the day so appointed, the directors shall notify and cause the election to be held within thirty days after the day appointed.

Who entitled to vote.

(2) On the day so notified, no person shall be admitted to vote except those who would have been entitled to vote had the election been held on the day when it ought to have been held.

Vacancies how to be filled up.

(3) Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled in the manner prescribed by the by-laws.

Who qualified to be a director.

(4) No person shall be a director unless he is a shareholder, owning stock absolutely in his own right, and qualified to vote for directors at the election at which he is chosen.

Votes to be in proportion to shares.

(5) The number of votes to which each shareholder shall be entitled on every occasion when the votes of the members are to be given, shall be in proportion to the number of shares held by him, unless otherwise provided by the special Act.

Shareholders may vote by proxy.

(6) All shareholders, whether resident in this Province or elsewhere, may vote by proxy, if they see fit, provided such proxy produces from his constituent an appointment in writing, in the words or to the effect following, that is to say:

I, , of , one of the Shareholders of the , do hereby appoint of , to be my proxy, and in my absence to vote or give my assent to any business, matter or thing relating to the said undertaking that may be mentioned or proposed at any meeting of the Shareholders of the said Company, in such manner as he the said thinks proper.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, the day of in the year

Votes by proxy to be valid.

(7) The votes by proxy shall be as valid as if the principals had voted in person: and every matter or thing proposed or considered in any public meeting of the shareholders shall be determined by the majority of votes and proxies then present and given, and all decisions and acts of such majority shall bind the company, and be deemed the decisions and acts of the company.

Term of office of directors.

(8) The directors first appointed, or those appointed in their stead, in case of vacancy, shall remain in office until the next annual election of directors at the time appointed therefor, at which time an annual general meeting of the shareholders shall be held to choose directors for the ensuing year, and generally to transact the business of the company.

Vacancies how supplied.

(9) In case of the death, absence or resignation of any of the directors, others may be appointed in their stead by the surviving directors; but if such appointment is not made, such death, absence or resignation shall not invalidate the acts of the remaining directors.

President.

(10) The directors shall, at their first or at some other meeting, after the day appointed for the annual general meeting, elect one of their number to be the president of the company, who shall, always, when present, be the chairman of and preside at all meetings of the directors, and shall hold his office until he ceases to be a director, or until another president has been elected in his stead; and they may in like manner elect a vice-president, who shall act as chairman in the absence of the president.

Vice-President.

Quorum.

(11) the directors at any meeting at which not less than a quorum, to be settled by the special Act, are present, shall be competent to use and exercise all and any of the powers vested in the directors.

Acts of majority to bind the whole.

(12) The act of a majority of a quorum of the directors present at any meeting regularly held, shall be deemed the act of the directors.

Casting vote.

(13) No director shall have more than one vote at any meeting, except the chairman, who shall, in case of a division, of equal numbers, have the casting vote.

Directors to be subject to shareholders and by-laws.

(14) The directors shall be subject to the examination and control of the shareholders at their annual meetings, and be subject to all by-laws of the company, and to the orders and directions from time to time made at the annual or at any special meetings, such orders and directions not being contrary to any express directions or provisions of this Act or the special Act.

Officers of Company to be directors.

(15) No person holding any office, place or employment in or being concerned or interested in any contracts under or with the company, shall be capable of being chosen a director, or of holding the office of director, nor shall any person being a director of the company enter into or be directly or indirectly, for his own use and benefit, interested in any contract with the company, not relating to the purchase of land necessary for the railway, or be or become a partner of any contractor with the company; and in the event of any such contract made since the 30th day of June, 1858, or made after this Act takes effect, by or on behalf of any director, an action shall lie in any Court of competent jurisdiction against such director at the suit of any shareholder of the company, for the benefit of the funds thereof, for the whole amount of profit accruing to such director from the contract so made or fulfilled.

(16) The directors shall make by-laws for the management and disposition of the stock, property, business and affairs of the company, not inconsistent with the laws of this Province, and for the appointment of all officers, servants and artificers, and prescribing their respective duties. By-laws for management of stock, etc.

(17) The directors shall from time to time appoint such officers as they deem requisite, and shall take sufficient security, by one or more penal bonds, or otherwise from the manager and officers for the time being, for the safe keeping and accounting by them respectively of the moneys raised by virtue of this Act and the special Act, and for the faithful execution of their offices, as the directors think proper. May appoint officers.

(18) In case of the absence or illness of the president, the vice-president shall have all the rights and powers of the president, and may sign all notes, bills, debentures, and other instruments, and perform all acts which by the regulations and by-laws of the company or by the Acts incorporating the company are required to be signed, performed and done by the president. Vice-President to act in the absence of the President.

(19) The directors may at any meeting require the secretary to enter such absence or illness among the proceedings of such meeting, and a certificate thereof signed by the secretary shall be delivered to any person or persons requiring the same on payment to the treasurer of $1, and such certificate shall be taken and considered as prima facie evidence of such absence or illness at and during the period in the said certificate mentioned, in all proceedings in Courts of Justice or otherwise. Absence of President may be entered in the minutes and certified, etc.

CALLS.

35.—(1) The directors may from time to time make such calls of money upon the respective shareholders, in respect of the amount of capital respectively subscribed or owing by them, as they deem necessary, and thirty days' notice at the least shall be given of each call, and no call shall exceed the prescribed amount determined in the special Act, or be made at a less interval than two months from the previous call, nor shall a greater amount be called in, in any one year than the amount prescribed in the special Act. Calls.

Notice of meetings, how published.

(2) All notices of meetings or of calls upon the shareholders of the company shall be published weekly in the Ontario Gazette, and the said Gazette shall on production thereof, be conclusive evidence of the sufficiency of such notices.

Payment of calls how to be made.

(3) Every shareholder shall be liable to pay the amount of the call so made in respect of the shares held by him to the persons and at the times and places from time to time appointed by the company or the directors.

Interest to be chargeable on unpaid calls.

(4) If, before or on the day appointed for payment any shareholder does not pay the amount of the call, he shall be liable to pay interest for the same, at the legal rate for the time being, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment.

Amount of call may be recovered by suit.

(5) If at the time appointed for the payment of a call, a shareholder fails to pay the amount of the call, he may be sued for the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction, and the same may be recovered, with lawful interest from the day on which the call became payable.

What formalities necessary in actions for calls.

(6) In an action to recover money due upon a call, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient to state that the defendant is the holder of one share or more, stating the number of shares, and is indebted in the sum of money to which the calls in arrear amount, in respect of one call or more, upon one share or more, stating the number and amount of each of such calls, whereby an action has accrued to the company by virtue of the special Act.

Certificate of proprietorship prima facie evidence.

(7) The certificate of proprietorship of a share shall be admitted in all Courts as prima facie evidence of the title of any shareholder, his executors, administrators, successors or assigns, to the share therein specified.

Want of certificate not to prevent disposing of shares.

(8) But the want of such certificate shall not prevent the holder of any share from disposing thereof.

Penalty for refusal to pay calls.

(9) Persons neglecting or refusing to pay a rateable share of the calls as aforesaid, for the space of two months after the time appointed for the payment thereof, shall forfeit their respective shares in the undertaking and all the profit and benefit thereof; all which forfeitures shall go to the company for the benefit thereof.

Forfeiture of share to be taken advantage of only at a general meeting.

(10) No advantage shall be taken of the forfeiture unless the same is declared to be forfeited at a general meeting of the company, assembled at any time after such forfeiture incurred.

Effect of forfeiture as to liabilities.

(11) Every such forfeiture shall be an indemnification to and for every shareholder so forfeiting, against all actions or prosecutions whatever, commenced or prosecuted for any breach of contract or other agreement between such shareholder and the other shareholders with regard to carrying on the undertaking.

(13) A certificate of the treasurer of the company that the forfeiture of the shares was declared, and of their purchase by the purchaser, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts, and such certificate, with the receipt of the treasurer for the price of such shares, shall constitute a good title to the shares, and the certificate shall be by the treasurer enregistered in the name and with the place of abode and occupation of the purchasers, and shall be entered in the books required to be kept by the by-laws of the company, and the purchaser shall thereupon be deemed the holder of such shares, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to the sale, and any shareholder may purchase any shares so sold. Certificate of treasurer to be evidence of forfeiture and of title.

(14) Shareholders willing to advance the amount of their shares, or any part of the money due upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called for, may pay the same; and upon the principal moneys so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance is made, the company may pay interest at such legal rate as the shareholders paying such sum in advance and the company agree upon; but such interest shall not be paid out of the capital subscribed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 35. Interest may be allowed to shareholders paying money in advance on their shares.

DIVIDENDS.

36.—(1) At the general meetings of the shareholders of the undertaking, from time to time holden, a dividend shall be made, out of the clear profits of the undertaking, unless such meetings declare otherwise. Declaration of dividend.

(2) Such dividend shall be at and after the rate of so much per share upon the several shares held by the shareholders in the stock of the company, as such meeting thinks fit to appoint or determine. At so much per share.

(3) No dividend shall be made whereby the capital of the company is in any degree reduced or impaired, or be paid thereout, nor shall any dividend be paid in respect of any share, after a day appointed for payment of any call for money in respect thereof until such call has been paid. Dividends not to impair the capital.

Directors may pay interest on sums called up in respect of shares.

(4) The directors may, in their discretion, until the railway is completed and opened to the public, pay interest at any rate authorized by the laws of Canada but not exceeding $6 per $100 per annum, on all sums called up in respect of the shares, from the respective days on which the same have been paid, such interest to accrue and be paid at such times and places as the directors appoint for that purpose.

No interest on shares in arrear.

(5) No interest shall accrue to the proprietors of any share upon which any call is in arrear in respect of such share or any other share to be holden by the same shareholder while such call remains unpaid, nor shall any interest be paid or taken from the capital subscribed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 36.

SHARES AND THEIR TRANSFER.

Shareholders may dispose of shares.

37.—(1) Shares in the undertaking may, by the parties, be sold and disposed of by instrument in writing, to be made in duplicate, one part of which shall be delivered to the directors, to be filed and kept for the use of the company, and an entry thereof shall be made in a book to be kept for that purpose; and no interest on the shares transferred shall be paid to the purchaser until the duplicate is so delivered, filed and entered.

Form of sale.

(2) Sales shall be in the form following, varying the names and descriptions of the contracting parties, as the case may require:

I, A. B., in consideration of the sum of paid to me by C. D., hereby do sell and transfer to him share (or shares) of the stock of the , to hold to him the said C. D., his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, subject to the same rules and orders, and on the same conditions that I held the same immediately before the execution hereof. And I, the said C. D., do hereby agree to accept the said share (or shares) subject to the same rules, orders and conditions.

Witness our hands this day of in the year 18 .

Shares to be personal estate—transfer of.

(3) The stock of the company shall be deemed personal estate, but no shares shall be transferable until all previous calls thereon have been fully paid in, or the shares have been declared forfeited for the non-payment of calls thereon, and no transfer of less than a whole share shall be valid.

Transmission of shares other than by transfer, provided for.

(4) If a share in the company is transmitted by the death, bankruptcy, or last will, donation or testament, or by the intestacy, of a shareholder, or by any lawful means other than the transfer hereinbefore mentioned, the person to whom the share is so transmitted shall deposit in the office of the company a statement in writing, signed by him, declaring the manner of such transmission, together with a duly certified copy or probate of the will, donation or testament, or sufficient extracts therefrom, and such other documents or proof as may be necessary, and without which such person shall not be entitled to receive any share of the profits of the company, or to vote in respect of such share as the holder thereof.

(5) The company shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, to which any of the shares may be subject; and the receipt of the person in whose name any share stands in the books of the company, or if it stands in the name of more persons than one, the receipt of one of the persons named in the register of shareholders, shall from time to time be a sufficient discharge to the company for any dividend or other sum of money payable in respect of the share, notwithstanding any trust to which the share may then be subject, and whether or not the company have had notice of the trusts, and the company shall not be bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipts. Company not bound to see to execution trusts.

(6) The original capital stock may be increased from time to time to any amount, but such increase must be sanctioned by a vote, in person or by proxy, of at least two-thirds in amount of all the shareholders, at a meeting of them expressly called by the directors for that purpose, by a notice in writing to each shareholder, served on him personally, or properly directed to him, and deposited in the post office nearest to his place of residence, at least twenty days previous to such meeting, stating the time and place and object of the meeting, and the amount of increase; and the proceedings of such meeting must be entered on the minutes of the proceedings, and thereupon the capital stock may be increased to the amount sanctioned by such a vote. Stock may be increased.

(7) The funds of the company shall not be employed in the purchase of any stock in their own or in any other company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 37. Company not to take stock in other companies.

SHAREHOLDERS.

38.—(1) Every shareholder shall be individually liable to the creditors of the company to an amount equal to the amount unpaid on the stock held by him, for the debts and liabilities of the company, and until the whole amount of his stock has been paid up; but shall not be liable to an action therefor before an execution against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, and the amount due on such execution shall be the amount recoverable with costs against such shareholder. Shareholders individually liable till shares paid up.

(2) A true and perfect account of the names and places of abode of the several shareholders shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, as well as of the several persons who from time to time become proprietors of, or entitled to any shares therein, and of all the other acts, proceedings and transactions of the company and of the directors for the time being. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 38. Account of names and residence of shareholders to be kept.

MUNICIPALITIES TAKING STOCK.

Municipal corporations may take stock.

39.—(1) Municipal corporations in this Province may subscribe for any number of shares in the capital stock of, or lend to or guarantee the payment of any sum of money borrowed by the company from any corporation or person, or indorse or guarantee the payment of any debenture to be issued by the company for the money by them borrowed, and may assess and levy from time to time upon the whole rateable property of the municipality a sufficient sum for them to discharge the debt or engagement so contracted, and for the like purpose may issue debentures payable at such times and for such sums respectively, not less than $20, and bearing or not bearing interest, as such municipal corporation thinks meet.

Debentures issued by them to be binding.

(2) Any such debenture issued, indorsed or guaranteed, shall be valid and binding upon the municipal corporation, if signed or indorsed, and countersigned by the officer or person, and in such manner and form as directed by any by-law of the corporation, and the seal of the corporation thereto shall not be necessary, nor the observance of any other form with regard to the debentures than as directed in the by-law.

Not to subscribe for stock unless by-laws are made for that purpose.

Rev. Stat. c. 223.

(3) No municipal corporation shall subscribe for stock or incur any debt or liability under this Act or the special Act, unless and until a by-law to that effect has been duly made, and adopted, with the consent first had of a majority of the qualified electors of the municipality, to be ascertained in the manner provided by The Municipal Act, after public advertisement thereof containing a copy of such proposed by-law, inserted at least four times in each newspaper printed within the limits of the municipality, or if none be printed therein, then in some one or more newspapers printed in the nearest city or town thereto and circulated therein, and also put up in at least four of the most public places in each municipality. See also Cap. 223, Sec. 694.

Mayor, etc., to be ex officio a director in certain cases.

(4) The mayor, warden or reeve, or other chief officer of a municipal corporation subscribing for and holding stock in the company to the amount of $20,000, or upwards, shall be ex officio one of the directors of the company, in addition to the number of directors authorized by the special Act, and shall have the same rights, powers and duties as any of the directors of the company. See also Cap. 223, Sec. 695.

Mayor, etc., not to vote for directors of companies incorporated before 14th June, 1853.

(5) No such mayor, warden, reeve or other chief officer or other person representing any municipality having or taking stock in any railway company shall, directly or indirectly, vote on the election or appointment of the private directors of any railway company incorporated previous to or during the Session held in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, unless the special Act of incorporation of such company expressly provides therefor. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 39.

BY-LAWS—NOTICES, ETC.

40.—(1) All by-laws, rules and orders regularly made, shall be put into writing and signed by the chairman or person presiding at the meeting at which they are adopted, and shall be kept in the office of the company; and a printed copy of so much of them as relates to or affects any party other than the members or servants of the company, shall be affixed openly in all and every passenger car, and in all and every place where tolls are to be gathered, and in like manner so often as any change or alteration is made in the same; and any copy of the same or of any of them, certified as correct by the president or secretary, shall be deemed authentic, and shall be received as evidence thereof in any Court, without further proof. By-laws to be put into writing and signed by Chairman.

(2) All such by-laws, rules and orders shall be submitted from time to time to the Lieutenant-Governor for approval. By-laws to be submitted to Li-ut.-Governor.

(3) Copies of the minutes of proceedings and resolutions of the shareholders of the company, at any general or special meeting, and of the minutes of proceedings and resolutions of the directors, at their meetings, extracted from the minute books kept by the secretary of the company, and by him certified to be true copies, extracted from such minute books, shall be prima facie evidence of such proceedings and resolutions in all Courts of civil jurisdiction. Copies of minutes to be prima facie evidence.

(4) All notices given by the secretary of the company, by order of the directors, shall be deemed notices by the directors and company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 40. Notices by Secretary valid.

WORKING OF THE RAILWAY.

41.—(1) Every servant of the undertaking employed in a passenger train, or at a station for passengers, shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge which shall indicate his office, and he shall not without such badge be entitled to demand or receive from any passenger any fare or ticket, or to exercise any of the powers of his office, or meddle or interfere with any passenger or his baggage or property. Servants to wear badges.

(2) The trains shall start and run at regular hours to be fixed by public notice, and shall furnish sufficient accommodation for the transportation of all such passengers and goods as are within a reasonable time previous thereto offered for transportation at the place of starting, and the junctions of other railways, and at usual stopping places, established for receiving and discharging way-passengers and goods from the train. Trains to start at regular hours.

(3) Such passengers and goods shall be taken, transported and discharged, at, from and to such places, on the due payment of the toll, freight or fare legally authorized therefor. Passengers and goods to be carried on payment of fare or freight

The Company liable for neglect or refusal.

(4) The person aggrieved by any neglect or refusal in the premises, shall have an action therefor against the company, from which action the company shall not be relieved by any notice, condition or declaration if the damage arises from any negligence, omission or misconduct of the company or of its servants

Checks to be affixed to baggage.

(5) Checks shall be affixed by an agent or servant to every parcel of baggage having a handle, loop or fixture of any kind thereupon, and a duplicate of such check shall be given to the passenger delivering the parcel.

Penalty for refusing to give checks.

(6) If such check is refused on demand, the company shall pay to such passenger the sum of $8, to be recovered in a civil action; and further, no fare or toll shall be collected or received from such passenger, and if he has paid his fare, the same shall be refunded by the conductor in charge of the train.

Baggage cars not to be in rear of passenger cars.

(7) The baggage, freight, merchandise or lumber cars shall not be placed in rear of the passenger cars, and no officer or agent shall direct or knowingly suffer such arrangement.

Locomotives to have bells or whistles.

(8) Every locomotive engine shall be furnished with a bell of at least thirty pounds weight or with a steam whistle.

Bell to be rung or whistle sounded at every crossing.

(9) The bell shall be rung, or the whistle sounded at the distance of at least eighty rods from every place where the railway crosses any highway, and be kept ringing or be sounded at short intervals until the engine has crossed such highway, under a penalty of $8 for every neglect thereof, to be paid by the company, who shall also be liable for all damages sustained by any person by reason of such neglect, one-half of which penalty and damages shall be chargeable to and collected by the company from the engineer having charge of such engine and neglecting to sound the whistle or ring the bell as aforesaid.

[As to fire from locomotive—see also the Act to Preserve the Forests from Destruction by Fire, Cap. 267.]

Passenger refusing to pay fare may be put out.

(10) Any passenger refusing to pay his fare, may, with his baggage, by the conductor of the train and the servants of the company, be put out of the cars at any usual stopping place, or near any dwelling-house, as the conductor elects, the conductor first stopping the train and using no unnecessary force.

Passengers to have no claim if injured when on platform of cars, etc.

(11) Any passenger injured while on the platform of a car, or on any baggage, wood or freight car, in violation of the printed regulations posted up at the time in a conspicuous place inside of the passenger cars then in the train, shall have no claim for the injury, provided room inside of such passenger cars, sufficient for the proper accommodation of the passengers, was furnished at the time.

As to goods of a dangerous nature.

(12) No person shall be entitled to carry or to require the company to carry upon their railway, aqua fortis, oil of vitriol, gunpowder, lucifer matches, or any other goods which, in the judgment of the company, are of a dangerous nature; and if any person sends by the railway such goods without, at the time of so sending the said goods, distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, and otherwise giving notice in writing to the book-keeper or other servant of the company with whom the same are left, he shall forfeit to the company the sum of $20 for every offence.

Dangerous goods may be refused.

(13) The company may refuse to take any package or parcel which they suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, or may require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact. R.S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 41.

ACTIONS FOR INDEMNITY, AND FINES AND PENALTIES AND THEIR PROSECUTION.

Limitation of actions for damages.

42.—(1) All actions for indemnity for damages or injury sustained by reason of the railway, shall be instituted within six months next after the time of the supposed damage sustained, or if there be continuation of damage, then within six months next after the doing or committing such damage ceases, and not afterwards; and the defendants may plead not guilty by statute and give this Act and the special Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and may prove that the same was done in pursuance of and by authority of this Act and the special Act.

Fines: how recovered.

(2) All fines and forfeitures imposed by this Act or the special Act, or by any by-law, the levying and recovering of which are not particularly herein directed, shall, upon proof of the offence before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the district, county or place where the act occurred, either by the confession of the party, or by the oath or affirmation of any one credible witness, to be administered without fee or reward, be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, by warrant under the hand and seal or hands and seals of such Justice or Justices.

How applicable.

(3) All fines, forfeitures and penalties, the application whereof is not hereinbefore particularly directed, shall be paid into the hands of the treasurer of the company, to be applied to the use thereof, and the overplus of the money so raised, after deducting the penalty and the expenses of the levying and recovering thereof, shall be returned to the owner of the goods so distrained and sold.

When party may be committed.

(4) In case sufficient goods and chattels whereof to levy the penalty and expense are not found the offender shall be sent to the common gaol for the county or district in which he has been convicted, there to remain without bail, for such term, not exceeding one month, as the Justice or Justices may think proper, unless the penalty or forfeiture, and all expenses attending the same, are sooner paid and satisfied. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 42.

Punishment for contravention of this Act, etc., not to exempt Company from forfeiture

43. No punishment for a contravention of this Act or of the special Act, by the company shall exempt the company from the forfeiture by this Act and the special Act, of the privileges conferred on them by the said Acts, if by the provisions thereof or by law, the same be forfeited by such contravention, R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 43.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Provision as to the carriage of Her Majesty's mail, etc.

44.—(1) Her Majesty's Mail, Her Majesty's Naval or Military Forces or Militia, and all artillery, ammunition, provisions or other stores for their use, and all policemen, constables and others travelling on Her Majesty's service, shall at all times, when thereunto required by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, the Commander of the Forces, or any person having the superintendence or command of any Police Force, and with the whole resources of the company if required, be carried on the railway, on such terms and conditions, and under such regulations as may be made by the Governor-General in Council or the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, as the case requires.

Government to have exclusive use of telegraph.

(2) The Governor-General or Lieutenant-Governor as the case may be, or any person thereunto authorized by them respectively, may require the company to place any electric telegraph, and the apparatus and operators they may have, at the exclusive use of the Government, receiving thereafter reasonable compensation for such service.

Further enactments may be made.

(3) Any further enactments which the Parliament of Canada or the Legislature of this Province may make for the carriage of the mail or Her Majesty's Forces, and other persons and articles as aforesaid, or the tolls therefor, or in any way respecting the use of any electric telegraph or other service to be rendered to the Government, shall not be deemed an infringement of the privileges intended to be conferred by this Act or the special Act.

Tenders must be advertised for.

(4) No contracts for works of construction or maintenance of railways, except works of ordinary repair, or of immediate necessity, shall be entered into until after tenders for such works respectively have been invited by public notice therefor, given for at least four weeks in some newspaper published in the place nearest to the work required to be done; but no company shall be compelled to accept any such tender.

Ten per cent. to be paid within three years from passing of Special Act.

(5) If the construction of the railway is not commenced, and ten per cent. on the amount of the capital is not expended thereon, within three years after the passing of the special Act, or if the railway is not finished and put in operation in ten years from the passing of the special Act, the corporate existence and powers of the company shall cease.

Accounts to be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary.

(6) After the opening of the railway or any part thereof to the public, and within the first fifteen days after the opening of each Session of the Legislature, an account shall be annually transmitted to the Provincial Secretary containing a detailed and particular account, attested upon oath of the president, or in his absence of the vice-president, of the moneys received and expended by the company, and a classified statement of the passengers and goods transported by them, with an attested copy of the last annual statement.

Variation in form or details may be made.

(7) No further provisions which the Legislature may hereafter make with regard to the form or details of such account, or the mode of attesting or rendering the same, shall be deemed an infringement of the privileges hereby granted to the company.

And may dissolve any corporation formed under this Act.

(8) The Legislature may at any time annul or dissolve any corporation formed under this Act, but such dissolution shall not take away or impair any remedy given against any such corporation, its shareholders, officers or servants, for any liability which had been previously incurred.

Saving of Her Majesty's rights, etc.

(9) Nothing herein contained shall affect in any manner the rights of Her Majesty, or any person, or of any body politic, corporate or collegiate, such only excepted as are herein mentioned.

No amendment of this Act to be deemed an infringment of the Company's rights.

(10) No amendment or alteration in this Act shall be held to be an infringement of the rights of any company authorized to construct a railway by any Act passed on or since the 30th of August, 1851, or by any Act with which this Act is or may be incorporated. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 44.

PART SECOND.

APPLICATION OF SECTIONS.

Application.

45. Unless otherwise provided, the following sections and subsection 4 of section 41, shall apply to every railway subject to the legislative authority of the Legislature of this Province, made or to be made in this Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 45.

What the words "Railway Company" shall include.

46. In the construction of sections 51 to 76 inclusive, section 87 and sections 95 to 106 inclusive, of this Act, the expression "Railway Company" shall include any person being the owner or lessee of or contractor working any railway subject to the legislative authority of the Legislature of this Province and constructed or carried on under the powers of an Act of the Parliament of the late Province of Canada or Upper Canada or of the Legislature of this Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 46.

PROCEEDINGS WHERE ADDITIONAL SPACE REQUIRED.

Proceedings where more space is required for the accommodation of the traffic.

47. Where a railway company incorporated by, or subject to the authority of the Legislature of Ontario requires at a station or place on the line of such railway, more ample space for the convenient accommodation of the public and of the traffic on the railway than they then possess, or can take without the consent of the proprietors thereof, the company may cause a plan to be made of the additional ground required at the station or place for the purposes aforesaid, not being in actual use for similar purposes by any other railway company (and for the purpose of making such plan shall have the powers granted to railway companies for making surveys by section 9 of this Act), and may transmit the plan to the Commissioner of Public Works, with an application (supported by affidavit) on behalf of the company, referring to the plan and stating that certain ground shewn thereon is necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and that no other ground suitable for the purpose can be acquired at such place on reasonable terms and with less injury to private rights, and requesting the Commissioner to authorize the taking thereof for such purposes under this Act; of which application ten days' notice shall be given to the owner or possessor of the property, and the correctness of the plan and the truth of the allegations in the application shall be certified by the president or one of the directors of the company, and by their engineer; and the plan and statement shall be made and transmitted to the Commissioner in duplicate. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 47.

Certificate of Commissioner of Public Works required.

48. The Commissioner of Public Works shall inquire into the correctness of the plan and the truth of the allegations of the application aforesaid, and being satisfied thereof, shall grant a certificate to that effect, and declaring it to be necessary, in the public interest, that the ground shewn on such plan, or any less quantity, should be acquired by the company; and the certificate shall be annexed to one of the duplicates of the plan and statement, and the other duplicate shall remain in the office of the Commissioner R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 48.

Effect of such certificate, and application of certain provisions of this Act to the land certified as necessary.

49. Upon the granting of the certificate as aforesaid by the Commissioner of Public Works, and by virtue thereof, the company shall have power to take the ground shewn on the said plan as required for the purposes aforesaid, without the consent of the proprietors; and the company and all corporations or parties who could not otherwise convey the same to the company, shall have, with respect to any such ground, all the powers granted by sections 13 to 20 inclusive of this Act, to railway companies, corporations, and persons who could not otherwise convey the same, with respect to lands which may be taken without the consent of the proprietors thereof; and the enactments and provisions of the said sections, except such as refer to the map or plan and book of reference therein mentioned, or as limit the extent of land to be taken, shall apply and are hereby extended to the ground mentioned in the certificate of the Commissioner of Public Works, and to all the proceedings connected with or consequent upon the acquiring or taking of such ground or any part thereof, with or without the consent of the proprietors; and if at any time thereafter the company do not require the whole or any portion of the land acquired under this Act for railway purposes, than such land as is not so required shall be sold by auction after thirty days' notice thereof in any local newspaper. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 49.

Sale of land taken and not afterwards required.

50. Such certificate as aforesaid, purporting to be signed by the Commissioner, shall be received as authentic in all Courts of Justice, without proof of the signature or other evidence, unless its authenticity is called in question on behalf of the Crown. R. S. O 1887, c. 170, s. 50.

Proof of certificate.

INSPECTION OF RAILWAYS.

51. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint and authorize any proper person or persons, not exceeding three in number, whose duty it shall be from time to time to inspect all railways constructed or in course of construction, and every person so authorized may at all reasonable times, upon producing his authority if required, enter upon and examine the railway and the stations, fences or gates, road crossings, cattle guards, works and buildings, and the engines, cars and carriages belonging thereto. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 51.

Railway Inspectors.
Duties of.

52. No railway or portion of a railway shall be opened for the public conveyance of passengers until one month after notice in writing of the intention to open the same has been given by the company to whom the railway belongs to the Commissioner of Public Works, and until ten days after notice in writing has been given by the company to the Commissioner, of the time when the railway or portion of railway will be, in the opinion of the company, sufficiently completed for the safe conveyance of passengers, and ready for inspection. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 52.

Railway not to be open till after one month's notice of intention to open the same.

53. If a railway or portion of a railway be opened without such notices, the company to whom the railway belongs shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $200 for every day during which the same continues open, until the said notices have been duly given and expired. R. S. O. c. 170, s. 53.

Penalty for contravention.

54. If the Railway Inspectors after inspection of a railway, report in writing to the Commissioner of Public Works that, in their opinion, the opening of the same would be attended with danger to the public using the same, by reason of

Commissioner of Public Works, upon report of Inspectors and approval of Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may order postponement of opening of road.

the incompleteness of the works or permanent way, or the insufficiency of the establishment for working the railway, together with the grounds of such opinion, the Commissioner, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and so from time to time, as often as the Inspectors after further inspection thereof so report, may order and direct the company to whom the railway belongs to postpone the opening for a period not exceeding one month at any one time, until it appears to the Commissioner, that such opening may take place without danger to the public. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 54.

Penalty for opening contrary to the order of the Commissioner.

55. If such railway, or any portion thereof, is opened contrary to such order or direction of the Commissioner, the company to whom the railway belongs shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $200 for every day during which the same continues open contrary to such order or direction. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 55.

When only such order to be binding on the Company.

56. No such order shall be binding upon a railway company unless there is delivered therewith to the company a copy of the report of the Inspectors on which the order is founded. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 56.

When any railway bridge etc., condemned by Commissioner and Inspectors, what to be done.

57. Where a bridge, culvert, viaduct, tunnel, fence, cattle-guard, road crossing, or any other portion of a railway constructed or in course of construction, or a locomotive, car, or carriage used or for use on a railway, has been condemned on the report of an Inspector by the Commissioner of Public Works, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or where any change or alteration therein or in any part thereof, or the substitution of a new bridge, culvert, viaduct or tunnel, or of any material for the said railway, has been required by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the company to which the railway belongs, or the company using, running or controlling the same, shall, after notice thereof in writing, signed by the Commissioner, proceed to make good or remedy the defects in the said portions of the railway, or in the locomotive, car or carriage which have been so condemned, or shall make such change, alteration or substitution hereinbefore referred to as has been required in manner aforesaid by the Commissioner. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 57.

When Inspectors may forbid the running of trains, etc.

58. If, in the opinion of such railway Inspector, it is dangerous for trains or vehicles to pass over a particular railway, or any portion of a railway, until alterations, substitutions, or repairs have been made thereon, or that any particular car, carriage or locomotive should be run or used, the Inspector may forthwith forbid the running or using of any train or vehicle over such railway or portion of railway or the running or using of any such car, carriage or locomotive, by delivering or causing to be delivered to the president, managing director, or secretary or superintendent of the company owning, running, or using the railway, or to any officer having the management or control of the running of trains on the railway, a notice in writing to that effect, with his reasons therefor, in which he shall distinctly point out the defects or nature of the danger to be apprehended. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 58.

Commissioner may modify report of Inspector.

59. The Inspector shall forthwith report the same to the Commissioner of Public Works, who, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may either confirm, modify or disallow the act or order of the Inspector, and such confirmation, modification or disallowance shall be duly notified to the railway company affected thereby. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 59.

When the Commissioner may regulate speed, etc.

60. The Commissioner of Public Works may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, limit the number, or times of running, or rate of speed, of trains or vehicles upon the railway or portion of railway, until such alterations or repairs as he may think sufficient have been made, or until such time as he thinks prudent; and the company owning, running or using the railway shall comply forthwith with such order of the Inspector or of the Commissioner upon notice thereof as aforesaid; and for every act of non-compliance therewith every such railway company shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $2000. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 60.

Penalty for non-compliance.

Companies to afford information to Inspector.

61. Every railway company and the directors and officers thereof shall afford to such Inspector every information, and full and true explanations, so far as may be in their power or knowledge, on all matters inquired into by such Inspector, and submit to the Inspector all plans, specifications, drawings and documents relating to the construction or reconstruction, repair or state of repair of the railway or any portion thereof, whether a bridge, culvert or other part. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 61.

Inspectors may use telegraph wires; for what purposes.

62. The Inspector shall have the right to use the telegraph wires and machinery in the offices of or under the control of such railway company, for the purpose of communicating with any of the offices of the company, or transmitting any order of such Inspector relating to the railway. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 62.

Operators and others to obey orders of Inspectors.

63. The operators or officers employed in the telegraph offices of or under the control of the company, shall, without unnecessary delay, obey all orders of such Inspector, for effecting such communications and transmitting messages for the purpose aforesaid, and any operator or officer refusing or neglecting so to do, shall forfeit for every offence the sum of $40. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 63.

Authority of Inspectors, how proved.

64. The authority of such Inspector shall be sufficiently evidenced by a paper in writing nominating him an Inspector of Railways, or of any railway in particular, signed by the Commissioner of Public Works. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 64.

Lieutenant-Governor may order permanent bridges to be substituted for movable bridges.

65. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the report of the Commissioner of Public Works may authorize or require any railway company to construct fixed and permanent bridges or to substitute such bridges in the place of the swing, draw or movable bridges on the line of the railway, within such time as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council directs; and for every day after the period so fixed during which the company uses such swing, draw or movable bridges, the company shall forfeit and pay to Her Majesty the sum of $200; and it shall not be lawful for a company to substitute a swing, draw or other movable bridge in the place or stead of any fixed or permanent bridge already built and constructed, without the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council previously had and obtained. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 65.

Certain powers vested in Commissioner, with respect to crossing public highways, on a level.

66. In any case where a railway commenced after the 27th day of May, 1857, is constructed across a turnpike road, street or other public highway, on the level, the Commissioner of Public Works, if it appears to him necessary for the public safety, may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, authorize and require the company to whom the railway belongs, within such time as the Commissioner directs, to carry the road, street or highway either over or under the railway, by means of a bridge or arch, instead of crossing the same on the level, or to execute such other works as under the circumstances of the case appear to him the best adapted for removing or diminishing the danger arising from such level crossing; and all the provisions of law at such time applicable to the taking of land by railway companies, and its valuation and conveyance to them, and to the compensation therefor, shall apply to the case of land required for the construction of any works for effecting the alteration of such level crossing. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 66.

Railway may be required to repair any level crossing out of repair.

67. (1) Where a level crossing on a railway is out of repair, the warden, mayor, reeve or other chief officer of the municipality within whose jurisdiction the crossing is situate, may serve a notice upon the company in the usual manner, requiring the repair to be forthwith made; and if the company does not forthwith make the same, such officer may transmit a copy of the notice so served to the Inspector of Railways; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Inspector, with all possible despatch, to appoint a day when he will examine into the matter; and he shall, by mail, give notice to the warden, mayor, reeve or other chief officer, and to the company, of the day he so fixes; and upon the day so named he shall examine the crossing; and a certificate under his hand shall be final on the subject so in dispute between the parties; and if the Inspector determines that any repairs are required, he shall specify the nature thereof in his certificate, and direct the company to make the same; and the company shall thereupon, with all possible despatch, comply with the requirements of the certificate; and in case of default, the municipality within whose jurisdiction the said crossing is situate, may make the repairs, and may recover all costs, expenses and outlays in the premises by action against the company in any Court of competent jurisdiction, as money paid to the company's use.

Inspector's certificate to be conclusive.

Proviso.

(2) Neither this section nor any proceeding had thereunder shall at all affect any liability otherwise attaching to the company in the premises. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 67.

Inspection not to relieve Company from liability.

68. No inspection had under this Act, nor anything in this Act contained or done or ordered, or omitted to be done or ordered, under or by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall relieve or be construed to relieve a railway company of or from any liability or responsibility resting upon it by law either towards Her Majesty or towards any person, or the wife or husband, parent or child, executor or administrator, or other personal representative of any person for anything done or omitted to be done by the company, or for any wrongful act, neglect or default, misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance of the company, or in any manner or way to lessen the liability or responsibility, or in any way to weaken or diminish the liability or responsibility of such company under the existing laws of the Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 68.

Company to notify orders of Commissioner to its officers, etc.

69. Every railway company shall, as soon as possible after the receipt of any order or notice of the Commissioner of Public Works, give cognizance thereof to each of its officers and servants, in one or more of the ways mentioned in section 89 of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 69.

What to be deemed sufficient notice thereof.

70. All orders of the Commissioner shall be considered as made known to the railway company by a notice thereof signed by him, and delivered to the president, vice-president, managing director, secretary or superintendent of the company, or at the office of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 70.

Notice of accidents to be given to the Commissioner of Public Works.

71. Every railway company shall, as soon as possible, and at least within forty-eight hours after the occurrence upon the railway belonging to the company of any accident attended with serious personal injury to any person using the same, or whereby a bridge, culvert, viaduct or tunnel on or of the railway has been broken or so damaged as to be impassable or unfit for immediate use, give notice thereof to the Commissioner of Public Works; and any company which wilfully omits to give such notice, shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $200 for every day during which the omission to give the same continues. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 71.

Return of accidents to be made semi-annually.

72. Every railway company shall, within ten days after the first days of January and July, in each and every year, make to the Commissioner of Public Works, under the oath of the president, secretary or superintendent of the company, a true and particular return of all accidents and casualties (whether to life or property) which have occurred on the railway of the company during the half year next preceding each of the said periods respectively, setting forth—

1. The causes and natures of such accidents and casualties;

2. The points at which they occurred, and whether by night or by day;

3. The full extent thereof, and all particulars of the same; and shall also at the same time return a true copy of the existing by-laws of the company, and of their rules and regulations for the management of the company and of their railway. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 72

Form to be appointed by the Commissioner.

73. The Commissioner of Public Works may order and direct, from time to time, the form in which such returns shall be made up, and may order and direct any railway company to make up and deliver to him from time to time, in addition to the said periodical returns, returns of serious accidents occurring in the course of the public traffic upon the railway belonging to such company, whether attended with personal injury or not, in such form and manner as the Commissioner deems necessary and requires for his information with a view to the public safety. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 73.

Penalty for neglect.

74. If the returns so verified are not delivered within the respective times herein prescribed, or within fourteen days after the same have been so required by the Commissioner, every company making default shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $100 for every day during which the company neglects to deliver the same. R. S. O 1887, c. 170, s. 74.

Such returns to be privileged communications.

75. All such returns shall be privileged communications, and shall not be evidence in any Court whatsoever. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 75.

RAILWAY INSPECTION FUND.

Railway Inspection Fund.

76. From the 27th day of May, 1857, every railway then or thereafter constructed shall, so soon as any portion thereof is in use, pay to the Treasurer of the Province an annual rate to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, not exceeding $10 per mile of railway constructed and in use; such rate to be paid half-yearly on the first days of January and July in each year, and to form a special fund for the purposes of this Act, to be called "The Railway Inspection Fund." R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 76.

One Company may agree with another respecting traffic.

77. The directors of any railway company may at any time, and from time to time, make and enter into any agreement or arrangement with any other company, either in this Province or elsewhere, for the regulation and interchange of traffic passing to and from the railways of the said companies, and for the working of the traffic over the said railways respectively, or for either of those objects separately, and for the division and apportionment of tolls, rates and charges in respect of such traffic, and generally in relation to the management, and working of the railways, or any of them, or any part thereof, and of any railway in connection therewith, for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, and to provide, either by proxy or otherwise, for the appointment of a joint committee or committees for the better carrying into effect such agreement or arrangement, with such powers and functions as may be considered necessary or expedient, subject to the consent of two-thirds of the shareholders, voting in person or by proxy; but the provisions of this section shall not apply to anything done before the 30th day of June, 1858. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 77.

Railway Companies must afford each other every facility for the forwarding of traffic, without preference or favour.

78.—(1) Every railway company shall, according to their respective powers, afford all reasonable facilities to any other railway company for the receiving and forwarding and delivering of traffic upon and from the several railways belonging to or worked by such companies respectively, and for the return of carriages, trucks, and other vehicles; and no such company shall give or continue any preference or advantage to or in favour of any particular company, or any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, nor shall such company subject any particular company or any particular description of traffic to any prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever; and every railway company having or working a railway which forms part of a continuous line of railway, or which intersects any other railway or which has a terminus, station or wharf of the one near a terminus, station or wharf of the other, shall afford all due and reasonable facilities for receiving and forwarding by the one of such railways, all the traffic arriving by the other, without any unreasonable delay and without any such preference or advantage, or prejudice or disadvantage as aforesaid, and so that no obstruction may be offered in the using of such railway as a continuous line of communication, and so that all reasonable accommodation may at all times, by the means aforesaid, be mutually afforded by and to the said several railway companies.

Agreements made in contravention of this section, to be void.

(2) Any agreement between any two or more railway companies contrary to the foregoing provisions, made since the 18th day of May, 1861, or after the passing of this Act, shall be unlawful, null and void. R. S. O 1887, c. 170, s. 78.

Penalty on Companies or their officers refusing or neglecting to forward traffic, as above required.

79. If any officer, servant or agent of a railway company, having the superintendence of the traffic at any station or depot thereof, refuses or neglects to receive, convey or deliver at any station or depot of the company for which they may be destined, any passenger, goods or things, brought, conveyed or delivered to him or to such company, for conveyance over or along the railway from that of any other company, intersecting or coming near to such first-mentioned railway, or in any way wilfully contravenes the provisions of the next preceding section—such first-mentioned railway company, or such officer, servant or agent, personally, shall, for every such neglect or refusal, incur a penalty not exceeding $50 over and above the actual damages sustained; which penalty may be recovered with costs, in a summary way, before any Justice of the Peace, by the railway company or any other person aggrieved by such neglect or refusal, and to and for the use and benefit of such company or other person so aggrieved. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 79.

How recoverable, and how to be applied.

nterpretation of word "Traffic,"

80. For the purposes of the next preceding two sections—

1. "Traffic" shall include not only passengers and their baggage, goods, animals and things conveyed by railway, but also cars, trucks and vehicles of any description adapted for running over any railway;

"Railway,"

2. "Railway" shall include all stations and depots of the railway;

"Railway Company," etc.

3. "Railway Company" shall include all persons owning, leasing or working any railway; and a railway shall be deemed to come near another when some part of the one is within one mile of some part of the other. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 80.

APPOINTMENT OF RAILWAY CONSTABLES.

Constables may be appointed to act on the line of any railway.

81.—(1) The Justices of the Peace for any county assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, on the application of the board of directors of any railway company whose railway passes within the local jurisdiction of such Justices of the Peace, or on the application of any clerk or agent of the company thereto authorized by such board, may, in their discretion, appoint any persons recommended to them for that purpose by such board of directors, clerk or agent, to act as constables on and along such railway; and every person so appointed shall take an oath or make a solemn declaration in the form or to the effect following, that is to say:

"I, A. B., having been appointed a Constable to act upon and along "(here name the Railway), under the provisions of The Railway Act of "Ontario, do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady "the Queen, in the said office of Constable, without favour or affection, "malice or ill-will, and that I will, to the best of my power, cause the "peace to be kept, and prevent all offences against the peace, and that "while I continue to hold the said office, I will, to the best of my skill "and knowledge, discharge the duties thereof faithfully, according to law: "So help me God." Oath of office.

(2) Such oath or declaration shall be administered by any one such Justice. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 81. By whom to be administered.

82. Every constable so appointed, and having taken such oath or made such declaration as aforesaid, shall have full power to act as a constable for the preservation of the peace and for the security of persons and property against felonies and other unlawful acts on such railway, and on any of the works belonging thereto, and on and about any trains, roads, wharfs, quays, landing-places, warehouses, lands and premises belonging to the company, whether the same be in the county, city, district or other local jurisdiction within which he was appointed, or in any other place through which the railway passes, or in which the same terminates, or through or to which any railway passes which is worked or leased by such railway company, and in all places not more than one-quarter of a mile distant from the railway; and shall have all the powers, protections and privileges for the apprehending of offenders, as well by night as by day and for doing all things for the prevention, discovery and prosecution of felonies and other offences, and for keeping the peace, possessed by any constable duly appointed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 82. Powers of such constables, and to what localities they shall extend.

83. It shall be lawful for such constable to take such persons as may be punishable by summary conviction for any offence against the provisions of this Act, or of any of the Acts or by-laws affecting such railway, before any Justice or Justices appointed for any county, city, district or other local jurisdiction within which such railway passes; and every such Justice shall have authority to deal with all such cases, as though the offence had been committed and the person taken within the limits of his own local jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 83. Duties of such constables.

84. Any two Justices of the Peace may dismiss any such constable who may be acting within their several jurisdictions; and the board of directors of the railway company, or any clerk or agent of the company thereto authorized by the board, may dismiss any such constable who may be acting on the railway; and upon such dismissal, all powers, protections and privileges belonging to such person, by reason of such appointment, shall wholly cease; and no person so dismissed shall be again appointed or act as a constable for such railway Dismissal of any such constable.

without the consent of the authority by which he was dismissed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 84.

Record of appointment of such constable to be kept.

85. Every such railway company shall cause to be recorded, in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for every county, or other local jurisdiction wherein the railway passes, the name and designation of every constable so appointed at their instance, the date of his appointment, and the authority making it, and also the fact of every dismissal of such constable, the date thereof and the authority making the same within one week after the date of such appointment or dismissal, as the case may be; and every such Clerk of the Peace shall keep such record in a book in such form as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council directs, and open to public inspection, charging such fee or fees only as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council authorizes. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 85.

Fees.

Punishment of constables guilty of neglect of duty.

86. Every such constable who is guilty of any neglect or breach of duty in his office of constable, shall be liable, on summary conviction thereof within any county, city, district or other local jurisdiction wherein such railway passes, to a penalty of not more than $80, the amount of which penalty may be deducted from any salary due to such offender, if such constable is in receipt of a salary from the railway company, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for not more than two months, in the gaol of such county, city, district or other local jurisdiction. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 86.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Companies to make by-laws for regulation of conductors and other officers, etc.

87. Every railway company shall make such by-laws, rules and regulations, to be observed by the conductors, engine-drivers, and other officers and servants of the company, and by all other companies and persons using the railway of such company, and such regulations with regard to the construction of the carriages and other vehicles, to be used in the trains on the railway of the company, as are requisite for insuring the perfect carrying into effect of the provisions of this part of this Act and the orders and regulations of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 87.

Company may impose forfeiture for contravention of by-laws.

88. Any railway company may, by a by-law, impose upon any officer, servant, or person, who, before the contravention of such by-law has had notice thereof, and is employed by the company, a forfeiture to the company of not more than thirty days' pay of such officer or servant, for any contravention of such by-law, and may retain such forfeiture out of the salary or wages of the offender. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 88.

How notice of by-laws or orders may be proved.

89. The notice of the by-law or of any order or notice of the Commissioner of Public Works may be proved by proving the delivery of a copy thereof to the officer, servant or person, or that he signed a copy thereof, or that a copy thereof was posted in some place where his work or his duties, or some of them, were to be performed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 89.

When such proof, etc., to be a defence for the Company.

90. Such proof, with evidence of the contravention, shall be a defence to the company in any action for the recovery from it of the amount so retained. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 90.

Company not to impede navigation.

91. No such company shall cause an obstruction in or impede the free navigation of any river, stream or canal to or across or along which their railway is carried. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 91.

Railways crossing rivers, etc., regulated.

92. If the railway is carried across a navigable river or canal, the company shall leave openings between the abutments or piers of their bridge or viaduct over the same, and shall make the same of such clear height above the surface of the water, or shall construct the draw-bridge or swing-bridge over the channel of the river, or over the whole width of the canal, and shall be subject to such regulations as to the opening of such swing-bridge or draw-bridge, as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time determine. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 92.

Plans to be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

93. It shall not be lawful for such company to construct any wharf, bridge, pier or other work upon or over a navigable river, lake or canal, or upon the beach or bed or lands covered with the waters thereof, until they have first submitted the plan and proposed site of such work to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and the same has been by him approved ; and no deviation from such approved site and plan shall be made without his consent. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 93.

Exception where special powers given by the special Act.

94. Nothing contained in the last preceding three sections, shall be construed to limit or affect any power expressly given to any railway company by its special Act of incorporation or any special Act amending the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 94.

When a railway passes over a swing-bridge, etc., trains to stop for three minutes.

95. Where a railway passes a draw or swing bridge over a navigable river, canal or stream, which is subject to be opened for the purposes of navigation, the trains shall in every case be stopped at least three minutes, to ascertain from the bridge-tender that the bridge is closed and in perfect order for passing, and in default of stopping during the full period of three minutes the railway company shall be subject to a fine or penalty of $400. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 95.

Company to use the best apparatus for communication between conductors and engine-

96. Every railway company which runs trains upon the railway, for the conveyance of passengers, shall provide and cause to be used in and upon such trains such known apparatus and arrangements as best afford good and sufficient means of drivers, and for stopping or disconnecting cars, fixing seats in cars, etc.

immediate communication between the conductors and the engine-drivers of such trains while the trains are in motion, and good and sufficient means of applying by the power of the steam-engine or otherwise at the will of the engine-driver, or other person appointed to such duty, the brakes to the truck-wheels of the locomotive or tender, or both, or of all or any of the cars or carriages composing the trains, and of disconnecting the locomotive, tender, and cars or carriages from each other by any such power or means, and also such apparatus and arrangements as best and most securely place and fix the seats or chairs in the cars or carriages, and shall alter such apparatus and arrangements or supply new apparatus and arrangements from time to time as the Commissioner of Public Works, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may order. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 96.

Forfeiture for not complying with section 96.

97. Every railway company which fails to comply with any of the provisions contained in the last preceding section of this Act shall forfeit to Her Majesty a sum not exceeding $200 for every day during which such default continues. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 97.

Further precautions at level crossing.

98. Every railway company shall station an officer at every point on their line crossed on a level by any other railway, and no train shall proceed over such crossing until signal has been made to the conductor thereof that the way is clear. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 98.

Further precautions when one railway crosses another on a level;

99. Every locomotive or railway engine or train of cars, on any railway, shall, before its crosses the track of any other railway on a level, be stopped for the space of at least three minutes. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 99.

Or runs through a city, town, etc.

100. No locomotive or railway engine shall pass in or through a thickly peopled portion of a city, town or village, at a speed greater than six miles per hour, unless the track is properly fenced. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 100.

Or moves reversely.

101. Whenever a train of cars is moving reversely in a city, town or village, the locomotive being in the rear, the company shall station on the last car in the train a person who shall warn persons standing on or crossing the track of the railway, of the approach of such train, under a penalty of $100 for any contravention of the above provisions. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 101.

Foot passengers to use foot-bridge, if provided for that purpose at level crossings.

102. If the Commissioner of Public Works orders a railway company to erect at or near or in lieu of any level crossing of a turnpike road, or other public highway, a foot-bridge or foot-bridges over their railway, for the purpose of enabling persons passing on foot along such turnpike road or public highway to cross the railway by means of such bridge or bridges, then, from and after the completion of such foot bridge or foot-bridges so required to be erected, and while the company keeps the same in good and sufficient repair, such level crossing shall not be used by foot passengers on the said turnpike road or public highway, except during the time when the same is used for the passage of carriages, carts, horses or cattle along the said road. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 102.

No cattle to be allowed to be at large on any highway within half a mile of any Railway.

103. No horses, sheep, swine or other cattle shall be permitted to be at large upon any highway within a half mile of the intersection of such highway with any railway on grade, unless the cattle are in charge of some person or persons to prevent their loitering or stopping on such highway at such intersection. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 103.

Such cattle may be impounded.

104. All cattle found at large in contravention of the last preceding section may, by any person finding the same at large, be impounded in the nearest pound to the place where the same are so found, and the pound-keeper with whom the same are so impounded shall detain the same in the like manner, and subject to the like regulations as to the care and disposal thereof, as in the case of cattle impounded for trespass on private property. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 104.

If killed, owner not entitled to any action.

105. No person, any of whose cattle being at large, contrary to the provisions of section 103 of this Act, are killed by a train at such point of intersection, shall have any action against a railway company in respect to the same being so killed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 105.

Crossings to be fenced.

106. At every road and farm crossing on the grade of the railways in this Province, the crossings shall be sufficiently fenced on both sides of such points, so as to allow the safe passage of the trains. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 106.

Ground adjoining any Railway and belonging to the Company to be laid down with grass and cleared of weeds, etc.

107. Every railway company, whether any of the clauses or provisions of this Act are or are not incorporated with the Act incorporating the company, shall cause all cleared land or ground adjoining their railway and belonging to the company to be sown or laid down with grass or turf, and cause the same as far as may be in their power to be covered with grass or turf, if not already so covered, and cause all thistles and other noxious weeds growing on the land or ground to be cut down, and kept constantly cut down, or to be rooted out of the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 107.

Consequences of omitting to do so.

108. If a railway company fails to comply with the requirements of the last preceding section within twenty days after they have been required to comply with the same, by notice from the mayor, reeve or chief officer of the municipality of the township or county in which the land or ground lies, the company shall thereby incur a penalty of $2 to the use of the municipality, for each day during which they neglect to do any thing which they are lawfully required to do by the notice, and the said mayor, reeve or chief officer may cause all things to be done which the company were lawfully required to do by the notice, and for that purpose may enter by himself and his assistants or workmen upon the lands or grounds, and such municipality may recover the expenses and charges incurred in so doing and the said penalty, with costs of suit, in any Court having jurisdiction in civil cases to the amount sought to be recovered. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 108.

INTEREST OR RENT, WHEN TO BE DEEMED WORKING EXPENSES.

Interest of purchase money or rent of property necessary for working a Railway, to be deemed part of its working expenses.

109. The interest of the purchase money or rent of any real property acquired or leased by a railway company, and necessary to the efficient working of the railway, and the price or purchase money of any real property or thing without which the railway could not be efficiently worked, shall be considered to be part of the expenses of working the railway, and shall be paid as such out of the earnings of the railway. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 109.

PENALTIES.

The Company may pay penalty and deduct from wages. R. S. C. c. 109.

110. The company may in all cases under this Act, or under The Railway Act of Canada, pay the amount of any penalty and costs imposed upon an officer, servant, or person in the employ of the company, and recover the same from the offender or deduct it from his salary or pay. R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 110.

How penalties recovered and applied.

111. All penalties incurred under any of the sections of this Act in section 46 referred to, may be recovered in the name of Her Majesty, by Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ontario, in any Court having competent jurisdiction thereover; and all penalties recovered under the other sections of this Act shall, unless otherwise herein expressly provided, be paid to the Treasurer of the Province to the credit of "The Railway Inspection Fund." R. S. O. 1887, c. 170, s. 111.

APPLICATION OF RAILWAY ACT, s. 48.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Street Railway Act." R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 1. Short title.

2. Where the words following occur in this Act they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned unless a contrary intention appears: Interpretation.

1 "Street" shall include any highway. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 2. "Street."

2 "Railway" and the expression "street railway" shall include a tramway. 53 V. c. 47, s. 1. "Railway and Street Railway."

3 The expression "working expenses" shall mean and comprise all expenses of maintenance of the railway, and of the buildings, works and conveniences belonging thereto, and of the rolling and other stock and movable plant used in the working thereof, and all reasonable and necessary renewals of the same, and also all reasonable rents for property, also all usual expenses of or incidental to the working of the railway and the traffic thereon, including stores and consumable articles; also rates, taxes, insurance and compensation for "Working expenses."

accidents and losses, also all proper salaries and wages and office and management expenses; also all moneys owing by the company for any of the above items of expense; also interest on mortgages or debenture indebtedness, also a sum not exceeding five per cent. per annum of the total mortgage or debenture indebtedness of the company to be placed to the credit of a special account as a sinking fund for the purpose of extinguishing such indebtedness. 59 V. c. 50, s. 2.

Incorporation under Rev. Stat. c. 191.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by letters patent under the great seal, grant a charter, under The Ontario Companies Act, incorporating a company for the purpose of constructing and working a street railway or lines of street railway in any local municipality, or in two or more adjoining local municipalities. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 3.

Shares and Shareholders.

Capital stock, etc., how applied.

4. The capital stock of the company shall be divided into shares of $100 each, and the money raised therefrom and all other moneys and property of the company shall be applied in the first place, to the payment of such reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements for securing the letters patent as the shareholders at the first general meeting of the company shall by resolution sanction and approve of, and for making the plans and estimates of the work authorized; and all the remainder of such moneys shall be applied to the making, equipping, completing and maintaining of the said railway, and other purposes of the undertaking. 59 V. c. 50, s. 9.

First issue of stock.

5.—(1) The "first issue of stock" shall mean all stock subscribed for prior to the first meeting of the directors for the transaction of any business relating to the company, and upon which at least ten per cent. has been paid in within the said period.

Disposing of unissued or forfeited shares.

(2) After the first issue of stock as hereinbefore defined, any unissued or forfeited shares in the capital stock of the company shall be issued and sold only after a day and time fixed for receiving tenders of price for the same, of which public notice shall be given by at least four insertions in any newspaper published in or nearest to the municipality in which the head office of the company is situate, and in or nearest to each and every municipality through or in any part of which it is proposed to construct the railway. The shares shall be sold by the company for cash to the highest tenderer at or above the minimum price fixed for the purposes of such sale by a vote of the shareholders representing two-thirds in value of the capital stock, voting in person or by proxy, passed at a general meeting specially called for the purpose. Provided that the directors, if authorized so to do by a vote of the shareholders representing two-thirds in value of the capital stock, voting in person or by proxy, passed at a general meeting specially called for the purpose, may, in their discretion, exclude any one or more of such tenderers if in their judgment such exclusion would best promote the interests of the undertaking.

Shares to be subject to be paid in cash.

(3) Every share in the company shall be deemed and taken to have been issued and to be held subject to the payment of the whole amount thereof in cash.

Payment of calls how to be made.

(4) Every shareholder shall be liable to pay the amount of any call made in respect of the shares held by him in cash.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

How shares disposed of.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in The Ontario Companies Act, or in any other Act of the Legislature, the shares in the company shall be sold and disposed of in the manner and upon the terms prescribed in this section. 59 V. c. 50, s. 7.

Shareholders individually liable till shares paid up.

6. Each shareholder shall be individually liable to the creditors of the company to an amount equal to the amount unpaid on the stock held by him, for the debts and liabilities of the company, and until the whole amount of his stock has been paid up in cash; but shall not be liable to an action therefor before an execution against the company has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, and the amount due on such execution shall be the amount recoverable with costs against such shareholder. 59 V. c. 50, s. 8.

Rights of aliens.

7. Aliens and companies incorporated abroad, as well as British subjects and corporations, may be shareholders in the company, and all such shareholders, whether resident in this Province or elsewhere, shall be entitled to vote on their shares equally with British subjects, and shall also be eligible for office as directors in the said company. 59 V. c. 50, s. 17.

Directors.

Contractors with company not to be directors.

8. No person holding any office, place or employment in or being concerned or interested in any contract under or with the company shall be capable of being chosen a director or of holding or continuing in the office of director, nor shall any person being a director or promoter of the company enter into or be directly or indirectly interested or concerned in or participate in the profit of any contract with the company, not relating to the purchase of land necessary for the railway, or be or become a partner of any contractor with the company; and in the event of any such contract being made by or on behalf of any director or promoter, an action shall lie in any Court of competent jurisdiction against such director or promoter at the suit of any shareholder of the company or of any municipality through which any part of the railway passes, for the benefit of the funds of the company for the whole amount of profit accruing to such director or promoter from the contract so made or fulfilled. 59 V. c. 50, s. 5, first part.

Unless Managing Director.

9. The directors may, with the consent of the shareholders, employ one of their number as managing director. 59 V. c. 50, s. 5, last clause.

Remuneration of directors,

10. The directors may be paid such reasonable remuneration for their services for their year of office, as may be sanctioned by the shareholders, by resolution passed at the annual general meeting to be held for the purpose of electing the successors of such directors. 59 V. c. 50, s. 6.

Powers.

Powers of company.

11.—(1) Every such company shall, subject to any provisions contained in the charter, or in its by-laws, have authority to construct, maintain, complete, and operate (on all days except Sundays), and from time to time to remove and change as required, a double or single iron railway, with necessary side tracks and turn-outs, for the passage of cars, carriages and other vehicles adapted to the same, upon and along such of the streets in any municipality to which its charter extends, as the council of the municipality may by by-law authorize, and over and upon lands purchased or leased by the company for that purpose, and to take, transport and carry passengers upon the same, by the force or power of animals, or by such other motive power as the company thinks proper and as the municipal council authorizes, and to construct and maintain all necessary works, buildings, appliances and conveniences connected therewith.

(2) The company may also carry freight, if so authorized by a by-law of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 4 (1)(2).

Rev. Stat. c. 223

(3) Any such by-law shall be subject to the conditions and provisions of section 632 of The Municipal Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 17.

Contracts for construction and equipment.

12. The company may enter into a reasonable contract or reasonable contracts with any individual or association of individuals for the construction or equipment of the railway or any part thereof, provided that no such contract shall be of any force or validity till sanctioned by a resolution passed by the votes of shareholders, in person or by proxy, representing two-thirds in value of the whole amount paid-up on the total capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding at a general meeting of the shareholders specially called for the purpose of considering the agreement or agreements. 59 V. c. 50, s. 4.

Agreements between municipality and company as to construction, street repairs, etc.

13. The company and the council of any municipality in which a railway or part of a railway is laid may, amongst other things, enter into any agreements they think advisable, relating to the construction of the railway; the time within which the railway shall be commenced, the manner of proceeding therewith and the time of its completion; the paving macadamizing, repairing, grading and cleaning of the streets upon which the railway is laid; the construction, opening and repairing of drains and sewers; the laying, repairing or taking up of gas and water pipes in the streets; the location of the railway, and the particular streets along which the same may be laid; the pattern of rails and the gauge of the railway; the time and speed of running the cars, sleighs and other conveyances; the fares to be charged within the maximum hereinafter mentioned, and the amount of license (if any) to be paid by the company annually or otherwise. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 13.

Powers.

14.—(1) The company shall have power,

Production and use of electricity

(a) To construct, maintain and operate works for the production of electricity for the motive power of the railway and for lighting and heating the rolling stock and other property of the company;

Agreements with other companies for leasing or hiring rolling stock, etc.

(b) To enter into any agreement with any other company lawfully authorized to enter into the same, or with any person for leasing, hiring or using, any electric motors, carriages, cars, rolling stock and other movable property from such company or person, for such time and on such terms as may be agreed on; and also to enter into agreements with any railway company lawfully authorized, for the use by any contracting company of the electric motors, carriages, cars, rolling stock and other movable property of the other, for the running of the cars or carriages of the company over the track of any other railway company, with the consent of such company, on such terms as to compensation and otherwise as may be agreed on;

Agreement with electric companies.

(c) To enter into any agreement with any person or company for supplying steam or other power for the production of electricity for the purposes of the railway or with any electric light or electric railway company, or any company organized for the purpose of supplying or furnishing electric power, for the purchase, leasing or hiring of power to run their electric motors, carriages or cars, or for lighting or heating the same, or for any other purpose for which it may be required by the company to construct, carry on and operate the railway;

Confirmation of agreement by shareholders.

(d) The prices to be paid by the company under and by virtue of any such agreement as in the last two sub-sections mentioned shall be reasonable in amount, but such agreement shall not be valid unless confirmed and approved by a resolution passed by the votes of the shareholders, in person or by proxy, representing two-thirds in value of the whole amount paid-up on the total capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding, at a general meeting of shareholders specially called for the purpose of considering such agreement;

Power to acquire lands for parks, etc.

(e) To purchase, lease or acquire by voluntary donation, and to hold for any estate in the same, and to sell, lease, alienate or mortgage any lands or premises intended, and necessary or suitable, for park or pleasure grounds, not exceeding 100 acres in any one municipality; and to improve and lay out such lands as parks or places of public resort, and to make and enter into any agreement or arrangements with the municipal corporations of the municipalities wherein the same are situate, or any of them, in respect thereto; subject, however, to the power of the municipality to pass by-laws to regulate the use of such public parks and pleasure grounds; but none of the provisions of this clause shall be in force or have effect unless and until the municipal council or councils of the municipality or municipalities wherein the lands proposed to be acquired by the company are situate, has or have by by-law declared its or their assent to the company's acquiring lands under and for the purpose mentioned in this clause;

Limits of park and not to open on Sunday.

(2) The total acreage of lands acquired by the company for park purposes shall not exceed 300 acres; and no such park or pleasure grounds shall be open to the public on the Lord's day;

Restriction.

(3) The company shall not under this section have power to acquire any lands after the lapse of four years from the date of its incorporation; and nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to enable the company to carry on the general business of a land company. 59 V. c. 50, s. 3 (1-5).

Material of rails of tramways,

15. Where the company is incorporated for the purpose of constructing and working a tramway, the charter incorporating the company may, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, expressly provide that the rails of the tramway may be made and constructed either of wood wholly or partly covered with iron, or of wood only; and may also expressly provide that the company shall not have the power to take, transport or carry passengers upon or over its line of tramway. 53 V. c. 47, s. 2.

Where steam used, s. 30 of Rev. Stat. c. 207, as to fences to apply.

16. In case steam is the motive power employed, and if the railway or part of the railway is situate within a township municipality, section 30 of The Railway Act of Ontario, shall apply to the railway. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 4 (3).

Application of Rev. Stat. c. 207, s. 30.

17. The said section 30 of The Railway Act of Ontario shall, as respects any and every expropriated parcel of land, apply to every street railway constructed before the 31st day of December, 1887, and to every street railway incorporated before said date under any special Act or otherwise, except where the owners of the land and the company have heretofore made or hereafter make any agreement inconsistent with the rights given to the owners by the said section of The Railway Act of Ontario. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 4. (4).

Guard wires.

18.—(1) The company when operating any portion of its line across or along a highway by means of electricity conveyed by wires above ground shall cause to be strung and maintained guard wires sufficient to prevent telegraph, telephone or other wires now or hereafter strung across or along the highway from coming into contact with or falling upon the said wires conveying such electricity. 59 V. c. 50, s. 3 (6).

Protecting water pipes, etc., from injury by electricity.

(2) The company when operating any portion of its line by means of electricity shall use such means and appliances as may, as far as may be reasonably possible, prevent water pipes, gas pipes, cables and other things now or hereafter placed underground from being damaged in consequence of the escape or discharge of electricity into the ground. Proper bonding of the rails and connecting the rails so bonded to the electric power generator or generators with a proper and efficient system of return wires shall be taken to be a compliance with the conditions of this section.

(3) This section shall apply to all street railways whether incorporated under this Act or otherwise. 59 V. c. 50, s. 3. (7); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Right of action.

19. Any person suffering damage by reason of the non-compliance by the company with the provisions of the two preceding sections shall have a right of action against the company therefor. 59 V. c. 50, s. 3. (8).

Mode of laying rails.

20. The rails of the railway shall be laid (as nearly as practicable) flush with the streets, and the railway track shall conform to the grades of the same, and shall be laid so as to cause the least possible impediment to the ordinary traffic of the streets. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 5.

Rails to be kept flush with streets.

21. The municipal corporation shall keep, or shall require the company to keep, the rails as nearly as practicable flush with the streets, and so as to cause the least possible impediment to the ordinary traffic of the streets. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 8.

Use of tracks by other vehicles than those of the company.

22. All other ordinary vehicles may use and travel in the said tracks, provided they do not interfere with or impede the running of the cars, or other conveyances of the company; and in all cases any carriage or other vehicle on the track shall immediately, by leaving the track, give place to the cars, or other conveyances of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 6

Repair, etc., of streets by company.

23. Unless otherwise agreed upon between the company and the council of the municipality in which the railway or any part of it is laid, the company shall, at its own expense, keep clean and in proper repair, the street, between the rails, and for eighteen inches on each side of the rails; and in default the council may cause the same to be done at the expense and proper cost of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 7

Use of sleighs, etc.

24. Subject to any agreement between the company and the council, the company may substitute sleighs, or other conveyances, for the railway carriages upon the route of their railway, as occasion may require. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 11.

Municipal regulations respecting matters affecting railway.

25. The council of the municipality in which a railway or part of railway is laid may pass by-laws:

1. For facilitating the running of the company's cars, sleighs and other conveyances;

2. For regulating the traffic and conduct of all persons travelling upon the streets and highways upon which the railway is laid;

3. For exempting the property of the company from taxation for any period not exceeding ten years;

4. For renewing such exemption for a further period not exceeding ten years;

5. For exempting from taxation for a like period of ten years, the income derived by the shareholders of the company;

6. For providing for the safety and convenience of passengers, and the conduct of the agents and servants of the company; and

7. For preventing the obstructing or impeding of the ordinary traffic and for compelling vehicles on the track to give place to the cars, or other conveyances of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 12.

FARES.

Rates of fares.

26.—(1) The fares to be taken by the company shall not exceed, for each passenger five cents for any distance not exceeding three miles and shall not exceed one cent per mile for any additional distance. Children under ten years of age shall be carried for three miles for three cents, and for any additional distance at the rate of half a cent per mile: but the company may, with the consent of the council, charge double the said rates of fare between the hours of seven o'clock in the afternoon and seven o'clock in the forenoon.

(2) The rates hereinbefore limited shall apply wherever the passenger is carried only within the limits of the municipality; where he is carried from one municipality into another, or others, a fare double the said rates may be charged, unless the company and any municipality otherwise agree: provided that in no case shall a greater charge be made than at the rate of three cents per mile for adults and one and a half cents per mile for children. Children in arms shall in all cases be carried free. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 9.

Payment of fare.

27. The fare shall be due and payable by every passenger on entering the car, or other conveyance, and any person refusing to pay the fare when demanded by the conductor or driver, and refusing to quit the car, or other conveyance upon being requested so to do, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $10, besides costs; and the same shall be recoverable before any Justice of the Peace. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 10.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY.

Company not to take stock in other companies.

28. The funds of the company shall not be employed in the purchase of any stock in their own or in any other company. 59 V. c. 50, s. 10.

Sale of bonds.

29. Any of the bonds, debentures or other securities of the company sold by the directors shall be sold at the best price and upon the best terms and conditions which at the time they may be able to obtain for the purpose of raising money for prosecuting the said undertaking, but they may pledge the said bonds, debentures or other securities for the purpose of procuring the rails, fish plates and electric plant necessary for the undertaking. 59 V. c. 50, s. 11.

Limitation as to receipts of company.

30. The tolls and fares to be levied by the company shall be as nearly as possible so fixed and regulated that, after paying "working expenses," the balance of the annual receipts shall not exceed eight per cent. (or $8 on every $100) of the total amount actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding; and if in any year the gross receipts from tolls and from fares and from all other sources arising from the working, operating or carrying on of the railway and works and business authorized by the letters patent to be worked, operated or carried on by the company, shall be such that after deducting therefrom the "working expenses" there shall remain an amount exceeding eight per cent. of the total amount theretofore actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company then outstanding, then all such excess shall be placed to the credit of a special account to be called "the surplus tolls account"; provided that in no case shall the fares exceed the maximum rates prescribed by this Act. 59 V, c. 50, s. 12.

Application of surplus tolls.

31. The moneys at the credit of the "surplus tolls account" may be used from time to time in making good any deficiency, if such there be, caused by the gross receipts of the company in any subsequent year being insufficient to pay the "working expenses" and a dividend of eight per cent. (or $8 on every $100) on the total amount actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding; provided that whenever, and so often as the same shall happen, the total amount to the credit of "the surplus tolls account," including any interest accruals thereon, shall equal one fifth of the average annual gross receipts of the company, computed from the actual receipts for the then preceding five years, the company shall by by-law make a sufficient proportionate reduction in the tolls and fares, so that the probable net earnings thereafter shall be such as to make it necessary to resort to the moneys at the credit of "the surplus tolls account," in order to meet any such deficiency in whole or in part, but as soon as the amount at the credit of "the surplus tolls account" is exhausted the rates and tolls may be again raised. 59 V. c. 50, s. 13.

Charging unearned dividends upon surplus tolls account.

32. If during the ten years immediately succeeding the incorporation of the company, the gross receipts as aforesaid are in any year insufficient after paying the "working expenses" of the railway, to pay a dividend of five per cent. on the total amount actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding, the company may charge against "the surplus tolls account" an amount sufficient, after deducting any dividends earned during such year, to equal a dividend of five per cent. per annum on the total amounts so actually paid up as aforesaid on the stock of the company, and the company shall not be bound to reduce the tolls as hereinbefore provided until the amount at the credit of the "surplus tolls account" equals an amount sufficient, less any dividends earned during the year, to pay the said dividend of five per cent in every such year during the said period of ten years, in addition to one-fifth of the average annual gross receipts of the company, computed as aforesaid. 59 V. c. 50, s. 14.

Declaration of dividend.

33.—(1) At the annual general meeting of the shareholders of the undertaking, from time to time holden, a dividend shall be made, out of the clear profits of the undertaking, unless such meeting declares otherwise.

Division of profits.

(2) Such dividends shall be divisible among the shareholders in proportion to the amounts paid up in cash upon the shares held by them respectively.

Dividends, how payable.

(3) Dividends shall be payable only in cash, and no division of profits in any one year, either by way of dividends or bonus, or both combined, or in any other way, exceeding eight per cent. (or $8 on every $100) actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company, from time to time issued and outstanding, shall ever be made, declared or paid by the company.

Dividends not to impair the capital.

(4) No dividend shall be made whereby the capital of the company is in any degree reduced or impaired, or be paid thereout, nor shall any dividend be paid in respect of any share after a day appointed for payment of any call for money in respect thereof until such call has been paid.

Application of annual revenue.

(5) No part of the annual revenue of the company shall be applied to expenditure on capital account or otherwise than as by this Act prescribed, and all moneys received in payment for shares or as proceeds of mortgages, bonds, debentures or other securities sold by the company, shall be applied and expended for the purposes of the undertaking as in this Act prescribed, and not otherwise. 59 V. c. 50, s. 15.

Directors to cause annual accounts to be kept.

34. The directors shall cause to be kept, and annually, on the 31st day of December, shall cause to be made up and balanced, a true, exact, detailed and particular account of all moneys and revenues collected and received by the company, or by the directors or managers thereof, or otherwise, for the use of the company, and of the charges and expenses attending the making, equipping, completing, supporting, maintaining and carrying on of the undertaking, and of all other receipts and expenditures of the company or of the directors, and shall file a certified copy of the same with the Provincial Secretary, together with a statement showing the amount of the capital stock issued, and the amount actually received in cash for the same, and the amount, if any, still unpaid thereon, and the amount of dividends paid or declared during such year, and the amount on the last day of such year and of the preceding year at the credit of the surplus tolls account. This account shall be filed on or before the last day of January in each year. And if the same as filed is, in the opinion of the Provincial Secretary, not sufficiently full, detailed or explicit, the directors shall furnish and file such other accounts and information as to the company's gross receipts, working expenses and other expenses, and any other matters and things generally relating to the receipts, expenditures and capital of the company as may from time to time be demanded by the Provincial Secretary, and within a reasonable time after any such demand; and if any default is made in the filing of the said annual account or said further account the company shall, besides being compellable to file the same, be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be enforced in the High Court of Justice at the suit of any municipality through which the railway passes, and one-half of which said penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other half to the said municipality. 59 V. c. 50, s. 16.

Lien for wages

35. Every mechanic, labourer or other person who performs labour for wages upon the construction or maintenance of the railway or the works connected therewith, shall have upon the said railway and other property of the company a lien for such wages not exceeding the wages of thirty days, or a balance equal to his wages for thirty days, and the said lien may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcing liens for wages by The Mechanics' and Wage Earners' Lien Act. Rev. Stat. c. 153. 59 V. c. 50, s. 19.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Powers of High Court as to controlling companies

36. If the company fails or neglects to keep, observe, perform or comply with any of the provisions of this Act, in relieving against agreement.

the observance or enforcement of which any shareholder or the residents of the municipality are interested, then, in addition to all other remedies by law enforceable against the company, the council of any municipality through which any part of the railway passes may, in the name of the municipal corporation, bring an action in the High Court of Justice against the company, and all other necessary parties, to compel the keeping, observing, performing of, and complying with such provisions; and the Court shall have full power and jurisdiction in the premises, and to set aside or otherwise relieve against unreasonable agreements made in violation of all or any of the provisions of this Act, and to enforce, by injunction or otherwise, the due observance, performance and fulfilment by the company and its officers and other persons of all provisions of this Act, in the observance or enforcement of which any shareholder or the residents of the municipality are interested, and in particular those relating to tolls and fares, to capital, to directors, to dividends, to returns, and to the agreements mentioned in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of subsection 1 of section 14 of this Act. 59 V. c. 50, s. 20.

Forfeiture by non-user.

37. In case the company at any time ceases to regularly use the whole or any part of their railway for a period of six months, they shall forfeit the right to use the railway or the part unused, as the case may be, together with the rails thereon, which shall become the property of the municipal corporation within whose territory the railway or such part is situated, and the company shall, in addition, indemnify the municipality in respect of all costs incurred in taking up the rails and putting the streets in proper repair; but this section is subject to any agreement between the company and corporation in respect of the said matters. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 14.

Provisions for use by one company of railway of another company and the compensation therefor.

38.—(1) Where there are more companies than one in any municipality and the council of the municipality is of opinion that it is in the public interest that any company should have the right to use a portion of the railway of another company, and if—after notice to the proprietor company, so that it may be heard in opposition—the council passes a resolution declaring such opinion, the said company shall have such right, and shall pay therefor such annual sum, or such proportion of the cost of maintenance as may be agreed upon between the companies, or, in case they cannot agree, as may be awarded by the majority of three arbitrators, one to be named by each of the companies and the other by the two so named; but no company shall have the right to use the track of any other company for a greater distance, on any one street, than two hundred yards, without the consent of the proprietor company.

(2) If for seven days after having received notice in writing of the appointment of an arbitrator, the company notified omits to appoint an arbitrator, or, if for seven days after the second arbitrator has been appointed the two arbitrators omit to appoint a third arbitrator, the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the municipality is situated may appoint an arbitrator for the party in default, or a third arbitrator, as the case may require. The arbitrators shall have authority to determine by whom, or in what proportion, the costs of the arbitration, reference and award shall be paid.

(3) In case the company using such right is in default in respect of any payment under the agreement or award, the said company shall have no right to run over the said portion of road so long as the default continues: provided that in case there is a dispute as to the amount actually owing, the company enjoying the right of user may apply to the Judge of the County Court for an order that it should continue to have such right; which order the Judge may make, upon such terms and conditions as to security and otherwise as he deems just; and the Judge may rescind, or from time to time vary, such order, as occasion may require.

(4) If the part used is partly in each of two or more counties, the application shall be made to the Judge of the county in which the greater portion of the part used is situate, or to the Judge for the time being acting for him in the county.

(5) From time to time, after an agreement or award has been in force for five years, either company may give notice of its desire to terminate the arrangement, and thereupon the companies shall settle anew, by agreement, or by arbitration under this Act, the amount or proportion to be paid, and upon a new agreement being entered into, or a new award made, the former arrangement shall cease. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 15 (1-5).

(6) A street railway company may, with the consent, by by-law, of the local municipal council, and subject to any terms in the by-law set out, cross the line of any street railway company; but shall pay the expenses of altering the rails so as to permit thereof.

Crossing other street railway lines.

Provided that the line of railway of any street railway company incorporated before the first day of February, 1883, may be crossed by the line of railway of any other street railway company if authority therefor is given by the order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; and such order in Council may fix and determine the terms and conditions upon which such first mentioned line of railway may be so crossed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 15 (6); 54 V. c. 40, s. 1.

(7) In case a street railway company desires to cross the line of a railway company, within the legislative authority of this Province, not being a street railway company, and such company objects, the street railway company shall first obtain the sanction of the Commissioner of Public Works to the proposed crossing, and the mode of construction thereof. The Commissioner shall, before giving his sanction, give to the objecting company an opportunity to be heard, and may impose such terms as to cost of maintenance, and as to other matters in connection therewith, as he deems proper. The street railway company shall pay the expense of altering the rails of the line intended to be crossed, so as to permit of such crossing. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 15 (7).

Expropriation of land, when and to what extent allowed.

39.—(1) In case the council of a municipality, by resolution, declares that the council is of opinion that a company incorporated with power to construct a railway in the municipality should have powers of expropriation for the purpose of building a part of its railway between two or more points, set forth in the resolution, and situated within the municipality, and if the Judge of the County Court of the county certifies that in his opinion the building of the proposed railway between the said points will be of considerable public advantage or convenience,—the company, upon registering the resolution and certificate in the proper registry office, shall, in respect of lands lying between the points named, possess the powers conferred upon railway companies under sections 11 to 20 inclusive of The Railway Act of Ontario.

Rev. Stat. c. 207, ss. 11-20.

(2) Such powers shall be exercised within two years from the passing of the resolution, and not afterwards, and the lands to be taken hereunder shall not exceed one chain in width.

(3) The arbitrators, besides awarding to the owner the amount which they find to be the value of the land, shall award ten per centum of the amount so found in addition, and they shall in their award state what they find to be the value of the land, as well as the total amount to be paid to compensate the owners or for damages.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the tract of country extending three miles above and three miles below the Falls of Niagara, and for a width inland of one mile from the said River Niagara. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 16.

Rev. Stat. c. 223, s. 632, to apply to certain resolutions.

40. The resolutions mentioned in sections 38 and 39, shall be subject to the conditions and provisions of section 632 of The Municipal Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 17.

Time for which municipality may grant privileges.

41.—(1) No municipal council shall grant to a street railway company any privilege under this Act for a longer period than twenty years, but at the expiration of twenty years from the time of passing the first by-law which is acted upon, conferring the right of laying rails upon any street, or at such other earlier date as may be fixed by agreement, the municipal corporation may, after giving six months' notice prior to the expiration of the period limited, assume the ownership of the railway, and all real and personal property in connection with the working thereof, on payment of the value thereof, to be determined by arbitration. Municipality may assume the ownership

(2) In case the corporation fails to exercise the right of assuming the ownership of the railway, at the expiration of the said period, the corporation may exercise such right at the expiration of any fifth year thereafter, upon giving one year's notice to the company, and the privileges of the company shall continue until the ownership is assumed by the municipal council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 18.

Mode in which right to purchase to be exercised as between different municipalities interested.

42. If the company's line or lines is or are situated in two or more municipalities, the municipality in which the greater mileage of the company's line or lines is or are situate shall have the right to exercise the power of purchase herein conferred, unless the municipal councils agree otherwise between themselves; and the corporation purchasing shall thereafter possess all the powers and authority theretofore enjoyed by the company, and shall, as to other municipalities into which the line runs, be subject to the like liabilities; provided that where the municipalities are not all of the same character, they shall, independently of the length of mileage, exercise the right of purchase in the following order of preference, namely: first, a city; second, a town; third, a village; fourth, a township. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 19.

Municipality dissatisfied with terms as to railway in certain cases, may require arbitration.

Rev. Stat. c. 223.

43. —(1) The council of a municipality in which a railway runs may, at any time after the ownership of the railway accrues to such municipality, or to any other municipality, require that the terms upon which the railway shall be operated in such municipality be determined by arbitration under The Municipal Act, and the terms, unless the parties in the meantime agree, shall be settled accordingly, and such arrangement shall remain in force for ten years.

(2) At the end of that period either party may require that the terms be settled anew in like manner for another period of ten years; but such settlement or agreement shall be without prejudice to the right hereinbefore conferred upon a municipality to assume the ownership of the railway at the expiration of any fifth year. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 20.

Application of preceding section.

44. A company to which any lines of railway have been transferred by a municipal corporation, shall, as respects the provisions of the next preceding section, stand in the same position as the municipal corporation from which it received such transfer. R. O. S. 1887, c. 171, s. 21.

Municipality acquiring railway may transfer same to a company.

45. The municipal corporation purchasing may, at any time, transfer its rights to its railway lines or any of them, and the whole or any part of the plant of the railway to any railway company authorized to operate a railway; subject, however, to the provisions of section 41 as to such railway and plant being assumed by a municipal corporation, entitled under that section, at the expiration of twenty years, or of such shorter period as may be agreed upon. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 22.

Application of Act.

46. (1) Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to or affect any street railway company existing or incorporated before the 1st day of February, 1883, except only sections 17 and 18. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 24.

(2) Sections 4 to 10, 12, 14 and 28 to 36 inclusive of this Act shall apply only to companies incorporated on or after the 7th day of April, 1896, under the authority of the Revised Statutes 1887, chapter 171 or of this Act. 59 V. c. 50, s. 1; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Rev. Stat., c. 191, not to apply where inconsistent with this Act.

47. Any of the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, shall not apply to any company incorporated hereunder. 59 V. c. 50, s. 21.

Rev. Stat. c. 207, to apply only so far as expressly mentioned.

48. No other parts of The Railway Act of Ontario, except those expressly hereinbefore mentioned, shall apply to a company, person or firm owning or operating a street railway under this Act.. R. S. O. 1887, c. 171, s. 25.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Electric Railway Act." Short title. 58 V. c. 38, s. 1.

INTERPRETATION.

2. Where the words following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:— Interpretation of words.

"The special Act."

1 "The special Act" shall be construed to mean any Act authorizing the construction of an electric or other railway, and with which this Act wholly or in part is incorporated by the provisions of this Act or by the express terms of such special Act.

"Prescribed."

2 "Prescribed," used in this Act in reference to any matter herein stated, shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same is prescribed or provided for in the special Act; and the sentence in which such word occurs shall be construed as if, instead of the word "prescribed," the expression "prescribed for that purpose in the special Act" had been used;

"The lands.

3 "The Lands" shall mean the lands which by the special Act are authorized to be taken or used for the purpose thereof;

"The undertaking.

4 "The undertaking" shall mean the railway and works, of whatever description, by the special Act authorized to be executed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 2.

Interpretation of words in this Act and in special Acts.

3. Where the following words occur, both in this and the special Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:—

"Lands.

1 "Lands" shall include all real estate, messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments of any tenure;

"Lease.

2 "Lease" shall include any agreement for a lease;

"Toll.

3 "Toll" shall include any rate or charge or other payment payable under this Act or the special Act, for any passenger, animal, carriage, goods, merchandise, articles, matters or things conveyed on the railway;

"Goods.

4 "Goods" shall include things of every kind conveyed upon the railway, or upon steam or other vessels connected therewith.

"County.

5 "County" shall include any union of counties, and any district;

"County Court Judge."

6 "County Court Judge" shall include a Judge of a District Court;

"Highways.

7 "Highways" shall mean all public roads, streets, lanes and other public ways and communications;

'Sheriff.

8 "Sheriff" shall include under-sheriff, or other legally competent deputy; and where any matter in relation to any lands is required to be done by any sheriff or clerk of the "Clerk of the Peace.

peace, the expression "the sheriff," or the expression "clerk of the peace," shall in such case be construed to mean the sheriff or clerk of the peace of the district, county, riding, division or place where such lands are situate; and if the lands in question, being the property of one and the same party, are situate not wholly in one district, county, riding, division, or place, the same expression shall be construed to mean the sheriff or clerk of the peace of any such district, county, riding, division or place where any part of such lands are situate;

"Justice." 9 "Justice" shall mean Justice of the Peace acting for the district, county, riding, division, city or place where the matter requiring the cognizance of a Justice arises, and who is not interested in the matter; and where the matter arises in respect of lands being the property of the same person, situate not wholly in any one district, county, riding, division, city or place, the word "Justice" shall mean a Justice acting for the district, county, riding, division, city or place where any part of such lands is situate, and who is not interested in such matter;

"Owner." 10 "Owner," (where, under the provisions of this Act or the special Act, any notice is required to be given to the owner of any lands, or where any act is authorized or required to be done with the consent of any such owner) shall be understood to mean any corporation or person who, under the provisions of this Act, or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, would be enabled to sell and convey lands to the company;

"The company." 11 "The company" shall mean the company or person authorized by the special Act to construct the railway;

"The railway." 12 "The railway" shall mean the railway and works by the special Act authorized to be constructed;

"Shareholder." 13 "Shareholder" shall mean every subscriber to or holder of stock in the undertaking, and shall extend to and include the personal representatives of the shareholder.

"Working expenses." 14 The expression "working expenses" shall mean and comprise all expenses of maintenance of the railway, and of the buildings, works and conveniences belonging thereto, and of the rolling and other stock and movable plant used in the working thereof, and all reasonable and necessary renewals of the same, and also all reasonable rents for property, or for hire of power or rolling stock, also all usual expenses of or incidental to the working the railway and the traffic thereon, including stores and consumable articles; also rates, taxes, insurance and compensation for accident or losses, also all proper salaries and wages and office and management expenses, directors' fees and legal and other like expenses; also all moneys owing by the company for any of the above items of expenses; also interest on mortgages or debenture indebtedness; also a sum not exceeding five per cent. per annum of the total mortgage or debenture indebtedness of the company to be placed to the credit of a special account as a sinking fund for the purpose of extinguishing such indebtedness.

"First issue of stock." 15 The "first issue of stock" shall mean all stock subscribed for and allotted prior to the first meeting of shareholders of the company for organization and election of directors, and upon which at least ten per cent. has been paid in. 58 V. c. 38, s. 3.

APPLICATION OF ACT.

Application of Act to electric railways hereafter incorporated.

4.—(1) This Act shall apply, unless otherwise expressed in the special Act, to every electric railway subject to the legislative authority of this Province, authorized to be constructed by any special Act, passed at or after the Session of the Legislature held in the year 1895, and shall also apply to every railway to which this Act is expressly made applicable by any special Act, and this Act shall be incorporated with every such special Act; and all the clauses and provisions of this Act, except in so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by such special Act, shall apply to the undertaking authorized thereby, so far as applicable to the undertaking, and shall, as well as the clauses and provisions of every other Act expressly incorporated with such special Act, form part of such special Act and be construed together therewith as forming one Act.

Electric railways incorporated in or after 1895.

Rev. Stat. c. 208.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in The Street Railway Act or in any other Act of the Legislature of Ontario, the railway of every company incorporated at or after the said Session of the Legislature, held in the year 1895, for the purpose of constructing and operating a railway to be operated by electricity, shall be so constructed and operated under the provisions of this Act, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to every such company and to the railway or railways constructed by it.

Railway which may be operated by steam or electricity.

(3) The railway of every company incorporated at or after the said Session of the Legislature for the purpose of constructing and operating a railway with power to operate the same by steam or electricity, or partly by steam and partly by electricity, shall be so constructed and operated under the provisions of this Act, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to every such company and to the railway or railways to be constructed by it.

(4) Wherever any railway company is by any special Act passed at or after the said Session of the Legislature, authorized to extend its railway and to operate such extension by electricity, the provisions of this Act shall, so far as the same are applicable, apply and extend to the construction and operation of every such extension. 58 V. c. 38, s. 4 (1-4).

Rev. Stat. c. 208.

(5) Any company incorporated after the 16th day of April, 1895, under the provisions of The Street Railway Act, which extends its line of railway beyond a distance of one and a half miles from any city, town or incorporated village from which the same runs shall come within the provisions of this Act, provided the railway is intended to be operated by electricity. 58 V. c. 38, s. 4 (5); 60 V. c. 14, s. 94.

Proviso.

(6) This Act shall not apply to or include an electric railway wholly constructed and operated within the limits of any city, town or incorporated village nor to any extension of such railway beyond such limits for a distance not exceeding one and one-half miles. 58 V. c. 38, s. 4 (6); 60 V. c. 14, s. 94.

Rev. Stat. cc. 207, 208 not to apply unless named in special Act.

(7) No part of The Railway Act of Ontario, or The Street Railway Act shall apply to any electric railway company or other railway company, to which this Act wholly or in part applies, except in so far as they are expressly made applicable by the special Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 4 (7).

What shall be sufficient to incorporate this Act with special Acts.

5. The special Act shall be a public Act, and for the purpose of expressly incorporating this Act or any of its provisions with a special Act, it shall be sufficient in such Act to enact, that the clauses of this Act, with respect to the matter so proposed to be incorporated, referring to the same in the word or words at the head of and introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, shall be incorporated with the special Act, and thereupon all the clauses and provisions of this Act, with respect to the matter so incorporated, shall, save in so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by the special Act, form part thereof, and the special Act shall be construed as if the substance of such clauses and provisions were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which the special Act relates. 58 V. c. 38, s. 5.

Power to construct railway, etc., to be exercised subject to provisions of this Act.

6. The power given by the special Act to construct the railway, and to take and use lands for that purpose, shall be exercised subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 6.

Compensation to be made for lands damaged.

7.—(1) For the value of lands taken, and for all damages to lands injuriously affected by the construction of the railway, in the exercise of the powers by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, vested in the company, compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of, and to all other persons interested in, any lands so taken or injuriously affected.

How compensation to be determined.

(2) Unless otherwise specially provided by this Act or the special Act, the amount of such compensation shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided by this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s 7.

INCORPORATION.

Companies established under special Acts, etc., and to be bodies corporate, etc.

Rev. Stat. c. 1, s. 29.

8. Every company established under a special Act shall be a body corporate under the name declared in the special Act, and shall be invested with all such powers, privileges and immunities as are necessary to carry into effect the intentions and objects of this Act and of the special Act therefor, and are incident to such corporations, or are expressed or included in The Interpretation Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 8.

The rights conferred upon the company shall not be exercised within the limits of the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park or any land vested in the commissioners thereof without the consent of the commissioners and the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council;

All other matters and things necessary for railway.

(i) To construct, erect and make all other matters and things necessary and convenient for the making, extending and using of the railway, in pursuance of and according to the meaning and intent of this Act, and of the special Act;

Convey persons and goods on railway.

(j) To take, transport, carry and convey persons and goods on the railway, and to regulate the time and manner in which the same shall be transported;

Power to acquire lands for parks, etc.

(k) To purchase, lease or acquire by voluntary donation, and to hold for any estate in the same, and to sell, lease, alienate or mortgage any lands or premises intended, and necessary, or suitable for park or pleasure grounds, not exceeding 100 acres in any one municipality; and to improve and lay out such lands as parks or places of public resort, and to make and enter into any agreement or arrangements with the municipal corporations of the municipalities wherein the same are situate, or any of them, in respect thereto; subject, however, to the power of the municipality to pass by-laws to regulate the use of such public parks and pleasure grounds; but none of the provisions of this clause shall be in force or have effect unless and until the municipal council or councils of the municipality or municipalities wherein the lands proposed to be acquired by the company are situate, has or have by by-law declared its or their assent to the company's acquiring lands under and for the purpose mentioned in this clause.

Limits of Park and restrictions in its use on Sunday.

(2) The total acreage of lands acquired by the company for park purposes shall not exceed 300 acres; and no such park or pleasure grounds shall be open to the public on the Lord's Day to be used for games, picnics, concerts, excursions or other public entertainments.

Restriction.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to enable the company to carry on the general business of a land company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 9.

Rev. Stat. c. 223, s. 632.

(4) The by-laws mentioned in clauses (c) and (h) of subsection 1 shall be subject to the conditions and provisions of section 632 of The Municipal Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 19, part.

Power to purchase whole lots.

10. Whenever the company in procuring sufficient lands, for stations or gravel pits, or for constructing, maintaining and using the railway, can purchase the whole of any lot or parcel of land at a more reasonable price, or to greater advantage than it can purchase the part actually required for the purposes of the railway, the company may purchase, hold, use and enjoy the whole of such lot or parcel, and also the right of way thereto, if the same be separated from its railway, and may sell and convey the same or any part thereof from time to time as it may deem expedient 58 V. c. 38, s. 10.

Acquiring material for construction.

11.—(1) When stone, gravel, earth or sand is required for the construction or maintenance of the railway or any part thereof the company may, in case they cannot agree with the owner of the lands on which the same is situated for the purchase thereof, cause an Ontario land surveyor to make a map and description of the property so required.

Transmission of plan and application.

(2) The company may transmit such plan and description to the Commissioner of Public Works with an application, on behalf of the company, supported by affidavit, referring to such plan and stating that certain land shown thereon is necessary for such purposes, and that no other land suitable for such purposes can be acquired at such place on reasonable terms and with less injury to private rights, and stating either that the company desires to acquire the fee simple in the said land from which said materials are proposed to be taken, or the right to take materials therefrom for the time mentioned therein and requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to authorize the taking thereof for such purposes under this Act.

Notice to owner, etc.

(3) At least ten days' notice of such application shall be given to the owner or possessor of such property; and the correctness of the plan and the truth of the allegations in such application shall be certified by the president or one of the directors of the company, and by its engineer, and such plan and statement shall be made and transmitted to the Commissioner of Public Works in duplicate.

Certificate of Minister required.

(4) The Commissioner of Public Works shall inquire into the correctness of the plan and the truth of the allegations of such application, and, if he is satisfied thereof, shall grant a certificate to that effect, and declaring it to be necessary in the public interest that the land shown on such plan or any less quantity or the right to take materials therefrom as the case may be, should be acquired by the company; and such certificate shall be annexed to one of the duplicates of the said plan and statement, and the other duplicate shall remain in the department.

Effect of certificate.

(5) Upon the granting of such certificate, and by virtue thereof, the company may acquire without the consent of the owners, the land shown on the said plan or the right to take materials therefrom as the case may be, as required for such purposes; and the company and all persons who could not otherwise convey the same to the company, shall have, with respect to any such land or right all the powers granted in such case by this Act to companies and persons who could not otherwise convey the same, with respect to lands which may be taken without the consent of the owners thereof; and all the provisions of law at any time applicable to the compulsory taking of land by the company and its valuation and the compensation therefor shall apply and are hereby extended to the land or right mentioned in the said certificate of the Commissioner of Public Works.

Powers of the company in such cases.

Application of sub-s. 10 of s. 35 limited.

(6) When estimating the damages for the taking of gravel, stone, earth or sand, sub-section 10 of section 35 of this Act shall not apply. 58 V. c. 38 s. 11.

Siding to gravel pits.

12.—(1) When the said gravel, earth, stone or sand in the preceding section mentioned is situate at a distance from the line of railway and the company cannot agree with the owners of the intervening lands for a siding or right of way from the railway to the said lands, then the company may obtain power to acquire compulsorily such siding or right of way

... like proceedings and upon similar terms to those mentioned in the preceding section of this Act.

(2) Such sidings and tracks shall not be used by the company or by others, nor shall the company suffer or permit the use of such sidings or tracks for transportation purposes or for any other purpose than that of constructing and maintaining the said railway. 58 V. c. 38, s. 12.

Agreements with other companies for leasing or hiring rolling stock.

13. The company shall have power to enter into any agreement with any other company, lawfully authorized to enter into the same, or with any person, for leasing, hiring, or using any electric motors, carriages, cars, rolling stock, and other movable property from such company or person for such time and on such terms as may be agreed on; and also to enter into agreements with any railway company lawfully authorized, for the use by any contracting company of the electric motors, carriages, cars, rolling stock and other movable property of the other, for the running of the cars or carriages of the company over the track of any other railway company with the consent of such company on such terms as to compensation and otherwise as may be agreed on. 58 V. c. 38, s. 13.

Agreement with electric companies.

14. The company shall have power to enter into any agreement with any person or company for supplying steam or other power for the production of electricity for the purposes of the railway or with any electric light or electric railway company, or any company organized for the purpose of supplying or furnishing electric power for the purchase, leasing, hiring or power to run their electric motors, carriages or cars ... lighting or heating the same, or for any other purpose ... which it may be required by the company to construct, carry on and operate the railway. 58 V. c. 38, s. 14.

Confirmation of agreement by shareholders.

15. The prices to be paid by the company under ... by virtue of any such agreement as in the last two sections ... shall be reasonable in amount, but such agreement shall not be valid unless confirmed and approved by a resolution passed by the votes of shareholders in person or by proxy representing two-thirds in value of the whole amount paid up on the total capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding, at a general meeting of shareholders specially called for the purpose of considering such agreement. 58 V. c. 38, s. 15.

Telegraph and telephone lines.

R.S.C. 1906, c. 126.

16. The company may also construct an electric telegraph line and a telephone line in connection with the railway, and for the purpose of constructing, working and protecting the said telegraph and telephone lines, have the power conferred upon telegraph companies by The Act respecting Telegraph Companies, being chapter 192 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, is hereby conferred upon the company; provided that no poles shall be erected in the construction of either of the said lines in or through any city, town or incorporated village, without the consent of the council of such city, town or village being first obtained by the company; provided also, that such telegraph and telephone lines shall be used exclusively for the purposes of the business of the company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 16. Proviso.

17. The company may enter into a contract or contracts with any individual or association of individuals for the construction or equipment of the railway or any part thereof, including or excluding the purchase of right of way; but no such contract shall be of any force or validity till sanctioned by a resolution passed by the votes of shareholders (in person or by proxy) representing two-thirds in value of the whole amount paid up on the total capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding, at a general meeting of shareholders specially called for the purpose of considering the agreement or agreements. 58 V. c. 38, s. 17. Contracts for construction and equipment.

18.—(1) In case the council of a municipality by resolution declares that the council is of opinion that a company incorporated with power to construct an electric railway in the municipality should have powers of expropriation for the purpose of building a part of its railway between two or more points set forth in the resolution, and situated within the municipality, and if the Judge of the County Court of the county certifies that in his opinion the building of the proposed electric railway between the said points will be of considerable public advantage or convenience, the company, upon registering the resolution and certificate in the proper registry office, shall, in respect of lands lying between the points named and described in the said resolution and certificate, possess powers of expropriation to be exercised subject to the provisions of this Act. Permission from municipal councils to expropriate lands.

In case the council refuses or neglects to pass such resolution, the Commissioner of Public Works, if the Judge of the County Court certifies as aforesaid, may by his order confer upon the company the powers of expropriation within the particular municipality; but the council shall be entitled to at least one week's notice of the hearing of the application by the Commissioner.

(2) Such powers shall be exercised within the time limited for the completion of the railway and within two years from the passing of the resolution, and not afterwards.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the tract of country extending three miles above and three miles below the Falls of Niagara and for a width inland of one mile from any part or point of the said River Niagara.

(4) Except as provided by sections 11 and 12 of this Act the company shall possess no power of expropriation except under and in pursuance of the provisions of this section, and any such power when obtained by it hereunder shall be exercised in the manner and subject to the conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions contained in this section or in the other sections of this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 18.

Application of Rev. Stat. c. 223.

19. The resolution mentioned in section 18, shall be subject to the conditions and provisions of section 632 of The Municipal Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 19, part.

BORROWING POWERS.

Power to issue bonds, debentures, and other securities and to raise money thereon.

20. (1) The directors of the company, under the authority of the shareholders to them given at any special general meeting called for the purpose at which meeting shareholders representing at least two-thirds in value of the subscribed stock of the company, and who have paid all calls due thereon, are present in person or represented by proxy, may, subject to the provisions in this Act and the special Act contained, issue bonds, debentures or other securities signed by the president or other presiding officer and countersigned by the secretary, which counter signature and the signature of the coupons attached to the same may be engraved; and such bonds, debentures or other securities may be made payable at such times and in such manner, and at such place or places in Canada or elsewhere, and may bear such rate of interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum as the directors may think proper; but the whole amount of the issue of such bonds, debentures or other securities shall not exceed $10,000 for each mile of the railway.

(2) The directors shall issue and sell or pledge all or any of the said bonds, debentures or other securities at the best price and upon the best terms and conditions which at the time they may be able to obtain for the purpose of raising money for prosecuting the said undertaking, or they may pledge the said bonds, debentures or other securities for the purpose of procuring the rails, fish plates and electric plant necessary for the undertaking.

(3) No such bond, debenture or other security shall be for a less sum than one hundred dollars.

(4) The power of issuing bonds conferred upon the company hereby or under the special Act shall not be construed as being exhausted by such issue; but such power may be exercised from time to time, upon the bonds constituting such issue being withdrawn or paid off and duly cancelled; but no bonds or debentures shall be issued until twenty per centum of the authorized capital has been actually expended on the work.

(5) Such bonds shall be issued only in proportion to the length of railway constructed or under contract to be constructed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 20.

21.—(1) The company may secure such bonds, debentures or other securities by a mortgage deed creating such mortgages, charges and incumbrances upon the whole of such property assets, rents and revenues of the company, present or future or both, as are described in the said deed; but such rents and revenues shall be subject in the first instance to the payment of any penalty imposed for non-compliance with the requirements of this Act respecting returns to be made under this Act, and next to the payment of the working expenses of the railway as in this Act defined other than the sinking fund and the interest on mortgage or debenture indebtedness. Mortgages securing bonds, etc.

(2) By the said deed the company may grant to the holders of such bonds, debentures or other securities, or the trustees named in such deed, all and every the powers, rights and remedies granted by this Act in respect of the said bonds, debentures or other securities, and all other powers, rights and remedies not inconsistent with this Act, or may restrict the said holders in the exercise of any power, privilege or remedy granted by this Act, as the case may be; and all the powers, rights and remedies so provided for in such mortgage deed shall be valid and binding and available to the said holders in manner and form as therein provided.

(3) Every such mortgage deed shall be deposited in the office of the Provincial Secretary, of which deposit notice shall be given by the company in the Ontario Gazette. 58 V. c. 38, s. 21.

22.—(1) The bonds, debentures or other securities hereby authorized to be issued shall be taken and considered to be the first preferential claim and charge upon the company and the franchise, undertaking, tolls and income, rents and revenues, and real and personal property thereof at any time acquired, save and except as provided for in the next preceding section: Bonds, etc., how ranked.

(2) Each holder of the said bonds, debentures or other securities shall be deemed to be a mortgagee or incumbrancer upon the said securities pro rata with all the other holders, and no proceedings authorized by law or by this Act shall be taken to enforce payment of the said bonds, debentures or other securities or of the interest thereon except through the trustee or trustees appointed by or under such mortgage deed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 22.

23.—(1) If the company makes default in paying the principal of or interest on any of the bonds, debentures or other securities hereby authorized at the time when the same by the terms of the bond, debenture or other security becomes due and payable, then at the next annual general meeting of the company and at all subsequent meetings all holders of bonds, debentures or other securities so being and remaining in default shall, in respect thereof, have and possess the same rights and privileges and qualifications for being elected Rights of holders of bonds, etc., upon default in payment.

directors and for voting at general meetings as would attach to them as shareholders if they held fully paid up shares of the company to a corresponding amount.

(2) The rights given by this section shall not be exercised by any such holder unless the bond, debenture or other security in respect of which he claims to exercise such rights has been registered in his name in the same manner as the shares of the company are registered, at least ten days before he attempts to exercise the right of voting thereon; and the company shall be bound on demand to register such bonds, debentures or other securities, and thereafter any transfers thereof, in the same manner as shares or transfer of shares.

(3) The exercise of the rights given by this section shall not take away, limit or restrain any other of the rights or remedies to which the holders of the said bonds, debentures or other securities are entitled under the provisions of such mortgage deed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 23,

Bonds, etc., mode of transfer of.

24. All bonds, debentures or other securities hereby authorized may be made payable to bearer, and shall in that case be transferable by delivery until registration thereof as hereinbefore provided, and while so registered they shall be transferable by written transfers registered in the same manner as in the case of the transfer of shares. 58 V. c. 38, s. 24.

Registration of instruments elsewhere than in office of Provincial Secretary not required.

25. It shall not be necessary in order to preserve the priority, lien, charge, mortgage or privilege purporting to appertain to or to be created by any bond, debenture or other security issued or mortgage deed executed under the authority of this Act that such bond or deed be registered in any manner or in any place whatsoever except at the office of the Provincial Secretary as aforesaid. 58 V. c. 38, s. 25.

Negotiable instruments.

26. The company may become parties to promissory notes and bills of exchange for sums not less than $100, and any such promissory note or bill of exchange made, drawn, accepted or indorsed by the president or vice-president of the company, and countersigned by the secretary of the company or other officer authorized by the by-laws of the company shall be binding on the company; and every such promissory note or bill of exchange so made, drawn, accepted or indorsed shall be presumed to have been made, drawn, accepted or indorsed with proper authority, until the contrary be shown, and in no case shall it be necessary to have the seal of the company affixed to such promissory note or bill of exchange; nor shall the president, vice-president or the secretary or other officer so authorized be individually responsible for the same, unless the said promissory notes or bills of exchange have been issued without proper authority; but nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the company to issue any promissory note or bill of exchange payable to bearer, or intended to be circulated as money or as the notes or bills of a bank. 58 V. c. 38, s. 26.

PLANS AND SURVEYS.

27. When the company has power and desires to expropriate lands, plans and surveys shall be made and corrected as follows:— Provision respecting surveys and levels.

1. Surveys shall be taken and made of the lands intended to be expropriated through which the railway is to pass, together with a map or plan of the said lands and of its course and direction through the same, and also a statement showing:— Book of reference.

(a) A general description of the said lands;

(b) The names of the owners and occupiers thereof, so far as they can be ascertained; and

(c) Everything necessary for the right understanding of such map or plan.

2. The map or plan and statement shall be examined and certified by the Commissioner of Crown Lands or his deputies, who shall deposit copies thereof in the offices of the Clerks of the Peace in the districts or counties in which the said lands are situate, and also in the office of the Provincial Secretary, and shall also deliver one copy thereof to the said company; By whom certified.

3. Any person may resort to such copies, and make extracts or copies thereof, as occasion requires, paying to the Provincial Secretary, or to the Clerks of the Peace, at the rate of ten cents for every hundred words so extracted or copied. Copies.

4. The triplicates of such map or plan and statement so certified, or a true copy thereof certified by the Provincial Secretary, or by the clerks of the peace, shall be good evidence in any court of law and elsewhere. Evidence.

5. Any omission, misstatement or erroneous description of such lands or of the owners or occupiers thereof, in a map or plan or statement, may, after giving ten days' notice to the owners of such lands, be corrected by two Justices on application made to them for that purpose, and if it appears to them that such omission, misstatement or erroneous description arose from mistake, the Justices shall certify the same accordingly. Omissions how remedied.

6. The certificate shall state the particulars of such omission, and the manner thereof, and shall be deposited with the Clerks of the Peace of the districts or counties respectively in which such lands are situate, and be kept by them along with the other documents to which they relate; and thereupon, such map or plan or statement shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate; and the company may make the railway in accordance with the certificate. Contents of certificate.

Railway not to be proceeded with until map, etc., deposited.

7. Until such original or corrected map or plan and statement have been so deposited, the execution of the part of the railway, affected thereby, shall not be proceeded with.

Clerks of the peace to receive copies of original plan, etc.

8. The Clerks of the Peace shall receive and retain the copies of the original and corrected plans and surveys, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect any of the documents aforesaid, and to make copies and extracts of and from the same, under penalty for default of four dollars.

Copies certified by clerk to be good evidence in courts.

9. The copies of the maps, plans and statement, or of any alteration or correction thereof, or extracts therefrom, certified by the Clerk of the Peace, shall be received in all courts of justice or elsewhere as good evidence of the contents thereof, and the Clerk of the Peace shall give such certificate to all parties interested when required. 58 V. c. 38, s. 27.

LANDS AND THEIR VALUATION.

Extent of lands to be taken without consent of proprietor.

28. The lands which may be taken without the consent of the proprietor thereof shall not exceed one chain in breadth. 58 V. c. 38, s. 28.

Corporation, etc., may convey lands.

29.—(1) All corporations and persons whatsoever, tenants in tail or for life, guardians, executors, administrators, and all other trustees whatsoever, not only for and on behalf of themselves, their heirs and successors, but also for and on behalf of those whom they represent, whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, femes covert, or other persons, seised, possessed of or interested in any lands, may contract for, sell and convey unto the company all or any part thereof.

Limitation of powers in certain cases.

(2) But the powers by the preceding sub-section conferred upon rectors in possession of glebe lands, ecclesiastical and other corporations, trustees of land for church and school purposes or either, executors appointed by wills in which they are not invested with any power over the real estate of the testator, administrators of persons dying intestate, but at their death seised of real estate, shall only extend and be exercised with respect to any of such lands actually required for the use and occupation of any railway company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 29.

Effect of sale under preceding section.

30. Any contract, agreement, sale, conveyance and assurance made under the preceding section shall be valid and effectual in law to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and shall vest in the company receiving the same, the fee simple in the lands in such deed described, freed and discharged from all trusts, restrictions and limitations whatsoever, and the corporation or person so conveying, is hereby indemnified for what it or he respectively does by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 30.

31. The company shall not be responsible for the disposition of any purchase money for lands taken by it for its purposes, if paid to the owner of the land or into court for his benefit, as hereinafter provided. 58 V. c. 38, s. 31.

Disposition of purchase money.

32. Any contract or agreement made by any person authorized by this Act to convey lands, and made before the deposit of the map or plan and statement, and before the setting out and ascertaining of the lands required for the railway, shall, if duly registered in the proper registry office, be binding at the price agreed upon for the same lands, if they are afterwards so set out and ascertained within one year from the date of the contract or agreement, and although such land may, after such registration, have become the property of a third party; and possession of the land may be taken and the agreement and price may be dealt with, as if such price had been fixed by an award of arbitrators as hereinafter provided, and the agreement shall be in the place of an award. 58 V. c. 38, s. 32.

Effect of contracts made before deposit of map.

33. Wherever more persons than one are proprietors of any land as joint tenants or tenants in common, any contract or agreement made in good faith with any person being proprietor or with any persons being together proprietors of one-third or more of such lands, as to the amount of compensation for the same or for any damages thereto, shall be binding as between the remaining proprietor or proprietors as joint tenants or tenants in common; and the proprietor or proprietors who have so agreed, may deliver possession of such land, or empower the entry upon the same, as the case may be. 58 V. c. 38, s. 33.

As to tenants in common, etc.

34.—(1) After one month from the deposit of the map or plan and statement, and from notice thereof in at least one newspaper, if there is any, published in the districts and counties in which the lands intended to be expropriated lie, application may be made to the owners of such lands or to persons empowered to convey lands, or interested in lands which may suffer damage from the exercise of any of the powers granted for the railway, and thereupon, agreements and contracts may be made with such persons touching the said lands, or the compensation to be paid for the same, or for the damages, or as to the mode in which such compensation shall be ascertained, as may seem expedient to both parties, and in case of disagreement between them, or any of them, then if the company possesses powers of expropriation in respect of the particular lands required all questions which arise between the company and the owners of such lands shall be settled as in the next section mentioned.

After one month's notice of deposit of map, etc., application to the owner of lands.

(2) The deposit of a map or plan and statement, and the notice of such deposit, shall be deemed a general notice to all such persons as aforesaid of the lands which will be required to be expropriated for the said railway and works. 58 V. c. 38, s. 34.

Deposit, etc. to be general notice.

Notice to opposite party.

35.—(1) If the company possesses powers to expropriate the lands in question then the following proceedings shall thereupon be taken in order to expropriate the same. A notice shall be served upon the party which shall contain:

(a) A description of the lands to be taken, or of the powers intended to be exercised with regard to any lands (describing them).

(b) A declaration of readiness to pay some certain sum as compensation for such lands or for such damages; and

1. That the land, if the notice relates to the taking of land, shown on the said map or plan, is required for the railway.
2. That he knows the land, or the amount of damage likely to arise from the exercise of the powers; and
3. That the sum so offered is, in his opinion, a fair compensation for the land, and for the damages as aforesaid.

If the party is absent or unknown.

(2) If the opposite party is absent from the district or county in which the lands lie, or is unknown, then, upon application to a Judge of the County Court, accompanied by such certificate as aforesaid, and by an affidavit of some officer of the company that the opposite party is so absent, or that, after diligent inquiry, the party on whom the notice ought to be served cannot be ascertained, the Judge shall order a notice as aforesaid, but without a certificate, to be inserted three times in the course of one month in some newspaper published in the said district or county.

Provision when the county judge is interested in lands required for any railway.

(3) Wherever any Judge of a County Court is interested in lands taken or required within the county in which he is such Judge, by any company, for railway purposes, a Judge of the High Court shall, on application of such company, exercise in such case all the powers given to a Judge of a County Court by the provisions of this section in cases in which such Judge of a County Court is not interested.

Party not accepting the company's offer, and not appointing an arbitrator.

(4) If within ten days after the service of such notice, or within one month after the first publication thereof as aforesaid, the opposite party does not notify to the company his acceptance of the sum offered by them, or notify to them the name of a person whom he appoints as arbitrator, then the Judge shall, on the application of the company, appoint a sworn surveyor for Ontario, to be sole arbitrator for determining the compensation to be paid as aforesaid.

Appointment of arbitrator by opposite party.

(5) If the opposite party within the time aforesaid, notifies to the company the name of his arbitrator, then the two arbitrators shall jointly appoint a third, or if they cannot agree upon a third, then the Judge shall, on the application of the party or of the company (previous notice of at least one clear day having been given to the other party), appoint a third arbitrator.

Third arbitrator.

Party other than company commencing proceedings to determine compensation.

(6) If lands have been entered on and taken by the company with or without the license of the persons in possession thereof and without any agreement as to the compensation to be paid therefor or if the lands though not taken are injuriously affected by or through the construction of the railway, then any owner or person interested in such lands shall have power to commence proceedings to ascertain the compensation to which he is entitled in respect of the lands so taken or injuriously affected, by giving to the company notice in writing of the name of a person to be appointed as his arbitrator, the description of the lands taken or injuriously affected, and the amount of compensation or damages claimed by him, and thereupon like proceedings shall be taken to ascertain such compensation as is prescribed in cases where the company commences proceedings.

Duties of arbitrators.

(7) The arbitrators, or any two of them, or the sole arbitrator, being sworn before some Justice of the Peace for the district or county in which the lands lie, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties of their office, shall proceed to ascertain the said compensation in such way as they or he, or a majority of them, deem best; but no award shall be made or any official act be done by such majority, except at a meeting held at a time and place of which the other arbitrator has had at least one clear day's notice, or to which some meeting at which the third arbitrator was present, had been adjourned; and no notice to either of the parties shall be necessary, but each party shall be held sufficiently notified through the arbitrator appointed by him, or whose appointment he required.

Stating amount found payable in award.

(8) The arbitrators, besides awarding to the owner the amount which they find to be the value of the land, shall award ten per centum of the amount so found in addition, and they shall in their award state what they find to be the value of the land as well as the total amount to be paid to compensate the owners or for damages.

Costs how paid.

(9) If in any case where three arbitrators have been appointed, the sum awarded is not greater than that offered, the costs of the arbitration shall be borne by the opposite party, and be deducted from the compensation, but if otherwise, they shall be borne by the company, and in either case they may, if not agreed upon, be taxed by the Judge aforesaid.

Arbitrators to consider increased value of remaining lands.

(10) The arbitrators, in deciding on such value or compensation, are authorized and required to take into consideration the increased value that would be given to any lands or grounds through or over which the railway will pass by reason of the passage of the railway through or over the same, or by reason of the construction of the railway, and to set off the increased value that will attach to the said lands or grounds, against the inconvenience, loss or damage that might be suffered or sustained by reason of the company taking possession of, or using the said lands or grounds as aforesaid.

Arbitrators may examine on oath.

(11) The arbitrators, or a majority of them, or the sole arbitrator, may examine on oath or solemn affirmation the parties, or such witnesses as appear before him or them, and may administer such oath or affirmation.

Parties to arbitrations under this Act may obtain subpœnas.

(12) Any party to an arbitration under this Act, may without leave or order, obtain and issue out of the High Court, upon præcipe, setting forth the names of the witnesses to be subpœnaed, the names of the arbitrators, and the place and time of meeting, a subpœna commanding the attendance for examination of any witness, and also the production of any document to or before the arbitrator or arbitrators, and at the time and place mentioned in such subpœna; and the disobedience of such subpœna shall be deemed a contempt of Court, and shall be punishable in the same manner and to the like extent as in the case of subpœnas issued out of such court in a civil case.

Disobedience thereto to be contempt of court.

Fees and conduct money.

(13) The like fees shall be payable for such subpœnas as in the case of subpœnas issued out of the High Court in civil cases, and the witnesses shall be entitled to the like conduct money.

Depositions to be in writing and filed in Central Office Toronto, with exhibits, etc.

(14) The arbitrators shall take down the depositions of witnesses in writing, and after the making of their award, when requested in writing by any of the parties, shall forthwith deliver, or transmit, by registered letter, the said depositions, together with the exhibits referred to therein, and all other papers connected with the reference except the award, to the Central Office of the High Court of Justice at Toronto, with appropriate stamps, to be filed with the records of the Court.

Time within which award must be made.

(15) The Judge by whom any third arbitrator or sole arbitrator is appointed, shall, at the same time, fix a day on or before which the award shall be made, and if the same is not made on or before such day, or some other day to which the time for making it has been prolonged, either by the consent of the parties or by the order of the Judge (as it may be for reasonable cause shown, on the application of such sole arbitrator, or of one of the arbitrators, after one clear day's notice to the others), then the sum offered by the company as aforesaid shall be the compensation to be paid by them.

(16) If the arbitrator appointed by such Judge, or if any arbitrator appointed by the parties, dies before the award has been made, or is disqualified, or refuses or fails to act within a reasonable time, then, in the case of the arbitrator appointed by the judge, upon the application of either party, such Judge, being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise of such death, disqualification, refusal or failure, may appoint another arbitrator in his place, and the company and party respectively may each appoint an arbitrator in the place of his arbitrator deceased or otherwise not acting as aforesaid, but no recommencement or repetition of prior proceedings shall be required in any case. Arbitrator dying, etc.

(18) The surveyor or other person offered or appointed as valuator or as arbitrator shall not be disqualified by reason that he is professionally employed by either party, or that he has previously expressed an opinion as to the amount of compensation, or that he is related or of kin to any member of the company, provided he is not himself personally interested in the amount of the compensation; and no cause of disqualification shall be urged against any arbitrator appointed by the Judge after his appointment, but the objection must be made before the appointment, and its validity or invalidity shall be summarily determined by the Judge. Arbitrators not disqualified unless personally interested.

(19) No cause of disqualification shall be urged against an arbitrator appointed by the company, or by the opposite party, after the appointment of a third arbitrator; and the validity or invalidity of any cause of disqualification urged against any such arbitrator, before the appointment of a third arbitrator, shall be summarily determined by the Judge, on the application of either party, after one clear day's notice to the other, and if such cause is determined to be valid, the appointment shall be null, and the party offering the person so adjudged to be disqualified, shall be held not to have appointed an arbitrator. No objection admissible after a third arbitrator has been appointed. How validity of objections to arbitrator determined.

(20) No award made as aforesaid shall be invalidated by reason of any want of form or other technical objection, if the requirements of this Act have been complied with, and if the award states clearly the sum awarded, and the lands or other property, right or thing for which such sum is to be the compensation; nor shall it be necessary that the person or persons to whom the sum is to be paid, be named in the award. Awards not avoided for want of form.

(21) Any party to such arbitration may, within one month after receiving a written notice from one of the arbitrators of Parties to arbitration may appeal to a judge of High Court.

the making of the award, appeal therefrom upon any question of law or fact to a Judge of the High Court and upon the hearing of such appeal such Judge shall, if the same is a question of fact, decide the same upon the evidence, as in a case of original jurisdiction.

Practice and proceedings upon appeal.

Rev. Stat. c. 62.

Rev. Stat. c. 51.

(22) Upon such appeal the practice and proceedings shall be, as nearly as may be, the same as upon an appeal from an Official Referee under The Arbitration Act, subject to any General Rules or Orders (to be from time to time made by the Judges of the High Court, under section 124 of The Judicature Act).

Existing practice as to setting aside awards continued.

(23) The right of appeal hereby given shall not affect the existing law or practice as to setting aside awards.

Possession may be taken on payment or tender, etc., of sum awarded.

(24) Upon payment or legal tender of the compensation so awarded or agreed upon as aforesaid to the party entitled to receive the same, or upon the deposit of the amount of such compensation in the manner hereinafter mentioned, the award or agreement shall vest in the said company the power forthwith to take possession of the lands, or to exercise the right, or to do the thing for which such compensation has been awarded or agreed upon; and if any resistance or forcible opposition is made by any person to their so doing, the Judge may, on proof to his satisfaction of such award or agreement, issue his warrant to the sheriff of the district or county, or to a bailiff, as he may deem most suitable, to put the said company in possession, and to put down such resistance or opposition, which the sheriff or bailiff, taking with him sufficient assistance, shall accordingly do.

When compensation to stand in the place of the land.

(25) The compensation for any lands which might be taken without the consent of the proprietor, shall stand in the stead of such lands; and any claim to or incumbrance upon the said lands, or any portion thereof, shall, as against the company, be converted into a claim to the compensation, or to a like proportion thereof, and they shall be responsible accordingly whenever they have paid such compensation, or any part thereof, to a party not entitled to receive the same, saving always their recourse against such party.

As to incumbrances, etc., upon lands, etc., purchased or taken.

(26) If the company has reason to fear any claims or incumbrances, or if any party to whom the compensation or any part thereof is payable, refuses to execute the proper conveyance and guarantee, or if the party entitled to claim the same cannot be found, or is unknown to the company, or if for any other reason the company deems it advisable, the company may pay such compensation into the office of the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature, with the interest thereon for six months, and may deliver to the said Accountant an authentic copy of the conveyance, or of the award or agreement if there be no conveyance, and such award or agreement shall thereafter be deemed to be the title of the company to the land therein mentioned.

(27) A notice, in such form and for such time as the High Court appoints, shall be inserted in some newspaper published in the county in which the lands are situate, if there is any such newspaper, and in one newspaper published in the city of Toronto, which shall state that the title of the company, that is, the conveyance, agreement or award, is under this Act, and shall call upon all persons entitled to the land, or to any part thereof, or representing or being the husbands of any parties so entitled, to file their claims to the compensation or any part thereof; and all such claims shall be received and adjudged upon by the Court, and the said proceedings shall for ever bar all claims to the lands, or any part thereof, including dower, as well as all mortgages and incumbrances upon the same; and the Court shall make such order for the distribution, payment or investment of the compensation, and for the securing of the rights of all parties interested, as to right and justice, and according to the provisions of this Act, and the special Act, and to law, appertain. What notice to be published.

(28) The costs of the proceedings, or any part thereof, shall be paid by the company, or by any other party as the Court deems it equitable to order. By whom costs be paid.

(29) If such order of distribution as aforesaid is obtained in less than six months from the payment of the compensation into Court, the Court shall direct a proportionate part of the interest to be returned to the company, and if from any error, fault or neglect of the company, it is not obtained until after the six months have expired, the Court shall order the company to pay to the proper claimants the interest for such further period as may be right. 58 V. c. 38, s. 35. When interest to be returned to, or paid by the company.

HIGHWAYS, CROSSINGS AND BRIDGES.

36. Highways, crossings and bridges shall be regulated as provided in the following sections. 58 V. c. 38, s. 36. Regulation of highways, crossings and bridges.

37. The railway, its cars, carriages, engines, motors or machinery shall not be carried, operated or worked on, upon or along any street, highway or public place of any municipality unless first authorized by an agreement in respect thereof made between the company and such municipality, with the approval of a two-thirds vote of the members of the council of such municipality, and under and subject to the terms of such agreement and of this Act and of any by-law or by-laws of the council of said municipality, to be passed in pursuance thereof and subject also to the consent of any road company interested in any such street, highway or public place, and subject also in all municipalities except cities, towns and incorporated villages to the written consent first being obtained of the owners of one-half of the property fronting on such street or highway or public place where it is proposed to carry, operate or work such railway, and in all such cases, any and every work, matter or Use of highways by company.

thing in connection with electricity, or other motive power, and the application and user thereof in so carrying, operating and working the said railways, or their cars, carriages, engines, motors or machinery as aforesaid, shall be so constructed, erected, laid down and arranged as to impede or incommode the public use of any such street, highway or public place as little as possible, and so as not to be a nuisance thereto, nor to interfere with the free access to any house or other building erected in the vicinity of the same, nor to endanger the same.

Provided, however, that when the consent of the municipality has been obtained and an agreement has been entered into as aforesaid and the consent of at least one half of the owners of property fronting on such street, highway or public place cannot be obtained, the Commissioner of Public Works may dispense with such last mentioned consent if in his opinion it is in the public interest so to do. One week's notice of application to the Commissioner shall be given on the company's behalf to the persons who refuse such consent. 58 V. c. 38, s. 37.

Crossing steam railways.

38. Except in cities, towns, and incorporated villages the railway of any company operated by steam shall not be crossed or intersected at grade by the railways of the company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 38.

Laying rails flush with the streets.

39. Unless the company and the council of the municipality otherwise agree, the rails of the railway shall be laid (as nearly as practicable) flush with the streets, public roads and highways, over, along or across which it passes and the railway track shall conform to the grades of the same, and shall be laid so as to cause the least possible impediment to the ordinary traffic of the streets. 58 V. c. 38, s. 39.

Use of track by other vehicles.

40.—(1) On all public streets, roads and highways along which the railway is authorized to pass all other ordinary vehicles may use and travel in the said tracks, provided they do not unduly interfere with or impede the running of the cars, or other conveyances of the company; and in all cases any carriage or other vehicle on the track shall immediately, by leaving the track, give place to the cars or other conveyances of the company.

Railway not to rise more than one inch above level of highways when crossing the same.

(2) No part of the railway which crosses any highway without being carried over by a bridge, or under by a tunnel, shall rise above or sink below the level of the highway more than one inch; and the railway may be carried across or above any highway within the limits aforesaid.

Guard wires.

(3) The company when operating any portion of its line across or along a highway by means of electricity conveyed by wires above ground shall cause to be strung and maintained guard wires sufficient to prevent telegraph, telephone or other wires now or hereafter strung across or along the highway, from coming into contact with or falling upon the said wires conveying such electricity.

Protecting water pipes, etc., from injury by electricity.

(4) The company when operating any portion of its line by means of electricity, shall use such means and appliances as may, as far as may be reasonably possible, prevent water pipes, gas pipes, cables and other things now or hereafter placed underground from being damaged in consequence of the escape or discharge of electricity into the ground. Proper bonding of the rails and connecting the rails so bonded to the electric power generator or generators with a proper and efficient system of return wires shall be taken to be a compliance with the conditions of this sub-section

Right of action.

(5) Any person suffering damage by reason of the non-compliance by the company with the provisions of the two preceding sub-sections, shall have a right of action against the company therefor. 58 V. c. 38, s. 40.

Ascent of bridges.

41. The ascent of all bridges erected to carry any highway over any railway, shall not be more than one foot in twenty feet increase over the natural ascent of the highway; and a good and sufficient fence shall be made on each side of every bridge, which fence shall not be less than four feet above the surface of the bridge. 58 V. c. 38, s. 41.

FENCES.

Fences to be erected on each side of railway.

42.—(1) On each side of all that portion of the railway which is not passing along or across a public highway fences shall be erected and maintained of the height and strength of an ordinary division fence, with openings or gates, or bars therein at farm crossings of the road, for the use of the proprietors of the lands adjoining the railway; and also cattle guards at all road crossings, suitable and sufficient to prevent cattle and animals from getting on the railway.

Meaning of certain words.

(2) The said words "openings, gates or bars," shall be held to mean and shall in all cases imply sliding gates, commonly called hurdle gates, with proper fastenings.

Liability of company until cattle guards erected.

(3) Until such fences and cattle guards are duly made, the company shall be liable for all damages which may be done by their motors, cars, carriages or trains to cattle, horses or other animals on that part of the railway hereby required to be fenced. 58 V. c. 38, s. 42.

TOLLS.

Tolls to be fixed by by-laws or otherwise.

43.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, tolls shall be from time to time fixed and regulated by the by-laws of the company, or by the directors, if thereunto authorized by the by-laws, or by the shareholders at any general meeting, and may be demanded and received for all passengers and goods transported upon the railway, or on its motors, cars or carriages and shall be paid to such persons and at such places near to or on the railway, and in such manner and under such regulations as provided by this Act or the said by-laws.

How payment of tolls enforced.

(2) In case of denial or neglect of payment on demand of any such tolls, or any part thereof, to such persons, the same may be sued for and recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, or the agents or servants of the company may seize the goods for or in respect whereof such tolls ought to be paid, and detain the same until payment thereof; and in the meantime the said goods shall be at the risk of the owners thereof.

When, if tolls not paid, goods distrained may be sold.

(3) If the tolls are not paid within six weeks, the company may sell the whole or any part of such goods, and out of the money arising from such sale retain the tolls payable, and all charges and expenses of the detention and sale; rendering the surplus, if any, or such of the goods as remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto.

When goods distrained or detained may be sold.

(4) If any goods remain in the possession of the company unclaimed for the space of twelve months, the company may thereafter, and on giving public notice thereof by advertisement for six weeks in the Ontario Gazette, and in such other papers as they deem necessary, sell such goods by public auction at a time and place to be mentioned in such advertisement, and out of the proceeds thereof pay such tolls and all reasonably charges for storing, advertising and selling such goods; and the balance of the proceeds, if any, shall be kept by the compane for a further period of three months, to be paid over to any person entitled thereto.

How balance to be dispose of.

(5) In default of such balance being claimed before the expiration of the period last aforesaid, the same shall be paid over to the Provincial Treasurer to be applied to the general purposes of the Province, until claimed by the person entitled thereto

Tolls—how raised, or reduced.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Act, and subject particularly to the provisions of subsections 10 and 11 of this section, all or any of the tolls may, by by-law, be reduced and again raised as often as deemed necessary for the interests of the undertaking; but the same tolls shall be payable at the same time and under the same circumstances upon all goods and by all persons, so that no undue advantage, privilege or monopoly may be afforded to any person or class of persons by any by-laws relating to the tolls.

Amount of fares.

(7) The fares to be taken by the company for each passenger shall not exceed five cents for any distance not exceeding three miles, and where the distance exceeds three miles then not exceeding two cents per mile or fraction thereof for the distance actually travelled. Children under ten years of age shall be carried for three miles for three cents and for any additional distance for half fare, but children in arms shall in all cases be carried free.

(9) The tolls and fares to be levied by the company as nearly as possible shall be so fixed and regulated, that after paying "working expenses" the balance of the annual receipts shall not exceed eight per cent. (or $8 on every $100) on the total amount actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company and then issued and outstanding; and if in any year the gross receipts from tolls and fares and from all other sources arising from the working, operating or carrying on of the railway and works and business authorized to be worked, operated or carried on by the company by this or the special Act, shall be such, that after deducting therefrom the "working expenses" there shall remain an amount exceeding eight per cent. of the total amount theretofore actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company then outstanding, then all such excess shall be placed to the credit of a special account to be called "the surplus tolls account;" provided that in no case shall the fares exceed the maximum rates prescribed by sub-section 7 of this section. 58 V c. 38, s. 43 (9); 59 V. c. 49, s. 2. Limit as to application of receipts of company.

(10) The moneys at the credit of "the surplus tolls account" may be used from time to time in making good any deficiency if such there be, caused by the gross receipts of the company, in any subsequent year being insufficient to pay the "working expenses" and a dividend of eight per cent. (or $8 on every $100) on the total amount actually paid up in cash on the capital stock of the company and then issued and outstanding; provided that, whenever, and so often as the same shall happen, the total amount, to the credit of "the surplus tolls account," including any interest accruals thereon, shall equal one-fifth of the average annual gross receipts of the company computed from the actual receipts for the then preceding five years, the company shall by by-law make a sufficient proportionate reduction in the tolls and fares so that the probable net earnings thereafter shall be such as to make it necessary to resort to the moneys at the credit of "the surplus tolls account," in order to meet any such deficiency in whole or in part, but as soon as the amount at the credit of "the surplus tolls account" is exhausted the rates and tolls may be again raised. 58 V. c. 38, s. 43 (10); 59 V. c. 49, s. 3. Application of "surplus tolls account."

(11) Provided that if, during the ten years immediately succeeding the incorporation of the company, the gross receipts as aforesaid shall in any year be insufficient, after paying the working expenses of the railway, to pay a dividend of five per Charging unearned dividends upon surplus tolls account.

cent. on the total amount paid up on the capital stock of the company then issued and outstanding, the company may charge against the surplus tolls account an amount sufficient, after deducting any dividends earned during such year, to equal a dividend of five per cent. per annum on the total amount actually paid up on the stock of the company, and the company shall not be bound to reduce the tolls as hereinbefore provided until the amount at the credit of the surplus tolls account shall equal an amount sufficient, less any dividends earned during the year, to pay the said dividend of five per cent. in every such year during the said period of ten years in addition to one-fifth of the average annual gross receipts of the company computed as aforesaid. 58 V. c. 38, s. 43 (11); 59 V. c. 49, s. 4.

Table of tolls to be posted up in offices and cars.

(12) The directors shall, from time to time, print and post up, or cause to be printed and posted up, in the office, and in all and every of the places where the tolls are to be collected, and in every passenger car, in some conspicuous place there, a printed board or paper exhibiting all the tolls payable, and particularizing the price or sum of money to be charged or taken for the carriage of any matter or thing.

Tolls to be approved of by the Lieut.-Governor.

(13) No tolls on goods shall be levied or taken until approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, nor until after two weekly publications in the Ontario Gazette of the by-law establishing such tolls, and of the Order in Council approving thereof.

The Lieut.-Governor may revise by-laws fixing tolls.

(14) Every by-law fixing and regulating tolls on goods shall be subject to revision by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time, after approval thereof as aforesaid; and after an Order in Council reducing the tolls fixed and regulated by any by-law, has been twice published in the Ontario Gazette the tolls mentioned in such Order in Council shall be substituted for those mentioned in the by-law so long as the Order in Council remains unrevoked.

Payment of back charges on goods.

(15) The company shall have power to collect and receive all charges subject to which goods or commodities may come into their possession, and on the payment of such back charges and without any formal transfer, shall have the same lien for the amount thereof upon such goods and commodities as the person to whom such charges were originally due, and shall be subrogated by such payment in all the rights and remedies of such persons for such charges. 58 V. c. 38, s. 43 (12-15).

PROVISIONAL DIRECTORS AND THEIR POWERS.

Provisional directors, powers of.

44. The persons mentioned by name as such in the special Act are hereby constituted provisional directors, a majority of whom shall be a quorum, and the said provisional directors shall hold office as such until the first election of directors, and may forthwith open stock books and procure subscriptions of stock for the undertaking, and receive payments on account of stock subscribed, and cause plans and surveys to be made, and shall deposit in any chartered bank of Canada all moneys received by them on account of stock subscribed, which moneys shall not be withdrawn, except for the purposes of the undertaking or upon the dissolution of the company, for any cause whatever. They may also fill vacancies in the board caused by death, resignation or other cause, but the provisional directors shall have no powers other than those given by this clause, or in terms conferred on provisional directors by the express words of this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 44.

Apportionment when more than whole amount of stock subscribed.

45. If more than the whole stock has been subscribed the provisional directors shall allocate and apportion the authorized stock among the subscribers as they deem most advantageous and conducive to the furtherance of the undertaking. 58 V. c. 38, s. 45.

Excluding subscribers.

46. The provisional directors may in their discretion exclude any one from subscribing for stock or erase the names of any such subscribers who in their judgment would hinder, delay or prevent the company from proceeding with and completing their undertaking under the provisions of this Act and of the special Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 46.

Place of meeting of provisional directors.

47. All meetings of the provisional board of directors shall be held at the place in the special Act mentioned, or at such other place as the provisional directors may determine. 58 V. c. 38, s. 47.

CAPITAL.

Capital stock.

48. The capital stock of the company shall be stated in the special Act and shall be divided into shares of $100 each and the money raised therefrom and all other moneys and property of the company shall be applied in the first place, to the payment of such reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements for procuring the passing of the special Act as the shareholders at the first general meeting of the company shall by resolution sanction and approve of, and for making the surveys, plans and estimates of the works authorized by the special Act; and all the remainder of such moneys shall be applied to the making, equipping, completing and maintaining of the said railway, and other purposes of the undertaking. Provided that the directors may agree to pay a reasonable sum out of the funds of the company for the services of the promoters or other persons who may be employed by the directors for the purpose of assisting the directors in the furtherance of the undertaking or in the purchase of the right of way, whether such promoters or other persons were provisional or are elected directors or not, and any agreement so made if reasonable, shall be binding on the company if and after the same shall be confirmed and approved by a resolution passed by the votes of shareholders (in person or by proxy) representing two-thirds in value of the whole amount paid up on the total capital stock of the company at the passing of such resolution issued and outstanding at a general meeting of shareholders specially called for the purpose of considering such agreement. 58 V. c. 38, s. 48.

Proviso.

Shares to be subject to be paid in cash.

49. Every share in the company shall be deemed and taken to have been issued and to be held subject to the payment of the whole amount thereof in cash. 58 V. c. 38, s. 49.

Disposing of unissued or forfeited shares.

50. After the first issue of stock as hereinbefore defined, any unissued or forfeited shares in the capital stock of the company shall be issued and sold only after a day and time fixed for receiving tenders of price for same, of which public notice shall be given by at least four insertions in any newspaper published in or nearest to the municipality in which the head office of the company is situate, and in or nearest to each and every municipality through or in any part of which it is proposed to construct the railway. 58 V. c. 38, s. 51, first part.

Exclusion of tenders.

51. The shares shall be sold by the company for cash to the highest tenderer at or above the minimum price fixed for the purpose of such sale, by a vote of the shareholders representing two-thirds in value of the capital stock, voting in person or by proxy, passed at a general meeting or special meeting called for the purpose. Provided that the directors, if authorized so to do by a vote of the shareholders representing two-thirds in value of the capital stock voting in person or by proxy, passed at a general meeting specially called for the purpose, may in their discretion exclude any one or more of such tenderers if in their judgment such exclusion would best promote the interests of the undertaking. 58 V, c. 38, s. 51, second part; 59 V. c. 49, s. 1.

ORGANIZATION.

First meeting for election of directors.

52. (10) No director shall have more than one vote at any meeting, except the chairman, who shall, in case of a division, of equal numbers, have the casting vote.

(11) The directors shall be subject to the examination and control of the shareholders at their annual meetings, and be subject to all by-laws of the company, and to the orders and directions from time to time made at the annual or at any special meetings, such orders and directions not being contrary to any express directions or provisions of this Act or the special Act. Directors to be subject to shareholders and by-laws.

(12) Subject to section 48 of this Act, no person holding any office, place or employment in or being concerned or interested in any contracts under or with the company, shall be capable of being chosen a director, or of holding or continuing in the office of director or provisional director, nor shall any person being a director or provisional director or promoter of the company enter into or be directly or indirectly interested or concerned in or participate in the profit of any contract with the company, not relating to the purchase of land necessary for the railway, or be or become a partner of any contractor with the company; and in the event of any such contract being made by or on behalf of any director or provisional director or promoter, an action shall lie in any court of competent jurisdiction against such director or provisional director or promoter at the suit of any shareholder of the company or of any municipality through which any part of the railway passes, for the benefit of the funds of the company, for the whole amount of profit accruing to such director, provisional promoter or director from the contract so made or fulfilled. Officers of company not to be directors.

(13) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the directors shall make by-laws for the management and disposition of the stock, property, business and affairs of the company, not inconsistent with the laws of this Province, and for the appointment of all officers, servants and artificers, and prescribing their respective duties and salaries. By-laws for management of stock, etc.

(14) The directors shall from time to time appoint such officers as they deem requisite, and shall take sufficient security, by one or more penal bonds, or otherwise, from the manager and officers for the time being, for the safe keeping and accounting by them respectively of the moneys raised by virtue of this Act and the special Act, and for the faithful execution of their offices, as the directors think proper. Unreasonably large salaries shall not be paid. May appoint officers.

(15) The directors may be paid such reasonable remuneration for their services for their year of office as may be sanctioned by the shareholders by resolution passed at the annual general meeting to be held for the purpose of electing the successors of such directors. Remuneration of directors.

(16) In case of the absence or illness of the president, the vice-president shall have all the rights and powers of the president, and may sign all debentures, and other instruments, and perform all acts which by the regulations and Vice-president to act in the absence of the president.

by-laws of the company or by the Acts incorporating the company are required to be signed, performed and done by the president.

Absence of president may be entered in the minutes, and certified, etc.

(17) The directors may at any meeting require the secretary to enter such absence or illness among the proceedings of such meeting, and a certificate thereof signed by the secretary shall be delivered to any person or persons requiring the same on payment to the treasurer of $1, and such certificate shall be taken and considered as prima facie evidence of such absence or illness at and during the period in the said certificate mentioned in all proceedings in courts of justice or otherwise.

Directors to cause annual accounts to be kept.

(18) The directors shall cause to be kept, and annually, on the 31st day of December, shall cause to be made up and balanced, a true, exact and particular account of all moneys collected and received by the company, or by the directors or managers thereof, or otherwise, for the use of the company, and of the charges and expenses attending the erecting, making, supporting, maintaining and carrying on of the undertaking, and of all other receipts and expenditures of the company or of the directors, and shall file a certified copy of the same with the Provincial Secretary, together with a statement showing the amount of the capital stock issued and the amount actually received in cash for same, and the amount, if any, still unpaid thereon, and the amount of dividends paid or declared during such year, and the amount on the last day of such year at the credit of the surplus tolls account. Such statement shall be filed on or before the last day of January in each year, and in default thereof the company shall, besides being compellable to file the same, be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars to be enforced in the High Court of Justice at the suit of any municipality through which the railway passes, one-half of which said penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other half to the said municipality. 58 V. c. 38, s. 55.

CALLS.

Calls.

56.—(1) The directors may from time to time make such calls of money upon the respective shareholders, in respect of the amount of capital respectively subscribed or owing by them, as they deem necessary, and thirty days' notice at the least shall be given of each call, and no call shall be made at any one time for more than ten per cent. of the amount subscribed by each shareholder or be made at a less interval than two months from the previous call.

Notice of meetings, how published.

(2) All notices of meetings or of calls upon the shareholders of the company shall be published weekly in the Ontario Gazette, and the said Gazette shall, on production thereof, be conclusive evidence of the sufficiency of such notices.

Payment of calls how to be made.

(3) Every shareholder shall be liable to pay the amount of the call so made in respect of the shares held by him in cash to the persons and at the times and places from time to time appointed by the company or the directors.

Interest to be chargeable on unpaid calls.

(4) If, before or on the day appointed for payment, any shareholder does not pay the amount of the call, he shall be liable to pay interest for the same, at the legal rate for the time being, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment.

Amount of call may be recovered by suit.

(5) If at the time appointed for the payment of any call, any shareholder fails to pay the amount of the call, he may be sued for the same, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and the same may be recovered, with lawful interest from the day on which the call became payable.

What formalities necessary in actions for calls.

(6) In an action to recover any money due upon any call, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient to state that the defendant is the holder of one share or more, stating the number of shares, and is indebted in the sum of money to which the calls in arrear amount, in respect of one call or more, upon one share or more, stating the number and amount of each of such calls, whereby an action has accrued to the company by virtue of the special Act.

62. The said company may receive from any government or from any persons or bodies corporate, municipal or politic, who may have power to make or grant the same, aid towards the construction, equipment or maintenance of the said railway by way of gift, bonus or loan of money, or debentures or other securities for money or by way of guarantee upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. 58 V. c. 38, s. 62. Aid to railway.

63. Any municipality through which the railways may pass or are situate is empowered to grant by way of gift to the company any lands other than public highways belonging to such municipality or over which it may have control, which may be required for right of way, station grounds or other purposes connected with the traffic or running of the railways, and the railway company shall have power to accept gifts of land from any government or any person or body corporate or politic, and shall have power to sell or otherwise dispose of the same for the benefit of the company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 63. Gifts of lands.

64. Any municipality or any portion of a township municipality which may be interested in securing the construction of the said railways or through any part of which or near which the railways or works of the said company shall pass or be situate may aid the said company by giving money or debentures by way of bonus, gift or loan, or by the guarantee of the municipal corporation under and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained; provided always that such aid shall not be given except after the passing of a by-law for the purpose, and the adoption of such by-law by the qualified ratepayers of the municipality or portion of the municipality (as the case may be) in accordance with, and subject to the provisions relating to granting aid by way of bonuses to railways contained in The Municipal Act, or other law in force at the time of the application to the council for such aid. 58 V. c. 38, s. 64. Aid from municipalities. Rev. Stat. c. 223.

Submitting bonus by-law.

65. Such by-law shall be submitted by the municipal council to the vote of the ratepayers in manner following, namely:—

1. The proper petition shall first be presented to the council, expressing the desire to aid the railways, and stating in what way and for what amount and the council shall within six weeks after the receipt of such petition by the clerk of the municipality introduce a by-law to the effect petitioned for and submit the same to the approval of the qualified voters.

Rev. Stat c. 223.

2. In the case of a county municipality the petition shall be that of a majority of the reeves and deputy-reeves of or of fifty resident freeholders in, each of the minor municipalities of the county, who are qualified voters under The Municipal Act.

3. In the case of other municipalities the petition shall be that of a majority of the council thereof or of fifty resident freeholders, being duly qualified voters under The Municipal Act.

4. In the case of a section of a township municipality the petition shall be presented to the council, defining the section by metes and bounds or by lots and concessions and shall be that of a majority of the council of such township municipality or of fifty resident freeholders in such section of the municipality, being duly qualified voters as aforesaid. 58 V. c. 38, s. 65.

By-law, what to contain.

66. Such by-law shall in each instance provide

1. For raising the amount petitioned for in the municipality or portion of the township municipality (as the case may be) mentioned in the petition by the issue of debentures of the county or minor municipality, respectively, and shall also provide for the delivery of the said debentures or the application of the amount to be raised thereby, as may be expressed in the said by-law.

2. For assessing and levying upon all rateable property lying within the municipality or portion of the township municipality defined in the said by-law (as the case may be) an annual special rate sufficient to include a sinking fund for the repayment of the said debentures within twenty years with interest thereon payable yearly or half-yearly, which debentures the respective municipal councils, wardens, mayors, reeves and other officers thereof are hereby authorized to execute and issue in such cases respectively. 58 V. c. 38, s. 66.

Petition against aid from county.

67. In case of aid from a county municipality fifty resident freeholders of the county may petition the county council against submitting the said by-law, upon the ground that certain minor municipalities or portions thereof comprised in the said by-law would be injuriously affected thereby, or upon any other ground, ought not to be included therein, and upon deposit by the petitioners with the treasurer of the county of a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of such reference the said council shall forthwith refer the said petition to three arbitrators, one being the Judge of the county court, one being the registrar of the county or of the riding in which the county town is situate, and one being an engineer appointed by the Commissioner of Public Works for Ontario, who shall have power to confirm or amend the said by-law by excluding any minor municipality or any section thereof therefrom; and the decision of any two of them shall be final, and the by-law so confirmed or amended shall thereupon, at the option of the railway company, be submitted by the council to the duly qualified voters, and in case the by-law is confirmed by the arbitrators, the expense of the reference shall be borne by the petitioners against the same, but if amended, then by the railway company or the county, as the arbitrators may order. 58 V. c. 38, s. 67.

"Minor municipality," meaning of.

68. The term "minor municipality" shall be construed to mean any town not separated from the municipal county, township or incorporated village, situate in the county municipality. 58 V. c. 38, s. 68.

Deposit to be made before by-law submitted.

69. Before any such by-law is submitted the railway company shall, if required, deposit with the treasurer of the municipality a sum sufficient to pay the expenses to be incurred in submitting the said by-law. 58 V. c. 38, s. 69.

Council to pass by-law if assented to by ratepayers.

70. In case the by-law submitted be approved of and carried in accordance with the provisions of the law in that behalf, then within four weeks after the date of such voting the municipal council which submitted the same shall read the said by-law a third time and pass the same. 58 V. c. 38, s. 70.

Issue of debentures.

71. Unless otherwise provided in the by-law, the said council and the mayor, warden, reeve or other head or other officers thereof within one month after the passing of such by-law, shall issue or dispose of the debentures provided for by the by-law, and deliver the same duly executed to the trustees appointed or to be appointed under this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 71.

Levying rates on portion of municipality.

72. In case any such loan, guarantee or bonus be so granted by a portion of a township municipality, the rate to be levied for payment of the debentures issued therefor, and the interest thereon shall be assessed and levied upon such portion only of such municipality. 58 V. c. 38, s. 72.

Application of provisions of Rev. Stat. c. 223.

73. The provisions of The Municipal Act, so far as the same are not inconsistent with this Act, shall apply to any by-law so passed by or for a portion of a township municipality to the same extent as if the same had been passed by or for the whole municipality. 58 V. c. 38, s. 73.

Councils may extend time for commencement.

74. The councils for all corporations that may grant aid by way of bonus to the said company may by resolution or by-law extend the time for the commencement of the work beyond that stipulated for in the by-law or by-laws granting such aid from time to time; provided that no such extension shall be for a longer period than one year. 58 V. c. 38, s. 74.

Councils may extend time for completion.

75. The council of any municipality which grants aid by way of bonus to the said company by resolution or by-law may extend the time for the completion of the works, on the completion of which the said company would be entitled to such bonus from time to time; provided that no such extension shall be for a longer period than one year at a time. 58 V. c. 38, s. 75.

Extent of aid from municipalities.

76. Any municipality or portion of a township municipality interested in the construction of the road of the said company may grant aid by way of bonus to the said company towards the construction of such road, notwithstanding that such aid may increase the municipal taxation of such municipality or portion thereof beyond what is allowed by law; provided that such aid shall not require the levying of a greater aggregate annual rate for all purposes, exclusive of school rates, than three cents on the dollar upon the value of the rateable property therein. 58 V. c. 38, s. 76.

By-laws granting exemption from taxation.

77. The corporation of any municipality through any part of which the railway of the said company passes, or in which it is situate, by by-law specially passed for that purpose, may exempt the said company and its property within such municipality, either in whole or in part, from municipal assessment or taxation, or to agree to a certain sum per annum, or otherwise, in gross by way of commutation or composition, for payment or in lieu of all or any municipal rates or assessments to be imposed by such municipal corporation, and for such term of years as such municipal corporation may deem expedient, not exceeding twenty-one years, and no such by-law shall be repealed unless in conformity with a condition contained therein. 58 V. c. 38, s. 77.

Issues of debentures

78. Whenever any municipality or portion of a township municipality grants aid by way of bonus or gift to the railway company, the debentures therefor shall, within six months after the passing of the by-law authorizing the same, be delivered to three trustees to be named, one by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, one by the said company, and one by the majority of the heads of the municipalities which have granted bonuses, all of the trustees to be residents of the Province of Ontario; provided that if the said heads of the municipalities refuse or neglect to name such trustee within one month after notice in writing of the appointment of the company's trustee, or if the Lieutenant-Governor in

Proviso.

Council omits to name such trustee within one month after notice in writing to him of the appointment of the other trustee, then in either case the company shall be at liberty to name such other trustee or trustees. Any trustee may be removed and a new trustee appointed in his place at any time by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and in case any trustee dies, or resigns his trust, or goes to live out of the Province of Ontario, or otherwise becomes incapable of acting, his trusteeship shall become vacant, and a new trustee may be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council 58 V. c. 38, s. 78.

Trusts of proceeds of debentures.

79. The said trustees shall receive the said debentures or bonds in trust, firstly under the directions of the company, but subject to the conditions of the by-law in relation thereto as to time or manner, to convert the same into money or otherwise dispose of them; secondly, to deposit the debentures or amounts realized from the sale in some chartered bank having an office in the Province of Ontario in the name of "The Electric Railway Municipal Trust Account," and to pay the same out to the said company from time to time as the said company becomes entitled thereto under the conditions of the by-law granting the said bonus, and on the certificate of the chief engineer of the said company for the time being in the form set out in Schedule A hereto or to the like effect, which certificate shall set forth that the conditions of the by-law have been complied with, and shall be attached to the cheque or order drawn by the said trustees for such payment or delivery of debentures; and such engineer shall not wrongfully grant any such certificate under a penalty of $500, recoverable in any court of competent jurisdiction by any person who may sue therefor. 58 V. c. 38, s. 79.

Fees to trustees.

80. The trustees shall be entitled to their reasonable fees and charges from said trust fund, and the acts of any two of such trustees shall be as valid and binding as if the three had agreed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 80.

BY-LAWS—NOTICES, ETC.

By-laws to be put into writing and signed by chairman.

81.—(1) All by-laws, rules and orders regularly made, shall be put into writing and signed by the chairman or person presiding at the meeting at which they are adopted, and shall be kept in the office of the company; and a printed copy of so much of them as relates to or affects any person other than the members or servants of the company, shall be affixed openly in all and every passenger car, and in all and every place where tolls are to be gathered, and in like manner so often as any change or alteration is made in the same; and any copy of the same or of any of them, certified as correct by the president or secretary, shall be deemed authentic, and shall be received as evidence thereof in any court, without further proof.

Copies of minutes to be prima facie evidence.

(2) Copies of the minutes of proceedings and resolutions of the shareholders of the company, at any general or special meeting, and of the minutes of proceedings and resolutions of the directors, at their meetings, extracted from the minute books kept by the secretary of the company, and by him certified to be true copies, extracted from such minute books, shall be prima facie evidence of such proceedings and resolutions in all courts of civil jurisdiction.

Notices by secretary valid.

(3) All notices given by the secretary of the company, by order of the directors, shall be deemed notices by the directors and company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 81.

Best appliances for communication and for stopping trains to be used.

82.—(1) Every railway company, which runs cars, carriages, or other vehicles upon the railway for the conveyance of passengers, shall provide and cause to be used in and upon such cars, carriages or other vehicles adapted to the same such known apparatus and arrangements as best afford good and sufficient means of immediate communication between the conductors and the motormen of such cars, carriages or other vehicles while the same are in motion—and good and sufficient means of applying, at the will of the motorman or other person appointed to such duty, the brakes to the wheels of the motors, cars, carriages or other vehicles, and of disconnecting the motors, cars, carriages or other vehicles from each other—and also such apparatus and arrangements as best and most securely place and fix the seats or chairs in the cars or carriages—and shall alter such apparatus and arrangements or supply new apparatus and arrangements, from time to time, as the Commissioner of Public Works orders; and every railway company which fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, shall forfeit to Her Majesty a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars for every day during which such default continues, and shall, as well, be liable to pay to all such persons as are injured by reason of non-compliance with these provisions, or to their representatives, such damages as they are legally entitled to, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary with regard to any such person.

Penalty for non-compliance.

Liability for damages.

Servants to wear badges.

(2) Every servant of the undertaking employed in a passenger car or train, or at a station for passengers, shall wear upon his hat or cap a badge which shall indicate his office, and he shall not without such badge be entitled to demand or receive from any passenger any fare or ticket, or to exercise any of the powers of his office, or meddle or interfere with any passenger or his baggage or property.

Trains to start at regular hours.

(3) The cars, carriages or trains shall furnish sufficient accommodation for the transportation of all such passengers and goods as are within a reasonable time previous thereto offered for transportation at the place of starting, and at the junctions of other railways, and at usual stopping places, established for receiving and discharging way-passengers and goods from the cars, carriages or trains.

(4) Such passengers and goods shall be taken, transported and discharged, at, from, and to such places, on the due payment of the toll, freight or fare legally authorized therefor. Passengers and goods to be carried on payment of fare or freight.

(5) The person aggrieved by any neglect or refusal in the premises, shall have an action therefor against the company, from which action the company shall not be relieved by any agreement, notice, condition or declaration if the damage arises from any negligence, omission or misconduct of the company or of its servants. The company liable for neglect or refusal.

(6) Checks shall be affixed by an agent or servant to every parcel of baggage having a handle, loop or fixture of any kind thereupon, and a duplicate of such check shall be given to the passenger delivering the parcel. Checks to be fixed on parcels.

(7) If such check is refused on demand, the company shall pay to such passenger the sum of $8, to be recovered in a civil action ; and further, no fare or toll shall be collected or received from such passenger, and if he has paid his fare, the same shall be refunded by the conductor in charge of the car, carriage or train. Penalty for refusing to give checks.

(8) Every car which contains a motor or which runs at the head of a train shall be furnished with a gong of at least ten inches in diameter. Cars to have gongs.

(9) The gong on the first or only car forming a train shall be sounded at the distance at least of eighty rods from every place where the railway crosses any highway, and be kept ringing or be sounded at short intervals, until the car has crossed such highway, under a penalty of $8 for every neglect thereof, to be paid by the company, which shall also be liable for all damages sustained by any person by reason of such neglect, one-half of which penalty and damages shall be chargeable to and collected by the company from the motorman having charge of such car and neglecting to sound the gong as aforesaid. To be rung or sounded at every crossing, etc.

(10) Any passenger refusing to pay his fare, may, with his baggage, by the conductor of the train and the servants of the company, be put out of the cars at any usual stopping place, or near any dwelling-house, as the conductor elects, the conductor first stopping the train and using no unnecessary force. Passenger refusing to pay fare may be put out.

(11) No person shall be entitled to carry or to require the company to carry upon their railway, aqua fortis, oil of vitriol, gunpowder, lucifer matches, or any other goods which, in the judgment of the company, are of a dangerous nature ; and if any person sends by the railway such goods without, at the time of so sending the said goods, distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, and otherwise giving notice in writing to the book keeper or other servant of the company with whom the same are As to goods of a dangerous nature.

left, he shall forfeit to the company the sum of $20 for every such offence.

Dangerous goods may be refused.

Hours of labour.

(13) No person shall be compelled to work in the service of the railway for a longer period than ten hours per day or than sixty hours per week or on more than six days per week.

Lien for wages

(14) Every mechanic, labourer, or other person who performs labour for wages upon the construction or maintenance of the railway or the works connected therewith, shall have upon the said railway and other property of the company a lien for such wages not exceeding the wages of thirty days or a balance equal to his wages for thirty days, and the said lien may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcing liens for wages by The Mechanics' and Wage Earners' Lien Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 82.

Rev. Stat. c. 153.

RAILWAY CROSSINGS.

Crossing lines of electric or street railways.

83.—(1) The company may cross the lines of any electric railway company, or of any company to which this Act applies or of any street railway company,

(a) Either by the authority of the Commissioner of Public Works, and upon such terms and conditions as the said Commissioner thinks just and desirable;

(b) Or by the permission of the municipal council of the municipality or municipalities where the crossing is situate, conferred by a by-law passed for that purpose, and subject to the terms and conditions imposed by the said by-law;

Provided always that the company which seeks to cross shall pay all necessary costs and expenses incurred in altering the rails and otherwise making and completing the crossing.

Crossing lines of railway companies.

(2) In case the company desires to cross the line of a railway company within the legislative authority of this Province, not being a railway company to which this Act applies, nor a street railway company, and such railway company objects, the company shall first obtain the sanction of the Commissioner of Public Works as to the proposed crossing and as to the mode of construction thereof, which said sanction the said commissioner is hereby empowered to give, and thereupon the company shall have the right to cross the other railway upon the terms and in the mode sanctioned by the said Commissioner; provided always that the said Commissioner before giving his sanction as aforesaid shall give to the railway company objecting an opportunity to be heard, and shall have full power to impose such terms as to cost of maintenance of the said crossing, and as to all other matters in connection therewith as he may deem proper; provided, however, that the company desiring to cross shall always pay the whole of the costs and expenses of making the proposed crossing, which may be so sanctioned as aforesaid. 58 V. c. 38, s. 83.

ACTIONS FOR INDEMNITY, AND FINES AND PENALTIES AND THEIR PROSECUTION.

Limitation of actions for damages.

84.—(1) All suits for indemnity for any damage or injury sustained by reason of the railway, shall be instituted within twelve months next after the time of such supposed damage sustained, or if there be continuation of damage, then within twelve months next after the doing or committing such damage ceases, and not afterwards; and the defendants may plead the general issue and give this Act and the special Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and may prove that the same was done in pursuance of and by authority of this Act and the special Act.

Fines how recovered.

(2) All fines and forfeitures imposed by this Act or the special Act, or by any by-law, the levying and recovering of which are not particularly herein directed, shall, upon proof of the offence before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the district, county or place where the act occurred, either by the confession of the party, or by the oath or affirmation of any one credible witness, to be administered without fee or reward, be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, by warrant under the hand and seal or hands and seals of such Justice or Justices.

How applicable.

(3) All fines, forfeitures and penalties, the application whereof is not hereinbefore particularly directed, shall be paid into the hands of the treasurer of the company, to be applied to the use thereof, and the overplus of the money so raised, after deducting the penalty and the expenses of the levying and recovering thereof, shall be returned to the owner of the goods so distrained and sold.

When party may be committed.

(4) In case sufficient goods and chattels whereof to levy the penalty and expense are not found, the offender shall be sent to the common gaol for the county or district in which he has been convicted, there to remain without bail, for such term, not exceeding one month, as the Justice or Justices think proper, unless the penalty or forfeiture, and all expenses attending the same, are sooner paid and satisfied. 58 V. c. 38, s. 84.

Punishment for contravention of this Act, etc., not to exempt company from forfeiture.

85. No punishment for a contravention of this Act or of the special Act, by the company, shall exempt the company from the forfeiture of the privileges conferred on them by the said Acts, if by the provisions thereof or by law, the same be forfeited by such contravention. 58 V. c. 38, s. 85.

INSPECTION OF RAILWAYS TO WHICH THIS ACT, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, APPLIES.

Railway Inspectors.

Duties of.

86. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint and authorize any proper person or persons, not exceeding three in number, whose duty it shall be from time to time to inspect all railways constructed or in course of construction, under the authority of this Act, and every person so authorized may, at all reasonable times, upon producing his authority if required, enter upon and examine the said railway and the stations, fences or gates, road crossings, cattle guards, works and buildings, and the engines, cars and carriages belonging thereto. 58 V. c. 38, s. 90.

Railway not to be open till after one month's notice of intention to open the same.

87. No railway or portion of any railway shall be opened for the public conveyance of passengers until one month after notice in writing of the intention to open the same has been given by the company to whom the railway belongs to the Commissioner of Public Works, and until ten days after notice in writing has been given by the company to the Commissioner, of the time when the railway or portion of railway will be, in the opinion of the company, sufficiently completed for the safe conveyance of passengers, and ready for inspection. 58 V. c. 38, s. 91.

Penalty for contravention.

88. If any railway or portion of a railway be opened without such notices, the company to whom such railway belongs shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $200 for every day during which the same continues open, until the said notices have been duly given and have expired. 58 V. c. 38, s. 92.

Commissioner of Public Works, upon report of Inspectors and approval of Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may order postponement of opening of road.

89. If the Railway Inspectors after inspection of a railway, report in writing to the Commissioner of Public Works that, in his or their opinion, the opening of the same would be attended with danger to the public using the same, by reason of the incompleteness of the works or permanent way, or the insufficiency of the establishment for working the railway, together with the grounds of such opinion, the Commissioner, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and so from time to time, as often as the Inspectors after further inspection thereof so report, may order and direct the company to whom the railway belongs to postpone the opening for a period not exceeding one month at any one time, until it appears to the Commissioner, that such opening may take place without danger to the public. 58 V. c. 38, s. 93.

Penalty for opening contrary to the order of the Commissioner.

90. If any such railway, or any portion thereof, is opened contrary to such order or direction of the Commissioner, the company to whom the railway belongs shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $200 for every day during which the same continues open contrary to such order or direction. 58 V. c. 38, s. 94.

91. No such order shall be binding upon any railway company unless there is delivered therewith to the company a copy of the report of the Inspectors on which the order is founded. 58 V. c. 38, s. 95. When only such order to be binding on the Company.

92. When any bridge, culvert, viaduct, tunnel, fence, road, crossing or cattle guard, or any other portion of a railway constructed or in course of construction, or a motor, car or carriage used or for use on a railway, has been condemned on the report of an Inspector by the Commissioner of Public Works, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or when any change or alteration therein or in any part thereof, or the substitution of any new bridge, culvert, viaduct or tunnel, or of any material for the said railway, has been required by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the company to which such railway belongs, or the company using, running or controlling the same, shall, after notice thereof in writing, signed by the said Commissioner, proceed to make good or remedy the defects in the said portions of the railway, or in the motor, car or carriage which have been so condemned, or shall make such change, alteration or substitution hereinbefore referred to as has been required in manner aforesaid by the Commissioner. 58 V. c. 38, s. 96. When any railway bridge condemned by Commissioner and Inspectors, what to be done.

93. If, in the opinion of any such Railway Inspector, it is dangerous for trains or vehicles to pass over any particular railway, or any portion of a railway, until alterations, substitutions or repairs have been made thereon, or that any particular motor, car or carriage should be run or used, the said Inspector may forthwith forbid the running of any train or vehicle over any such railway or portion of railway, or the running or using of any such motor, car or carriage, by delivering or causing to be delivered to the president, managing director, or secretary or superintendent of the company owning, running, or using such railway, or to any officer having the management or control of the running of trains on the railway, a notice in writing to that effect, with his reasons therefor, in which he shall distinctly point out the defects or nature of the danger to be apprehended. 58 V. c. 38, s. 97. When Inspectors may forbid the running of trains, etc.

94. The said Inspector shall forthwith report the same to the Commissioner of Public Works, who, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may either confirm, modify or disallow the act or order of the Inspector, and such confirmation, modification or disallowance shall be duly notified to the railway company affected thereby. 58 V. c. 38, s. 98. Commissioner may modify report of Inspectors.

95. The Commissioner of Public Works may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, limit the number, or times or rate of speed of running, of motors, cars When the Commissioner may regulate speed, etc.

or trains upon the railway or portion of railway, until such alterations or repairs as he may think sufficient have been made, or until such time as he thinks prudent; and the company owning, running or using the railway shall comply forthwith with any such order of the Inspector or of the Commissioner upon notice thereof as aforesaid; and for every act of non-compliance therewith every such railway company shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $2000. 58 V. c. 38, s. 99.

Penalty for non-compliance.

Companies to afford information to the Inspectors.

96. Every railway company and the directors and officers thereof shall afford to such Inspector every information, and full and true explanations, so far as may be in their power or knowledge, on all matters inquired into by any such Inspector, and submit to such Inspector all plans, specifications, drawings and documents relating to the construction or reconstruction, repair or state of repair of the railway or any portion thereof, whether a bridge, culvert or other part. 58 V. c. 38, s. 100.

Inspectors may use telegraph wires; for what purposes.

97. The Inspector shall have the right to use the telegraph or telephone wires and machinery in the offices of or under the control of any such railway company, for the purpose of communicating with any of the officers of the company, or transmitting any order of any such Inspector relating to the railway. 58 V. c. 38, s. 101.

Operators and others to obey orders of Inspectors.

98. The operators or officers employed in the telegraph or telephone offices of or under the control of the company, shall, without unnecessary delay, obey all orders of such Inspector for effecting such communications and transmitting messages for the purpose aforesaid, and any operator or officer refusing or neglecting so to do, shall forfeit for every offence the sum of $40. 58 V. c. 38, s. 102.

Authority of Inspectors, how proved.

99. The authority of any such Inspector shall be sufficiently evidenced by a paper in writing nominating him an Inspector of Railways, or of any railway in particular, signed by the Commissioner of Public Works. 58 V. c. 38, s. 103.

Lieutenant-Governor may order permanent bridges to be substituted for movable b idges.

100. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the report of the Commissioner of Public Works, may authorize or require any railway company to construct fixed and permanent bridges or to substitute such bridges in the place of the swing, draw or movable bridges on the line of such railway, within such time as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council directs; and for every day after the period so fixed during which the company uses such swing, draw or movable bridges, the company shall forfeit and pay to Her Majesty the sum of $200; and it shall not be lawful for a railway company to substitute a swing, draw or other movable bridge in the place or stead of any fixed or permanent bridge already built and constructed, without the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council previously had and obtained. 58 V. c. 38, s. 104.

Certain powers vested in Commissioner, with respect to crossing public highways, on a level.

101. In any case where a railway is constructed across a turnpike road, street or other public highway, on the level, the Commissioner of Public Works, if it appears to him necessary for the public safety, may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, authorize and require the company to whom the railway belongs, within such time as the Commissioner directs, to carry the road, street or highway either over or under the railway, by means of a bridge or arch, instead of crossing the same on the level, or to execute such other works as under the circumstances of the case appear to him the best adapted for removing or diminishing the danger arising from such level crossing; and all the provisions of law at such time applicable to the compulsory taking of land by railway companies, and its valuation and conveyance to them, and to the compensation therefor, shall apply to the case of land required for the construction of any works for effecting the alteration of such level crossing. 58 V. c. 38, s. 105.

Railway may be required to repair any level crossing out of repair.

102.—(1) Where a level crossing on any railway is out of repair, the warden, mayor, reeve or other chief officer of the municipality within whose jurisdiction the crossing is situate, may serve a notice upon the company in the usual manner, requiring the repair to be forthwith made; and if the company does not forthwith make the same, such officer may transmit a copy of the notice so served to the Inspector of Railways; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Inspector, with all possible despatch, to appoint a day when he will examine into the matter; and he shall, by mail, give notice to the warden, mayor, reeve, or other chief officer, and to the company, of the day he so fixes; and upon the day so named he shall examine the crossing: and a certificate under his hand shall be final on the subject so in dispute between the parties; and if the said Inspector determines that any repairs are required, he shall specify the nature thereof in his said certificate, and direct the company to make the same: and the company shall thereupon, with all possible despatch, comply with the requirements of the certificate; and in case of default, the municipality within whose jurisdiction the said crossing is situate, may make such repairs, and may recover all costs, expenses and outlays in the premises by action against the company in any court of competent jurisdiction, as money paid to the company's use.

Inspector's certificate to be conclusive.

Proviso.

(2) Neither this section nor any proceeding had thereunder shall at all affect any liability otherwise attaching to such company in the premises. 58 V. c. 38, s 106.

Inspection not to relieve company from liability.

103. No inspection had under this Act, nor anything in this Act contained or done or ordered, or omitted to be done or ordered, under or by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall relieve or be construed to relieve the company of or from any liability or responsibility resting upon it by law either towards Her Majesty or towards any person, or the wife or husband, parent or child, executor or administrator, or other personal representative of any person for anything done or omitted to be done by the company, or for any wrongful act, neglect or default, misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance of the company, or in any manner or way to lessen such liability or responsibility, or in any way to weaken or diminish the liability or responsibility of such company under the existing laws of the Province. 58 V. c 38, s. 107.

Company to notify orders of Commissioner to its officers, etc.

104. The company shall, as soon as possible after the receipt of any order or notice of the Commissioner of Public Works, give cognizance thereof to each of its officers and servants, in one or more of the ways mentioned in section 139 of this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 108.

What to be deemed sufficient notice thereof.

105. All orders of the said Commissioner shall be considered as made known to the company by a notice thereof signed by him, and delivered to the president, vice-president, managing director, secretary or superintendent of the said company, or at the office of the company. 58 V. c. 38, s. 109.

Notice of accidents to be given to the Commissioner of Public Works.

106. The company shall, as soon as possible, and at least within forty-eight hours after the occurrence upon the railway belonging to the company of any accident attended with serious personal injury to any person using the same, or whereby a bridge, culvert, viaduct or tunnel on or of the railway has been broken or so damaged as to be impassable or unfit for immediate use, give notice thereof to the Commissioner of Public Works; and the company which wilfully omits to give such notice, shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $200 for every day during which the omission to give the same continues. 58 V. c. 38, s. 110.

Returns.

Annual returns to be prepared.

107.—(1) Every company shall annually prepare returns in accordance with the forms contained in Schedule C to this Act, of its capital, traffic and working expenses, and of all information required, as indicated in the said form, to be furnished to the Provincial Secretary; and such returns shall be dated and signed by, and attested upon the oath of the secretary, or some other chief officer of the company, and of the president, or in his absence, of the vice-president or manager of the company.

What period to be included.

(2) Such returns shall be made for the period included from the date to which the then last yearly returns made by the company extended, or from the commencement of the operation of the railway, if no such returns have been previously made, and, in either case, down to the last day of December in the then current year.

(3) A duplicate copy of such returns, dated, signed and attested in manner aforesaid shall be forwarded by such company to the Provincial Secretary within three months after the last day of December in each year. Duplicate for the Minister.

(4) The company shall also, in addition to the information required to be furnished to the Provincial Secretary, as indicated in the said Schedule C, furnish such other information and returns as are, from time to time, required by the Provincial Secretary or as shall hereafter be ordered by the Legislature. Further returns when required

(5) Every company which makes default in forwarding such returns in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for every day during which such default continues, to be enforced in the High Court of Justice at the suit of any municipality through which the railway passes, one-half of which said penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other half to the said municipality. Penalty for non-compliance.

(6) The Provincial Secretary shall lay before the Legislative Assembly, within twenty-one days from the commencement of each Session thereof, the returns made and forwarded to him in pursuance of this section. 58 V. c. 38, s. 111. Returns to be submitted to Legislative Assembly.

108. The company shall, within ten days after the first days of January and July, in each and every year, make to the Commissioner of Public Works, under the oath of the president, secretary or superintendent of the company, a true and particular return of all accidents and casualties (whether to life or property) which have occurred on the railway of the company during the half year next preceding each of the said periods respectively, setting forth— Return of accidents to be made semi-annually.

1. The causes and natures of such accidents and casualties;

2. The points at which they occurred, and whether by night or by day;

3. The full extent thereof, and all particulars of the same; and shall also at the same time return a true copy of the existing by-laws of the company, and of their rules and regulations for the management of the company and of their railway. 58 V. c. 38, s. 112.

109. The Commissioner of Public Works may order and direct, from time to time, the form in which such returns shall be made up, and may order and direct the railway company to make up and deliver to him from time to time, in addition to the said periodical returns, returns of serious accidents occur- Form to be appointed by the Commissioner.

ring in the course of the public traffic upon the railway belonging to the company, whether attended with personal injury or not, in such form and manner as the Commissioner deems necessary and requires for his information with a view to the public safety. 58 V. c. 38, s. 113.

Penalty for neglect.

110. If the returns so verified are not delivered within the respective times herein prescribed, or within fourteen days after the same have been so required by the Commissioner, every company making default shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of $100 for every day during which the company neglects to deliver the same. 58 V. c. 38, s. 114.

Such returns to be privileged communications.

111. All such returns relating to accidents made in pursuance of the provisions of this Act shall be privileged communications, and shall not be evidence in any Court whatsoever except to enforce the penalties for failure or neglect to furnish cash returns as required by the Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 115.

RAILWAY INSPECTION FUND.

Railway Inspection Fund.

112. The company shall, so soon as any portion of its railway thereof is in use, pay to the Treasurer of the Province an annual rate to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, not exceeding $10 per mile of railway constructed and in use; such rate to be paid half-yearly on the first days of January and July in each year, and to form a special fund for the purposes of this Act, to be called "The Electric Railway Inspection Fund." 58 V. c. 38, s. 116.

APPOINTMENT OF RAILWAY CONSTABLES.

Constables may be appointed to act on the line of any railway, and how.

113.—(1) The Justices of the Peace for any county assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, on the application of the board of directors of the company whose railway or any part thereof passes within the local jurisdiction of such Justices of the Peace, or on the application of any clerk or agent of the company thereto authorized by such board, may, in their discretion, appoint any persons recommended to them for that purpose by such board of directors, clerk or agent, to act as constables on and along such railway; and every person so appointed shall take an oath or make a solemn declaration in the form or to the effect following, that is to say:

Oath of office.

"I, A. B., having been appointed a Constable to act upon and along "(here name the Railway), under the provisions of The Electric Railway "Act, do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady "the Queen, in the said office of Constable, without favour or affection, "malice or ill-will, and that I will, to the best of my power, cause the "peace to be kept, and prevent all offences against the peace, and that "while I continue to hold the said office, I will, to the best of my skill "and knowledge, discharge the duties thereof faithfully, according to law: "So help me God."

(2) Such oath or declaration shall be administered by any one such Justice. 58 V. c. 38, s. 117. By whom to be administered.

114. Every constable so appointed, and having taken such oath or made such declaration as aforesaid, shall have full power to act as a constable for the preservation of the peace and for the security of persons and property against felonies and other unlawful acts on such railway, and on any of the works belonging thereto, and on and about any trains, roads, wharfs, quays, landing-places, warehouses, lands and premises belonging to the company, whether the same be in the county, city, district or other local jurisdiction within which he was appointed, or in any other place through which such railway passes, or in which the same terminates, or through or to which any railway passes which is worked or leased by such railway company, and in all places not more than one quarter of a mile distant from the railway; and shall have all the powers, protections and privileges for the apprehending of offenders, as well by night as by day and for doing all things for the prevention, discovery and prosecution of felonies and other offences, and for keeping the peace, possessed by any constable duly appointed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 118. Powers of such constables, and to what localities they shall extend.

115. It shall be lawful for any such constable to take such persons as may be punishable by summary conviction for any offence against the provisions of this Act, or of any of the Acts or by-laws affecting any such railway, before any Justice or Justices appointed for any county, city, district or other local jurisdiction within which such railway passes; and every such Justice shall have authority to deal with all such cases, as though the offence had been committed and the person taken within the limits of his own local jurisdiction. 58 V. c. 38, s. 119. Duties of such constables.

116. Any two Justices of the Peace may dismiss any such constable who may be acting within their several jurisdictions; and the board of directors of the railway company, or any clerk or agent of the company thereto authorized by the board, may dismiss any such constable who may be acting on the railway; and upon such dismissal, all powers, protections and privileges belonging to any such person, by reason of such appointment, shall wholly cease; and no person so dismissed shall be again appointed or act as a constable for such railway without the consent of the authority by which he was dismissed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 120. Dismissal of any such constable.

117. Every such railway company shall cause to be recorded, in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for every county, or other local jurisdiction wherein such railway or railways pass, the name and designation of every constable so appointed at their instance, the date of his appointment, and the authority making it, and also the fact of every dismissal of any such constable, the date thereof and the authority making the same Record of appointment of such constable to be kept.

Fees.

within one week after the date of such appointment or dismissal, as the case may be; and every such Clerk of the Peace shall keep such record in a book in such form as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council directs, and open to public inspection, charging such fee or fees only as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council authorizes. 58 V. c. 38, s. 121.

Punishment of constables guilty of neglect of duty.

118. Every such constable who is guilty of any neglect or breach of duty in his office of constable, shall be liable, on summary conviction thereof within any county, city, district or other local jurisdiction wherein such railway passes, to a penalty of not more than $80, the amount of which penalty may be deducted from any salary due to such offender, if such constable is in receipt of a salary from the railway company, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for not more than two months, in the gaol of such county, city, district or other local jurisdiction. 58 V. c. 38, s. 122.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Tenders must be advertised for.

119. No contracts for works of construction or maintenance of railways, except works of ordinary repair, or of immediate necessity, shall be entered into until after tenders for such works respectively have been invited by public notice therefor, given for at least four weeks in some newspaper published in the place nearest to the work required to be done; but no company shall be compelled to accept any such tender. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (4).

Company not to impede navigation.

120. No such company shall cause any obstruction in or impede the free navigation of any river, stream or canal to or across or along which their railway is carried. 58 V. c. 38, s. 127.

Railways crossing rivers, etc., regulated.

121. If the railway when not passing along the public highway is carried across a navigable river or canal, the company shall leave openings between the abutments or piers of their bridge or viaduct over the same, and shall make the same of such clear height above the surface of the water, or shall construct such draw-bridge or swing-bridge over the channel of the river, or over the whole width of the canal, and shall be subject to such regulations as to the opening of such swing-bridge or draw-bridge, as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time may determine. 58 V. c. 38, s. 128.

Plans to be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

122. It shall not be lawful for any such company to construct any wharf, bridge, pier or other work upon or over a navigable river, lake or canal, or upon the beach or bed or lands covered with the waters thereof, until they have first submitted the plan and proposed site of such work to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and the same has been by him approved; and no deviation from such approved site and plan shall be made without his consent. 58 V. c. 38, s. 129.

123. Nothing contained in the three last preceding sections shall be construed to limit or affect any power expressly given to the company by its special Act of incorporation or any special Act amending the same. 58 V. c. 38, s. 130.

Exception where special powers given by the Special Act.

124. Conveyances of land to the said company, for the purposes of and powers given by this Act, made in the form set forth in Schedule B to this Act or to the like effect, shall be sufficient conveyance to the said company, their successors and assigns of the estate or interest therein mentioned, and sufficient bar of dower respectively of all persons executing the same ; and such conveyances shall be registered in the same manner, and upon such proof of execution as is required under the registry laws of Ontario ; and no registrar shall be entitled to demand more than seventy-five cents for registering the same, including all entries and certificates thereof, and the certificates indorsed on the duplicates thereof. 58 V. c. 38, s. 89.

Conveyances of land to company.

125. If the construction of the railway is not commenced and ten per cent. on the amount of the capital is not expended thereon, within three years after the passing of the special Act, or if the railway is not finished and put in operation in five years from the passing of such special Act, the corporate existence and powers of the company as to any part of the railway then uncompleted shall cease. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (5).

Ten per cent. of capital to be paid within 3 and railway to be running within 5 years from passing of Special Act.

126. After the opening of the railway or any part thereof to the public, and within the first fifteen days after the opening of each Session of the Legislature, an account shall be annually transmitted to the Provincial Secretary containing a detailed and particular account, attested upon oath of the president, or in his absence of the vice-president, of the moneys received and expended by the company, and a classified statement of the passengers and goods transported by them, with an attested copy of the last annual statement. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (6).

Account to be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary.

127. No further provisions which the Legislature may hereafter make with regard to the form or details of such account, or the mode of attesting or rendering the same, shall be deemed an infringement of the privileges hereby granted to the company. 58 V. c. 38. s. 86 (7).

Variation in form or details may be made.

128. The Legislature may at any time annul or dissolve any corporation formed under this Act, but such dissolution shall not take away or impair any remedy given against any such corporation, its shareholders, officers or servants, for any liability which had been previously incurred. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (8).

Corporations formed under this Act, may be dissolved.

Provision as to the carriage of Her Majesty's mail, etc.

129.—(1) Her Majesty's Mail, Her Majesty's Naval or Military Forces or Militia, and all artillery, ammunition, provisions or other stores for their use, and all policemen, constables and others travelling on Her Majesty's service, shall at all times, when thereunto required by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, the Commander of the Forces, or any person having the superintendence or command of any Police Force, and with the whole resources of the company if required, be carried on the railway, on such terms and conditions, and under such regulations as may be made by the Governor-General in Council or Lieutenant-Governor in Council, as the case requires.

Government to have exclusive use of telegraph.

(2) The Governor-General or Lieutenant-Governor as the case may be, or any person thereunto authorized by them, may require the company to place any electric telegraph, and the apparatus and operators they may have, at the exclusive use of the Government, receiving thereafter reasonable compensation for such service.

Further enactments may be made.

(3) Any further enactments which the Parliament of Canada or the Legislature of this Province may make for the carriage of the mail or Her Majesty's Forces, and other persons and articles as aforesaid, or the tolls therefor, or in any way respecting the use of any electric telegraph or other service to be rendered to the Government, shall not be deemed an infringement of the privileges intended to be conferred by this Act or the special Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (1-3).

Powers of High Court as to controlling companies relieving against agreement.

130. If the company fails or neglects to keep, observe, perform or comply with any of the provisions of this Act, in the observance or enforcement of which any shareholder or the residents of the municipality are interested, then, in addition to all other remedies by law enforceable against the company, the council of any municipality through which any part of the railway passes may, in the name of the municipal corporation, bring an action in the High Court of Justice against the company, and all other necessary parties, to compel the keeping, observing, performing of, and complying with such provisions; and the Court shall have full power and jurisdiction in the premises, and to set aside or otherwise relieve against unreasonable agreements made in violation of all or any of the provisions of this Act, and to enforce, by injunction or otherwise, the due observance, performance and fulfilment by the company and its officers and other persons of all provisions of this Act, in the observance or enforcement of which any shareholder or the residents of the municipality are interested, and in particular those relating to tolls, to capital, to president and directors, to dividends, to returns, and to the agreements mentioned in sections 13, 14 and 15 of this Act. 58 V. c. 38, s. 88.

When a railway passes over a swing bridge, etc., train to stop for three minutes.

131. Where a railway passes a draw or swing bridge over a navigable river, canal or stream, which is subject to be opened for the purposes of navigation, the motor, car, carriage or train shall in every case be stopped at least three minutes, to ascertain from the bridge-tender that the bridge is closed and in perfect order for passing, and in default of so stopping during the full period of three minutes the said railway company shall be subject to a fine or penalty of four hundred dollars. 58 V. c. 38, s. 131.

Further precautions at level crossings.

132. The railway company shall station an officer at every point on their line crossed on a level by any other railway, and no motor, car or carriage shall proceed over such crossing until signal has been made to the conductor thereof that the way is clear. 58 V. c. 38, s. 132.

Further precautions when one railway crosses another on a level;

133. Every motor, car or carriage on the railway, shall, before it crosses the track of any other railway on a level, be stopped for at least the space of one minute. 58 V. c. 38, s. 133.

Or runs through a city, town, etc.

134. No motor, car or carriage shall pass in or through a thickly peopled portion of a city, town or village at a speed greater than ten miles per hour, unless the track is properly fenced or is not running along the public highway. 58 V. c. 38, s. 134.

Foot passengers to use foot-bridge, if provided for that purpose at level crossings.

135. If the Commissioner of Public Works orders a railway company to erect at or near or in lieu of any level crossing of a turnpike road, or other public highway, a foot-bridge or foot-bridges over their railway, for the purpose of enabling persons passing on foot along such turnpike road or public highway to cross the railway by means of such bridge or bridges, then, from and after the completion of such foot-bridge or foot-bridges so required to be erected, and while the company keeps the same in good and sufficient repair, such level crossing shall not be used by foot passengers on the said turnpike road or public highway, except during the time when the same is used for the passage of carriages, carts, horses or cattle along the said road. 58 V. c. 38, s. 135.

Running railway on Lord's Day.

136.—(1) It shall not be lawful for any company to which this Act applies to operate its railway on the Lord's Day.

Transporting milk.

(2) Provided that any company operating a railway extending from any city for a distance of more than one and a half miles, may run such cars or trains into the city before the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon and such cars or trains out of the city after the hour of five o'clock in the afternoon on the Lord's Day as may be necessary for the transportation of milk exclusively, but no freight of any other kind and no passengers shall be carried upon such car or train, nor shall it be lawful for the company to collect any fare or tolls for the transportation of any passengers, upon the Lord's Day nor for the transportation of any freight except for the transportation of milk as aforesaid. Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the running of empty cars or trains either from the car sheds to any point on the line of railway for the purpose of receiving the milk for transportation as aforesaid or back to the car sheds after the delivery of the same.

Penalty.

(3) For every train or car run or operated in violation of this section the company shall forfeit and pay the sum of $400, to be recovered by action in any County Court by any person suing for the same, and such action may be brought before a County Court having jurisdiction in the place from which such train or car started, or through or at which it passed or stopped in the course of such unlawful employment.

Application of penalties.

(4) All moneys recovered under the provisions of this section shall be appropriated as follows: One moiety thereof to the plaintiff, and the other moiety to the local municipality from which the train or car started.

Liability of conductor.

(5) The conductor or other person in charge of any train or car run or operated in violation of the provisions of this section shall be liable to the penalties prescribed by section 9 of The Act to prevent the Profanation of the Lord's Day, and the said penalties shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the said section, and shall be applied as hereinbefore directed in the case of other penalties. 58 V. c. 38, s. 87.

Rev. Stat. c. 246.

Companies to make by-laws for regulation of conductors and other officers, etc.

137. The company shall make such by-laws, rules and regulations, to be observed by the conductors, motor men, and other officers and servants of the company, and by all other companies and persons using the railway of the company, and such regulations with regard to the construction of the motor cars, or carriages and other vehicles, to be used in the trains on the railway of the company, as are requisite for ensuring the perfect carrying into effect of the provisions of this Act and the orders and regulations of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 58 V. c. 38, s. 123.

Company may impose penalties for contravention of by-laws.

138. The company may, by a by-law, impose upon any officer, servant, or person, who, before the contravention of such by-law has had notice thereof, and is employed by the company, a forfeiture to the company of not more than thirty days' pay of such officer or servant, for any contravention of such by-law, and may retain any such forfeiture out of the salary or wages of the offender. 58 V. c. 38, s. 124.

How notice of by-laws or orders may be proved.

139. The notice of the by-law or of any order or notice of the Commissioner of Public Works may be proved by proving the delivery of a copy thereof to the officer, servant or person, or that he signed a copy thereof, or that a copy thereof was posted in some place where his work or his duties, or some of them, were to be performed. 58 V. c. 38, s. 125.

When such proof, etc., to be a defence for the Company.

140. Such proof, with evidence of the contravention, shall be a defence to the company in any action for the recovery from it of the amount so retained. 58 V. c. 38, s. 126.

The company may pay penalty and deduct from wages.

141. The company may in all cases under this Act pay the amount of any penalty and costs imposed upon an officer, servant or person in the employ of the company, and recover the same from the offender or deduct it from his salary or pay. 58 V. c. 38, s. 136.

How penalties recovered and applied.

142. All penalties incurred under any of the sections of this Act may be recovered in the name of Her Majesty, by Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ontario, in any court having competent jurisdiction thereover; and shall, unless otherwise herein expressly provided, be paid to the Treasurer of the Province to the credit of "The Railway Inspection Fund." 58 V. c. 38, s. 137.

Saving of Her Majesty's rights, etc.

143. Nothing herein contained shall affect in any manner the rights of Her Majesty, or of any person, or of any body politic, corporate or collegiate, such only excepted as are herein mentioned. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (9).

Amending or altering Act.

144. No amendment or alteration in this Act shall be held to be an infringement of the rights of any company authorized to construct a railway by any Act with which this Act is or may be incorporated. 58 V. c. 38, s. 86 (10).

CHAPTER 210.

An Act Respecting Subsidies to Railways and to Encourage the Manufacture of Railway Steel and Iron in the Province.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

Interpretation "Railway."

1—(1) The word "railway" in this Act shall mean a railway operated by steam or other motive power.

"Railway steel or iron."

(2) The expression "railway steel or iron" shall include rails, girders, bridges and all members or parts thereof, and such other manufactures of steel or iron as are requisite and suitable for the construction of the permanent way. 60 V. c. 41, s. 1 (2).

In lieu of bonus an equivalent in railway steel and iron may be given.

(3) Where the Legislature has hitherto authorized or hereafter authorizes the payment of money to any railway company by way of subsidy, there may be delivered to the company, at the discretion of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, as an equivalent for and in lieu of the bonus (wholly where so provided by the terms of the subsidy or agreed to by the company, and in other cases in part not exceeding fifty per cent. of such subsidy), railway steel or iron manufactured in Ontario from ore of which at least two-thirds has been obtained from Ontario mines; and Provincial scrip or certificates in payment of the steel or iron so delivered may be issued payable to the manufacturer by whom the same has been delivered in lieu of the railway company. 60 V. c. 41, s. 1 (1).

Tenders to be invited.

2. Tenders shall be invited by public advertisement for supplies of railway steel or iron of such dimensions, weight and quality, and to be delivered at such times and places and upon such conditions as are specified and as have been determined on by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 60 V. c. 41, s. 2.

Where difference between company and manufacturer.

3. Where the tenders are unsatisfactory, or where there is but one tender and the price at which the steel or iron is to be delivered to the railway company is matter of difference between the railway company and the manufacturer, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall determine the same. 60 V. c. 41, s. 3.

Property in the steel or iron to remain in the Province until fixed as part of permanent way.

4. Unless and until properly applied and fixed as part of the permanent way, such steel or iron, though delivered to the railway company, shall remain the property of the Province, and if not so applied and fixed to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council within the period limited by the Order in Council, the Province may at any time after the expiration of that period enter, and resume possession of such steel or iron, not then so applied and fixed, and may make other disposition of the same. 60 V. c. 41, s. 4.

[As to the power of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to retain a portion of a subsidy to secure the payment of claims for wages of persons employed in connection with a railway. See Cap. 155, s. 5]

[For Acts respecting the granting of Aid to Railways, see 52 V. c. 35; 53 V. c. 46; 54 V. c. 39; 55 V. c. 41; 56 V. c. 34; 57 V. c. 49; 58 V. c. 36; 58 V. c. 37; 59 V. c. 48; 60 V. c. 40.]

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Interpretation. "Society."

1. Unless there is something in the context requiring a different construction, the word "society" in this Act shall mean a company, society, association or organization incorporated under this Act, or some former Act consolidated in this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, passim.

Power to form societies for certain purposes.

2. Any five or more persons, of full age, may become incorporated under this Act for any benevolent or provident purpose, or for any other purpose, not illegal, save and except the purpose of trade or business and any purpose provided for by any of the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act.

Restrictions as to insurance.

Provided that no society, incorporated after the tenth day of March, 1890, shall have authority to undertake or effect for valuable consideration, or to agree or offer so to undertake or effect any contract of insurance, indemnity or guarantee whatsoever, with the members of the corporation or with others, or any contract within the intent of The Ontario Insurance Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 203.

Proviso.

Provided also that no such society, incorporated on or before the said tenth day of March, 1890, and not authorized by its original certificate or declaration of incorporation to undertake such contracts as aforesaid, shall by virtue of section 20 of this Act or otherwise have authority to change the purposes of the corporation so as to include the undertaking of such contracts as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 1; 53 V. c. 39, s. 9. See also Cap. 203, secs. 30-32.

Mode of incorporation.

3. The proceedings to obtain incorporation shall be as follows:

1. Such persons shall make and sign a declaration in writing setting forth the intended corporate name of the society, the purpose of the society, the names of those who are to be the first trustees or managing officers, the mode in which their successors are to be appointed, and such other particulars and provisions as the society may think fit, provided that the said particulars and provisions are not contrary to law;

2. The declaration may be made and signed in duplicate, or in as many parts as may be required. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 2 (1-2).

3. The declaration may be produced to a Judge of the High Court or to a Judge or Junior or Deputy-Judge of a County Court or to a Stipendiary Magistrate, and if the same appears to him to be in conformity with this Act, and on the production of such evidence as shall establish to his satisfaction that the proposed name of the society is not the name of any other known incorporated or unincorporated company or society, or a name liable to be unfairly confounded therewith, or a name otherwise on public grounds objectionable, he shall indorse thereon a certificate to that effect. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 2 (3); 51 V. c. 26, s. 1.

4. One of the original parts of the declaration shall be filed in the office of either the Provincial Registrar, or the Clerk of the Peace for the county or union of counties in which the society is to hold its annual and general meetings;

5. When these directions have been complied with, the persons who signed the declaration shall thereby become, and they, their associates and successors, shall thenceforward be a body corporate and politic and shall have the powers, rights and immunities vested by law in such bodies. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 2 (4-5).

Societies may establish branches.

4. The society may from time to time have or establish and maintain any number of branches thereof, to promote the objects of the society. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 3.

Appointment of officers, etc.

5. The society may from time to time appoint trustees a treasurer, a secretary and other officers, for conducting its affairs, and for the discipline and management of the society; and may from time to time make by-laws, rules or regulations for the government and for conducting the affairs of the society, or of any branches thereof; and may from time to time alter or rescind such by-laws, rules or regulations. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 4.

How societies existing on 24th March, 1874, may become incorporated hereunder.

6. In case a society having been established before the 24th day of March, 1874 and having been in existence at the said date desires to be incorporated under this Act, such society may become incorporated in manner following:

1. The trustees or office bearers for the time being shall make, sign and file, in manner aforesaid, a declaration stating the desire of the society to become incorporated according to the provisions of this Act, and stating also the intended corporate name of the society, and the purpose of the society;

2. There shall be annexed to and filed with such declaration a copy of the constitution and by-laws of the society, or by which the society is governed; and

3. A certificate by the Judge as aforesaid, that the said documents appear to him to be in conformity with this section; and thereupon the society shall be a body corporate and politic as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 5.

How branches of incorporated societies may become incorporated.

7. Any branch of an unincorporated society of the character aforesaid may become incorporated in manner following:

1. The trustees or office bearers for the time being of the branch shall make, sign and file, in manner aforesaid, a declaration of the desire of the branch to become incorporated according to the provisions of this Act, stating in the declaration the name of the branch;

2. There shall be filed with the declaration a copy of the constitution and by-laws (if any) of the branch; and in case the branch has no constitution or by-laws, an affidavit of the fact, made by one or more of the said trustees or office-bearers shall be filed with the declaration; and

3. A certificate by the Judge as aforesaid shall also be filed that the said documents appear to him to be in conformity with this section of this Act; and thereupon the said branch shall become and be a body corporate and politic as aforesaid, R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 6.

How branches of future incorporated societies become incorporated.

8. Any branch of a society may become incorporated in like manner and by like proceedings, with the consent of the society to which the branch belongs, such consent to be given at a general meeting of the society called in manner provided by the constitution and by-laws of the society, and upon proof of such consent having been given in manner aforesaid being filed with the other documents aforesaid, before the Judge grants his certificate as provided by the preceding sections. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 7.

Property of existing society upon being incorporated under this Act.

9. In case of the incorporation of a society, or branch of a society, established before and in existence on the 24th day of March, 1874, all real estate and other property held at the time of such incorporation in trust for the said society or branch shall, on such incorporation going into effect, become and be invested in the incorporated society or branch, without any deed, conveyance or assurance, and shall be held by the incorporated society or branch for the uses and purposes, and upon the trusts, and subject to the conditions and incumbrances upon, for, and subject to which the same were theretofore held by the trustees. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 8.

Different societies or branches may unite.

10. Any two or more societies or branches of a society may unite and form one society or branch, for the purpose of erecting buildings for the use of the societies or branches, and, if they so desire, for other purposes, on such terms as may be agreed upon, by authority of a resolution assented to by a majority of the members of each of the said societies or branches proposed to be united: provided that every such resolution is passed at a general meeting of each of the societies or branches concerned in such union, to be specially called for that purpose. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 9.

Liability of persons under age.

11. A person under the age of 21 years, elected or admitted as a member of a society, or appointed to any office therein, shall be liable to the payment of fees and otherwise, under the rules of the society, as if he were of full age. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 10.

Freedom from claims of creditors.

12. When under the rules of a society money becomes payable to, or for the use or benefit of, a member thereof, such money shall be free from all claims by the creditors of such member; and when, on the death of a member of a society, any sum of money becomes payable under the rules of the society, the same shall be paid by the treasurer or other officer of the society to the person or persons entitled under the rules thereof, or shall be applied by the society as may be provided by such rules; and such money shall be, to the extent of $2,000, free from all claims by the personal representative or creditors of the deceased; and in case any sum is paid in good faith to the person who appears to the treasurer or other officer to be entitled to receive the same, or is applied in good faith for the purposes by the rules provided, no action shall be brought against the treasurer, or other officer or the society in respect thereof; but nevertheless if it subsequently appears that the money has been paid to the wrong person, the person entitled thereto may recover the amount with interest from the person who has wrongfully received it. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 11.

Payment in good faith to wrong person.

Powers of societies as to holding lands.

13.—(1) No society or branch incorporated under this Act shall be entitled to acquire or hold, as purchasers or otherwise, lands or tenements, or any interests therein, exceeding in the whole at any one time the annual value of $5,000, nor shall the society or branch be entitled to purchase land except for the actual use and occupation of the society for the purposes of the society. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 12.

Powers of educational societies as to holding lands.

(2) In the case of a society or branch having for its chief object the establishing of a seminary or institution for educational purposes, the value of any building or buildings acquired or erected on such land and the income from such building or buildings shall not be considered in estimating such annual value. 58 V. c. 39, s. 1.

Powers as to taking and retaining lands by gift, devise or bequest.

14. A society or branch may from time to time take by gift, devise or bequest, lands or tenements, or any interests therein, provided such gift, devise or bequest is made at least six months before the death of the person making the same ; but the society or branch shall at no time take, by gift, devise or bequest, lands or tenements or any interests therein, the annual value of which, together with that of all other lands and tenements theretofore acquired by like means, and then held by the society or branch, exceeds in the whole $1,000 ; nor shall the society or branch at any time take, by gift, devise or bequest, lands, tenements or hereditaments the annual value of which, together with all the other real estate of the society or branch, exceeds $5,000 ; and no lands or tenements acquired by gift, devise or bequest, within the limits aforesaid, but not required for the actual use or occupation of the society or branch, shall be held by the society or branch for a longer period than seven years after the acquisition thereof, and within such period the same shall be absolutely disposed of by the society or branch ; and the society or branch shall have power within such period, in the name of the society or branch, to grant and convey the said lands or tenements to any purchaser, so that the society or branch no longer retains any interest therein ; and the proceeds on such disposition shall be invested in public securities, municipal debentures, or other approved securities, not including mortgages on land, for the use of the society or branch : and any lands, tenements or interests therein, required by this Act to be sold and disposed of by the society or branch but which have not, within the said period, been so disposed of, shall revert to the person from whom the same were acquired, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 13.

Power to sell, mortgage, etc., lands.

15. A society may, in pursuance of a resolution assented to by a majority of the members present at a general meeting specially called for that purpose, of which public notice shall be given in the manner provided by the by-laws, mortgage, sell, exchange or lease any lands of the society. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 14.

Copy of declaration of incorporation to be evidence.

16. A copy of the declaration, under sections 3, 6 or 7 of this Act, certified by the Provincial Registrar, or his deputy, or by the Clerk of the Peace, as the case may be, to be a true copy, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts alleged in the declaration, and of the due making, signing and filing of the declaration, as mentioned in the certificate; and his certificate of the filing of the copy of the constitution and by-laws, under section 6 or 7, shall be like evidence of such filing; and a copy of the declaration, with a certificate of the Provincial Registrar, or his deputy, or Clerk of the Peace, shewing the particulars necessary for creating a corporation under this Act, shall be prima facie evidence that the society or branch is an incorporated society or branch under this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 15.

Defects in form.

17. No defect of form in the certificate of the Judge, or in the proceedings to which the certificate of the Judge relates, shall affect the validity of the incorporation. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 16.

Certificate of incorporation its effect as evidence.

18.—(1) To facilitate the proof of a society or branch being an incorporated society or branch under this Act, and to prevent any future question as to the same, the society or branch, after the same has become incorporated as aforesaid, shall be entitled (if the society or branch thinks fit) to receive a certificate of such incorporation in manner hereinafter mentioned; and the certificate so obtained shall be final and conclusive evidence of the society or branch being an incorporation under this Act, unless the certificate, or the order or decision of the Court granting or authorizing the same, is reversed or set aside by some direct proceeding taken for the purpose; and the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining the certificate may be as follows:

Application for certificate

(a) The application for the certificate may be made by the society or branch to the High Court or a Judge thereof, or to the County Court of the county in which the declaration aforesaid is filed, or to a Judge thereof.

Evidence thereon.

(b) The application shall be supported by satisfactory evidence that the society or branch is a society or branch within the true intent and meaning of this Act; that the proceedings necessary for incorporation have been duly taken; that four weeks' notice of the intention to apply for a certificate has been given to the Attorney-General of Ontario; and that a like notice has been published for four weeks in the Ontario Gazette; and if the Court or Judge is not satisfied with the evidence offered of these particulars in the first instance, the Court or Judge, instead of dismissing the application, may give an opportunity or opportunities for producing further evidence; and if there is any defect in the proceedings taken to obtain incorporation, the Court or Judge may permit the same to be supplied; and the Court or Judge may, in all cases, require from time to time any further publication to take place, and any other notice to be mailed, served or given, which the Court or Judge deems necessary.

Issue of certificate.

(c) When the Court or Judge is satisfied that the society or branch is entitled to the certificate, the certificate may be issued by the registrar or clerk in duplicate (under his hand and the seal of the Court) or in as many parts as may be required; and the same shall name the day from and at which the incorporation was complete and effectual; and any person shall thereafter be entitled to receive a certificate to the same effect, sealed and signed as aforesaid, or a counterpart of the certificate first issued, sealed and signed as aforesaid; which certificate or counterpart thereof shall be final and conclusive, as hereinbefore mentioned.

Costs and practice. Rev.Stat.c.51.

2. The Judges authorized to make rules under The Judicature Act shall have the same power of regulating the practice and costs in such cases as in other cases; and subject to this power, the costs and fees shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in like cases within the jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 17.

Rev. Stat. c. 203.

3. This section shall not apply to any friendly society which is within the intent of The Ontario Insurance Act, 55 V. c. 39, s. 63, part.

Society to furnish statement of real property to the Legislature.

19. It shall be the duty of the society, when thereunto required by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or by the Legislative Assembly, to furnish a statement of the real property, and of the estates therein held by the society, and to give such details thereof as the Lieutenant-Governor or the Legislative Assembly may from time to time require. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 18.

Change of name, etc., of society. Rev. Stat. c. 203.

20.—(1) Where a society, not being an insurance corporation within the meaning of The Ontario Insurance Act, is desirous of changing its name, or of changing any of the purposes contained in the original certificate or declaration of incorporation, a Judge of the High Court or a Judge or Junior or Deputy Judge of a County Court of the county, or a Stipendiary Magistrate of the district where the society holds its annual meetings, upon being satisfied that the change desired is not for an improper purpose and is not otherwise objectionable, may make an order reciting the certificate and declaration of incorporation and making the change desired. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 19 (1); 55 V. c. 39, s. 24 (3), part.

Order to be filed.

(2) Such order shall be filed in the office in which the certificate and declaration were filed, and a copy of the order, certified by the Provincial Registrar or his deputy, or by the Clerk of the Peace, as the case may be, to be a true copy of the order filed in the office of the Registrar or Clerk, shall be prima facie evidence of the change having been made as therein set forth.

Rights and obligations of society not affected.

(3) No change under the next preceding two sub-sections shall affect the rights or obligations of the society, and all actions or proceedings commenced by or against the society prior to the change of name may be proceeded with by or against the society under its former name. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 19 (2-3).

Forfeiture for non-user of corporate powers.

21. If a society does not go into actual operation within two years after incorporation, or, for two consecutive years, does not use its corporate powers for the purpose or for the chief purpose set forth in the declaration required by section 6 of this Act, such non-user shall ipso facto work a forfeiture of the corporate powers, except so far as is necessary for winding up the corporation; and, in any action or proceeding where such non-user is alleged, proof of user shall lie upon the corporation. 55 V. c. 39, s. 63, part.

Unlawful use of corporate powers.

22.—(1) If after a reasonable time has been given to a society to be heard, it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that the society is using its corporate powers for any fraudulent or other unlawful purpose, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to suspend for a limited period, or to revoke the said corporate powers; and on any revocation

Suspension or revocation of powers.

the corporate powers shall ipso facto absolutely cease and determine, except for the sole purpose of winding up the affairs of the society; and the High Court upon the petition of the Attorney-General or of any person interested, may by judgment or order limit the time within which the society shall settle and close its accounts, and may for this specific purpose, or for the purpose of liquidation generally, appoint a receiver.

Public notice.

(2) Notice of any suspension or revocation of corporate powers as aforesaid shall be given in the Ontario Gazette, and in such public newspapers as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall determine. 53 V. c. 39, s. 10.

Who may take affidavits and depositions under Sec. 22.

23. For the purposes of the next preceding section affidavits and depositions may be taken and made before any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or Commissioner for taking affidavits. 53 V. c. 39, s. 12; 55 V. c. 39, s. 63, part.

Forms.

24. In case the Lieutenant-Governor in Council or the Board of County Judges adopt or approve of any forms for any of the proceedings under this Act, and the order adopting or approving the same is, with the forms, printed in the Ontario Gazette, the same forms shall be as effectual for the purposes mentioned in this Act, or in the Order in Council or order of such Board of County Judges as if the said forms had been inserted in this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 172, s. 20.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Ontario Immigration Aid Societies Act." R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. Where the words following occur in this Act, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

Minister of Agriculture.

1. "Minister of Agriculture" and "Minister" shall include any deputy or officer authorized to perform the duty, or exercise the power in question;

"Immigration." "Immigrant."

2. "Immigration" or "Immigrant," shall include "Emigration" or "Emigrant," when it refers to the act of leaving or to a person about to leave Europe or elsewhere for Ontario;

"Society."

3. "Society" shall mean the Ontario Immigration Aid Society which the context indicates or refers to. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 2.

Immigration Districts, agents and officer.

3. The Minister of Agriculture shall from time to time divide the Province of Ontario into immigration districts, either by counties, ridings or municipalities, as seems to him most expedient; and in each of such districts there shall be an immigration office and an immigration agent; and such division, and any future alteration thereof, shall be notified in the Ontario Gazette as the immigration district of the place where the immigration office is kept. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 3.

Formation of such societies and their purpose.

4. In each of such districts an Immigration Aid Society or Societies may be formed and constituted under this Act, for the purpose of assisting immigrants to reach Ontario from Europe and elsewhere; and of obtaining employment for them on their arrival in the Province; and of enabling persons in Ontario in want of labourers, artizans or servants to obtain them by such immigration; every such society shall consist of not less than twenty-five persons whether resident or not in the immigration district, agreeing to form such society and to subscribe among them, as the capital of the society, not less than $500, in fifty shares of $10 each, one-fourth of which, at least, shall be paid on subscribing the declaration of membership hereinafter mentioned, into the hands of a person agreed upon as their secretary-treasurer, by the persons (not being less than twenty-five) present at the meeting at which it is agreed to form such society. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 4.

Subscription and capital.

Formalities to be complied with for the purpose of such formation.

5. The persons agreeing to form such society shall elect or agree upon a president, secretary-treasurer and board of management, composed of not less than five members, including the officers above mentioned; and shall adopt a constitution and by-laws; and shall respectively sign a declaration to the effect following:

Declaration.

"We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together as 'The Immigration Aid Society, No.—, of the Ontario Immigration District of——,' and we hereby bind ourselves to observe and obey all the requirements of The Ontario Immigration Aid Societies Act, and to pay respectively into the hands of the secretary-treasurer the amount of stock set opposite our respective names, one-fourth on subscribing this declaration and the remaining three-fourths by the instalments and in the manner hereinafter provided; and we further bind ourselves to observe and to obey the constitution and by-laws of the Society, which are as follows:"

Constitution and rules of society.

Then shall follow the constitution and by-laws, which shall declare the objects of the society to be those mentioned in section 4, and such other special objects (if any) as it may be thought necessary to enumerate, and shall contain the names of the first president, secretary-treasurer and members of the board of management; the place where the society shall have its office and hold its meetings, the manner in which the remainder of the stock of the society shall be paid up; the annual subscription to be paid by members, if such subscription is deemed advisable; the admission of new members; the duties and powers of the board of management and officers; the period for which they shall retain office; the regular meetings of the society; the mode of calling and holding special meetings; the number required for a quorum, and mode of voting thereat; the manner of filling vacancies in the board of management, or of the performance of their duties, in their absence, by others; the period for which the society shall continue; the mode of dividing its assets or profits from time to time during such period; and generally such provisions as may be advisable or expedient for the well working of the society, and the attainment of the objects for which it is formed; then shall follow the signatures of members, and in columns opposite thereto the amount of stock for which they respectively subscribe, and the amounts paid up; the declaration shall then be dated and attested by the signatures of the president and secretary-treasurer. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 5.

Signatures of members.

Attestation.

6. The declaration shall be made in duplicate, and the duplicates shall be delivered or sent by the secretary-treasurer, through the agent for the district, to the Minister of Agriculture, who shall cause them to be compared with this Act, and if the declaration is not found conformable thereto, the Minister shall return the duplicates to the secretary-treasurer, informing him of the fact and of the objection to which the declaration is liable; but if it is found to be so conformable, he shall certify the fact under his hand and seal on both duplicates, and shall retain and keep one of them in his office, and shall return the other to the secretary-treasurer. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 6.

Duplicates of declaration to be sent to the Minister for approval and certificate.

7. If there is no other immigration aid society in the district, the Minister shall treat the society as Number One, and shall fill the blank left in the declaration for that purpose with that number; but if there be another or others, he shall give each a number in the order in which he certifies the declarations, and shall fill the blank in each with its proper number, according to such order. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 7.

Minister to number societies in order.

8. As soon as the declaration is approved and certified as aforesaid, the society shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name taken in the declaration, including the number given by the Minister, and shall have all the powers, rights and immunities assigned to corporations by The Ontario Companies Act, including the right to have a corporate seal if the society thinks fit; but it shall not be necessary that the corporate seal (if the society has one) be affixed to any document in order to make it the act or deed of the corporation, but it shall be sufficient for that purpose that the document be signed by the secretary-treasurer and countersigned by the president of the society as such, or by the person or persons acting pro tempore in their stead, nor shall the authority or capacity of any person signing the same or his signature be called in question by any but the corporation, and if not so questioned it shall be admitted in evidence without proof; and any document purporting to be the duplicate copy of the declaration signed and sealed by the Minister, shall be admitted as evidence of the facts stated therein, without proof of his signature, unless it is called in question by himself or by his authority. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 8.

On approval, Society to become a corporation.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

Seal.

Execution of documents.

Evidence: duplicate.

Powers of society to lend and borrow money.

9. The society shall have power to enter into agreements and contracts, either with members of their corporation or with others, for any purpose relating to immigration, and to lend and to borrow money, and to take or give security for the same and to become a party to any promissory note, bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument or security, in the manner provided as to other documents by section 8; and may receive assistance in money or otherwise from municipal or other corporations, or from any institution, society or person, towards enabling them to attain the objects of this Act, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, not inconsistent with this Act or with law; but the total amount of the liabilities of the society shall never exceed the amount of its capital subscribed, but not paid up. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 9.

Proviso; total liability limited.

Society may receive applications for the employment of immigrants, and act upon them.

10. The society may receive applications from persons desiring to obtain artizans, workmen, servants or labourers from the United Kingdom, or from any part of Europe or elsewhere, and may enter into any lawful contracts with such persons, including the obligation on the part of such persons to employ the immigrants referred to on their arrival in Ontario, in any manner, at any rate of wages, and for any period, under such penalties as damages for non-performance as may be stipulated in such contract, and may receive in advance all or any part of the money to be expended by the society, or take security for the repayment of all or any part thereof to the society by instalments, or in one sum, as may be agreed upon. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 10.

Applications to be forwarded to district agent, with report of society's action thereon.

11. The secretary-treasurer shall forthwith transmit every such application, with the requisite information and details, to the immigration agent of the district, with the amount the society has undertaken to advance towards defraying the expenses to be incurred in complying with the application, in paying or partly paying the cost of the ocean passage and other travelling charges of the immigrants required, from their home in Europe to the place in Ontario where they are required. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 11.

Applications to be transmitted to agents in Europe with funds advanced; their duties.

12. The immigration agent shall forthwith transmit every such application, and the money received by reason thereof, to the emigration agent or commissioner of the Province of Ontario in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, who shall thereupon take the necessary measures for procuring and forwarding to the society such immigrant or immigrants as may be required by the application; and the immigration agent shall, from time to time, furnish the Minister of Agriculture with such information and details respecting such application as the said Minister may require. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 12.

Agents in Europe to take security from emigrants for repayment of advances.

13. If it is the intention of the society or of the applicant that the whole or part of the money advanced towards defraying the expenses of emigration shall be repaid by the immigrant, either in one sum or in instalments, it shall be the duty of the emigration agent or commissioner of the Province, in Europe, making the arrangements for the passage of the intending emigrant to Canada, to take from the emigrant an undertaking binding him to repay such money to the society in Ontario in one sum or by instalments, at certain periods, and with or without interest, according to the instructions given by the secretary-treasurer, and he shall witness the execution of such instrument; and if any sum of money has been advanced to the emigrant for like purposes by any society, or institution, or individual in the United Kingdom, such sum may, with the consent of such society, institution or individual, be included in the amount for which such instrument is given, and may be recovered by the Ontario society aforesaid, and being so recovered shall be paid over, without charge, to the society, institution or individual by whom it was advanced, to whom, as well as to the Ontario society, the agent or commissioner of emigration witnessing the execution of the instrument shall notify any such amount. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 13.

Sums advanced to emigrants in United Kingdom may be included.

Recovery of amount of advances.

14. Any sum due as an instalment upon such instrument shall be recoverable in any way in which a like sum is recoverable in the place where the action is brought, although the instrument includes a further sum not then due. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 14.

Emigrant may bind himself to serve nominee of the society for the amount of the advance.

Rev. Stat. c. 157.

15. Subject to the provisions of section 8 of The Act respecting Master and Servant, any emigrant who might make such instrument, as aforesaid, may, in like manner, execute an instrument witnessed as above provided, binding himself or herself, in consideration of the sum advanced by the society therein named, to accept employment of the kind to be therein stated from any named person in the immigration district in which the society is formed, or with any person in such district whom the society may designate to the immigrant on his or her arrival in such district, at a rate of wages to be named in the instrument, and for a term to be also therein named not exceeding six months, and to serve such person faithfully in such employment during such term, and to allow such person to deduct from his or her wages, at a period or periods to be designated in such instrument, such sum or sums as shall also be therein designated, and to pay the same to the society, on account of any money due by the immigrant to it; and such instrument may be enforced by the society accordingly, by civil action in any Court having jurisdiction to the amount then due against the immigrant; and any refusal or neglect on the part of the immigrant to perform any of the other obligations undertaken by him in such instrument shall be an offence cognizable before any one Justice of the Peace, and punishable by a fine not exceeding $20, and costs, and the fine, if paid, shall belong to the society, and be paid over to it by the Justice of the Peace; but the payment of such fine shall not prevent or affect any civil remedy of the society under such instrument. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 15.

How such agreement may be enforced.

Appointment of Inspector of Immigration Societies.

16. The Minister of Agriculture shall, in his discretion, appoint, instead of district agents hitherto mentioned in the preceding sections of this Act, an Inspector of Immigration Societies, whose duties shall be to generally superintend the working of such societies and to act in the place of the said district agents; or he may appoint the immigration agents of the Dominion Government to act as Provincial district agents for their respective agency districts. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 16.

Minister, etc., may examine immigrants regarding assistance extended by this Act.

17. The said Minister of Agriculture and the inspector, district agents, or other person or persons who may be appointed by the Minister, shall have power to examine under oath any person or immigrant touching any of the provisions relative to assisted emigration contained in this Act; and shall have the same power to enforce the attendance of such persons or immigrants, and to compel them to give evidence, as is vested in the High Court in civil cases. R. S. O. 1887, c. 174, s. 17.

Foreign language: money

18. Any negotiable or other instrument authorized by this Act may be drawn in any foreign language understood by the person executing it; and sums of money mentioned therein may be expressed in any currency used in the country where it is executed, and shall be held to mean equivalent sums of currency in Canada. HER MAJESTY by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Incorporation of companies.

1.—(1) Every company hereafter incorporated for the purpose of establishing one or more public cemeteries, shall be incorporated under The Ontario Companies Act.

Companies to be subject to this Act and to the Ontario Companies Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

(2) Every such company and every company incorporated for the purpose aforesaid before the 1st day of July, 1897, under chapter 175 or chapter 176 of The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887, or any former Act consolidated therein, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and shall also be subject to the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act so far as the provisions of the latter Act are applicable and consistent with those of this Act. Provided always that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may relieve any company incorporated before the said 1st day of July, 1897, from compliance with any of the provisions of the said Ontario Companies Act as may be deemed expedient. 60 V. c. 42, s. 1, part, 3.

Restrictions.

2.—(1) No such company shall be incorporated

(a) Until stock has been subscribed to an amount deemed sufficient for the purchase of the ground for such cemetery or cemeteries;

(b) Nor until 25 per cent. of the proposed capital has been paid.

(2) No such cemetery shall be established within the limits of any city, or, except as hereinafter provided, within the limits of any incorporated village or town.

(3) In the case of an incorporated village or town, a cemetery within the village or town may be established by the company where it appears to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that from the extent of territory included in the village or town a cemetery may safely be established therein, and that the municipal council and local board of health of the village or town approve thereof, and that in the opinion of the Provincial Board of Health the proposed cemetery may under all the circumstances be safely permitted.

(4) The expenses of the Provincial Board of Health in the case mentioned in the preceding sub-section, shall be paid by or on behalf of the applicants. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 1 part; c. 176, s. 1 (2), (3); 60 V. c. 42, s. 1; c. 43, ss. 1, 2.

Owner of land may be a member of company and take stock in payment.

3. The owner of any land from whom the persons applying for incorporation as a company purchase, or from whom the company purchases land for the purposes of the company, may be a member of the company, and may subscribe for stock in the company to an amount equal to the purchase money of the land or to a portion thereof, and may take and hold the said stock in payment for the land or part payment therefor; and the stock so given for or on account of the purchase of the land, shall, for all purposes of this Act, be deemed and treated as paid up stock in the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 176, s. 4.

Cemetery to be enclosed.

4. The company shall, by walls or other sufficient fences of such height as the municipality may by by-law direct, enclose every part of the cemetery held by them. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 4.

Cemetery to be kept in good repair.

5. The company shall also, out of the moneys received by virtue of this Act, keep the cemetery, and the buildings and fences thereof, in complete repair, and in good order and condition. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 5.

Company to make all necessary sewers, etc.

6. The company shall make all proper and necessary sewers and drains in and about the cemetery for draining it and keeping it dry; and they may from time to time as occasion requires, cause any such sewer or drain to open into an existing sewer, with the consent in writing of the persons having the management of the street or road, and with the like consent of the owner or occupier of the land through which or part of which the opening is intended to be made, doing as little damage as possible to the street, road or land wherein the same is made, and restoring it to the same or as good condition as it was in before being disturbed. R. S. O. 1887, c 175, s. 6.

7. If the company at any time causes or suffers to be brought to or to flow into any river, spring, well, stream, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, pond or watering place, any offensive matter from the cemetery, whereby the water is fouled, the company shall forfeit for every such offence $50. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 7. Penalties on Company contaminating any river, etc.

8. The said penalty, with full costs of suit, may be recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction, by any person having a right to use the water; but the penalty and costs shall not be recoverable unless sued for during the continuance of the offence, or within six months after it has ceased. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 8. Recovery and application of penalties.

9. In addition to the penalty of $50 (and whether the same has been recovered or not) any person having a right to use the water may sue the company for any damage specially sustained by him by reason of the water being fouled; or if no special damage is alleged, then, for the sum of $10 for every day during which the offensive matter has continued to be brought or to flow after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when notice of the offence was, by such person, served upon the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 9. Damages may be recovered in addition to penalties.

10. No body shall be buried in a vault or otherwise under any chapel or other building in the cemetery, nor within fifteen feet of the outer wall of any such chapel or building. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 10. Where bodies may be buried.

11. The company shall make regulations to ensure all burials within the cemetery being conducted in a decent and solemn manner. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 11. Funerals to be decently performed.

12. No grave in a cemetery shall be reopened for the purpose of removing a body therefrom, nor any monument or other permanent improvement placed on a lot be removed from such lot, without the consent of the directors of the company, or an order of the County Court Judge in that behalf, but, saving, nevertheless, the right of the Crown to order the removal of a body for the purposes of legal inquiry. 58 V. c. 40, s. 2. Opening graves and removing bodies.

13. The company shall furnish graves for strangers, and for the poor of all denominations, free of charge, on the certificate, in the latter case, of a minister or clergyman of the denomination to which the deceased belonged, that the relatives of the deceased are poor and cannot afford to purchase a lot in the cemetery. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 12. Graves to be furnished gratis for strangers and poor.

14. The real estate of the company and the lots or plots when conveyed by the company to individual proprietors for Real estate of company exempt from taxation.

burial sites, shall be exempt from taxation of any kind, and shall not be liable to be seized or sold on execution. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 13.

Lots conveyed need not be registered.

15. When a lot has been sold by the company, for a burial site, the conveyance shall not require to be registered for any purpose whatever, and shall not be affected by any Registry Act, nor shall any judgment, mortgage or incumbrance subsist on any lot so conveyed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 14.

Form of deed.

16. The deeds from the company may be in the following form:

"Know all men by these presents, that the Cemetery Company, in consideration of dollars paid to them by , of , the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do grant unto the said his heirs and assigns, Lot of Land in the Cemetery of the said Company, called , and situate in the County of , which Lot is delineated and laid down on the map of the said Cemetery, and is therein designated by the name of , containing by admeasurement superficial feet; to have and to hold the above named premises," etc.

R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 15.

Lots to be indivisible, but may be held in undivided shares.

17. All lots or plots of ground in the cemetery, when numbered and conveyed by the company, as burial sites or lots, shall be indivisible, but may afterwards be held and owned in undivided shares. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 16.

Repurchasing and re-selling lots in cemetery.

18. The company may, out of any moneys received by virtue of this Act, repurchase any lot or lots previously sold or conveyed by the company, and take conveyances of the same from the owners thereof, and may also, from time to time, resell the same in the manner and form provided respecting other lands in the cemetery held by the company. 58 V. c. 40, s. 1.

Shareholders may receive interest on stock not represented by land.

19.—(1) From and out of the proceeds of the sales of burial sites made by the company, the company may pay to its shareholders who may not desire to take land in the cemetery to the full extent of the stock subscribed for and paid by them, interest on their paid up stock, not represented by land in the cemetery, at such rate as may be agreed on, not exceeding eight per centum per annum, and may also repay to such shareholders the amount of paid-up stock held by them not represented by land in the cemetery.

Rights of shareholders with stock not represented by land.

(2) Every such shareholder of the said company shall be taken to be a shareholder, and shall be entitled to all the rights of shareholders in respect of the shares of the capital stock of the company held by him and fully paid up, and which are not represented by land in the cemetery, until such shares are repaid to him by the company; and upon their repayment to him of any share he shall cease to be a shareholder in respect of such share.

(3) Except as aforesaid, no dividend or profit of any kind shall be paid by the company to any member thereof. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 17. No dividend allowed.

20. Subject to the provisions in the preceding section contained, one-half of the proceeds of all sales of burial sites, made by the company, shall be first applied to the payment of the purchase money of the land acquired by the company, and the residue to preserving, improving and embellishing the land as a cemetery or burial ground, and to the incidental expenses of the company; and after payment of the purchase money, the proceeds of all future sales shall be applied to the preservation, improvement and embellishment of the cemetery, and to the incidental expenses thereof, and to no other purpose whatever. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 18. Application of proceeds of sales.

21.—(1) The company may take and hold by gift, assignment, devise, bequest or otherwise, any moneys or securities, and apply the same in the same manner as any other moneys of the company in preserving, improving and embellishing the cemetery of such company, upon the condition and in consideration of the company's assuming and undertaking the duty and obligation of preserving and maintaining in a proper manner forever, any particular lot, tomb, monument or enclosure in such cemetery or in any other cemetery or burying ground in the same, or in any other municipality in the same county, and any person or persons may make such gift, assignment, devise or bequest, to such company upon such conditions and for such considerations. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 19 (1). Company may accept devises, gifts, etc.

(2) Every such company may also take and hold by gift, assignment or devise from owners thereof any lot or lots in the cemetery of such company, for the purpose of maintaining the same in perpetuity or otherwise, in the manner and subject to the provisions mentioned in the instrument of such gift, assignment or devise. 58 V. c. 40, s. 3. Taking lots in cemetery by gift or devise.

(3) Every such company is hereby empowered to enter into agreements binding the company to preserve and maintain in a proper manner for all time to come, the particular lot, tomb, monument or enclosure in any such cemetery or burying ground designated in such gift, assignment, devise, bequest or agreement. May agree to keep lots, etc., in good condition.

(4) Executors, administrators or trustees, may pay over and transfer to such company moneys or securities in their hands, which they are by the will of their testator, or other instrument, directed to apply for or toward the purposes in this section specified. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 19 (2, 3). Executors may pay over bequest.

22.—(1) Section 21 shall apply to any incorporated cemetery company, whether incorporated by public or private Act. 54 V. c. 41, s. 1. Section 21 to apply to all cemetery companies.

Powers of such companies.

(2) Any such company shall have all the powers set forth in said section, and for the purpose of securing the due performance of any agreement binding upon them, the company may invest the money received under said agreement in the same manner as trustees or executors are authorized to invest trust money, and by and out of the interest and dividends of such investment do and perform all obligations under said agreement. 54 V. c. 41, s. 2.

Lots to contain not less than 100 superficial feet.

23. Every proprietor of a lot in the cemetery containing not less than one hundred superficial feet, who has paid twenty-five per cent. or more of the price of the lot, shall be deemed a shareholder in the company, and every such lot shall be deemed a share in the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 20.

No proprietor of less than 100 superficial feet shall be a member or entitled to vote.

24. The company may sell a lot of any size, but no proprietor of a lot containing less than one hundred superficial feet shall thereby become a member of the company or have any vote in the management of the affairs thereof. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 21.

Power to borrow.

25. The company may borrow money for the purpose of making roads over the land, and for improving and laying out the same, and may repay the amount so borrowed, with interest thereon, at any lawful rate not to exceed eight per centum per annum, out of the first proceeds of the sale of lots in the cemetery, and as security for such loan the company may mortgage all its estate, right, and interest in the premises, and in such mortgage may insert all necessary and usual powers of sale, covenants and conditions, but nothing herein contained shall authorize such mortgagee, or any one claiming under him, to use or deal with the premises so mortgaged in a manner inconsistent with the continued use of the premises as a cemetery, or inconsistent with any provision in this Act for the preservation and protection of the same for cemetery purposes. R. S. O. 1887, c. 176, s. 7.

Proviso.

Powers of company as to passing by-laws.

26. The directors may pass by-laws for the laying out, selling, and managing of the ground, for the regulating of burials, to be made therein, the removal of bodies therefrom, the erection or removal of tombs, monuments, grave-stones, vaults, copings, fences, hedges or other permanent improvements therein, the planting, placing and removal of trees, shrubs and plants in the grounds and otherwise generally respecting the use of the grounds by the shareholders and the public; and for empowering the president and secretary to execute conveyances of plots in the cemetery. 58 V. c. 40, s. 4.

Register to be kept.

27. The directors shall record in a book kept for the purpose, all their by-laws and proceedings, and every person shall have access to such book for the purpose of searching and making extracts therefrom without payment of any fee. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 28.

Penalty on persons defacing tombstones, etc.

28.—(1) Any person who

1. Wilfully destroys, mutilates, defaces, injures or removes any tomb, monument, grave-stone or other structure placed in a cemetery, or any fence, railing or other work for the protection or ornament of a cemetery, or of any tomb, monument, gravestone, or other structure aforesaid or of any cemetery lot within a cemetery; or,
2. Wilfully destroys, cuts, breaks or injures any tree, shrub or plant in a cemetery; or,
3. Plays at any game or sport in a cemetery; or,
4. Discharges fire-arms (save at a military funeral) in a cemetery; or who,
5. Wilfully and unlawfully disturbs persons assembled for the purpose of burying a body therein; or who
6. Commits a nuisance in a cemetery;

shall upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace or other Court of competent jurisdiction, be punished by a fine of not less than $4 nor more than $40, according to the nature of the offence.

(2) Such person shall also be liable in an action in the name of the company, to pay all damages occasioned by his unlawful act; and the money, when recovered, shall be applied under the direction of the directors for the reparation and reconstruction of the property destroyed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 31.

Power of Company to acquire additional land, etc.

29.—(1) In case additional land is required by a cemetery company for the enlargement of a burial ground, if the council of the municipality in which the land is situated, by by-law, declares that in the opinion of the council, the company should, for the purpose aforesaid, have power to expropriate the adjacent land in the by-law set forth, and if the Judge of the County Court of the county certifies that in his opinion the proposed enlargement is for the public advantage and convenience, the company aforesaid, upon registering the by-law and certificate in the proper registry office, shall, in respect of the land in the by-law set forth, possess the powers conferred upon the councils of cities, towns, townships and incorporated villages by section 577 and subsection 1 of section 547 of The Municipal Act. Rev. Stat. c. 223.

(2) Where the company desires to take proceedings under this section, the proceedings may be initiated by resolution instead of by by-law as required in the case of municipalities. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 32.

Winding up of cemetery companies.

30.—(1) In case a company incorporated under this Act, should, either on account of the burial of bodies in the locality being prohibited by the municipal authorities, or for any other reason, desire to be wound up, then, if no lot has been sold for the purpose of burial, or if such lots have been sold, then with the written consent of all the persons to whom lots have been sold, or of their heirs, or in case any such heir is a minor or insane, then with the assent of the heirs who are of full age and who are of sound mind, the company may be wound up, under The Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 222.

(2) All the real and personal property of the company may thereupon be sold by the officers of the company, or by the liquidators, and the proceeds, after payment of all claims against the company, distributed amongst the shareholders.

(3) The property so sold shall be freed and discharged from all trusts arising on account of its having been held for the purposes of a cemetery or cemetery company, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize a distribution amongst shareholders of the proceeds of lands devised or conveyed by way of gift to the company, in trust for the purposes of a cemetery, but the proceeds of such lands shall be applied to such municipal or charitable purposes as the donor of the lands, if he is then living, or if he is dead as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council or the High Court may direct. R. S. O. 1887, c. 175, s. 33.

Power to convey property to municipal corporations.

31. Any company incorporated under this Act may convey its property to any municipal corporation, under and subject to the conditions contained in section 577 of The Municipal Act. 51 V. c. 27, s. 1.

CHAPTER 214.

An Act respecting Conveyances to Trustees for Burial Grounds.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

When lands for burying grounds may be vested in trustees.

1. Whenever any of the inhabitants of a township or locality in Ontario, to the number of ten or more, desire to take a conveyance of land for a burying ground not to belong exclusively to any particular denomination of Christians, such persons may appoint trustees, to whom and their successors to be appointed in such manner as may be specified in the deed of conveyance, the land may be conveyed; and such trustees and their successors in perpetual succession, by the name expressed in the deed, may take, hold and possess the land, in trust for the uses and purposes limited in the deed, and may maintain and defend actions for the protection thereof and of their property therein; but there shall not be held in trust under any such conveyance for the purposes aforesaid, more than ten acres of land for the inhabitants of any one township or locality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 177, s. 1.

Powers of expropriation. Rev. Stat. c. 213.

2. Section 29 of The Act respecting Cemetery Companies, shall apply to trustees of cemeteries or burying grounds. R. S. O. 1887, c. 177, s. 2.

Procedure where trust deed does not provide for fencing and repairs.

3.—(1) In any case where land has been conveyed to trustees for a burial ground as provided in section 1 of this Act, and where in the deed of trust no provision has been made or directions given for providing funds for the proper fencing and keeping in repair of such burial ground, and when the funds accruing from the sale of burial plots or from subscriptions are insufficient to provide the funds necessary for said fencing and keeping in repair,

(2) The council of the municipality within which such burial ground is situate, may upon the application of the trustees of such burial ground, make a grant of money to said trustees out of the general funds of the municipality, to enable the trustees to carry on and complete the work mentioned in subsection 1 of this section.

(3) In the case of any burial ground, where there are no trustees for the same, and in which no or very few interments are being made, and when such burial ground is in need of fencing, the council of the municipality within which such burial ground is situate, shall have power to make an appropriation out of the general funds of the municipality for the fencing thereof, and may appoint a person to see to the proper expenditure of any sum or sums appropriated for the aforesaid purpose. 53 V. c. 48, s. 1.

7. GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO COMPANIES.

CHAPTER 215.

An Act respecting the Changing of the Names of Incorporated Companies.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Applications to Lieutenant-Governor to change names of companies.

1. Where an incorporated company within the legislative authority of the Legislature of this Province, whether incorporated under a special or general Act, is desirous of changing its name, the Lieutenant-Governor, upon being satisfied that the company is in a solvent condition, that the change desired is not for any improper purpose, and is not otherwise objectionable, may, by Order in Council, change the name of the company to some other name set forth in the said Order. 60 V. c. 44, s. 1.

Regulations as to notice.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may make regulations respecting the notice (if any) to be given of the application for change of name under this Act. 60 V. c. 44, s. 2.

In case proposed name is objectionable.

3. In case the proposed new name is considered objectionable, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, if he thinks fit, change the name of the company to some other unobjectionable name without requiring any further notice to be given. 60 V. c. 44, s. 3.

Change to be published in Gazette.

4. The change of name shall be conclusively established by the insertion in The Ontario Gazette of a notice thereof by the Provincial Secretary. 60 V. c. 44, s. 4.

Change not to affect actions or contracts.

5. No contract or engagement entered into by or with the company, and no liability incurred by it shall be affected by the change of name; and all actions commenced by or against the company prior to the change of name may be proceeded with against or by the company under its former name. 60 V. c. 44, s. 5.

[See as to Insurance Companies, Cap. 203, s. 40.]

CHAPTER 216.

An Act respecting the Liability of Directors.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Directors' Liability Act." 54 V. c. 34, s. 1.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires :—

"Untrue statement."

1. "Untrue statement" shall include a concealment or intentional non-disclosure of a material fact known to the director or promoter which might reasonably influence a person in determining whether to apply or not to apply for shares, debenture stock, annuities on lives, or other securities of the company for which application is invited;

"Securities."

2. "Securities" shall include bonds, debentures, investment bonds; also policies, certificate, or other instruments of insurance, suretyship, or guarantee, or instruments evidencing contracts in the nature thereof;

"Company."

3. "Company" shall include any joint stock or other private corporation which issues or is authorized to issue shares, debenture stock, annuities on lives, or other securities as hereinbefore defined;

"Directors."

4. "Directors" shall include the officers, by whatever name known, appointed to manage the affairs of the company;

"Promoter."

5. "Promoter" shall mean a promoter who was a party to the preparation of the prospectus or notice, or of the portion thereof containing such untrue statement, but shall not include any person by reason of his acting in a professional capacity for persons engaged in procuring the formation of the company;

"Expert."

6. "Expert" shall include any person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him. 54 V. c. 34, s. 2; 60 V. c. 28, s. 95 (5).

Application of Act.

3. This Act shall apply to all companies where or by what authority soever incorporated, and in respect of Provincial companies shall be construed as one with the several Acts of Ontario incorporating or providing for the incorporation of companies by letters patent or otherwise. 54 V. c. 34, s. 3.

Liability for statements in prospectus.

4.—(1) Where a prospectus advertisement, or any printed or written document answering the purpose of a prospectus advertisement or notice invites persons to subscribe or apply for shares, debenture stock, annuities on lives or other securities, by whatever name known or mentioned, of a company, every person who is a director of the company at the time of the issue of the prospectus advertisement or notice, and every person who, with his authority, is named in the prospectus, advertisement or notice as a director of the company or as having agreed to become a director of the company either immediately, or after an interval of time, and every promoter of the company, and every person who has authorized the issue of the prospectus, advertisement or notice, shall be liable to pay, to all persons so subscribing or applying on the faith of such prospectus, advertisement or notice, compensation for the loss or damage they may have sustained by reason of any untrue statement in the prospectus, advertisement or notice, or in any report or memorandum appearing on the face thereof, or by reference incorporated therein or issued therewith, unless it is proved—

(a) With respect to every such untrue statement not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert, or of a public official document or statement, that he had reasonable ground to believe, and up to the time of the allotment or issue of the shares, debenture-stock, annuities on lives, or other securities, as the case may be, did believe that the statement was true; and

(b) With respect to every such untrue statement purporting to be a statement by or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a report or valuation of an engineer, valuer, accountant, or other expert, that it fairly represented the statement made by such engineer, valuer, accountant, or other expert, or was a correct and fair copy of or extract from the report or valuation. Provided always that notwithstanding that such untrue statement fairly represented the statement made by such engineer, valuer, accountant, or other expert, or was a correct and fair copy of or extract from the report or valuation, such director, person named, promoter, or other person, who authorized the issue of the prospectus, advertisement or notice as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay compensation as aforesaid if it be proved that he had no reasonable ground to believe that the person making the statement, report or valuation was competent to make it; and

(c) With respect to every such untrue statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a public official document, that it was a correct and fair representation of such statement or copy of or extract from such document, or unless it is proved that, having consented to become a director of the company, he withdrew his consent before the issue of the prospectus, advertisement or notice, and that the prospectus, advertisement or notice was issued without his authority or consent; or that the prospectus, advertisement or notice was issued without his knowledge or consent, and that on becoming aware of its issue he forthwith gave reasonable public notice that it was so issued without his knowledge or consent; or that after the issue of such prospectus, advertisement or notice and before allotment or issue of the shares, debenture stock, annuities on lives or other securities thereunder, he, on becoming aware of any untrue statement therein, withdrew his consent thereto, and caused reasonable public notice of such withdrawal and of the reason therefor, to be given.

Statements in prospectus for raising further capital.

(2) Where any company is desirous of obtaining further capital by subscriptions for shares, bonds, debentures, debenture-stock or other securities, and for that purpose issues a prospectus, advertisement or notice, no director of such company shall be liable in respect of any statement therein, unless he authorized the issue of such prospectus, advertisement or notice, or adopted or ratified the same. 54 V. c. 34, s. 4; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 28, s. 95 (1), (2); c. 29, s. 12.

Indemnity where name of person has been improperly inserted.

5. Where any such prospectus, advertisement or notice as aforesaid contains the name of a person as a director of a company, or as having agreed to become a director thereof, and such person has not consented to become a director, or has withdrawn his consent before the issue of such prospectus or notice, and has not authorized or consented to the issue thereof, the directors of the company, (except any without whose knowledge or consent the prospectus, advertisement or notice was issued,) and any other person who authorized the issue of such prospectus, advertisement or notice shall be liable to indemnify the person named as a director of the company, or as having agreed to become a director thereof as aforesaid, against all damages, costs, charges, and expenses to which he may be made liable by reason of his name having been inserted in the prospectus, advertisement or notice, or in defending himself against any action or legal proceedings brought against him in respect thereof. 54 V. c. 34, s. 5. 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 28, s. 95 (3).

Contribution from co-directors, etc.

6. Every person who by reason of his being a director, or named as a director or as having agreed to become a director, or of his having authorized the issue of the prospectus, advertisement or notice, has become liable to make any payment under the provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to recover contribution, as in cases of contract from any other person who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment. 54 V. c. 34, s. 6; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 28, s. 95 (4).

CHAPTER 217.

An Act to prevent Fraudulent Statements by Companies and others.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Penalty for false statements as to capital of companies.

1.—(1) Where any advertisement, letter-head, postal-card, account or document issued, published or circulated by any corporation, association or company or any officer, agent or employee of any such corporation, association or company, purports to state the subscribed capital of the corporation, association or company, then the capital actually and in good faith subscribed and no more shall be so stated; and any such corporation, association, company, officer, agent or employee who causes to be inserted an advertisement in any newspaper or who publishes, issues or circulates, or causes to be published, issued or circulated any advertisement, letter-head, postal-card, account or document which states, as the capital of such company, any larger sum than the amount of such subscribed capital so actually and in good faith subscribed as aforesaid, or which contains any untrue or false statement as to the incorporation, control, supervision, management or financial standing of such corporation, association or company, and which statement is intended or calculated or likely to mislead or deceive any person dealing or having any business or transaction with said corporation, association or company, or with any officer, agent or employee of the same, shall, upon summary conviction thereof, before any Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the offence was committed, be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200 and costs and not less than $50 and costs, and in default of payment the offender, being any officer, agent or employee as aforesaid, shall be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding six months and not less than one month, and on a second or any subsequent conviction he may be imprisoned with hard labour for a term not exceeding twelve months and not less than three months.

(2) Any one may be prosecutor or complainant under this Act, and one-half of any fine imposed by virtue of this Act shall, when received, belong to Her Majesty for the use of the Province and the other half shall belong to the prosecutor or complainant. 56 V. c. 33, s. 1; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 28, s. 96.

CHAPTER 218.

An Act respecting Fees payable by Incorporated Companies and other Bodies.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Lieutenant-Governor in Council may prescribe Fees.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time prescribe the fees to be paid on applications to the Government for the incorporation of companies, or with respect to changes in the names, constitution or powers of companies, or other incorporated bodies whose incorporation is within the authority of the Legislature of Ontario. R. S. O. 1887, c. 179, s. 1.

CHAPTER 219.

An Act respecting Returns required from Incorporated Companies.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

"Return"—meaning of.

1. The word "Return" where used in this Act shall include any list, statement or other information required to be furnished to the Government of Ontario, or to any officer or department thereof, by any incorporated company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 180, s. 1.

No action for default in making return to be brought after receipt of return by proper officer.

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

2. No action brought against any incorporated company which is required, or whose directors or officers are required, to make a return to the Government of Ontario, or to any officer or department thereof, or brought against any director or officer of such company, either under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, or under any other Act, for not duly making a return in accordance with the requirements of any such Act, or for any default in respect to the mode of dealing with such return, shall be maintained if the action is or was commenced subsequent to the receipt by the proper officer or department of the Government of the return, for the non-making of which, or with reference to which the action is brought, or subsequent to the receipt by such officer or department of a return for a later year: Provided the return made is, except in respect of the time at which the same is made, in substantial compliance with the requirements of the Act under which it is or was made as aforesaid, and is duly verified in accordance with the provisions of such Act, unless the action is brought by the Crown, or by the Attorney-General of Ontario suing on behalf of the Crown. R. S. O. 1887, c. 180, s. 2.

Proviso.

Limitation of amount of penalty.

Rev. Stat. c. 191, s. 79.

3. The entire amount of the penalty or penalties to be recovered against a company, or the directors or officers thereof, in respect of any default or defaults in complying with any of the requirements of section 79 of the said Ontario Companies Act, or in complying with the requirements, in respect of the making of returns, of any other Act up to the time at which the action is brought shall not in the whole exceed $1,000; and in case several actions are brought, either against the company or against its directors or officers, the Court or a Judge thereof may give such directions as may appear just, either for consolidating the actions or staying the later actions, or any of the actions, upon such terms as may be deemed fitting. R. S. O. 1887, c. 180, s. 3.

Returns by companies warehousing crude petroleum.

4.—(1) Every incorporated company carrying on a business of warehousing crude petroleum in this Province shall, on or before the first day of February of each year, make out a summary in duplicate which shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) The total quantity of crude petroleum actually held by the company for the purpose of answering transportation and warehouse receipts, accepted orders, and certificates of crude petroleum.

(b) The total quantity of crude petroleum in respect of which the company as warehousemen or carriers are liable to make delivery to other persons.

[As to these Returns, see also Cap. 191, s. 79 (4).]

Rev. Stat. c. 191.

(2) The said summary shall be in accordance with subsections 5, 6 and 7 of section 79 of The Ontario Companies Act, and subsections 8 and 9 of the said section shall apply to every such company and to the officers thereof therein named. R. S. O. 1887, c. 122, s. 21, part.

CHAPTER 220.

An Act respecting the Acceptance of certain Incorporated Companies as Sureties.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Interpretation.

1. In this Act the expression "guarantee company" shall mean an incorporated company empowered to grant guarantees, bonds or policies, for the integrity and faithful accounting of public officers, servants or persons occupying positions of trust, or for other like purposes. See R. S. O. 1887, c. 181, ss. 1, 3, 4.

Societies and corporations may accept security of guarantee companies for their officers.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Act of the Legislature of Ontario the bonds or policies of any guarantee company may be accepted instead of or in addition to, the bond or security of any officer or servant of any society or corporation, in all cases where, by the provisions of such Act, or of any by-law or rule of such society or corporation, such officer or servant is required to give security, either by himself, or by himself and a surety or sureties, and where the parties directed or authorized to take such security see fit to accept the bond or policy of a guarantee company, and approve of the terms and conditions thereof; and all the provisions in any such Act relating to such security to be given by any officer or servant, or his sureties, shall apply to the bonds or policies of guarantee of such guarantee company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 181, s. 1.

Bonds of guarantee companies may be taken as security in other cases.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any Act of the Legislature of Ontario, the bonds or policies of guarantee of any guarantee company approved for this purpose by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may be accepted by a Judge or other person authorized or required to take security for the due performance of any duty, instead of, or in addition to, the bond or security of a surety or sureties, if the Judge or other person sees fit to accept such bond or policy as aforesaid, and approves of the conditions and terms thereof; and all the provisions in any such Act relating to the security to be given by any person to whom any duty is committed, or his surety or sureties, shall apply to the bonds or policies of guarantee of such guarantee company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 181, s. 3.

Such security may be taken instead of existing securities.

4. The bonds or policies of guarantee of any guarantee company may be taken instead of or in substitution for any existing securities, if the persons directed or authorized as aforesaid see fit, whereupon the existing securities shall be delivered up to be cancelled. R. S. O. 1887, c. 181, s. 2.

Securities of guarantee companies in Surrogate Court.

Rev. Stat. cc. 59, 168.

5.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council, direct that the bond or policy of guarantee of any guarantee company named in such Order in Council, may, at the discretion of the Judge, be accepted, in whole or in part, in lieu of the security required by section 69 of The Surrogate Courts Act and section 13 of The Act respecting Infants and the provisions of law therein contained with reference to the legal effect of such securities when given by individuals, and to the mode of proceeding thereon, shall apply to the security given by every such company.

(2) The interim receipt of the company may be accepted in lieu of the formal security, but the formal security shall be completed within one month. 56 V. c. 14, s. 1.

Publication of Orders in Council.

6. Every Order in Council under the provisions of this Act shall, immediately after the making thereof, be published in the Ontario Gazette, and shall be laid before the Legislative Assembly within fifteen days after its first meeting thereafter. 56 V. c. 14, s. 2.

CHAPTER 221.

An Act respecting Investments by Corporations.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Investments by corporations.

1.—(1) All corporations having money in their hands which it is their duty, or is in their discretion, to invest, may invest the same, if they see fit, in securities, which are a first charge on land held in fee simple: provided that such investments are in other respects reasonable and proper.

(2) This section shall apply to investments made before the 25th day of March, 1886, whether such investments were or were not authorized by any Statute then in force applying to such corporations. R. S. O. 1887, c. 182, s. 1.

Application of Act.

2. This Act shall not apply to investments by municipal corporations. R. S. O. 1887, c. 182, s. 2.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act." R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 1.

Application of Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 203.

2. This Act shall apply to all incorporated companies or associations (including insurance corporations as defined by section 2 of The Ontario Insurance Act but subject to the provisions of that Act), incorporated by the Legislature of this Province, or under the authority of any Act of this Province, and to all companies and associations which were incorporated by the Parliament of the Province of Upper Canada, or of the Province of Canada, or under the authority of any Act of the Province of Canada, whose incorporation and the affairs thereof, in the particulars hereinafter mentioned, are subject to the legislative authority of this Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 2; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

INTERPRETATION.

3. Where the words following occur in this Act they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:

"Court." Power of County Court Judge.

1. "Court" shall mean any County Court; and any Judge of a County Court may at any time exercise all the powers conferred by this Act upon the Court;

"Contributory."

2. "Contributory" shall mean every person liable to contribute to the assets of a company under this Act, in the event of the same being wound up: and shall, also, in all proceedings prior to the final determination of such persons, include any person alleged to be a contributory;

Case of death of contributory.

3. If a contributory dies either before or after he has been placed on the list of contributories hereinafter mentioned, his personal representatives, heirs and devisees shall be liable in due course of administration to contribute to the assets of the company in discharge of the liability of such deceased contributory, and such personal representatives, heirs, and devisees shall be deemed to be contributories accordingly;

"Extraordinary resolution."

4. "Extraordinary resolution" shall mean a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of such members of the company, for the time being entitled to vote, as may be present in person, or by proxy (in cases where by the Act or charter or instrument of incorporation or the regulations of the company proxies are allowed), at any general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution has been duly given;

"Special resolution."

5. "Special resolution" shall mean a resolution passed in the manner necessary for an extraordinary resolution, where the resolution after having been so passed as aforesaid has been confirmed by a majority of such members (entitled according to the Act, charter or instrument of incorporation or the regulations of the company to vote) as may be present, in person or by proxy, at a subsequent general meeting of which notice has been duly given, and held at an interval of not less than fourteen days, or more than one month from the date of the meeting at which the resolution was first passed. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 3.

"Members of the company."

6. Those persons only who for the time being are entitled to vote at general meetings of the company for the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be members of the company. 53 V. c. 49, s. 4.

WHEN COMPANIES MAY BE WOUND UP.

4. A company may be wound up under this Act:

When companies may be wound up voluntarily.

1. Where the period, if any, fixed for the duration of the company by the Act, charter or instrument of incorporation has expired; or where the event (if any) has occurred, upon the occurrence of which it is provided by the Act or charter or instrument of incorporation that the company is to be dissolved, and the company in general meeting has passed a resolution requiring the company to be wound up;

On special resolution.

2. Where the company has passed a special resolution (as hereinbefore defined) requiring the company to be wound up;

On extraordinary resolution.

3. Where the company (though it may be solvent as respects creditors) has passed an extraordinary resolution (as hereinbefore defined) to the effect that it has been proved to their satisfaction that the company cannot by reason of its liabilities continue its business, and that it is advisable to wind up the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 4.

When by order of the court.

5. Where no such resolution has been passed as mentioned in the next preceding section, the Court may, on the application of a contributory, make an order for winding up, in case the Court is of opinion that it is just and equitable that the company should be wound up. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 5.

Commencement of winding up.

6. A winding up shall be deemed to commence at the time of the passing of the resolution authorizing the winding up, or of making the order directing the winding up. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 6.

REGISTRATION.

Registration of winding up order.

7. A copy of the resolution or order for winding up, certified by the liquidator, may be registered in the registry office of any registry division wherein the company has any real estate; the resolution or order shall be accompanied by a description of the real estate belonging to the company in the registry division, and certified by the liquidator to be a correct description; and the Registrar shall register the order and description upon payment to him of a fee of $1. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 7.

CONSEQUENCES OF COMMENCING TO WIND UP.

Consequences of commencing to wind up.

8. The following consequences shall ensue upon the commencement of the winding up of a company under the authority of this Act:

Extent to which company to exist after commencement of winding up.

1. The company shall, from the date of the commencement of the winding up, cease to carry on its business, except in so far as may be required for the beneficial winding up thereof; and any transfers of shares, except transfers made to or with the sanction of the liquidators, or any alteration in the status of the members of the company, after the commencement of the winding up, shall be void, but the corporate state and all the corporate powers of the company shall, notwithstanding it may be otherwise provided by the Act, charter, or instrument of incorporation, continue until the affairs of the company are wound up. Transfer of shares.

2. The property of the company shall be applied in satisfaction of its liabilities, and subject thereto, and to the charges incurred in winding up its affairs, shall (unless it is otherwise provided by the Act, charter, or instrument of incorporation) be distributed amongst the members according to their rights and interests in the company. Property of company.

3. Liquidators shall be appointed for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the company and distributing the property. Liquidators.

4. The company, in general meeting, shall appoint such persons or person as the company thinks fit to be liquidators or a liquidator, and may fix the remuneration to be paid to them or to him, and they shall give such security as the contributories or the Court may determine. Appointment of liquidators. Remuneration Security.

5. If one person only is appointed, all the provisions herein contained in reference to several liquidators shall apply to him. One liquidator.

6. Upon the appointment of liquidators, all the powers of the directors shall cease, except in so far as the company in general meeting, or the liquidators, may sanction the continuance of such powers. Cesser of powers of liquidators.

7. Where several liquidators are appointed, every power hereby given may be exercised by such one or more of them as may be determined at the time of the appointment, or at a subsequent meeting, or, in default of such determination, by any number not less than two. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 8 (1-7). Powers of several liquidators.

8. The members of the company may at any meeting appoint one or more inspector or inspectors, to superintend and direct the proceedings of the liquidator in the management and winding up of the estate; and in case of an inspector being appointed, all the powers of the liquidator shall be exercised subject to the advice and direction of the inspectors; and the members of the company may also at any subsequent meeting held for that purpose, revoke any such appointment; and upon such revocation, or in case of death, resignation or absence from the Province of an inspector, may appoint another in his stead; and such inspector may be paid such remuneration as the members of the company may determine; and where anything is allowed or directed to be done by the inspectors, it may or shall be done by the sole inspector, if only one has been appointed. Appointment of Inspectors. Revocations. Remuneration.

9. The members of the company may, at any meeting, pass any resolution or order, directing the liquidator how to dispose of the property, real or personal, of the company; and in default of their doing so, the liquidator shall be subject to the directions, Directions as to disposal of property of the company by liquidation.

orders and instructions which he from time to time receives from the inspectors, if any, with regard to the mode, terms and conditions on which he may dispose of the whole or any part of the property of the company. R. S. O 1887, c. 183, s. 8 (8-9); 53 V. c. 49, s. 1.

GENERAL POWERS OF LIQUIDATORS.

Description and general power of liquidator.

9. The liquidator may be described in all proceedings by the style of "A.B., the liquidator of" (the particular company in respect of which he is appointed), and shall have power to do the following things:

Bring actions.

1. To bring or defend any action, or other legal proceeding in the name, and on behalf of the company;

Carry on business.

2. To carry on the business of the company so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same;

Sell property.

3. To sell the real and personal property of the company by public auction or private contract, according to the ordinary mode in which such sales are made, with power to transfer the whole property to any person or company, or to sell the same in parcels, and on such terms as shall seem most advantageous; but no sale of the assets en bloc shall be made without the previous sanction of the contributories given at a meeting called for that purpose; R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 9 (1-3).

Sale of debts.

4. And in case, after having acted with due diligence in the collection of the debts, the liquidator finds that there remain debts due, the attempt to collect which would be more onerous than beneficial to the estate, he shall report the same to the members of the company or inspectors (if any); and with their sanction, he may sell the same by public auction after such advertisement thereof as they may order; and pending such advertisements, the liquidator shall keep a list of the debts to be sold, open to inspection at his office, and shall also give free access to all documents and vouchers explanatory of such debts; but all debts amounting to more than $100 shall be sold separately, except as herein otherwise provided; R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 9 (4); 53 V. c. 49, s. 1.

Draw, etc., bills and notes.

5. To draw, accept, make and indorse any bill of exchange or promissory note in the name and on behalf of the company; and to raise upon the security of the assets of the company, from time to time, any requisite sum or sums of money; and the drawing, accepting, making or indorsing of such bill of exchange or promissory note on behalf of the company, shall have the same effect, with respect to the liability of the company, as if such bill or note had been drawn, accepted, made or indorsed by or on behalf of the company in the course of carrying on the business thereof;

Take out letters of administration to

6. To take out, if necessary, in his official name, letters of administration to any deceased contributory; and to do in his official name any other act which may be necessary for obtaining payment of any money due from a contributory or from his estate, and which act cannot be conveniently done in the name of the company; and in all cases where he takes out letters of administration, or otherwise uses his official name, for obtaining payment of any money due from a contributory, such money shall, for the purpose of enabling him to take out such letters or recover such money, be deemed to be due to the liquidator himself; deceased contributories and collect debts.

7. To execute in the name of the company all deeds, receipts and other documents; Execute deeds.

8. And to do and exercise all other acts and things that may be necessary for the winding up of the affairs of the company and the distribution of its assets; and for such purposes to use when necessary the company's seal. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 9 (5—8). Other things. Company's seal.

10.—(1) The liquidator may fix a certain day or certain days on or within which creditors of the company and others having claims thereon are to send in their claims. Time for creditors to send in claims may be fixed.

(2) Where a liquidator has given such or the like notices of the said day, as in administration proceedings, would be given by the High Court, for creditors and others to send in to an executor or administrator their claims against the estate of a testator or intestate, the liquidator shall, at the expiration of the time named in the said notices, or the last of the said notices, for sending in such claims, be at liberty to distribute the assets of the company, or any part thereof, amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which the liquidator has then notice; and the liquidator shall not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose claim such liquidator had not notice at the time of distributing the said assets, or a part thereof, as the case may be; but nothing in this Act contained, shall prejudice the right of any creditor or claimant to follow assets into the hands of the person who may have received the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 10. Liquidators may distribute assets after expiration of time fixed.

[As to Priority of Wages or Salary, see Cap. 156, sec. 3.]

11. The liquidators may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the company, make such compromise or other arrangement as the liquidators deem expedient, with any creditors, or persons claiming to be creditors, or persons having or alleging to have any claim, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, against the company, or whereby the company may be rendered liable. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 11. Arrangements may be authorized with creditors.

12. The liquidators may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the company, compromise all calls and Power to compromise with debtors and contributories.

liabilities to calls, debts, and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, whether present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the company and any contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the company, and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the assets of the company or the winding up of the company, upon the receipt of such sums, payable at such times, and generally upon such terms, as may be agreed upon ; with power for the liquidators to take any security for the discharge of such debts or liabilites, and to give a complete discharge in respect of all or any such calls, debts or liabilities. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 12.

Take security.

Power to accept shares, etc., as a consideration for sale of property to another company.

13.—(1) Where a company is proposed to be or is in the course of being wound up, and the whole or a portion of its business or property is proposed to be transferred or sold to another company, the liquidators of the first mentioned company, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company by whom they were appointed conferring either a general authority on the liquidators, or an authority in respect of any particular arrangement, may receive, in compensation or in part compensation for such transfer or sale, shares or other like interest in such other company, for the purpose of distribution amongst the members of the company which is being wound up, or may, in lieu of receiving cash, shares, or other like interests, or in addition thereto, participate in the profits of or receive any other benefit from the purchasing company.

Sale or arrangement by liquidators binding unless a member objects.

(2) Any sale made or arrangement entered into by the liquidators in pursuance of this section shall be binding on the members of the company which is being wound up, subject to the proviso, that if any member of the company which is being wound up, who has not voted in favour of the special resolution passed by the company of which he is a member, at either of the meetings held for passing the same, expresses his dissent from any such special resolution, in writing, addressed to the liquidators or one of them, and left at the head office of the company not later than seven days after the date of the meeting at which such special resolution was passed, such dissentient member may require the liquidators to do one of the following things as the liquidators may prefer, that is to say, either (a) to abstain from carrying such resolution into effect, or (b) to purchase the interest held by such dissentient member, at a price to be determined in manner hereinafter mentioned, such purchase-money to be paid before the company is dissolved, and to be raised by the liquidators in such manner as may be determined by special resolution.

Proceedings on objection.

Special resolution not invalid because prior to resolution to wind up.

(3) No special resolution shall be deemed invalid for the purposes of this section by reason that it is passed antecedently to or concurrently with any resolution for winding up the company, or for appointing liquidators.

(4) The price to be paid for the purchase of the interest of any dissentient member may be determined by agreement; but if the parties dispute about the same such dispute shall be settled by arbitration. Price payable to objecting member.

(5) For the purposes of the arbitration the liquidator shall appoint one arbitrator, and the dissentient member shall appoint another, and the two arbitrators thus chosen (or in case they disagree, the County Judge) shall appoint a third arbitrator. Mode of determining price. Arbitration.

(6) The arbitrators thus chosen or any two of them, or the arbitrator of one party and an arbitrator appointed by the County Judge (in case of the refusal or neglect of either party to appoint an arbitrator) shall finally determine the matter in dispute. Majority to determine disputes.

(7) In case of the disagreement of two arbitrators, where two only are acting, they may appoint an umpire, whose award shall be conclusive. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 15. Umpire.

LIABILITY OF CONTRIBUTORIES.

14.—(1) As soon as may be after the commencement of the winding up of a company, the liquidator shall settle a list of contributories. Liquidators to settle list of contributories.

(2) Every shareholder or member of the company or his representative is liable to contribute the amount unpaid on his shares of the capital, or on his liability to the company or to its members or creditors, as the case may be, under the Act, charter, or instrument of incorporation of the company; and the amount which he is liable to contribute shall be deemed assets of the company, and to be a debt due to the company payable as may be directed or appointed under this Act. Shareholders' liability to contribute.

(3) Where a shareholder has transferred his shares under circumstances which do not by law free him from liability in respect thereof, or where he is by law liable to the company or its contributories or any of them, to an amount beyond the amount unpaid on his shares, he shall be deemed a member of the company for the purposes of this Act, and shall be liable to contribute as aforesaid to the extent of his liabilities to the company or the contributories independently of this Act, and the amount which he is so liable to contribute shall be deemed assets and a debt as aforesaid. Case of transfer of shares by shareholder.

(4) The list of contributories shall distinguish between persons who are contributories as being representatives of or liable for others. Contributories liable in a representative character to be distinguished in list.

(5) It shall not be necessary where the personal representative of a deceased contributory is placed on the list to add the heirs or devisees of such contributory; nevertheless such heirs or devisees may be added at any time afterwards. When real representatives need not be inserted.

List to be evidence of liability.

(6) Any list so settled shall be prima facie evidence of the liability of the persons named therein to be contributories. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 14.

Settlement of list by the court.

15.—(1) The list of contributories may be settled by the Court in which case the liquidator shall make out and leave at the chambers of the Judge a list of the contributories of the company; and such list shall be verified by the affidavit of the liquidator, and shall, so far as is practicable, state the respective addresses of, and the number of shares or extent of interest to be attributed to each such contributory, and distinguish the several classes of contributories; and the list may from time to time, by leave of the Judge, be varied or added to by the liquidator.

Procedure on settling list by the court.

(2) Upon the list of contributories being left at the chambers of the Judge, the liquidator shall obtain an appointment for the Judge to settle the same, and shall give notice in writing of the appointment to every person included in the list, and stating in what character, and for what number of shares, or interest, such person is included in the list; and in case any variation in or addition to the list is at any time made by the liquidator, a similar notice in writing shall be given to every person to whom the variation or addition applies. All such notices shall be served four clear days before the day appointed to settle such list, or such variation or addition.

Certificate of result of settlement.

(3) The result of the settlement of the list of contributories shall be stated in a certificate by the clerk of the Court; and certificates may be made from time to time for the purpose of stating the result of the settlement down to any particular time, or to any particular person, or stating any variation of the list. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 15.

Provision for administration if personal representative fails to pay.

16. If a person made a contributory as personal representative of a deceased contributory makes default in paying any sum to be paid by him, proceedings may be taken for administering the estate of the deceased contributory, and for compelling payment thereout of the money due. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 16.

Calls on contributories.

17. The liquidators may, at any time and before they have ascertained the sufficiency of the assets of the company, call on all or any of the contributories, for the time being settled on the list of contributories, to pay, to the extent of their liability, all or any sums the liquidators deem necessary to satisfy the debts and liabilities of the company, and the costs, charges and expenses of winding it up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves; and the liquidators may, in making a call, take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories upon whom the call is made, may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective portions of the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 17.

Contributories liable to arrest like debtors under Rev. Stat. c. 80.

18. Where a person's name is on the list of contributories or is liable to be placed thereon, he shall be subject in respect of his liability, and on the application of the liquidator, to arrest and imprisonment, like any other debtor; and he shall for that purpose be deemed a debtor to the company, and a debtor to the liquidator, and his arrest may be by an order of the County Court Judge, whether the amount of his liability exceeds or not the ordinary jurisdiction of the said Court; and his being placed on the list of contributories under this Act shall be deemed a judgment, and the liquidator shall be deemed a creditor, within the meaning of The Act respecting Arrest and Imprisonment for Debt; and the said persons shall respectively have the same remedies, and the County Court and Judges and the officers of justice shall in such cases have the same powers and duties (as nearly as may be), as in corresponding cases under the said Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 18.

LIQUIDATOR'S DUTIES.

Employment of counsel.

19.—(1) No liquidator shall employ any counsel, or solicitor, without the consent of the inspectors, or of the members of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 19 (1); 53 V. c. 49, s. 1.

Liquidators or inspectors not to purchase assets of company.

(2) No liquidator or inspector shall purchase, directly or indirectly, any part of the stock in trade, debts or assets of any description of the estate.

Deposit in bank by liquidators.

(3) The liquidator shall deposit at interest in some chartered bank to be indicated by the inspectors or by the Court, all sums of money which he may have in his hands, belonging to the company, whenever such sums amount to $100.

Separate deposit account to be kept; withdrawal from account.

(4) Such deposit shall not be made in the name of the liquidator generally, on pain of dismissal; but a separate deposit account shall be kept for the company of the moneys belonging to the company, in the name of the liquidator as such, and of the inspectors (if any); and such moneys shall be withdrawn only on the joint cheque of the liquidator and one of the inspectors, if there be any. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 19 (2-4).

Liquidator to produce bank pass book at meetings, etc

(5) At every meeting of the members of the company, the liquidators shall produce a bank pass-book, shewing the amount of deposits made for the company, the dates at which the deposits were made, the amounts withdrawn and dates of such withdrawal; of which production mention shall be made in the minutes of the meeting, and the absence of such mention shall be prima facie evidence that the pass-book was not produced at the meetings. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 19 (5); 53 V. c. 49, s 1.

Liquidator to produce bank pass book when ordered.

(6) The liquidator shall also produce the pass-book whenever so ordered by the Court at the request of the inspectors or a member of the company, and on his refusal to do so, he shall be treated as being in contempt of Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 19 (6); 53 V. c. 49, s 2.

Liquidator and inspector to be subject to summary jurisdiction of court.

(7) Every liquidator or inspector shall be subject to the summary jurisdiction of the Court in the same manner and to the same extent as the ordinary officers of the Court are subject to its jurisdiction; and the performance of his duties may be compelled, and all remedies sought or demanded for enforcing any claim for a debt, privilege, mortgage, lien or right of property upon, in, or to any effects or property in the hands, possession or custody of a liquidator, may be obtained by an order of the Court on summary petition, and not by any action, attachment, seizure or other proceeding of any kind whatever; and obedience by the liquidator to such order may be enforced by the Court under the penalty of imprisonment, as for contempt of Court or disobedience thereto; or he may be removed in the discretion of the Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 19 (7).

EXPENSES.

Costs and expenses.

20. All costs, charges and expenses properly incurred in the voluntary winding-up of a company, including the remuneration of the liquidators, shall be payable out of the assets of the company in priority to all other claims. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 20.

Remuneration of liquidators in case no other fixed.

21. In case of there being no agreement or provision fixing the remuneration of a liquidator, he shall be entitled to a commission on the net proceeds of the estate of the company of every kind, after deducting expenses and disbursements, such commission to be of five per cent. on the amount realized, not exceeding $1,000, the further sum of two and a half per cent. on the amount realized in excess of $1,000, and not exceeding $5,000, and a further sum of one and a quarter per cent. on the amount realized in excess of $5,000; which said commission shall be in lieu of all fees and charges for his services. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 21.

MEETINGS.

Filling vacancies in office of liquidator.

22.—(1) If a vacancy in the office of liquidators appointed by the company, occurs by death, resignation or otherwise, a general meeting for the purpose of filling up the vacancy may be convened by the continuing liquidators, if any, or if none, then by any member of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c 183, s. 22 (1); 53 V. c. 49, s. 3.

General meetings during winding up.

(2) The liquidators may from time to time, during the continuance of the winding up, summon general meetings of the company for the purpose of obtaining the sanction of the company by special resolution or extraordinary resolution, or for any other purposes they think fit.

Annual meetings.

(3) In the event of the winding up continuing for more than one year, the liquidators shall summon a general meeting of the company at the end of the first year, and of each succeeding year from the commencement of the winding up, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient; and shall lay before the meeting an account, shewing their acts and dealings, and the manner in which the winding up has been conducted during the preceding year. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 22 (2-3).

Liquidators to call meetings of members of company.

(4) The liquidator shall also call meetings of the members of the company whenever required in writing so to do, by the inspector or five members of the company or by the Court, and he shall state succinctly in the notice calling any meeting the purpose thereof.

Subsequent meetings. Where meetings to be held.

(5) The members of the company may, from time to time, at any meeting, determine where subsequent meetings shall be held; and in the absence of such a resolution all meetings of the members of the company shall be held at the office of the liquidator or of the company, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 22 (4-5); 53 V. c. 49, s. 1.

One mode of giving notice of meeting.

(6) Notice of any meeting shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be duly given, and the meeting to be duly held, whenever the notice is given and meeting held in manner prescribed by the Act, charter or instrument of incorporation or by the regulations of the company, or by the Court; or Another mode of notice of meeting.

(7) Notice of the meeting may be given by publication thereof for at least two weeks in the Ontario Gazette, or by such other or additional notice as the Court, or the inspector or the company may direct, and by also, except where the Court otherwise directs, addressing notices of the meeting to the contributories within the Province, and to the representatives, within the Province, of contributories who reside out of the Province; and the notices shall be posted at least ten days before the day on which the meeting is to take place, the postage being prepaid by the liquidator.

Voting to be in person or by proxy.

(8) No member of the company shall vote at any meeting unless present personally, or represented by some person having a written authority (to be filed with the liquidator) to act on his behalf at the meeting, or generally; and when a poll is taken reference shall be had to the number of votes to which each member is entitled by the Act, charter or instrument of incorporation or the regulations of the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 22 (6-8); 53 V. c. 49, s. 2.

Scale of votes.

ASSISTANCE OF THE COURT.

Applications to the court.

23.—(1) The liquidators or any member of the company may apply to the Court to determine any question arising in the matter of the winding up; or to exercise all or any of the powers following; and the Court, if satisfied that the determination of the question, or the required exercise of power, will be just and beneficial, may accede wholly or partially to the application, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit; or it may make such other order on the application as the Court thinks just. R. S. O 1887, c. 183, s. 23 (1); 53 V. c. 49, s. 3.

Stay of action against company before order to wind up.

(2) The Court, at any time after the presentation of a petition for winding up a company and before making an order for winding up the company, may restrain further proceedings in any action or proceeding against the company (other than under the Insolvent Acts in force at the time, or any other authority over which this Legislature has no jurisdiction) in and upon such terms as the Court thinks fit.

Stay of action after commencement of winding up.

(3) The Court may make an order that no action or other proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the company except with the leave of the Court, and subject to such terms as the Court may impose; but this sub-section shall not apply to proceedings under any Act of the Parliament of Canada under its jurisdiction in matters of bankruptcy and insolvency or otherwise; a copy of such order shall forthwith be advertised as the Court may direct.

Settlement of list of contributories.

(4) The Court may settle the list of contributories. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 23 (2-4).

Meetings of members of company may be ordered.

Chairman.

(5) The Court may direct meetings of the members of the company to be summoned, held and conducted in such manner as the Court thinks fit, for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and may appoint a person to act as chairman of any such meeting, and to report the result of such meeting to the Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 23 (5); 53 V. c. 49, s. 1.

Order for delivery by contributories and others of property, etc.

(6) The Court may require any contributory for the time being settled on the list of contributories, or any trustee, receiver, banker, or agent or officer of the company, to pay, deliver, convey, surrender or transfer forthwith, or within such time as the Court directs, to or into the hands of the liquidator, any sum or balance, books, papers, estate, or effects which happen to be in his hands for the time being, and to which the company is prima facie entitled.

Order for payment by contributories.

(7) The Court may make an order on any contributory for the time being settled on the list of contributories, directing payment to be made, in manner in the order mentioned, of moneys due from him or from the estate of the person whom he represents, to the company, exclusive of moneys which he or the estate of the person whom he represents may be liable to contribute by virtue of any call made or to be made by the Court in pursuance of this Act.

Power to order payment into a bank to account of official liquidator.

(8) The Court may order any contributory, purchaser or other person from whom money is due to the company to pay the same into any bank appointed for this purpose in any general order made under this Act, or in default of such bank into a bank named in the order, or into a branch of such bank, to the account of the official liquidator instead of to the official liquidator, and the order may be enforced in the same manner as if it had directed payment to the official liquidator.

(9) An order made by the Court in pursuance of this Act upon any contributory shall, subject to the provisions herein contained for appealing against such order, be conclusive evidence that the moneys, if any, thereby appearing to be due, or ordered to be paid, are due; and all other pertinent matters stated in the order are to be taken to be truly stated, as against all persons, and in all proceedings whatsoever, with the exception of proceedings taken against the real estate of any deceased contributory, in which case the order shall only be prima facie evidence for the purpose of charging his real estate, unless his heirs or devisees were on the list of contributories at the time the order was made. Order on contributory to be conclusive evidence, except as to real estate of deceased.

(10) The Court may make such order for the inspection by the creditors and contributories of the company of its books and papers as the Court thinks just: and any books and papers in the possession of the company may be inspected in conformity with the order of the Court, but not further or otherwise. Inspection of books.

(11) The Court may, at any time after the commencement of the winding up of the company, summon to appear before the Court or liquidator any officer of the company, or any other person known or suspected to have in his possession any of the estate or effects of the company, or supposed to be indebted to the company, or any person whom the Court may deem capable of giving information concerning the trade, dealings, estate or effects of the company; and in case of refusal to appear or answer the questions submitted, he may be committed and punished by the Judge as for a contempt. Examination of persons before court or liquidator.

(12) The Court may require any such officer or person to produce any books, papers, deeds, writings, or other documents in his custody or power relating to the company. Production of books, etc.

(13) If any person so summoned, after being tendered the fees to which a witness is entitled in the County Courts, refuses to come before the Court or liquidator at the time appointed, having no lawful impediment, the Court may cause such person to be apprehended, and brought before the Court or liquidator for examination. Penalty on person summoned not attending.

(14) The Court or liquidator may examine, upon oath, any person appearing, or brought before them in the manner aforesaid, concerning the affairs, dealings, estate or effects of the company, and may reduce into writing the answers of every such person, and require him to subscribe the same. Mode of examination.

(15) In any proceeding under this Act, the Court may order a writ of subpœna ad testificandum, or of subpœna duces tecum to issue, commanding the attendance as a witness of any person within the limits of Ontario. Subpœnas.

(16) Where any person claims a lien on papers, deeds, or writings or documents produced by him, such production shall Liens.

be without prejudice to the lien; and the Court shall have jurisdiction in the winding up to determine all questions relating to such lien.

Power of court to assess damages against delinquent directors, etc.

(17) Where in the course of winding up a company under this Act, it appears that any past or present director, manager, official or other liquidator, or any officer of the company has misapplied, or retained in his own hands, or become liable or accountable for, moneys of the company, or been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the company, the Court may, on the application of a liquidator, or of any contributory of the company, notwithstanding that the offence is one for which the offender is criminally responsible, examine into the conduct of such director, manager, or other officer, and compel him to repay the moneys so misapplied or retained, or for which he has become liable or accountable, together with interest after such rate as the Court thinks just, or to contribute such sums of money to the assets of the company by way of compensation in respect of such misapplication, retainer, misfeasance, or breach of trust, as the Court thinks just. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 23 (6-17).

Proceedings by contributories, at their own expense and for their own benefit only.

24 If at any time a member of the company desires to cause any proceeding to be taken which, in his opinion, would be for the benefit of the company, and the liquidator, under the authority of the members of the company or of the inspectors, refuses or neglects to take such proceeding, after being duly required so to do, the member of the company shall have the right to obtain an order of the Court authorizing him to take such proceeding in the name of the liquidator or company, but at his own expense and risk, upon such terms and conditions as to indemnity to the liquidator, as the Court may prescribe; and thereupon any benefit derived from such proceeding shall belong exclusively to the member of the company instituting the same, for his benefit and that of any other member of the company who may have joined him in causing the institution of such proceeding; but if, before such order is granted, the liquidator signifies to the Court his readiness to institute such proceeding for the benefit of the company, an order shall be made prescribing the time within which he shall do so and in that case the advantage derived from such proceeding, shall appertain to the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 24; 53 V. c. 49, ss. 1, 2.

Filling vacancies in office of liquidator.

25.—(1) If a vacancy in the office of liquidator appointed by the company occurs by death, resignation or otherwise the company in general meeting may fill up such vacancy. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 25 (1).

Appointment by court.

(2) If from any cause there is no liquidator acting, either provisionally or otherwise, the Court may on the application of a member of the company, appoint a liquidator or liquidators. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 25 (2); 53 V. c. 49, s. 2.

(3) The Court may also on due cause shewn, remove a liquidator, and appoint another liquidator. Removal of liquidator.

(4) When there is no liquidator the estate shall be under the control of the Court until the appointment of a new liquidator. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 25 (3-4). The case of no liquidator.

26.—(1) Any one or more members of the company whose claims in the aggregate exceed $500, who may be dissatisfied with the resolutions adopted or orders made by the members of the company or the inspectors, or with any action of the liquidator for the disposal of the property of the company, or any part thereof, or for postponing the disposal of the same, or with reference to any matter connected with the management or winding-up of the estate, may, within four clear days after the meeting of the members of the company in case the subject of dissatisfaction is a resolution or order of the members of the company, or within four clear days after becoming aware or having notice of the resolution of the inspectors or action of the liquidator where such resolution or action is the subject of dissatisfaction, give to the liquidator notice that he or they will apply to the Court, on the day and at the hour fixed by such notice, (and not being later than four clear days after such notice has been given), or as soon thereafter as the parties may be heard before the Court, to rescind such resolutions or orders. Rescinding of resolution, etc., by the court.

(2) The Court, after hearing the inspectors, the liquidators and members of the company present at the time and place so fixed, may approve, rescind or modify the said resolutions or orders. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 26 (1-2); 53 V. c. 49, s. 1. Confirmation or variation of resolutions, etc.

(3) In case of the application being refused the party applying shall pay all costs occasioned thereby, and in other cases the costs and expenses shall be in the discretion of the Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 26 (3). Costs.

27.—(1) Any party who is dissatisfied with any order or decision of the Court in any proceeding under this Act, may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal, or to any one of the Judges of the said Court; but any appeal to a single Judge may, in his discretion, be referred, on a special case to be settled, to the full Court, and on such terms in the meantime as he may think necessary and just. Appeals.

(2) No such appeal shall be entertained unless the appellant has, within eight days from the rendering of such final order or judgment, taken proceedings on the said appeal, nor unless within the said time he has made a deposit or given security, to the satisfaction of a Judge, that he will duly prosecute the said appeal and pay such damages and costs as may be awarded to the respondent. Security for damages and costs.

(3) If the party appellant does not proceed with his appeal, as the case may be, according to the law or the rules of practice, Dismissal of appeal.

the Court, on the application of the respondent, may dismiss the appeal, and condemn the appellant to pay the respondent the costs by him incurred.

Judgment final.

(4) The judgment of the Court of Appeal shall be final. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 27.

Powers of court to be in addition to other powers.

28. Any powers by this Act conferred on the Court shall be deemed to be in addition to any other power, of instituting proceedings against any contributory, or against any debtor of the company for the recovery of any call or other sums due from such contributory, or against any debtor of the company, for the recovery of any call or other sum due from such contributory or debtor, or his estate, and such proceedings may be instituted accordingly. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 28.

Enforcing of orders.

29. All orders made by the Court may be enforced in the same manner as orders of such Court made in any action pending therein, or as orders of the Court under the Insolvent Acts in force at the time may be enforced; and for the purposes of this Act, the County Courts and the Judges thereof shall, in addition to their ordinary powers, have the same power of enforcing any orders made by them as the High Court has in relation to matters within the jurisdiction of that Court; and for the last-mentioned purposes the jurisdiction of the County Court Judge shall be deemed to be co-extensive in local limits with the jurisdiction of the High Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 29.

Powers of County Courts.

County Courts to be auxiliary.

Transfer from one Court to another.

30. The various County Courts of the Province, and the Judges of the said Courts respectively shall be auxiliary to one another for the purposes of this Act; and the winding up of a company, or any matter or proceeding relating thereto, may be transferred from one County Court to another with the concurrence, or by the order or orders, of the two Courts, or by an order of a Judge of the Court of Appeal. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 30.

MATTERS OF PRACTICE.

Enforcement of order of one Court by another.

31. Where an order made by one Court is required to be enforced by another Court, an office copy of the order so made, certified by the clerk of the Court which made the same, and under the seal of such Court, shall be produced to the proper officer of the Court required to enforce the same, and the production of such copy shall be sufficient evidence of the order having been made; and thereupon such last mentioned Court shall take such steps in the matter as may be requisite for enforcing such order in the same manner as if it were the order of the Court enforcing the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 31.

Petition on winding up.

32.—(1) Any application to the Court for winding up of a company under this Act shall be by petition; and the petition may be presented by the company, or by any contributory or contributories of the company.

Course of Court on hearing of petition.

(2) Upon hearing the petition the Court may dismiss the same, with or without costs, or may adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, and may make an interim order, or any other order that it deems just. R. S. O. 1887. c. 183, s. 32.

Stay of proceedings.

33. The Court at any time after an order has been made for winding up a company, may, upon the application by motion of any contributory, and upon proof to the satisfaction of the Court that all proceedings in relation to the winding up ought to be stayed, make an order staying the same, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Court deems fit. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 33.

Rules of procedure in ordinary cases, etc., to apply.

34. The rules of procedure for the time being as to amendments of pleadings and proceedings in the County Court, shall, as far as practicable, apply to all pleadings and proceedings under this Act; and any Court or liquidator before whom such proceedings are being carried on shall have full power and authority to apply the appropriate rules as to amendments to the proceedings so pending before him; and no pleading or proceeding shall be void by reason of any irregularity or default which can or may be amended or disregarded under the rules and practice of the Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 34.

Amendments.

Language of proceedings, etc.

35. In every petition, application, motion, or other pleading or proceeding under this Act, the parties may state the facts upon which they rely, in plain and concise language; and to the interpretation thereof, the rules of construction applicable to such language in the ordinary transactions of life shall apply. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 35.

Books, etc., to be prima facie evidence.

36. All books, accounts, and documents of the company and of the liquidator, shall, as between the contributories of the company, be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters purporting to be therein recorded. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 36.

Service of subpœnas, etc.

37. All rules, writs of subpœna, orders and warrants issued by any Court in any matter or proceeding under this Act, may be validly served in any part of Ontario upon the party affected or to be affected thereby, and the service of them may be validly made in such manner as is now prescribed for similar services, and the person charged with such service shall make his return thereof under oath. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 37.

Length of notice of pro-

38. Except where otherwise provided, four clear juridical days' notice of any petition, motion, order or rule shall be sufficeedings. Service of notice.

cient; and service of such notice shall be made in such manner as a similar service in an action. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 38.

Affidavits, before whom sworn.

39.—(1) Any affidavit, affirmation or declaration required to be sworn or made under the provisions or for the purposes of this Act, may be sworn or made in Ontario, before the liquidator, or before any liquidator, Judge, notary public, commissioner for taking affidavits, or Justice of the Peace; and out of Ontario, before any Judge of a Court of Record, any commissioner for taking affidavits to be used in any Court in Canada, any notary public, the chief municipal officer for any town or city, any British consul or vice-consul, or any person authorized by or under any Statute of the Dominion or of this Province to take affidavits.

Courts, etc., to take judicial notice of seals signatures, etc.

(2) All Courts, Judges, Justices, commissioners and persons acting judicially, shall take judicial notice of the seal, or stamp or signature (as the case may be) of such Court, Judge, notary public, commissioner, justice, chief municipal officer, consul, vice-consul, liquidator or other person, attached, appended or subscribed to such affidavit, affirmation or declaration, or to any other document to be used for the purposes of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 39.

DISSOLUTION OF COMPANY.

Account of winding up to be made by liquidator to a general meeting.

40.—(1) As soon as the affairs of the company are fully wound up, the liquidators shall make up an account shewing the manner in which the winding up has been conducted, and the property of the company disposed of; and thereupon they shall call a general meeting of the company for the purpose of having the account laid before them, and hearing any explanation that may be given by the liquidators; the meeting shall be called by advertisement, specifying the time, place and object of such meeting; and the advertisement shall be published one month at least previously thereto.

Return of holding of meeting to be sent to Provincial Secretary.

(2) The liquidator shall make a return to the Provincial Secretary of such meeting having been held, and of the date at which the same was held; which return shall be filed in the office of the Provincial Secretary; and on the expiration of three months from the date of the filing of such return, the company shall be deemed to be dissolved. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 40.

Dissolution of company.

Order for dissolution. Report to Provincial Secretary.

41. Or whenever the affairs of the company have been completely wound up, the Court may make an order that the company be dissolved from the date of such order, and the company shall be dissolved accordingly: which order shall be reported by the liquidator to the Provincial Secretary. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 41.

Penalty on default in reporting by liquidator or in making return.

42. If the liquidator makes default in transmitting to the Provincial Secretary the return mentioned in section 40, or in reporting the order (if any) declaring the company dissolved, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $20 for every day during which he is in default. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 42.

Disposition of unclaimed dividends.

43. All dividends deposited in a bank and remaining unclaimed at the time of the dissolution of the company, shall be left for three years in the bank where they are deposited, and if still unclaimed, shall then be paid over by such bank, with interest accrued thereon, to the Treasurer of Ontario, and, if afterwards duly claimed, shall be paid over to the persons entitled thereto. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 43.

Deposit by liquidator after dissolution of moneys with sworn statement.

44.—(1) Every liquidator shall, within thirty days after the date of the dissolution of the company, deposit in the bank appointed or named as hereinbefore provided for, any other money belonging to the estate then in his hands not required for any other purpose authorized by this Act, with a sworn statement and account of such money, and that the same is all he has in his hands; and he shall be subject to a penalty of not exceeding $10 for every day on which he neglects or delays such payment; and he shall be a debtor to Her Majesty for such money and may be compelled as such to account for and pay over the same.

Penalty on omission.

Money to remain on deposit for three years.

(2) The money so deposited shall be left for three years in the bank, and shall be then paid over, with interest, to the Treasurer of the Province, and if afterwards claimed shall be paid over, to the person entitled thereto.

Disposal of books, etc., after winding up.

(3) Where a company has been wound up under this Act and is about to be dissolved, the books, accounts and documents of the company and of the liquidators may be disposed of in such a way as the company by an extraordinary resolution directs.

After five years responsibility as to custody of books, etc., to cease.

(4) After the lapse of five years from the date of such dissolution no responsibility shall rest on the company or the liquidators, or any one to whom the custody of such books, accounts and documents has been committed, by reason that the same or any of them are not forthcoming to any party claiming to be interested therein. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 44.

RULES TO CARRY OUT ACT.

Board of county judges to make rules and forms as to proceedings and costs, etc.

45.—(1) The Board of County Judges from time to time shall make and frame and settle the forms, rules and regulations to be followed and observed in proceedings under this Act, and shall make rules as to the costs, fees and charges which shall or may be had, taken or paid in all such cases by or to solicitors or counsel, and by or to officers of Courts, whether for the officers or for the Crown, and by or to sheriffs, or other persons whom it may be necessary to provide for, or for any service performed or work done under this Act.

Allowance or disallowance by court of appeal.

(2) The Board of County Judges or any three of them, shall under their hands certify to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeal, all rules and forms made under this Act, and the Judges of the said Court (of whom the said Chief Justice shall be one) may approve of, disallow, or amend any such rules or forms; and the rules and forms so approved of (with or without amendment, as the case may be) shall have the same force and effect as if they had been made and included in this Act.

Practice till allowance of rules, etc.

(3) Until such forms, rules and regulations are so approved and subject to any which may be approved, the practice under this Act shall in cases not hereinbefore provided for, be the same (as nearly as may be), as under the Insolvent Acts for the time being in force in this Province. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 45.

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS OR REDUCTION OF CAPITAL.

Application of following sections.

46. The following sections of this Act shall apply to every company whose incorporation is under the authority of the Legislature of Ontario, where the shareholders or members of the company are entitled to the profits of the business of such company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 46.

Authority given by special resolution.

47. Where a company has passed a special resolution authorizing any of the acts hereinafter allowed, the directors and officers may act in accordance with the terms of such resolution, subject to the following provisions of this Act. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 47.

Resolution for distribution of assets or reduction of capital.

48.—(1) The company may by such resolution direct that proceedings be taken to distribute the proceeds of all the assets of the company amongst the shareholders after payment of the debts of the company,

(2) Or may, by such resolution, direct that proceedings be taken to reduce the capital:

(a) Either by paying off the shares of such persons as may elect to be paid off at a rate fixed by the resolution, or to be determined in accordance with a plan therein specified;

(b) Or by paying off a certain fixed proportion of all the shares.

(3) This section shall not apply to a company the capital of which is not divided into shares. R. S. O. 1837, c. 183, s. 48.

Notice of resolution.

49.—(1) The company shall thereupon give notice (Form A) of the resolution in the Ontario Gazette, and in some newspaper published in the city of Toronto, and in some other newspaper published where the chief place of business of the company in Ontario is situate, if any newspaper is published in such place.

(2) The notice shall also state that after some day to be therein named, and which shall not be earlier than three months from the first publication of the notice in the Gazette, the company will act upon the resolution.

(3) The notice shall also call upon all creditors of the company to file their claims against the company forthwith, whether such claims are or are not then due.

(4) Where the company has no place of business in Ontario, or its chief place of business is in Toronto, it will be sufficient if the notice is published in the Gazette and in one Toronto newspaper.

(5) The notice shall be published in the Gazette and in each of the said newspapers (where publication in more than one is required) at least six times during the said period of three months, and in computing such six times no two publications which occur in the same week shall be counted. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 49.

When resolution may be carried into effect.

50. Upon the arrival of the day appointed, or so soon thereafter as conveniently may be, the officers of the company may act in accordance with the terms of the resolution: provided (1) either that the company has no creditors, and a statement (Form B) upon the oath or solemn affirmation of the chief executive officer and of the treasurer of the company stating their belief of this fact, is filed with the clerk of the County or District Court of the county or district where the chief office of the company is situated; (2) or the consent of the company's creditors to the resolution being acted upon has been procured in writing, and a statement under oath or solemn affirmation of the said officers, containing the particulars set forth in Form C, is filed with the clerk. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 50.

Liability of officers for payments improperly made under resolution.

51. No officer of such company shall make or authorize any payment by virtue of such resolution until one or other of the said statements has been filed as aforesaid, or without the consent of every creditor of the company, so long as to his knowledge any debt, whether the same is due or not, or any accrued liability of the company, remains unsatisfied; and any officer who violates the provisions of this section shall, besides being subject to such criminal punishment as is authorized for his offence, be liable personally for the amount of such unsatisfied claim or accrued liability to the creditor or other person entitled to claim from the company. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 51.

Liability of shareholders for moneys received under resolution.

52. Every shareholder receiving moneys under such resolution, shall, to the extent of the moneys so received, remain liable for any debts or liabilities of the company then in fact existing, and upon the winding up of the company by judicial process, every such person, his executors or administrators, may be required to contribute to that extent towards the payment of such debts or liabilities after the other assets of the company have been exhausted; but no executor or administrator shall be held so liable unless at the time he receives notice of the assessment he has in his hands assets applicable thereto or subsequently receives such assets. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 52.

Restriction on insurance companies, etc.

53. No insurance or guarantee company, or other company carrying on business of a like nature, shall pay off any part of its capital stock under this Act until every policy, and every instrument having the effect of a policy, given by the company has expired, or been terminated, and, in the case of such a company, this fact shall be stated in the statement (Form B or C) filed as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 53.

Resolution to reduce par value of shares not to affect amount payable on such shares.

54. Where the capital of a company has become impaired, and the shareholders pass a special resolution to reduce the par value of the shares of the company, the shares shall thereupon be reduced in accordance with the terms of the resolution, provided that the resolution shall not in any wise affect the amount still remaining payable upon the shares, but the same amount shall, except as to a double or other additional liability, continue to be payable in respect of every share as if such resolution had not been passed; and in case by virtue of the charter or Act of incorporation of the company or of any general or other Act affecting the same, a double or other additional liability is cast upon the shareholders, the same proportionate liability shall continue, that is to say, if the liability was a double liability, the shareholders shall, as to new creditors, be liable for double the amount of the stock at its reduced value, and in like manner for any other proportion, but in respect of persons who are creditors at the time of the reduction, the liability of the shareholders shall continue as if such reduction had not taken place. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 54.

Notice of reduction of par value of shares.

55. Where a reduction is had under the preceding section, a notice thereof (Form D) shall be published at least once a week for six weeks in the manner hereinbefore provided in section 49. R. S. O. 1887, c. 183, s. 55.

Where capital reduced advertisements of company to state same as reduced

56. Where a company, acting under the provisions of this Act, has reduced its capital, every advertisement, circular or other document thereafter issued by the company, or any of its officers, containing a statement of the capital of the company shall state such capital at the amount to which it has been reduced. R. S. O. 1887. c. 183, s. 56.

7. "Householder" shall mean a resident of the municipality whose name appears as a tenant on the last revised assessment roll thereof. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (1).

"Land." "Real estate." "Real property."

8. "Land," "Lands," "Real Estate," "Real Property," shall include lands, tenements and hereditaments, and any interest or estate therein, or right or easement affecting the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 2 (7); c. 43, s. 1.

"Local municipality."

9. "Local Municipality," shall mean a city, town, township or incorporated village. 55 V. c. 42, s. 2 (2).

"Municipality."

10. "Municipality," shall mean any locality the inhabitants of which are incorporated or are continued, or become so under this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 2 (1).

"Next day."

11. The words "next day" shall not apply to, or include Sunday or statutory holidays. 55 V. c. 42, s. 2 (11).

"Reeve." 12. "Reeve," shall include the deputy-reeve or deputy-reeves, where there is a deputy-reeve for the municipality, except in so far as respects the office of a Justice of the Peace. 55 V. c. 42, s. 2 (10).

"Separated town." 13. "Separated town" shall mean a town separated for municipal purposes from the county in which it is situated. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (1).

"Township." 14. "Township," shall mean township, union of townships or united townships, as the case may be. 55 V. c. 42, s. 2 (5),

"Village." 15. "Village" shall mean an incorporated village, unless otherwise expressed. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (1).

Finally revised Assessment Roll. 3. For the purposes of this Act an assessment roll shall be understood to be finally revised when it has been so revised by the Court of Revision for the municipality, or by the Judge of the County Court in case of an appeal as provided in The Assessment Act, or when the time within which the appeal may be made has elapsed. 60 V. c. 15 Sched. C. (1).

Rev. Stat. c. 224.

Ascertainment of population of cities referred to by having a certain population. 4. Wherever any power is conferred upon, or any provision of law relates to cities having a specified population, such population shall, for the purposes aforesaid, be ascertained (unless otherwise provided) by the census of the city last taken, whether under an Act of the Parliament of Canada or under a municipal by-law. See 60 V. c. 45, s. 59; c. 3, s. 3.

PART I.

MUNICIPAL ORGANIZATION.

TITLE I.—INCORPORATION.
TITLE II.—FORMATION AND ALTERATION OF CORPORATIONS.

TITLE I.—INCORPORATION.—Secs. 5-10.

Existing municipal corporations continued. 5. The inhabitants of every county, city, town, village, township, union of counties, and union of townships incorporated at the time this Act takes effect, shall continue to be a body corporate, with the municipal boundaries of every such corporation respectively then established. 55 V. c. 42, s. 3.

Heads, officers, by-laws, contracts, etc. continued. 6. The head and members of the council, and the officers, by-laws, contracts, property, assets and liabilities of every municipal corporation, when this Act takes effect, shall be deemed the head and members of the council, and the officers, by-laws, contracts, property, assets and liabilities of the corporation, as continued under and subject to the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 4.

Names of municipal corporations.

7. The name of every body corporate (not being a provisional corporation), continued, or erected under this Act, shall be "The Corporation of the County, City, Town, Village, Township, or United Counties, or United Townships, (as the case may be), of " (naming the same). 55 V. c. 42, s. 5

Names of provisional corporations.

8. The inhabitants of every junior county, upon a provisional council being or having been appointed for the county, shall be a body corporate under the name of "The Provisional Corporation of the County of " (naming it). 55 V. c. 42, s. 6. [See sec. 41 (1)].

Inhabitants of counties, townships, etc., and of cities, towns, etc., to be corporations.

9. The inhabitants of every county, or union of counties erected by proclamation into an independent county or union of counties, and of every township or union of townships, erected into an independent township or union of townships and of every locality erected into a city, town, or village, and of every county or township separated from any incorporated union of counties or townships, and of every county or township, or of the counties or townships, (if more than one), remaining of the union after the separation, being so erected or separated after this Act takes effect, shall be a body corporate under this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 7.

Corporate powers to be exercised by council.

10. The powers of every body corporate under this Act shall be exercised by the council thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 8.

When population 750, county council may incorporate as a village, and name the place and returning officer for first election.

11.—(1) When the census returns of an unincorporated village, with its immediate neighbourhood, taken under the direction of the council or councils of the county or counties in which the village and its neighbourhood are situate, shew that the same contain over 750 inhabitants, and when the residences of the said inhabitants are sufficiently near to form an incorporated village, then, on petition by not less than 100 resident freeholders and tenants of the village and neighbourhood of the age of twenty-one years and over, of whom not fewer than one-half shall be freeholders, the council or councils of the county or counties in which the village and neighbourhood are situate shall, by by-law, erect the village and neighbourhood into an incorporated village, apart from the township or townships in which the same are situate, by a name, and with boundaries to be respectively declared in the by-law; and shall name in the by-law the place for holding the first election, and the returning officer who is to hold the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 9 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (2).

Incorporation of village within one mile of city of 100,000 population or or over.

(2) In case the territory sought to be incorporated, or any part thereof lies within one mile of the limits of a city having a population of 100,000 or more, the petition shall be signed by not less than two-thirds of the freeholders and resident tenants within the district sought to be incorporated, of the age of twenty-one years and over, whose names appear on the last revised assessment roll, and who have been resident within the territory sought to be incorporated for at least four months immediately prior to the signing of said petition, and of whom not fewer than one-half shall be freeholders. 55 V. c. 42, s. 9 (2); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (3); c. 45, s. 59.

Form of petition.

(3) If the district sought to be incorporated or any part thereof has been laid out in lots on a registered plan, each petitioner shall state the number of the lot on said plan owned or occupied by him, and shall further set out whether he is a freeholder or a resident tenant. 55 V. c. 42, s. 9 (3); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (4).

By-law and notice of petition.

(4) No by-law shall be passed under this section unless the petition therefor has been lodged with the clerk of the county at least one month before the meeting of the council at which the same is to be considered, nor unless public notice has, within two months previous to the meeting of the council at which the same is to be considered, been published at least once a week for two successive weeks in some newspaper at or nearest to the locality sought to be incorporated; and such notice shall set forth a description of the area intended to be embraced in the village. 55 V. c. 42, s. 9 (4).

Area of town or village limited.

12.—(1) No town or village incorporated after the passing of this Act, the population of which does not exceed 1,000 souls, shall extend over or occupy within the limits of the incorporation an area of more than 500 acres of land.

Regulations as to addition to area.

(2) No town or village already or hereafter incorporated, and containing a population exceeding 1,000 souls, shall make any further addition to its limits or area, except in the proportion of not more than 200 acres for each additional 1,000 souls, subsequent to the first 1,000.

Existing towns or villages, area of which exceeds proportionate limit, not to be enlarged.

(3) In the case of towns or villages now incorporated, wherever the area thereof exceeds the proportionate limit above prescribed, to wit, in all cases where the area exceeds the proportion of 500 acres for the first 1,000 souls, and 200 acres for every subsequent additional 1,000, the said towns or villages shall not be permitted to make any further addition to their limits until their population has reached such a proportion to their present area.

How population and area may be reckoned.

(4) But in all cases, the persons then actually inhabiting the land about to be included within the limits of the town or village, may, for the purpose of such extension, be held and reckoned as among the inhabitants of such town or village; and the land occupied by streets or public squares may be excluded in estimating the area of the town or village. 55 V. c. 42, s. 10.

Disposition of property and payment of debts when a village is separated from township.

13. In cases where a village is separated from the township or townships in which it is situate, or where the area of a village is reduced under section 18, the provisions of this Act for the disposition of the property, and the payment of debts, upon the dissolution of a union of townships, shall be applicable as if the localities separated had been two townships; and the councils of the village and of the township or townships shall respectively perform the like duties as by such provisions devolve upon the councils of separated townships, the said village being considered as the junior township. 55 V. c. 42, s. 11; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (5).

Where the village lies within two or more counties, it

14.—(1) Where the newly incorporated village lies within two or more counties, the councils of the counties shall, by by-law, annex the village to one of the counties; and if within shall be annexed to one of them by the county councils or, in case of difference, by the Lieut.-Governor.

six months after the petitions for the incorporation of the village are presented, the councils do not agree to which county the village shall be annexed, the wardens of the counties shall memorialize the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, setting forth the grounds of difference between the councils; and thereupon the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, annex the village to one of the counties.

In case of failure of councils to act, freeholders, etc., may petition Lieutenant-Governor.

(2) In case the wardens do not, within one month next after the expiration of the six months, memorialize the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as aforesaid, then 100 of the freeholders and resident tenants on the census list may petition the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to settle the matter, and thereupon the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, annex the incorporated village to one of the counties. 55 V. c. 42, s. 12; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (6); c. 3, s. 3.

Liability of territory detached from one county and annexed to another.

15.—(1) In case a locality is, under section 14 of this Act, detached from one county and annexed to another, the council of the county to which the locality is annexed and the council of the village shall agree with the council of the county from which the locality is detached, as to the amount (if any) of the county liabilities which should be borne by the locality so detached and the times of payment thereof.

In case councils do not agree.

(2) If the councils do not, within three months of the separation, agree in respect of the said matter, the same shall be determined by arbitration under this Act; and the amount (if any) so agreed or determined shall become a debt of the county to which the locality is attached, and the said locality shall continue subject to all rates which had been, prior to the separation, imposed for the payment of county debts or for the payment of bonuses or aids granted by sections of the county to railways, or for the payment of local improvement debts, until the amount thereof has been paid by the proceeds of such rates.

Rates for old debts.

(3) The council of the county or of the village, as the case may require, shall pass such by-laws and take such proceedings as are necessary for levying the said rates; and shall, unless the said council has previously paid the amount to the municipality so liable, pay over the same when collected, to the municipality which is liable for the debt on account of which the rates were imposed.

Annulment of incorporation.

(4) Where the councils do not agree as aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, before proclamation has been made, upon a petition of a majority of the resident freeholders and resident tenants of the village, and with the assent of at least two of the councils of the townships in which the village is situate, annul the incorporation of the village and restore the same to its former position as an unincorporated village; and the same shall thereupon be reinstated in its former position to the same extent as if no proceedings for incorporation had ever been taken. 55 V. c. 42, s. 13; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (7).

Addition to villages by Lieutenant-Governor.

16. In case the council of any village petitions the Lieutenant-Governor to add to the boundaries thereof, the Lieutenant-Governor may, subject to the provisions of section 12 of this Act, by proclamation, add to the village any part of the localities adjacent, which from the proximity of the streets or buildings therein, or the probable future exigencies of the village, it seems desirable to add thereto; and, in case the territory so added belonged to another county, it shall thenceforward, for all purposes, cease to belong to such other county, and shall belong to the same county as the rest of the village. 55 V. c. 42, s. 14.

Separation of farm lands from cities, towns or villages.

17. Upon the application of the council of any city, town or village and of the owners of any lands therein wholly used for farming purposes, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by proclamation, exclude and detach such lands from the said city, town or village and annex the same to some adjoining municipality, upon such terms as have been agreed upon between the council of such adjoining municipality and that of the said city, town or village and the owners of the said lands, or upon such terms as may have been determined by arbitration in case they cannot agree upon the terms. 57 V. c. 50, s. 1.

Reducing the area of villages or towns.

18.—(1) The county council of any county or union of counties, upon the application, by petition, of the corporation of any village or of any town not withdrawn from the county, having a population, as ascertained by the last municipal enumeration, not exceeding 2000, and whose outstanding obligations and debts do not exceed double the net amount of the yearly rate then last levied and collected therein, may, in their discretion, by by-law in that behalf, reduce the area of the village or town by excluding from it lands used wholly for farming purposes, and the lands so excluded shall form part of such township or townships as may be designated in the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 15; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (8).

New limits to be defined.

(2) The by-law shall define, by metes and bounds, the new limits intended for the village or town.

Population not to be reduced below 750.

(3) No village or town shall, by such change of boundaries, be reduced in population below the number of 750 souls.

Municipal rights of the village or town not to be interfered with.

(4) The municipal privileges and rights of the village or town shall not be thereby diminished, or otherwise interfered with as respects the remaining area thereof. 55 V. c. 42 s. 15 (2-4).

A village may become an incorpor-

19.—(1) In case the council of a village by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof, passe a resolution ated and may be annexed to an adjoining municipality.

declaring that it is expedient that the village should become unincorporated, and the resolution is approved by the electors in the manner required for by-laws creating debts; and in case the council of an adjoining municipality passes, or the councils of two or more of the adjoining municipalities pass a resolution or resolutions approving of the territory comprised in the village being annexed to such municipality or municipalities, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may issue a proclamation annulling the incorporation of the village, and annexing the territory included therein to such municipality or municipalities.

"Electors" meaning of.

(a) The term "electors" in the preceding subsection shall include all freeholders and all lease-holders whose leases extend over a period of not less than five years from the date when the said vote is taken, provided the names of such freeholders and lease-holders are entered in the last revised assessment roll of the said municipality.

Adjustment of assets and debts.

(2) If the said territory is annexed to one municipality, such municipality shall be liable for the debts of the village, and shall be entitled to its assets, but, if the territory is annexed to two or more municipalities, the councils of such municipalities shall, before the proclamation issues, agree between themselves, or determine by arbitration, as to the proportion of the debt of the village to be borne by them respectively, and as to the assets, or proportion of the assets, of the said village which the municipalities shall respectively receive; and the municipalities shall respectively be liable each for its proportion of such indebtedness as determined by the agreement or award.

May be by a proportion.

(3) If the agreement or award instead of stating the proportion of the debt to be borne as aforesaid, states the shares so to be borne in sums of money, then the fraction which is formed by taking the sum named as the amount to be borne by any municipality as the numerator, and the aggregate of the sums named as the amounts to be borne by the said municipalities as the denominator, shall be the proportion of the entire debt to be borne by such municipality, whether or not the debt is accurately stated in the agreement or award.

Special rate may be imposed.

(4) It may be part of the arrangement between the village and the municipality or municipalities that the village shall, for a time, be charged with a special rate, or that it shall be relieved of any rate, or part of a rate, imposed upon the rest of the municipality with which the village, or part of it, is to be united.

If municipalities are in different counties.

(5) In case the municipalities proposing to receive parts of the territory comprised in the village are in different counties, the provisions of this section may be acted upon with the assent (declared by resolution) of the councils of such counties, and unless such councils have previously agreed, or within three months from the issue of a proclamation under this section agree, as to the proportions in which the share of the county debt, which is referable to such village, is to be borne by the several counties, the same shall be determined by arbitration under this Act.

If one of them a city or town.

(6) Where part of the village is to be attached to a city or separated town, the city or separated town shall be deemed a county within the meaning of the next preceding subsection. 55 V. c. 42, s. 16; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Census of towns and villages.

20. A census of any town or village may at any time be taken under the authority of a by-law of the council thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 18.

Town containing over 15,000 inhabitants may be erected into a city; and village containing over 2,000 into a town.

21. In case it appears by the census return taken under such by-law, or under any statute, that a town contains over 15,000 inhabitants, the town may be erected into a city; and in case it appears by such return that a village contains over 2,000 inhabitants, the village may be erected into a town; but the change shall be made by means of and subject to the following proceedings and conditions:

Notice to be given.

1. The council of the town or village shall, for three months after the census return, insert a notice in some newspaper published in the town or village—or, if no newspaper is published therein, then the council shall, for three months, post up a notice in four of the most public places in the town or village, and insert the same in a newspaper published in the county town of the county in which the town or village is situate, or if there is no such newspaper, then in the newspaper published nearest to the said town or village—setting forth in the notice the intention of the council to apply for the erection of the town into a city, or of the village into a town, and stating the limits intended to be included therein;

Census returns to be certified, and publication of notice proved.

2. The council of the town or village shall cause the census return to be certified to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under the signature of the head of the corporation, and under the corporate seal, and shall also cause the publication aforesaid to be proved to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council;

Village may be made a town by proclamation.

then, in the case of a village, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, erect the village into a town by a name to be given thereto in the proclamation;

Existing debts to be adjusted in case of a town to be made a city.

3. In case the application is for the erection of a town into a city, the town shall also pay to the county of which it forms part, such portion, if any, of the debts of the county as is just; or the council of the town shall agree with the council of the county as to the amount to be so paid, with interest from the time of the erection of the new city, and as to the periods of payment; or, in case of disagreement, the same shall be determined by arbitration under this Act; and upon the council proving to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the payment, agreement or arbitration, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, erect the town into a city, by a name to be given thereto in the proclamation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 19.

Town may be made a city by proclamation.

Limits of such new town or city.

22. The Lieutenant-Governor may include in the new town or city such portions of any township or townships adjacent thereto, and within the limits mentioned in the aforesaid notice, as, from the proximity of streets or buildings, or the probable future exigencies of the new town or city, the Lieutenant-Governor may consider it desirable to attach thereto. 55 V. c. 42, s. 20.

Wards, number of population of.

23. The Lieutenant-Governor may divide the new town or city into wards, with appropriate names and boundaries, but no town shall have less than three wards, and no ward in such town or city less than 500 inhabitants. 55 V. c. 42, s. 21.

Extension of city or town.

24.—(1) In case two-thirds of the members of the council of a city or town do, in council, before the 15th day of July in any year, pass a resolution affirming the expediency of any addition being made to the limits of the city or town, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, and on such terms and conditions, as to taxation, assessment, improvements or otherwise, as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council sees fit and the council of the city or town may consent to, add to the city or town any part of the adjacent township or townships which the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, on the grounds aforesaid, considers it desirable to attach thereto. And the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may also by such proclamation provide that the territory so added or to be added to the city or town shall, for the purposes of elections to the Legislative Assembly continue for a period of time to be mentioned in the proclamation, to form part of the electoral district of which it had theretofore formed a part. 55 V. c. 42, s. 22 (1); 59 V. c. 51, s. 1.

Where land attached to city or town, etc., belonged to another county.

25. In case any tract of land so attached to the city or town belonged to another county, the same shall thenceforward, for all purposes, cease to belong to such other county, and shall belong to the same county as the rest of the city or town. 55 V. c. 42, s. 23.

Annexation of villages or towns to adjacent villages, towns or cities.

26.—(1) In case the council of any village or town pass a resolution affirming the expediency of the annexation of the village or town to an adjacent village, town or city, and the municipal council of such last mentioned village, town or city, pass a similar resolution, and in case a majority of the electors of the first-mentioned village or town as defined by clause (a) of subsection 1 of section 19 of this Act, by vote approve of the resolution affirming the expediency of such annexation, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by proclamation, annex the one municipality to the other, upon such terms as have been agreed upon by the councils, or as have been determined by arbitration, in case the councils resolve to have the terms settled by arbitration, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may also by such proclamation provide that the said first mentioned village or town so annexed or to be annexed shall, for the purpose of elections to the Legislative Assembly, continue, for such period of time as may be mentioned in the proclamation, to form part of the electoral district of which it had theretofore formed a part. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (10); 60 V. c. 45, s. 26.

Secs. 16, 24 and 25 to apply.

(2) Subject to any variations made by the terms agreed upon or settled in manner aforesaid, the municipality annexed to the other shall be subject to the provisions of this Act having regard to the annexation of territory to a village, town or city. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24 (2).

Village or town may be erected into a town or city and re-divided into wards.

(3) In case the population admits thereof, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by the same proclamation, erect the village or town to which the addition is made, into a town or city, by a name to be given thereto in the proclamation, and may divide or re-divide the city, town or village into wards. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24 (3).

By-law to be submitted in case of a petition therefor.

(4) In case a petition signed by one hundred and fifty qualified municipal electors of any town or village, is presented to the council of such town or village asking that a by-law be submitted for the annexation of such town or village to an adjacent village, town or city, either unconditionally or upon such terms as may be set out in said petition, it shall be the duty of such council to submit to the vote of the municipal electors of the said town or village, a by-law for the annexation of the said village or town and the said council shall forthwith prepare a by-law in accordance with the prayer of the petition and shall submit the same to the said municipal electors for approval or otherwise within four weeks after the receipt of the petition by the said council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24 (4); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Council to pass by-law within one month.

(5) A by-law which is duly carried, under the provisions of the last preceding subsection, by the vote of the municipal electors of said town or village shall, within a reasonable time, but not exceeding one month thereafter, be adopted by said council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24 (5).

Assent of adjacent municipality.

(6) Thereupon the council of such adjacent village, town or city may, by resolution, assent to the annexation of such town or village aforesaid. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24 (6).

Proclamation.

(7) In the event of the annexation of any such town or village as aforesaid having been approved of and assented to in manner hereinbefore provided, the same may be carried into effect by proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on a day to be named in the said proclamation, or in any subsequent proclamation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 24, (7).

[As to date of first election under proclamation, see Sec. 96.]

Town may be withdrawn from jurisdiction of county by by-law on certain conditions.

27. The council of any town may pass a by-law to withdraw the town from the jurisdiction of the council of the county within which the town is situated, upon obtaining the assent of the electors of the town to the by-law in manner provided by this Act, subject to the following provisions and conditions:

Amount to be paid by town to county to be settled by agreement or arbitration.

1. After the final passing of the by-law, the amount which the town is to pay to the county for the expenses of the administration of justice, the use of the gaol, and the erection and repairs of the registry office, and for providing books for the same, and for services for which the county is liable, under the provisions of any Act respecting the registration of instruments relating to lands, as well as for the then existing debt of the county, if not mutually agreed upon, shall be ascertained by arbitration under this Act; and the agreement or award shall distinguish the amount to be annually paid for the said expenses, and for the then debt of the county, and the number of years during which the payments for the debt are to be continued.

Matters to be considered by arbitrators.

2. In adjusting their award, the arbitrators shall take into consideration, among other things, the amount previously paid by the town, or which the town is then liable to pay, for the construction of roads or bridges by the county without the limits of the town; and also what the county has paid, or is liable to pay, for the construction of roads or bridges within the town; and they shall also ascertain, and allow to the town, the value of its interest in all county property, except roads and bridges within the town.

Copy of agreement or award to be sent to the Lieutenant-Governor. Proclamation.

3. When the agreement or award has been made, a copy of the same and of the by-law, duly verified by affidavit, shall be transmitted to the Lieutenant-Governor, who may thereupon issue his proclamation, withdrawing the town from the jurisdiction of the council of the county.

Effect of proclamation.

4. After the proclamation has been issued, the offices of reeve and deputy reeve or deputy reeves of the town shall cease; and no by-law of the council of the county thereafter made shall have any force in the town, except so far as relates to the care of the court house and gaol, and other county property in the town; and the town shall not thereafter be liable to the county for, or be obliged to pay to the county, any money for county debts or other purposes, except the sums agreed upon or awarded as aforesaid.

New agreement or award after five years, etc.

5. After the lapse of five years from the time of the agreement or award, or of such shorter time as may be stated in the agreement or award, a new agreement or a new award may be made, to ascertain the amount to be paid by the town to the county for expenses of the administration of justice, use of the gaol, erection and repairs of the registry office or offices, providing books for the same, and for services for which the county is liable, as required by and under the provisions of any Act respecting the registration of instruments relating to lands.

Property after withdrawal.

6. After the withdrawal of a town from the county, all property theretofore owned by the county, except roads and bridges within the town, shall remain the property of the county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 25; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Town may after five years from withdrawal pass by-law for re-union with county.

28.—(1) The council of a town which has withdrawn from a county may, after the expiration of five years from the withdrawal, pass a by-law (to be assented to by the electors in manner provided for by this Act in respect of by-laws for creating debts) to re-unite with such county.

By-law to have no effect until ratified by council of county, etc.

(2) The by-law shall have no effect unless ratified and confirmed within six months after the passing thereof by the council of the county or union of counties from which the said town had previously withdrawn, and unless the terms and conditions which the town is to pay, perform, or be subject to, have been previously agreed upon or settled in manner following, that is to say:

Before by-law ratified, the accounts of the debts of town and county respectively to be determined.

(3) Before the by-law is confirmed by the council of the county, the councils of the town and county shall determine by agreement the amounts of the debts of the town and county respectively which are to be paid or borne by the county after the re-union, or what amount is to be payable by a special rate to be imposed upon the ratepayers of the town, over and above all other county rates, and all other matters relating to property, assets, or advantages consequent upon the reunion, and affecting the county or town respectively, and such other terms or conditions as appear just shall be settled by such agreement; and in default of such agreement being come to within three months after the passing of the by-law by the council of the town, the said matters shall be settled by arbitration, as provided by this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 26.

[As to formation of new Townships, see Cap. 3, Sec. 13.]

New township in territory not part of incorporated county may be attached to a county by proclamation.

29. In case a township is laid out by the Crown in territory forming no part of an incorporated county, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, annex the township, or two or more of such townships lying adjacent to one another, to any adjacent incorporated county, and may erect the same into an incorporated union of townships with some other township of such county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 27.

[As to annexation of gores, etc., to Townships, see Cap. 3, Sec. 15].

Junior township containing 100 freeholders, etc., may be separated from union.

30. When a junior township of an incorporated union of townships has 100 resident freeholders and tenants on the assessment roll as last finally revised and passed, such township shall, upon the 1st day of January next after the passing by the county council of the proper by-law in that behalf become separated from the union. 55 V. c. 42, s. 28; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (11). See sec. 98.

In what cases junior township containing 50 freeholders, etc., but less than 100, may be separated from union, 31.—(1) In case a junior township has at least 50, but less than 100 resident freeholders and tenants on the last revised assessment roll, and two-thirds of the resident freeholders and tenants of the township petition the council of the county to separate the township from the union to which it belongs; and in case the council considers the township to be so situated, with reference to streams or other natural obstructions, that its inhabitants cannot conveniently be united with the inhabitants of an adjoining township for municipal purposes, the council may, by by-law, separate the same from the union; and the by-law shall name the returning officer who is to hold, and the place for holding, the first election.

and attached to an adjoining municipality.

(2) In case two-thirds of the resident freeholders and tenants of one or more junior townships petition the council of the county to be separated from the union to which they belong, and to be attached to some other adjoining municipality, and in case the council consider that the interest and convenience of the inhabitants of the township or townships would be promoted thereby, they may, by by-law, separate the township or townships from the union, and attach the same to some other adjoining municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 29; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (11).

Disposition of property upon dissolution of union.

32. After the dissolution of a union of townships, the following shall be the disposition of the property of the union:

1. The real property of the union situate in the junior township, shall become the property of the junior township; Real property.

2. The real property of the union situate in the remaining township or townships of the union shall be the property of the remaining township or townships;

3. The two corporations shall be jointly interested in the other assets of the union, and the same shall be retained by the one, or shall be divided between both, or shall be otherwise disposed of, as they may agree; Other assets.

4. The one shall pay or allow to the other, in respect of the said disposition of the real and personal property of the union, and in respect to the debts of the union, such sum or sums of money as may be just; Arrangement as to property and debts.

5. In case the councils of the townships do not, within three months after the first meeting of the council of the junior township, agree as to the disposition of the personal property of the union, or as to the sum to be paid by the one to the other, or as to the times of payment thereof, the matters in dispute shall be settled by arbitration under this Act; How to be determined in case of disagreement.

6. The amount so agreed upon or settled shall bear interest from the day on which the union was dissolved; and shall be provided for by the council of the indebted township like other debts. 55 V. c. 42, s. 30. Amount settled to bear interest.

33. In case a township is laid out by the Crown in an incorporated county or union of counties, or in case there is any township therein not incorporated and not belonging to an incorporated union of townships, the council of the county or united counties shall, by by-law, unite such township, for municipal purposes, to some adjacent incorporated township or union of townships in the same county or union of counties. 55 V. c. 42, s. 31. New townships, etc., to be united to adjacent townships, and how.

34. In case of there being at any time in an incorporated county or union of counties two or more adjacent townships not incorporated, and not belonging to an incorporated union of townships, and in case such adjacent townships have together not less than 100 resident freeholders and tenants within the same, the council of the county or union of counties may, by by-law, form such townships into an independent union of townships. 55 V. c. 42, s. 32; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (11). Townships not incorporated or united may be formed into unions.

35. Every proclamation or by-law forming a union of townships shall designate the order of seniority of the townships so united; and the townships of the union shall be classed in the by-law according to the relative number of freeholders and tenants on the last revised assessment roll; or if there is no such revised assessment roll for any of such townships, then the order of seniority shall be determined by Seniority of united townships, how regulated.

the proclamation or by-law, as the Lieutenant-Governor or the county council may think fit. 55 V. c. 42, s. 33; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (11).

Effect of dissolution of union of counties on united townships in different counties.

36. In case the united townships are in different counties the by-law shall cease to be in force whenever the union of the counties is dissolved. 55 V. c. 42, s. 34.

Setting apart Hamlets.

Setting apart unincorporated village and neighbourhood as a hamlet.

37.—(1) When any unincorporated village or settlement and its immediate neighbourhood lie wholly within the limits of a township, and when the residences of the inhabitants are, in the opinion of the council of the township, sufficiently near to each other to render the same desirable, the council of the township may, by by-law, upon the petition of a majority of the ratepayers within the area to be set off, one-half of whom shall be resident freeholders, set the unincorporated village or settlement and neighbourhood apart from the remaining portion of the township in which the same are situate, as a hamlet, and with boundaries to be respectively defined and declared in the by-law, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned. 55 V. c. 42, s. 17 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (9).

Jurisdiction of township council continued.

(2) Except so far as may be inconsistent with the enactments of this section, all the powers given by this Act to the council of every township shall remain in force as respects the hamlet so set apart, and are hereby continued and extended to the council of the township wherein the hamlet so set apart is situate. 55 V. c. 42, s. 17 (2).

Additional powers of township councils.

(3) In addition to the powers given to the council of every township by this Act, the council of every township wherein a hamlet has been set apart under the provisions of this Act, shall, as respects such hamlet, have all the rights and powers conferred by this Act upon the councils of cities, towns and villages (including the power to pass by-laws, which shall apply exclusively and only to the hamlet so set apart), for the following purposes:

(a) To compel all persons (resident or non-resident) liable to statute labour within such hamlet, to compound for such labour at any sum not exceeding $1 for each day's labour, and to provide that such sum shall be paid in commutation of such statute labour, and to enforce the payment of such commutation in money in lieu of such statute labour; and for the purpose of enforcing such payment the like remedies may be had, and proceedings taken against the person in default, as are provided by sub-section 1 of section 107 of The Assessment Act, in cases of neglect or refusal to pay any sum for statute labour commuted under section 103 of the The Assessment Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 224.

(b) For all the purposes specified in sections 664 to 687 both inclusive of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 17 (3); 58 V. c. 42, s. 1; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (9); c. 3, s. 3.

Uniting hamlets.

(4) Wherever in a township two or more hamlets which adjoin, or lie contiguous to each other, are so set apart as aforesaid, the council of the township shall have power to pass a by-law uniting such separate hamlets, so previously set apart, into one hamlet, whereupon the council shall have the same powers over, and relating to the united hamlets, as if the whole area embraced within the limits of the several hamlets so united had originally been set apart in one parcel under the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 17 (4); 60 V. c 15, Sched. C. (9).

[As to the formation of new counties see Rev. Stat. Cap. 3, Sec. 13.]

New counties, how formed by proclamation, and annexed or united.

38. The Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, form into a new county any new townships not within the limits of an incorporated county, and may include in the new county one or more unincorporated townships or other adjacent unorganized territory (defining the limits thereof) not being within an incorporated county, and may annex the new county to any adjacent incorporated county; or in case there is no adjacent incorporated county, or in case the Lieutenant-Governor in Council considers the new county, or any number of such new counties lying adjacent to one another, and not belonging to any incorporated union, to be so situated that the inhabitants cannot conveniently be united with the inhabitants of an adjoining incorporated county for municipal purposes, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by the proclamation, erect the new county, or new adjacent counties, into an independent county or union of counties for the said purposes, and the proclamation shall name the new county or counties. 55 V. c. 42, s. 35.

Seniority of united counties, how regulated.

39. In every union of counties, the county in which the county court house and gaol are situate shall be the senior county; and the other county or counties of the union shall be the junior county or counties thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 36.

Laws applicable to unions of counties.

40. During the union of counties, all laws applicable to counties (except as to representation in Parliament or the Legislative Assembly, and the registration of titles) shall apply to the union as if the same formed but one county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 37.

Separation of united counties.

41.—(1) Where the census returns, taken under a statute, or under the authority of a by-law of the council of any united counties, shew that the junior county of the union contains 25,000 inhabitants or more, then if a majority of the members of the county council representing those county council divisions which constitute such junior county (including any county council division which takes in the larger part of any municipality in such junior county), do in the month of February, pass a resolution affirming the expediency of the junior county being separated from the union; and if, in the month of February following the next election of members of the county council, a majority of the said members of the county council representing those county council divisions which constitute such junior county (including any county council division which takes in the larger part of any municipality in such junior county), transmit to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council a petition for the separation; and if the Lieutenant-Governor deems the circumstances of the junior county such as to call for a separate establishment of Courts and other county institutions, he may, by proclamation setting forth the facts, constitute the members of the county council representing those county council divisions which constitute such junior county (including any county council division which takes in the larger part of any municipality in such junior county), and the persons to be elected as hereinafter mentioned by the council of any separated town in the said county a provisional council, and may in the proclamation appoint a time and place for the first meeting of the council, and may therein name one of its members to preside at the meeting, and may also therein determine the place for and the name of the county town. 55 V. c. 42, s. 38; 56 V. c. 35, s. 1; 59 V. c. 52, ss. 3, 5; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (12).

Appointment by proclamation of provisional council in junior county.

First meeting thereof.

County town.

Where the junior county has less than 25,000 but more than 17,000 inhabitants.

(2) In case the returns mentioned in the preceding subsection show that the junior county contains less than 25,000 but more than 17,000 inhabitants, then two-thirds in number of the members of the county council representing those county council divisions which constitute such junior county (including any county council division which takes in the larger part of any municipality in such junior county), may take the same proceedings for a separation from the union as a bare majority is empowered to take in cases provided for under the said preceding subsection. 56 V. c. 35, s. 2; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (12).

Representation of separated towns in provisional council.

(3) The council of every separated town situate in the said junior county, shall, at a meeting duly called for that purpose after the issue of the said proclamation and before the time therein appointed for holding the first meeting of the provisional council, elect from among their members two representatives to the said provisional council; and the persons so elected shall, until the final dissolution of the union by proclamation as hereinafter provided, be members of the provisional council in the same manner and to the same extent as any other members thereof. 56 V. c. 35, s. 2 (3); 59 V. c. 52, s. 5.

Who to preside.

42. The member appointed by proclamation as in the preceding section provided, shall preside in the provisional council until a provisional warden has been elected by the council from among the members thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 39.

Appointment of provisional warden and other officers.

Terms of office.

43. Every provisional council shall from time to time, by by-law, appoint a provisional warden, a provisional treasurer, and such other provisional officers for the county as the council deem necessary. The provisional warden shall hold office for the municipal year for which he is elected, and the treasurer and other officers so appointed shall hold office until removed by the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 40.

Provisional council may acquire land, and erect thereon gaol and court house.

44. Every provisional council may acquire the necessary property at the county town of the junior county on which to erect a court house and gaol, and may erect a court house and gaol thereon, adapted to the wants of the county, and in conformity with any statutory or other rules and regulations respecting such buildings, and may pass by-laws for such purposes. 55 V. c. 42, s. 41.

Respective powers of provisional council and council of union.

45. The powers of a provisional council shall not interfere with the powers of the council of the union, and any money raised by the provisional council in the junior county shall be independent of the money raised therein by the council of the union. 55 V. c. 42, s. 42.

Agreement upon dissolution as to joint liabilities and joint assets.

46. After a provisional council has procured the necessary property and has erected thereon the proper buildings for a court house and gaol, such council, and the council of the senior or remaining counties, may enter into an agreement for the settlement of their joint liabilities and the disposition of their joint assets (other than real estate), and for determining the balance or amount due by the one county to the other,

Senior county to assume debts of union.

Junior county to be charged with just proportion.

and the times of payment thereof; and in determining the balance the senior or remaining counties shall assume the debts of the union, and the junior county shall be charged with such part thereof as may be just; and the value of the real estate which upon the separation, becomes the property of the senior or junior county respectively, and any improvement effected by the union, of which either county gets the exclusive benefit, shall also be taken into account. 55 V. c. 42, s. 43.

When provisional councillors shall not vote.

47. No member of the provisional council shall vote or take part in the council of the union on any question affecting such agreement, or the negotiation therefor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 44.

In case of disagreement, disputes to be determined by arbitration.

48. In case the councils, within one month after the time mentioned in section 46, are unable to determine by agreement the several matters hereinbefore mentioned with respect to their debts, assets and property, such matters shall be settled between them by arbitration under this Act: and the county found liable shall pay the other county the balance or amount agreed or settled to be due by such county: and such amount shall bear interest at six per centum per annum from the day on which the union was dissolved, and shall be provided for, like other debts, by the council of the county liable therefor after separation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 45.

Payment of amounts and due.

Appointment of sheriff and other officials.

49. After the sum, if any, to be paid by the junior county to the senior county or remaining counties has been paid or ascertained by agreement or arbitration, a Judge may be appointed as provided by The British North America Act, 1867: and the Lieutenant-Governor or Lieutenant-Governor in Council, as the case may be, may appoint a sheriff, one or more coroners, a clerk of the peace, a clerk of the County Court, a registrar, and at least twelve Justices of the Peace, and may provide in the commission or commissions, that the appointments are to take effect on the day the counties become separate. 55 V. c. 42, s. 46; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Final separation of united counties by proclamation.

50. After such appointments are made, the Lieutenant Governor may, by proclamation, separate the junior county from the senior county or remaining counties, and shall declare such separation to take effect on a day to be named in the said proclamation; and on that day the Courts and officers of the union (including Justices of the Peace) shall cease to have any jurisdiction in the junior county; and the real property of the corporation of the union situate in the junior county shall become the property of the corporation of the junior county, and the real property situate in the remaining county or united counties shall be the property of the corporation of the remaining county or united counties; and the other assets belonging to the corporation of the union, shall belong to and be the property of the senior or junior county or union of counties respectively, as agreed upon at the separation; and, if not otherwise disposed of by agreement or arbitration, they shall belong to and be the property of the senior county or union of counties. 55 V. c. 42, s. 47 ; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (13) ; c. 3, s. 3.

Property, how divided.

Officers and property, etc., continued.

51.—(1) When a junior county is separated from a union of counties, the head and members of the provisional council of the junior county, (except the members of the provisional council elected by the council of any town separated from the county for municipal purposes), and the officers, by-laws, contracts, property, assets and liabilities of the provisional corporation, shall be the head and members of the council, and the officers, by-laws, contracts, property, assets and liabilities of the new corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 48 (1); 56 V. c. 35, s. 3.

(2) The treasurer of the senior county shall, upon being requested so to do, deliver to the treasurer of the new county the books relating to the municipalities within the new county required to be kept under section 164 of The Assessment Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 48 (2).

Rev. Stat. c. 224.

Execution and service of process in hands of sheriff at time of separation.

52.—(1) The dissolution of a union of counties shall not prevent the sheriff of any senior county from proceeding upon and completing the execution or service within the junior county of any writ of mesne or final process in his hands at the time of such separation, or of any renewal thereof, or of any subsequent or supplementary writ in the same cause, or, in the case of executions against lands, from executing all necessary deeds and conveyances relating to the same ; and the acts of all such sheriffs in that behalf shall be and be held and construed to be legal and valid in the same manner and to the same extent as if no separation had taken place, but no further.

Execution of writs.

(2) This section shall not be held to authorize the sheriff of the senior county to execute within the new county any writ which is not in his hands at the time when the dissolution takes effect, unless such writ depends for its priority upon a former writ executed by such sheriff or in his hands at the said time.

Pending actions.

(3) All actions and proceedings in any Court which are pending at the date the establishment of the new county takes effect, may be prosecuted, continued and completed, and all writs of execution, and other process, and all acts and proceedings subsequent thereto, may (subject to any order to the contrary being made), be taken, issued, and had in the county in which such actions and proceedings were originally commenced, as fully and effectually as if the junior county had not been separated from the senior county ; and (subject to the provisions of the next subsection), no writ or other process or proceeding shall lose its priority by reason of no entry thereof appearing or being in the proper office in that behalf in the new county ; and all officers who would have had power or authority to execute such writ, process or proceedings, if the new county had not been formed, shall, for the purpose of all pending suits, actions and proceedings, have the same power and authority in respect of the same as if the dissolution had not taken place. 55 V. c. 42, s. 49 (1-3); R. S. O. 1887, c. 16, s. 44.

Continuation of writs in hands of sheriff at time of dissolution.

(4) No unsatisfied writ against lands or goods in the hands of the sheriff of the union on the day when the dissolution takes effect shall bind lands or goods situate within the limits of the new county, or have any effect upon such lands or goods after one year from the said day, unless the person entitled to the benefit of such unsatisfied writ, before the expiration of the said year, and before the expiry of the writ in the hands of the sheriff of the union as aforesaid, has placed a writ against lands or goods (as the case may require) in the hands of the sheriff of the new county, indorsed with a notice that priority is claimed by virtue of this Act, in which case so long as such last mentioned writ is in force he shall retain any priority which he then had by virtue of the writ in the hands of the sheriff of the union on the day of the dissolution thereof; and he shall, if so required by the sheriff of the new county, deliver to him a certificate under the hand of the sheriff of the union, showing the date of the delivery to him of such writ; which certificate the said sheriff of the union shall give upon request and on payment of his proper fees therefor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 49 (4); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (14).

Division Courts.

(5) The Lieutenant-Governor may, in the proclamation establishing the new county, or in a subsequent proclamation, to take effect from a day to be named, fix and determine the number, limits and extent of the Division Courts for the new county, subject to be thereafter altered under the provisions of The Division Courts Act, and may by such proclamation direct that suits and proceedings which at the said day are pending or being in any Division Court therein specified, shall become suits or proceedings of any other Division Court therein specified, and thereupon such suits or proceedings may be continued in such last mentioned Court as if they had been commenced therein. 55 V. c. 42, s. 49 (5).

Rev. Stat. c. 60.

Change of place of trial in actions, etc., after separation.

53.—(1) If, upon a dissolution of a union of counties, there is pending an action, or other civil proceeding in which the county town of the union has been named as the place of trial, the Court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or any Judge who has authority to make orders therein, may, by consent of parties, or on hearing the parties upon affidavit, order the place of trial to be changed, and all records and papers in the action or proceeding to be transmitted to the proper officers of the new county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 50.

If no order made, where proceedings to be carried on.

(2) In case no such change is directed, all such actions and proceedings shall be carried on and tried in the senior county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 51.

54. All Courts of the junior county required to be held at a place certain, shall be held in the county town of the junior county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 52. Place for holding courts in junior county.

Division V.—Matters Consequent upon the Formation of New Corporations.

By-Laws to continue in force. Secs. 55, 56.
Debts and liabilities how affected. Secs. 57-61.
Officials and their sureties, how affected. Secs. 62-65.

By-laws.

55. In case a village is incorporated, or a village or town (with or without additional area) is erected into a town or city, or a township or county becomes separated, the by-laws in force therein respectively shall continue in force until repealed or altered by the council of the new corporation; but no such by-law shall be repealed or altered unless it could have been legally repealed or altered by the council which passed the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 53. By-laws in force prior to formation of new corporation to continue in force until altered by council of new corporation.

56. In case an addition is made to the limits of any municipality, the by-laws of the municipality shall extend to the additional limits, and the by-laws of the municipality from which the same has been detached shall cease to apply to the addition, except only by-laws relating to roads and streets, and these shall remain in force until repealed by by-laws of the municipality to which the addition has been made. 55 V. c. 42, s. 54. What by-laws in force in extended limits of a municipality.

Debts and Liabilities.

57. In case of the erection of a locality into a village, or of a village into a town, or of a town into a city, the village, town or city shall remain subject to the debts and liabilities to which the locality was previously liable, in like manner as if the same had been contracted or incurred by the new municipality; and, after the separation of a county or township from a union, each of the counties or townships which formed the union shall remain subject to the debts and liabilities of the union, as if the same had been contracted or incurred by the respective counties or townships of the union after the dissolution thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 55. Liability for debts existing at the time of dissolution.

58.—(1) After an addition has been made to a village, town or city by the annexation of an adjoining village or town, or of an adjoining portion of a township, the city, town or village whose limits have been so extended, shall pay to the township or county from which the additional territory Adjustment of debts when limits extended.

has been taken, such part, if any, of the debts of the township or county as may be just, and shall be entitled to receive from and be paid by the said township or county the value of the interest which at the time of making such addition the added territory had in the property and assets of the township or county; and in case the councils do not, within three months after the first meeting of the council of the municipality to which the addition has been made, agree as to the sum to be paid or received as aforesaid, or as to the time of payment, the matter shall be settled by arbitration under this Act.

Powers to proceed with local improvements upon lands subsequently annexed to another municipality.

(2) Where any improvement, work or service coming under the provisions of The Municipal Drainage Act or of sections 664 to 687, 689 and 690, both inclusive, of this Act, is undertaken by any municipal corporation, and, after such corporation has become liable for the carrying out of the same, the land to be specially benefited by any such improvement, work or service, or any part thereof, becomes and forms part of another municipality by incorporation, annexation, or otherwise under the provisions of this Act or of any special Act, the municipal corporation from which such land or any part thereof is taken shall have full power and authority, by themselves, their servants, workmen and agents, to proceed with any such improvement, work or service, to the completion thereof, and for such purpose to enter upon take and use any land lying within the limits of such new municipality, or within the limits of the territory added to such adjoining municipality, which is necessary to enable them to complete any such improvement, work or service; and they may take all such proceedings, pass all such by-laws, make all such special and other assessments, impose all special and other rates, issue and sell all such debentures, borrow all such moneys, and do all such other matters and things as are necessary to complete any such improvement, work or service, and to provide for the cost thereof in the same manner as if no such new municipality had been formed, or no such annexation of territory had been made. 55 V. c. 42, s. 56 (1-2).

Rev. Stat., c. 226.

Municipality to which territory annexed to indemnify municipality undertaking the work.

(3) Any municipality from which territory is taken to form a new municipality, or to make an addition to an adjoining municipality, shall be indemnified by the new municipality or by the municipality to which the addition is made, as the case may be, from and against all debts and liabilities incurred by it prior to the formation of the new municipality, or the making of such addition, for or in respect of any improvement, work or service, undertaken and carried out, or to be carried out by it, under the provisions of The Municipal Drainage Act or of sections 664 to 687, 689 and 690, both inclusive, of this Act to the extent to which the lands specially assessed therefor and lying within the territory taken from it, and included within the new municipality or added to the adjoining municipality, as the case may be, were specially assessed for the cost of the said improvement, work or service: and all debts incurred by a municipality for its share of the cost of any such improvement, work or service, shall be taken into account when taking and adjusting the accounts between it and the other municipality arising out of the formation of the new municipality or the addition of territory to such adjoining municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 56 (3); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (15).

Rev. Stat., c. 226.

Where lands benefited afterwards become part of another municipality, latter to collect and pay whole debt.

(4) In any case where the lands specially assessed for the local improvement, work or service lie wholly within the new municipality when formed, or within the limits of the territory added to such adjoining municipality, the new municipality or the adjoining municipality, as the case may be, shall assume the entire debt created by any local improvement by-law passed by the council of the municipality to which such territory formerly belonged, and shall, (on being furnished by the clerk of the municipality which passed the by-law with a certified copy of the by-law, and of the special assessments in each year during the currency of the debentures issued pursuant to such by-law) collect the special rates imposed by such by-law as aforesaid, at the same time as all other taxes of said municipality are collected: and the treasurer thereof shall pay the interest on such debentures when and as the same falls due, and shall from time to time, as directed by resolution of the council of such new municipality or of the municipality to which such territory has been added, invest the sum set aside by said by-law for the purpose of paying said debentures at the maturity thereof.

Where part only, each municipality in which lands situate to collect proportion of cost.

(5) Where part only of the lands specially benefited by and assessed for any such local improvement, work or service lie within the limits of the new municipality, when formed, or within the limits of the addition made to any such adjoining municipality, the clerk of the municipality from which such lands have been taken shall furnish to the clerk of the new municipality or of the municipality to which the addition has been made, as the case may be, a certified copy of the by-law and of the special assessment: and from and after the receipt thereof, the corporation of the new municipality, or the municipality to which such addition has been made, as the case may be, shall, during each and every year during the currency of the debentures issued under such by-law, collect the special rates imposed by such by-law upon lands lying within their limits: and the treasurer thereof shall, as and so soon as the same are collected, pay over the amount thereof to the treasurer of the municipality to which such lands formerly belonged. 55 V. c. 42, s. 56 (4, 5).

Debentures to be issued for old debts, and to bind the old and new municipalities.

59. After the formation of a new corporation by the dissolution of a union of counties or townships, the council of the senior or remaining county or township shall issue its debentures or other obligations for any part of any debt contracted by the union for which debentures or other obligations might have been, but had not been, issued before the dissolution; and the debentures or obligations shall recite or state the liability of the junior county or township therefor under this Act; and the junior county or township shall be liable therefor as if the same had been issued by the union before the dissolution. 55 V. c. 42, s. 57.

Assessments for year preceding dissolution.

60. All assessments imposed by the council of the then corporation for the year next before the year in which the new corporation is formed by separation therefrom, shall belong to the then corporation, and shall be collected and paid over accordingly: and after the separation all special rates for the payment of debts, theretofore imposed upon the locality by any by-law of the former corporation, shall continue to be levied by the new corporation; and the treasurer of the new corporation shall pay over the amount as received to the treasurer of the senior or remaining municipality: and the latter shall apply the money so received in the same manner as the money raised under the same by-law in the senior or remaining municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 58.

Special rates for debts continued and to be paid over by treasurer of the junior county.

If the sum paid over exceeds the just amount, the excess may be recovered.

61. In case the amount paid over as in the last preceding section provided, or paid to any creditor of the senior or remaining municipality, in respect of a liability of the former corporation, exceeds the sum which, by the agreement or award between the councils, the new corporation ought to pay, the excess may be recovered from the senior or remaining municipality as a debt due to the new municipality and bearing interest from the time of such payment. 55 V. c. 42, s. 59; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (16).

Officials and their Sureties.

Former councils and officers to exercise jurisdiction over new municipalities, etc., until new councils are organized.

62. In case a village is incorporated, or a village or town is erected into a town or city, or a township or county becomes separated, the council and the members thereof having authority in the locality or municipality immediately previous to the incorporation, erection or separation shall, until the council of the corporation is organized, continue to have the same powers as before; and all other officers and servants of the locality or municipality shall, until dismissed, or until their successors (if any) are appointed, continue in their respective offices, with the same powers, duties and liabilities as before. 55 V. c. 42, s. 60.

Effect of separation upon public officers and their sureties.

63. The separation of a junior county or township from a union of counties or townships shall not in any case or in any manner whatever affect the office, duty, power or responsibility of any public officer of the union who continues a public officer of the senior county or township or remaining counties or townships after such separation, or of the sureties of such officer or their liability, further than by limiting such office, duty, power, responsibility, suretyship and liability to the senior county or township, or to the remaining counties or townships. 55 V. c. 42, s. 61.

64. All such public officers shall, after the separation, be the officers of the senior county or township, or remaining counties or townships, as if they had respectively been originally appointed public officers for such senior county or township or for such remaining counties or townships only. 55 V. c. 42, s. 62. Further provisions as to officers and their sureties.

65. All sureties for such public officers shall be and remain liable, as if they had become the sureties for such public officers in respect only of such senior county or township, or of such remaining counties or townships; and all securities which have been given, shall, after the separation, be read and construed as if they had been given only for the senior or remaining county or counties, or township or townships; but nothing herein contained shall affect the right to require new securities to be given by any sheriff or by any clerk, bailiff, or other public officer, under any statute, or otherwise howsoever. 55 V. c. 42, s. 63. Liability of sureties for public officers. Right to require new securities not affected.

County councils, how composed. Sec. 66.
County council divisions. Sec, 67.
Board to re-arrange divisions. Sec. 68.
Not to apply to Haliburton. Sec. 69.

66 (1) County councils shall be composed as follows:— County councils, how composed.

(a) If the population of the county is 25,000 or less, of not less than 8 members nor more than 10 members.

(b) If the population is more than 25,000 but less than 40,000, of not less than 10 members nor more than 12 members

(c) If the population is 40,000 or more but less than 60,000, of not less than 12 members nor more than 14 members.

(d) If the population is 60,000 or more, of not less than 16 members nor more than 18 members. 59 V. c. 52, s. 2.

Ascertaining population.

(2) The population of any county shall, for the purposes of this section and section 67, be ascertained by reference to the population of the local municipalities as shown by the last decennial census of the Dominion of Canada. 59 V. c. 52, s. 38.

Separated municipalities and Indian reserves not to be included in computing population.

(3) Cities, towns and other municipalities separated from the county shall not be included in the computation of the population, nor shall the population of Indian reserves which are not organized as municipalities under this Act be so included. 59 V. c. 52, s. 4.

County council divisions.

67.—(1) For the purposes of representation in the county council, each county shall be divided into divisions (which shall be known as "County Council Divisions,") as follows:—

(a) If the population of the county is 25,000 or less, into not less than 4 and not more than 5 divisions.

(b) If the population is more than 25,000 but less than 40,000, into not less than 5 and not more than 6 divisions.

(c) If the population is 40,000 or more, but less than 60,000, into not less than 6 nor more than 7 divisions.

(d) And if the population is 60,000 or more, into not less than 8 nor more than 9 divisions. 59 V. c. 52, s. 3.

County council divisions.

59 V. c. 52.

(2) The divisions established by the report of the Commissioners, appointed under the provisions of The County Councils Act, 1896, filed with the Provincial Secretary and with the several county clerks, pursuant to section 32 and 33 of the said Act shall constitute such county council divisions. See 59 V. c. 52, s. 33; 60 V. c. 45, s. 65.

Two members for each district.

Term of office.

(3) Each division shall be designated and distinguished by its number (as, for example, the "First County Council Division,") and shall be represented in the county council by two members, who shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and sworn into office and the new county council is organized. 59 V. c. 52, s. 5, part; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (123).

Board to rearrange divisions.

68. The Judge of the County Court of the county, the warden thereof and the Clerk of the Peace shall constitute a board, whose duty it shall be, where a new village is erected or a town is separated from the county or is erected into a city and the arrangement into county council divisions is thereby disturbed, by their order to attach such village to some convenient county council division or to rearrange the county council divisions affected, and, if necessary, the adjoining division or divisions; but in so doing the board shall make only such changes as the altered circumstances require. 59 V. c. 52, s. 36.

Not to apply to Haliburton.

69. Sections 66 to 68 inclusive, shall not apply to the Provisional County of Haliburton. 59 V. c. 52, s. 39.

Division II.—In Cities.

City Councils. Sec. 70.

City councils.

70. The council of every city shall consist of the mayor, who shall be the head thereof, and three aldermen for every ward, to be elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 68.

Division III.—In Towns.

Town Councils. Sec. 71.

Town Councils.

71.—(1) The council of every town shall consist of the mayor, who shall be the head thereof, and three councillors for each ward where there are less than five wards, or two councillors for each ward where there are five or more wards; and if the town has not withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the council of the county in which it lies, then a reeve shall be added, and if the town had, on the last revised voters' list, the names of 500 persons entitled to vote at municipal elections, then a deputy reeve shall be added, and for every 500 additional names on such last revised voters' list, there shall be elected an additional deputy-reeve;

Reduction of number of councillors.

Provided always that the council of every town, where there are less than five wards, may, upon a petition of not less than 100 municipal electors, pass a by-law reducing the number of councillors for each ward to two; but such by-law, before the final passing thereof, shall receive the assent of the electors of the municipality in the manner provided for in section 338 and following sections of this Act.

When and how by-law reducing number of town councillors may be repealed.

(2) At any time after two annual municipal elections have been held under a by-law passed under this section, the council of the municipality, upon the presentation to them of a petition of not less than 100 resident municipal electors, asking the council to submit to a vote of the electors, in accordance with section 338 of this Act, a by-law for the repeal of the by-law so passed, shall, without unnecessary delay, submit such repealing by-law to a vote of the electors of the municipality. The proceedings in regard to the submission of any such by-law, both as to its enactment and repeal, shall be as provided in this Act in regard to by-laws requiring the assent of the electors. 55 V. c. 42, s. 69.

Division IV.—In Villages.

Village Councils. Sec. 72.

Village Councils.

72. The council of every village shall consist of one reeve, who shall be the head thereof, and four councillors; and if the village had, on the last revised voters' list, the names of 500 persons entitled to vote at municipal elections, then of a reeve, deputy-reeve and three councillors, and for every additional 500 names on such last revised voters' list, there shall be elected an additional deputy-reeve instead of a councillor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 70. See sec. 74.

Division V.—In Townships.

Township Councils. Sec. 73.

Township Councils.

73. The council of every township shall consist of a reeve, who shall be the head thereof, and four councillors, one councillor being elected for each ward where the township is divided into wards, and the reeve to be elected by a general vote; but if the township had, on the last revised voters' list, the names of 500 persons entitled to vote at municipal elections, then the council shall consist of a reeve, deputy-reeve, and three councillors, and for every 500 additional names on such last revised voters' list there shall be elected an additional deputy-reeve instead of a councillor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 71. See sec. 101 as to election of Deputy-Reeve.

How number of voters to be estimated.

74. In counting the names of voters referred to in sections 71 to 73 the name of the same person shall not be counted more than once in any municipality, whether the name appears upon the voters' lists only once or more than once. 55 V. c. 42, s. 65 (2).

Division VI.—In Provisional Counties.

Provisional County Councils. Sec. 75

75. The county councillors who represent the county council divisions constituting a junior county (including any county council division which takes in the larger part of any municipality in such junior county), shall, ex officio, be the members of the provisional council of such junior county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 72 ; 60 V. c. 15, Sched C (17). Provisional Councils.

TITLE II.—QUALIFICATION, DISQUALIFICATION, AND EXEMPTIONS.

Div. I.—Qualification,
Div. II.—Disqualification,
Div. III.—Exemptions.

Division I.—Qualification.

For local municipal councils. Sec. 76.
For county councils. Sec. 77.
In new township where no assessment roll. Sec. 78.
Where only one qualified person for each seat. Sec. 79.

76.—(1) Except in the districts of Muskoka, Parry Sound, Nipissing, Algoma, Thunder Bay, Manitoulin, Rainy River, and the provisional county of Haliburton, no person shall be qualified to be elected a mayor, alderman, reeve, deputy-reeve, or councillor of any local municipality unless such person resides within the municipality, or within two miles thereof, and is a natural born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, and a male of the full age of twenty-one years, and is not disqualified under this Act, and unless such person has, or his wife has, at the time of the election, as owner or tenant, a legal or equitable freehold or leasehold, or an estate partly freehold and partly leasehold, or partly legal and partly equitable, which is rated in his own name, or in the name of his wife, on the last revised assessment roll of the municipality, to at least the value following, over and above all charges, liens, and incumbrances affecting the same, Qualification of mayors, aldermen, etc.

(a) In villages—Freehold to $200, or leasehold to $400 ;

(b) In towns—Freehold to $600, or leasehold to $1,200 ;

(c) In cities—Freehold to $1,000, or leasehold to $2,000 ;

(d) In townships—Freehold to $400, or leasehold to $800;

and in the said districts and provisional county,

(e) In townships and villages, freehold to $100, or leasehold to $200;

(f) In towns, freehold to $400, or leasehold to $800; and so in the same proportions in all municipalities, in case the property is partly freehold and partly leasehold;

But, if any such person is at the time of election in actual occupation of any such freehold, rated in his own name or in the name of his wife on the last revised assessment roll of the municipality, he shall be entitled to be elected, if the value at which such freehold is actually rated on such assessment roll amounts to not less than $2,000; and for that purpose the said value shall not be affected or reduced by any lien, incumbrance or charge existing on or affecting such freehold. 55 V. c. 42, 73 (1); c. 43, s. 2; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; 60 V. c. 45, s. 76.

When alienation of property rated not to disqualify.

(2) No person who has, or whose wife has property duly rated on the last revised assessment roll, sufficient to qualify him, as in the preceding subsection required, shall be deemed to be disqualified by the alienation by sale or otherwise of the said property, or by the expiration or surrender of the demised term between the date of the return of the assessment roll and the time of his election, if at the time of his election he is resident within the municipality and has, or his wife has, as owner or tenant, a legal or equitable freehold or leasehold, or a partly freehold and partly leasehold, or a partly legal and partly equitable estate of sufficient assessed value to qualify him for election under the preceding subsection.

Declaration of qualification in such cases

(3) In case of the election of a person qualified under the preceding subsection, the declaration of qualification under subsection 2 of section 311 of this Act may be taken, striking out all the words thereof after the word "occupation" in the thirteenth line of the said subsection, and inserting in lieu thereof thereof the words

"And I had such an estate actually rated on the last revised assessment roll of this municipality (naming it) at an amount not less than $2,000."

Qualification of members of council where new territory added to village, town or city.

(4) Where territory has been added to a village, town or city, before a revised assessment roll of the municipality has been made which includes such added territory, it shall be sufficient if the required rating or part thereof is in respect of land or premises situate within the newly added territory on the last revised assessment roll of the municipality of which such added territory had before the addition formed part. 55 V. c. 42, s. 73 (2-4); c. 43, s. 3.

"Leasehold" defined.

(5) The term "leasehold" in this section shall not include a term less than a tenancy for a year, or from year to year; and the qualification of any person, where a qualification is required under this Act, may be of an estate either legal or equitable, or may be composed partly of each. 55 V. c. 42, s. 74.

Nature of estate.

77. Every member of a county council shall possess the same property qualification as the reeve of a town is required to possess, and shall also be a resident of the county council division for which he is a county councillor. 59 V. c. 52, s. 5, part; s. 14, part. Members of county councils.

78. In the case of a new township erected by proclamation, and for which there has been no assessment roll, every person who, at the time of the first election, has such an interest in real property, and to such an amount as is mentioned in section 76 of this Act, shall be deemed to be possessed of a sufficient property qualification. 55 V. c. 42, s. 75. In new township not having assessment roll.

79 In case in any municipality there are not at least two persons qualified to be elected for each seat in the council, no qualification beyond the qualification of an elector shall be necessary in the persons to be elected. 55 V. c. 42, s. 76. If only one person qualified for each seat in the council.

Division II.—Disqualification.

For membership in any municipal council. Sec. 80.
For membership in county councils. Sec. 81.
Candidates for county councillors disqualified for local municipal councils. Sec. 82.

Persons disqualified from being members of councils.

Proviso; as to shareholders in companies having dealings with corporations.

(2) But no person shall be held disqualified from being elected a member of the council of any municipal corporation,

And lessees for 21 years from corporation

(a) By reason of his being a shareholder in any incorporated company having dealings or contracts with the council of any such municipal corporation, or by reason of his having a lease for twenty-one years or upwards, of any property from the corporation: but no such leaseholder shall vote in the council on any question affecting any lease from the corporation, and no such shareholder on any question affecting the company; 55 V. c. 42, s. 77 (2)

Exemption from taxation not to disqualify for election to councils.

(b) Or by reason only that a part of his property is exempt from taxation, if he is assessed for sufficient other property in the municipality, liable to taxation to qualify him for such office; but no such person shall vote on any question affecting the property so exempt from taxation. 56 V. c. 35, s. 4.

Certain persons not qualified to be county councillors.

81. Any person having the necessary qualification and not otherwise disqualified, who is a member of a local municipal council for the year in which nominations are held for the election of members of the county council, shall be eligible for nomination and election as a member of the county council at such election; but no member of the council of a local municipality shall sit or vote as a county councillor; and no clerk or treasurer of a county, shall be eligible for nomination or election as a county councillor, or shall sit or vote in any county council. 59 V. c. 52, s. 6 part; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; 60 V. c. 45, s. 60, part.

Additional ground of disqualification in county councils.

82. No person who has been nominated and is a candidate for election as a county councillor in any county council division shall, while he remains a candidate as aforesaid, be eligible for nomination or election as a member of the council of any local municipality. 60 V. c. 45, s. 60, part.

Contracts of Municipality with members of Council.

Contracts by members with the municipality to be held void in any action thereon.

83. In case a member of the council of any municipality, either in his own name or in the name of another, and either alone or jointly with another, enters into a contract of any kind, or makes a purchase or sale in which the municipality is a party interested, the contract, purchase or sale shall be held void in any action thereon against the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 431.

DIVISION III.—EXEMPTIONS.

84. All persons over sixty years of age, all members and officers of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, and of the Senate or House of Commons of Canada, all persons in the civil service of the Crown, all Judges not disqualified by section 80, all coroners, all persons in priests' orders, clergymen and ministers of the Gospel of every denomination, all members of the Law Society of Upper Canada, whether barristers or students, all solicitors in actual practice, all officers of Courts of Justice, all members of the medical profession, whether physicians or surgeons, all professors, masters, teachers and other members of any university, college, or school in Ontario, and all officers and servants thereof, all millers, and all firemen belonging to an authorized fire company—are exempt from being elected or appointed members of the council of any municipal corporation, or to any other municipal office. 55 V. c. 42, s. 78. See also as to Firemen, Cap. 231, secs. 2-4. Exemptions.

Farmers' sons.

Fourthly. All residents of the municipality at the date of the election, who are farmers' sons, and have resided in the municipality, on the farm of their father or mother, for twelve months next prior to the return by the assessors of the assessment roll on which the voters' list used at the election is based. 55 V. c. 42, s. 79 (1) part.

When more than one son is resident.

(a) If more sons than one are so resident, and if the farm is not rated and assessed at an amount sufficient, if equally divided between them, to give a qualification to vote to the father and all the sons where the father is living, or to the sons alone where the father is dead and the mother is a widow, then the right to vote shall belong to, and be the right only of, the father and the eldest or such of the elder of said sons, to whom the amount at which the farm is rated and assessed will, when equally divided between them, give the qualification to vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 79 (2).

Where father living and assessment not sufficient to qualify more than one.

(b) If the amount at which the farm is so rated and assessed is insufficient, if equally divided between the father, if living, and one son, to give to each a qualification to vote, then the father shall be the only person entitled to vote in respect of such farm. 55 V. c. 42, s. 79 (3).

(c) Occasional or temporary absence from the farm for a time or times not exceeding in the whole six months of the twelve hereinbefore mentioned, shall not operate to disentitle a farmer's son to vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 79 (4); 57 V. c. 50, s. 2 (1). Temporary absence.

(2) In this section:

"Farm" shall mean land actually occupied by the owner thereof, and not less in quantity than twenty acres; Interpretation.

"Son" or "sons" or "farmer's son" or "farmers' sons" shall mean any male person or persons not otherwise qualified to vote, and being the son or sons of the owner and actual occupant of a farm;

"Father" shall include stepfather;

"Election" shall mean an election of a member of a municipal council;

"To vote" shall mean to vote at an election; and

"Owner" shall mean a person who is proprietor in his own right, or whose wife is proprietor in her own right, of an estate for life, or any greater estate, either legal or equitable; except where the owner is a widow, in which case the word "owner" shall mean proprietor in her own right of any such estate. 55 V. c. 42, s. 79 (5), part.

(3) Any leaseholder the term of whose lease is not less than five years, shall be deemed an owner within the meaning of this section. 55 V. c. 42, s. 79 (5), part; c 43, s. 4.

87. In order to entitle a person to vote as aforesaid in respect of real property, such property, whether freehold or leasehold or partly each, must be rated at an actual value of not less than the following: Amount of rating necessary.

In townships and villages	$100
In towns where the population does not exceed 3,000	$200
In towns with a population of over 3,000	$300
In cities	$400

The population shall be determined by reference to the latest annual enumeration by the assessors. 55 V. c. 42, s. 80; c. 43, s. 5; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (19).

88. No person who has been returned by the treasurer or collector under section 137 as in default for non-payment of his taxes on or before the 14th day of December next preceding any election, shall be entitled to vote in respect of income in any municipality, or in respect of real property in muni- Persons in default for non-payment of taxes not to vote.

cipalities which have passed by-laws under subsection 1 of section 535; but any person who is entitled to vote, and who at the time of the tendering of his vote produces and leaves with the deputy-returning officer a certificate from the treasurer of the municipality, or the collector of taxes, shewing that the taxes, in respect of which the default had been made, have since been paid, shall be entitled to vote; and the deputy-returning officer shall file the certificate, receive the vote, and note the same on the defaulters' list. 55 V. c. 42, s. 81.

Elector must be named in voters' list.

No question of qualification to be raised.

89. Except in the case of a new municipality for which there is no assessment roll, no person shall be entitled to vote at any election, unless he is one of the persons named or intended to be named in the proper list of voters; and no question of qualification shall be raised at any election, except to ascertain whether the person tendering his vote is the person intended to be designated in the list of voters. 55 V. c. 42, s. 82.

In newly erected municipalities not having any assessment roll.

90. At the first election in a new municipality for which there is no separate assessment roll, every resident male inhabitant, though not previously assessed, shall be entitled to vote if he possesses the other qualifications above mentioned, and has at the time of the election sufficient property to have entitled him to vote if he had been rated for such property. 55 V. c. 42, s. 83.

Where new territory added to city, town or village, or a new city, town or village erected with added territory, and no voters' lists including such new territory.

91. Where any territory is added for municipal purposes to any city, town or village, or where a town with additional territory is erected into a city, or a village with additional territory is erected into a town, or in case a new village is formed, and an election takes place before voters' lists including the names of the persons entitled to vote in such territory are made out for such new or enlarged city, town or village, or before such lists are certified by the County Judge, then all persons who would have been qualified as electors in such territory if the same had remained separate from the city, town or village, or if the town or village had not been erected into a city or, town, or if the village had not been formed, shall be entitled to vote in the city, town or village at such election. 55 V. c. 42, s. 84.

If owner and occupant severally rated both to be deemed rated.

92. In case both the owner and occupant of any real property are severally but not jointly rated therefor, both shall be deemed rated within this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 85.

When joint owners or occupants rated, rating to be equally divided.

93. Where real property is owned or occupied jointly by two or more persons, and is rated at an amount sufficient, if equally divided between them, to give a qualification to each, then each shall be deemed rated within this Act, otherwise none of them shall be deemed so rated. 55 V. c. 42, s. 86.

Election county councillors to be held in alternate years.

94. The election of county councillors shall be held in alternate years, but upon the days and at the time fixed by law for the annual municipal elections for members of the councils of the local municipalities. 59 V. c. 52, s. 6, part; c. 52, s. 18; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (124).

Elections for local councils to be held annually.

Term of office.

95. The electors of every municipality (except a county) shall elect annually, on the first Monday in January, the members of the council of the municipality, except such members as have been elected at the nomination; and the persons so elected shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed or sworn into office, and the new council is organized. 55 V. c. 42, s. 88.

First elections where corporations are newly erected or extended.

96. In case of the incorporation of a new township or union of townships; or of the separation of a junior township from a union of townships; or of the erection of a locality into an incorporated village; or of the erection of a village into a town, or of a town into a city; or of a tract of land being added to a village, town or city; or in case of a new division into wards of a town or city—the first election, under the proclamation or by-law by which the change was effected, shall take place on the first Monday in January next after the date of the proclamation, or after the passing of the by-law by which the change is made; but the nomination of candidates, and the election of such as are unopposed, may, and shall be proceeded with at the same time and in the same manner as if the change had gone into effect on the last Monday of the month of December preceding such first election, or on such other day as the nominations may lawfully be held upon. 55 V. c. 42, s. 89.

Places to be fixed by by-law of municipality.

97. The council of every city, town and village (including a village newly erected into a town, and a town newly erected into a city), shall, from time to time, by by-law, appoint the place or places for holding the next ensuing municipal election, otherwise the election shall be held at the place or places at which the last election for the municipality or for the ward or polling subdivision was held. 55 V. c. 42, s. 90.

County council to make provision first election in junior townships

98. When in any year a junior township of a union has 100 resident freeholders and tenants on the then last revised assessment roll, the council of the county shall, by a by-law to be passed before the thirty-first day of October in the same year, fix the place for holding the first annual election of councillors in the township, appoint a returning officer for holding the same, and otherwise provide for the due holding of the election according to law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 91; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (21). See sec. 30.

Existing ward divisions in united townships to cease on dissolution of union.

99. In case of the separation of a union of townships, the existing divisions thereof into wards, if any, shall cease, as if duly abolished by by-law, and the elections of councillors shall thereafter be by general vote, until the township or townships is or are divided into polling subdivisions or wards under the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 92.

Election of reeves, etc., in townships and villages to be by general vote.

100. Except in the case of deputy-reeves and councillors in townships divided into wards, the election, in townships and villages, of reeves, deputy-reeves and councillors, shall be by general vote, and the voting shall take place at the place where the last meeting of the council was held, or at such other place or places as may from time to time be fixed by by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 93.

Upon petition the council may, by by-law, divide townships into wards, etc.

101. In case a majority of the qualified electors of a township whose names appear on the last revised assessment roll petition the council of the township to divide the township into wards, or to abolish or alter any existing division into wards, the council shall, within one month thereafter, pass a by-law to give effect to the petition; and, if the petition is for division into wards, shall divide the township into wards, so that the number of electors in each ward shall be as nearly as may be equal; and the number of wards for municipal purposes shall be four in all cases; and where the township is divided into wards, and is entitled to a deputy reeve or deputy reeves, the councillors shall at their first meeting elect from among themselves such deputy reeve or deputy reeves. 55 V. c. 42, s. 94.

Elections of deputy-reeves, etc., in such case.

102.—(1). In case two thirds of the members of the council of a city or town do, in council, before the 15th day of July in any year, pass a resolution affirming the expediency of a new division into wards being made of the city or town or of a part of the same, either within the existing limits or with the addition of any part of the localities adjacent, which, from the proximity of streets or buildings therein, or the probable future exigencies of the city or town, it may seem desirable to add thereto respectively, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation, divide the city or town or such part thereof, and with or without such addition, into wards, as may seem expedient. 55 V. c. 42, s. 22, part.

New division of wards in cities and towns.

Extension of city or town.

103.—(1) In any case where the resident freeholders of any city with a population of 100,000 or over, to the number of at least 500, petition the council, alleging the expediency of making, and praying that a new division into wards may be made of the city without reducing the number of wards, or that a new division may be made reducing the number of wards to nine or less, the council shall, at the next municipal elections, submit the question of a new division, as prayed for by the petition, to the vote of the persons entitled to vote at the municipal elections; and, in the event of a majority of the electors who vote thereon voting in favour of the petition, the council shall, within a reasonable time after the taking of the vote, subdivide the city into wards, so as to give effect to the prayer of the petition and the vote of the electors; and such new division shall, as far as possible, be based upon the assessed values of property, population and territorial extent.

Re-division of wards in cities of 100,000 or over.

(2) In case for three months after the question has been voted upon and approved of by the electors, any council neglects or refuses to make a new sub-division of any city into wards under the provisions of the last preceding subsection, and in case one-third of the members of the council, or 100 duly qualified electors of the municipality petition for a commission to issue under the Great Seal to inquire into the existing division of the municipality into wards, and for a new division in accordance with the expressed wish of the electors, as evidenced by their vote taken in manner aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may issue a commission accordingly, to three commissioners, one to be named by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, one by the Chancellor of Ontario, and one by the city council; and the commissioners or a majority of them shall have the same power to summon witnesses, enforce their attendance, and compel them to produce documents and to give evidence as any court has in civil cases.

Commission of inquiry as to division into wards, etc.

If the city council fails to name a commissioner within two weeks after notice, the Lieutenant-Governor shall name two commissioners.

Commissioners to prepare a scheme of division.

(3) The commissioners so appointed, or a majority of them, shall, within a reasonable time, report to the Provincial Secretary a new division into wards of the municipality in accordance with the prayer of the petition, having regard to the provisions of this Act as to equality of representation, and the Provincial Secretary shall forthwith transmit a copy thereof to the council of the city, and shall cause the same to be published for one month in the Ontario Gazette, and once in each week for four weeks in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, naming a day when the same will be taken into consideration by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council: and all parties interested, opposed thereto, and who petition to be heard, shall then have an opportunity of being heard, and of being represented by counsel in that behalf.

Lieutenant-Governor may make division by proclamation.

(4) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, within three months after the receipt of the report of the commissioners, by proclamation divide the city into wards, and shall have the like powers as are by this Act conferred upon him when application is made by a city council under section 102 of this Act, to divide a city into wards.

Expenses of commission.

(5) The expenses allowed for executing the commission shall be payable by the municipality in the same manner and upon the same conditions as those provided for by sub-section 2 of section 428 of this Act.

Further division not to be made for five years.

(6) In case a new division of any city into wards is made as aforesaid, no new division thereof into wards shall be made for five years thereafter. 55 V. c. 42, s. 22, part.

Election to be held in municipality.

104. Every election shall be held in the municipality to which the same relates. 55 V. c. 42, s. 95.

Election of township councillors.

105. No election of township councillors shall be held within any city, town or village, nor shall any election for any municipality, or for any ward thereof, be held in a tavern or in a house of public entertainment licensed to sell spirituous or fermented liquors. 55 V. c. 42, s. 96.

106.—(1) The council of every local municipality in which the election is to be made by wards or polling subdivisions, shall from time to time, by by-law, appoint: By-law for an election by wards or polling subdivisions.

(a) The places for holding the nominations for each ward:

(b) The returning officers who shall respectively hold the nominations for each ward;

(c) The places at which polls shall be opened in the municipality in case a poll is required;

(d) The deputy-returning officers who shall preside at the respective polling places.

(2) The clerk of the municipality shall be the returning officer for the whole municipality; and in case a poll is required, the deputy-returning officers shall make to him the returns for their respective wards or polling subdivisions. 55 V. c. 42, s. 97. Clerk of municipality to be returning officer for whole municipality.

107. In the case of a local municipality in which the election is not to be by wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk shall be the returning officer to hold the nomination of candidates at all elections after the first, and he shall also perform all the duties hereinafter mentioned assigned to deputy-returning officers. 55 V. c. 42, s, 98. [See sec. 157.] Returning officer for elections not by wards or polling subdivisions.

108.—(1) In any case where the returning officer for any ward refuses or neglects to attend at the time and place required by the clerk to receive his instructions and nomination papers, and in any case where a deputy-returning officer refuses or neglects to attend at the time and place at which he is required by the returning officer to attend to receive his voters' lists, and other election papers, the clerk of the municipality as returning officer shall appoint another person to act in his place and stead; and the person so appointed shall have all the powers and authority which he would have had if he had been appointed by by-law. Refusal or neglect of returning officer or deputy returning officer to perform his duties.

(2) In case, at the time appointed for holding a nomination or poll, the person appointed to be returning officer or deputy-returning officer has died, or does not attend to hold the nomination or poll within an hour after the time appointed, or in case no returning officer or deputy-returning officer has been appointed, the electors present at the place for holding the nomination or poll may choose from amongst themselves a returning officer or deputy-returning officer; and such returning officer or deputy-returning officer shall have all the powers, and shall forthwith proceed to hold the nomination or poll, and perform all the other duties of a returning officer or deputy-returning officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 99; c. 43, s. 6.

(3) In case, during the polling, the returning officer or the deputy-returning officer at any polling place becomes unable, through illness or other cause, to perform his duties, the poll clerk at such polling place shall act as returning officer, or deputy-returning officer, as the case may be; and he shall Where returning officer or deputy is unable to perform his duties.

perform all the duties of a returning officer or deputy-returning officer, and may appoint some other person to act as poll clerk. 60 V. c. 45, s. 28.

Returning officers and deputy returning officers to be conservators of the peace: their powers.

109. Every returning officer and deputy-returning officer shall, during the day of the election, or of the voting of electors upon a by-law, act as a conservator of the peace for the city or county in which the election or voting is held; and he, or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the municipality in which the election or voting is held, may cause to be arrested, and may summarily try, and may punish by fine or imprisonment, or both, or may imprison or bind over to keep the peace, or for trial, any riotous or disorderly person, who assaults, beats, molests or threatens any voter coming to, or remaining at, or going from the election or voting; and, when thereto required, all constables and persons present at the election or voting, shall assist the returning officer, or deputy returning officer, or Justice of the Peace. 55 V. c. 42, s. 100.

Special constables may be sworn in.

110 Every returning officer, or deputy-returning officer, or Justice of the Peace may appoint and swear in any number of special constables to assist in the preservation of the peace and of order at an election or at the voting of electors upon a by-law; and any person liable to serve as constable, and required by a returning officer or deputy-returning officer, or justice, to be sworn in as a special constable, shall, if he refuses to be sworn in or to serve, be liable to a penalty of $20, to be recovered to the use of any one who will sue therefor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 101.

Holding election of county councillors where all members of local council elected by acclamation.

111. The council of any local municipality in which the election of any member or members of the county council is to be held, and (in case of the election of all the members of the council of the local municipality by acclamation), the clerk of such municipality and any other officer thereof shall, nevertheless, so as to enable the election for county councillors to be held, do all things and take all proceedings which would have been necessary, and in the manner by law provided, that is to say, provide polling places, furnish the necessary and proper voters' lists and poll books, appoint deputy-returning officers and other necessary officers, and do any and all other matters and things which would have been necessary and proper to be done had the members of the council of such local municipality not been elected by acclamation; and every returning officer and deputy-returning officer so appointed shall have all the powers, rights and authorities respecting the election of county councillors, which returning officers and deputy-returning officers have respecting the election of the members of local municipal councils, and shall perform all the like or similar duties which such officers are required to perform under this Act, where an election is being held for the members of the council of a local municipality. 59 V. c. 52, s. 11: 60 V. c. 3, s. 3. See also sec. 142.

Oaths, etc., of person claiming to vote as a freeholder.

112. The only oaths or affirmations to be required of a person claiming to vote in respect of a freehold, shall be as follows, or to the like effect:

You swear (or solemnly affirm) that you are the person named, or intended to be named, in the list (or supplementary list) of voters now shewn to you (shewing the list to the voter);

(In the case of an unmarried woman or widow claiming to vote.) That you are unmarried (or a widow, as the case may be.)

That at the date of this election you are in your own right (or your wife is) a freeholder within this polling sub-division (or where the ward is not sub-divided into polling sub-divisions then "within this ward") in this municipality.

That you are a natural born (or naturalized) subject of Her Majesty, and of the full age of twenty-one years;

(In the case of municipalities not divided into wards.) That you have not voted before at this election, either at this or any other polling place.

(In the case of municipalities divided into wards) that you have not voted before at this election either at this or any other polling place in this ward, and (if the elector is tendering his vote for mayor, reeve or deputy reeve) that you reside in this polling sub-division (or when ward not sub-divided into polling sub-divisions then 'in this ward' or are not entitled to vote in the polling sub-division in which you reside, or are not resident within the municipality as the case may be) and that you have not voted before or elsewhere at this election in this municipality for mayor, (or reeve or deputy reeve), and will not vote elsewhere in this municipality at this election, for mayor, (or reeve or deputy reeve as the case may be).

That you have not directly or indirectly received any reward or gift, nor do you expect to receive any, for the vote which you tender at this election;

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised to you, directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote at this election, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected with this election;

And that you have not directly or indirectly paid or promised anything to any person either to induce him to vote or to refrain from voting at this election:

So help you God.

In new Municipality where no assessment roll.

(In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, then instead of referring to the list of voters, the person offering to vote may be required to state in the oath the property in respect of which he claims to vote.)

55 V. c. 42, s. 102: 58 V. c. 42, s. 3: 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (22).

Oath of tenant.

113. The oath or affirmation to be required of a person claiming to vote as tenant, shall be as follows or to the like effect:

You swear (or solemnly affirm) that you are the person named, (or intended to be named,) in the list (or supplementary list) of voters now shown to you (showing the list to the voter) :

(In the case of an unmarried woman or widow claiming to vote.) That you are unmarried (or a widow, as the case may be ;)

That on the day of 18 (the day certified by the clerk of the municipality as the date of the return, or of the final revision and correction of the assessment roll upon which the voters' list used at the election is based) you were actually, truly, and in good faith, possessed to your own use and benefit, as tenant or occupant, of the real estate in respect of which your name is entered on the said list ;

That you are (or your wife is) a tenant within this municipality.

That you have been resident within this municipality for one month next before this election ;

That you are a natural-born (or naturalized) subject of Her Majesty, and of the full age of twenty-one years ;

(In the case of municipalities not divided into wards.) That you have not voted before at this election, either at this or any other polling place ;

(In the case of municipalities divided into wards) that you have not voted before at this election either at this or any other polling place in this ward, and (if the elector is tendering his vote for mayor, reeve or deputy reeve) that you reside in this polling sub-division (or where ward not sub-divided into polling sub-divisions then 'in this ward' or are not entitled to vote in the polling sub-division in which you reside or as the case may be) and that you have not voted before or elsewhere in this municipality at this election for mayor, (or reeve or deputy reeve), and will not vote elsewhere in this municipality at this election for mayor (or reeve or deputy reeve as the case may be.)

That you have not, directly or indirectly, received any reward or gift, nor do you expect to receive any, for the vote which you tender at this election ;

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised to you directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote at this election, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected with this election ;

And that you have not directly or indirectly paid or promised anything to any person either to induce him to vote or to refrain from voting at this election ;

So help you God.

(In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, then, instead of swearing to residence for one month next before the election, and referring to the list of voters, the person offering to vote may be required to state in the oath the property in respect of which he claims to vote, and that he is a resident of the municipality.)

55 V. c. 42 s. 103 : 58 V. c. 42, s. 4 : 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (23).

Oath of income voter.

114. The oath or affirmation to be required of a person claiming to vote in respect of income shall be as follows :

You swear (or solemnly affirm) that you are the person named (or intended to be named by the name of) in the list (or supplementary list) of voters now shewn to you (shewing the list to the voter) ;

(In the case of a widow or unmarried woman claiming to vote). That you are unmarried (or a widow, as the case may be) ;

That on the day of 18 (the day certified by the clerk of the municipality as the date of the final revision and correction of the assessment roll upon which the voters' list used at the election is based), you were, and thenceforward have been continuously, and still are, a resident of this township (city, town or village, as the case may be);

That at the said date, and for the twelve months previously, you were in receipt of an income from your trade (office, calling, or profession, as the case may be) of a sum of not less than $400.

That you are a subject of her Majesty by birth (or naturalization, as the case may be); and are of the full age of twenty-one years;

(In the case of municipalities not divided into wards.) That you have not voted before at this election, either at this or any other polling place;

(In the case of municipalities divided into wards.) That you have not voted before at this election, either at this or any other polling place in this ward, and (if the elector is tendering his vote for mayor, reeve or deputy-reeve) that you have not voted before or elsewhere in this municipality at this election for mayor (or reeve or deputy-reeve, as the case may be);

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised you, either directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote at this election, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected with this election:

And that you have not, directly or indirectly, paid or promised anything to any person, either to induce him to vote or to refrain from voting at this election:

So help you God.

55 V. c. 42, s. 104: 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (24.)

Meeting for nomination of mayor, reeve, deputy-reeves etc.

118—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 120 of this Act, a meeting of the electors shall take place for the nomination of candidates for the office of mayor in cities, and of mayor, reeve and deputy reeves in towns, at the hall of the municipality, on the last Monday in the month of December, annually, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and the deputy-reeves shall be designated as first, second, third, etc., according to the number to be elected.

Nomination of councillors in towns.

(2) The council of any town divided into wards may, by by-law, provide that the nomination for councillors for the several wards shall be held at the same time and place as the nomination for mayor, reeve and deputy-reeve.

(3) Where no such by-law is passed, the nomination of councillors in such town shall take place as provided by section 119 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 107 (1-3)

The clerk to preside.

Chairman.

(4) The clerk of the municipality shall be the returning officer to preside at such meeting, or in case of his absence, or probable absence, the council shall appoint a person to preside in his place; and if the clerk or the person so appointed does not attend, the electors present shall choose from among themselves a chairman, and such clerk or chairman shall have all the powers of a returning officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 108; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (26)

Meetings in cities, towns, etc., for nomination of aldermen etc.,

119. Save as otherwise provided by section 120, a meeting of the electors shall take place for the nomination of the candidates for the offices of aldermen in cities, councillors in towns, and of reeves, deputy-reeves and councillors in villages and in townships not divided into wards, at noon, on the last Monday in December annually, at the town hall of the municipality, or at such place therein, and in cities and towns at such places in each ward thereof, as may from time to time be fixed by by-law, subject, in the case of townships, to the provisions of section 123; and the deputy-reeves shall be designated as first, second, third, etc., according to the number to be elected. 55 V. c. 42. s. 109, part.

Hour for holding nominations in cities, towns and villages.

120. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 118 and 119 the hour for the nomination of candidates for the offices of aldermen in cities, may, in and by the by-law fixing the places for such nomination, be fixed at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, instead of at noon; and the council of any town or village may by by-law provide that the nomination for mayor, reeve, deputy-reeve or deputy-reeves and councillors may be held at half past seven o'clock in the evening instead of the hours in the said sections mentioned. 55 V. c. 42, s. 107, (4), 109, part.

In townships divided into wards.

121.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 122 the nomination of candidates for the office of reeve in townships divided into wards, shall be held at ten of the clock in the forenoon on the last Monday in December, at such place in the township as may from time to time be fixed by by-law, and the township clerk shall preside.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 123, the nomination of candidates for the office of councillor to be elected for each ward, shall take place at noon, at the town hall of the township or at such place in the township or in each ward as may be fixed by by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 110.

Hour for holding nominations in townships.

122. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 119 and 121 of this Act, the council of any township not divided into wards, may by by-law provide that the nomination for reeve, deputy-reeve and councillors, may be held at one o'clock in the afternoon, and the council of any township divided into wards, may by by-law provide that the nominations for councillors may be held at one o'clock in the afternoon instead of at the hours and times in the said sections mentioned. 59 V. c. 51, s. 2.

Place of meeting for nomination of reeves, etc., of townships.

123. Where a township is so situate that the territory of such township adjoins the limits of any city, town or village, such city, town, or village may be designated by by-law as the place of meeting for the nomination of candidates for the offices of reeve, deputy-reeves, and councillors, as the case may be. 55 V. c. 42, s. 111; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

If nomination day falls on Christmas Day.

124. When the last Monday in December is Christmas Day, the nomination of candidates for the offices of mayor and alderman in cities, and of mayor, reeve, deputy-reeve and councillors in other municipalities, shall take place on the preceding Friday, at the times and places and in the manner prescribed by law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 112.

County council may by by-law lengthen time between nomination and polling in townships.

125.—(1) Every county council may, by by-law, made on or before the 1st day of July in any year, provide that the day for the nomination of candidates for reeve, deputy-reeves, and councillors in townships shall be the third Monday preceding the day for polling, but all the other provisions of law relating to municipal elections shall apply to the elections in such townships. 55 V. c. 42, s. 113 (1); 60 V. c. 45, s. 2.

Copy of by-law to be sent to townships affected.

(2) Forthwith after the passing of such by-law, the county clerk shall transmit a copy thereof to the clerks of the townships to which the same relates. 55 V. c. 42, s. 113 (2).

Presiding officer.

126. The returning officer appointed for each ward, as in section 106 mentioned, or the clerk (as the case may be), shall respectively preside at the meeting for the nomination of candidates, and in case of the absence of such presiding officer, the meeting may choose a chairman who shall, in respect of the meeting, have all the powers of a returning officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 114; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (27).

Notice of nomination meeting

127. The clerk or other returning officer whose duty it is to preside at the meeting for the nomination of candidates shall give at least six days' notice of such meeting. 55 V. c. 42, s. 115.

Nomination and proceedings incident thereto.

128.—(1) At such meetings, the person or persons to fill each office shall be proposed and seconded seriatim, and every such nomination shall be in writing, shall state the full name, place of residence and occupation of the candidate, and shall be signed by his proposer and seconder. 55 V. c. 42, s. 116, part; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (28).

(2) If only one candidate for any particular office is proposed, the clerk or other returning officer or chairman shall, after the lapse of one hour from the time fixed for holding the meeting, declare the candidate duly elected for that office. 55 V. c. 42, s. 116, part.

In what cases poll to be held.

(3) If more candidates are proposed for any particular office than are required to be elected, the clerk (or other returning officer or chairman) shall adjourn the proceedings for filling such office until the first Monday in January next thereafter, when (unless there is an election by acclamation by reason of the resignation of any candidate or candidates nominated, as in the next succeeding section provided) a poll or polls shall be opened in each ward or polling sub-division at such place or places respectively as have been fixed by the by-law of the said council for the election. 60 V. c. 45, s. 29.

Hours of polling.

(4) The said poll or polls shall be so opened at nine of the clock in the morning, and shall continue open until five of the clock in the afternoon, and no longer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 116, part.

Names of candidates to be posted up.

129.—(1) The clerk or other returning officer or chairman shall, on the day of the nomination, post up in the office of the clerk of the municipality the names of the persons proposed for the respective offices.

Resignation of person nominated.

(2) At the nomination meeting or on the following day, or where such last named day is a public holiday, then before twelve o'clock noon of the succeeding day, any person proposed for one or more offices may resign, or may elect for which office he is to remain nominated; and in default he shall be taken as nominated for the office in respect of which he was first proposed and seconded.

Resignations to be in writing.

(3) The resignation after the nomination meeting of any person so proposed shall be in writing, signed by him and attested by a witness, and shall, within the time hereinbefore mentioned, be delivered to the clerk of the municipality.

Election by acclamation when other candidates retire.

(4) If by reason of any such resignation or resignations the number of candidates remaining proposed for any office does not exceed the number required by this Act to be elected for such office, then the clerk or other returning officer shall declare such remaining candidate or candidates duly elected to such office. 55 V. c. 42, s. 117, part; c. 43, s. 7; 58 V. c. 42, ss. 5, 6.

Non-election of full council by reason of retirement of candidates.

130. In case, at an annual or other municipal election, the candidates, or any of them who are nominated, retire, and by reason of such retirement the requisite number of persons is not elected, then the members elected, if they equal or exceed the half of the council when complete, or a majority of such members, shall order a new election to be held in the manner provided by this Act to fill the vacancies so caused 60 V. c. 45, s. 30.

Retirement by a majority of council.

131. In case, by reason of such retirement, less than half the members of council are elected, the clerk (as returning officer), shall cause a new election to be held in the manner provided by this Act; and until such election is held, and the number of members necessary to complete the council is elected, the council of the preceding year shall continue in office, and may do, or cause to be done, all such acts as a council duly elected for that year might lawfully do. 60 V. c. 45, s. 31.

County Council elections. Nominating officer.

132.—(1) In every year before that in which an election for county councillors is to be held, the county council shall appoint for each county council division, a "nominating officer," who shall act as such until his successor is appointed.

His duties.

(2.) His duties shall be, in every year before an election of county councillors is to be held, or before a vacancy is to be filled,

(a) To fix a place within the county council division for holding the nomination, between the hours of one and two o'clock in the afternoon, and to give under his hand, notice of such nomination and of the election, by advertisement in two weekly newspapers in the county, to be published for at least two successive weeks prior to such nomination day, or by giving sufficient public notice thereof by printed posters;

(b) To attend at the day and place appointed for such nomination and to perform the duties (so far as applicable) which the clerk of a local municipality is required to perform as returning officer at the nomination for an election in a local municipality.

(c) In case at the time appointed for holding the nomination, the nominating officer has died, or does not attend to hold such nomination, the electors present for the purpose of holding a nomination may choose from amongst themselves a nominating officer who shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of such nominating officer. 59 V. c. 52, s. 7 (1) part.

133. The nomination day shall be Monday in the week which precedes the week before polling day. 59 V. c. 52, s. 7 (3). Nomination day.

134. If upon the day and at the hour appointed for the nomination there are not more candidates nominated for any county council division than are required to be elected for such division, the nominating officer shall thereupon declare elected the candidate or candidates duly nominated, and shall thereupon prepare, and upon the same day mail to the county clerk, by registered letter with postage prepaid, a certificate under his hand of such election by acclamation; but if more candidates are nominated than are required to be elected in any county council division, the nominating officer shall, immediately after the lapse of the time in which candidates may withdraw from nomination, certify to the county clerk the facts, with the names and addresses of those remaining in nomination. Election by acclamation.

135.—(1) Any person nominated may resign either at the nomination meeting or during the following day. If such resignation is after the meeting, it shall be signed and witnessed in the manner prescribed for resignations under section 129 of this Act, and shall be forthwith delivered to the nominating officer. Resignations.

(2) If by reason of any such resignation or resignations the number of candidates remaining does not exceed that of the offices to be filled, the nominating officer shall certify such candidates as duly elected. 59 V. c. 52, s. 8.

Votes to be given by Ballot.

136. In case of a poll at an election of persons to serve in municipal councils, the votes shall be given by ballot. 55 V. c. 42, s. 118. Votes to be by ballot.

List of Defaulters in payment of Taxes.

137.—(1) On or before the last Monday in December the treasurer of each local municipality shall, if the collectors' roll has been returned to him, prepare and verify on oath, or, if the collector's roll has not been so returned, the collector shall prepare and verify on oath, a correct alphabetical list of— Preparation of list of defaulters.

(a) All persons who, being on the voters' list (that is to say, the first and second parts thereof) in respect of their income only, have not paid their municipal taxes on such income on or before the 14th day of December preceding the election; and,

(b) (In municipalities which have passed by-laws under sub-section 1 of section 535 of this Act), all persons on the voters' list (that is to say, the first and second parts thereof), who have been assessed for real property, but have not paid their municipal taxes on such property on or before the 14th day of December preceding the election. 55 V. c. 42, s. 119 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (29).

List to be made for each polling subdivision.

(2) Where a municipality is divided into polling subdivisions, such a defaulters' list shall be made for each polling subdivision.

Certified copies to be furnished.

(3) The person preparing the said defaulters' lists, shall furnish to all persons applying for the same, certified copies thereof, and of the affidavit verifying the same, in the same manner and for the same compensation as copies of the voters' list are to be furnished. 55 V. c. 42, s. 119 (2-3).

Ballot Boxes.

Ballot boxes to be furnished.

138.—(1) Where a poll is required, the clerk of the municipality shall procure or cause to be procured as many boxes (hereinafter called "ballot boxes") as there are wards or polling subdivisions within the municipality.

(4) In townships divided into wards, one kind or set of ballot papers shall be prepared for all the wards, containing the names of the candidates for reeve, and another kind or set shall be prepared for each ward, containing the names of the candidates for councillors in the ward. 55 V. c. 42, s. 122. In townships divided into wards.

141.—(1) The ballot papers shall be according to the forms given in Schedule A to this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 123. Form of ballot papers.

(2) In the case of an election to fill a vacancy, the ballot papers shall contain only so much of the said form as is required: and the counterfoils thereof shall bear, instead of the words appearing on the form of ballot papers given in said schedule, the words, "Election of a member of the municipal council of the city (or town, village or township, as the case may be), of , to fill a vacancy in the office of (mayor, reeve, councillor, etc., as the case may be), Ward No. , Polling subdivision No. , day of , 189 ." For mayor (or For reeve, councillor, etc., as the case may be)," or (in the case of an election to the county council) the words, "Election to fill a vacancy in the office of county councillor for the first (or as the case may be) county council division of the county of Township (or as the case may be) of , Ward No. , Polling subdivision No. , day of , 189 . For county councillor." 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (30).

Ballot papers, etc.

142.—(1) Whenever an election of a member or members of the county council is to be held, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county council to cause ballot papers to be printed therefor; and he shall, immediately after the receipt of the certificates from the nominating officer, and before polling day, forward a sufficient number of ballots and other necessary election papers to the clerk of each of the local municipalities within each county council division where elections for county councillors are to be held; and each clerk of a local municipality shall cause them to be supplied to the persons appointed to act as deputy-returning officers at the said election.

When no election to be held for local municipality.

(2) If all the members of the council of any local municipality are elected by acclamation, the clerk of the municipality shall nevertheless (when an election of a member or members of the county council is to be held), take all proceedings necessary for such election, in the same manner (mutatis mutandis) as is provided by this Act for the election of members of the council of the local municipality. 59 V. c. 52, s. 9 part. See also sec. 111.

Forms.

143.—In preparing the ballot papers or any notices or other papers which may be necessary, the forms appended to or otherwise provided for by this Act shall be used as far as applicable, and, where not wholly applicable, shall be adapted by the clerk of the county council or the clerks of the local municipalities, or other officers (as the case may be), to the election of county councillors; and the words "county councillor" shall be printed on every such ballot. 59 V. c. 52, s. 10.

Polling Places.

Clerk to furnish deputy-returning officers with ballot papers, etc.

144. In the case of municipalities divided into wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk of the municipality shall, before the opening of the poll, deliver or cause to be delivered to every deputy-returning officer the ballot papers which have been prepared for use in the ward or polling subdivision for which such deputy-returning officer has been appointed to act, and the clerk shall also furnish to each deputy-returning officer (or see that he is furnished with) the materials necessary for voters to mark their ballot papers; and such materials shall be kept at the polling place by the deputy-returning officer for the convenient use of voters. 55 V. c. 42, s. 124.

Compartment wherein voters may mark votes.

145. Every polling place shall be furnished with a compartment in which the voters can mark their votes screened from observation; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the municipality and of the deputy-returning officers respectively, to see that a proper compartment for that purpose is provided at each polling place. 55 V. c. 42, s. 125.

Directions to Voters.

Clerk to furnish deputy-returning officer with directions for voters' guidance.

146.—(1) In case of municipalities divided into wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk of the municipality shall, before the opening of the poll, deliver or cause to be delivered to every deputy-returning officer such number of printed directions for the guidance of voters in voting, as he may deem sufficient; and he shall so deliver or cause to be so delivered at least ten copies of such printed directions.

(2) Such directions shall be printed in conspicuous characters, and may be according to the form of Schedule B to this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 126.

Deputy returning officers to placard the directions.

147. Every deputy-returning officer shall, before the opening of the poll, or immediately after he has received the printed directions from the clerk of the municipality (if he did not receive the same before the opening of the poll), cause the said printed directions to be placarded outside the polling place for which he is appointed to act, and also in every compartment of the polling place, and shall see that they remain so placarded until the close of the polling. 55 V. c. 42, s. 127.

Voters' Lists, Poll Books and Defaulters' Lists.

Proper voters list to be used at an election.

Rev. Stat., c 7.

148. Subject to the provisions of the next following three sections, the proper list of voters to be used at an election shall be the first and second parts of the last list of voters certified by the Judge and delivered or transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace under The Voters' Lists Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 128.

For first election in new municipality.

149. For the first election in a new municipality for which there is no separate assessment roll, the clerk of the municipality shall, instead of a voters' list, provide every deputy-returning officer with a poll book, prepared according to the form of Schedule C to this Act, and either the deputy-returning officer or his sworn poll clerk shall therein enter, in the proper column, the name of every person offering to vote, and, at the request of any candidate or voter, shall note opposite the name of such person, the property on which the person claims to vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 129.

150.—(1) Where any territory is added for municipal purposes to any city, town, or village, or where a town with additional territory is erected into a city, or a village with additional territory is erected into a town, or where a new village is formed, and an election takes place before voters' lists including the names of the persons entitled to vote in such added territory, or in such new city, town or village, are made out, or before such lists are certified by the County Judge—in all such cases the clerk of the new or enlarged city, town, or village shall extract from the last filed or certified voters' list of the municipality to which such territory formerly belonged, and shall place in lists or supplementary lists, as the case may be, the names of the persons who would have been entitled to vote in the territory constituting or added to the city, town or village if no such change as aforesaid had been made. 55 V. c. 42, s. 130 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (31).

Form of supplementary lists.

(2) Such lists or supplementary lists shall be made in the form of Schedule C to this Act, and shall be signed by the clerk, and delivered by him to the proper deputy-returning officers for the purpose of enabling the persons named in such lists to vote at the election. 55 V. c. 42, s. 130 (2).

Voters' list. When clerk to prepare.

Rev. Stat. c. 7.

151.—(1) In any municipality for which there is a separate assessment roll, but for which no voters' list for the municipality has been filed with the Clerk of the Peace or certified by the County Judge under The Voters' Lists Act, the clerk of the municipality shall, before the poll is opened, prepare and deliver to the deputy-returning officer for every or any ward or polling subdivision, a list in the form of Schedule C to this Act, containing the names, arranged alphabetically, of all male persons appearing by the then last revised assessment roll to be entitled to vote in that ward or polling subdivision; and he shall attest the said list by his solemn declaration in writing under his hand.

(2) In the case of—

(a) Income voters, and

(b) Persons assessed for real property, if the municipality has passed a by-law under sub-section 1 of section 535 of this Act,

Persons in arrear for taxes shall be excluded from list.

the clerk shall exclude from the list such persons as have been returned to him by the treasurer or collector as in default for not having paid their municipal taxes on or before the 14th day of December preceding the election; and every list of voters so prepared shall be the proper voters' list to be used at the election. 55 V. c. 42, s. 131.

Delivery of copies of voters' list, poll book and defaulters' list to deputy returning officers.

152. In the case of municipalities which are divided into wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk of the municipality shall, before the poll is opened, deliver to the deputy-returning officer for every ward or polling subdivision, a copy, either printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, certified to be a correct list of voters for the ward or polling subdivision under section 148 and the following sections, together with a blank poll book according to the form of Schedule C to this Act, and also a copy certified by the treasurer or collector pursuant to section 137 of this Act, of the proper defaulter's list for the polling subdivision. 55 V. c. 42, s. 132.

Copies may be prepared by Clerk of Municipality or procured from Clerk of Peace. Rev. Stat. c. 7.

153. The copies of the voters' lists in the next preceding section mentioned, may be prepared by the clerk of the municipality, or may be procured from the Clerk of the Peace, if filed under The Voters' Lists Act; and in the latter case the Clerk of the Peace shall be entitled to receive the sum of six cents for every ten voters whose names are on the list. 55 V. c. 42, s. 133.

Defaulters' list to be evidence for deputy returning officer as to payment of taxes.

154. The defaulters' lists furnished and verified by the treasurer or collector as aforesaid, shall be the evidence on which the deputy-returning officers shall act in ascertaining the payment or non-payment of taxes by persons claiming to vote in respect of income, or in respect of real property, in the cases mentioned in section 137 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 134.

Column to be added for votes for county councillor.

155. Where an election for a member or members of the county council is being held at the same time as the election of a member or members of the council of the local municipality, the clerk of the local municipality in preparing the poll book shall insert therein a column to be headed "County Councillors" between the columns headed "Refused to swear or affirm" and the column headed "Mayor or reeve"; and in case no election is being held for a member or members of the council of the local municipality. the like books shall be used unless the clerk prepares poll books expressly for the election of county councillors. 59 V. c. 52, s. 26.

Certificates as to the Assessment Roll.

Clerk to give certificate of dates of return and final revision of assessment roll.

156.—(1) The clerk of the municipality shall, before the opening of the poll, deliver or cause to be delivered to every deputy-returning officer a certificate (which may be in the form of Schedule D to this Act), of

(a) The day when the assessment roll upon which the voters' list to be used at the election is based, was returned by the assessor, and also

(b) Of the day when the said assessment roll was finally revised and corrected.

Penalty for neglect. Fee for certificate.

(2) The clerk shall also, under a penalty of $200 in case of neglect or refusal, give such certificate upon payment of the sum of twenty-five cents, to any person applying for the same.

To be evidence of such date at the poll.

(3) The certificate, when delivered to the deputy-returning officer, shall be the evidence upon which he shall act in inserting in the oath to be administered to voters, the date of the return or of the final revision and correction of the assessment roll, (as the case may be). 55 V. c. 42, s. 135, (1-3).

In Municipalities not divided into Wards.

In municipalities not divided into wards or polling subdivisions, clerk to perform duties of deputy-returning officers.

157. In case of municipalities which are not divided into wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk shall perform the duties which in other cases are performed by deputy-returning officers, and he shall provide himself with the necessary ballot papers, and also with the materials for marking ballot papers, the printed directions before mentioned, copies of the voters' list, poll book and defaulters' list, and a certificate of the dates of the return and final revision of the assessment roll, similar to those required to be furnished to deputy-returning officers; and the clerk shall perform the like duties with respect to the whole municipality as are imposed upon a deputy-returning officer in respect of a ward or polling subdivision. 55 V. c. 42, s. 136. [See sec. 107.]

Where electors may vote.

Voting in towns and cities.

158. In towns and cities, every elector may vote in each ward in which he has been rated for the necessary property qualification, but in case of mayor of cities, or mayor, reeve or deputy-reeve of towns, the elector shall be limited to one vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 137.

Voting in townships and villages.

159. No elector shall vote more than once for reeve in a township or village; nor more than once in each ward for councillors in townships divided into wards; nor at more than one polling place in the township or village for deputy reeve or deputy reeves or councillors in townships not divided into wards and in villages. 55 V. c. 42, s. 138; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (32).

In county council elections.

160. Where any person being a resident voter qualified to vote for county councillors is on the voters' list for two or more municipalities within any county council division, he shall vote for county councillors in that municipality only in which he resides, and only at the polling place of the polling subdivision in which he resides, if he is entitled to vote at such polling place. In case a voter is not resident within the division, he shall vote only once within any division, whether his name is on the voters' list of said division in more than one polling subdivision or not. 59 V. c. 52, s. 13, part.

Where persons are to vote for mayor, reeve, and deputy reeve in towns, and for reeve in townships divided into wards.

161. Every elector who is entitled to a vote in more than one ward or polling subdivision shall vote for mayor in cities, and for mayor, reeve, and deputy-reeve in towns, and for reeve in townships divided into wards, at the polling place of the ward or polling subdivision in which he is resident, if qualified to vote therein; or when he is a non-resident or is not entitled to vote in the ward or polling subdivision where he resides, then where he first votes and there only. 55 V. c. 42, s. 139

162.—(1) Any person who votes for mayor or reeve, or in towns, villages or townships for deputy-reeve, after having already voted for mayor, reeve, or deputy-reeve at some other polling place at that election, shall incur a penalty of $50, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, by any person who will sue for the same in the Division Court having jurisdiction where the offence was committed; and any person against whom judgment is rendered shall be ineligible either as a candidate or as an elector at the next annual elections. 55 V. c. 42, s. 140 (1). Penalty for voting twice for mayor, reeve or deputy reeve.

(2) The Judge shall direct that in default of payment of the said penalty and costs within the time fixed by the said judge, the offender shall be imprisoned in the common gaol of the county for such period, not exceeding thirty days, as shall be directed by the said judgment; and in case of such default of payment the Judge shall issue a warrant for the arrest and confinement of the offender in such common gaol in accordance with the said judgment, unless the penalty and costs are sooner paid. 58 V. c. 42, s. 7. Imprisonment of elector voting twice for mayor, etc.

(3) The receipt by any voter of a ballot paper within the polling booth shall be prima facie evidence that he has there and then voted. 55 V. c. 42, s. 140 (2). Evidence of having voted.

163.—(1) The clerk of the municipality, on the request of any elector entitled to vote at one of the polling places, who has been appointed deputy-returning officer or poll clerk, or who has been named as an agent of a candidate to attend at any polling place other than the one where he is entitled to vote, shall give to such elector a certificate that he is entitled to vote at the polling place where he is to be stationed during the polling day; and the certificate shall also state the property or other qualification in respect of which he is entitled to vote. Certificate to entitle deputy returning officers, poll clerks, and agents to vote where stationed.

(2) On the production of the certificate, the deputy-returning officer, poll clerk, or agent shall have the right to vote at the polling place where he is stationed during the polling day, instead of at the polling place where he would otherwise have been entitled to vote; and the deputy-returning officer shall attach the certificate to the voters' list; but no such certificate shall entitle such elector to vote at such polling place unless he has been actually engaged as such deputy-returning officer, poll clerk, or agent during the day of polling; nor to vote for aldermen in cities, or for councillors in municipalities divided into wards, except in the ward where he would otherwise be entitled so to vote. Right to vote on production of certificate.

(3) In case a deputy-returning officer votes at the polling place to which he has been appointed, the poll clerk appointed to act at the polling place, or (in the absence of the poll clerk) any elector authorized to be present, may administer to the deputy-returning officer the oath required by law to be taken by voters. 55 V. c. 42, s. 141. Who to administer oath.

Deputy returning officer to shew box empty to persons present and then lock and seal it.

164. The deputy-returning officer shall, immediately before the commencement of the poll, shew the ballot box to such persons as are present in the polling place, so that they may see that it is empty; he shall then lock the box and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal; and he shall then place the box in his view for the receipt of ballot papers, and shall keep it so locked and sealed. 55 V. c. 42, s. 142.

Proceedings by deputy returning officer on tender of vote.

165. Where a person claiming to be entitled to vote presents himself for the purpose of voting, the deputy-returning officer shall proceed as follows:

Name.

1. He shall ascertain that the name of such person or a name apparently intended therefor is entered upon the voters' list for the ward or polling subdivision for which the deputy-returning officer is appointed to act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (33).

Recording.

2. He shall record, or cause to be recorded by the poll clerk, in the proper columns of the poll book the name, qualification, residence and legal addition of such person. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (2).

Objection.

3. Where the vote is objected to by any candidate or his agent, the deputy-returning officer shall enter the objection

(or cause the same to be entered) in the poll book, by writing opposite the name of such person in the proper column the words "Objected to," stating, at the same time, by which candidate, or on behalf of which candidate, the objection has been made, by adding after the words "Objected to," the name only of such candidate. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (4).

Oath.

4. If such person takes the oath or affirmation required to be taken by voters in the manner directed by section 112 to 116 inclusive of this Act, the deputy-returning officer shall enter or cause to be entered opposite such person's name, in the proper column of the said poll book the word "Sworn," or "Affirmed," according to the fact. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (3).

Refusal to take the oath.

5. Where such person has been required to take the oath or affirmation, and refuses to take the same, the deputy-returning officer shall enter or cause to be entered opposite the name of such person, in the proper column of the poll book, the words, "Refused to be Sworn," or "Refused to Affirm," according to the fact; and the vote of such person shall not be taken or received; and if the deputy-returning officer takes or receives such vote, or causes the same to be taken or received, he shall incur a penalty of $200. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (5).

Deputy returning officer to initial ballot paper and mark voter's list.

6. Where the proper entries respecting the person so claiming to vote have been made in the poll book in the manner prescribed, the deputy-returning officer shall place (or cause to be placed) a check or mark opposite to the name of the voter in the certified voters' list to indicate that the name of such person has been entered in the poll book and that the person has been allowed to vote, and shall then sign his name or initials on the back of the ballot paper. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (6); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Delivery of paper to voter.

7. The ballot paper shall be delivered to such person. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (7).

Deputy returning officer to explain mode of voting.

8. The deputy-returning officer may, and upon request shall, either personally or through his sworn poll-clerk, explain to the voter, as concisely as possible, the mode of voting. 55 V. c. 42, s. 143 (8).

Deputy returning officer refusing, etc., to initial ballot paper.

166. Every deputy-returning officer refusing, or wilfully omitting, to sign his name or initials upon the back of the ballot paper, as provided for by clause 6 of section 165 of this Act, shall forfeit to any person aggrieved by such refusal or omission, the sum of $10, in respect of every ballot paper deposited at his polling subdivision upon which the said deputy-returning officer has not signed his name or initials as aforesaid; and the same may be recovered as provided by section 251 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 144.

Deputy returning officer to note in poll book voters to whom ballot papers given.

167. The deputy-returning officer shall place, or cause to be placed, in the columns of the poll book headed "Mayor," "Reeve," (" or Mayor and Reeve") "Alderman," "County Councillor" and "Councillor," as the case may be, his initials opposite the name of every voter receiving a ballot paper, to denote that the voter has received a ballot paper for mayor, reeve, alderman, county councillor, or councillor, as the case may be. 55 V. c. 42, s. 145.

Marking ballot paper.

168.—(1) Upon receiving from a deputy-returning officer the ballot paper prepared as aforesaid, the person receiving the same shall forthwith proceed into the compartment provided for the purpose, and shall then and therein mark his ballot paper in the manner mentioned in the directions contained in Schedule B to this Act by placing a cross, thus X, on the right-hand side, opposite the name of any candidate for whom he desires to vote, or at any other place within the division which contains the name of such candidate. He shall then fold the ballot paper across, so as to conceal the names of the candidates, and the marks upon the face of the paper, and so as to expose the initials of the deputy-returning officer, and, leaving the compartment, shall, without delay, and without showing the front to any one, or so displaying the ballot paper as to make known to any person the names of the candidates for or against whom he has marked his vote, deliver the ballot paper so folded to the deputy-returning officer, who shall, without unfolding the same, or in any way disclosing the names of the candidates, or the marks made by such elector, verify his own initials, and at once deposit the same in the ballot box in the presence of all persons entitled to be present and then present in the polling place; and the voter shall forthwith leave the polling place. 55 V. c. 42, s. 146.

For county councillors.

(2) Each person qualified to vote for county councillors shall be entitled to as many votes as there are members of the county council to be elected in his county council division; and he may, at his option, where there are two county councillors to be elected, give both of his votes to one candidate, in which case he shall place two crosses, thus X X, on the right hand side opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes, or at any other place in the division which contains the name of such candidate; but except in the case aforesaid no person shall give two votes for one candidate. 59 V. c. 52, s. 13, part, and s. 25.

Exclusion from balloting compartment.

169. While a voter is in a balloting compartment for the purpose of marking his ballot paper, no other person shall be allowed to enter the compartment, or to be in any position from which he can observe the mode in which the voter marks his ballot paper. 55 V. c. 42, s. 147.

Voter not to take his ballot paper from Polling place.

170. No person who has received a ballot paper from the deputy-returning officer shall take the same out of the polling place; and any person having so received a ballot paper, who leaves the polling place without first delivering the same to the deputy-returning officer in the manner prescribed, shall thereby forfeit his right to vote; and the deputy-returning officer shall make an entry in the poll book, in the column for "Remarks," to the effect that such person received a ballot paper, but took the same out of the polling place, or returned the same declining to vote, as the case may be; and in the latter case the deputy-returning officer shall immediately write the word "Declined" upon such ballot paper and shall preserve the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 148; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (34).

Proceedings in case of incapacity to mark ballot paper.

171. In the case of an application by a person claiming to be entitled to vote, who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from marking his ballot paper, or in the case of a person claiming to be entitled to vote who makes a declaration that he is unable to read, or (where the voting is on a Saturday) that he is of the Jewish persuasion and objects on religious grounds to mark his ballot in the manner prescribed by section 168, the proceedings shall be as follows:

1. The deputy-returning officer shall, in the presence of the agents of the candidates, cause the vote of such person to be marked on a ballot paper in the manner directed by such person, and shall place the ballot paper in the ballot box.

2. The deputy-returning officer shall state or cause to be stated in the poll book, by an entry opposite the name of such person in the proper column of the poll book, that the vote of such person is marked in pursuance of this section, and the reason why it is so marked.

3. The declaration aforesaid may be in the form of Schedule E to this Act, and shall at the time of the polling be made by the person claiming to be entitled to vote, before the deputy-returning officer, who shall attest the same as nearly as may be according to the form given in Schedule F to this Act; and the said declaration shall be given to the deputy-returning officer at the time of voting. 55 V. c. 42, s. 149; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 14, s. 83 (1).

4. In the case of a person who objects on religious grounds to mark his ballot, the declaration may be made orally and to that effect. 60 V. c. 14, s. 83 (2).

Proceedings in case ballot paper cannot be used.

172. A person claiming to be entitled to vote, who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper, may, on delivering to the deputy-returning officer the ballot paper so inadvertently dealt with, and proving the fact of the inadvertence to the satisfaction of the deputy-returning officer, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered up; and the deputy-returning officer shall immediately write the word "Cancelled" upon the ballot paper, and preserve the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 150; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (35).

Who may be present in polling place.

173. During the time appointed for polling, no person shall be entitled or permitted to be present in the polling place, other than the officers, candidates, clerks or agents authorized to attend at the polling place and the voter who is for the time being actually engaged in voting: but it shall at all times be lawful for the deputy-returning officer to have present or to summon to his assistance in the polling place, any police constable or peace officer, for the purpose of maintaining order, or of preserving the public peace, or preventing any breach thereof, or of removing any person who, in the opinion of the deputy-returning officer, is obstructing the polling or wilfully violating the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 151.

Counting the votes.

174. In every polling place, the deputy-returning officer shall, immediately after the close of the poll, in the presence of the poll clerk (if any) and of such of the candidates or of their agents as may then be present, open the ballot box, and proceed to count the votes as follows:

Rejected ballots.

1. He shall examine the ballot papers, and any ballot paper which has not on its back the name or initials of the deputy-returning officer, or on which more votes are given than the elector is entitled to give, or on which anything, except the initials or name of the deputy-returning officer on the back, is written or marked, by which the voter can be identified, or which has been torn, defaced, or otherwise dealt with by the voter so that he can thereby be identified, shall be void, and shall not be counted. A ballot paper on which votes are given for a greater number of candidates for any office than the voter is entitled to vote for, shall be void as regards all the candidates for such office, but shall be good as regards the votes for any other offices in respect to which the voter has not voted for more candidates than he is entitled to vote for. 55 V. c. 42, s. 152 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (36).

Deputy returning officer to note objections taken to ballot papers at the counting, and number objection and ballot paper to correspond.

2. The deputy-returning officer shall take a note of any objection made by a candidate, his agent or any elector authorized to be present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box, and shall decide any question arising out of the objection.

3. Every objection shall be numbered, and a corresponding number shall be placed on the back of the ballot paper, and initialed by the deputy-returning officer.

Indorsing ballot paper.

4. The deputy-returning officer shall indorse "Rejected" on any ballot paper which he rejects as invalid, and shall indorse "Rejection objected to," if any objection is made to his decision.

Statement.

5. The deputy-returning officer shall then count up the votes given for each candidate upon the ballot papers not rejected, and shall make up a written statement, in words as well as in figures, of the number of votes given for each candidate, and of the number of ballot papers rejected and not counted by him, which statement shall be made under the several heads—

(a) Name or number of ward or polling subdivision and of the municipality, and date of election;

(b) Number of votes for each candidate;

(c) Rejected ballot papers.

Statement to be signed.

6. Upon the completion of the written statement, it shall be forthwith signed by the deputy-returning officer, the poll clerk, (if any), and such of the candidates or their agents as are present, and desire to sign such statement. 55 V. c. 42, s. 152 (2-6).

Agents entitled to be present.

175. No more than two agents for any candidate shall be entitled to be present at the same time at the counting of the votes. 55 V. c. 42, s. 153.

Deputy-returning officer to give certificate of state of poll.

176. Every deputy-returning officer, upon being requested so to do, shall deliver to the persons authorized to attend at his polling place, a certificate of the number of votes given at that polling place for each candidate, and of the number of rejected ballot papers. 55 V. c. 42, s. 154.

Deputy-returning officer's duties after votes are counted.

177.—(1) Every deputy-returning officer shall, at the close of the poll certify under his signature on the voters' list in full words the total number of persons who have voted at the polling place at which he has been appointed to preside; and, at the completion of the counting of votes after the close of the poll, shall, in the presence of the agents of the candidates, make up into separate packets, sealed with his own seal, and the seals of such agents of the candidates as desire to affix their seals, and marked upon the outside with a short statement of the contents of such packet, the date of the day of the election, the name of the deputy-returning officer, and of the ward or polling subdivision and of the municipality,

(a) The statement of votes given for each candidate and of the rejected ballot papers;

(b) The used ballot papers which have not been objected to and have been counted;

(c) The ballot papers which have been objected to, but which have been counted by the deputy-returning officer;

(d) The rejected ballot papers;

(e) The spoiled ballot papers;

(f) The unused ballot papers;

(g) A statement of the number of voters whose votes have been marked by the deputy-returning officer under section 171 of this Act with the declarations of inability; and the notes taken of objections made to ballot papers found in the ballot-box. 55 V. c. 42, s. 155 (1); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Declaration by deputy-returning officer as to use of voters' list and poll book.

(2) Before returning the voters' list and poll-book to the clerk of the municipality, the deputy-returning officer shall make and subscribe before such clerk, or a Justice of the Peace or before the poll clerk, his declaration under oath that the voters' list and poll book were used in the manner prescribed by law, and that the entries required by law to be made therein were correctly made; which declaration shall be in form of Schedule G to this Act and shall thereafter be annexed to the voters' list, and such voters' list, poll-book and declaration may be inspected at any time, in presence of the clerk, by any elector of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 155 (2); 58 V. c. 42, s. 8; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Packets of ballot papers etc., to be delivered to the clerk of municipality.

(3) If the clerk of the municipality is not himself performing the duties of deputy-returning officer, the deputy-returning officer shall forthwith deliver such packet personally to the clerk of the municipality; and if, owing to illness or other cause, he is unable to do so, he shall deliver such packets to a person chosen by him for the purpose of delivering the same to the clerk; and shall mention on the outside of the cover of each of the packets the name of the person to whom the same had been so delivered, and shall take a proper receipt therefor; he shall also forthwith return the ballot box to the clerk of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 155 (3).

Return of ballot boxes, etc., in cities and towns.

(4) In cities and towns, each deputy-returning officer, as soon as the duties enumerated in subsections 1 and 2 of this section have been performed, (or in case of his illness or inability as aforesaid, the person chosen by him,) shall forthwith proceed directly from the polling place to the office of the clerk of the municipality with the ballot box and the said packets, and shall there personally and forthwith on the same day, and as soon as is possible after leaving the polling place, deliver the same to the clerk of the municipality; and no deputy-returning officer in a city or town shall under any circumstances take the ballot box or packets, or allow the same to be taken to his home, or house, or office, or place of business, or to any house or place whatsoever other than the office of the clerk of the municipality. And for any breach of the provisions of this subsection a deputy returning officer shall incur the penalties provided in sections 193 and 194 of this Act. The returning officer shall remain at his office on the evening of the polling day until the said boxes have been so returned to him. 59 V. c. 51, s. 3; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Statement to be made by deputy returning officer on return of ballot papers, etc.

(5) The packets shall be accompanied by a statement made by the deputy-returning officer, shewing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him, and accounting for them under the heads of (1) Counted; (2) Rejected; (3) Unused; (4) Spoiled;

(5) Ballot papers given to voters who afterwards returned the same, declining to vote; and (6) Ballot papers taken from the polling place; which statement shall give the number of papers under each head, and is in this Act referred to as the "Ballot Paper Account."

If dispute as to result arises how to be settled.

(6) If the deputy-returning officer and one or more of the candidates or of the agents of the candidates present at the examination and counting of the ballot papers are unable to agree as to the written statement to be made by the deputy-returning officer, the packages of ballot papers shall be broken open by the clerk of the municipality on the day succeeding the polling day, in the presence of the deputy-returning officer and of such of the candidates or their agents as may be present, at an hour and place to be appointed by the deputy-returning officer, and of which they have been notified by him; but if the distance necessary to be travelled is such that the appointed place cannot be reached on the day following the poll, a reasonable time shall be allowed, and no more, for the purpose of coming before the clerk of the municipality; and the clerk of the municipality, after examining the ballot papers, shall finally determine the matter in dispute, sign the written statement hereinbefore mentioned, and shall forthwith, in the presence of the deputy-returning officer and of such of the candidates or their agents as may then be present, securely seal up the ballot papers which have been examined by him in their several packages as before. 55 V. c. 42, s. 155 (4-5).

Clerk to cast up votes and declare who is elected to local council.

178. The clerk of the municipality, after he has received the ballot papers and statements before mentioned of the number of votes given in each polling place, shall, without opening any of the sealed packets of ballot papers, cast up from the statements the number of votes for each candidate; and shall, at the town hall, or, if there is no town hall, at some other public place, at noon on the day following the return of such ballot papers and statements, publicly declare to be elected to the council of the local municipality the candidate or candidates having the highest number of votes; and he shall also put up in some conspicuous place a statement under his hand shewing the number of votes polled for each candidate for election to the council of the local municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 156.

In case of a tie clerk to have a casting vote;

179.—(1) In case it appears, upon the casting up of the votes as aforesaid, that two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, the clerk of the municipality, (or other person appointed by by-law to discharge the duties of clerk in case of his absence or incapacity through illness), whether otherwise qualified or not, shall, at the time he declares the result of the poll, give a vote for one or more of such candidates, so as to decide the election for the local municipality.

but otherwise not to vote.

(2) Except in such case, no clerk of the municipality shall vote at any local municipal election held in his municipality. See sec. 365.

Deputy returning officers, etc., may vote if qualified.

(3) All deputy-returning officers and persons employed as deputy-returning officers and poll clerks shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 157.

County Council Elections.

Ballot for county councillors how to be dealt with.

180. At the election of a member or members of a county council, the ballots shall be placed in the same ballot box as the ballots for the members of the council of a local municipality where an election for such local municipality is being held, and shall be counted in the same manner as such last named ballots. Thereafter they shall be placed in a separate envelope or package and otherwise dealt with in the same manner as ballots for the election of members of the council of a local municipality. Where an election for the local municipality is not being held, the proceedings thereat and thereafter, (except where the same are varied hereby), shall be as nearly as possible the same as in the case of an election for a local municipality. 59 V. c. 52, s. 12.

Certifying result of voting for county councillors.

181. The clerk of each municipality shall, on the day following the return to him of the ballot papers and statements, prepare and mail to the county clerk by registered letter with the postage prepaid, a certificate under his hand of the result of the voting in his municipality for the candidates for the county council. Such certificate shall be according to the form given in the Schedule H hereto. 59 V. c. 52, s. 15.

County clerk to cast up votes and declare result.

182. In elections to the county council the county clerk shall be returning officer, and shall (as such) perform the duties required of him by this Act, and shall on receipt of the certificates from the clerks of the municipalities comprising a county council division, cast up from such certificates the number of votes for each candidate, and at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon of the second Monday in the month of January, in the county council chamber, shall publicly declare elected the two candidates having the highest number of votes in each county council division, and shall also post up in his office for public inspection a statement under his hand showing the number of votes polled for each candidate. 59 V. c. 52, s. 16.

When two candidates have same number of votes.

183. Where an equal number of votes has been cast for two or more candidates in any county council division, and it is necessary to determine which one or two of such candidates shall be declared to be elected, the nominating officer for the division shall, upon the request of the county clerk, declare in writing for which such candidates he votes, and in such case the candidate or candidates for whom he votes shall be elected:

and except when so required to give a casting vote, no nominating officer shall vote at an election held for the county council division for which he is appointed. 59 V. c. 52, s. 17; 60 V. c. 45, s. 61.

In Case of Election not Held at Proper Time, Etc.

Election not commenced, or interrupted by reason of riot, etc., to be resumed.

184. In case, by reason of riot or other emergency, an election is not commenced on the proper day, or is interrupted after being commenced and before the lawful closing thereof, the returning officer, or deputy-returning officer, as the case may be, shall hold or resume the election on the following day at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue the same from day to day, if necessary, for four days, until the poll has been opened without interruption, and with free access to voters for eight hours in all, or thereabouts, in order that all the electors so intending may have had a fair opportunity to vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 158; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (37).

If election is prevented for four days voters' list, etc., is to be returned, and a new election ordered.

185. In case the election has not by the end of the fourth day from the day the same commenced or should have commenced, been kept open for the said eight hours the returning officer, or deputy-returning officer, as the case may be, shall not return any person as elected, but shall return his voters' list and ballot papers on the following day to the head of the municipality, certifying the cause of there not having been an election; and a new election shall take place, and the head of the municipality shall forthwith issue his warrant therefor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 159; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (38). See also sec. 212.

Declaration of election in such cases.

186. When a poll has been duly held in each of such wards or polling subdivisions, and the ballot papers and statements hereby directed to be returned to the clerk have been so returned to him, the clerk shall, without opening any of the sealed packets of ballot papers, cast up from said statements the number of votes given for each candidate for any office in respect whereof the election has not been previously declared, together with the votes appearing by the statements previously returned for other wards to be given for the candidate, and shall at noon on the next day, at the town hall, (or if there is no town hall, at some other public place), publicly declare to be elected the candidate or candidates having the largest number of votes polled. 55 V. c. 42, s. 160.

Declaration and assumption of office.

187. The person or persons so elected shall make the necessary declarations of office and qualification and shall assume office accordingly. 55 V. c. 42, s. 161.

[For postponement of an election on account of an epidemic or contagious disease, see Cap. 248, Sec. 47.]

Ballot papers how disposed of.

188. The clerk of the municipality shall retain for one month all ballot papers received by him or forwarded to him in pursuance of this Act by deputy-returning officers, and shall then, unless otherwise directed by an order of a Court or Judge of competent jurisdiction, cause them to be destroyed in the presence of two witnesses, whose declaration that they have witnessed the destruction of such papers shall be taken before the head of the municipality, and filed by the said clerk amongst the records of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 162.

Ballot papers to be inspected only by order of a Court or Judge.

189.—(1) No person shall be allowed to inspect any ballot papers in the custody of the clerk of the municipality except under the order of a Court or Judge of competent jurisdiction, to be granted by the Court or Judge upon satisfactory evidence on oath that the inspection or production of the ballot papers is required for the purpose of maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation thereto, or for the purpose of a petition questioning an election or return; and any such order for the inspection or production of ballot papers shall be obeyed by the clerk of the municipality.

Order may be subject to conditions.

(2) The order may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place, and mode of opening or inspection as the Court or Judge making the order thinks expedient.

Re-count of votes by County Judge.

(3) In case at any time within fourteen days from the time when the ballot papers are received by the clerk of the municipality, it is, on the affidavit of a credible person, made to appear to the County Judge of the county in which the municipality is situated, that a deputy-returning officer at any election in the municipality, in counting the votes for mayor, alderman, reeve, deputy-reeve, councillor, or water commissioner, has improperly counted or rejected any ballot papers, the County Judge may appoint a time to re-count the votes, and shall give notice in writing to the candidates of the time and place at which he will proceed to re-count the same.

(4) At the time of the application for a re-count, the applicant shall deposit with the clerk of the County Court the sum of $25 as security for the payment of costs, charges and expenses that may become payable by the applicant: and the said sum shall not be paid out by the clerk without the order of the Judge. Deposit by applicant.

(5) The County Judge, the clerk of the municipality with the ballot boxes, and each candidate and his agent appointed to attend the re-count of votes, and no other person except with the sanction of the County Judge, shall be entitled to be present at the re-count of the votes. Who may be present at re-count.

(6) At the time and place appointed, the County Judge shall proceed to re-count all the votes or ballot papers received by the clerk of the municipality, and shall in the presence of the parties aforesaid, if they attend, or in the presence of such of them as do attend, open the sealed packets containing (a) the used ballot papers which have not been objected to and have been counted; (b) the ballot papers which have been objected to, but which have been counted by the deputy-returning officer; (c) the rejected ballot papers; (d) the spoiled ballot papers; (e) the unused ballot papers. In re-counting the votes, care shall be taken that the mode in which any particular voter has voted shall not be discovered. Opening of packets.

(7) The County Judge shall, as far as practicable, proceed continuously with the re-count of the votes, allowing only time for refreshment, excluding only Sundays and, on other days (except so far as he and the parties aforesaid agree), the hours between six o'clock in the evening and nine o'clock on the succeeding morning. During the excluded time the County Judge shall place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the election under his own seal, and the seals of such other of the parties as desire to affix their seals, and shall otherwise take precautions for the security of the papers and documents. 55 V. c. 42, s. 163 (1-7). Re-count to be a continuous proceeding.

(8) The County Judge shall proceed to re-count the votes as follows: Procedure on re-count.

1. He shall examine the ballot papers.

2. Any ballot paper on which votes are given to more candidates than are to be elected, or on which anything except the name or initials of the deputy-returning officer on the back is written or marked by which the voter can be identified, or which has been torn, defaced, or otherwise dealt with by the voter so that he can thereby be identified, shall be void and shall not be counted. A ballot paper on which votes are given for a greater number of candidates for any office than the voter is entitled to vote for, shall be void as regards all the candidates for such office, but shall be good as regards the votes for any other offices in respect to which the voter has not voted for more candidates than he is entitled to vote for;

but no word or mark written or made, or omitted to be written or made by the deputy-returning officer on a ballot paper, shall avoid the same.

3. The County Judge shall take a note of any objection made by a candidate or by his agent to any ballot paper found in the ballot box, and shall decide any question arising out of the objection; and the decision of the County Judge shall be final.

4. The County Judge shall then count up the votes given for each candidate upon the ballot papers not rejected, and shall make up a written statement, in words as well as in figures, of the number of votes given for each candidate, and of the number of ballot papers rejected and not counted by him; which statement shall be made under the several heads following:

(a) Name of municipality;

(b) Names of the candidates;

(c) Number of votes for each candidate;

(d) Papers wanting signature or initials of deputy-returning officer;

(e) Papers rejected as voting for more candidates than entitled to;

(f) Papers rejected as having a writing or mark by which the voter can be identified, or as torn, defaced or otherwise dealt with by the voter so that he can thereby be identified;

(g) Papers rejected as unmarked or void for uncertainty.

5. Upon the completion of the re-count, or as soon as he has thus ascertained the result of the poll, the County Judge shall seal up all the ballot papers in separate packets, and shall forthwith certify the result to the clerk of the municipality, who shall then declare elected the candidate having the highest number of votes; and in case of an equality of votes, the clerk of the municipality shall have the casting vote as provided in section 179 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 163 (8); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (39).

Existing remedies not affected.

(9) Nothing in this section contained shall destroy or prevent any remedy which any person now has by quo warranto or otherwise. 55 V. c. 42, s. 164.

Costs of application

190.—(1) All costs, charges and expenses of, and incidental to an application for a re-count and to the proceedings consequent thereon, shall be defrayed by the parties to the application in such manner and in such proportion as the Judge may determine, regard being had to the disallowance of any costs, charges or expenses which may, in the opinion of the Judge, have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations, or unfounded objections on the part either of the applicant or the respondent, regard being had to the discouragement of any needless expense by throwing the burden of defraying the same on the parties by whom it has been caused, whether such parties are or are not on the whole successful.

Taxation of costs.

(2) The costs may be taxed in the same manner, and according to the same principles as costs are taxed between solicitor and client in the County Court.

Recovery of costs.

(3) The payment of any costs ordered by the Judge to be paid, may be enforced by an execution against goods and chattels, to be issued from any County Court, upon filing therein the order of the Judge and a certificate shewing the amount at which the costs were taxed and an affidavit of the non-payment thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 165.

Recount in elections to county councils.

191.—(1) In the case of an election of a member or members of a county council, the same proceedings may be had for a recount of votes, as may be had in the case of a member or members of the council of a local municipality.

(2) In case of a recount the County Judge may require the clerk or clerks of the local municipality or municipalities to forward, under seal, for the purpose of production before him, to the clerk of the county, all ballot papers, books, voters' or other lists, and other papers in his or their hands connected with the election.

(3) Each such clerk shall so forward the ballot papers, books, voters' or other lists, and other papers as directed, with a statutory declaration that they are the ballot papers, books, voters' or other lists, and other papers (if any) returned to him in connection with such election and no others, and that he has kept them safely and has not permitted or given opportunity to any person or persons to examine, inspect or see them since they were returned to him, and that he has kept them under seal securely since their return to him. 59 V. c. 52, s. 20, part.

Production of documents and indorsements on ballot papers evidence for certain purposes.

192. Where a rule or order is made for the production by the clerk of the municipality of any document in his possession relating to a specified election, the production of the document by the clerk, as directed by the rule or order, shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the specified election; and any indorsement appearing on any packet of ballot papers produced by the clerk, shall be evidence of the papers being what they are stated to be by the indorsement. 55 V. c. 42, s. 166.

193.—(1) No person shall—Offences.

(a) Without due authority supply any ballot paper to any person; or

(b) Fraudulently put into any ballot box any paper other than the ballot paper which he is authorized by law to put in; or

(c) Fraudulently take out of the polling place any ballot paper; or

(d) Without due authority destroy, take, open, or otherwise interfere with any ballot box or packet of ballot papers then in use for the purposes of the election; or

(e) Apply for a ballot paper in the name of some other person, whether such name is that of a person living or dead or of a fictitious person; or advise or abet, counsel or procure any other person so to do; but this provision shall not be construed as including a person who applies for such ballot paper believing that he is the person intended by the name entered on the voter's list in respect of which he so applies; or

(f) Having voted once and not being entitled to vote again at an election, apply at the same election, for a ballot paper in his own name, or advise, or abet, counsel or procure any other person so to do. 55 V. c. 42, s. 167 (1); 59 V. c. 51, s. 4 (1); 60 V. 15, Sched. C (40).

(2) No person shall attempt to commit any offence specified in this section.

Penalty by imprisonment.

(3) A person guilty of any violation of this section shall be liable, if he is the clerk of the municipality, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour; and, if he is any other person, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour. 55 V. c. 42, s. 167 (2-3).

Money penalty for offences.

194. Every officer and clerk who is guilty of any wilful misfeasance, or any wilful act or omission in contravention of sections 137 to 193, inclusive, of this Act, shall, in addition to any other penalty or liability to which he may be subject, forfeit to any person aggrieved by such misfeasance, act or omission, a penal sum of $400. 55 V. c. 42, s. 168.

Penalty for neglecting to carry out Act.

195. Any county clerk or clerk or officer of a local municipality who refuses or neglects to perform the duties prescribed by this Act in relation to elections for members of a county council, shall be liable, on conviction thereof, to a fine of $200 and costs. 59 V. c. 52, s. 23; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Penalties for false returns.

196. In addition to any other penalties imposed by this Act, any clerk of a local municipality who knowingly makes a false or incorrect return under section 181 of this Act, and any county clerk who knowingly makes a false or incorrect declaration of election under section 182 of this Act, and any nominating officer who knowingly makes a false or incorrect declaration of election or knowingly gives a false or incorrect certificate under section 135 of this Act, or commits any other act of falsification, concealment or fraud, with intent to affect the election of a candidate or candidates for a county council, shall, upon conviction thereof, be liable to a fine of $500 and costs, and shall be disqualified for a period of four years thereafter from holding any office or position in the gift or control of any municipal council in the Province of Ontario, and shall not be eligible during the said period for election as a member of any such council. 59 V. c. 52, s. 24.

197. All the provisions of this Act relating to the imposition of penalties in connection with municipal elections, shall apply to elections to county councils. 59 V. c. 52, s. 27, part.

Secrecy of Proceedings.

198.—(1) Every officer, clerk and agent in attendance at a polling place shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting at the polling place. Maintaining secrecy of proceedings at polling places.

(2) No officer, clerk or agent, and no other person shall interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking his ballot paper, or shall otherwise attempt to obtain at the polling place information as to the candidate or candidates for whom any voter at such polling place is about to vote or has voted.

(3) No officer, clerk, agent or other person shall communicate at any time to any person any information obtained at a polling place as to the candidate or candidates for whom any voter at such polling place is about to vote or has voted.

(4) Every officer, clerk and agent in attendance at the counting of the votes, shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and shall not communicate or attempt to communicate any information obtained at such counting as to the candidate or candidates for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.

(5) No person shall, directly, or indirectly, induce a voter to display his ballot paper after he has marked the same, so as to make known to any person the name of any candidate or candidates for or against whom he has marked his ballot paper.

(6) Every person who acts in contravention of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction before a Stipendiary Magistrate, Police Magistrate, or two Justices of the Peace, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour. 55 V. c. 42, s. 169. Penalty for contravening this section.

Statutory declaration of secrecy.

199. The clerk of the municipality, and every officer, clerk or agent authorized to attend a polling place or at the counting of the votes, shall, before the opening of the poll, make a statutory declaration of secrecy in the presence (if he is the clerk of the municipality) of a Justice of the Peace, and if he is any other officer, or clerk, in the presence of a Justice of the Peace or of the clerk of the municipality, and (if he is an agent of a candidate) in the presence of a Justice of the Peace or of the clerk of the municipality, or of the deputy-returning officer at whose polling place he is appointed agent. Such statutory declaration of secrecy shall be in the form mentioned in Schedule I to this Act, or to the like effect. 55 V. c. 42, s. 170.

No one compellable to disclose his vote.

200. No person who has voted at an election shall, in any legal proceeding to question the election or return, be required to state for whom he has voted. 55 V. c, 42, s. 171.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Candidates may undertake duties of an agent.

201. A candidate may himself undertake the duties which any agent of his, if appointed, might have undertaken, or he may assist his agent in the performance of such duties, and may be present at any place at which his agent may (in pursuance in this Act) be authorized to attend; but no candidate shall be present at the marking of a ballot for a voter under section 171. 55 V. c. 42, s. 172.

Expressions in ss. 137-201, referring to agents.

202. When in the sections of this Act numbered from 137 to 201 inclusive, expressions are used, requiring or authorizing any act or thing to be done, or inferring that any act or thing is to be done in the presence of the agents of the candidates, such expressions shall be deemed to refer to the presence of such agents of the candidates as are authorized to attend, and as have in fact attended, at the time and place where such act or thing is being done; and the non-attendance of any agent at such time and place shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate in anywise the act or thing done. 55 V. c. 42, s. 173.

Non-attendance of agents

Public holidays, etc., excluded in reckoning time under ss. 137-201, except for nomination and election of mayors, etc.

203. In reckoning time for the purposes of the said sections, 137 to 201, Sunday and any day set apart by any act of lawful authority for a public holiday, fast or thanksgiving shall be excluded; and where anything is required by this Act to be done on a day which falls on any of such days, such thing may be done on the next juridical day; but nothing in this section contained shall extend or apply to the days fixed by this Act for the nomination or election of candidates for the offices of mayor and aldermen in cities, of county councillors, or of mayor, reeve, deputy reeve or councillors in other municipalities. 55 V. c. 42, s. 174; 59 V. c. 52, s. 27.

204. No election shall be declared invalid by reason of a non-compliance with the provisions of this Act as to the taking of the poll or the counting of the votes, or by reason of any mistake in the use of the forms contained in the Schedules to this Act, or by reason of any irregularity, if it appears to the tribunal having cognizance of the question that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Act, and that such non-compliance, mistake or irregularity did not affect the result of the election. 55 V. c. 42, s. 175.

No election to be invalid for want of compliance with provisions of Act where principles laid down followed and result not affected.

205.—(1) The expenses incurred in and about the election of county councillors shall be borne by the county; but where a poll is held for the election of a member or members of the council of a local municipality at the same time as the election for the county council is held, the cost of the polling booth and the fees of the deputy returning officer, poll clerk and constable and any other expenses which would be necessary for such election for the local municipality shall be borne by the local municipality as heretofore.

Expenses of elections, payment of.

(2) In case of any dispute between the local municipality and the county as to the apportionment or payment of any such expenses, the difference between them shall be summarily and finally settled by the County Judge upon the application of either party, upon four days' notice to the other party, and the Judge shall make such order in the matter as to him appears just.

(3) Where an election for the county council is held when no poll is required at an election for the local municipality or municipalities, then the expense thereof shall be borne wholly by the county. 59 V. c. 52, s. 22.

206. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, the reasonable expenses incurred by the county clerk, the clerk of the local municipality and the other officers and clerks for [illegible] printing, providing ballot boxes, ballot papers, materials for marking ballot papers, balloting compartments, transmission of the packets required by this Act to be transmitted, and all reasonable fees and allowances for services rendered under this Act, shall be paid to the county clerk or the clerk of the local municipality by the treasurer of the county or local municipality, (as the case may be), and shall be distributed by him to the several persons entitled thereto. 55 V. c. 42, s. 176.

Expenses incurred by officers to be paid.

Seats to become vacant by crime, insolvency, absence, etc.

207. If, after the election of a person as a member of a council, he is convicted of felony or infamous crime, or becomes insolvent within the meaning of any Insolvent Act in force in this Province, or applies for relief as an indigent debtor, or remains in close custody, or assigns his property for the benefit of his creditors, or absents himself from the meetings of the council for three months without being authorized so to do by a resolution of the council entered upon its minutes, his seat in the council shall thereby become vacant, and the council shall forthwith declare the seat vacant and order a new election. 55 V. c. 22, s. 177; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (41).

Proceedings on member's omitting to vacate seat.

208. In the event of a member of a council forfeiting his seat at the council or his right thereto, or becoming disqualified to hold his seat, or of his seat becoming vacant by disqualification or otherwise, he shall forthwith resign his seat, and in the event of his omitting to do so within ten days thereafter, proceedings may be taken to unseat such member, as provided by sections 219 to 244, both inclusive, of this Act, and the said sections shall, for the purposes of such proceedings, apply to any such forfeiture, disqualification or vacancy. 55 V. c. 42, s. 178; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3: c. 15, Sched. C (42)

In county councils.

209. In the case of members of a county council, the same proceedings may be taken for the vacating of any seat as in the case of members of the council of any local municipality. 59 V. c. 52, s. 20, part.

Any member may resign with consent of majority of council.

210. Any mayor or other member of a council may, with the consent of the majority of the members present, to be entered upon the minutes of the council, resign his seat in the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 179.

Resignation of warden.

Vacancies, how filled.

211. The warden of a county may resign his office by verbal intimation to the council while in session, or by letter to the county clerk if the council is not in session, in which case, and in case of vacancy by death or otherwise, the county clerk shall notify all the members of the council, and shall, if required by a majority of the members of the council, call a special meeting to fill such vacancy. 55 V. c. 42, s. 180.

New election provided for, and mode of conducting same.

212. In case no return is made for one or more wards or polling subdivisions, in consequence of non-election owing to interruption by riot or other cause, or in case a person elected to a council neglects or refuses to accept office, or to make the necessary declarations of office within the time required, or in case a vacancy occurs in the council caused by resignation, death, judicial decision or otherwise, the head of the council for the time being, or in case of his absence, or of his office being vacant, the clerk, or in case of the like absence or vacancy in the office of the clerk, one of the members of the council, shall forthwith, by warrant, under the signature of such head, clerk or member, require the returning officers and deputy-returning officers appointed to hold the last election for the municipality, ward and polling subdivision respectively, or such other persons as may be duly appointed to those offices, to hold a new election in the wards or polling subdivisions for which no return has been made, or to fill the place of the person neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, or to fill the vacancy aforesaid. 55 V. c. 42, s. 181; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (43).

Warrant for new election;

213. In case such non-election, neglect or refusal as aforesaid occurs previous to the organization of the council for the year, the warrant for the new election shall be issued by the head or a member of the council for the previous year, or by the clerk, in like manner as provided by section 212, but such neglect or refusal shall not interfere with the immediate organization of the new council, provided a majority of the full number of the council are present. 55 V. c 42, s. 184.

but neglect not to prevent organization of council.

Time for holding new election.

214. The returning officers and deputy-returning officers shall hold the new election at furthest within fifteen days after receiving the warrant, and the clerk shall appoint a day and place for the nomination of candidates, and the election shall, in respect to notices and other matters, be conducted in the same manner as the annual elections. 55 V. c. 42, s. 185

Seat to be held for residue of term.

215. The person thereupon elected shall hold his seat for the residue of the term for which his predecessor was elected, or for which the office is to be filled. 55 V. c. 42, s 183.

Vacancies in office of mayor of town or reeve of township or village after 1st November.

216.—(1) In case the office of mayor of a town, or the office of reeve of a township or village, becomes vacant after the first day of November in any year, and an election to fill the vacancy has not been ordered by the Court or a Judge, the council may either direct that an election be held to fill the vacancy, or may elect one of their number to fill the office during the residue of the term. 55 V. c. 42, s. 182; 58 V. c. 42, s. 10; 60 V. c. 45, s. 32 (1).

Vacancies in office of mayor of a city after 1st July.

(2) In case the office of mayor of a city becomes vacant after the first day of July in any year, and an election to fill the vacancy has not been ordered by the Court or a Judge, the council shall elect one of their own number to fill the office during the residue of the term. 60 V. c. 45, s. 32 (2).

Vacancies in office of alderman or councillor after 1st November.

(3) In case the office of alderman or councillor becomes vacant after the first day of November in any year, and an election to fill the vacancy has not been ordered by the Court or a Judge, it shall be in the discretion of the council to direct that an election be held to fill such vacancy, or otherwise as they may see fit. 58 V. c. 42, s. 11.

Filling vacancies in county councils.

217.—(1) In case of a vacancy occurring in a county council before the June meeting of the council, by the death of a member or from some other cause, the warden (or in case of a vacancy in that office, the county clerk) shall issue to the nominating officer of the division in which the vacancy exists, his warrant for a new election to fill the vacancy in time, if practicable, to allow of the filling of the same before the regular June meeting of said council is held; and where there is not time to fill the same before the said meeting, such vacancy shall be filled at the next annual municipal election; and the clerk of the county council and the councils and the clerks of the local municipalities comprising the county council division in which such vacancy has occurred, shall take all necessary proceedings, as provided by this Act, to hold the election. When an election to fill any such vacancy is held at the annual municipal election, or at any other time during the year, the proceedings shall be the same (as nearly as may be) as in the case of the biennial election under this Act; but where at such by-election one councillor only is to be elected, each elector shall be entitled to but one vote.

(2) The councillor so elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office during the unexpired portion of the term for which his predecessor was elected. 59 V. c. 52, s. 21.

(3) In case the nominating officer of the division in which the vacancy exists is dead, or is unable through illness or absence, or neglects or refuses to act, the warrant for a new election may be directed to some other person; and thereupon such person shall act as nominating officer and shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of a nominating officer duly appointed under section 132 of this Act. 60 V. c. 45, s. 62.

Mode of appointing requisite number of members of council if election neglected, etc.

218. In case, at an annual or other election, the electors, from any cause not provided for by sections 184 or 185, neglect or decline to elect the members of the council for a municipality on the day appointed, or to elect the requisite number of members, the new members of the council, if they equal or exceed the half of the council when complete, or a majority of such new members—or if half of such members are not elected, then the members for the preceding year, or a majority of them,—shall appoint as many qualified persons as will constitute or complete the number of members requisite; and the persons so appointed shall accept office and make the necessary declarations, under the same penalty, in case of refusal or neglect, as if they had been elected. 55 V. c. 42, s. 186. See also secs. 130, 131.

Procedure.

Trial of contested elections.

219.—(1) In case the validity of the election of a mayor, warden, reeve, deputy-reeve, alderman, county councillor or councillor is contested, the same may be tried by a Judge of the High Court, or by the senior or officiating Judge of the County Court of the county in which the election or appointment took place. Any candidate at the election, or any elector who gave or tendered his vote thereat, or, in case of an election by acclamation, any elector entitled to vote at a municipal election for the municipality may be the relator for the purpose. 55 V. c. 42, s. 187 (1); 58 V. c. 42, s. 12; 59 V. c. 52, s. 27 part; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (44).

Jurisdiction of Master in Chambers.

(2) The Master in Chambers or other officer having jurisdiction to sit for the Master in Chambers at his request under the rules of the Supreme Court of Judicature from time to time in force, shall have the same jurisdiction as a Judge of the High Court to try the matters aforesaid: and the word "Judge" in sections 216 and 220 to 244 inclusive, and sections 248 to 257 inclusive, shall include such Master or officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 187 (2); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (45).

Appeal from County Judge or Master in Chambers.

(3) The decision of a Judge of the High Court shall be final, but the decision of the Master in Chambers or other officer aforesaid or of the County Court Judge shall be appealable to a Judge of the High Court, and the proceedings incident thereto shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in the case of an appeal in other cases from a decision of the Master in Chambers. The decision of the Judge of the High Court on such an appeal shall be final. 55 V. c. 42, s. 187 (3).

Time within which proceedings to be instituted and security and proof required.

220.—(1) In case within six weeks after an election, or one month after acceptance of office by the person elected, the relator shows by affidavit to such Judge, reasonable ground for supposing that the election was not legal, or was not conducted according to law, or that the person declared elected thereat was not duly elected, or for contesting the validity of the election of any mayor, warden, reeve, deputy-reeve, alderman, county councillor or councillor, the Judge shall grant his fiat, authorizing the relator, upon entering into a sufficient recognizance as hereinafter provided, to serve a notice of motion in the nature of a quo warranto to determine the matter.

(2) The recognizance shall be entered into before the Judge or before a commissioner for taking affidavits or bail, by the relator in the sum of $200, and by two sureties (to be allowed as sufficient by the Judge upon affidavit of justification) each in the sum of $100; and the recognizance shall be conditioned to prosecute the motion with effect, and to pay to the party against whom the motion is made any costs which may be adjudged to him against the relator.

(3) When the sufficiency of the said sureties has been determined and the said recognizance allowed as sufficient by the said Judge, he shall note or indorse thereon and upon the fiat allowing service of the notice of motion the words "Recognizance allowed" and shall initial the same.

(4) Where the proceedings are taken before a Judge of the High Court or before the Master in Chambers or other officer having jurisdiction to sit for the Master in Chambers, the same shall be entitled and conducted in the High Court of Justice in the same manner as other proceedings in Chambers; and where the proceedings are taken before the Judge of the County Court the same shall be entitled and conducted in the County Court in the same manner as other proceedings in Chambers. 55 V. c. 42, s. 188; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (46), Con. Rules 1888, Rule 1038.

Notice of motion.

221.—(1) The notice of motion shall be at least seven clear days' notice and may either state the return day of the motion or state that the notice will be made on the eighth day after the day of service of the notice, excluding the day of service. Con. Rules 1888, Rule 1039.

Notice of motion, what to contain.

(2) The relator shall, in his notice of motion, set forth his name in full, his occupation, place of residence, and the interest which he has in the election, as candidate or voter, and shall also state specifically under distinct heads, all the grounds of objection to the validity of the election complained against, and in favour of the validity of the election of the relator, or other person or persons, where the relator claims that he or they, or any of them, have been duly elected. Con. Rule 1040.

Affidavits to be filed.

222. Before serving his notice of motion the relator shall file all the affidavits and material upon which he intends to move, except where vive voce evidence is to be taken, and in that case he shall name in his notice the witnesses whom he proposes to examine. Con. Rule 1041.

Service of notice of motion.

223.—(1) The notice of motion shall be served personally, unless the party to be served keeps out of the way to avoid personal service, in which case the Judge upon being satisfied thereof, by affidavit or otherwise, may make an order for such substitutional service as he thinks fit. 55 V. c. 42, s. 194.

Time for service of notice of motion.

(2) Service of the notice of motion shall be made within two weeks from the date of the fiat so granted by the Judge, unless otherwise ordered by the Judge, as in the preceding subsection provided. 58 V. c. 42, s. 13.

When the relator claims the seat.

224. In case the relator alleges that he himself or some other person has been duly elected, the motion shall be to try the validity, both of the election complained of and of the alleged election of the relator or other person. 55 V. c. 42, s. 190.

When several elections complained of.

225. In case the grounds of objection apply equally to two or more persons elected, the relator may proceed by one motion against such persons. 55 V. c. 42, s. 191.

Hearing of motion.

226. On the hearing of the motion the relator shall not be allowed to object to the election of the person complained against, or to support the election of any person alleged to have been duly elected on any ground not specified in the notice of motion; but the Judge in his discretion may entertain any substantial ground of objection to, or in support of, the validity of the election of either or any of the parties which may appear in the evidence before him. Con. Rule 1042.

Where more motions than one, all to be tried by the same judge.

227. Where more motions than one are made to try the validity of an election, all the motions shall be made returnable before the Judge who is to try the first of them; and the Judge may give one judgment upon all, or a separate judgment upon each one or more of them, as he thinks fit. 55 V. c. 42, s. 192.

228. The Judge may require the clerk of any municipality to produce before him or to forward under seal to the clerk of the county, for the purpose of production before the said Judge, such assessment rolls, collector's rolls, ballot papers, books, voters' and other lists and such other records of the election and papers in his hands connected therewith as to the said Judge may from time to time seem fit. 55 V. c. 42, s. 197 part; 59 V. c. 52, s. 20 part; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 15, Sched. C. (51).

Evidence to be used on return of motion may be taken viva voce.

229. In case the motion is returnable before a Judge of the High Court, he may order the evidence to be used on the hearing of the motion to be taken viva voce before a County Court Judge, in the presence of counsel for, or after notice to, all the parties interested, and the County Court Judge shall return the evidence to the proper officer of the High Court of Justice, and every party shall be entitled to a copy thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 189; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (47).

Returning officer, etc., may be made a party.

230. The Judge before whom the motion is made returnable, may, if he thinks proper, at any stage of the proceedings make an order adding the returning officer or any deputy-returning officer or any other person as a party thereto. 55 V. c. 42, s. 195; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (48).

The Judge may allow certain persons to intervene and prosecute or defend.

231. The Judge before whom the motion is returnable may allow any person entitled to be a relator to intervene and prosecute or defend, and may grant a reasonable time for the purpose; and an intervening party shall be liable or entitled to costs like any other party to the proceedings. 55 V. c. 42, s. 196; 60 V. c, 3, s. 3; c. 15, Sched. C. (49).

Mode of trial.

232.—(1) The Judge shall, in a summary manner, without formal pleadings, hear and determine the validity of the election, and may inquire into the facts on affidavit or affirmation, or by oral testimony, or by issues framed by him and sent to be tried by a jury in any Court named by the Judge, or by one or more of these means, as he deems expedient; subject, however to the provisions of section 248. 55 V. c. 42, s. 197; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (50) (51).

(2) If necessity arises for sending an issue to be tried by a jury, an order for the purpose may be made, and the issue to be tried shall be stated in the order. Con. Rule 1043.

If election invalid, judge shall remove person not duly elected, and admit person elected, or order new election.

233. In case the election complained of is adjudged invalid, the Judge shall, by the judgment order to be removed, the person found not to have been duly elected; and in case the Judge determines that any other person was duly elected, the Judge shall forthwith order such other person to be admitted; and in case the Judge determines that no other person was duly elected instead of the person removed, the Judge shall order a new election to be held. 55 V. c. 42, s. 198.

Order for new election to be directed to the sheriff.

234. In case the election of all the members of a council is adjudged invalid, the order for their removal, and for the election of new members in their place, or for the admission of others adjudged to be legally elected, and for an election to fill up the remaining seats in the council, shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the election took place; and the sheriff shall have all the powers for causing the election to be held which a municipal council has in order to supply vacancies therein. 55 V. c. 42, s. 199.

Where election has been declared invalid owing to refusal to permit qualified persons to vote.

235.—(1) In any case where an election has been held invalid owing to the improper refusal of the returning officer or deputy-returning officer to receive ballot papers tendered by duly qualified electors, or to give ballot papers to duly qualified electors, the Judge may, in his discretion, order the costs of the proceedings to unseat the person declared elected, or any part thereof or any other costs, to be paid by the respondent or by such returning officer or deputy-returning officer.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall affect any right of action against such returning officer or deputy-returning officer or be deemed to relieve such returning officer or deputy returning officer from any penalty to which he may be liable under the provisions of this Act. 59 V. c. 51, s. 5.

Judgment.

236. After the adjudication upon the case an order shall be drawn up in the usual manner which shall state concisely the ground and effect of the decision, which order may be at any time amended by the Judge in regard to any matter of form, and the order shall have the same force and effect as a writ of mandamus formerly had in the like case. Con. Rule 1044.

Judgment to be returned to the court.

Mode of enforcing judgment.

237. The Judge shall, immediately after his decision, return his order with all things had before him touching the same, to the proper office of the Court in which the proceedings are entitled, there to remain of record as a judgment of the High Court; and, as occasion requires, the judgment may be enforced in the same manner as an ordinary order of mandamus, and (for the costs awarded) by writs of execution. 55 V. c. 42, s. 207; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (46).

Disclaimer.

When defendant may disclaim.

238. Any person whose election is complained of may, (unless such election is complained of on the ground of corrupt practices on the part of such person), within one week after service on him of the notice of motion, transmit, post paid, through the post office, directed to "The Clerk in Chambers, at Osgoode Hall, Toronto," or to "The Judge of the County Court of the County of "(as the case may require), and also to the relator or his solicitor or may cause to be delivered to such Clerk or Judge and to the relator or his solicitor a disclaimer signed by him, to the effect following:

Form of notice of disclaimer.

"I, A. B., upon whom a notice of motion, in the nature of a quo warranto, has been served for the purpose of contesting my right to the office of Township Councillor (or as the case may be) for the Township of , in the County of (or as the case may be), do hereby disclaim the said office, and all defence of any right I may have to the same.

"Dated day of

(Signed) "A. B."

55 V. c. 42, ss. 200 and 201; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (52).

Transmission of disclaimer.

239. The disclaimer, or the envelope containing the same, shall moreover be indorsed on the outside thereof with the word "Disclaimer," and shall be registered at the post office where it is mailed. 55. V. c. 42., s. 202.

Person elected may disclaim at any time before his election is complained of.

240. Where there has been a contested election, the person elected may at any time after the election, and before his election is complained of, deliver to the clerk of the municipality a disclaimer signed by him as follows:

Form.

"I, A. B., do hereby disclaim all right to the office of Township Councillor, (or as the case may be) for the Township of (or as the case may be), and all defence of any right I may have to the same."

55 V. c. 42, s. 203.

Disclaimer to operate as resignation.

Who to be deemed elected.

241. Such disclaimer shall relieve the party making it from all liability to costs, and where a disclaimer has been made in accordance with the preceding sections, it shall operate as a resignation, and the candidate having the next highest number of votes shall then become the member or officer elected. 55 V. c. 42, s. 204.

Duplicate disclaimer to be delivered to clerk.

242. Every person disclaiming shall deliver a duplicate of his disclaimer to the clerk of the municipality, and the clerk shall forthwith communicate the same to the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 205.

Costs against person disclaiming.

243. No costs shall be awarded against a person duly disclaiming, unless the Judge is satisfied that such person consented to his nomination as a candidate, or accepted the office, in which case the costs shall be in the discretion of the Judge. 55 V. c. 42, s. 206.

Rules of Practice.

The judges to make rules, etc.

Rev. Stat. c. 51.

244. The Judges of the High Court, or such of them as may be authorized by The Judicature Act to make general rules for regulating the practice of the High Court, may, by rules, settle the forms of any writs, notices, orders or other proceedings to be issued, given or made under sections 219 to 243 inclusive of this Act, and respecting the practice generally, in hearing and determining the validity of such elections, and respecting the costs thereon; and may from time to time rescind, alter, or add to such rules; but all existing rules shall remain in force until rescinded or altered as aforesaid. 55 V. c. 42, s. 208; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (54).

Penalty for offences under s. 245.

251. The penalties imposed by the preceding section and by section 166 of this Act shall be recoverable, with full costs of suit, by any person who sues for the same in the Division Court having jurisdiction where the offence was committed; and any person against whom judgment is rendered, shall be ineligible, either as a candidate or as a municipal voter, until the amount which he has been condemned to pay is fully paid and satisfied. 55 V. c. 42, s. 215. Recovery of penalties.

Report and Record of Judgment.

252. It shall be the duty of the Judge or officer who finds any candidate guilty of a contravention of section 245 or 246 Judge to make return of this Act, or who condemns any person to pay any sum in the Division Court for any offence within the meaning of this Act, to report the same forthwith to the clerk of the municipality wherein the offence has been committed. 55 V. c. 42, s. 216.

Clerk to keep book showing names of persons guilty of offences, etc.

253. The clerk of every municipality shall duly enter in a book, to be kept for that purpose, the names of all persons within his municipality who have been adjudged guilty of any offence within the meaning of section 245 or section 246 of this Act, and of which he has been notified by the Judge who tried the case. 55 V. c. 42, s. 217.

Witnesses and Evidence.

Attendance of witnesses.

254. Any witness shall be bound to attend before the County Court Judge upon being served with the order of the County Court Judge directing his attendance and upon payment of the necessary fees for his attendance, in the same manner as if he had been directed by a writ of subpœna so to attend; and he may be punished for contempt, and shall be liable to all the penalties for such non-attendance in the same manner as if he had been served with a subpœna. 55 V. c. 42, s. 218.

Witnesses not excused from answering on grounds of self crimination or privilege.

Proviso.

255. No person shall be excused from answering any question put to him in any action or other proceeding in any Court or before any Judge or officer, touching or concerning any election or by-law, or the conduct of any person thereat, or in relation thereto, on the ground of any privilege, or on the ground that the answer to the question will tend to criminate such person; but no answer given by any person claiming to be excused on the ground of privilege, or on the ground that such answer will subject him to any penalty under this Act, shall be used, in any proceeding under this Act, against such person, if the Judge or officer gives to the witness a certificate that he claimed the right to be excused on either of the grounds aforesaid, and made full and true answer, to the satisfaction of the Judge or officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 219.

Limitation of time for Proceedings.

Limitation of actions.

256. All proceedings other than an application in the nature of a quo warranto against any person for any violation of section 245 or 246 of this Act, shall be commenced within four weeks after the municipal election at which the offence is said to have been committed, or within four weeks after the day of the voting upon a by-law as aforesaid. 55 V. c. 42, s. 220.

When no penalty recoverable.

257. No pecuniary penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Act or any other Act of the Legislature of Ontario, shall be recoverable for any act of bribery or corrupt practice at an election, in case it appears that the person charged and another person or other persons were together guilty of the act charged, either as giver and receiver, or as accomplices or otherwise, and that the person charged has previously bona fide prosecuted such other person or persons or any of them for the said act; but this provision shall not apply in case the Judge before whom the person claiming the benefit thereof is charged, certifies that it clearly appears to him that the person so charged took the first step towards the commission of the offence charged, and that such person was in fact the principal offender. 55 V. c. 42, s. 221.

(5) The elective members of the Board of Control shall hold office for the remainder of the municipal year in which they are elected, unless removed; but they shall, if members of the council, be eligible for re-election. In case any member of the board dies, resigns or becomes incapable of acting, the council may, at a meeting called for that purpose, elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of such member; or in case of the temporary absence of any member for more than one month, or of his inability to act, his place may be temporarily filled by the council. Term of office.

(6) The election or appointment of any alderman as a member of the Board of Control shall not render him ineligible for election as chairman of any committee Chairman of committee may be elected.

(7) The council at any time, after three days' notice in writing to each member of the council, may, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the council present and voting, remove any member of the Board of Control other than the mayor, and may after such removal proceed to fill the vacancy thus created. But such removal and the filling of the vacancy shall take place only at a meeting specially called for such purpose. 59 V. c. 51, s. 33. Removal of members of board.

277.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Board of Control :— Duties of board.

(a) To prepare an estimate of the proposed expenditure of the year and certify the same to the council for its consideration. The council shall not appropriate or expend, nor shall any officer thereof expend or direct the expenditure of, any sum or sums not included in or provided for by such estimates or in or by any special or supplementary estimates duly certified by the board to the council, without the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the council present and voting, authorizing such additional appropriation or expenditure. But this prohibition shall not extend to the payment of any debenture or other debt or liability lawfully contracted and payable, nor to the interest thereon. Preparing estimates.

(b) To prepare specifications for and award all contracts and for that purpose to call for all tenders for works, material and supplies, implements or machinery or any other goods or property required and which may lawfully be purchased for the use of the corporation, and to report their action to the council at its next meeting Upon the opening of any tenders, the chairman or board shall require the presence of the head Awarding contracts.

of the department or sub-department with which the subject matter of such tender is connected, and of the city solicitor when required. Such head of department may take part in any discussion at the board relating to such tenders, but shall not be entitled to vote. The council shall not, unless upon an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the council present and voting, reverse or vary the action of the Board of Control in respect of such tender and decision of the board thereon, when the effect of such vote would be to increase the cost of the work or to award the contract to a tenderer other than that one to whom the Board of Control has awarded it.

Inspecting municipal works.

(c) To inspect and report to the council monthly or oftener upon all municipal works being carried on or in progress within the city.

Nominating officers of corporation.

(d) To nominate to the council all heads of departments and sub-departments in case of any vacancy and, after a favourable report by the head of the department, any other officer of the corporation required to be appointed by by-law or resolution of the council, and any other permanent officers, clerks or assistants, and to recommend the salaries of all officers and clerks; and no head of department or sub-department or other permanent officer, clerk or assistant as aforesaid shall be appointed or selected by the council in the absence of such nomination without an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the council present and voting; but the council may, by a majority vote, refer such nomination back to the Board of Control for reconsideration.

Suspension or dismissal of officers.

(e) To dismiss or suspend any head of a department and forthwith to report such dismissal or suspension to the council. Where any head of department has been dismissed by the board, he shall not be reappointed or reinstated by the council unless upon an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the council present and voting.

Other duties.

(f) To discharge all other duties heretofore assigned to or discharged by the existing Board of Administration under any by-law of the municipality.

Appointment of. Secs. 295, 296.
Assessment Commissioner—Board of Assessors. Sec. 296.
Township Collectors to act for Provisional Corporations—Disposal of moneys. Secs. 297, 298.

Assessors and collectors, appointment of.

295.—(1) The council of every city, town, township, and village, shall as soon as may be convenient after the annual election, appoint as many assessors and collectors for the municipality as they may think necessary, and shall fill up any vacancy that occurs in the said offices as soon as may be convenient after the same occurs; but the council shall not appoint as assessor or collector a member of the council or the clerk or treasurer of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 254 (1); 55 V. c. 48, s. 12 (1).

(2) No person convicted of treason, felony or any infamous crime (unless he has obtained a free pardon or served the term of imprisonment or paid the penalty imposed under the sentence), and no person under outlawry, shall be qualified to act as assessor or collector. 55 V. c, 48, s. 12 (2); c. 49, s. 27.

(3) The council may assign to such assessors and collectors the assessment district or districts within which they are to act, and may prescribe regulations for governing them in the performance of their duties. 55 V. c. 48, s. 13.

(4) The same person may, in a city, town or township, be appointed assessor or collector for more than one ward or polling subdivision. 55 V. c. 42, s. 254 (2).

(5) In municipalities which have passed by-laws requiring taxes to be paid on or before the 14th day of December, it shall be the duty of the collectors, on the 15th day of December in each year to return, upon oath, to the treasurer the names of all persons who have not paid their municipal taxes on or before the 14th day of the said month of December. 55 V. c. 42, s. 254 (3).

In cities and towns, assessment commissioner may be appointed instead of assessors, etc.

296. In cities and towns, the council, instead of appointing assessors under the preceding section, may appoint an assessment commissioner, who, in conjunction with the mayor for the time being, shall, from time to time, appoint such assessors and valuators as may be necessary, and such commissioner, assessors, and valuators shall constitute a board of assessors, and shall possess all the powers and perform the duties of assessors appointed under the last preceding section;

(2) The council shall also have power, by by-law, to determine the number of collectors to be appointed, and to prescribe their duties;

(3) Any commissioner, assessor or collector appointed in any city need not be appointed annually, but shall hold office at the pleasure of the council;

Tenure of office of commissioner, assessors, etc.

(4) All notices (in other municipalities required to be given to the clerk of the municipality in matters relative to assessment) shall in such city be given to the assessment commissioner. 55 V. c. 42, s. 255.

Rev. Stat. c. 136.

[As to delivery by registrars to assessment commissioners in cities on request, of duplicate plans or maps of every survey or subdivision of lands therein, and the furnishing of lists of absolute conveyances, see Cap. 136, Secs. 112 and 125.]

Collectors for provisional council.

Payments.

297. The collectors of the several townships in a junior county of a union of counties shall, ex officio, be collectors in such townships for the provisional council, and the collectors shall pay over to the provisional treasurer the money which they collect under any by-law of the provisional council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 256.

298. The money so collected shall be deemed the money of the union, so far as may be necessary to make the collectors and their sureties responsible therefor to the union; and in case the corporation of the union receives the same, such corporation shall immediately pay the amount to the provisional treasurer, retaining the expenses of collection. 55 V. c. 42, s. 257. Moneys, how to be disposed of.

Division V.—Auditors and Audit.

Appointment and duties. Secs. 299-305.
Special provisions relating to Toronto. Sec. 300.
Publication of abstract and statement of receipts and expenditure. Sec. 306.
Council to finally audit. Sec. 307.
County Council to regulate and audit county moneys. Sec. 308.
Audit, how often to be made. Sec. 309.

299.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the next two sections as to cities, every council shall at the first meeting thereof in every year after being duly organized, appoint two auditors, one of whom shall be such person as the head of the council nominates; but no one who, at such time, or during the preceding year, is or was a member, or is or was clerk or treasurer of the council, or who has, or during the preceding year had, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with any other person, a share or interest in any contract or employment with or on behalf of the corporation, except as auditor, shall be appointed an auditor. Auditors. Disqualification of auditors.

(2) In the event of an auditor so appointed to audit the accounts of a county refusing, or being unable to act, the head of the council shall nominate another person to act in his stead.

(3) The person so to be appointed by the head of the council shall not be a person in his employment. 55 V. c. 42, s. 258.

300.—(1) The council of the corporation of the city of Toronto shall appoint two auditors, who shall hold office during pleasure. Auditors for Toronto.

(2) The treasurer shall prepare, in duplicate, not later than the first day of April in each year an abstract of the receipts and expenditure of the city for the year ending on the 31st of December preceding, and of the assets and liabilities thereof at that date, and shall submit the same to the auditors for examination. The auditors shall audit such statement with the treasurer's books, and shall make a report on all accounts audited by them, and a general report as to any matters which they may deem necessary to be reported to the council, and on or before the first day of May Treasurer to prepare annual statement. Report of auditors.

shall transmit one copy of the said abstract with their report thereon to the Secretary of the Bureau of Industries, Toronto, and file the other in the office of the clerk of the council; and thereafter any individual or ratepayer of the municipality may inspect the same at all reasonable hours, and may, by himself or his agent, at his own expense take a copy thereof or extracts therefrom. 55 V. c. 42, s. 259.

Auditors' report may be inspected.

Time for appointment of auditors in cities.

301.—(1) The council of any city which passes a by-law declaring that it is expedient to appoint its auditors in the month of December in each year, shall, while such by-law remains in force, and in the month of December in each year, instead of at its first meeting after being duly organized, appoint two auditors.

Application of existing laws as to appointment of auditors.

(2) Notwithstanding this section, or any such by-law, the provisions of section 299 of this Act, as to the appointment of auditors, shall apply to the audit of the accounts of the year in which such by-law takes effect. 55 V. c. 42, s. 260.

Duty of auditors.

302. The auditors appointed under the next preceding two sections shall, every month, commencing at the end of the first month in the year following the said month of December, and so on to the end of such year, examine and report upon all accounts affecting the corporation, or relating to any matter under its control, or within its jurisdiction. 55 V. c. 42, s. 261.

Filling vacancies.

303. The council of a city, in the event of a vacancy in the office of auditor happening by death, resignation or otherwise, may, by by-law, fill such vacancy, and the person so appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the year for which the original appointment was made. 55 V. c. 42, s. 262.

Duties of auditors.

304.—(1) The auditors shall examine and report upon all accounts affecting the corporation, or relating to any matter under its control or within its jurisdiction for the year ending on the 31st day of December preceding their appointment. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (1).

To prepare abstract and detailed statement of receipts and expenditure, &c.

(2) The auditors shall prepare in duplicate an abstract of the receipts, expenditure, assets, and liabilities of the corporation, and also in duplicate a detailed statement of the same in such form as the council directs. They shall make a report on all accounts audited by them, and a special report of any expenditure made contrary to law. The auditors shall, under a penalty of $20 in case of default, transmit by mail in a registered package one copy of the abstract and also one copy of the detailed statement in such form as these have been submitted to the council, to the Secretary of the Bureau of Industries, Toronto, and shall file the other abstract, together with the other detailed statement and reports, in the office of the clerk of the council, within one month after their appointment; and thereafter any inhabitant or ratepayer of the municipality may inspect the same at all reasonable hours, and may, by himself or his agent, at his own expense take a copy thereof or extracts therefrom. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (2); 60 V. c. 45, s. 38.

Report on treasurer's sureties.

(3) They shall also make a report upon the condition and value of the securities given by the treasurer for the due performance of the duties of his office; and such report shall show what cash balance, if any, was due from the treasurer to the municipality from the date of the audit, and where such balance is deposited, and what security exists that the same will be available when required for the purposes of the municipality; but this shall not relieve the council from the performance of any duty imposed thereon by section 288. 55 V. c. 42. s. 263 (2) (a); c. 43, s. 11.

Inspection of books of bank or company.

(4) The auditors may make a written requisition upon the treasurer for an order or request to or upon any bank or company with whom the public moneys are or have been deposited, or with whom such treasurer has kept an account, authorizing and requesting such bank or company to exhibit the account and details thereof to such auditors; and such treasurer shall within twenty-four hours after the delivery to him of such requisition comply therewith upon pain of forfeiture of office. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (2) (b); c. 43, s. 12 part.

Money payable by Province to be retained if auditors' return not made.

(5) The Treasurer of the Province shall retain in his hands any moneys payable to any municipality, if it is certified to him by the Secretary of the Bureau of Industries that the auditor or auditors of the municipality have not made the returns hereby required. 60 V. c. 45, s. 39.

Publication of statements of assets and liabilities.

(6) The council of every town, township and village shall hold a meeting on the 15th day of December in each year, or if that day is a Sunday, then on the Monday following, and shall immediately thereafter publish a detailed statement of receipts and expenditure for the portion of the year ending on the day of such meeting, together with a statement of assets and liabilities and uncollected taxes. A similar statement in detail respecting the last 15 days of the preceding year shall be attached thereto. The said statement shall be signed by the mayor or reeve and by the treasurer, and shall be published forthwith in one or more newspapers (if any) of the municipality and also in such other newspapers circulated in the municipality, as the council may direct. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (3); c. 43, s. 13.

or posting up the same.

(7) Instead of publishing the said statement in any newspaper, the council may cause the same to be posted up, not later than the 24th day of December, in the offices of the clerk and of the treasurer, as well as at all the post offices in the municipality, and at not less than 12 other conspicuous places therein. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (3*a*).

Delivery of copies to electors.

(8) The clerk shall procure not less than one hundred copies of the said statement and, shall deliver or transmit by post one of such copies to the electors who first request him to do so, not later than the 24th day of December in each year, and shall also see that copies of the said statement are produced at the nomination. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (4).

Nor to apply to certain municipalities.

(9) The provisions of the preceding three sub-sections shall not apply to the township municipalities situated in the electoral districts of East Algoma, West Algoma, North Renfrew, Muskoka, or Parry Sound, or the Provisional County of Haliburton. 55 V. c. 42, s. 263 (5).

Making untrue entries in financial statement.

(10) If any member or officer of a municipal corporation, or any other person, wilfully or knowingly makes or causes or procures to be made, any untrue entry in the statement required by subsection 6 of this section, or wilfully or knowingly causes to be omitted from the said statement any entry or item which should be included therein, he shall be liable, on summary conviction thereof before two or more Justices of the Peace, to a penalty of not less than $5, nor more than $40, and costs of conviction. 60 V. c. 45, s. 40.

Accounts may be audited before payment.

305. The council of any city may, by by-law, provide that the auditors shall audit all accounts before payment. 55 V. c. 42, s. 264.

Clerks to publish abstracts and statements.

306. The clerk shall publish the auditors' abstract and report (if any), and shall also publish the detailed statement in such form as the council directs; and in the case of a local municipality the clerk shall transmit to the clerk of the county council a copy of such abstract and statement, and the same shall be kept by the clerk of the county council, as of record, in his office. 55 V. c 42, s. 265.

The council to audit finally, etc.

307. The council shall, upon the report of the auditors, finally audit and allow the accounts of the treasurer and collectors, and all accounts chargeable against the corporation; and in case of charges not regulated by law, the council shall allow what is reasonable. 55 V. c. 42, s. 266.

Audit of moneys to paid by county treasurer.

308. Unless otherwise provided, every county council shall have the regulation and auditing of all moneys to be paid out of the funds in the hands of the county treasurer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 267.

Audit of accounts in cities and towns.

In other municipalities.

309. In cities and towns, the council may also appoint an auditor, who shall, daily or otherwise as directed by the council, examine and report and audit the accounts of the corporation, in conformity with any regulation or by-law of the council; and in other municipalities the auditors shall also, monthly or quarterly, if directed by by-law, examine into and audit the accounts of the corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 268.

Division VI.—Valuators.

Appointment and duties. Sec. 310.

310.—(1) The council of every county may appoint two or more valuators for the purpose of valuing the real property within the county, and it shall be their duty to ascertain, in every fifth year at furthest, the value of the same in the manner directed by the county council; but the valuators shall not exceed the powers possessed by assessors. The valuation so made shall be made by the county council the basis of equalization of the real property for a period not exceeding five years; and the equalization of personal property shall be as heretofore.

Jurisdiction of councils.

325. The jurisdiction of every council shall be confined to the municipality which the council represents, except where authority beyond the same is expressly given; and the powers of the council shall be exercised by by-law, when not otherwise authorized or provided for. 55 V. c. 42, s. 282.

General power to make regulations;

To repeal, alter, etc., by-laws.

326. Every council may make regulations not specifically provided for by this Act, and not contrary to law, for governing the proceedings of the council, the conduct of its members, the appointing or calling of special meetings of the council, and generally such other regulations as the good of the inhabitants of the municipality requires, and may repeal, alter and amend its by-laws, save as by this Act restricted. 55 V. c. 42, s. 283.

Council a continuing body.

327. A municipal council shall be deemed and considered as always continuing and existing, notwithstanding any annual or other election of the members composing the same, and, after any such election and the organization of the council for the current year, may take up and carry on to completion all proceedings commenced but not completed prior thereto. 55 V. c. 42, s. 284; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Certain acts not to be done by councils after 31st December.

328. No council of any local municipality shall, after the 31st day of December in the year for which its members were elected, pass any by-law or resolution for the payment of money or which involves directly or indirectly the payment of money, nor shall they enter into any contract or obligation on the part of the municipality, nor shall they appoint to or dismiss from office any officer under the control of the council, or do any other corporate act after said day except in case of extreme urgency; but the council may before the 31st day of December, do any necessary business which, having regard to the circumstances, may be done at such time, and which they are authorized to do at their last meeting. 59 V. c. 51, s. 7.

Traders' license fees.

329. In all cases where, under the provisions of this Act, or of any other Act, any council or the board of commissioners of police in any city, or either of them, is or are authorized to pass by-laws for licensing any trade, calling, business, or profession, or the person carrying on or engaged in any such trade, calling, business, or profession, the council and the board of commissioners of police, respectively, shall, subject to sections 581, 583 and 585 of this Act, have power to pass by-laws fixing the sum to be paid for a license for exercising any such trade, calling, business, or profession, in the municipality, and for enforcing payment of the license fee, and for determining the time during which the license shall be in force. 55 V. c. 42, s. 285; 59 V. c. 51, s. 31 (1), part.

Granting monopolies prohibited.

330. Subject to the provisions of sections 331 and 332 of this Act no council shall have the power to give any person an exclusive right of exercising, within the municipality, any trade or calling, or to impose a special tax on any person exercising the same, or to require a license to be taken for exercising the same, unless authorized or required by statute so to do; but the council may direct a fee, not exceeding $1, to be paid to the proper officer for a certificate of compliance with any regulations in regard to such trade or calling. 55 V. c. 42, s. 286.

But fee may be required for certificate.

Powers of municipalities as to telephone companies.

331.—(1) The council of every city, town and village may pass by-laws, granting from time to time, to any telephone company, upon such terms and conditions as may be thought expedient, the exclusive right within the municipality, for a period not exceeding five years at any one time, to use streets and lanes in the municipality for the purpose of placing in, upon, over or under the same, poles, ducts and wires for the purpose of carrying on a telephone business, and may on behalf of the municipal corporation, enter into agreements with any such company not to give to any other company or person for such period any license or permission to use such streets or lanes for any such purpose; but no such by-law shall be passed, nor shall any such agreement be entered into without the assent of two-thirds of the members of the council of the municipality being present and voting therefor.

Certain rights not affected.

(2) Nothing in the preceding subsection contained, or done by virtue thereof, shall limit or prejudicially affect any rights of any telephone company with respect to the use of streets or lanes for the purposes aforesaid which existed on the 27th day of May, 1893, nor shall the said preceding subsection or any by-law passed or agreement made before the said date, prevent any municipal council from granting to any person permission to use streets or lanes for the purpose of a private telephone line for the use of such person, his servants, clerks or agents, or persons communicating with them.

Agreements made prior to May 17th, 1893.

(3) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that all by-laws passed and all agreements made prior to the 17th day of May, 1893, for the granting of the exclusive rights mentioned in subsection 1 for any period not exceeding ten years, are hereby declared to be as valid and binding as they would have been if the said municipalities had had power to grant such exclusive rights. 56 V. c. 35, s. 6 (1-3).

Privileges of ferry.

Exception as to certain ferries.

332. A council may grant exclusive privileges in any ferry which is vested in the corporation represented by such council, other than a ferry between a Province of the Dominion of Canada and any British or foreign country, or between two Provinces of the Dominion. 55 V. c. 42, s. 287. See B. N. A. Act, 1867, s. 91 (13); Rev. Stat. Cap. 139; and sec. 583 (12), post.

If a by-law requires the assent of the electors, mode of obtaining same.

338. In case a by-law requires the assent of the electors of a municipality before the final passing thereof, the following proceedings shall, except in cases otherwise provided for, be taken for ascertaining such assent:—

1. The council shall, by the by-law, fix the day and hour for taking the votes of the electors, and the places in the municipality for the purpose, as the council, in their discretion, deem best, and (where the votes are to be taken at more than one place,) shall name a deputy-returning officer to take the votes at every such place. The day so fixed for taking the votes shall not be less than three, nor more than five weeks after the first publication of the proposed by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 293 (1). Time and place of voting to be fixed by the by-law.

2. The council shall, before the final passing of the proposed by-law, publish a copy thereof in some public newspaper published either within the municipality or in the county town, or in a public newspaper published in an adjoining or neighbouring local municipality, as the council may designate by resolution; and the publication shall, for the purpose aforesaid, be continued in at least one number of such paper each week for three successive weeks; and the council shall put up a copy of the by-law at four or more of the most public places in the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 293 (2); 56 V. c. 35, s. 7. Publication of by-law.

3. Appended to each copy so published and posted shall be a notice, signed by the clerk of the council, stating that the copy is a true copy of a proposed by-law which has been taken into consideration, and which will be finally passed by the council (in the event of the assent of the electors being obtained thereto,) after one month from the first publication in the newspaper, stating the date of the first publication, and that at the hour, day and place or places therein fixed for taking the votes of the electors, the polls will be held. 55 V. c. 42, s. 293 (3). Notice.

339. Forthwith after the day has been fixed as aforesaid for taking the votes of electors with respect to the by-law, the clerk of the municipal council which proposed the by-law, shall cause to be printed, at the expense of the municipality, such a number of ballot papers as will be sufficient for the purposes of the voting. 55 V. c. 42, s. 294. Ballot papers to be printed.

340. The ballot papers shall be according to the form of Schedule J to this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 295. Form of.

341. The council shall, by the by-law, fix a time when, and a place where, the clerk of the council which proposed the by-law is to sum up the number of votes given for and against the by-law, and a time and place for the appointment of persons to attend at the various polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes by the clerk respectively, on behalf of the persons interested in, and promoting or opposing the passing of the by-law respectively. 55 V. c. 42, s. 296. Council to fix a day for appointment of persons to attend at polling places, and for final summing up of votes.

342. At the time and place named, the head of the municipality shall appoint, in writing signed by him, two persons to Selection of agents.

ttend at the final summing up of the votes, and one person to attend at each polling place on behalf of the persons interested in and desirous of promoting the passing of the by-law, and a like number on behalf of the persons interested in and desirous of opposing the passing of the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 297.

Agent to make declaration.

343. Before any person is so appointed he shall make and subscribe, before the head of the municipality, a declaration in the form of Schedule K to this Act, that he is interested in, and desirous of promoting, or opposing (as the case may be), the passing of the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 298.

Admission of agents to polling place, etc.

344. Every person so appointed, before being admitted to the polling place or to the summing up of the votes, as the case may be, shall produce his written appointment to the deputy-returning officer, or clerk of the municipality, as the case may be. 55 V. c. 42, s. 299.

Appointment in absence of agent.

345. In the absence of any person authorized as aforesaid to attend at a polling place, or at the final summing up of the votes, any elector in the same interest as the person so absent may, upon making and subscribing, before the deputy-returning officer at the polling place, or before the clerk of the municipality, a declaration in the form of Schedule K to this Act, be admitted to the polling place to act for the person so absent. 55 V. c. 42, s. 300.

Exclusion from polling place.

346. During the time appointed for polling no person shall be entitled or permitted to be present in any polling place, other than the officers, clerks and persons or electors authorized to attend as aforesaid at the polling place. 55 V. c. 42, s. 301.

Deputy-returning officers, poll clerks, and agents may vote at polling places where they are employed, on certificate from the clerk of the municipality.

347.—(1) The clerk of the municipality, on the request of any elector entitled to vote at one of the polling places, who has been appointed deputy-returning officer or poll clerk, or who has been named as the person to attend at a polling place, other than the one where he is entitled to vote, shall give to such elector a certificate that such deputy-returning officer, poll clerk, or person is entitled to vote for or against the by-law, at the polling place where such elector is stationed during the polling day; and the certificate shall also state the property or other qualification in respect to which such elector is entitled to vote.

(2) On the production of the certificate, such deputy-returning officer, poll clerk or person shall have the right to vote at the polling place where he is stationed during the polling day, instead of at the polling place of the ward or polling subdivision where he would otherwise have been entitled to vote; and the deputy-returning officer shall attach the certificate to the voters' list; but no such certificate shall entitle such elector to vote at such polling place, unless he has been actually engaged as such deputy-returning officer, poll clerk or person during the day of polling.

(3) In the case of a deputy-returning officer voting at the polling place at which he is appointed to act, the poll clerk, or in the absence of the poll clerk, any one authorized to be present at the polling place, may administer to the deputy-returning officer the oath required to be taken by voters qualified to vote on the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 302. Who to administer oath in such case.

348. In the case of municipalities which are divided into wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk of the municipality shall, before the poll is opened, prepare and deliver to the deputy-returning officer for every ward or polling subdivision, a voters' list in the form of Schedule C to this Act, containing the names, arranged alphabetically, of all persons appearing by the then last revised assessment roll to be entitled, under the provisions of sections 353 and 354 of this Act, to vote in that ward or polling subdivision, and he shall attest the said list by his solemn declaration in writing under his hand. 55 V. c. 42, s. 303. Who to conduct the poll in municipalities divided into wards or polling subdivisions.

349 In the case of municipalities which are not divided into wards or polling subdivisions, the clerk shall provide himself with the necessary ballot papers, the materials for marking ballot papers, printed directions to voters, and a list of electors for the municipality similar to the list mentioned in the preceding section; and the clerk shall perform the like duties with respect to the whole municipality as are imposed upon a deputy-returning officer in respect of a ward or polling subdivision. 55 V. c. 42, s. 304. In municipalities not divided into wards or polling subdivisions.

The Poll.

350. At the day and hour fixed as aforesaid, the poll shall be held and the vote shall be taken by ballot. 55 V. c. 42, s. 305. Voting to be by ballot.

351. The proceedings at the poll, and for and incidental to the same, and the purposes thereof, shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as at municipal elections, and all the provisions of sections 138 to 206 inclusive, of this Act, so far as the same are applicable, and except so far as is herein otherwise provided, shall apply to the taking of votes at the poll, and to all matters incidental thereto. 55 V. c. 42, s. 306. Proceedings to be as at municipal elections.

352. The printed directions to be delivered to the deputy-returning officers shall be in the form of Schedule L to this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 307. Form of directions for guidance to voters.

353—(1) Every ratepayer, being a man, an unmarried woman or a widow, shall be entitled to vote on any by-law re- Freeholders who may vote on by-laws.

quiring the assent of the electors, who, at the time of tender of the vote, is of the full age of twenty-one years, and a natural-born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, and who has neither directly or indirectly received, nor is in expectation of receiving, any reward or gift for the vote so tendered, and who is at the time of the tender a freeholder, in his or her own right, or (if a man) whose wife is a freeholder of real property within the municipality, of sufficient value to entitle him to vote at any municipal election, and is rated on the last revised assessment roll as such freeholder, provided such person is named or intended to be named on the voters' list.

In case of new municipality where there has been no assessment roll.

(2) In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, the qualification of being named on the list and of being rated on the roll shall be dispensed with; but in such case the person offering to vote shall not be entitled to vote, unless he possesses the other qualifications above mentioned, and has, at the time of tender of his vote sufficient property to have entitled him to vote if he had been rated therefor, and unless at the said time he names the property to the deputy-returning officer; and the deputy-returning officer shall note such property in the voters' list opposite the voter's name, at the request of any one entitled to vote on the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 308.

Leaseholders who may vote on by-laws.

354.—(1) Every ratepayer shall be entitled to vote on any by-law requiring the assent of the electors, who is a man, an unmarried woman or a widow, and is named, or intended to be named, in the voters' list, and at the time of tender of the vote is of the full age of twenty-one years, and a natural born or naturalized subject of Her Majesty, and who has neither directly or indirectly received, nor is in expectation of receiving, any reward or gift for the vote so tendered, and is resident within the municipality for which the vote is taken for one month next before the vote, and who is, or whose wife is, a leaseholder of real property within the municipality of sufficient value to entitle him to vote at a municipal election, and who is rated on the last revised assessment roll therefor, provided he has in his lease covenanted to pay all municipal taxes in respect of the property leased (other than taxes assessed for local improvements), and, in the case of a by-law for contracting a debt, provided the lease extends for the period of time within which the debt to be contracted or the money to be raised by the by-law is made payable. 55 V. c. 42, s. 309 (1); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 14, s. 28; c. 15, Sched. C (60).

Proviso.

Leaseholders who may vote on local improvement by-laws.

(2) No lessee shall be entitled to vote on a by-law respecting local improvements under section 682 of this Act, unless he has in his lease covenanted to pay taxes assessed for local improvements, and, in the case of such a by-law, the said proviso as to the lease extending for the period of time within which the debt to be contracted or the money to be raised by such by-law is made payable, shall not apply. 55 V. c. 42, s. 309 (2); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 14, s. 28.

(3) In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, the qualification of being named on the list and of being rated on the roll, and of residence for one month, shall be dispensed with; but in such case the person offering to vote shall not be entitled to vote unless he possesses the other qualifications above mentioned, and is at the time of tender of his vote a resident of the municipality, and then has sufficient property to have entitled him to vote if he had been rated therefor, and unless at the said time he names the property to the deputy-returning officer; and the deputy-returning officer shall note the property in the voters' list, opposite the voter's name, at the request of any one entitled to vote on the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 309 (3). In case of new municipality where there has been no assessment roll.

355. Where a municipality is divided into wards, each ratepayer shall be so entitled to vote in each ward in which he has the qualification necessary to entitle him to vote on the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 309*a*; c. 43, s. 17. Where ratepayers qualified in more than one ward.

356. Any ratepayer offering in respect of a freehold to vote on the by-law, may be required by the deputy-returning officer, or by any ratepayer entitled to vote on the by-law, to make, before his vote is recorded, the following oath or affirmation, or any part thereof, or to the effect thereof. Oath of freeholder voting on by-law.

You swear that you are of the full age of 21 years, and a natural-born (or naturalized) subject of Her Majesty;

That you are a freeholder in your own right (or your wife is a freeholder), within the municipality (or ward as the case may be) for which this vote is taken;

That you have not voted before on the by-law in this township (or ward, as the case may be);

That you have not, directly or indirectly, received any reward or gift, nor do you expect to receive any, for the vote which you tender;

That you are the person named, (or intended to be named), in the voters' list.

(In the case of an unmarried woman or widow claiming to vote.) That you are unmarried (or a widow as the case may be;)

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised to you directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote on this by-law, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected therewith; and that you have not, directly or indirectly, paid or promised anything to any person, either to induce him to vote, or to refrain from voting;

(In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, then instead of referring to being named on the voters' list, the person offering to vote may be required to state, in the oath, the property in respect of which he claims to vote;)

And no inquiries shall be made of any voter, except with respect to the facts specified in such oath or affirmation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 310; c. 43, c. 18; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (61).

Oath of leaseholder voting on by-law, other than one respecting local improvements under section 682.

357. Any ratepayer offering in respect of a leasehold, to vote on such by-law, other than a by-law respecting local improvements, under section 682, may be required by the deputy-returning officer, or by any ratepayer entitled to vote on such by-law, to make, before his vote is recorded, the following oath or affirmation, or any part thereof, or to the effect thereof:

You swear that you are of the full age of 21 years, and a natural-born (or naturalized) subject of Her Majesty;

That you have been a resident within the municipality for which this vote is taken for one month next before the vote;

That you are (or your wife is), a leaseholder within this municipality (or ward as the case may be) and (in the case of a by-law creating a debt) that the lease extends for the period of time within which the debt to be contracted or the money to be raised by the by-law now submitted to the ratepayers is made payable, and that you have (or the lessee in said lease has) covenanted in such lease to pay all municipal taxes other than taxes assessed for local improvements:

That you have not before voted on the by-law in this township (or ward, as the case may be);

That you have not directly or indirectly received any reward or gift, nor do you expect to receive any, for the vote which you tender;

That you are the person named, (or intended to be named,) in the voters' list;

(In the case of an unmarried woman or widow claiming to vote.) That you are unmarried (or a widow as the case may be;)

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised to you directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote on this by-law, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected therewith;

(In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, then instead of swearing to residence for one month next before the vote, and instead of referring to being named in the voters' list, the person offering to vote may be required to state in the oath the property in respect of which he claims to vote, and that he is a resident of such municipality);

And no inquiries shall be made of a voter, except with respect to the facts specified in the oath or affirmation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 311; c. 43. s. 19; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 15, Sched. C (61).

Oath of leaseholder voting on by-law respecting local improvements under section 682.

358. A ratepayer offering in respect of a leasehold, to vote on a by-law respecting local improvements, under section 682, may be required by the deputy-returning officer, or by any ratepayer entitled to vote on the by-law, to make, before his vote is recorded, the following oath or affirmation, or any part thereof, or to the effect thereof:

You swear that you are of the full age of 21 years, and a natural-born (or naturalized) subject of Her Majesty;

That you have been a resident within the municipality for which this vote is taken, for one month next before the vote;

That you are (or your wife is) a leaseholder within this municipality, (or ward as the case may be) and that you have (or the lessee in said lease has) covenanted in such lease to pay all municipal taxes, including taxes assessed for local improvements.

That you have not before voted on the by-law in this township (or ward as the case may be);

That you have not directly or indirectly received any reward or gift, nor do you expect to receive any, for the vote which you tender;

That you are the person named, (or intended to be named), in the voters' list;

(In the case of an unmarried woman or widow claiming to vote.) That you are unmarried (or a widow as the case may be;)

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised to you directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote on this by-law, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected therewith;

(In the case of a new municipality in which there has not been any assessment roll, then instead of swearing to residence for one month next before the vote and instead of referring to being named in the voters' list, the person offering to vote may be required to state in the oath the property in respect of which he claims to vote, and that he is a resident of such municipality);

And no inquiries shall be made of a voter, except with respect to the facts specified in the oath or affirmation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 312; c. 43, s. 20; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 14, s. 28; c. 15, Sched. C (61).

Form of statement to be made by deputy returning officers of result of polling.

359. The written statement to be made by every deputy-returning officer at the close of the polling shall be made under the following heads:

(a) Name or number of ward or polling subdivision, and of the municipality, and the date of the polling;

(b) Number of votes for and against the by-law;

(c) Rejected ballot papers. 55 V. c. 42, s. 313.

Objections to ballot papers.

To be numbered.

360. The deputy-returning officer shall take a note of any objection made by any person authorized to be present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box, and shall decide any question arising out of the objection. Each objection to a ballot paper shall be numbered, and a corresponding number shall be placed on the back of the ballot paper, and initialed by the deputy-returning officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 314.

Deputy returning officer's duties after votes are counted.

361. Every deputy-returning officer, at the completion of the counting of votes after the close of the poll, shall, in the presence of the persons authorized to attend, make up into separate packets, sealed with his own seal, and the seals of such persons authorized to attend as desire to affix their seals, and marked upon the outside with a short statement of the contents of such packet, the date of the day of the polling, the name of the deputy-returning officer, and of the ward or polling subdivision and of the municipality—

(a) The statement of votes given for and against the by-law, and of the rejected ballot papers;

(b) The used ballot papers which have not been objected to and have been counted;

(c) The ballot papers which have been objected to, but which have been counted by the deputy-returning officer;

(d) The rejected ballot papers;

(e) The spoiled ballot papers;

(f) The unused ballot papers;

(g) The voters' list and poll book, with the oath in the form of Schedule G annexed thereto; a statement of the number of voters whose votes are marked by the deputy-returning officer, under section 171 of this Act, with the declarations of inability; and the notes taken of objections made to ballot papers found in the ballot box. 55 V. c. 42, s. 315; 58 V. c. 42, ss. 8, 9; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Certificate and declaration of deputy returning officer and return of voters' list and of ballot box.

362. Every deputy-returning officer shall, at the close of the poll, certify, under his signature, on the voters' list, in full words, the total number of persons who have voted at the polling place at which he has been appointed to preside, and before placing the voters' list and poll book in their proper package as aforesaid, he shall make and subscribe before the clerk of the municipality or before a Justice of the Peace or the poll-clerk, his solemn declaration that the voters' list and poll book were used in the manner prescribed by law and that the entries required by law to be made therein were correctly made. The declaration shall be in the form of Schedule G to this Act, and shall thereafter be annexed to the voters' list. The deputy-returning officer shall then forthwith return the ballot box to the clerk of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 316; 58 V. c. 42, ss. 8, 9; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Deputy returning officer to certify as to number of votes and rejected ballot papers.

363. Every deputy-returning officer, upon being requested so to do, shall deliver to the persons authorized to attend at his polling place a certificate of the number of votes given at the polling place for and against the by-law, and of the number of rejected ballot papers. 55 V. c 42, s. 317.

Clerk to cast up votes and declare result.

364. The clerk, after he has received the ballot papers and the statements before mentioned of the number of votes given in each polling place, shall, at the time and place appointed by the by-law, in the presence of the persons authorized to attend or such of them as may be present, without opening any of the sealed packets of ballot papers, sum up from such statements the number of votes for and against the by-law, and shall then and there declare the result, and shall forthwith certify to the council, under his hand, whether the majority of the electors voting upon the by-law have approved or disapproved of the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 318.

Clerk not to have casting vote as to certain by-laws.

365. Where the assent of the electors, or of the ratepayers or of a proportion of them, is necessary to the validity of a by-law, the clerk or other officer shall not be entitled to give a casting vote. 55 V. c. 42, s. 319.

Requisites of Bonus By-laws.

Requisites to validity of certain bonus by-laws.

366.—(1) To render valid a by-law of a municipality for granting a bonus in aid of a railway, or in aid of any water-works or water company, or for taking stock in a railway company, or for lending money to such company, or for guaranteeing the payment of money borrowed by such company, the assent shall be necessary of one-third of all the ratepayers who were entitled to vote, as well as of a majority of the ratepayers voting on the by-law.

Certificate to be given by clerk.

(2) In addition to the certificate required by section 364 of this Act, the clerk, in case of the majority of votes being in favour of the by-law, shall further certify whether or not, as far as shewn by the voters' list and assessment roll, such majority appears to be one-third of all the ratepayers who were entitled to vote on the by-law.

(3) In case of dispute as to the result of the vote, the Judge shall have the same powers for determining the question as he has in any case of a scrutiny of the votes.

(4) The petition to the Judge may be by any elector, or by the council; and the proceedings for obtaining the Judge's decision shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in the case of a scrutiny. 55 V. c. 42, s. 320; c. 43, s. 21. See sec. 369.

Secrecy of Proceedings.

Maintaining secrecy of proceedings at polling place.

367.—(1) Every officer, clerk and person in attendance at a polling place shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting at the polling place.

Voter not to be interfered with.

(2) No officer, clerk or other person whosoever, shall interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking his vote, or otherwise attempt to obtain, at the polling place, information as to the manner in which any voter at such polling place is about to vote or has voted.

No information to be given as to how anyone is about to vote or has voted.

(3) No officer, clerk or other person shall communicate at any time, to any person, any information obtained at a polling place, as to the manner in which any voter at such polling place is about to vote or has voted.

Secrecy to be maintained at counting.

(4) Every officer, clerk and person in attendance at the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and shall not communicate or attempt to communicate any information obtained at such counting, as to the manner in which any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.

Voters not to be induced to disclose votes.

(5) No person shall, directly or indirectly, induce any voter to display his ballot paper after he has marked the same, so as to make known to any person the manner in which he has marked his ballot paper.

Penalty for contravening this section.

(6) Every person who acts in contravention of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction before a Stipendiary Magistrate, Police Magistrate, or two Justices of the Peace, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour. 55 V. c. 42, s. 321.

Statutory declaration of secrecy to be made by officers, etc., before a poll.

368. The clerk of the municipality, and every officer, clerk or person authorized to attend at a polling place, or at the counting of the votes, shall, before the opening of the poll, make a statutory declaration of secrecy, in the presence, (if he is the clerk of the municipality), of a Justice of the Peace, and (if he is any other officer, or a clerk or an agent), in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, or of the clerk of the municipality, or of a deputy-returning officer. Such statutory declaration of secrecy shall be in the form given in Schedule M to this Act, or to the like effect. 55 V. c .42, s. 322.

Scrutiny.

Scrutiny may be had on application to County Judge.

369. If within two weeks after the clerk of the council which proposed the by-law has declared the result of the voting, any elector applies upon petition to the County Judge after giving such notice of the application, and to such persons as the Judge directs, and shews by affidavit to the Judge reasonable grounds for entering into a scrutiny of the ballot papers, and if the petitioner enters into a recognizance before the Judge in the sum of $100, with two sureties (to be allowed as sufficient by the Judge upon affidavit of justification) in the sum of $50 each, conditioned to prosecute the petition with effect, and to pay the party against whom the same is brought any costs which may be adjudged to him against the petitioner, the Judge may appoint a day and place, within the municipality, for entering into the scrutiny. 55 V. c. 42, s. 323.

Notice of time of scrutiny.

370. At least one week's notice of the day appointed for the scrutiny, shall be given by the petitioner to such persons as the Judge directs, and to the clerk of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 324.

Proceedings.

371. On the day and at the hour appointed, the clerk shall attend before the Judge with the ballot papers in his custody, and the Judge upon inspecting the ballot papers, and hearing such evidence as he may deem necessary, and on hearing the parties, or such of them as may attend, or their counsel, shall, in a summary manner, determine whether the majority of the votes given, is for or against the by-law, and shall forthwith certify the result to the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 325.

Powers of Judge.

372. The Judge shall on the scrutiny possess the like powers and authority, as to all matters arising upon the scrutiny, as are possessed by him upon a trial of the validity of the election of a member of a municipal council: and in all cases costs shall be in the discretion of the Judge, as in the case of applications to quash a by-law, or he may apportion the costs as to him seems just. 55 V. c. 42, s. 326.

Costs.

Passing by-laws by Council.

By-law carried by voters to be passed by council.

373. A by-law which is duly carried by the vote of the qualified electors, shall within six weeks thereafter be passed by the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 327.

The passing of the by-law stayed on presenting of a petition.

374. In case of a petition being presented, the by-law shall not be passed by the council until after the petition has been disposed of; and the time which intervenes between the presenting of the petition and the final disposal thereof shall not be reckoned as part of the six weeks within which the by-law is to be passed. 55 V. c. 42, s. 328.

Division IV.—Confirmation of By-Laws.

By publication. Sec. 375.
Notice. Sec. 376.
When not moved against. Sec. 377.

Promulgation of by-laws.

375. The promulgation of a by-law shall consist in the publication, through the public press, of a true copy of the by-law, and of the signature attesting its authenticity, with a notice appended thereto of the time limited by law for applications to quash the same or any part thereof, and the publication aforesaid shall be in such public newspaper, published either within the municipality or in the county town, or in an adjoining neighbouring or local municipality, as the council by resolution may designate, and the publication shall, for the purpose aforesaid, be continued in at least one number of such paper, each week for three successive weeks. 55 V. c. 42, s. 329; 56 V. c. 35, s. 8.

Form of notice to be published with by-law.

376. The notice to be appended to every copy of the by-law for the purpose aforesaid, shall be to the effect following:

NOTICE.—The above is a true copy of a by-law passed by the municip council of the of o the day of A. D. 18 (an approved by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on th day of 18 where such approv is required to give effect to the by-law): And all persons are hereb required to take notice that any one desirous of applying to have suc by-law, or any part thereof, quashed, must make his application fo that purpose to the High Court of Justice, within three months nex after the publication of this notice once a week for three successiv weeks, in the newspaper called the or he will b too late to be heard in that behalf

55 V. c. 42, s. 330.

If not moved against within the time limited, to be valid.

377. In case no application to quash a by-law is mad within three months next after the third publication theree and of the notice aforesaid, the by-law, or so much thereof as i not the subject of any such application, or is not quashed upo such application, shall, notwithstanding any defect of sul stance or form, either in the by-law itself, or in the time c manner of passing the same, be a valid by-law, so far as th same ordains, prescribes or directs anything within the prope competence of the council to ordain, prescribe or direct. 55 V c. 42, s. 331; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (62).

DIVISION V.—QUASHING BY-LAWS.

How to proceed. Sec. 378.
Time limited for applications. Secs. 379, 380.
Motion against for corrupt practices. Secs. 381, 382.
Staying proceedings upon the by-law. Sec. 383.

Proceedings to quash by-law.

378.—(1) Any resident of a municipality or any other pe son interested in a by-law, order or resolution of the counc thereof, may apply to the High Court of Justice upon motio to quash the by-law, order or resolution, in whole or in part fo illegality, and the Court upon such motion may quash the by law, order or resolution in whole or in part for illegality, an may, according to the result of the application, award costs fo or against the corporation.

(2) Notice of the motion shall be served at least seven day before the day on which the motion is to be made.

(3) Upon such motion the by-law, order or resolution ma be proved by the production of a copy thereof, certified unde the hand of the clerk, and under the corporate seal, and shew by affidavit to have been received from the clerk.

(4) Before any such motion is made or entertained th applicant (or, in case the applicant is a company, som person on its behalf) shall enter into a recognizance before th Judge of the County Court of the county in which is situat the municipality whose by-law is the subject of the notice, himself in the sum of $50, and two sureties each in the sum of $50, conditioned to prosecute the motion with effect, and to pay to the municipality any costs which may be adjudged to them against the applicant.

(5) The Judge may allow the said recognizance upon the sureties entering into proper affidavits of justification, and thereupon the same shall be filed in the High Court with the other papers relating to the motion. 55 V. c. 42, s. 332; c. 43, s. 2; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 15, Sched. C (63); c. 45, s. 42.

Time within which application must be made.

Exception.

379. No application to quash a by-law, order or resolution, in whole or in part, shall be entertained unless the application is made within one year from the passing of the by-law, order or resolution, except in the case of a by-law requiring the assent of electors or ratepayers, where the by-law has not been submitted to, or has not received the assent of, the electors or ratepayers; and in such case an application to quash the by-law may be made at any time. 55 V. c. 42, s. 333.

Time after which by-law imposing a rate cannot be quashed, if promulgated.

380. In case a by-law by which a rate is imposed has been promulgated in the manner hereinbefore specified, no application to quash the by-law shall be entertained after the expiration of three months from the promulgation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 334.

Quashing by-laws obtained by bribery, etc.

381. Any by-law the passage of which has been procured through or by means of, any violation of the provisions of sections 245 and 246 of this Act, shall be liable to be quashed upon an application made in conformity with the provisions hereinbefore contained. 55 V. c. 42, s. 335.

Procedure in such case.

Inquiry by County Judge.

382.—(1) If, before determining an application for the quashing of a by-law, upon the ground that any of the provisions of sections 245 and 246 of this Act have been contravened in procuring the passing of the same, it is made to appear to a Judge of the High Court that probable grounds exist for a motion to quash the by-law, the Judge may, upon such notice to the parties affected as he may direct, make an order for an inquiry to be held concerning the said grounds before the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the municipality which passed the by-law is situate, and may require that upon the inquiry all witnesses, both against and in support of the by-law, shall be orally examined and cross-examined upon oath before the County Court Judge.

Return of evidence.

(2) The County Court Judge shall thereupon return the evidence so taken before him, to the proper office of the High Court of Justice; and after the return of the evidence, and upon reading the same, a Judge of the High Court may, upon notice to such of the parties concerned as he thinks proper, proceed to hear and determine the question; and if the grounds therefor appear to him to be satisfactorily established, he may make an order quashing the by-law, and may order the costs of the proceedings to be paid by the parties who have supported the by-law or any of them; and if it appears that the application to quash the by-law ought to be dismissed, the Judge may so order, and may in his discretion order the costs to be paid by the persons applying to quash the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 336; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (64).

Costs.

Stay of proceedings on the by-law.

383. After an order has been made by a Judge directing an inquiry, and after a copy of the order has been left with the clerk of the corporation the by-law of which is in question, all further proceedings upon the by-law shall be stayed until after the disposal of the application in respect of which the inquiry has been directed; but if the matter is not prosecuted to the satisfaction of the Judge he may remove the stay of proceedings. 55 V. c. 42, s. 337.

Illegal repeal to be ignored by municipal officers. Sec. 393.
Purchase of public works, etc., by councils. Sec. 394.
Rates to be imposed therefor. Sec. 395.

By-laws for contracting debts.

384.—(1). Every municipal council may, under the formalities required by law, pass by-laws for contracting debts for any purpose within the jurisdiction of the council, by borrowing money or otherwise, and for levying rates on the rateable property of the municipality for payment of such debts, but no such by-law shall be valid which is not in accordance with the following restrictions and provisions, except in so far as is otherwise provided in the next following two sections of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 340, first clause.

(2) The by-law, (if not creating a debt for the purchase of public works, whether of this Province or of the Dominion of Canada, pursuant to the statutes in that behalf and to the provisions of sections 394 and 395), shall name a day in the financial year in which the same is passed when it is to take effect; and if no day is named it shall take effect on the day of the passing thereof. 60 V. c. 45, s. 43 (1).

Debentures, when to be issued.

(3) The debentures may be issued all at one time, and in such case within a year after the passing of the by-law; or, in any case where, because of the proposed expenditure upon the objects for which the debt is contracted being estimated to extend over a series of years, and it being undesirable to have large portions of the moneys in hand unused and uninvested, or for other like or sufficient causes set out in the by-law, it would, in the opinion of the municipal council, be to the advantage of the municipality, the debentures may be issued in instalments of such amounts (not exceeding in the aggregate the total amount for which provision is made by the by-law), and at such times, as the exigency of the case demands, but so that the whole shall be issued within five years, and the first instalment within one year, after the passing of the by-law. 60 V. c. 45, s. 43 (2).

When to be made payable.

(4) If contracted for railways, harbour works or improvements, gas or water-works, or for the construction of sewers, the purchase and improvement of parks or the erection of public school houses, or for electric light works in towns having a population of 5,000 or under, the whole debt, or each instalment of the debt, as the case may be, and the obligations to be issued therefor, respectively, shall be made payable in thirty years at furthest; and unless contracted for any of the purposes aforesaid, or for the purchase of public works, as aforesaid, then in twenty years at furthest from the time or times when the debentures are by the by-law directed or authorized to be issued, whether that be at a date or dates certain, specifically fixed, or at a date or dates depending upon and determined by the happening of any event or events or upon the fulfilment of any condition or conditions as set forth in the by-law. 60 V. c. 45, s. 43 (2*a*). See sec. 565.

Special rate.

(5) The by-law shall settle a certain specific sum to be raised annually, for the payment of interest during the currency of the debentures or of each instalment of the debentures, as the case may be, and also a certain specific sum to be raised annually for the payment of the debt, or of each instalment thereof, as the case may be; and the said sums shall be such as will be sufficient, with the estimated interest on the investments thereof, to discharge the debt, or the instalment, as the case may be, when payable; and the annual rate required for such purposes shall begin from the date when the debentures are by the by-law directed or authorized to be issued as aforesaid. 60 V. c. 45, s. 43 (3).

Commencement of annual rate.

(6) No by-law passed before the 1st day of July, 1897, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of such annual rate commencing at a time subsequent to the year in which the by-law took effect, or because the levy of such annual rate did not begin until the fulfilment of conditions contained in the by-law. 60 V. c. 45, s. 43 (3*a*), and s. 46.

Debentures issued under certain special Acts not affected.

(7) Nothing in this section contained shall apply to or affect any debentures issued or to be issued in pursuance of section 21 of the Act passed in the 54th year of Her Majesty's reign, chaptered 72, or sections 1 and 3 of the Act passed in the 57th year of Her Majesty's reign, chaptered 71. 60 V. c. 45, s. 43 (3c).

Interest on investments how estimated.

(8) In settling the sum to be raised annually for the payments of the debt, the rate of interest on investments shall not be estimated at more than four per cent. per annum to be capitalized yearly; 55. V. c. 42, s. 340 (4); 60 V. c. 45, s. 45.

Property on which rate to be levied.

(9) The by-law shall provide that such annual sum shall be raised and levied in each year by a special rate sufficient therefor, on all the rateable property in the municipality; or, (if the by-law is for a work payable by local assessment), on all the property rateable under the by-law or per foot frontage as the case may be; 55 V. c. 42, s. 340 (5).

Recitals:

(10) The by-law, unless it is for a work payable by local assessment, shall recite:

Amount and object of debt;

(a) The amount of the debt which the new by-law is intended to create, and, in some brief and general terms, the object for which it is to be created;

Amount to be raised annually;

(b) The total amount required by this Act to be raised annually by special rate for paying the new debt and interest;

The value of the rateable property;

(c) The amount of the whole rateable property of the municipality according to the last revised, or revised and equalized assessment roll;

Amount of existing debt.

(d) The amount of the existing debenture debt of the municipality, and how much (if any) of the principal or interest is in arrear. 55 V. c. 42, s. 340 (6).

By-law for a work payable by local assessment must recite:

385.—(1) If the by-law is for a work payable by local assessment, it shall recite:

Amount and object of debt.

(a) The amount of the debt which the by-law is intended to create, and, in some brief and general terms, the object for which it is to be created;

Amount to be raised annually;

(b) The total amount required by this Act to be raised annually by special rate for paying the debt and interest under the by-law;

Value of real property rateable:

(c) The value of the whole real property rateable under the by-law, as ascertained and finally determined as aforesaid;

That debt created on security of special rate.

(d) That the debt is created on the security of the special rate settled by the by-law, and on that security only.

Power to guarantee local improvement debentures.

(2) In the case of by-laws passed, or to be passed for works payable by local assessment, in order to facilitate the negotiation of debentures issued thereunder, and add to their commercial value, the council of any township, city, town, or village, may declare that the debt to be created on the security of the special rate settled by the by-law is further guaranteed by the municipality at large, anything contained in clause (d) of subsection 1 of this section to the contrary notwithstanding. 55 V. c. 42, s. 341.

Making debts payable in annual instalments.

386.—(1) In any case of passing a by-law for contracting a debt, by borrowing money for any purpose, the municipal council may, in its discretion, make the principal of the debt, or of each instalment of the debt, as the case may be, repayable by yearly sums, during the currency of the period (not exceeding thirty years, if the debt is for railways, harbour works or improvements, gas or water-works or for the construction of sewers, the purchase and improvement of parks or the erection of public school houses, and not exceeding twenty years if the debt is for any other purpose except the purchase of public works as in subsection 2 of section 384 mentioned), within which the debt, or the instalment of the debt, as the case may be, is to be discharged; and such yearly sums shall be of such amounts that the aggregate amount payable for principal and interest in any year in respect of the debt, or of the instalment, as the case may be, shall be equal, as nearly as may be, to what is payable for principal and interest during each of the other years of such period; and the council may issue the debentures of the municipal corporation for the amounts, and payable at the times corresponding with such yearly sums, together with interest, annually or semi-annually, as may be set forth and provided in the by-law. 60 V. c. 45, s. 44 (1). See in the case of certain towns sec. 567.

(2) The by-law shall set forth a certain specific sum, to be raised in each year during the currency of the debt, or of the instalment of the debt, as the case may be, which sum shall be sufficient to discharge the several yearly sums of principal and interest accruing due, as the said yearly sums become, respectively, payable according to the terms of the by-law; and in cases within this section it shall not be necessary that any provision be made for sinking fund. 60 V. c. 45, s. 44 (2).

Special rates a charge on property.

387. Every special assessment made, and every special rate imposed and levied, under any of the provisions of this Act, and all sewer rents and charges for work or services done by the corporation, upon the default of the owners of real estate, under the provisions of any valid by-law of the council of the corporation, shall form a lien and charge upon the real estate upon, or in respect of which, the same have been assessed and rated or charged, and shall be collected in the same manner, and with the like remedies, as ordinary taxes upon real estate are collectable, under the provisions of The Assessment Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 343.

Rev. Stat. c. 224.

County by-laws for raising more than $20,000 in any year to be submitted to electors.

388. A county council elected under this Act may, during any one term for which it is elected, raise by a by-law or by-laws for contracting debts or loans not more than $20,000 over and above the sums required for its ordinary expenditure without submitting such by-law or by-laws for the assent of the electors. 59 V. c. 52, s. 37; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (125).

By-laws for raising money not for ordinary expenses must (with certain exceptions) receive assent of electors. Rev. Stat. c. 226.

389.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section every by-law (except for drainage, as provided for under The Municipal Drainage Act, or for a work payable entirely by local assessment) for raising, upon the credit of the municipality, any money not required for its ordinary expenditure, and not payable within the same municipal year, shall, before the final passing thereof, receive the assent of the electors of the municipality in the manner provided for in section 338 and following sections of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 344 (1) part; 59 V. c. 52, s. 37; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (65).

Exception as to erecting court houses and offices.

(2) But where a county and city are united for judicial purposes, the council of the county or city may, at any meeting of the council, without submitting the same for the assent of the electors of such county or city, as the case may be, pass a by-law or by-laws for contracting a debt, by raising such sums of money as may be required for erecting, building and furnishing a court house and offices to be used in connection therewith, and for acquiring such land as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of such court house and offices, and may for that purpose issue debentures at such rates and upon such terms and payable at such times as they may do for meeting any other liability of the said county or city. 55 V. c. 42, s. 344 (2); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (66).

Exception as to payment by a city or town of share of county debt.

(3) The council of a city or of a town withdrawn from the county, may by by-law passed at any meeting of the council, without submitting the same for the assent of the electors, raise such sums of money as may be required to liquidate their share of the county debt (as awarded or agreed upon pursuant to this Act), and may, for that purpose, issue debentures at such rates, for such times and upon such terms as they are entitled to do for meeting any other liability of said city or town. 55 V. c. 42, s. 344 (3).

Certain by-laws of county council not to be valid unless passed at meeting especially called and held three months after notice, etc.

390. Except in the case provided for by subsection 2 of the last preceding section, no by-law of a county council for contracting any such debt or loan, as is mentioned in section 388 of this Act, shall be valid, unless the same is passed at a meeting of the council specially called for the purpose of considering the same, and held not less than three months after a copy of the by-law, as the same is ultimately passed, together with a notice of the day appointed for the meeting, has been published in some newspaper issued weekly or oftener within the county (as constituted for judicial purposes), or if there is no such public newspaper, then in a public newspaper published nearest to the county, which said notice may be to the effect following:

Form of notice.

The above is a true copy of a proposed by-law, to be taken into consideration by the county council of the County (or United Counties) of , at , in the said County (or United Counties), on the day of , 18 , at the hour of o'clock in the noon, at which time and place the members of the Council are hereby required to attend for the purpose aforesaid.

Clerk.

55 V. c. 42, s. 345.

391. Where part only of a sum of money provided for by a by-law has been raised, the council may repeal the by-law as to any part of the residue, and as to a proportionate part of the special rate imposed therefor, provided (a) the repealing by-law recites the facts on which it is founded, (b) is appointed to take effect on the 31st day of December in the year of its passing, (c) does not affect any rates due, or penalties incurred before that day, and (d) is first approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 346.

When part only of money raised, by-law may be repealed as to residue.

392. After a debt has been contracted, the council shall not, until the debt and interest have been paid, repeal the by-law under which the debt was contracted, or any by-law for paying the debt or the interest thereon, or for providing therefor a rate or additional rate, or for appropriating thereto the surplus income of any work or of any stock or interest therein, or money from any other source; and the council shall not alter a by-law providing any such rate, so as to diminish the amount to be levied under the by-law, except in the cases herein authorized, and shall not apply to any other purpose any money of the corporation which, not having been previously otherwise appropriated by any by-law or resolution, has been directed to be applied to such payment. 55 V. c. 42, s. 347.

Until debt paid certain by-laws cannot be repealed, nor altered.

Exceptions.

393. No officer of the municipality shall neglect or refuse to carry into effect a by-law for paying a debt under colour of a by-law illegally attempting to repeal such first mentioned by-law, or to alter the same so as to diminish the amount to be levied under it. 55 V. c. 42, s. 348.

No officer to neglect, etc., to carry out by-law for payment under colour of illegal by-law.

394. Any council may contract a debt to Her Majesty in the purchase of any of the public roads, harbours, bridges, buildings or other public works in Ontario, whether belonging to this Province or to the Dominion of Canada, or of any claim in respect of such works, or of any right to collect tolls on such road or bridge, or for making such road or bridge wholly or partly free from tolls; and may execute such bonds, deeds, covenants and other securities to Her Majesty as the council deems fit, for the payment of the price of any such public work or claim already sold or transferred, or which may be sold or transferred, or agreed to be sold or transferred to

Municipal councils may purchase public works, etc. and contract debts to Crown, the municipal corporation, and for securing the performance and observance of all or any of the conditions of sale or transfer; and may also pass all necessary by-laws for any of the purposes aforesaid; and all such by-laws, debts, bonds, deeds, covenants and other securities shall be valid, although no special or other annual rate has been settled or imposed, to be levied in each year, as provided by sections 384 to 386 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 349.

although no special or other annual rate settled.

Rates may be imposed for the payment of debts contracted with the Crown for such works.

395. The council may, in any by-law to be passed for the creation of such debt, or for the execution of such bonds, deeds, covenants or other securities as aforesaid, to Her Majesty, or in any other by-law to be passed by the council, settle and impose a special rate per annum, of such amount as the council deem expedient, in addition to all other rates whatsoever, to be levied in each year upon the assessed rateable property within the municipality, for the payment and discharge of such debts, bonds, deeds, covenants or other securities, or some part thereof; and the by-laws shall be valid, although the rate settled or imposed thereby is less than is required by sections 384 to 386; and the said sections shall, so far as applicable, apply and extend to every such by-law, and the moneys raised or to be raised thereby, as fully in every respect as such provisions would extend or apply to any by-law enacted by any council for the creation of any debt as provided in the said sections, or to the moneys raised or to be raised thereby. 55 V. c. 42, s. 350.

Division VIII.—By-laws respecting Yearly Rates.

Amount and limit of Rates. Sec. 402.
How estimated. Sec. 403.
Estimates and by-laws to be annual. Secs. 404, 405.
In case of deficiency. Secs. 406, 407.
In case of excess. Sec. 408.
Date from which taxes imposed. Sec. 409.
Priority of debentures. Sec. 410.
Power to exempt from taxation. Sec. 411.
Reduction of special rate. Sec. 412.
Formalities in by-law therefor. Sec. 413.

Yearly rates to be levied, sufficient to pay all debts payable within the year.

Aggregate rate limited to two cents in the dollar.

402.—(1) The council of every municipal corporation, and of every provisional corporation, shall in each year assess and levy on the whole rateable property within its jurisdiction, a sufficient sum to pay all valid debts of the corporation, whether of principal or interest, falling due within the year; but no such council shall assess and levy in any one year more than an aggregate rate of two cents in the dollar on the actual value, exclusive of school rates and local improvement rates. 55 V. c. 42, s. 357 (1); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (68).

Provision when such aggregate not sufficient to pay debts payable within the year.

Proviso.

(2) If in a municipality the aggregate amount of the rates necessary for payment of the current annual expenses of the municipality, and of the interest and principal of the debts contracted by the municipality on or prior to the 29th day of March, 1873, exceeds the said aggregate rate of two cents in the dollar on the actual value of such rateable property, the council of the municipality shall levy such further rates as may be necessary to discharge obligations incurred up to that date, but shall contract no further debts until the annual rates required to be levied within the municipality are reduced within the aggregate rate aforesaid; but this shall not affect any special provisions to the contrary contained in any special Act now or hereafter in force. 55 V. c. 42, s. 357 (2).

How rates to be calculated.

403. In counties and local municipalities the rates shall be calculated at so much in the dollar upon the actual value of all the real and personal property liable to assessment therein. 55 V. c. 42, s. 358.

Estimates to be made annually.

404. The council of every county and of every local municipality shall every year make estimates of all sums which may be required for the lawful purposes of the county or local municipality, for the year in which such sums are required to be levied, each municipality making due allowance for the cost of collection, and of the abatement and losses which may occur in the collection of the tax, and for taxes on the lands of non-residents which may not be collected. 55 V. c. 42, s. 359.

By-laws for raising money by rate.

405. The council of every municipality may pass one by-law, or several by-laws, authorizing the levying and collecting of a rate or rates of so much in the dollar upon the assessed value of the property therein as the council deems sufficient to raise the sums required on such estimates. 55 V. c. 42, s. 360.

If the amount collected falls short.

406. If the amount collected falls short of the sums required, the council may direct the deficiency to be made up from any unappropriated fund belonging to the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 361.

Estimates may be reduced.

407. If there is no unappropriated fund, the deficiency may be equally deducted from the sums estimated as required, or from any one or more of them. 55 V. c. 42, s. 362.

408. If the sums collected exceed the estimates, the balance shall form part of the general fund of the municipality, and be at the disposal of the council, unless otherwise specially appropriated; but if any portion of the amount in excess has been collected on account of a special tax upon any particular locality, the amount in excess collected on account of such special tax shall be appropriated to the special local object. 55 V. c. 42, s. 363.

When sums collected exceed estimate, appropriation of the balance.

409. The taxes or rates imposed or levied for any year shall be considered to have been imposed, and to be due on and from the 1st day of January of the then current year ending with the 31st day of December thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided by the enactment or by-law under which the same are directed to be levied. 55 V. c. 42, s. 364.

Yearly taxes to be computed from 1st January, unless otherwise ordered.

410.—(1) All debentures issued before the 1st day of January, 1867, by municipal corporations, under any by-law, and based upon the yearly value of rateable property at the time of the passing of such by-law, shall hold the order of priority which they occupied on the said 1st day of January, 1867; and each municipal corporation having so issued debentures shall levy a rate on the actual real value of the rateable property within the municipality, sufficient to produce a sum equal to that leviable or produced on the yearly value of such property as established by the assessment roll for the year 1866; and such rates shall be applied solely to the payment of such debentures, or of the interest on such debentures, according to the terms of the by-laws under which they were issued.

Priority of debentures.

How rates for paying them to be calculated.

To be applied solely to such purposes.

(2) In cases where a sinking fund is required to be provided either by the investment of a specific rate or amount, or on a rate on the increase in value over a certain sum, then such a rate shall be levied as shall at least equal the sum originally intended to be set apart. 55 V. c. 42, s. 365.

Rate for sinking fund.

411. Every municipal council shall by a two-thirds vote of the members thereof have the power of exempting any manufacturing establishment, or any building for the storage of ice for commercial purposes, or any water-works or water company, in whole or in part, from taxation, except as to school taxes, for any period not longer than ten years, and to renew this exemption for a further period not exceeding ten years. 55 V. c. 42, s. 366; 58 V. c. 42, s. 14.

Exemption of manufactories or water works from taxation.

412.—(1) If, on account of a sum being on hand from a previous year, or a sum being on hand which has been derived from the work, or from the investment of the sinking fund, or on account of the increased value of property liable to assessment, it is found to be unnecessary to levy the full rate imposed by any by-law, in order to raise the instalment of the sinking fund and interest thereby required to be raised for any year, or to raise such instalments for any future years of the then unexpired time which the debentures have to run, the council may pass a by-law reducing the rate for such year or for any such future years, so that no more money may be collected than the amount required.

(2) No such by-law shall be passed unless, having regard to the time the debentures have to run, a proper proportion of sinking fund and interest has been levied, according to the intention of the original by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 367.

By-law to be approved by Lieutenant-Governor.

413. No by-law passed under the preceding section shall be valid unless, after it is passed, it is approved by the Lieutenant Governor in Council; and the facts which authorize the passing of such by-law shall, on its submission for approval, be verified in the manner provided by section 335 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 368.

Division IX.—Anticipatory Appropriations.

When and how made. Secs. 414, 415.
On separation of municipalities. Sec. 416.

Anticipatory appropriations may be made.

414. In case a council desires to make an anticipatory appropriation for the next ensuing year in lieu of the special rate for such year, in respect of any debt, the council may do so, by by-law, in the manner and subject to the provisions and restrictions following:

What funds may be so appropriated.

1. The council may carry to the credit of the sinking-fund account of the debt, as much as may be necessary for the purpose aforesaid,

(a) Of any money at the credit of the special rate account of the debt beyond the interest on such debt for the year following that in which the anticipatory appropriation is made;

(b) And of any money raised for the purpose aforesaid by additional rate or otherwise;

(c) And of any money derived from any temporary investment of the sinking fund;

(d) And of any surplus money derived from any corporation work or from any share or interest therein;

(e) And of any unappropriated money in the treasury;

such moneys respectively not having been otherwise appropriated.

The sources and application to be stated.

2. The by-law making the appropriations shall distinguish the several sources of the amount, and the portions thereof to be respectively applied for the interest and for the sinking fund appropriation of the debt for the next ensuing year.

When moneys retained sufficient, the yearly rate may be suspended for the ensuing year.

3. In case the moneys so retained at the credit of the special rate account, and so appropriated to the sinking fund account, from all or any of the sources above mentioned, are sufficient to meet the sinking fund appropriation and interest for the next ensuing year, the council may then pass a by-law directing that the original rate for such next ensuing year be not levied. 55 V. c. 42, s. 369.

By-law must recite—

415.—(1) The by-law shall not be valid unless it recites—

The original debt and object;

(a) The original amount of the debt, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the debt was created;

The amount paid;

(b) The amount, if any, already paid of the debt;

The annual amount for sinking fund.

(c) The annual amount of the sinking-fund appropriation required in respect of such debt;

The amount for sinking fund in hand;

(d) The total amount, then on hand, of the sinking fund appropriations, in respect to the debt, distinguishing the amount thereof in cash in the treasury, from the amount temporarily invested;

The amount required for interest;

(e) The amount required to meet the interest of the debt for the year next after the making of such anticipatory appropriation; and

And that it is reserved, etc.

(f) That the council has retained at the credit of the special rate account of the debt a sum sufficient to meet the next year's interest (naming the amount of it), and that the council has carried to the credit of the sinking fund account a sum sufficient to meet the sinking fund appropriation (naming the amount of it) for such year.

By-law to be approved by Lieut.-Governor.

(2) No such by-law shall be valid unless it is approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 370.

Anticipatory appropriation on separation of municipalities.

416. After the dissolution of any municipal union, the senior municipality may make an anticipatory appropriation for the relief of the junior municipality, in respect of any debt secured by by-law, in the same manner as the senior municipality might do on its own behalf. 55 V. c. 42, s. 371.

TITLE III.—RESPECTING FINANCE.

DIV. I.—ACCOUNTS AND INVESTMENTS.
DIV. II.—COMMISSION OF INQUIRY INTO FINANCES.

DIVISION I.—ACCOUNTS AND INVESTMENTS.

Accounts for special rate and sinking fund. Sec. 417.
Surplus on special rate—Application of. Secs. 418, 419.
Surplus on special rate—Investment of. Sec. 420.
General surplus—Application of. Secs. 421-424.
Members of corporations not to be parties to investments. —Liability for loss. Sec. 425.
Yearly returns to Government. Secs. 426, 427.

Two special accounts to be kept: 1) of the special rates; (2) of the sinking fund or instalments of principal.

417. The council of every municipal corporation shall keep in its books two separate accounts of every debt, one for the special rate and one for the sinking fund or for instalments of principal, both to be distinguished from all other accounts in the books by some prefix designating the purpose for which the debt was contracted; and they shall keep the said accounts, with any others that are necessary, so as to exhibit at all times the state of every debt, and the amount of moneys raised, obtained, and appropriated for payment thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 372.

When surplus may be applied to next year's interest, and to sinking fund.

418.—(1) If after paying the interest of a debt for any financial year, and appropriating the necessary sum to the sinking fund of such debt, or in payment of any instalment of principal, there is a surplus at the credit of the special rate account of such debt, such surplus shall so remain, and may be applied, if necessary, towards the next year's interest; but if such surplus exceeds the amount of the next year's interest, the excess shall be carried to the credit of the sinking fund account, or shall be applied in payment of principal of such debt.

Moneys levied for a sinking fund not to be diverted.

(2) No moneys levied and collected for the purpose of a sinking fund shall in any case be applied towards paying any portion of the current or other expenditures of the municipality, save as may be otherwise authorized by this or any other Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 373 (1-2).

Liability of councillors for diversion of sinking fund.

(3) In the event of the council of a municipality diverting any of said moneys for current or other expenditure, save as aforesaid, the members who vote for the diverting of said moneys shall be personally liable for the amount so diverted, and the said amount may be recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction; and the members who have voted for the same, shall be disqualified from holding any municipal office for the period of two years. In case the council of the municipality, upon the request of any ratepayer, refuse or neglect for one month thereafter to bring an action therefor in the name of the municipality, the action may be brought by any ratepayer on behalf of himself and of all the other ratepayers of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 373 (3); 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (69).

Treasurer to state annually amount required to be raised for sinking fund

(4) In every municipality in which any sum of money is required by law to be raised toward a sinking fund, it shall be the duty of the treasurer to prepare and lay before the council in every year previous to the striking of the annual rate a statement showing what amount or amounts will be required for the purpose; and any treasurer making default in the performance of the duty imposed by this sub-section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $25, to be recovered as are other penalties under this Act, at the instance of any ratepayer resident in the municipality.

Liability of members of council neglecting to levy for sinking fund.

(5) In the event of the council of a municipality neglecting in any year to levy the amount required to be raised under this or any other Act to provide a sinking fund for the payment of the debentures, if any, of the municipality, every member of the council shall be disqualified from holding any municipal office for the period of two years; but no member of the council shall be liable to the penalty hereby imposed, who shows to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge that he made reasonable efforts to procure the levying of the rate for the said sinking fund. 56 V. c. 35, s. 9.

Application of surplus with consent of Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

419 The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council, direct that such part of the produce of the special rate levied, and at the credit of the sinking fund account or of the special rate account as aforesaid instead of being so invested as hereinafter provided, shall from time to time, as the same accrue, be applied to the payment or redemption, at such value as the said council can agree for, of any part of such debt or of any of the debentures representing or constituting such debt, or any part of it, though not then payable, to be selected as provided in such Order in Council, and the municipal council shall thereupon apply, and continue to apply, such part of the produce of the special rate at the credit of the sinking fund account or special rate account as directed by such Order in Council. 55 V. c. 42 s. 374.

Investment of surplus moneys from sinking fund.

420—(1) If any part of the produce of the special rate levied in respect of any debt, and at the credit of the sinking fund account or of the special-rate account thereof cannot be immediately applied towards paying the debt, by reason of no part thereof being yet payable, the council shall, from time to time, invest the same in government securities, municipal debentures, or in first mortgages on real estate (but not such for farming purposes, and being the first lien on such real estate), or in local improvement debentures of the municipality, or in such other manner as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by general or special Order in Council direct, or in any other debentures of the municipality which may be approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council by such Order in Council; and from time to time, as such securities mature, may invest the proceeds thereof in other like securities; but no sum so invested in mortgages shall exceed two-thirds of the value, according to the last revised and corrected assessment roll at the time it is invested, of the real estate on which it is secured.

To be regulated by by-law.

(2) The council of the municipality may regulate, by by-law, the manner in which such investments shall be made.

Sinking fund may be used in purchasing unsold debentures.

(3) It shall not be necessary that any local improvement or other debentures of the municipality referred to in this section shall have been disposed of by the council, but the council may apply the sinking fund to an amount equal to the amount of such debentures towards the purposes to which the proceeds of such debentures would properly be applicable, and the council shall thereupon hold the debentures as an investment on account of the sinking fund, and may deal with the same accordingly. 55 V. c. 42, s. 375.

Investment of sinking fund.

421. Any council may by by-law direct that any surplus moneys in the hands of the treasurer, and not specially appropriated to any other purpose, shall be credited to the sinking-fund account of any debenture debt of the municipality, and the council may, subject to the provisions of the preceding section, invest such sinking-fund account in any of the securities therein named. 55 V. c. 42, s. 376.

Council may apply other funds towards such debts.

422. A council may appropriate to the payment of any debt the surplus income derived from any public or corporation work, or from any share or interest therein, after paying the annual expenses thereof, or may so appropriate any unappropriated money in the treasury, or any money raised by additional rate; and any money so appropriated shall be carried to the credit of the sinking fund of the debt, or in payment of any instalment accruing due. 55 V. c. 42, s. 377.

Certain moneys may be set apart for educational purposes.

Investment of same.

423.—(1) A municipal corporation having surplus moneys derived from "The Ontario Municipalities Fund," or from any other source, may, by by-law, set such surplus apart for educational purposes, and may invest the same, as well as any other moneys held by such municipal corporation for, or by it lawfully appropriated to, educational purposes, in public securities of the Dominion, municipal debentures, or first mortgages on real estate held and used for farming purposes, being the first lien on such real estate, and from time to time, as such securities mature, may invest in such other like securities, or in securities already authorized by law, as may be directed by the by-law, or by other by-laws passed for that purpose.

(2) No sum so invested shall exceed two-thirds of the value, according to the last revised and corrected assessment roll at the time it is so invested, of the real estate on which it is secured. 55 V. c. 42, s. 378. See also Cap. 34. Proviso as to investment.

424. Any municipal corporation having surplus moneys set apart for educational purposes, may, by by-law, invest the same in a loan or loans to any board of school trustees within the limits of the municipality, for such term or terms, and at such rate or rates of interest as may be agreed upon by and between the parties to such loan or loans respectively, and as may be set forth in such by-law; or may by by-law grant any portion of such moneys, or other general funds, by way of gift to aid poor school sections within the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 379. Loans to school trustees. Aid to poor school sections.

425. No member of a municipal council shall take part in, or in any way be a party to, the investment of such moneys as are mentioned in this Act, by or on behalf of the municipality, otherwise than is authorized by this Act, or by any other law in that behalf made and provided; and any person so doing shall be held personally liable for any loss sustained by the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 380; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3. No member of corporation to be party to investment.

426. The treasurer of any municipality for which any sum of money has been raised on the credit of the Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund, shall, so long as any part of such sum, or of the interest thereon, remains unpaid by the municipality, transmit to the Treasurer of Ontario, on or before the 15th day of January in every year, a return, certified on the oath of the treasurer before some Justice of the Peace, containing the amount of taxable property in the municipality according to the then last revised assessment roll or rolls; a true account of all the debts and liabilities of the municipality, for every purpose, for the then last year; and also such further information and particulars with regard to the liabilities and resources of the municipality, as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time require, under a penalty, in case of neglect or refusal to transmit the return, account, information or particulars, of $100, to be recovered, with costs, as a debt due to the Crown. 55 V. c. 42, s. 381. Liability for loss. Municipalities indebted to Municipal Loan Fund to make annual returns to Provincial Treasurer. Penalty for default.

427. Every council shall, on or before the 31st day of January in each year, under a penalty of $20 in case of default, to be paid to the Treasurer of Ontario, transmit to the Lieutenant-Governor, through the Minister of Agriculture, an account, in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, of the several debts of the corporation, as they stood on the 31st day of December preceding, specifying in regard to every debt of which a balance remained due at that day, Every council to make a yearly report of the corporation debts to the Lieut-Governor, etc.

What such report must shew.

1. The original amount of the debt;

2. The date when it was contracted;

3. The days fixed for its payment;

4. The interest to be paid therefor;

5. The rate provided for the redemption of the debt and interest;

6. The proceeds of such rate for the year ending on said 31st day of December;

7. The portion (if any) of the debt redeemed or paid during that year;

8. The amount of interest (if any) unpaid on said 31st day of December; and

9. The balance still due of the principal of the debt. 55 V. c. 42, s. 382.

Division II—Commission of Inquiry into Finances.

When granted—Expenses of. Sec. 428.

When a commission of inquiry may issue.

428.—(1) In case one-third of the members of any council, or thirty duly qualified electors of the municipality, petition for a commission to issue under the Great Seal, to inquire into the financial affairs of the corporation, and things connected therewith, and if sufficient cause is shewn, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may issue a commission accordingly, and the commissioner or the commissioners, or such one or more of them as the commission empowers to act, shall have the same power as any Court has in civil cases to summon witnesses, enforce their attendance, and compel them to produce documents and to give evidence. 55 V. c. 42, s. 383.

Expenses of such commissions.

(2) The expenses to be allowed for executing the commission shall be determined and certified by the Treasurer of Ontario, and shall thenceforth become a debt due by the corporation to the commissioner or commissioners, and shall be payable within three months after demand therefor, made by the commissioner or by any one of the commissioners, at the office of the treasurer of the corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 384.

TITLE IV.—DEBENTURES.

Debentures and coupons, how to be executed. Sec. 429.
Debentures negotiated at a discount, or bearing more than 6 per cent. interest. 29-30 V. c. 51, ss. 214-217.

Debentures under promulgated by-law. Sec. 431.
Debentures under registered by-law. Sec. 399.
Debentures issued before 1st Feb., 1883, etc. Sec. 432.
Local improvement debentures — consolidation thereof. Sec. 433.
Transfer of debentures. Sec. 434.
Councils borrowing for current expenses. Sec. 435.
No debentures, etc., to issue for less than $100. Sec. 436.

Debentures, bonds, etc., how to be executed.

429.—(1) All debentures and other instruments duly authorized to be issued on behalf of a municipal corporation shall, unless otherwise specially authorized or provided, be sealed with the seal of the corporation, and signed by the head thereof, or by some other person authorized by by-law to sign the same, otherwise the same shall not be valid; and it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the municipality to see that the money collected under the by-law is properly applied to the payment of the interest and principal of the debentures. 55 V. c. 42, s. 405.

Execution of debenture coupons.

(2) The coupons attached to every such debenture issued by any municipal corporation other than a city shall each be signed by the head of the municipality and the treasurer of the corporation. 59 V. c. 51, s. 8.

Full amount of debentures sold at a discount recoverable.

(3) Subject to any Act of the Parliament of Canada which may be passed respecting the lawful rate of interest, any debentures issued under the formalities required by law, by any municipal or provisional municipal corporation, payable to bearer, or to any person named therein or bearer, shall be valid and recoverable to the full amount, notwithstanding their negotiation by such corporation at a rate less than par, or at a rate of interest greater than six per centum per annum, or although a rate of interest greater than six per centum per annum is reserved thereby or made payable thereon. 29-30 V. c. 51, ss. 214, 217.

In certain cases, debentures valid without corporate seal, etc.

430. Debentures issued in aid of any railway, or for any bonus, signed or indorsed and countersigned as directed by the by-law, shall be valid and binding on the corporation without the corporate seal thereto, or the observance of any other form with regard to the debenture than such as may be directed by the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 406.

Debentures valid notwithstanding defect in form.

431. Debentures issued under the authority of any by-law promulgated under this Act or any former Municipal Act, shall be valid and binding upon the corporation, notwithstanding any insufficiency in form or otherwise of such by-law, or in the authority of the corporation in respect thereof; provided that the by-law has received the assent of the electors (where necessary), and that no successful application has been made to quash the same within the time limited in the notice of promulgation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 407.

Proviso.

[As to validity of Debentures under by-laws duly registered. See Sec. 399.]

Debentures issued before Feb. 1, 1883, on which payment has been made for two years, to be valid.

432. Where debentures were issued prior to the first day of February, 1883, by any municipality under a by-law passed by such municipality, and the interest on such debentures, and the principal of such of them (if any) as have fallen due, has been paid by the municipality for the period of two years or more, the by-law and the debentures issued thereunder, or such of them as are yet unpaid, shall be valid and binding upon the corporation, and shall not be quashed or set aside on any ground whatever. 55 V. c. 42, s. 408.

Local improvement debentures.

433.—(1) Every debenture issued under section 664 of this Act, or under the provisions of any other Act relating to the issue of debentures for local improvement purposes, shall bear on its face the words "Local Improvement Debenture," and shall contain a reference by date and number to the by-law under which it is issued.

Consolidation thereof.

(2) In order to obviate a difficulty which has been found to prevail in negotiating local improvement debentures, in consequence of many of the same having to be issued for small and broken amounts, councils may, from time to time, after the passing of the several by-laws covering the several amounts required for particular local improvements, as therein specified, and without in any way affecting the liens on the lands therein named and to be improved thereby, pass a collective or cumulative by-law consolidating the said several amounts, and may issue the required debentures in a general consecutive issue under such consolidated by-law, apportioning, nevertheless, the amount raised thereby, and crediting each service with the amount previously estimated and named for the same under the individual by-law passed in the first instance.

(3) Councils desiring to avail themselves of the provisions of the preceding subsection shall insert, in each such by-law, a clause intimating that the amount of the debentures to be issued thereunder is subject to consolidation; and in such case it shall be sufficient to state in the said individual by-law that debentures to be issued thereunder shall be issued at so many years from the date of issue of the same, without defining a specific date;

(4) No consolidated debenture shall be issued, covering any debentures which have been issued or sold under any original by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 409.

434.—(1) Debentures issued by any municipal council may contain a provision in the following words: Mode of transfer may be prescribed

"This debenture, or any interest therein, shall not, after a certificate of ownership has been indorsed thereon by the treasurer of this municipal corporation, be transferable, except by entry by the treasurer or his deputy in the Debenture Registry Book of the said Corporation at the town (or village) of ", or to the like effect.

55 V. c. 42, s. 410.

(2) The treasurer of every municipality issuing any debentures containing the provision in the last subsection mentioned, shall open and keep a Debenture Registry Book, in which he shall enter a copy of all certificates of ownership of debentures, which he may give, and also every subsequent transfer of such debenture; such entry shall not be made except upon the written authority of the person last entered in such book as the owner of such debenture, or of his executors or administrators, or of his or their lawful attorney, which authority shall be retained and duly filed by the treasurer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 411. Debenture registry book

(3) After the certificate of ownership has been indorsed as aforesaid, the debenture shall only be transferable by entry, by the treasurer of the municipality or his deputy, in such Debenture Registry Book, from time to time, as transfers of such debenture are authorized by the then owner thereof, or his lawful attorney. 55 V. c. 42, s. 412. Registered debentures transferred by entry, etc.

435.—(1) The council of any municipality may by by-law authorize the head, or acting head, with the treasurer thereof, to borrow from any person or bank such sums as the council deem necessary to meet the then current expenditure of the corporation, until such time as the taxes levied therefor can be collected, and the council shall by such by-law regulate the amounts to be so borrowed, and define the notes, cheques, covenants or agreements or other vouchers to be given in security therefor. 56 V. c. 35, s. 10; 60 V. c. 45, s. 50, part. Borrowing sums for current expenditure.

(2) The amount so borrowed and outstanding shall not, at any time, exceed 80 per cent. of the amount collected as taxes to pay the ordinary current expenditure of the municipality in the preceding municipal year, and in the event of the council authorizing the borrowing of any larger sum than the said percentage, the members of the council who voted therefor shall be disqualified from holding any municipal office for the period of two years. 60 V. c. 45, s. 50, part. Amount which may be procured by municipality as temporary loan.

(3) The powers by this section conferred shall not be exercised except for the purpose of meeting the ordinary expenditure of the municipality; and the person or bank lending any sum to a municipal corporation under this section shall not be bound to establish the necessity of borrowing the same. 60 V. c. 45, s. 50, part.

Borrowing money for school purposes.

(4) The council of any municipality shall have similar borrowing powers, with regard to moneys required by the trustees of any public school within such municipality or by the trustees of a high school district of which such municipality is partly or wholly composed; provided such sums of money do not exceed the estimates submitted by such public or high school trustees as required by The Public Schools Act and The High Schools Act. 57 V. c. 50, s. 5, part.

Rev. Stat. cc. 292, 293.

Without special authority, no bond, etc., to be given for less than $100.

436. Unless specially authorized so to do, no council shall make or give any bond, bill, note, debenture or other undertaking, for the payment of a less amount than $100; and any bond, bill, note, debenture or other undertaking issued in contravention of this section, shall be void. 55 V. c. 42, s. 414.

TITLE V.—ARBITRATIONS.

Compensation for Lands Taken or Injured.

Owners of lands taken, etc., by corporation, etc., to be compensated.

437. Every council shall make to the owners or occupiers of, or other persons interested in, real property entered upon, taken or used by the corporation in the exercise of any of its powers, or injuriously affected by the exercise of its powers due compensation for any damages, (including cost of fencing when required) necessarily resulting from the exercise of such powers, beyond any advantage which the claimant may derive from the contemplated work; and any claim for such compensation, if not mutually agreed upon, shall be determined by arbitration under this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 483, part.

Differences to be determined by arbitration

438. Every such claim shall be made within one year from the date when the alleged damages were sustained or became known to the claimant, or in case of a continuance of damage, then within one year from the time when the cause of action arose or became known to the claimant; but this limitation shall not apply to real property taken or used by the corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 483, part.

Limitation of claims for compensation.

439. Wherever the council of a city or town is desirous of entering upon any public work or undertaking, in the pursuance of which any real property may be entered upon, taken or used by the corporation in the exercise of any of its powers, or may be injuriously affected by the exercise of its powers, the council may file plans and specifications of the work or undertaking, or certified copies thereof, with the clerk of the municipality, who shall, on receiving the same, issue a notice setting out the council's intention to proceed with such work or undertaking, and to enter upon, take or use the lands necessary therefor, and that such plans and specifications have been filed with him and may be inspected at his office, and that all claims for damages by reason of the said proposed work or undertaking must be filed with him within sixty days from the service of such notice, and that such owners, occupiers or other persons must file with the said clerk, within the said period of sixty days, their claim for damages for any of the causes aforesaid, showing the amount thereof, or in that default thereof any claim for such damages will be barred; and he shall cause such notice to be served upon the owners and occupiers of or other persons interested in the said real property to be so taken, entered upon or used as aforesaid, or which may be injuriously affected as aforesaid.

Taking, etc., lands for public works. Filing plans and specifications and giving notice.

(2) In case the person served as aforesaid is, at the time of such service, resident outside the Province of Ontario, a further period of thirty days shall be allowed such person to file his claim. 58 V. c. 42, s. 20 (2).

440. All such claims shall be made pursuant to the said notice, and unless made, in the case of persons resident within the Province, within sixty days after the service of such notice, or in the case of persons resident outside of the Province, within the said further period of thirty days, shall be barred and extinguished unless upon application to the Judge of the County Court of the county in which such city or town is situated, and upon giving to the said council at least seven days notice of such application, such Judge allows the claim to be made and served. Either party may appeal from the decision of the Judge to a Divisional Court of the High Court of Justice; but every such claim shall be absolutely barred and extinguished unless made within a period of one year from the service of the said notice. 58 V. c. 42, s. 20 (3).

Time within which claim is to be made.

Determining claims by arbitration.

441. If any such claim is so filed within the time aforesaid, the same, unless accepted by the council, shall forthwith be determined by arbitration under this Act. 58 V. c. 42, s. 20 (4).

Particulars to be delivered.

442. The person making a claim shall deliver full particulars of the damages for which such claim is made, and the arbitrator or arbitrators, upon the hearing of the claim, shall have the same power as to amendment generally, or to amend such claim or particulars or any proceeding had or taken upon the hearing thereof, as a Judge would have in an action; and the arbitrator or arbitrators may, in his or their discretion, refuse at any time to hear, upon any matter or question, further evidence of a cumulative character. 58 V. c. 42, s. 20 (5).

Claims not barred where plans insufficient.

443. Nothing in sections 439 to 442 contained shall bar or extinguish any claim when the plans and specifications filed do not reasonably and sufficiently disclose the damage that may be sustained. 58 V. c. 42, s. 20 (6); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

How title acquired to land when owned by corporations, tenants in tail, vested in trustees, etc.

444.—(1) In the case of real property which a council has authority under this Act to enter upon, take or use, without the owner's consent, corporations, tenants in tail or for life, guardians, committees, and trustees, shall, on behalf of themselves, their successors and heirs respectively, and on behalf of those whom they represent, (whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, married women or others), have power to act, as well in reference to any arbitration, notice and action under this Act, as in contracting for and conveying to the council any such real property, or in agreeing as to the amount of damages arising from the exercise by the council of any power in respect thereof.

If there be no party who can convey, etc.

(2) In case there is no such person who can so act in respect to such real property, or in case any person interested in respect to any such real property is absent from this Province, or is unknown, or in case his residence is unknown, or he himself cannot be found, the Judge of the County Court for the county in which such property is situate may, on the application of the council, appoint a person to act in respect to the same for all or any of the said purposes. 55 V. c. 42, s. 484.

Application, etc., of purchase money where party has not an absolute estate in the property.

(3) In case any person acting as aforesaid has not the absolute estate in the property, the council shall pay to him the interest only at six per centum per annum on the amount to be paid in respect of such property, and shall retain the principal to be paid to the person entitled to it whenever he claims the same and executes a valid acquittance therefor, unless the High Court of Justice, or a Judge thereof, or in the meantime directs the council to pay the same to any person or into Court; and the council shall not be bound to see to the application of any interest so paid, or of any sum paid under the direction of such Court. 55 V. c. 42, s. 485; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Compensation to stand in the stead of lands.

445. The compensation or damages which may be agreed upon or awarded for any land taken or injuriously affected by any municipal corporation in the exercise of its corporate powers shall stand in the stead of such lands and shall be subject to the limitations and charges (if any) to which the said lands were subject; and any claim to or incumbrance upon the said lands, or to or upon any portion thereof shall, as against the said corporation, be converted into a claim to the money so paid, or to a like proportion thereof. 55 V. c. 42, ss. 486, 488*a*.

Compensation may be paid into Court.

446.—(1) If in the opinion of the High Court of Justice or of any Judge thereof, there is reason to fear any claims or incumbrances, or if any person to whom the compensation or damage or any part thereof is payable, refuses to execute the proper conveyance or guarantee, or cannot be found, or is unknown to the corporation, the corporation may pay such compensation into the office of the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario with interest thereon at 6 per cent. per annum for six months, and may deliver to such Accountant an authentic copy of the conveyance or of the award or agreement, as the case may be; and such award or agreement or conveyance shall thereafter be deemed to be the title of the corporation to the land therein mentioned. 55 V. c. 42, s. 488*b*.

Notice to be given.

(2) A notice in such form and for such time as any Judge of the High Court of Justice may direct, shall be inserted in a newspaper, if there is one published in the municipality in which the lands are situated, or if there is no newspaper published in the municipality, then in the Ontario Gazette, and also in a newspaper published in the nearest municipality thereto in which any newspaper is published. Such notice shall state that the title of the corporation, under such agreement, award or conveyance, is under this Act, and shall call upon all persons entitled to the lands or to any part thereof so taken or injuriously affected, to file their claims to the said compensation money or any part thereof; and all such claims shall be received and adjudicated upon by the High Court of Justice or by any Judge thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 488*c*, part; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Costs.

(3) The costs of the proceedings, including proper allowances to witnesses, shall be paid by the corporation or by such other person as the said Court or any Judge thereof may order; and if the said order of distribution is obtained in less than three months from the payment into Court of the said compensation moneys, the Court or any Judge thereof may direct any proportionate part of such interest to be returned to the said corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 488*d*.

Judgment shall bar all claims.

(4) The judgment in such proceedings shall forever bar all claims to the lands or any part thereof, including dower, as well as any mortgage or incumbrance upon the same, and the Court or Judge shall make such order for distribution, payment or investment of the said compensation money, and for securing the rights of all persons interested therein as may be necessary. 55 V. c. 42, ss. 488*c*, part, 488*e*.

Tender of compensation.

447. The council of any municipality in all cases where claims for compensation or damages are made against them which, under the provisions of this or any other Act, are declared to be the subject of arbitration in the event of the parties not being able to agree, may tender to any person making such claim, such amount as they consider proper compensation for the damage sustained or lands taken; and in the event of the non-acceptance by the claimant of the amount so tendered, and of the arbitration being proceeded with, if an award is obtained for an amount not greater than the amount so tendered, the costs of the arbitration and award shall, unless otherwise directed by the arbitrator, be awarded to the corporation and set off against any amount awarded against them. 55 V. c. 42, s. 488.

Rev. Stat. c. 227.
Compensation when lands taken or injured by city or town.

448.—(1) Save as provided by The Municipal Arbitrations Act, in every case where a claim is made for compensation for damages by the owner or occupier of, or other person interested in, lands entered upon, taken or used by the corporation of any city or town, or alleged to have been injuriously affected by such corporation in the exercise of any of its powers, in the event of the corporation not being able to agree with the claimant as to the amount of compensation to be made, and if the amount claimed does not exceed $1,000, the same shall be settled and determined by the award of the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the city or town is situate, (sitting as sole arbitrator), or (at the option of either party) by such other sole arbitrator as the said Judge on application made to him by either party, upon notice to the other party, may appoint. 55 V. c. 42, s. 487 (1), part; 59 V. c. 51, s. 13.

(2) Either party shall be entitled to at least seven days' notice, exclusive of the day of the service of the notice, of the wish of the other party to have an arbitration, and seven days' notice, exclusive of the seven days above mentioned and of the day of the service of the notice, shall be given of any application to the Judge to appoint any sole arbitrator as aforesaid. 55 V. c. 42, s. 487 (2).

Arbitrator's fees. Rev. Stat. c. 62.

(3) The fees to be paid to the arbitrator shall be the same as those payable to referees under the provisions of The Act respecting Arbitration and References. 55 V. c. 42, s. 487 (3).

(4) Save as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of this Act as to arbitrators and procedure in arbitrations shall, so far as applicable, apply to and govern all arbitrations had and awards made by a sole arbitrator under the provisions of this Act. 49 V. c. 37, s. 41 (4); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Appointment now made. Rev. Stat. c. 227. Council, or head thereof, may appoint.

449. Save as herein or in The Municipal Arbitrations Act otherwise provided, the appointment of all arbitrators shall be in writing under the hands of the appointers, or, in case of a corporation, under the corporate seal, and authenticated in like manner as a by-law; and the arbitrators on behalf of a municipal corporation shall be appointed by the council thereof, or by the head thereof, if authorized by a by-law of the council. 55 V. c. 42, ss. 385, 386.

Either party may appoint an arbitrator and give notice to opposite party. Subject to Rev. Stat. c. 227.

450.—(1) Save as herein or in The Municipal Arbitrations Act otherwise provided, in every case where arbitration is directed or authorized by this Act, either party may appoint an arbitrator, and give notice thereof in writing to the other party, calling upon such party to appoint an arbitrator. A notice to a corporation shall be given to the head of the corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 387; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (70).

Third arbitrator to be appointed.

(2) The two arbitrators appointed by or for the parties shall within seven days from the appointment of the lastly appointed of them, appoint in writing, a third arbitrator. 55 V. c. 42, s. 388.

Provision in case of neglect to appoint.

(3) In case of an arbitration between municipal corporations, if for twenty-one days after having received such notice, the party notified omits to appoint an arbitrator; or if, for seven days after the second arbitrator has been appointed, the two arbitrators omit to appoint a third arbitrator, then, in case the arbitration is between townships or between a township and a town or village, the Judge of the County Court of the county within which the townships, town or village are or any of them is situate, may, (or in case the arbitration is between other municipalities, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may) appoint an arbitrator for the party in default, or a third arbitrator as the case may require. 55 V. c. 42, s. 390; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

When more than two municipalities interested.

(4) In cases where more than two municipalities are interested, each of them shall appoint an arbitrator, and in such case, if there is an equality of arbitrators, the arbitrators so appointed shall appoint another arbitrator, or in default at the expiration of twenty-one days after the last of such arbitrators has been so appointed, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, on the application of any one of the municipalities interested, appoint the other arbitrator. 55 V. c. 42, s. 389; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Where real property taken, etc.

Owner, etc., may appoint arbitrator and serve notice.

451.—(1) Save as aforesaid, where real property is, pursuant to a by-law of a municipal council, entered upon, taken or used by the municipal corporation in the exercise of any of its powers, or is injuriously affected thereby, any owner or occupier of, or person interested in such property may, after the passing of the by-law, appoint an arbitrator to determine the compensation to which he is entitled and give to the head of the council due notice of such appointment.

Appointment of arbitrator for municipality.

(2) Within seven days after a notice has been served under the preceding subsection, the head of the council (if authorized by by-law) shall appoint a second arbitrator, and give notice thereof to the person who has served the notice under the said subsection. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (71). See 55 V. c. 42, s. 391.

In case several persons interested in property, taken, etc.

452. In case there are several persons interested, but having distinct interests in the property (whether such persons are all interested in the same piece of property, or some or one in one part thereof and some or one in another part thereof), the municipal council may by the by-law or by any subsequent by-law provide that the claims of all such persons shall be disposed of by one award. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (71). See 55 Vict. c. 42, ss. 392, 393.

When council may take the initiative.

453.—(1) In case a notice has not been served under subsection 1 of section 451, the municipal council may serve upon the owner, occupier or person interested in the property, a copy of the by-law (certified under the hand of the clerk of the council to be a true copy) together with a notice in writing of the appointment of an arbitrator on behalf of the municipal council. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (71). See 55 Vict. c. 42, s. 391, part.

Appointment of arbitrator by owner, etc., of property.

(2) Such owner, occupier or person interested shall within 7 days after such service—or in the case provided for by section 452 the persons having distinct interests as therein mentioned, shall agree upon and shall within 21 days from such service—appoint an arbitrator on his or their behalf, as the case may be, and give notice thereof to the municipal council. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (71). See 55 Vict. c. 42, ss. 392 part, 393 part.

County Court Judge to appoint arbitrator in certain cases.

454. If such owner, occupier or person so interested, or the head of such council, whether from want of authority in that behalf, or otherwise, omits to name an arbitrator within seven days after receiving notice to do so, or if the persons having distinct interests as aforesaid omit to name an arbitrator within twenty-one days after receiving notice to do so, or if the two arbitrators do not within seven days from the appointment of the lastly named of the two arbitrators agree on a third arbitrator, or if any of the arbitrators refuse or neglect to act, the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the property is situated, on the application of either party, shall nominate as an arbitrator a fit person, resident without the limits of the municipality in which the property in question is situated, to act for the party failing to appoint, or as such third arbitrator, or in the stead of the arbitrator refusing or neglecting to act, and such arbitrators shall forthwith proceed to hear and determine the matters referred to them. 55 V. c. 42, s. 394.

Appointment of arbitrators not to be admission of liability.

455. The appointment of an arbitrator shall not be deemed to be an admission of any liability on the part of the corporation, and all defences and objections shall be open to either party as if an action had been brought. 55 V. c. 42, ss. 487 (6), 487*a*; c. 43, s. 30.

Time for making award.

456. In any of the cases herein provided for, the arbitrators shall make their award within one month after the appointment of the third arbitrator. 55 V. c. 42, s. 395.

Persons disqualified from acting as arbitrators.

457. No member, officer or person in the employment of any corporation which is concerned or interested in any arbitration, nor any person so interested, shall be appointed or act as an arbitrator in any case of arbitration under this Act; but nothing in this section contained shall prevent the appointment of or disqualify as an arbitrator any person by reason merely that such person is a ratepayer of or within any municipality concerned or interested in the arbitration, unless the arbitration relates to drainage under the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c 42, s. 396; 57 V. c. 56, s. 89 (1).

Arbitrators to be sworn.

458. Every arbitrator, before proceeding to try the matter of the arbitration, shall take and subscribe the following oath (or, in case of those who by law affirm shall make and subscribe the following affirmation) before any Justice of the Peace:

Form of oath or affirmation.

"I (A.B.) do swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly try the matters referred to me by the parties, and a true and impartial award make in the premises, according to the evidence and my skill and knowledge. So help me God." 55 V. c. 42, s. 397.

Time of meeting, etc.

459. The arbitrators shall, within twenty days after the appointment of the third arbitrator, meet at such place as they may agree upon, to hear and determine the matter in dispute, with power to adjourn from time to time, and shall make their award in writing, which shall be binding on all parties; and one copy thereof shall be filed with the clerk of each of the municipalities interested. 55 V. c. 42, s. 398; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Costs.

Taxation thereof.

460. The arbitrators shall have power to award the payment by any of the parties to the other of the costs of the arbitration, or of any portion thereof, and may either direct the payment of a fixed sum, or that the costs should be taxed on either the scale of the High Court, or of the County Court, in which case the costs shall be taxed by the officer of the proper Court in the county without any further order, and the amount shall be payable within one week after taxation. Such costs when taxed by an officer of a County Court or by a local taxing officer of the High Court, shall be subject to revision by one of the taxing officers at Toronto upon one week's notice, and such revision shall be subject to appeal to a Judge of the High Court as in the case of appeals from a taxation of costs in an action. 55 V. c. 42, s. 399.

461. In case of a difference between the arbitrators, the decision may be given by the majority of them. 55 V. c. 42, s. 400. Majority to decide.

462.—(1) In case of an award under this Act, which does not require adoption by the council, or in case of an award to which a municipal corporation is a party, and which is to be made in pursuance of a submission containing an agreement that this section shall apply thereto, the arbitrator or arbitrators shall take, and immediately after making of the award shall file with the clerk of the council, for the inspection of all parties interested, full notes of the oral evidence given on the reference, and also all documentary evidence so given or a copy thereof; and in case they proceed partly on a view, or any knowledge or skill possessed by themselves or any of them, they shall also put in writing a statement thereof, sufficiently full to allow the Court to form a judgment of the weight which should be attached thereto. Notes of the evidence adduced to be taken and filed in certain cases. Arbitrators acting on their own knowledge, etc., to put statement thereof in writing.

(2) The arbitrator or arbitrators shall also at the same time file with the said clerk a certificate of each of the said arbitrators, showing the number of hours actually occupied by him or them in the said arbitration, and verifying in detail the number of hours so occupied at each sitting of the said arbitrator or arbitrators, with the date of each such sitting and the fees charged by the said arbitrators in respect of such sitting. 55 V. c. 42, s. 401. Arbitrators to file certificate shewing time occupied and fees charged.

(3) Either of the parties to the arbitration may pay into the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the county in which the land which is the subject matter of the arbitration is situated the fees of the arbitrators as demanded by them before delivery of their award, together with $10 as security for costs, and the said clerk shall give a receipt for the same, and shall enter such payment in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, and shall be entitled to receive from the said party as a fee to his own use, when the sum paid in does not exceed $50, a fee of fifty cents, and when the sum paid in exceeds $50 a fee of $1; and the said arbitrators, or any two of them, who may have made the award in such arbitration, upon the production of such receipt, shall forthwith deliver their said award to the party so paying in the said fees and the said $10. Payment of arbitrators' fees on taking up award.

(4) The party so paying in the said sum may have the arbitrators' fees taxed by the clerk on the latter's appointment without any Judge's order, upon giving two days' notice of such appointment by service of a copy thereof upon the arbitrators or upon the person named by them to receive service thereof for them; and if the said fees are found upon the taxation to be authorized by The Arbitration Act, the said fees so paid into the office of the said clerk as aforesaid, shall, unless there is a revision of the taxation as hereinafter provided, be forthwith paid out to the said arbitrators by the said clerk; but in case of a revision of the taxation, such payment out Taxation of arbitrators' fees by clerk. Rev. Stat. c. 62.

shall be postponed until such revision has been finally disposed of, and shall be subject to the result of such revision.

How costs to be taxed.

(5) The said clerk upon taxation shall have regard to the charges made by each arbitrator and shall tax the fees of each arbitrator separately; and the costs of the taxation shall be in his discretion, and he may order the same to be paid either by the applicant or by the arbitrators or by any one or more of them; and he shall make such order in the premises as to him appears just.

Revision of clerk's taxation.

(6) Either party to the taxation may, within two days after the completion of such taxation, upon giving four days' notice to the opposite party, require a revision of such taxation by one of the taxing officers of the High Court at Toronto, and may require the clerk to transmit all papers in the matter to such taxing officer; and upon payment of the necessary postage to the clerk, the latter shall forthwith transmit to such taxing officer such papers and his certificate of taxation or decision or a duplicate thereof.

(7) Upon such revision, the taxing officer shall revise the said taxation and the order or decision of the said clerk as well as to costs as to all other matters. The costs of the appeal shall be in his discretion and he may order the same to be paid either by the applicant or by any one or more of the arbitrators as to him seems just. His order shall be final and conclusive upon all parties; and such order when necessary may be enforced by execution to be issued out of the County Court wherein the money was deposited.

Payment of costs out of $10 paid in as security.

(8) The order of the clerk (or of the taxing officer upon a revision as aforesaid) may direct the $10 so paid in as security as aforesaid, or so much as may be necessary, to be applied toward the payment of any costs payable by the applicant, and the remainder, if any, to be returned to him, and that any costs payable by any arbitrator shall be deducted from any fees payable to him and so paid into Court as aforesaid. In the event of such moneys being insufficient in any case to pay such costs, the Clerk of the County Court may order that execution issue against the person ordered to pay any balance, and the same shall issue upon such order out of the County Court into which the fees were paid.

Either party may file affidavits.

(9) Upon such taxation either party may file affidavits, or upon the request of either party to the taxation the clerk may examine the parties and the said arbitrators and any other witnesses upon oath.

Scale of taxation of costs.

(10) When the amount of the fees paid in does not exceed $100, the costs of taxation or appeal shall be upon the Division Court scale, and where the fees paid in exceed $100, upon the County Court scale; but the clerk, or (upon revision) the taxing officer, may, in his discretion, fix a lump sum to be paid in lieu of taxation. 58 V. c. 42, s. 15.

Lump sum in lieu of taxation.

463.—(1) In case the award relates to property to be entered upon, taken or used as mentioned in subsection 1 of section 451, and in case the by-law did not authorize or profess to authorize any entry or use to be made of the property before an award has been made, except for the purpose of survey, or in case the by-law did give or profess to give such authority, but the arbitrators find that such authority was not acted upon, the award shall not be binding on the corporation unless it is adopted by by-law, within three months after the making of the award; and if the same is not so adopted, the original by-law shall be deemed to be repealed, and the property shall stand as if no such by-law had been made, and the corporation shall pay the costs of the arbitration. 55 V. c. 42, s. 402.

Award to be binding in certain cases, must be adopted by by-law within a certain time.

(2) An award not binding upon the council until adoption, as mentioned in the last preceding subsection, shall, if adopted, be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, and to review on the merits, at the instance of the person whose property is affected or taken, in the same manner as is provided by the next following section of this Act in respect of any award not requiring adoption; and the provisions of sections 462 and 464 shall hereafter extend to every such award. 55 V. c. 42, s. 403 (1).

Power of courts to review awards adopted by councils, etc.

(3) The award may be moved against within one month (excluding vacations) next after the adoption thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 403 (2).

464. Every award made under this Act shall be in writing under the hands of all or a majority of the arbitrators, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice, as if made on an ordinary submission in writing under The Arbitration Act; and in the cases provided for by subsection 1 of section 462, the Court shall consider not only the legality of the award but the merits as they appear from the proceedings so filed as aforesaid, and may call for additional evidence, to be taken in any manner the Court directs, and may, either without taking such evidence or after taking such evidence, set aside the award or remit the matters referred, or any of them, from time to time, to the consideration and determination of the same arbitrators, or to any other persons whom the Court may appoint, as prescribed in The Arbitration Act, and may fix the time within which such further or new award shall be made; or the Court may itself increase or diminish the amount awarded or otherwise modify the award, as the justice of the case may seem to require. 55 V. c. 42, s. 404.

Award to be made by at least two arbitrators, and subject to jurisdiction of High Court. Rev. Stat. c. 62.

Powers of the Courts in such matters.

465. In case the award does not require adoption, but is subject to an appeal to the High Court, the appeal shall lie to the High Court and from High Court to the Court of Appeal in the same manner, and subject to the same restrictions as in the case of a reference under an order of Court; and all applications (otherwise than by way of appeal) to set aside such Appeals and motions against awards not requiring adoption.

award shall be made within six weeks (excluding vacations) after the publication of the award, but the High Court or a Judge thereof may under special circumstances allow the application to be made after the said time. 52 V. c. 13, ss. 2, 3, 5. See 60 V. c. 16, ss. 15, 45; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Enforcing award by order of the High Court.

466. An award under this Act may, by leave of the High Court or a Judge thereof, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order to the same effect. 60 V. c. 16, s. 14; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Sections of Rev. Stat. c. 62 to apply.

467. Sections 9 to 12, 15, 17 to 27 and 40 to 44, and section 48 of The Arbitration Act shall apply to arbitrators appointed under this Act and to arbitrations thereunder. 60 V. c. 16; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Municipality to be liable for acts done under illegal by-law.

Notice of action.

468. In case a by-law, order or resolution is illegal, in whole or in part, and in case anything has been done under it which, by reason of such illegality, gives any person a right of action, no such action shall be brought until one month has elapsed after the by-law, order or resolution has been quashed or repealed, nor until one month's notice in writing of the intention to bring the action has been given to the corporation: and every such action shall be brought against the corporation alone, and not against any person acting under the by-law, order or resolution. 55 V. c. 42, s. 338.

Tender of amends.

Costs.

469. In case the corporation tenders amends to the plaintiff or his solicitor, if such tender is pleaded and (if traversed) proved, and if no more than the amount tendered is recovered, the plaintiff shall have no costs, but costs shall be taxed to the defendant, and set off against the amount recovered; and the balance due to either party shall be recovered as in ordinary cases. 55 V. c. 42, s. 339.

Tender of compensation in actions for negligence.

470. The council of any municipality, upon any claim being made or action brought for damages for alleged negligence on the part of the municipality, may tender, or pay into Court (as the case may be) such amount as they may consider proper compensation for the damage sustained; and in the event of the non-acceptance by the claimant of such tender or of the amount paid into court, and of the action being proceeded with, and no greater amount being recovered than the amount so tendered or paid into court, the costs of suit shall be awarded to the defendants, and set off against any amount recovered against them. 55 V. c. 42, s, 430. Costs.

Proceedings on writs of execution against municipalities.

471.—(1) Any writ of execution against a municipal corporation may be indorsed with a direction to the sheriff to levy the amount thereof by rate, and the proceedings thereon shall then be the following;

Sheriff to deliver copy of writ and statement of claim to treasurer.

(a) The sheriff shall deliver a copy of the writ and indorsement to the treasurer of the municipality or leave such copy at the office or dwelling-house of that officer, with a statement in writing of the sheriff's fees, and of the amount required to satisfy the execution including in such amount the interest calculated to some day, as near as is convenient to the day of the service:

If claim not paid, rate to be struck by Sheriff.

(b) In case the amount, with interest thereon from the day mentioned in the statement, is not paid to the sheriff within one month after the service, the sheriff shall examine the assessment rolls of the corporation, and shall, in like manner as rates are struck for general municipal purposes, strike a rate sufficient in the dollar to cover the amount due on the execution with such addition to the same as the sheriff deems sufficient to cover the interest, his own fees, and the collector's percentage, up to the time when the rate will probably be available.

Sheriff's precept to collector, etc., to levy rate.

(c) The sheriff shall thereupon issue a precept or precepts, under his hand and seal of office, directed to the collector or respective collectors of the corporation, and shall annex to every precept the roll of such rate, and shall by the precept, after reciting the writ, and that the corporation has neglected to satisfy the same, and referring to the roll annexed to the precept, command the collector or collectors, within their respective jurisdictions, to levy such rate at the time and in the manner by law required in respect to the general annual rates;

Rate rolls.

(d) In case at the time for levying the annual rates next after the receipt of such precept, the collectors have a general rate roll delivered to them for such year, they shall add a column thereto, headed "Execution rate in A. B. vs. The Township" (or as the case may be, adding a similar column for each execution if more than one), and shall insert therein the amount by such precept required to be levied upon each person respectively, and shall levy the amount of such execution rate as aforesaid, and shall, within the time within which they are required to make the returns of the general annual rate, return to the sheriff the precept with the amount levied thereon, after deducting their percentage;

Surplus.

(e) The sheriff shall, after satisfying the execution and all fees thereon, pay any surplus, within ten days after receiving the same, to the treasurer of the municipality, for the general purposes of the corporation. 55 V. c. 42, s. 428.

Clerk, assessors and collectors to be officers of the court from which writ issues.

(2) The clerk, assessors and collectors of the corporation shall, for all purposes connected with carrying into effect, or permitting or assisting the sheriff to carry into effect, the provisions of this Act with respect to such executions, be deemed to be officers of the Court out of which the writ issued, and as such shall be amenable to the Court, and may be proceeded against by attachment, mandamus or otherwise, in order to compel them to perform the duties hereby imposed upon them. 55 V. c. 42, s. 429.

TITLE VII.—WITNESSES.

Ratepayers, Officers, etc., Competent Witnesses. Sec. 472.

Ratepayers, members, officers, etc., of corporation competent witnesses.

472 In any prosecution, action or proceeding in any civil matter to which a municipal corporation is a party, no ratepayer, member, officer or servant of the corporation shall, on account of his being such, be incompetent as a witness. 55 V. c. 42, s. 425, part.

Board of Commissioners of Police.

Board of commissioners of police in cities and towns, of whom composed.

481.—(1) In every city there is hereby constituted a Board of Commissioners of Police, and in every town having a Police Magistrate the council may constitute a like board. Such board shall consist of the mayor, the Judge of the County Court of the county in which the city or town is situate, and the Police Magistrate. In case the office of County Judge or that of Police Magistrate is vacant, the council of the city shall, and the council of the town may, appoint a person resident therein to be a member of the board, or two persons so resident to be members thereof, as the case may require, during such vacancy; but the council of such town may at any time, by by-law, dissolve and put an end to the board, and thereafter the council shall have and exercise all powers and duties previously had or exercised by the board. 55 V. c. 42, s. 434.

Person acting as mayor to act as police commissioner.

(2) In case of the illness or absence of the mayor, or of the office of mayor being vacant, the person appointed by the council under section 272 as their presiding officer shall also have authority during the time he acts as such presiding officer to act as a police commissioner in the place of the mayor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 239 (2); c. 43, s. 9

Payment of police commissioners.

(3) The council of any city with a population of 100,000 or over, may by by-law provide for the payment of the Police Commissioners or any of them. 55 V. c. 42, s. 434 (2).

Board may examine witnesses on oath.

482.—(1) The commissioners shall have power to summon and examine witnesses on oath on all matters connected with the administration of their duties, and shall have the same power to enforce the attendance of such witnesses and to compel them to give evidence as is vested in any Court of law in civil cases. A notice to attend before the Board shall be sufficient, if signed by the chairman of the Board, or by any one of the commissioners.

Privileges of witnesses.

(2) No party or witness shall be compelled to answer any question his answer to which might render him liable to a criminal prosecution. 55 V. c. 42, s. 435 (1), (2).

Chairman.

483.—(1) The Commissioners shall annually at their first meeting held after the mayor of the municipality has taken his oath of office, elect a chairman. 57 V. c. 50, s. 6.

Quorum.

(2) A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum, and the acts of a majority shall be considered acts of the Board.

Meetings in cities to be open to public.

(3) All meetings of the Board of Commissioners of Police in cities shall be open to the press and the public, unless otherwise decided by the Board. 55 V. c. 42, s. 435 (3), (4).

Licensing and regulating second hand and junk shops, livery stables, cabs, etc., in cities.

484.—(1) The Board of Commissioners of Police shall in cities license and regulate second-hand shops and junk stores or shops and the owners of livery stables and of horses, cabs, carriages, carts trucks, sleighs, omnibuses and other vehicles regularly used for hire within the said city whether such owners are resident or non-resident therein, and shall establish the rates of fare to be taken by the owners or drivers of such vehicles for the conveyance of goods or passengers, either wholly within the limits of the city, or from any point within the city to any other point not more than three miles beyond said limits, and may provide for enforcing payment of such rates; and for such purposes shall pass by-laws and enforce the same in the manner in which and to the extent to which any municipal by-law passed under the authority of this Act may be enforced. 55 V. c. 42, s. 436 (1).

(2) The Board of Commissioners of Police in any city may pass by-laws defining areas or districts and localities in the city within the limits of which no livery stable or sale or boarding stable, or stable in which horses are to be kept for hire or for express purposes shall be established or maintained. 55 V. c. 42, s. 436 (2); c. 43, s. 25; 56 V. c. 35, s. 11; 59 V. c. 51, s. 9; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C (116).

(3) The Board of Commissioners of Police in any city shall pass a by-law or by-laws for regulating the hours of labour of persons employed in livery or boarding stables, or as drivers of cabs, carriages or sleighs kept for hire within the said city, and may also pass by-laws for regulating the hours of labour of persons employed by the owners of horses, carts, trucks, omnibuses and other vehicles kept for hire within the said city, and for licensing drivers of cabs within the said city. 60 V. c. 45, s. 52.

Control of children.

(4) The Board of Commissioners of Police shall also regulate and control children engaged as,

(a) Express or despatch messengers;

(b) Vendors of newspapers and small wares;

(c) Bootblacks. 55 V. c. 42, s. 436 (3).

Bands of music.

(5) The Board of Commissioners of Police in any city, and the council of any town, may regulate or prohibit the playing of bands and of musical instruments on any street, highway, park or public place in the city; but this shall not apply to any military band attached to any regular corps of the militia of Canada when on duty under the command of its regular officer. 55 V. c. 42, s. 436 (5).

[See as to additional powers of Boards of Police Commissioners in cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over. Secs. 540 (1), 581, 583.]

How by-law of Board authenticated and proved.

485. All by-laws of any Board of Commissioners of Police shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by the chairman of the Board which passes the same; and a copy of such by-law, written or printed, and certified by any member of the Board to be a true copy, shall be deemed authentic, and be received in evidence in any Court of Justice without proof of such signature, unless it is specially pleaded or alleged that the signature to such original by-law has been forged. 55 V. c. 42, s. 437.

486. In all cases where any Board of Commissioners of Police are authorized to make by-laws, either under this or any other Act or law, they shall have power in and by such by-laws, to attach penalties for the infraction thereof; and such by-laws may be enforced, and such penalties may be recovered by summary proceedings before the Police Magistrate of the city for which the same are passed, or, in his absence, before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction therein, in the manner and to the extent that by-laws of city councils may be enforced under the authority of this Act; and the convictions in such proceedings may be in the form set forth in section 707 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 438.

May be enforced by penalties, etc.

How recovered.

HIGH BAILIFF AND POLICE FORCE.

487. The council of every city shall appoint a high bailiff; but may provide, by by-law, that the offices of high bailiff and chief constable shall be held by the same person. 55 V. c. 42, s. 439.

High bailiffs.

488. The police force in cities and in towns having a Board of Commissioners of Police, shall consist of a chief constable, and as many constables and other officers and assistants as the council from time to time deem necessary, but in cities, not less in number than the Board reports to be absolutely required; but this section shall not affect or apply to a city in which, by the special Act of incorporation thereof, provision is made for the appointment, control and management of the police by the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 440.

Police force in cities and towns.

489. The members of the police force in cities and in such towns shall be appointed by and hold their offices at the pleasure of the Board, and shall take and subscribe the following oath:

Appointment of members of police force.

I, A. B., do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady the Queen in the office of Police Constable for the of without favour or affection, malice or ill-will; and that I will, to the best of my power, cause the peace to be kept and preserved, and will prevent all offences against the persons and properties of Her Majesty's subjects; and that while I continue to hold the said office, I will, to the best of my skill and knowledge, faithfully discharge all the duties thereof according to law.

Oath of office.

55 V. c. 42, s 441.

490. The Board shall, from time to time, make such regulations as they may deem expedient for the government of the force, for preventing neglect or abuse, and for rendering the force efficient in the discharge of all its duties. 55 V. c. 42, s. 442.

Board to make regulations.

491. The constables shall obey all lawful directions of, and shall be subject to the government of the Board; and they shall be charged with the special duties of preserving the peace, pre-

Constables to be subject to the Board.

Duties of constables.

venting robberies and other crimes and offences, and apprehending offenders; and shall have generally all the powers and privileges, and be liable to all the duties and responsibilities, which belong by law to constables duly appointed. 55 V. c. 42, s. 443; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. C. (78).

Remuneration and contingent expenses.

492.—(1) The council shall appropriate and pay such remuneration for and to the respective members of the force, as may be required by the Board of Commissioners of Police; and shall provide and pay for all such offices, watch-houses, watch-boxes, arms, accoutrements, clothing and other necessaries and necessary expenses as the Board may from time to time deem requisite and require for the payment, accommodation, use and maintenance of the force; but this section shall not affect or apply to any city in which, by the special Act of incorporation thereof, provision is made for the appointment, control and management of the police by the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 444; 58 V. c. 42, s. 16.

Indemnifying police officers.

(2) The council may in its discretion appropriate any sum necessary for and may pay for the protection, defence or indemnification of members of the police force in proper cases, where suits or prosecutions are brought against members of the force, and costs are necessarily incurred and damages recovered, and where the Board of Commissioners of Police certify to the council that the case is a proper one for such payment or indemnity. 59 V. c. 51, s. 10.

Constables in towns and villages.

493. The council of every town not having a Board of Commissioners of Police shall, and the council of every village may, appoint one chief constable and one or more constables for the municipality; and the persons so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 445.

Dissolution of Boards of police commissioners in towns.

494. Where in a town there was on the 24th day of March, 1874, a Board of Commissioners of Police, constituted under the Acts then in force respecting municipal institutions in this Province, the council of the said town may, by by-law, dissolve and put an end to the Board, and thereafter the council shall have and exercise all powers and duties which might, under said Acts, have been had or exercised by the Board; and unless and until so dissolved and put an end to, the Board shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which, but for this section, would have been exercised or had by the Board. 55 V. c. 42, s. 446.

County and township constables.

495. The council of every county and township may appoint one or more salaried constables for the municipality, to hold office during the pleasure of the council. Every such constable, and any city, town or village constable, shall have the same powers and privileges and be subject to the same liability and to the performance of the same duties, and shall be subject also to suspension by the Judge of the County Court in the same manner, and may act within the same limits, as a constable appointed by the Court of General Sessions. 55 V. c. 42, s. 447.

Fees of salaried constable.

496. Where any salaried constable is appointed for any municipality, whether by the municipal council or by the Board of Commissioners of Police, the council may agree that such constable shall keep for his own use his fees of office; or may require that the said fees shall be paid to the municipal treasurer for the use of the municipality. 55 V. c. 42, s. 448.

Arrests by constables for alleged breaches of the peace not committed in their presence.

497. In case any person complains to a chief of police or to a constable in a town or city of a breach of the peace having been committed, and in case such officer has reason to believe that a breach of the peace has been committed, though not in his presence, and that there is good reason to apprehend that the arrest of the person charged with committing the same is necessary to prevent his escape, or to prevent a renewal of a breach of the peace, or to prevent immediate violence to person or property, then, if the person complaining gives satisfactory security to the officer that he will, without delay, appear and prosecute the charge before the Police Magistrate or before the mayor or sitting Justice, the officer may, without warrant, arrest the person charged, in order to his being conveyed as soon as conveniently may be before the Police Magistrate, Mayor or Justice, to be dealt with according to law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 449.

Until a board of police is organized, mayor, etc., may suspend chief constable, etc., from office, etc.

498. Until the organization of a Board of Commissioners of Police in a town, the mayor or Police Magistrate thereof may suspend from office, for any period in his discretion, the chief constable or any constable of the town, and may, if he chooses, appoint some other person to the office during such period; and in case he considers the suspended officer deserving of dismissal, he shall, immediately after suspending him, report the case to the council, and the council may dismiss such officer, or may direct him to be restored to his office after the period of his suspension has expired. 55 V. c. 42, s. 450; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 15, Sched. C. (79).

Incapacity of such officer to act.

Salary to cease.

499. During the suspension of such officer he shall not be capable of acting in his office, except by the written permission of the mayor or Police Magistrate who suspended him; nor during such suspension shall he be entitled to any salary or remuneration. 55 V. c. 42, s. 451.

Establishment.

County council may pass by-laws as to county buildings.

500. Every county council may pass by-laws for erecting, improving and repairing a court house, gaol, house of correction and house of industry, upon land being the property of the municipality, and shall preserve and keep the same in repair and provide the food, fuel and other supplies required for the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 452.

Acquiring land for court houses in cities.

501. Every county council may, when a court house is required to be erected within the limits of a city, pass by-laws for entering upon, taking, using and acquiring such land as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of such court house. 55 V. c. 42, s. 453.

Gaols and court houses in counties and cities, etc., not separated.

502. The gaol, court house and house of correction of the county in which a city or town not separated for all purposes from a county, is situate, shall also be the gaol, court house and house of correction of the city or town, and shall, in the case of such city, continue to be so until the council of the city otherwise directs; and the sheriff, gaoler and keeper of the gaol and house of correction shall receive and safely keep, until duly discharged, all persons committed thereto by any competent authority of the city or town. 55 V. c. 42, s. 454.

City councils may erect, etc., certain public buildings.

503. The council of any city may erect, preserve, improve and provide for the proper keeping of a court house, gaol, house of correction and house of industry, upon lands being the property of the municipality, and may pass by-laws for all or any of such purposes. 55 V. c. 42, s. 455.

Care of Court Houses and Gaols.

Custody of gaols.

Keepers.

504.—(1) The sheriff shall have the care of the county gaol, gaol offices and yard, and gaoler's apartments, and the appointment of the keepers thereof, whose salaries shall be fixed by the county council, subject to the revision or requirement of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities.

(2) Every appointment or dismissal of a gaoler shall be subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 464. Appointment and dismissal of gaolers.

505. The salary of the gaoler shall be in lieu of all fees, perquisites or impositions of any sort or kind whatever; and no gaoler or officer belonging to the gaol shall demand or receive any fee, perquisite or other payment from any prisoner confined within the gaol or prison. 55 V. c. 42, s. 465. Gaoler to have a yearly salary in place of all fees, perquisites or impositions whatever.

506. The county council shall have the care of the court house and of all offices and rooms and grounds connected therewith, whether the same forms a separate building or is connected with the gaol, and shall have the appointment of the keepers thereof, whose duty it shall be to attend to the proper lighting, heating and cleaning thereof; and they shall from time to time provide all necessary and proper accommodation, fuel, light, stationery and furniture for the Courts of Justice other than the Division Courts, and for the library of the Law Association of the county (such last mentioned accommodation to be provided in the court house), and shall provide proper offices, together with fuel, light, stationery and furniture, for all officers connected with such Courts other than (1) officers of the Maritime Court of Ontario (not being in the County of York) and (2) official assignees. 55 V. c. 42, s. 466; c. 43, s. 26; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3. As to Division Courts, see Cap. 60, Sec. 11. County council to have care of court-house, etc.

507. In any city not being a separate county for all purposes, but having a gaol or court house separate from the county gaol or court house, the care of such city gaol or court house shall be regulated by the by-laws of the city council. 55 V. c. 42, s. 467. City gaols to be regulated by by-laws of city council.

508. In case of a separation of a union of counties, all rules and regulations, and all matters and things in any statute for the regulation of, or relating to court houses or gaols, in force at the time of the separation, shall extend to the court house and gaol of the junior county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 468. Upon separation of union of counties, gaol and court-house regulations to continue.

Costs and Expenses of Court Houses and Gaols.

509.—(1) Cities and separated towns shall, as parts of their respective counties for judicial purposes, bear and pay their just share or proportion of all charges and expenses from time to time incurred in erecting, building and repairing and maintaining, enlarging or improving the court house and gaol of their respective counties, and of the proper lighting, cleansing and heating thereof, and of providing all necessary and proper accommodation, fuel, light, stationery and furniture for the gaol and Courts of Justice, other than the Division Courts, and for the library of the Law Association of the county and of Liability of cities and towns separated from counties for erection and maintenance of court house, etc.

providing proper offices together with fuel light stationery and furniture for officers connected with such courts, where the same are required to be provided by the county council, and all other charges relating to criminal justice, payable by the county in the first instance, except constables' fees and disbursements and charges connected with coroners' inquests, and such other charges as the counties are entitled to be repaid by the Province. 55 V. c. 42, s. 469 (1), part; c. 43, s. 27; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 45, s. 9.

Reference to arbitration in case of disagreement.

(2) In case the council of the city or separated town and the council of the county in which, for judicial purposes, such city or town is situate cannot, by agreement from time to time, settle and determine the amount to be so payable by such city or town respectively, then the same shall be determined by arbitration, according to the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 469 (1), part.

Purchase of lands and erection of buildings for municipal and judicial purposes.

(3) It shall be lawful for the council of any county and the council of any city or town situate in such county, but separated therefrom for municipal purposes, to enter into any agreement,

(a) For the purchase or acquisition of land within the county town for the purpose of erecting thereon buildings for the use of such county and city or town, for municipal and judicial purposes; and

(b) For the erection, maintenance, use, management and control of such buildings; and

(c) For fixing or ascertaining the amount which each municipality shall pay or contribute for the purposes aforesaid; and

(d) For the subsequent disposition of such land and buildings, and of any insurance or other moneys that may be received in respect thereof; and to acquire such land as may be necessary for the erection thereon of such buildings; and to pass all such by-laws as may from time to time be necessary for the purchasing of such land, and the carrying out of any such agreement. 55 V. c. 42, s. 469 (2).

When county has paid amount of town's interest in county buildings.

510. Where a city or separated town has before July 1st, 1897, been paid by the county after the separation for its interest in such court house and gaol, or in a house of correction or registry office, and where the city or town has not erected separate buildings, the award may determine what sum (if any) shall be annually paid to the county as the share or contribution of the city or town for or in respect of any enlargement or improvement made by the county after the separation. But no award shall provide for the purchase by the county from a city or town not separated from the county for judicial purposes of the interest of such city or town in such buildings or in the enlargement or improvement thereof. 60 V. c. 3, s. 3; c. 45, s. 10, (469*a*).

City or town to pay 5 per cent. per annum upon sum received for its interest in the court house, gaol, etc.

511. Where under an agreement or award made before July 1st, 1897, upon the separation of a town from a county for municipal purposes, or under an award made or agreement entered into thereafter between the city or town and the county, the corporation of the county has paid to the corporation of the separated town or city compensation for the amount contributed by the separated town or city prior to its separation from the county for municipal purposes, towards the erection, enlargement or improvement of the court house, gaol or house of correction, or registry office, or any of them, and in case the town or city has not erected separate buildings, the corporation of the city or town shall annually pay to the county an amount equal to five per centum of the amount so paid to the city or town, and the amount so to be paid by the city or town shall be in addition to the amount to be contributed by the city or town under section 509 of this Act. 60 V. c. 45, s. 10, (469*b*).

Pending actions not affected.

512. Nothing in sections 510 or 511 shall affect any agreement or award in force on July 1st, 1897, or any action or proceedings at law pending on said date; but the said sections shall apply in case of any agreement or award thereafter made between any such county and city or separated town. 60 V. c. 45, s. 10, (469*c*).

Liability for furniture for county officials.

513. The council shall not be liable to pay for any furniture which they are required to provide under the provisions of sections 506 and 509 of this Act, unless the same has been ordered by the council or by some person duly authorized by them so to do. 55 V. c. 42, s. 470

Insurance of interests of corporations in certain cases.

514. The corporation of any county, city or town separated from the county, are hereby declared to have respectively, insurable interests in the court house and gaol of the county and the furniture thereof, in the proportions in which they shall, for the time being, be liable to contribute towards the erection, building, repairing and maintaining the same, and towards providing necessary accommodation and furniture for the said gaol and Courts of Justice, and for the officers connected with such Courts; and any such corporation may insure its said interest accordingly. 55 V. c. 42, s. 471.

Liability of city to contribute to court houses and gaols.

515.—(1) In all cases in which any city is required to contribute to the cost of erecting or building a court house or gaol not commenced before the 5th day of March, 1891, the council of such city shall not be bound to pay for any part of the expenditure thereafter incurred in respect thereof unless the same has been concurred in by the council of the city, or, in case of dispute, has been determined by arbitration, according to the provisions of this Act; and the council of the city shall have a voice in the selection of the site of the court house and gaol.

(2) In case the council of the county and city fail to agree upon the selection of such site, the same shall be settled and determined by arbitration, according to the provisions of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 472.

Compensation by city or town for use of court-house, etc.

516.—(1) While a city or town uses the court house, gaol or house of correction of the county, the city or town shall pay to the county such compensation therefor, and for the care and maintenance of prisoners, as may be mutually agreed upon, or settled by arbitration under this Act.

Matters to be considered in determining compensation.

(2) In case of arbitration under this section, in determining the compensation to be paid for the care and maintenance of prisoners confined in the gaol, the arbitrators shall, so far as they deem the same just and reasonable, take into consideration the original cost of the site and erection of gaol buildings and of repairs and insurance, so far as the same have been borne or sustained by one or other of the municipalities, and they shall also take into consideration the cost of maintaining and supporting the prisoners, as well as the salaries of all officers and servants connected therewith; but the provisions of this subsection shall apply only to the determining of the compensation to be paid for the care and maintenance of any such prisoners subsequent to the 1st day of January, 1886. 55 V. c. 42, s. 473.

When the amount of compensation may be reconsidered.

517. In case, after the lapse of five years from such compensation having been so agreed upon or awarded, or having been settled by statute, it appears reasonable to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the application of either party, that the amount of the compensation should be reconsidered, he may, by an Order in Council, direct that the then existing arrangement shall cease after a time named in the Order; and after such time the councils shall settle anew, by agreement or by arbitration under this Act, the amount to be paid from the time so named in the Order. 55 V. c. 42, s. 474.

LOCK-UP HOUSES.

Lock-up houses may be established by county councils.

518. The council of every county may establish and maintain a lock-up house, or lock-up houses, within the county, and may establish and provide for the salary or fees to be paid to the constable to be placed in charge of every such lock-up house; and may direct the payment of the salary out of the funds of the county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 456.

A constable to be placed in charge.

519. Every lock-up house shall be placed in the charge of a constable specially appointed for that purpose by the magistrates of the county at a General Sessions of the Peace therefor. 55 V. c. 42, s. 457.

Lock-up houses.

520.—(1) The council of every city, town, township, and village may, by by-law, establish, maintain and regulate lock-up houses for the detention and imprisonment of persons sentenced under any by-law of the council to imprisonment for not more than ten days; and of persons detained for examination on a charge of having committed any offence; and of persons detained for transmission to any common goal or house of correction, either for trial or in the execution of any sentence; and such councils shall have all the powers and authorities conferred on county councils in relation to lock-up houses. 55 V. c. 42, s. 458.

Joint lock-up houses.

(2) Two or more municipalities may unite to establish and maintain a lock-up house. 55 V. c. 42, s. 459.

Payment to be made to county when gaol used as a lock-up.

521.—(1) In case a county town has not a lock-up approved by the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities, and the county gaol is used for the purposes of a lock-up, the municipal corporation of the county town shall pay yearly to the county treasurer for the use of the county a reasonable amount for the use of the gaol as a lock-up, and for the expenses incurred thereby and in connection therewith; and in the event of any dispute arising as to the amount which should be paid to the county as aforesaid, the same shall be settled by arbitration as provided for under this Act.

(2) This section shall not apply to cities or separated towns for which provision is made by section 516 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 474*a*.

Existing lock-up houses to continue.

522. Nothing herein contained shall affect any lock-up house heretofore lawfully established, but the same shall continue to be a lock-up house as if established under this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 475.

Expense of conveying and maintaining prisoners.

523. The expense of conveying any prisoner to, and of keeping him in a lock-up house, shall be defrayed in the same manner as the expense of conveying him to and keeping him in the common gaol of the county. 55 V. c. 42, s. 476.

[Section 409 of 29-30 V. c. 51, (See 36 V. c. 48, s. 367, R. S. O. 1877, c. 174, s. 449, 46 V. c. 18, s. 476 and R. S. C. Sched. B.,) is as follows:—

Who liable to confinement in lock-up.

409. Any Justice of the Peace of the county may direct by warrant in writing under his hand and seal, the confinement in a lock up house with in his county, for a period not exceeding two days, of any person charged on oath with a criminal offence, whom it may be necessary to detain until examined, and either dismissed or fully committed for trial to the common gaol, and until such person may be conveyed to such gaol; also the confinement in such lock-up-house, not exceeding twenty-four hours, of any person found in a public street or highway in a state of intoxication, or any person convicted of desecrating the Sabbath; and generally may commit to a lock-up-house instead of the common gaol or other house of correction, any person convicted on view of the justice, or summarily convicted before any justice or justices of the peace of any offence cognizable by him or them, and liable to imprisonment therefor under any statute or municipal by-law. 29-30 V. c. 51, s. 409.

INDUSTRIAL FARMS, ETC.

Land may be acquired for industrial farms, house of industry, refuge, etc.

524.—(1) The council of every county, city or town separated from a county may acquire an estate in landed property for an industrial farm, and may establish a house of industry and a house of refuge, and may provide, by by-law, for the erection and repair thereof, and for the appointment, payment and duties of inspectors, keepers, matrons and other servants for the superintendence, care and management of such houses of industry or refuge, and may in like manner make rules and regulations (not repugnant to law) for the government of the same.

Proviso as to united or contiguous counties.

(2) Two or more united counties, or two or more contiguous counties, or a city and one or more counties, or a town and one or more counties, may agree to have only one house of industry or refuge for such united or contiguous counties, or city and counties, or town and counties, and may maintain and keep up the same in the manner herein provided.

Power to compel persons sent to industrial farms, etc., to work thereon.

(3) The council may provide, by by-law, for requiring persons sent to such industrial farm or other place, to work on the said farm, or at any work or service for the said municipality, at such times, and for such hours, and at such trade or labour as they may appear to be fit for, and for buying and selling material therefor, and for applying the earnings, or part of the earnings of such persons for their maintenance or the maintenance of the wife and child or wife and children (if any) of such persons, or for the general maintenance of the farm or other place as aforesaid, or towards aiding such persons to reach their friends (if any) or any place to which it may be deemed advisable to send them.

Industrial farms and houses of refuge for two or more municipalities.

(4) Any two or more local municipalities shall have the same powers and rights as to acquiring, holding and maintaining an industrial farm, or acquiring, erecting and maintaining a house of industry or refuge as any county or city or united or contiguous counties or city or town and county have under and by virtue of this Act or otherwise, and may arrange with any other local municipality or municipalities for the admission (upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between them), of such other local municipality or municipalities to a joint ownership or occupancy or right of user by said other municipality or municipalities in or of said farm, house of industry or house of refuge. Any purchase or grant to or acquisition by two or more local municipalities of any such farm, or the erection of any such house of industry or house of refuge, or any agreement or by-law therefor, or any agreement or by-law for the admission of any other local municipality to such joint ownership or right of user or occupation made, entered into or passed before the 23rd day of March, 1888, shall be as valid and binding for all purposes as though made, entered into or passed after the passing hereof.

(5) All the provisions of this Act relating to industrial farms, houses of industry or houses of refuge respectively, shall apply to any such local municipalities and to any industrial farm, house of industry or house of refuge acquired, erected, occupied or maintained thereby as fully as to any other municipality or municipalities in the preceding subsection mentioned, or to any industrial farm, house of industry or house of refuge acquired, owned, erected, occupied or maintained by them, or any of them.

Maintenance of patients sent by local municipalities to House of Refuge.

(6) The county council may provide by by-law that each local municipality within the county shall be required to pay a sum not exceeding the rate of one dollar and fifty cents per week for the maintenance and support of each person sent to the house of refuge by or from such local municipality and received therein. 55 V. c. 42, s. 460.

Detention of indigent persons.

(7) The county council may pass by-laws for committing to and detaining at any house of industry, indigent persons, for a period of not more than twelve months; and the warrant under the seal of the corporation of the warden or head of a council passing such by-law shall be sufficient authority to the keeper of such house of industry to detain the person therein mentioned for a period stated in such warrant not to exceed twelve months; but this shall not affect the powers of committal by law conferred on any other person or officer. 58 V. c. 42, s. 17.

Inspectors to keep and render accounts of expenses, etc.

525. The inspector of a house of industry or refuge appointed as aforesaid shall keep an account of the charges of erecting, keeping and maintaining the house of industry or house of refuge, and of all materials found and furnished therefor, together with the names of the persons received into the house, as well as of those discharged therefrom, and also of the earnings; and such account shall be rendered to the council or councils maintaining such house every year, or oftener when required by a by-law of the council; and a copy thereof shall be presented to the Legislature. 55 V. c. 42, s. 461.

Justices, etc., may commit certain persons to House of Industry, etc.

526.—(1) Any two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace or of the Inspectors appointed as aforesaid, may by writing under their hands and seals, commit to the house of industry or of refuge to be employed and governed according to the rules, regulations and orders of the house:

1. All poor and indigent persons who are incapable of supporting themselves,

2. All persons without means of maintaining themselves and able of body to work, and who refuse or neglect to do so,

3. All persons leading a lewd, dissolute, and vagrant life, and exercising no ordinary calling or lawful business sufficient to gain or procure an honest living,

4. And all such as spend their time and property in public-houses to the neglect of any lawful calling, and

5. Idiots.

46 V. c. 18, s. 479 part.

Punishment of refractory inmates.

(2) Every person committed to the house of industry or refuge, if fit and able, shall be kept diligently employed at labour during his confinement therein, and in case any such person is idle, and does not perform such reasonable task or labour as may be assigned, or is stubborn, disobedient, or disorderly, such person shall be punished according to the rules and regulations of the house of industry or refuge in that behalf. 46 V. c. 18, s. 479 part.

HOUSES OF CORRECTION.

By-laws may be passed establishing workhouses and houses of correction.

527. The council of every city and town may respectively pass by-laws:

1. For erecting and establishing within the city or town or on such industrial farm, or on any ground held by the corporation for public exhibitions, a workhouse or house of correction and for regulating the government thereof.

Who liable to be committed thereto.

2. For providing that the mayor, Police Magistrate, or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the municipality, may commit and send, with or without hard labour, to the workhouse or house of correction, or to the industrial farm, house of industry, house of refuge, or house for the poor, aged, and infirm, or lock-up, or to any work or service for the municipality as aforesaid, such disorderly persons, drunkards, vagrants, indigent persons, and such description of persons as are set forth or referred to in section 526 and as may by the council be deemed, and by by-law be declared expedient; and such farm, house of correction, house of industry, house of refuge, or house for the poor, aged, or infirm, lock-up house, or ground held as aforesaid, shall, for the purposes in this subsection mentioned, be deemed to be within the municipality and the jurisdiction thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 462 (1, 2).

Until houses of correction erected, the common gaols

528. Until separate houses of correction are erected in the several counties in Ontario, the common gaol in each county respectively shall be a house of correction; and every idle and disorderly person, or rogue and vagabond, and incorrigible rogue, and any other person by law subject to be committed to a house of correction, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be committed to any such common gaol respectively. 55 V. c. 42, s. 463.

Landmarks and Monuments.

Placing landmarks and monuments or marking boundaries of concessions, lots, etc.

531.—(1) In case the council of any township, city, town or village adopts a resolution on the application of one-half of the resident landholders to be affected thereby, or upon its own motion, that it is expedient to place durable monuments at the front or rear of any concession or range or part thereof in the municipality, or at the front or rear angles of the lots therein, the council may apply to the Lieutenant-Governor, in the manner provided for in sections 14, 15 and 16 of The Surveys Act, praying him to cause a survey to be made of such concession or range, or such part thereof, and to cause such monuments to be placed under the authority of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

Rev. Stat. c. 181, ss. 14-16.

Cost of survey.

(2) The person or persons making the survey shall accordingly plant stones or other durable monuments at the front or at the rear of such concession or range, or such part thereof as aforesaid, or at the front and rear angles of every lot therein (as the case may be); and the limits of each lot so ascertained and marked shall be the true limits thereof; and the cost of the survey shall be defrayed in the manner prescribed by the said statute. 55 V. c. 42, s. 491.

By-laws for

532. By-laws may be passed by the councils of the municipalities and for the purposes in this section respectively mentioned, that is to say:

Ascertaining and Establishing Boundaries.

By the councils of townships, cities, towns, and villages:—

Establishing boundaries of municipalities.

1. For procuring the necessary estimates, and making the proper application for ascertaining and establishing the boundary lines of the municipality, according to law, in case the same has not been done; and for erecting and providing for the preservation of the durable monuments required to be erected for evidencing the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 489 (56).

Surveying and Naming Streets.

By the councils of cities, towns and villages:—

For marking the boundaries of and naming streets, etc.

2. For surveying, settling, and marking the boundary lines of all streets, roads, and other public communications, and for giving names thereto, and for affixing such names at the corners thereof, on either public or private property; but no by-law for altering the name of any street, square, road, lane, or other public communication, shall have any force or effect unless passed by a vote in favour thereof of at least three-fourths of the whole council, nor unless and until the by-law has been registered in the registry office of the proper registry division; and the registrar shall be entitled to a fee of $1 for every by-law so registered, and for the necessary entries and certificates in connection therewith.

(a) Every by-law changing the name of a street in a city or town, shall state the reason for the change, and shall not be finally passed until the same has been approved by the County Judge.

(b) The Judge, on an application by or on behalf of the municipal council, shall name a day, hour and place for considering the same, and for hearing the advocates of the change, and also any persons who deem themselves aggrieved thereby and desire to be heard, and any other persons as the Judge may think fit.

(c) A copy of the by-law and of the Judge's appointment shall be served on the registrar or deputy registrar of the registry division at least two weeks before the time named, and shall be published once in the Ontario Gazette at least two weeks before the time so named, and at least weekly for four weeks in such other newspaper or newspapers as the Judge directs.

(d) If the Judge approves of the change he shall certify to that effect, and his certificate shall be filed with the by-law in the registry office of the registry division in which the territory lies. The change shall take effect from the date of the registration of the certificate and not before. 55 V. c. 42, s. 496, (31.)

Numbering Houses and Lots.

Numbering houses, etc.

3. For numbering the houses and lots along the streets of the municipality, and for affixing the numbers to the houses, buildings, or other erections along the streets, and for charging the owner or occupant of each house or lot with the expense incident to the numbering of the same. 55 V. c. 42, s. 496 (29).

Record of Streets and Numbers.

Record of streets, numbers, etc.

4. For keeping (and every such council is hereby required to make and keep) a record of the streets and numbers of the houses and lots numbered thereon respectively, and for entering therein, (and every such council is hereby required to enter therein) a division of the streets with boundaries and distances for public inspection. 55 V. c. 42, s. 496, (30).

By-laws for

533. By-laws may be passed by the councils of the municipalities and for the purposes in this section respectively mentioned, that is to say:

Census.

By the councils of counties, townships, cities, towns and villages:—

Local census.

1. For taking a census of the inhabitants, or of the resident male freeholders and tenants in the municipality. 55 V. 42, s. 479 (13); 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Mortuary Statistics.

By the councils of cities, towns and villages:—

Bills of mortality.

2. For directing the keeping and returning of bills of mortality; and for imposing penalties on persons guilty of default. 55 V. c. 42, s. 496 (8).

By-laws for

534. By-laws may be passed by the councils of the municipalities and for the purposes in this section respectively mentioned, that is to say:

Obtaining Property.

By the councils of counties, townships, cities, towns and villages:—

Obtaining property, real and personal, etc.

1. For obtaining such real and personal property as may be required for the use of the corporation; and for erecting, improving and maintaining a hall, and any other houses and buildings required by and being upon the land of the corporation; and for disposing of such property when no longer required. 55 V. c. 42, s. 479 (1).

Acquiring Lands outside the limits for Public Purposes.

By the councils of townships, cities, towns and villages:—

Acquiring land outside of municipality.

2. For acquiring and holding, by purchase or otherwise for the public use of the municipality, lands situate outside the limits of the municipality; but such lands so acquired shall not form part of the municipality, but shall continue and remain as of the municipality where situate; and all by-laws passed by township councils for the purpose of acquiring land as provided by this subsection, are hereby declared as legal and binding where the by-laws have not been contested or impeached before the 23rd day of April, 1887, as if the lands were within the limits of the municipality the council of which passed the by-law. 55 V. c. 42, s. 489 (57).

Town Halls.

By the councils of townships:—

Acquiring land for a town hall in a town or village.

3. For acquiring lands in any town or village within, or partly within, the original boundaries of the township, for the purpose of erecting thereon a town hall, or for renting or acquiring a hall, within such town or village, for the purpose of a town hall.

Township and other meetings may be held and notices posted at such hall.

(a) Any township owning, renting or otherwise acquiring a town hall in any such town or village may hold at such town hall, any meeting, nomination or election, or may post at such town hall any notice, assessment roll, or voters' list, or may do thereat any other act required by law to be held, posted or done in the township at the town hall; and any meeting of any mutual insurance company, or upon the formation thereof, which is required by any statute to be held in the municipality, may lawfully be held in such hall. 55 V. c. 42, s. 521 (9) (10).

Division II. Municipal Elections.

Disqualification of electors for not paying taxes Sec. 535 (2).
Polling Subdivisions. Sec. 536 (1).

By-laws for

535. By-laws may be passed by the councils of the municipalities and for the purposes in this section respectively mentioned, that is to say :—

Disqualification of Electors not paying Taxes.

By the councils of townships, cities, towns and villages :—

Disqualifying electors in arrear for taxes.

(1) For disqualifying any elector from voting at municipal elections who has not on or before the 14th day of December next preceding the election paid all municipal taxes due by him. 55 V. c. 42, s. 489 (2). See also Secs. 88, 137 (1) (b), 151 (2) (b).

Polling Subdivisions.

Dividing townships and villages and wards of cities or towns into polling subdivisions.

(2) For dividing the wards of the city or town, or for dividing the township or village into two or more convenient polling subdivisions, and for establishing polling places therein ; and for repealing or varying the same from time to time.

Boundaries of polling subdivisions, etc.

536.—(1) Polling subdivisions shall have well defined boundaries, such as streets, sidelines, concession lines or the like, in the most convenient manner, and in such manner that the number of qualified electors in the several polling subdivisions shall be as nearly equal as may be ; and such polling subdivisions shall be made or varied whenever the electors in any ward, township, village, or polling subdivision exceed 200, and shall be made and varied in such a manner that the number of electors in any polling subdivision shall not exceed at any time 200. 55 V. c. 3, s. 8 (1) ; c. 42, s. 489 (1).

(2) Where a municipality embraces parts of two or more electoral districts, a polling subdivision shall only include territory in one electoral district. 60 V. c. 15, Sched. A (48).

Alteration of subdivisions.

(3) Any alteration of existing polling subdivisions, or creation of new polling subdivisions, shall be made before the publication of the voters' lists. 55 V. c. 3, s. 8 (3).

(4) For the purpose of enabling the council to make the required alterations, the clerk of the municipality, as soon as he finds that the number of qualified voters in a subdivision exceeds 200, shall call the attention of the council to the fact. 55 V. c. 3, s. 8 (4).

(5) In case, through oversight or from other cause, such alterations have not been made prior to the publication of the voters' lists, the alteration in the polling subdivisions shall be made forthwith thereafter, but shall not take effect until the next voters' lists are being made out, and shall not affect the voting on or with respect to any previous voters' lists. 55 V. c. 3, s. 8 (5).

New subdivision to be made when necessary.

(6) Whenever the number of qualified voters in a polling subdivision increases so as to exceed 200 or whenever the municipal council consider that the convenience of the electors would be promoted by a new and different subdivision, the city, town, ward, township or village, shall be again in like manner divided into polling subdivisions so as to conform to the intent and meaning of this Act, and so again, from time to time, as like occasion shall require. 55 V. c. 3, s. 9.

Subdivisions to be made on assessment.

(7) Every division made under this section shall be based upon the then last revised and corrected assessment roll of the city, town, ward, township, or village. 55 V. c. 3, s. 10.

Appeal.

(8) At any time within two months after the filing of the by-law, an appeal shall lie from any subdivision, at the instance of five of the electors, to the Judge of the County Court, who shall promptly correct the subdivision so as to conform to the true intent and meaning of this Act. 55 V. c. 3, s. 11.

Subdivisions to be numbered.

(9) The polling subdivisions shall be numbered consecutively in and by the by-law by which they are established, and a copy of the by-law, certified under the seal of the corporation to be a true and correct copy, and signed by the head or clerk of the municipality, shall be, forthwith after the making thereof, transmitted to and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the county or union of counties within which the municipality is situate. 55 V. c. 3, s. 12.

Polling subdivisions to be the same for elections to Legislative Assembly and for municipal elections

(10) Where a municipality is divided into polling subdivisions, the same polling subdivisions shall be used both for the election of members of the Legislative Assembly and for municipal elections, except that the municipal council of every city, town or village, may by by-law unite, for the purpose of municipal elections, any two adjoining polling subdivisions. 55 V. c. 42, s. 489 (1*a*); c. 3, s. 8 (2).

In certain cases clerk may choose polling place.

(11) Where a polling place has been fixed by by-law for the holding of any election, or for the taking of any vote in any township, city, town or village, and it is afterwards found that the building named as such polling place cannot be obtained, or is unsuitable for the purpose, the clerk of the municipality may choose in lieu thereof as a polling place the nearest available building suitable for the purpose, and he shall post up and keep posted up a notice on the building fixed by the by-law, and in two other conspicuous places near by, directing the voters to the place chosen as aforesaid. 55 V. c. 42, s. 489 (1*b*).

(12) An election shall not be irregular or void or voidable, for the reason that a polling subdivision which contains more than 200 voters has not been divided, provided it does not contain more than 300 voters. 55 V. c. 42, s. 489 (1*c*) Election not to be voided if subdivision is wrongly formed.
